Darnell Coles, Manager

#11

Darnell Coles enters his first season as the Huntsville Stars manager and third in the Brewers organization.

Prior to joining the Stars staff, he served as a hitting coordinator for the Brewers Minor League system for the past two seasons.

Coles spent four seasons in the Washington Nationals organization before joining Milwaukee's system. He served as hitting coach at Triple-A Syracuse in 2009 and manager with Class-A Hagerstown in 2008 and Class-A Vermont in 2007. He spent the 2006 season as the Nationals' roving hitting instructor.

The Stars manager had a lengthy 14-year Major League playing career with Seattle (1983-85, 1988-90), Detroit (1986-87, 1990), Pittsburgh (1988), San Francisco (1991), Cincinnati (1992), Toronto (1993-94), St. Louis (1995) and Colorado (1997). In 957 games, he hit .245 with 75 HR and 368 RBI.

Originally selected by the Mariners in the first round of the 1980 draft, Coles went on to become one of only 14 players, including Babe Ruth, to hit three home runs in a single game in both the American League and National League. He was also an ESPN baseball analyst from 2001-06.

Coles and his wife Shari have three children, DeAnna, Darnell Jr. and Jared, two grandchildren and reside in Safety Harbor, Florida.
