Terrence M. Pegula, Owner

Back in 1983, Terry Pegula told his business partner Robert H. Long, Jr., “If I ever have more than two nickels to my name, I’m going to buy the Buffalo Sabres one day.” Now, almost 30 years later, Terry’s dream has come to fruition.

On Feb. 22, 2011, Pegula became the fourth owner in Buffalo Sabres franchise history. On the day Pegula was introduced as owner, the Sabres were 27-25-6 and sat in ninth place in the Eastern Conference - five points out of a playoff spot. Pegula’s purchase not only reenergized the fan base, but the players as well. With Pegula now at the helm, the Sabres went on a 16-4-4 run over the final 24 games of the season to finish seventh in the East. This included a 9-1-2 record at home, and HSBC Arena – which quickly became known as “Pegulaville” – was sold out for all 12 games of the new era of Sabres ownership.

Soon after purchasing the Sabres, Pegula explored the idea of acquiring the Rochester Americans, the AHL team that had previously spent 29 years as the Sabres’ affiliate before a three-year hiatus. On June 24, 2011, the Sabres announced the reunification of the Western New York teams.

Pegula’s interest in the NHL began when the Sabres faced the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1975 Stanley Cup Final. His affection for the “French Connection” Line began with that series, and led to his affinity for the Sabres franchise. While operating East Resources Inc. in Western New York and Pittsburgh throughout the 1980’s and 90’s, and living in Vestal, Olean and Orchard Park during that span, Terry first bought season tickets at the Memorial Auditorium in 1980. He remained a loyal Sabres season ticket holder for the next 18 seasons.

Born in 1951 and raised in Carbondale, PA, he attended high school at Scranton Preparatory School. Pegula entered Penn State University as a Math major, but in order to stay in school he entered the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering program through a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973, and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co., a decision that first brought him to Olean, NY, in 1975.

In 1983, he borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to found East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and development company. Over the next 27 years, he built it into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc. for $4.7 billion (US). That sale allowed the Pegulas to make their first foray into the hockey world.

On September 17, 2010, Terry and his wife, Kim, donated $88 million to Penn State University – the largest private gift in the history of the school – to fund a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose arena, a world-class practice facility and help to establish an NCAA Division I men’s hockey program. Thanks to their generosity, Penn State is now able to add both men’s and women’s varsity hockey teams, and they will both begin play in the 2012-13 season. The building will include two ice sheets, and serve as the only major ice facility within an 80-mile radius of State College. In addition to providing hockey and figure skating opportunities for the entire Central Pennsylvania region, it will also be used for a broad range of campus and community activities. With design and construction meetings being held currently, Penn State hopes to break ground on the University Park campus for the Pegula Ice Arena later this year.

Terry and Kim currently reside in Boca Raton, FL, and have five children: Michael (33), Laura (29), Jessica (17), Kelly (15) and Matthew (12). Pegula’s younger daughters, Jessica and Kelly, were both born in Buffalo. A native of nearby Rochester, NY, Kim Pegula is a 1991 graduate of nearby Houghton College with a degree in Communications, and was involved with East Resources since 1991. Together they have also founded Black River Music Group, a country music label based in Nashville, TN, and Ayrault Sports Agency based in Charlotte, NC.

Theodore Black, President & Alternate Governor

As president of the Buffalo Sabres, Ted Black oversees all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the franchise, with specific focus on making the Buffalo Sabres the premier destination for NHL players and a first-rate environment for the Sabres' current and future employees. In addition, Ted provides strategic and creative leadership in areas including corporate partnerships, advertising, NHL relations, team marketing, Sabres' television broadcasts, fan relations and ticket sales.

With the 2011 reunification of the Sabres and the Rochester Americans, Ted became the President for the AHL team as well. His plan is to bring the same vision and the same goals to the Amerks as he has to the Sabres, with the ultimate goal of winning championships at both levels.

Over the last decade, Ted has compiled a track record of success and experience that few sports executives can match. Ted is an accomplished leader who contributed to and presided over unprecedented growth with both the Pittsburgh Penguins and FSN Pittsburgh. He enjoys close relationships with top executives, corporate sponsors, professional sports teams, television networks and at the National Hockey League.

In late 2010, Terry Pegula enlisted Ted to undertake the task of assembling and leading the group of professionals to advise Mr. Pegula on the acquisition of the Buffalo Sabres. Ted's responsibilities included guiding the transaction negotiations, due diligence and NHL approval process.

Previously, Ted served as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of FSN Pittsburgh, a regional sports television network that produced and telecast more than 220 live pro events and 1,500 hours of programming per year. Under Ted's executive leadership, FSN Pittsburgh grew advertising revenues every year and televised a record number of live pro events. The station also generated record revenues, record earnings, record ratings and was widely recognized as the top-rated US-based Regional Sports Network in the National Hockey League.

Prior to his tenure at FSN, Ted was a member of Mario Lemieux's senior management team and served as Vice President of the Pittsburgh Penguins from 1999 to 2008. Ted was a member of the core group of executives that helped Lemieux execute one of the most successful franchise transformations in the history of professional sports. Ted was intimately involved in all senior executive-level decisions and strategic planning concerning the marketing, branding, sales and overall business operations and management of the team. In addition to being a key strategist during the Penguins' efforts to get a new arena, Ted served as the day-to-day project leader for the new arena during the pre-construction phase of the project. He also interviewed and helped to recruit Ray Shero to become the club's General Manager. Ted was active with the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins and served as the team's Alternate Governor to the AHL.

In 2005, Ted was honored and recognized by Pittsburgh Magazine as a "Forty Under Forty" community leader. He served as Chairman of the American Heart Association's 2011 Buffalo Niagara Heart Walk and was Honorary Chairman of the 19th Annual Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Niagara County Charity Golf Tournament.

Ted is a 1987 graduate of Allegheny College and he received his J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 1990. Ted now lives in Buffalo with his wife, Amy, and their two hockey-playing sons, Andrew (19) and Nathan (16).

Darcy Regier, General Manager

The 2011-12 season will be the 15th year Darcy Regier serves as General Manager for the Buffalo Sabres, the longest tenure of any GM in the 41-year history of the franchise. The Sabres have posted a regular season record of 526-390-150 under Regier's guidance, while also advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1999 and making four Eastern Conference Finals appearances (1998, 1999, 2006 and 2007). Regier and head coach Lindy Ruff form the longest-serving GM/ Head Coach combination in pro sports, and have had more success than any tandem in franchise history.

Regier and his scouting staff have consistently built a solid foundation of talent, year after year, through the NHL Entry Draft. Proof of their drafting success can be seen every time the Sabres take the ice. In the 2010-11 season, nine of the team's top 12 goal scorers were acquired through the Entry Draft and have spent time with the team's AHL affiliates. This list includes

Thomas Vanek, Derek Roy, Jason Pominville and Drew Stafford – all of whom later signed long-term contracts with the Sabres.

The long-term success of Regier's draft picks can often be spotted early, as his draft picks have made a habit of scooping up numerous AHL awards while playing for the Sabres' affiliate teams. AHL award-winners have included three consecutive AHL Rookie of the Year winners: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11); AHL Goaltender of the Year, Ryan Miller, for the 2004-05 season and 2011 AHL Defenseman of the Year, Marc-Andre Gragnani. His draft selections have gone on to win awards at the NHL level as well, with Miller being awarded the 2010 Vezina Trophy and 2008 first-round selection Tyler Myers winning the Calder Trophy that same year.

Regier has found a lot of success in the earlier rounds of the draft. Buffalo's roster includes several players who were drafted in the first or second round since Regier's first draft in 1997, including: Vanek (1st, 2003), Roy (2nd, 2001), Pominville (2nd, 2001), Myers (1st, 2008), Ennis (1st, 2008) and Stafford (1st, 2004). Each of these early-round draft picks was among the top eight goal scorers on the team during the 2010-11 season. Regier and his staff recently secured another early-round pick, Jhonas Enroth (2nd, 2006), to a two-year deal this offseason.

Productive players have also been found in later rounds, from veterans like Miller (5th, 1999) and Paul Gaustad (7th, 2000), to youngsters such as Gerbe (5th, 2005) who has already made an impact in the organization. Gerbe joined Sabres draft pick, Andrej Sekera (3rd, 2004), in signing a multi-year deal during the offseason.

The hockey department's success hasn't been limited to their hard work on draft day. Several trades and free agent signings this offseason have landed Buffalo exceptional talent for the upcoming season. This summer saw Regier aggressively bolster the defense by acquiring Christian Ehrhoff and Robyn Regehr. The Sabres acquired Regehr along with seasoned veteran Ales Kotalik, who last played with the Sabres in the 2008-09 season. Forward Ville Leino was also acquired through free agency and signed a multi-year deal during the offseason.

Prior to joining the Sabres, Regier served in roles with the New York Islanders as Director of Hockey Administration, Assistant Coach, and Assistant General Manager. While on Long Island, he supervised the club's amateur development, and saw their International Hockey League affiliate win back-to-back championships (Denver Grizzlies in 1994-95 and then, after moving to Salt Lake City, the Utah Grizzlies in 1995-96). Legendary Islanders coach Al Arbour, along with Bill Torrey, who served in roles as General Manager, President, Chairman of the Board and Consultant with New York, were significant contributors to Regier's career in hockey. Regier left the Islanders organization briefly in the 1991-92 season to serve as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers.

Born in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Regier was the fifth choice (77th overall) of the California Golden Seals in the 1976 Amateur Draft. He appeared in 26 NHL games over the course of three seasons with the Cleveland Barons and the New York Islanders, totaling two assists and 35 penalty minutes. Regier played parts of eight seasons of professional hockey and was a member of three championship teams. In 1982, he was named a First Team All-Star with Indianapolis (IHL), where he learned from one of the people he considers an influence on his hockey life, current Detroit Red Wings Senior Vice President Jim Devellano, then the team's general manager.

During his playing career, Regier was also involved in the early setup of the Professional Hockey Players' Association.

Darcy and his wife, Katherine, reside in Clarence and have three sons: Jonathan, Justin and Jarrett.

Robert Kopacz, Vice President of Business Operations

Rob Kopacz was named Vice President of Business Operations for the Rochester Americans Hockey Club on June 29, 2011 upon owner Terry Pegula's purchase of the team. In this role, Kopacz oversees all business-related activities of the club.

Prior to joining the Amerks organization, Kopacz worked for the Buffalo Sabres from 2000 to 2011. During his tenure with the Sabres, Kopacz oversaw the marketing efforts for the Sabres, Buffalo Bandits (National Lacrosse League) and other athletic events held at HSBC Arena. He joined the club in 2000 as Director of Advertising and Promotions before being elevated to Director of Marketing and was eventually named Vice President of Marketing. Kopacz spearheaded the marketing efforts for several historic events and seasons, including the NHL's inaugural Winter Classic on New Year's Day in 2008 between the Sabres and Pittsburgh Penguins at Ralph Wilson Stadium, the 2011 IIHF World Junior Championship in Buffalo, and the Sabres' Presidents Trophy-winning season of 2006-07.

Kopacz began his career in sports with the Rochester Rhinos soccer club in 1998, leading the organization's marketing department for three successful seasons. During each of his three years with the Rhinos, Rochester led the A-League in attendance while playing at Frontier Field. In that time, the Rhinos won two A-League Championships (1998, 2000) and the 1999 U.S. Open Cup Championship.

A graduate of SUNY Geneseo, Kopacz resides in Rochester with his wife, Barb, and their three sons, Aidan (10), Owen (8) and Evan (6), each of whom are active in local youth hockey, soccer and lacrosse programs.

Ron Rolston, Head Coach

Ron Rolston enters his first season as Head Coach of the Rochester Americans in 2011-12 after being named to the position on July 27, 2011. He is the 29th Head Coach in the history of the Amerks franchise.

Rolston joined the organization after spending the previous seven seasons as a head coach with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program (NTDP), where he led the U.S. Under-18 team to three gold medals and a silver medal in four stints as head coach at the International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) World Under-18 Championship, including the 2011 tournament in Germany. During the 2010-11 season, he also led Team USA to titles in the 2011 Five Nations Tournament and in the 2010 Four Nations Cup. In addition, Rolston's U.S. National Under-18 Team posted a 12-9-1-2 (W-L-OTL-SOL) record in United States Hockey League play in 2010-11, helping the NTDP reach the USHL postseason for the first time. In June, he received the 2011 Bob Johnson Award from USA Hockey, which recognizes excellence in international competition during a season.

The longest-tenured and most decorated head coach in NTDP history, Rolston guided his teams to five medals and multiple tournament championships in international competition. He is the only coach in U.S. history to win three gold medals in the Under-18 World Championship (2005, 2009, 2011). His team also captured a silver medal in the 2007 Under-18 World Championship. Rolston's teams never missed a championship game in either of the two major NTDP tournaments – the IIHF World Under-18 Championship and the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge.

The 44-year-old Rolston joined USA Hockey after serving as an assistant coach at four different NCAA Division I hockey programs between 1990 and 2004, winning National Championships in 1992 and 1994 with Lake Superior State University. Rolston was an assistant coach at Boston College from 2002-04 and also served as the top assistant at Harvard University from 1999-2002 and as an assistant coach at Clarkson University (1996-99) and Lake Superior State University (1990-95).

In addition to winning two national titles at Lake Superior State, Rolston also helped guide the team to three straight appearances in the NCAA National Championship game and four CCHA tournament titles in his five-year stint. He was elevated to associate head coach for the Lakers in 1994. Rolston's younger brother, 16-year NHL veteran Brian Rolston, was a member of the 1992 and '93 squads that Ron helped coach.

Rolston achieved success with the U.S. National Under-17 team during the 2009-10 campaign, by leading the squad to its first World Under-17 Hockey Challenge title since 2002. He had previously led the Under-17 Team to two second-place finishes (2006, 2008) at the tournament.

In 2008-09, Rolston led the U.S. National Under-18 Team to first-place finishes at both the 2008 Men's Under-18 Four Nations Cup in Lake Placid, N.Y., and 2009 Under-18 Five Nations Tournament in Sweden. Team USA finished with a 15-1-0-1 record against international opponents and a 13-13-1 mark against NCAA opponents. The 13 wins against college foes marked an all-time high for an Under-18 team in a single season.

In addition to coaching at the Under-18 and Under-17 levels, Rolston also served as head coach for the U.S. National Junior Team on two occasions. In 2007, he led Team USA to the bronze medal at the IIHF World Junior Championship in Sweden. He was also behind the bench during the 2009 IIHF World Junior Championship in Ottawa.

A native of Fenton, Mich., Rolston attended Michigan Tech University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in business management and was a three-year hockey letterman with the Huskies (1986-89), serving as an alternate captain during his senior season. Rolston was the co-recipient of the Norbert Matovich Memorial Award as Michigan Tech's most outstanding freshman in 1986-87.

As a volunteer, Heyman is responsible in providing assistance for the day-to-day care of the team's equipment needs, preparing the locker room on game days, fulfilling the needs of on-ice officials and providing guidance and instruction to the game-night equipment staff.

Jody Gage, Director of Strategic Planning

Jody Gage serves as the Director of Strategic Planning in the Amerks' front office, where he has worked since the 1995-96 season. The role is Gage's fourth with the organization, having previously served as Assistant General Manager, General Manager and Director of Player Personnel during his tenure in the front office following his retirement as a player.

During Gage's 13 seasons as the team's general manager, he saw nine teams reach the finals (three hockey, six lacrosse). The Amerks advanced to the Calder Cup Finals in 1999 and 2000, and the Rochester Knighthawks (National Lacrosse League), a team for which he served in the same capacity, reached the National Lacrosse League Finals in 1999, 2000 and 2003 – and won the 1997 Major Indoor Lacrosse League title and the 2007 National Lacrosse League crown. Gage was also the Assistant General Manager when the Amerks won the 1996 Calder Cup.

Gage also served as the general manager of the Rochester Rattlers of Major League Lacrosse and in eight seasons saw the team advance to the MLL Semifinals in 2001, 2004, 2005, 2007 and capture the Steinfeld Cup in 2008.

In 2007, he assembled a Knighthawks team that won a league record 17 games and suffered only two losses. Rochester also won 15 straight games, second most in NLL history, en route to the championship. The K-Hawks also finished first in the league in goals (249), power-play goals (67), power-play percentage (58.77%) and shorthanded goals (23). The Knighthawks also finished second in penalty-killing percentage (62.50). Rochester won 12 straight games to close the regular season and tied for the best single-season record by any team since the NLL switched to the 16-game schedule.

In 1998-99, the AHL awarded him the James C. Hendy Award as the league's outstanding executive. Gage assembled a team that won both the AHL Empire Division Championship and the Western Conference Championship and earned a berth in the 1999 Calder Cup Finals. The 1998-99 Amerks broke franchise records for most wins (52) and most points (111), and league records for fewest goals allowed (176) and fewest road goals allowed (86). In 2004-05, the hockey team rewrote the record books, setting franchise records for points (112), shutouts (9) and consecutive wins (17). That Amerks team also won the regular season points title, while wrapping up the North Division and Western Conference.

Gage received one of the highest honors of his career in 2006, as he was inducted into the inaugural class of the AHL Hall of Fame. He joined legends Johnny Bower, Jack Butterfield, Fred Glover, Willie Marshall, Frank Mathers and Eddie Shore. The ceremony was conducted at the 2006 Rbk Hockey American Hockey League All-Star Classic in Winnipeg, Manitoba (January 31st to February 1st).

In January of 2010, Gage, along with former Knighthawk greats Randy Mearns and Paul Gait, were enshrined into the Knighthawks Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2010. With the honors, Gage enters the Hall of Fame as the only person to now grace the Hall of Fames for two Rochester professional sports teams: the Knighthawks and the Rochester Americans. Gage served as the general manager for 12 seasons and built the Knighthawks into a lacrosse dynasty (1997-2008). He had a hand in drafting future superstars John Grant, Casey Powell, Curt Malawsky, Josh Sanderson and Colin Doyle. He also was a masterful GM when it came to trades, acquiring such notable players as Mike Accursi, Chris Schiller, Steve Toll and Shawn Williams during his tenure.

Because his name is synonymous with AHL stardom, he was able to acquaint himself quickly with his peers off the ice and away from the field, and it did not take long for him to earn a reputation as a well-respected, savvy hockey GM. In his first season, Gage's team captured the Amerks' first division title since the 1990-91 season, making him the first Amerks' GM in team history to win a division title in his inaugural season.

It was no surprise that he achieved success, having been involved with three Calder Cup championship teams during his pro career. He was a member of the Adirondack Red Wings Calder Cup team in 1981, the Amerks squad in 1987, and was Rochester's Assistant GM when the Amerks secured their sixth Calder Cup in 1996, having retired during the season due to lingering knee ailments.

Originally a third-round draft selection (45th overall) of the Detroit Red Wings in the 1979 NHL Entry Draft, the Toronto native spent six seasons in the Detroit organization before signing a free-agent contract with the Buffalo Sabres on July 31, 1985. Gage would spend the rest of his career in the Sabres and Amerks organizations, signing his final contract with the Amerks on August 23, 1995, just a few months after Steve Donner purchased the Rochester club from Buffalo in June 1995.

Jody Gage, Director of Strategic Planning

Dubbed “Mr. Amerk” during his 11-year career in Rochester, Gage finished as the Amerks’ all-time leader in goals, assists, points and games played. He holds the Amerks’ record for game-winning goals in one season (9, 1987-88) and goals/points by a right wing in one season (60/104, 1987-88). Gage is one of just three players to record 500 career AHL goals and 1,000 career AHL points, and his 17 AHL seasons tie him for third in league history. Some of his other AHL accolades include the 1987-88 AHL MVP award and a berth on the First Team All-Star squad. He also earned AHL First Team All-Star honors following the 1985-86 and 1990-91 seasons, a place on the AHL’s All-Time Team in 1992 – as chosen by the media – and selection as the U.S. Team Captain for the AHL All-Star Game in 1995. Gage also holds AHL records for the two fastest short-handed goals in one game (8 seconds, 3/25/89), the most 40+ goal seasons (7), and the most playoff goals (51) in AHL history.

In 1999, he was inducted into the Amerks Hall of Fame. On March 19, 1999, Gage and Dick Gamble had their No. 9 retired, joining Norm “Red” Armstrong as the only players in team history to receive that honor.

Gage (born 11/29/59) resides in Chili with his wife Charlotte. The couple has a son, Ryan, and a daughter, Stefanie. Jody is an avid and accomplished golfer, when he can find the time. He also enjoys spending time with his family.

Don Stevens, Broadcaster

This season marks Don Stevens' remarkable 26th season as the "Voice of the Rochester Americans." Stevens has seen many changes in the AHL since he first put on the headphones and called his first Amerks game at the old Rochester War Memorial. Known as the "Dean of AHL Broadcasters," Stevens has witnessed the expansion of the league to an all-time high 30 teams and the explosion of media coverage of the AHL.

The Amerks' broadcaster has served the team in numerous capacities: public relations director, TV host, radio talk show host, and TV and radio play-by-play broadcaster. In addition, Stevens founded the AHL Broadcasters/Writers Association and served as its president.

The "Voice of the Amerks" calls games on WHTK 1280-AM and FM 107.3, in addition to calling all Amerk home games live on Time Warner Cable SportsNet. He teamed up with color analyst and former Buffalo Sabre Ric Seiling to bring AHL games to the city of Rochester and around the country. Stevens also had the distinction of covering the Amerks on multiple occasions over the NHL Network, introducing Amerks hockey on both a national and international level.

In 2009-10, Stevens called Rochester's historic 2,000th franchise win as the Amerks joined an elite club, becoming just the second team in the American Hockey League and eighth overall in North American hockey history to capture the feat. He was also behind the microphone for five of the 10 goals scored by an AHL goaltender, most recently this past season when Binghamton's Chris Holt became the 10th netminder in league history to score a goal with his empty-netter against Rochester.

Stevens' most memorable season with the organization, however, came during the 2010-11 campaign, his 25th with the red, white and blue. Stevens' several years of dedicated service to the club was acknowledged with his enshrinement in the team's prestigious Hall of Fame as the Class of 2011. As the 50th member of the Hall, Stevens joins an elite group of individuals whose tireless contributions and commitment to the franchise matches those of the original 1956 Rochester Americans.

From 1996-2009, Steven maintained a dual role while also serving as the broadcaster for the Rochester Raging Rhinos (United Soccer Leagues First Division). With the Rhinos, Stevens was part of back-to-back regular season championships (1998-99), three A-League championships in four years (1998, 1999 and 2001), the 1999 U.S. Open Cup and 14 consecutive playoff runs during his tenure. In 1998, he even covered an Amerks hockey game and the Rhinos' championship game on the same day.

Throughout his career, he has received numerous awards for his work on radio and television. In 1993-94, he won the AHL's James H. Ellery Award, given to the person that has made outstanding contributions to the progress of the AHL, for his work on the Amerks Radio Network. Stevens has also won a national ACE Award for Cable Excellence as the host of the weekly television show, "Amerks Report," and received the Rochester Press-Radio Club's Louis MacMillan Award for sportscasting excellence. In 2003, he was inducted in the Frontier Field Walk of Fame in the media category. The Walk of Fame is located inside Frontier Field and features the names of fans, players, contributors and media throughout Rochester's sports history.

With the Amerks, Stevens has broadcast seven Calder Cup Finals and the Spengler Cup in Switzerland, winning a pair of Calder Cup championships in the process. Stevens has taken the AHL to its highest level during the course of his career and has shown his true professionalism by working with younger broadcasters in the league. Each season he has made it a point to "promote the Rochester Americans and the American Hockey League," from his seat in the radio booth to the podium at numerous charity events like the Cystic Fibrosis Golf Tournament.

During his career, broadcasting has taken the Wainwright, Alberta, native all over the United States, Canada and Europe. He has worked in such markets as Seattle, San Diego, Salt Lake City, Phoenix and Rochester.

THE DON STEVENS' FILE: Top Five Most Memorable Moments

- 1.) "My first season was 86-87, and there was a memorable moment in my very first game at the War Memorial. Shane Churla (Binghamton) went up on the stage after some of the fans."
- 2.) "Since then, there have been lots of memorable moments. One of the best was going to the championship in my first year and winning it at Sherbrooke, and coming home to the thousands of people at the airport at 4:00 in the morning."
- 3.) "That same season at Binghamton, beating the Rangers on the last night of the season in a shootout, to win the regular season championship."
- 4.) "Going to the finals seven times in my first 14 years in Rochester is just an incredible statistic."
- 5.) "Calling the first ever goal scored by a goalie by 'shooting' it directly into the net (Darcy Wakaluk in Utica), about a week before Ron Hextall did it (for the Philadelphia Flyers). In fact, I called the first four goalie goals in league history - two for (Wakaluk & Robb Stauber) and two against."

Rob Crean, Director of Public Relations

Buffalo Sabres History of Affiliation

Rochester Americans - Established 1956

After three seasons with the Portland Pirates, the Buffalo Sabres renewed their affiliation with the Rochester Americans for the 2011-12 season. With the reuniting of the two organizations, the Sabres and Amerks will begin their 30th season together, one of the longest relationships between an NHL team and its AHL affiliate.

The Amerks are entering their 56th season in the American Hockey League and the team will once again be an essential pipeline for future Sabres stars. The Sabres current roster is filled with 13 former Amerks, including Ryan Miller, Thomas Vanek, Jason Pominville and Drew Stafford.

It was during the 1979-80 campaign that the two organizations first formed a professional hockey partnership. Billy Inglis was the first head coach of the Amerks during the affiliation. Future coaches would include Mike Keenan, Joe Crozier, Jim Schoenfeld, Don Lever, John Van Boxmeer, John Tortorella, Brian McCutcheon and Randy Cunneyworth. Both Keenan (New York Rangers, 1994) and Tortorella (Tampa Bay Lightning, 2004) went on to coach NHL teams to Stanley Cup victories.

Over the 29 years of affiliation, the Amerks have compiled a record of 1,137-932-238-13 in 2,320 regular season games and captured nine regular season titles. During that period, the Amerks have captured three Calder Cup Championships (1983, 1987 and 1996) and have advanced to the Calder Cup Finals six times.

The Sabres and Pirates enjoyed a successful three-year affiliation (2008-09 to 2010-11), with the Pirates compiling a 131-79-16-13 overall record and two consecutive 100+ point seasons, including a first-place finish in the Atlantic Division in 2010-11. During the three-year span, three Pirates players were named Dudley "Red" Garrett Memorial Award winners, an award given to the AHL's most outstanding rookie: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11).

Besides the Sabres, the Amerks have been affiliated with the Montreal Canadiens, Toronto Maple Leafs, Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks and Florida Panthers.

The Blue Cross Arena at the Rochester War Memorial

The downtown Blue Cross Arena enters its 56th season as home of the storied American Hockey League Rochester Americans.

The Rochester War Memorial opened to the public on October 27, 1955, and has since hosted two AHL All-Star Games (1957, 2000), 16 Calder Cup Finals, one NLL All-Star Game and one NLL Final in its history.

In addition, the War Memorial hosted its first professional game for the National Basketball Association's Rochester Royals on November 5, 1955.

The first hockey game played in the War Memorial took place later that month as the Buffalo Bisons faced off against the Montreal Canadiens on November 21st. Montreal's Maurice "Rocket" Richard scored the first goal at the War Memorial 54 seconds into the first period.

The Rochester War Memorial became known as The Blue Cross Arena after its $40 million renovation was completed during the 1998-99 season. During the 2002-03 season, the $1.25 million Constellation Video Board was installed to add the crown jewel to the downtown entertainment center.

Besides hosting AHL and NLL games, the arena also hosts major college basketball games, cheerleading competitions, and youth lacrosse and hockey games.

Building Timeline

- 1880: Kimbal Tobacco Factory opens on the present site of the War Memorial. William Kimbal's wife disliked the dirty smokestack and instead placed a 21-foot statue of the Roman God of Commerce, Mercury, atop the building.
- 1905: The Kimbal Tobacco Factory closes and Cluet-Peabody & Co. take over the building. They begin manufacturing collars and shirts.
- 1924: The property is purchased by George Eastman and later left to the University of Rochester by Mr. Eastman for "municipal purposes." One plan proposed for an 8,000 seat Auditorium and Opera Hall, situated on the once tobacco factory site. The University later gives the property to the city. The site begins to operate as a City Hall Annex and public library.
- May 23, 1945: Plans for a grand Civic Center Arena are revived following World War II. The Rochester City Council directs a citizens committee to study, "the possibilities for constructing and financing such a memorial within the Civic Center."
- July 19, 1945: The committee concludes that the memorial should have enduring civic usefulness. Also the structure should be, "a living memorial rather than a mere commemorative monument."
- The committee recommends that the building contains an auditorium, sports arena, physical recreation facilities, meeting rooms, and display rooms, among other things. Estimate for construction, $2.5 million.
- 1951: Kimbal Tobacco Factory is demolished for the construction of the War Memorial. The statue of Mercury is removed and placed into storage (until 1974).
- October 18, 1955: Rochester Community War Memorial opens for business. Total cost, $7.5 million.
- 1974: The statue of Mercury, which once was located on the roof of the Kimbal Tobacco Factory, is reborn atop the West Group building where it still stands, across the street from its original home.
- March 13, 1996: Groundbreaking for a $41 million renovation/expansion takes place, which includes luxury suites, increased concession stands, additional restrooms, fully functional banquet/meeting rooms, and larger capacity seating.
- July 24, 1998: Blue Cross Blue Shield and City officials announce the name of the renovated arena will be Blue Cross Arena at the War Memorial.
- September 19, 1998: Although the arena continued to function throughout the renovations, the Blue Cross Arena at the War Memorial officially reopens to the public during a formal ribbon cutting/rededication ceremony.
- October 11, 2002: The BCA unveils the $1.25-million dollar Constellation Video Board. That night, Rochester ties the Albany River Rats 2-2.
- October 7, 2008: Owner and CEO Curt Styres and his sons, Wakeriat Bowhunter and Radowits Bowhunter, donate a bronze statue called "For Love of the Game" to The Blue Cross Arena and the City of Rochester.

Rochester Americans 50th Anniversary Team

Amerks 50th Anniversary Team

The Rochester Americans All-Time Team was announced on October 7, 2005, prior to the Amerks opening their 50th season of play in the American Hockey League. A 13-member panel sorted through nearly 1,000 names and selected 24 players and two coaches for the 50th Anniversary Team. The committee was comprised of season ticket holders, print and electronic media personnel and Amerks management.

The team included two coaches, two goalies, six defenseman and 12 forwards. The historic club also featured defenseman Don Cherry, right wing Jim Jackson, and left wings Les Duff and Bob "Battleship" Kelly in the Role Players category. The final four players were recognized for their commitment and dedication to the team.

The Amerks also let the fans play a role, letting them select the starting lineup through in-arena and on-line balloting. The starting six included goalie Gerry Cheevers, defensemen Don Cherry and Al Arbour and forwards Jody Gage, Dick Gamble and Bronco Horvath.
