BASEBALL CLUB INC

Greetings!

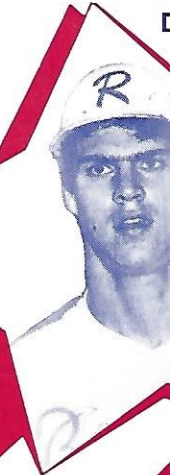

The Pawtucket Red Sox, in cooperation with the International League welcome you to the 1977 All Star game. The League's first All Star game was played at Toronto in 1956 against the Milwaukee Braves and tonite marks its 22nd Anniversary.

Many great major leaguers, past and present, have performed in the International League over the years and many of the players you will see tonite will perhaps take their places among baseball's best in the not too distant future.

The Pawtucket Red Sox are honored to host tonite's game, played for the first time ever in Pawtucket, and, in our first year of new operation. We are also honored to have as our opponents, the Boston Red Sox, our Major League Affiliate, so please sit back and enjoy professional baseball at McCoy Stadium.

GAME TONIGHT

I.L. Stars vs. Boston Red Sox at McCoy Stadium, 7:30 p.m.

Don't strike out!
Make the team...
Go Navy.

If you haven't got a skill, you probably won't get to first base. That's where the Navy can help. With big league training in over 70 career fields. Like electronics. Radio communication. Aviation structural mechanics. Computers. And many more, depending on what you want and what you qualify for. You'll have to hustle to earn your keep. But that's always the way when you make the first team. And along the way, there'll be time to travel, make some good friends...and earn the best pay and benefits in Navy history. If a challenging, rewarding career is what you've been looking for...look to the Navy. And come in for a tryout. We'll tell you the score even before you enlist.
