MONARCHS MINUTES

THEY'RE BAAAACK!

The Manchester Monarchs are back in action and have officially dropped the puck at the Verizon Wireless Arena for their 13th year in the Jungle! After a stellar 3-0-0-1 record in their first four games on the road, the team looks to improve not only their record for the season but their record in Home Openers. Over the last 12 seasons, the Monarchs are 7-5-0-0 in their Home Openers, including a 1-2-0-0 record when hosting the Providence Bruins for the first game of the season in Manchester.

BABY B'S

The Monarchs and Providence Bruins have a long standing rivalry and will face each other 12 times this season. Manchester took game one last Friday night with a 3-2 shootout victory at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. Former Bruins and current Monarchs defenseman Andrew Bodnarchuk teamed up with right wing Brandon Kozun to bounce back from a two-goal deficit and push the game to a shootout. Goaltender Martin Jones stood tall stopping center Carter Camper, left wing Matt Fraser and center Alexander Khokhlachev. The only Bruins player to sneak past Jones in the shootout was center Ryan Spooner. Both Camper and Spooner led the Bruins against the Monarchs last season with three goals and seven assists for 10 points each. Kozun led Manchester with three goals and five assists for eight points against Providence during the 2012-13 season. The Bruins won the match-up last season with an 8-4-0-0 record against the Monarchs (4-7-0-1), but overall, Manchester has edged Providence with a record of 57-43-3-10 in 113 games since 2001.

PENGUINS ARE OUR FRIENEMIES

Contests with the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins have proven to be good showdowns over the years and Sunday's game is no exception. The Monarchs will welcome back former goaltender Peter Mannino and right wing Tom Kostopoulos. Mannino collected a 10-7-0 record with a 2.47 goals-against-average and a .919 save percentage in 20 games with the Monarchs last season. Kostopoulos will be returning to the Queen City for the first time since the 2004-05 season when he recorded 71 points (25-46=71) and a plus-30 rating in 64 games with the Monarchs. Since leaving Manchester, Kostopoulos has added to his NHL resume for a total of 630 games, 61 goals, 96 assists, 157 points and 723 penalty minutes with the Pittsburgh Penguins, Los Angeles Kings, Montreal Canadiens, Carolina Hurricanes, Calgary Flames and New Jersey Devils. The Penguins have had the Monarchs number over the years as Manchester has a record of 6-12-0-2 in 20 games against Wilkes-Barre/Scranton. To challenge the Monarchs current undefeated in regulation record of 3-0-0-1, the Penguins enter the weekend with an undefeated record of their own at 3-0-0-0.

TWO-FOR-ONE MEAL DEAL

The Monarchs are proud to partner with Jokers Bar, Grill & Arcade in offering a meal deal before the game! Bring your ticket to Jokers Bar, Grill & Arcade on South Willow Street and receive two meals for the price of one before any Monarchs game.
