

SHARK BITES

STEWART BART FARLEY, goalkeeper. Played at University of Vermont. Has also played in MISL with Detroit Lightning and in NASL with the Detroit Express. Hobbies — tennis, raquetball, running, golf.

HARRY LAVENTURE, DEFENDER. Veteran of several seasons in Professional soccer, having starred with New Jersey Americans of the American Soccer League when that team won title. also active in fast soccer circles in New York City area.

PANAGIOTIS PETE CHRISTOPOULOS, defender. Played for national Youth team in his native Greece in strong competition and later played collegiate soccer in United States in Illinois and was NJCAA All-American. Collects photos, swims, plays table tennis.

ROLAND MITCHELL, defender. For a period of four years, Roland was kicking the ball for Rutgers University in New Brunswick, N.J. and doing it well enough to be named captain as a denior. Enjoys photography and swimming.

MARK BRYANT, defender. Played two years with Sacramento Gold, including "79" ASL title team. Performed for Chico State and Chabot Junior College. Likes all sports but especially skiing on the big slopes of the U.S.

JANEK MIKULSKI, midfielder. At 32, senior member of Sharks. Played on youth and first division teams in his native Poland and since coming to U.S. has played with Hartford of MISL. Interested in pictures and music.

SANDJE IVANCHUKOV, midfielder. U.S. Youth team and Pan American team selection. Three years Tampa Bay and San Jose (NASL). Took part in Soccer Bowl tilt with Rowdies. Plays tennis, racquetball and backgammon.

RAMIRO BORJA, forward. This young man, whose brother plays in NASL for New York Cosmos, is the youngest member of the New England Sharks' squad at 19. Played at Rutgers University two years. Participates in many sports.

JEAN BAPTISTA, midfielder. National Team of Haiti before joining the ranks of the Miami, Fla. Americans of ASL and the Phoenix Ariz. Inferno of MISL. Soccer is main love in sports and otherwise spends considerable time enjoying new areas with family.

LEN MERCURIO, forward. Came up through amateur ranks in R.I. to enter University of Rhode island and set all time marks for career goals, 52, and total points, 74. Spends liesure time playing tennis or surfing.

STEVE REID, forward. Active soccer career with N.J. Americans (ASL), N.E. Tea Men and Phila. Fury (NASL), and Phila. Fever (MISL). Will return to latter team at end of current season. Likes to play golf and tennis in spare time.

EYAL AFGIN, midfielder. A native of Israel, Eyal has played for the National Team there and this year was in the Macabee Games. Played youth soccer in Israel. A devotee of music and enjoys reading a good book.

PAUL TOOMEY, defender. Veteran player having played with Portland Timbers and San Jose Earthquakes of the NASL as well as Hartford Helions of the Major Indoor League. Paul also was on U.S. Olympic team. Poker, golf, tennis enthusiast.

ANGRIK STEPANOW, midfielder. From youth soccer in New Jersey area, moved on to Hartwick College where ASL scouts recommended him to N.J. Americans. Was on title team with Americans. Likes to hike, jog and play tennis.

FERNANDO SANTOS, forward. Player for Academica in native Cape Verde Island. Was with Portugal National Youth team and then moved up to higher circles in Portugal. Star in Southern New England Super Soccer Tournament with Casa Verde Restaurant team. Likes tennis.

PAUL STEVENSON, defender. Son of Brown University head coach. Played at Brown, was all-New England in '78. Later played with Dallas Tornado (NASL) and Pennsylvania Stoners (ASL). Golf, fishing and water skiing are his favorite pastimes.

PIERRE BAYONNE, defender. Performed for the Haitian National Soccer team and took part in the World Cup when competition was played in West Germany. A lover of music when he is not kicking ball about a soccer pitch.