ALLENTOWN JETS VS. ROCHESTER ZENITHS NOVEMBER 19, 1978

NEXT HOME GAME: The Baltimore Metros, leaders of the Southern Division of the CBA, invade the Dome Arena on November 22 in a 7:30 game. Leading the Metros attack are guards Tim Claxton and Galen Baker. Claxton, a 6'4" sharpshooter from Temple is currently averaging 28.4 points per game. Baker, a 6'3" playmaker is shooting at a 24.8 clip. Sylvester Cuyler, their 6'8" forward, leads the team with 10 rebounds per game.

TICKET OUTLETS: Tickets for all future Rochester Zenith games can be purchased at the following outlets: P & P Records (1395 Hudson Avenue and 2520 Main Street West), J & L Recreation (55 N. Main Street, Brockport), all Record Theatre locations, Hill TV, Muxworthy's Team Sports (563 Titus Avenue), and the Dome Arena. Ticket prices are $5.50, $4.50, $3.50 and $2.00.

SPONSOR OF THE NIGHT: The Kaufman Insurance Agency located at Twelve Corners in Brighton, lives by its motto "Insurance designed for YOU". Arthur Kaufman, C.L.U. has over 30 years of experience in the life insurance field and was awarded the highest honor given by the Rochester Life Underwriters in 1975, recognizing his lifelong "dedication and service to his community and clients".

Son, Mike Kaufman, runs the property and casualty division of the Kaufman Agency, emphasizing service and competitive price to their ever-growing clientele.

The Kaufman Agency specializes in "total account service", enabling their clients to have one agent handling all their insurance needs in one office, a must in today's ever-changing market.

SCUTTI PONTIAC PLAYER OF THE NIGHT CLINT CHAPMAN

Clint Chapman, reserve center for the Zeniths, has been named Scutti Pontiac Player of the Night for his performance against Lancaster on November 11. Clint came off the bench to ignite a rally as the Zeniths rebounded from a 17-point deficit to defeat the Red Roses.

CBA PLAYER OF THE WEEK: GEORGE BERRY, ALLENTOWN JETS

George Berry, a 6'7", 220 pounds forward out of the University of New Mexico, has been selected as the Continental Basketball Association's Player of the Week.

As a member of the Allentown Jets, George totaled 58 points and 30 rebounds in the field. Berry leads the league in rebounding (15.2 per game) and steals (4.5 per game), and is among the leaders in scoring (27.5 points per game).

Although a few years out of college, Berry is embarking upon his first season in the CBA.

CBA NOTES

When Wilkes-Barre's Rich Cornwall hit on a 3-pointer with only two seconds left in the Barons' home game against the Lancaster Red Roses (Wed. Nov. 8), the game was stopped and the nine-year CBA veteran was presented with an award. The 3-pointer was number 300 in Cornwall's career and it earned him a free suit from The Hub Men's Shop in Wilkes-Barre....Andre McCarter, the former UCLA playmaker and a one-year NBA veteran with the Kansas City Kings, has piled up a large number of assists with the Rochester Zeniths. Presently, Andre leads the league in that category with 9.8 per contest and his one-game best of 16 is also tops in the CBA....Bruce (Soup) Campbell, the former Providence star, is off to a fine start with the Wilkes-Barre Barons. In his first two games, Bruce totaled 45 points and 21 rebounds...Former St. Bonaventure star Greg Sanders is another impressive newcomer to the CBA. After two games, Greg is averaging 17 points per contest....The Rochester Zeniths won two of their three games this week and Larry McNeill was a big reason. The former Marquette star and NBA veteran picked up 69 points and 29 rebounds in the three contests, hitting on 59% (26 for 44) of his shots from the field....The Wilkes-Barre Barons Bill Terry also had a fine week. Terry, the CBA's Rookie-of-the-Year last season, compiled 99 points and 11 assists in the Barons' three games, finishing a very close second to Allentown's George Berry for the Player-of-the-Week.
