HERSHEY ENTERTAINMENT AND RESORTS

TED J. KLEISNER, President and Chief Executive Officer

Ted J. Kleisner is President and CEO of Hershey Entertainment & Resorts Company.

Prior to his being named President/CEO, Mr. Kleisner was President and CEO of the Greenbrier Resort and Club Management Company and President & Managing Director of The Greenbrier in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. A third generation hotelier, Ted graduated with a B.S. degree in Business Administration from the University of Denver School of Hotel, Restaurant & Tourism Management. He started his hotel career in 1967 with Albert Pick Hotels Corporation in Chicago, Illinois. He then joined Hilton Hotels Corporation and moved through general management positions in Ohio, Missouri, Georgia, and Texas. Ted began his association with The Greenbrier in 1980 as Director of Operations.

In 1994 The Greenbrier Resort and Club Management Company developed The Greenbrier Golf Resort & Club in Shirakawa, Japan, through a license and technical services agreement.

In 1999, following the sale of the Grand Teton Lodge Company to Vail Resorts, Ted oversaw a joint venture (owned 80% by the management company) to develop 6,000 acres of The Greenbriers extensive estate. Following the success of the development companys first real estate venture, Ted and joint venture partners expanded into club management and real estate development in the United States, the Commonwealth of the Bahamas, Turks & Caicos Islands, and Bermuda. Additionally, Ted expanded the company into the resort retail business with the founding of Station A Retail Management. Station A now owns and operates 35 shops at The Greenbrier and provides retail consulting to other resorts and destinations including The Broadmoor, the Boca Raton Resort & Club, Amelia Island, and Anheuser Buschs Kings Mill Resort.

Unique to Teds hospitality career has been his relationship with the federal government. While providing strategic leadership, management oversight, and direction to The Greenbrier and all properties managed by The Greenbriers Resort and Club Management Company, Ted also had 10 years of oversight responsibility for a top-secret federal government project. "Project Greek Island" was a 112,000 square-foot nuclear bomb shelter constructed 70-feet beneath The Greenbriers West Virginia Wing. The shelters purpose was to serve as the relocation site for members of the U. S. House of Representatives, Senate, Supreme Court, and associated staff and dependents in the event of nuclear war. In a broader context, Project Greek Island was to guarantee the survival of the legislative and judicial branches of the U. S. government, and thus maintain the country as a constitutional republic with the freedoms it guarantees. The Greenbrier held title to the facility through an agreement with the government and the site was maintained and operated by the infrastructure and employees of The Greenbrier. Teds responsibility, specified in an unrecorded and classified lease, was to provide and guarantee all maintenance and operating capabilities of the facility, to meet regularly with government officials to establish and implement operating and capital budgets, and to work with a handful of federal workers whose responsibility was to covertly oversee the care and 24/7 functionality of the site, all of which required that Ted maintain a Top Secret level security clearance from the Department of Defense. Overtly, these federal employees worked as audio-visual specialists for The Greenbrier. The facility was closed and declassified in 1995. Ted is also a member of the Confrerie de la Chaine des Rotisseurs, the Society of Bacchus and is the only honorary member of The Gridiron Club of Washington DC, Washingtons oldest and most prestigious journalistic organization. He serves on, and is past Chairman of, the AH&LAs Resort Committee and is a member of its Governmental Affairs Committee. Ted also serves on the Executive Advisory Board of the University of Denver, Daniels College of Business.

An avid golfer, Ted was elected in 1998 to membership in The Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland. He and his wife of 35 years, Karen, reside in Hummelstown, Pennsylvania.

HERSHEY BEARS MANAGEMENT

DOUG YINGST, President and General Manager

HERSHEY BEARS President/GM Doug Yingst enters his 29th season with the organization in 2010-11, after overseeing the team's 11th Calder Cup championship last season. HERSHEY'S back-to-back titles in 2009 and 2010, as well as the club's win in 2006 have all come under Yingst's stewardship and the team's affiliation with the Washington Capitals. Working in tandem with Washington VP/GM George McPhee, Yingst once again brought the front line talent and necessary roster depth to central PA as the BEARS defeated the Texas Stars four games to two in the 2010 Calder Cup Finals. It marked the first time in AHL history a team rallied to win after losing the first two games of the series at home, and for Yingst, it was his fourth Calder Cup victory. The four championships tie an AHL record, jointly held by several, including Frank Mathers.

The BEARS have recorded the best five-year run in American Hockey League history, winning three titles and advancing to a fourth Final appearance in 2007. With no fewer than 27 teams in the league during that time, the Chocolate and White have played hockey in June four times since 2006. For his efforts, Yingst was presented with the Thomas Ebright Award, given for outstanding service to the AHL. Yingst also claimed the James Hendy Award in 2006, presented to the outstanding executive of the year in the league. He is only one of four men in league history to win the award twice.

During the current affiliation agreement with the Capitals, the BEARS posted an American Hockey League record 60 wins in 2009-10, and also won a then-franchise record 51 games in 2006-07 under current Washington head coach Bruce Boudreau. The agreement between the two franchises has not only produced many players for the NHL level, but also two members of the coaching staff that have worked closely with Yingst. Boudreau was promoted in November, 2007 to become Washington's head coach, and Bob Woods was named the team's assistant coach in the summer of 2009. Woods claimed the 2009 Calder Cup title, following in Boudreau's footsteps soon after. Current head coach Mark French then won the 2010 title, the third straight coach under Yingst to win a title.

Yingst has been HERSHEY'S President/GM since the 1998-99 season, and represents the club on the AHL's Board of Governors. In 2010-11, he was named the chairman of the league's Executive Committee, and has served previously as chairman of the AHL's Competition and Marketing Committees. Yingst was first named HERSHEY'S general manager in 1996-97, winning the Calder Cup in his first season with new job responsibilities. From 1991-96, he was the Assistant GM/Director of Hockey Operations for the team, and from 1988-91 served as Assistant General Manager under the legendary Frank S. Mathers. Yingst began his long run in the HERSHEY organization as the sales and promotions director in 1982, and also won the AHL's Ken McKenzie award in 1988, given annually by the AHL to the person judged to have done the most to promote his team.

One of Yingst's greatest accomplishments in hockey came in February of 2000, when his HERSHEY Jr. BEARS hockey team won the 2000 Quebec Cup in Quebec City. It was a feat repeated in February of 2009 and again in February, 2010 when the Jr. Bears repeated as Quebec Cup champions, the same two years that HERSHEY won back-to-back Calder Cup titles. Often compared to the Little League World Series in the United States, the Quebec Pee-Wee International Cup tournament brings more than 100 youth hockey teams to Quebec City every year.

Yingst has been called into service from time-to-time as HERSHEY'S assistant coach, most recently in 2007 when Bruce Boudreau was named head coach of the Washington Capitals. In 2003, with head coach Mike Foligno hospitalized, Yingst teamed with interim head coach Paul Fixter to win Game 3 of the 2003 Western Conference Quarterfinals over the Chicago Wolves. It was also the first playoff game win for the BEARS in Giant Center history.

A terrific all-around athlete, Yingst is a charter member of the Palmyra High School Sports Hall-of-Fame. He was inducted into the Central Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame in November of 2000 for his outstanding athletic career both on and off the field. Yingst starred for Palmyra High in football, basketball and baseball, captaining all three sports and was a Big 33 nominee. He was named all-Lebanon County in each sport, and played hockey at the same time. Yingst also played college football and continued playing hockey with the Johnstown Jets. He is an alumnus of Lebanon Valley College, and is also an active member of USA Hockey, serving as a coaching director.

Yingst resides in Derry Township with his wife Sharon. They have four sons.

JOHN WALTON,
Senior Manager of Communications

Longtime “Voice of the Bears” John Walton begins his ninth season behind the microphone as the team’s radio and television broadcaster. The 2010-11 season moves Walton into second place all-time in HERSHEY history in games behind the microphone, surpassing longtime BEARS voice and current Tampa Bay Lightning radio broadcaster Dave Mishkin.

One of the longest tenured broadcasters in the American Hockey League, Walton will call his 1,000th American Hockey League broadcast on January 26, 2011 against Springfield at Giant Center. The winner of the 2004 James H. Ellery Award for his radio work by the AHL, Walton celebrated his first Calder Cup championship behind the microphone in 2006 as the Bears defeated the Milwaukee Admirals four games to two at the Bradley Center in Wisconsin. Walton and WHTM-TV sports director Gregg Mace called the action on the telecast back to central Pennsylvania when the BEARS claimed their ninth Calder Cup title on June 15, 2006. He also called the action of the 2009 and 2010 back-to-back Cup winners for the Chocolate and White, making him the only current broadcaster in the American Hockey League to call the action of three Calder Cup Champions. The 2010 telecast of HERSHEY’S win over the Texas Stars, featuring Walton’s play-by-play work, was carried nationwide by NHL Network, and also shown live on Comcast SportsNet Mid-Atlantic in Maryland, Washington, D.C. and Virginia.

Prior to his arrival in Hershey, Walton served as the public address announcer for the Cincinnati Reds from 1996-2002 at Riverfront Stadium/Cinergy Field. He announced over 500 Major League Baseball games during his time in the Queen City, including the 1999 one-game playoff between the Reds and the New York Mets that determined that season’s final playoff participant. In a span of less than three weeks in 2002, he was at the microphone for the final game in Riverfront Stadium history and the first game ever played at Giant Center. During his time in Cincinnati, he also was the first play-by-play voice of the AHL’s Cincinnati Mighty Ducks from 1997-2000, and also served as a sports anchor for 700 WLW Radio, the region’s number one news/talk station. He began his hockey broadcasting career at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where he was the Voice of the Redskins from 1994-1996, and also announced football and basketball at WRBI-FM 103.9 in Batesville, Indiana in 1996. In addition to sports, Walton also was a disc jockey at WOXY-FM in Oxford, a station recognized by Rolling Stone Magazine four times in the 1990’s as one of the magazine’s “15 Best Radio Stations”. During his college days, Walton was sports director of Miami University’s WMSR-AM, and worked with current Fox Sports host Chris Rose and current St. Louis Blues broadcaster Chris Kerber while in Oxford.

It was his tie with Kerber that opened the door in 2008 for Walton’s National Hockey League debut. On December 18, at the invitation from his buddy from college, Walton called the second period for St. Louis against Washington on KMOX-1120 and the Blues Radio Network from Verizon Center in Washington. Walton worked on the broadcast with former NHL enforcer Kelly Chase.

A Columbus, Ohio native who grew up in the shadows of the University of Minnesota, Walton lives in Lancaster with his wife Julie, and has a daughter Kelsey and son Jack.

BOB ANCHARSKI,
Season Ticket Sales Manager

Bob Ancharski begins his seventh season with the BEARS as the teams season ticket sales manager, responsible for season ticket sales and account management.

A lifelong BEARS fan, Ancharski is also an accomplished baseball player. A two-time member of the Patriot-News Big 11 baseball team, he was once one of the most feared hitters at York College. Ancharski smacked 14 home runs and drove in 65 RBIs in 2001, both offensive records that still stand at York. He is second all-time in Spartan history in Home Runs in a career (26), and fourth all-time in RBIs (141).

Beyond HERSHEY Entertainment and Resorts Company, Ancharski is a member of the central Pennsylvania Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation Board of Directors. He is an instrumental part of organizing the Foundations yearly gala to raise money for Juvenile Diabetes research. A graduate of Hershey High School and York College with a degree in Sport Management, Ancharski lives in Harrisburg with his wife Carrie and daughter Elyse.

MARIA STOUFFER, Business Services Manager

Maria Stouffer enters her eight season in the BEARS front office as the teams administrative office manager as well as the teams youth hockey coordinator.

Stouffer has many facets to her job description with the team, including handling the day-to-day administration of the club and administrative support for the President/General Manager. She is the primary contact for the clubs popular Rink of Dreams and Youth on Ice programs that skate at GIANT Center before BEARS games during the season, and also manages the bulk of the teams travel arrangements when the team is on the road. The unsung hero of HERSHEY'S trip through the Calder Cup Finals, Stouffer was primarily responsible for coordinating all last minute travel arrangements.

A member of the Board of Directors for the Hershey Jr. Bears Youth Hockey Association, Stouffer lives in Hershey with her husband Dave and her two sons Alec and Tanner.

JANET DISE, Group Sales Manager

Janet Dise begins her fifth season as HERSHEY'S group sales manager, but she is no stranger to HERSHEY Entertainment and Resorts company. Dise began working for HE&R in November, 1994 as HERSHEY PARKS Sales Manager and Assistant Director of Sales. Her current responsibilities include overseeing all group sales efforts and programming for the team.

Dise is a 1985 graduate of Franklin and Marshall college in Lancaster, where she captained the field hockey team in her senior season. Dise lives in Annville with her husband Kurt and daughter Skylar.

HERSHEY BEARS COACHING STAFF

MARK FRENCH, Head Coach

Mark French begins his second season as HERSHEY'S head coach after being named the 23rd bench boss in team history on July 13, 2009. His first season as head coach behind the bench at Giant Center was nothing short of remarkable, leading the Chocolate and White to an American Hockey League record 60 wins, numerous franchise records and a Calder Cup championship.

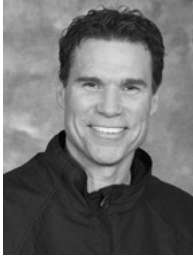

While the BEARS had won 10 Calder Cups prior to French taking the controls, none of the 10 prior to last season can compare to the records and achievements that his team produced. On French's watch, HERSHEY piled up a franchise record 123 points and won an American Hockey League record 60 games in the regular season. The Chocolate and White were unbeatable at home at midseason, winning 24 straight games from late November to mid March. Overall, the BEARS won 34 home games, another AHL record. Under French, the BEARS also won a franchise record 26 road games, won a franchise record 12 games in a row, and went storming into the 2010 Calder Cup playoffs as the undisputed favorite to win the title. French's team proved the regular season was no fluke, winning 16 more games to win the Calder Cup four games to two over the Texas Stars. The BEARS became the first team in AHL history to win a championship when losing the first two games of the finals, speaking to the resiliency of French's team. HERSHEY also won an AHL record eight overtime games in the 2010 Calder Cup playoffs, and allowed the fewest shots (7) in a single playoff game in league history (against Bridgeport in Game 5 of the East Division Semi-Finals). It was without question, the best debut of a head coach in the 75-year history of the American Hockey League.

French served as assistant coach under Bob Woods, first joining the BEARS on January 2, 2008. With Woods and French at the helm, the BEARS won 49 games during the regular season prior to winning the team's 10th Calder Cup championship in June, 2009. Prior to his tenure in HERSHEY, French was the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Wichita Thunder (CHL) from 2005 to 2007. He was responsible for player recruitment and contract negotiations with players while with the Thunder, and also managed the team's operating budget. French also served as assistant coach of the Atlantic City Boardwalk Bullies (ECHL) during the 2004-05 campaign when the team put up a 42-21-9 record. Mark's coaching resume isn't just limited to pro hockey, as he also walked the bench at Wilfred Laurier University (CIS) and was the assistant coach/assistant general manager of the North Bay Centennials from 1999-2002 in the Canadian Hockey League.

French played college hockey at Brock University in St. Catherines, Ontario, serving as captain for three years there and received the prestigious "212 Degrees" annual award all four seasons, presented to the athlete who demonstrates leadership, commitment and excellence on the ice.

A native of Milton, Ontario, French lives in HERSHEY with his wife Kimberly and children Ellie and William.

TROY MANN
Assistant Coach

Troy Mann begins his second season in HERSHEY, named as the team's assistant coach on July 13, 2009 under Mark French. His first season in Chocolatetown was literally one for the record books, as the BEARS won a combined 76 regular and postseason games to win the 2010 Calder Cup. Mann oversaw a penalty kill unit that ranked number one in the AHL during the regular season, and along with Mark French, piloted the team into the 2010 Calder Cup playoffs as the number one seed. HERSHEY'S win over the Texas Stars in the 2010 Calder Cup Finals marked the first time that Mann won an AHL title.

Mann comes to HERSHEY after serving as associate head coach of the Charlotte Checkers (ECHL) in 2008-09. Prior to his stint with the Checkers, Mann was the head coach of the Columbia Inferno (ECHL) for two seasons from 2006-08. Under his guidance, the Inferno advanced to the third round of the 2008 ECHL Kelly Cup playoffs.

As a player, Mann won the ECHL's Kelly Cup while playing for the Mississippi Sea Wolves in 1998-99. He was a teammate of current Washington Capitals assistant coach Bob Woods that season, and the pair both played for current Capitals head coach Bruce Boudreau during that championship run. Mann scored a career-high 33 goals for Mississippi during the 1996-97 campaign.

Mann is a native of Campbellton, New Brunswick. He and his wife Lori and daughter Larissa live in Harrisburg.

HERSHEY BEARS TRAINING STAFF

DAN "BEAKER" STUCK, Head Trainer

Dan "Beaker" Stuck enters his 27th season with the HERSHEY BEARS in 2010-11, having seen five Calder Cups during his tenure as the team's head trainer.

Stuck's affiliation with the team dates back to 1977, when at the age of 12, he served as one of the team's locker room assistants. Stuck became HERSHEY'S assistant trainer in 1983, and then took a year away to become the assistant equipment manager for the NHL's Philadelphia Flyers. The following season, in 1985-86, he was named HERSHEY'S head trainer, a position he has held ever since.

The 2010-11 Calder Cup title that the BEARS claimed over the Texas Stars was nothing new for the man they call "Beaker". He also has witnessed championships in 1987-88, 1996-97, 2005-06 and 2008-09 under John Paddock, Bob Hartley, Bruce Boudreau and Bob Woods. Mark French became the fifth head coach in team history to win a Cup with Stuck as his head trainer. In all, Dan has worked with 16 different head coaches under the Chocolate and White flag. The list of coaches and players that Stuck has walked the bench with rivals any such list in professional hockey among training staff.

Stuck's main responsibilities with the team include working with team doctors and dentists to decide the best course of action and treatment for the players, and assisting BEARS management with travel accommodations away from Hershey. In addition to his duties with the BEARS, Stuck is also the head trainer for all entertainment shows at HERSHEY PARK.

Stuck lives in Palmyra with his wife Janice, his son Dustin and daughter Alexis.

JUSTIN KULLMAN, Equipment Manager

Justin Kullman enters his eighth season in 2010-11 as the team's equipment manager, having been originally named to his current post during the summer of 2003.

The grandson of late BEARS great Arnie Kullman, Justin has now been on staff for three Calder Cup championships, the most recent coming this past June when HERSHEY defeated the Texas Stars four games to two. His grandfather is one of the most celebrated players in BEARS history, having notched 619 points during his 12-year career in the Chocolate and White. Justin surpassed his grandfather in Cups won with the 2010 title, as Arnie won two during his career in 1958 and 1959.

Kullman is one of the most veteran equipment managers in the league, having teamed with Dan "Beaker" Stuck for the last eight seasons. He played for BEARS President/GM Doug Yingst and the HERSHEY Jr. BEARS Quebec team, as well as many seasons in the HERSHEY area minor hockey association. A graduate of Lower Dauphin High School, Kullman played hockey for the Falcons and ranked among the team's leading scorers.

Kullman lives in South Hanover Township.

THIS DATE IN BEARS HISTORY

August 7th: On this date in 1990, HERSHEY named Jay Feaster the club's new general manager, replacing the legendary Frank Mathers.

September 29th: On this date in 2002, the BEARS opened training camp with head coach Mike Foligno at the helm for his fifth season. It marked the first time since 1977 and only the fourth time in franchise history that a HERSHEY bench boss held the post for at least five consecutive seasons. (Don Penniston, Frank Mathers and Chuck Hamilton were the other three).

September 30th: On this date in 1994, the BEARS played the club's first regular season game in September, opening up with a 5-4 loss on the road against the Providence Bruins.

October 4th: On this date in 1997, the irony was thick at Copps Coliseum as the defending Calder Cup Champion BEARS lost the season opener 2-0 to the Hamilton Bulldogs. HERSHEY defeated Hamilton for the Cup in the 1997 playoffs with J.F. Labbe in goal, and it was Labbe in net for Hamilton on this date as the BEARS were shutout north of the border to begin the following season.

October 5th: On this date in 1996, the BEARS and the Philadelphia Phantoms met for the first time, with HERSHEY winning 2-1 at HERSHEY PARK Arena. The BEARS killed off 8 Phantom power plays in 8 chances as J.F. Labbe earned his second win in as many nights to open the 1996-97 season. Also on this date in 1974, the BEARS played an exhibition game at HERSHEY PARK Arena against the NHL's Minnesota North Stars. The North Stars got a goal from Bill Goldworthy and beat the BEARS 6-4.

October 6th: On this date in 2000, the BEARS spoiled the debut of the Norfolk Admirals in the American Hockey League. Goaltender Frederic Cassivi made 31 saves as HERSHEY defeated Norfolk 3-1.

October 7th: On this date in 1993, Steve Konowalchuk scored four goals for Portland in a 6-2 win over the BEARS at HERSHEY PARK Arena. HERSHEY has not allowed four goals to any one player since then.

October 8th: On this date in 1995, left winger Scott Morrow scored two goals and assisted on two others as the BEARS beat the visiting Carolina Monarchs 6-3 at HERSHEY PARK Arena.

October 9th: On this date in 1982, goaltender Al Jensen recorded an opening night shutout in a 6-0 whitewash of the Rochester Americans at HERSHEY PARK Arena.

October 10th: On this date in 1999, Serge Aubin recorded a hat trick as the BEARS defeated the Hamilton Bulldogs 4-3 at HERSHEY PARK Arena. There were 9 stoppages for fog clearance that night.

October 13th: On this date in 1956, the Frank Mathers era began in HERSHEY as the BEARS beat the Providence Reds 3-1 at HERSHEY PARK Arena. Mathers was the player-coach in this first season, and it was the first of 35 years that Mathers would be in the BEARS organization.

October 14th: On this date in 1981, the BEARS and the Adirondack Red Wings combined for the most penalty minutes in a single game in BEARS history. HERSHEY earned 256 minutes worth of penalties, while Adirondack amassed 264 PIM's for a whopping total of 520 total penalty minutes. By the way, Adirondack won the game 7-4 at HERSHEY PARK Arena.

October 15th: On this date in 2003, the BEARS rallied from three goals down in the third period to defeat the St. John's Maple Leafs 5-4 at Mile One Stadium. Gavin Morgan scored at 7:49 of the third, Shane Willis at 11:30, Brad Larsen at 17:35 and Steve Brule won it at the 18:00 mark. The win was also the first regular season victory for head coach Paul Fixter.

October 16th: On this date in 1995, center Jim Montgomery scored three goals in the third period against Portland goaltender Mike Torchia, rallying the BEARS to a 6-5 come-from-behind win against the Pirates at the Cumberland County Civic Center in Portland.

THIS DATE IN BEARS HISTORY

October 17th: On this date in 1992, Len Barrie scored four goals in a 10-4 victory over the New Haven Senators at HERSHEY PARK Arena. It's the last time a Bear scored four goals in a single game.

October 19th: On this date in 2002, the BEARS ushered in a new era with the opening of GIANT Center. The new 10,500 seat facility saw the BEARS defeat the Rochester Americans 4-1. Cail MacLean forever etched his name in club history by scoring the first goal in GIANT Center history, and Phil Sauve earned the first win in the new building over Rochester's Tom Askey.

October 20th: On this date in 1998, BEARS team president Jay Feaster left the club to become the assistant general manager of the NHL's Tampa Bay Lightning. Doug Yingst, HERSHEY'S General Manager, added the title of President.
