INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 2019-20 edition of the ECHL Official Guide and Record Book.

Thank you to the media relations contacts for each of the ECHL teams and to the National Hockey League teams for their continued willingness to provide photographs of former ECHL players.

Director of Communications Joe Babik oversees the layout, design and production while also coordinating the content with each of the individual teams.

Director of Marketing and Licensing Todd Merton gathered all the sponsorship artwork. Freelance graphic artist Kim Brooks designed the covers for all of the ECHL publications including the Official Guide and Record Book.

Recognition of the key people who contribute to the ECHL Official Guide and Record Book wouldn't be complete without mentioning Doug Price who created the first edition, an 80-page publication in 1993-94.

Researchers and historians: contact the Society for International Hockey Research (www.sihrhockey.org).

We welcome comments and appreciate compliments from readers and media members and our goal remains to have the Official Guide and Record Book provide comprehensive information about the Premier 'AA' Hockey League.

Please enjoy the season and thank you for your interest and support of the ECHL.

Accuracy Remains A Top Priority for the ECHL Guide and Record Book.

We appreciate comments and clarification from our readers. Please direct these to: echl@echl.com or 116 Village Blvd, Suite 230, Princeton, NJ 08540

WELCOME FROM ECHL COMMISSIONER

Dear ECHL Fans,

Welcome to the 32nd year of ECHL Hockey and the exciting 2019-20 Season that lies ahead. This year we look to continue to build on the history and heritage that have made the ECHL the Premier 'AA' Hockey League in North America, with over 660 players having gone on to the NHL, and bringing affordable entertainment to millions of fans in our markets.

During the 2018-19 Season, the ECHL welcomed over 4.3 million attendees, and surpassed the 4,000 mark in average attendance for the 14th consecutive Season and the 27th time in the last 29 years. We pride ourselves on offering affordable entertainment to the communities we serve, welcoming sport fans, families, businesses, and groups of all sizes to enjoy an outing together and take in the exciting ECHL action and atmosphere for a combined first-class experience.

In addition, our Teams made an impact off the ice in their local communities as well, donating over $3.6 million to charitable and non-profit organizations during the 2018-19 Season, bringing the total amount donated in the last eight years to more than $34 million. This is on top of the countless hours our Players and front office staff dedicate to local schools, hospitals, and charities to become an integral part of the community. Last season, the Worcester Railers were awarded the first-ever ECHL Community Service Award for their efforts, and James Henry of the Adirondack Thunder received the Player Community Service Award for his commitment and work in the Glens Falls region.

On the hockey front, we congratulate the Newfoundland Growlers, who captured the Kelly Cup championship in their first season of existence in an exciting six-game series over the Toledo Walleye. Each game of the Finals was sold out, in addition to being broadcast on local television in both St. John's and Toledo for what was an unforgettable series in ECHL history.

The past 31 years have also allowed the ECHL to unquestionably become an integral part of the professional hockey player development process, as 662 players have gone on to play in the NHL after their time in the ECHL, including 20 who made their NHL debut in 2018-19. Furthermore, countless officials, coaches and front office staff have moved on to the AHL and NHL as they have used the ECHL to develop their career. For the 2019-20 season, 14 of the 31 AHL head coaches and over 40 coaches on NHL staffs have ECHL ties, with approximately one-third of the current on-ice officials in the NHL having spent time honing their skills in the ECHL.

The ECHL has been represented on the last 19 Stanley Cup Champions including in 2019 with St. Louis Blues' goaltender Jordan Binnington; Executive Vice President, Chief Revenue Officer Steve Chapman; Vice President, Broadcast and Content Development Chris Kerber; Assistant GM and Director of Amateur Scouting Bill Armstrong; Pro Scout Dave Farrish; Assistant Athletic Trainer Dustin Flynn and Equipment Assistant Andrew Dvorak. In addition, for the 30th Season in a row, the ECHL was represented on the AHL Calder Cup champion with eight players on the 2019 champion Charlotte Checkers.

The ECHL will have affiliations with over 25 NHL Teams in the 2019-20 Season, and representation from all of the 31 teams in the NHL over the course of the upcoming year, marking the 23rd consecutive year for affiliations with at least 20 teams in the NHL.

Thank you on behalf of the ECHL and all of our Teams for your continued support and we hope that you and those you attend with enjoy following your favorite ECHL club and making lasting memories around the ECHL experience.

Sincerely,

Ryan Crelin
ECHL Commissioner

Michael Houser of the Cincinnati Cyclones received the ECHL Goaltender of the Year award for the 2018-19 season. Houser went 29-7-5 with two shutouts in 41 appearances for the Cyclones, tying for the league lead in wins. He finished second in the ECHL with a 2.13 goals-against average and was fourth with a .922 save percentage.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS

Ray Harris
Chairman of the Board

Ray Harris enters his fifth season as the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors in the 2019-20 season. He has served as President of the Cincinnati Cyclones since the 2003-04 season, helping build the team into a two-time Kelly Cup champion and a five-time division champion, while setting several ECHL league-attendance records in the process.

Harris is Chief Financial Officer for Nederlander Company and is responsible for all aspects of the company's financial operations. He is also directly responsible for the management, marketing and sales business in Detroit and Cincinnati including negotiation of third-party contacts and new business opportunities. Harris joined Nederlander in 1984 as controller for several outdoor amphitheaters and in 1986 his responsibilities expanded to include negotiation of national sponsorship contracts for all Nederlander amphitheaters throughout the country. He assisted in negotiation and production of the radio broadcast and preseason television broadcast of the National Football League's Oakland Raiders from 1992-95. Harris was promoted to chief financial officer in 1995 and led the expansion and acquisition of several concert facilities, clubs, theaters and sports arenas. During his over 30 years with Nederlander, he has been intimately involved in every aspect of the entertainment industry and has served as a leader in evaluating acquisitions of entertainment and sports businesses. Harris received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Walsh College and worked two years in public accounting before joining Nederlander.

Ryan Crelin Commissioner

Ryan Crelin enters his second season as ECHL Commissioner in the 2019-20 Season. He is just the fourth person to fill the position in the League's 31-year history.

Crelin was named Chief Operating Officer of the ECHL on May 1, 2017, and in that role, oversaw all day-to-day business operations of the League. Crelin enters his 14th season with the ECHL after initially beginning his tenure as intern during the 2005-06 season.

During his time with the League, Crelin has been responsible for the overall operations of the League focusing on financial initiatives, Leaguwide partnerships/contracts, and signature League showcase events such as the annual All-Star Game and Marketing Meetings. In addition, he also has worked closely with teams on Leaguwide risk management, ticket sales/corporate sponsorship revenue generation, arena-lease negotiations, and budgeting/operations within the scope of the ECHL Collective Bargaining Agreement, NHL/AHL Affiliation Agreements and overall business model. Crelin led the marketing initiative in the ECHL/GEICO relationship creating the first of its kind blue-painted and branded goal posts, and secured the partnership with EA Sports for the inclusion of the ECHL in the NHL video game series.

Crelin earned his M.B.A. with a concentration in finance & taxation at Rutgers University in May 2010 after being awarded his bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in sport management & marketing from Seton Hall University in May 2006. At Seton Hall, he also served as president of the Sport Management Student Association, was a member of the National Business Honor Society and played ice hockey for the Pirates. Prior to joining the ECHL, Crelin worked for a Public Accountant near his hometown of Middletown, N.J. and currently resides in Belford, N.J. with his wife and family.

Patrick J. Kelly Commissioner Emeritus

Patrick J. Kelly was named Commissioner Emeritus of the ECHL following the 1995-96 season, after serving as Commissioner for the first eight seasons of the ECHL.

He was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame as part of the inaugural class in 2008, and in 2016, received the Lester Patrick Trophy for outstanding service to hockey in the United States.

Kelly celebrates his 67th season in hockey in 2019-20 having begun his career with the St. Catherine Tee Peees of the Ontario Junior Hockey League in 1953. He played professionally for the Trois Rivieres Lions in the Quebec League, the Troy Bruins of the International Hockey League and the Greensboro Generals, Jersey Devils and Clinton Comets of the Eastern Hockey League. He helped Crowland capture the 1948-49 Bantam B Championship of Ontario, beating Peterborough in the finals.

He began his coaching career in the Eastern Hockey League, serving as player/head coach beginning with the Jersey Devils in 1964-65 and continuing with the Clinton (New York) Comets from 1965-73. Clinton was 151-39-28 and won three straight regular season and postseason titles from 1967-68 through 1969-70. In 1967-68, the Comets finished with a 57-5-10 record, making them the only professional team in history to lose only five games or less in a season, and in 1969-70, Kelly was named Minor League Coach of the Year by The Hockey News. Kelly served as head coach and general manager for Charlotte in the Southern Hockey League from 1973-76 guiding the Checkers to a 136-68-12 record, two regular season titles and two postseason titles while earning Coach of the Year honors in the SHL twice.

He coached the Colorado Rockies in the National Hockey League in 1977-78 and is the only coach in history to lead the Rockies into the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Following coaching stops in the AHL, Kelly went to Peoria in the IHL where he led the Rivermen to the Turner Cup in his first season behind the bench in 1984-85. He recorded his 800th career win on January 4, 1987 and was inducted into the Peoria Sports Hall of Fame in February of 1990. Kelly was inducted into the Roanoke Hall of Fame and the Sports Hall of Fame in his hometown of Welland, Ontario in 1998, in March of 2002 he became the first inductee into the Greensboro Hockey Hall of Fame when the Generals retired his uniform number (5). He was also part of the first class of inductees into the Charlotte Hockey Hall of Fame in 2008 and in June 2010, he was inducted into the Greater Utica Sports Hall of Fame.

Patrick and his wife, June, reside in Charlotte, North Carolina.

Kelly received the Lester Patrick Award from USA Hockey in November 2016.

Dan Lynch
Vice President of Business Operations

Dan Lynch enters his second season as the ECHL's Vice President of Business Operations.

He is responsible for the overall business operations of the League focusing on finance, budgeting/operations, human resources, revenue generation and member team operations.

Lynch, a native of Buffalo, New York, joined the ECHL with eight years of experience in finance, sales and operations. He spent five years working for the Manchester Monarchs, the American Hockey League affiliate of the Los Angeles Kings. He held several positions within the organization and was most recently the Vice President of Business Operations for the Monarchs. During his time with the team he also worked to transition the Monarchs to the ECHL for the start of the 2015-16 season.

Lynch attended Ithaca College, where he received his bachelor's degree in business and was a member of the baseball team. He resides in New Jersey with his wife Caitlin.

Todd Merton
Director of Marketing and Licensing

Todd Merton is in his eighth season as Director of Marketing and Licensing for the ECHL.

He is responsible for corporate sponsorship and league-wide marketing initiatives while continuing to manage the ECHL Licensing Program consisting of more than 50 national and local licensees. Merton is also responsible for working in conjunction with the host team on the ECHL All-Star Classic and Hall of Fame ceremony as well as planning and directing the ECHL Sales, Marketing and Communications Meeting and coordinating all ECHL Board of Governors Meetings.

Merton, a native of Orangeville, Ontario, joined the ECHL with 17 years of experience in corporate sales, marketing, merchandising and game operations in professional sports. He previously spent four years in the ECHL as the Director of Corporate Sales, Merchandise and Game Operations with the South Carolina Stingrays as well as time with the Texas Stars of the American Hockey League and Florida Panthers of the National Hockey League. Merton got his start in sports working in baseball for both the Detroit Tigers and Toronto Blue Jays.

Merton attended Southern New Hampshire University, where he received his degree in Sport Management and was a member of the varsity baseball and lacrosse teams.

Joe Babik
Director of Communications

Joe Babik is in his 10th season as the Director of Communications for the ECHL after joining the league in March 2010.

Babik is responsible for the day-to-day communications efforts of the ECHL, including writing of press releases; oversight of the official league website, ECHL.com; assisting in the layout and design of ECHL printed publications, including the Official Guide and Record Book as well as ongoing contact with ECHL member teams and regional and national media outlets.

Babik joined the league office with seven years of experience in minor league hockey, including six in the ECHL. He began his career as the Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations with the Pee Dee Pride from 2001-05, while serving in the same capacity for the Fresno Falcons from 2006-2008. He was part of the radio broadcast crew for the 2004 ECHL All-Star Game in Peoria, Ill., and following the 2007-08 season, was named as the National Conference recipient of the ECHL Broadcaster of the Year Award. Babik also served a season as the Director of Broadcasting and Media Relations for the Adirondack Frostbite of the United Hockey League in 2005-06.

The Johnstown, Pa. native received his Bachelor's Degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University in 2001. While at Syracuse, Babik served as both a public relations and broadcast intern with the American Hockey League's Syracuse Crunch from 1998-2001. Babik and his wife, Cristen, reside in Ewing N.J. with their sons Elijah and Landon.

Gabby Sully
Manager of Social & Digital Content

Gabby Sully enters her first season with the ECHL as the League's Manager of Social & Digital Content.

Sully is responsible for assisting with the implementation of ECHL Media, creating and designing digital graphic and video content to fulfill digital strategy, creating written and digital content for ECHL.com and League social platforms and managing the ECHL's social pages.

She joins the ECHL after recently completing her Master's Degree in Global Sports Business at Rutgers University. Sully has previous experience with Taylor Strategy, MSG Networks, the Somerset Patriots baseball club, the 2018 IIHF World Junior Championship, the New York Islanders and the National Women's Hockey League. She earned her Bachelor's Degree in Public Relations from Hofstra University and Associate's Degree in Communications from Union County College.

Natalie Bernstein
Office & Marketing Manager

Natalie Bernstein is in her second season as the ECHL's Office & Marketing Manager after joining the League as the Executive/Marketing Assistant in February 2015.

Bernstein is responsible for assisting with office duties and management as well as assisting the Commissioner and marketing department on licensing, sponsorship program coordination and planning for League-hosted events. She also assists with the production of the League's Confidential Directory, Equipment Managers/Trainers Directory and Season Pass distribution.

Originally from Ashburn, Va., Bernstein graduated from James Madison University in 2014 with a bachelor's degree in sport and recreation management and a minor in business. While at JMU, she worked in the school's athletics' department for two years, assisting the Athletic Events and Facilities departments with game days and special events. Bernstein also completed an internship with the marketing department of the National Football League's Washington Redskins, where she assisted with sponsorship activation and community outreach programs.

Rich Bello
Director of Team Business Development

Rich Bello is in his seventh season as Director of Team Business Development for the ECHL. In this role, he is responsible for the sharing of best practices and ideas amongst all ECHL teams with a focus on fostering revenue growth through ticket planning and corporate partnership initiatives. In addition, he serves as the League liaison with team sales personnel, offering assistance, training and additional team services.

Bello joined the ECHL from Seton Hall University, where he had been the Director of Ticket Sales since November 2007. At Seton Hall, he was responsible for all new sales efforts for the university's men's and women's basketball teams, including full season, mini season and group plans. He also helped to conduct outbound marketing campaigns for basketball ticket sales. He developed the sales plan for the 2011 NCAA Men's Basketball Regional at the Prudential Center, which was hosted by Seton Hall, and was the highest attended of the four NCAA regional sites that year.

Prior to joining Seton Hall, Bello was an account manager for the New Jersey Devils, and was a leading salesperson on the staff that transitioned into the opening of Prudential Center for the 2007-08 NHL Season.

Bello graduated from Seton Hall University in 2006 with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in Sport Management. He earned a Masters of Arts in Strategic Communication from Seton Hall in 2011.

Todd Corliss
Director of Finance

Todd Corliss is in his 17th season as Director of Finance for the ECHL and is responsible for the accounting, budgeting and financial reporting for the league. In addition, he is responsible for the annual ECHL Financial Project as well as auditing for salary cap compliance.

He was Chief Financial Officer for the Long Beach Ice Dogs from 2002-06 and was responsible for the daily financial matters, including accounting, budgeting, general administration and workman's compensation as well as managing the merchandise, web site design and player immigration. He was Chief Financial Officer for the Texas Wildcatters from 2002-06 while serving in a similar capacity for the Johnstown Chiefs from 2003-05.

Corliss graduated from the University of Massachusetts where he received dual bachelor's degrees in finance and sport management. He and his wife, Amy, have four children, Grace, Ian and Connor and Shannon.

Joe Ernst
Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations

Joe Ernst enters his 29th season with the ECHL and second as Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations after spending the previous eight seasons as Vice President of Hockey Operations. Ernst, who worked 16 seasons as an on-ice official in the ECHL, the American Hockey League and the International Hockey League, is responsible for overseeing all day-to-day operations of the League's Hockey Operations Department and Officiating Department. He is also in charge of player supplemental discipline, and working with the ECHL Equipment Managers, Trainers and Game Operations staffs on all League-related details.

Ernst was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame as the first inductee in the Referee/Linesman category in 2011.

He was a member of the National Hockey League officials training program for seven years and worked three NHL preseason games. He is the only ECHL referee with more than 1,000 regular season games, refereeing 1,061 regular season games and over 200 postseason games, including three Riley Cups (1993-95) and six Kelly Cups (2002-07). He was selected to work as the referee for the ECHL All-Star Game in 1999 in Biloxi, Miss.

Stephen Thomson
Manager of Officiating

Stephen Thomson enters his second season as the ECHL's Manager of Officiating.

Thomson is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of the League's Officiating Department including oversight of on-ice officials, administration of rules and directives, travel and administration of officials, communications with the National Hockey League and American Hockey League on ECHL officials, and the ECHL Rule Book.

The 29-year-old spent four years as a referee in the ECHL, where he worked over 250 regular-season games in addition to being selected to work the Kelly Cup Finals in both 2017 and 2018 and the 2018 CCM/ECHL All-Star Classic in Indianapolis. Thomson also worked nearly 60 games in the American Hockey League.

Prior to joining the ECHL staff, the native of Canandaigua, New York spent three seasons as a referee in the Southern Professional Hockey League, where he worked the President's Cup Finals in 2015, and four seasons in the United States Hockey League, where he worked the Clark Cup Finals in 2013 and 2014.

Thomson also has extensive international experience, having worked the 2016 Men's World Championships – Division II Group B in Mexico City, the 2017 Men's World Under-18 Championship in Poprad and Spišská Nová Ves, Slovakia and the 2018 World Junior Championships in Buffalo.

Dan Petrino
Director of Hockey Administration

Dan Petrino is in his second season as the ECHL's Director of Hockey Administration after spending his first two seasons as Manager of Hockey Administration.

Petrino is responsible for the day-to-day administration of the ECHL Hockey Operations Department including the organization and release of team rosters, salary cap, player background and immigration matters while also overseeing all transactions and ongoing relations with the PHPA and other leagues.

Prior to joining the ECHL, Petrino spent three years with the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference, including the last year as the conference's Assistant Commissioner for Championships. He was responsible for the supervision of in-season and postseason competition for several MAAC sports as well as overseeing officiating operations within his assigned sports.

He joined the MAAC staff in August 2013 after graduation from Rider University, where he received a bachelor's degree in liberal studies and minors in the business of sports and communications. While at Rider, he worked in the school's athletic department, primarily in event and facility operations. He also was part of Rider's club baseball team, serving as vice president and president of the program.

Alex Loh

Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Alex Loh was named the third head coach in Adirondack Thunder history on July 18, 2018. He succeeded Brad Tapper, who accepted an assistant coach position with the American Hockey League's Grand Rapids Griffins. Loh, 34, spent the previous three seasons in Glens Falls serving under Tapper and the team's first head coach, Cail MacLean. The Morrisville, Vermont native was the assistant coach for the Thunder during the first two years of his tenure before receiving a promotion to associate coach prior to the start of the 2017-18 season. Prior to his time in Glens Falls, Loh spent three seasons on the coaching staff of the AHL's Portland Pirates. Loh also has experience coaching at the collegiate level with the Men's Division III program at Colby College and spent two seasons as the head coach of the varsity hockey program at Peoples Academy in Vermont from 2009-11. Loh and his wife, Desiree, are the parents of one daughter, Violet.

President

Jeff Mead was named as President of the Adirondack Thunder on July 1, 2017, adding on to his current position as General Manager of Cool Insuring Arena. A Glens Falls, N.Y. native, Mead returned to the area in 2015 as he took over the then named Glens Falls Civic Center as General Manager. Mead also serves on the Downtown Business Improvement District as the organization's treasurer and is a member of the Adirondack Regional Chamber of Commerce Leadership Program. Prior to joining the Civic Center, Mead had served as the General Manager of three entertainment complexes, most recently the Blue Sky Sports Center in Allen, Texas from 2012-15. Mead also served as the general manager of the Dr. Pepper Starcenters, the official practice rink of the Dallas Stars, for three years from 2009-12. From 1999-2009, Mead worked for Polar Ice Entertainment the operating company of the Dr. Pepper Starcenters, where he served as the General Manager and Regional Director of Operations. With Polar, Mead worked at several locations, including Grapevine, Texas, where he operated the facility, negotiated naming rights and helped to bring the Stars to the complex. Mead is a 1997 graduate of the State University of New York at Potsdam, where he lettered in varsity hockey for four seasons. Mead and the Bears won the 1996 SUNYAC Championship and reached the NCAA Division III quarterfinals in 1996. Prior to playing collegiate hockey, Mead won two New York State High School Hockey State Titles with Glens Falls High School. Mead is married to his wife Tracy with two children, Avery and Trevor.

Steve Martinson Head Coach

Steve Martinson, who joined the Allen Americans in 2012-13 as head coach and general manager, led the Americans to titles in each of his first four seasons behind the bench, capturing Central Hockey League championships in 2013 and 2014 before winning the Kelly Cup title in 2015 and 2016. He is one of just four coaches in ECHL history to win multiple Kelly Cup titles. Prior to Allen, Martinson coached the Chicago Express in their only season in the ECHL. A native of Minnetonka, Minnesota, he played professionally for 12 years spanning from 1981-96, at several different levels. Martinson played in 50 games in the National Hockey League, for parts of four seasons with the Detroit Red Wings, Montreal Canadiens and Minnesota North Stars. Martinson began his coaching career in 1996 with the San Diego Gulls of the WCHL, where he coached for nine seasons and over 600 games, winning five championships. During his ECHL expansion season in 2003-04 with San Diego, his club set an ECHL record for most points by an expansion team with 100 points. Following San Diego, he spent three seasons in Rockford of the UHL, where he won a championship with the IceHogs in 2006-07. In his 23 years of coaching, Martinson has failed to reach the postseason only twice. He enters the 2019-20 season sixth in ECHL history with 398 regular-season wins, tied for sixth with 720 games coached, and fourth with 92 postseason games coached and 49 postseason wins. Martinson was a tough, gritty player during his playing days, racking up more than 3,000 penalty minutes over his 14-year career. He holds the single season American Hockey League mark for most major penalties in a season with 49, in 1985-86. Off the ice, Martinson earned his Business Management degree in 1981, from St Cloud State University. Martinson and his wife, Michelle, reside in Illinois in the offseason along with their two children, Logan and Lily.

Matt Canavan
President

Matt Canavan returned to the Allen Americans for the 2017-18 season as the club's general manager overseeing business and hockey operations. He has spent over 20 years working in the sports and entertainment industry. Canavan got his start in the ECHL in 1993, working with the expansion Huntington Blizzard while attending Marshall University. Following the Blizzard, Canavan worked for the El Paso Buzzards in 1996-97 and they won the WPHL championship in the league's inaugural season. He later went on to the expansion Fort Worth Brahmas of the WPHL from 1997-98. He helped design and build the Blue Line Ice Complex, a three-sheet multi-purpose facility, now known as NYTEX, and home to the Texas Brahmas of the NAHL. Canavan worked in corporate partnerships for the Florida Panthers in the NHL from 2001-2003, highlighted by hosting the NHL All Star Game in 2003. Following the 2003 season with the Panthers, Canavan moved back to Texas for an opportunity to work for the Texas Tornado of the NAHL in the Dr. Pepper Star Center in Frisco, which opened in 2003. He spent five seasons with the Tornado, a team that produced three straight National Championships from 2004-2006. Canavan has eight championships under his belt during his career – seven as an executive, and one as a high school hockey coach. He resides in The Colony, Texas with his wife Tracey, daughter Kate and son John.

Jeff Pyle

Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Jeff Pyle returned to the Gladiators for his second stint as head coach for the 2018-19 season, after previously serving in that role from 2003-11. Pyle's coaching career began when he was named head coach of the Mobile Mysticks in 1998 and remained at the helm until 2002. After four seasons in Mobile he assisted with the team's move to Gwinnett County for the Gladiators' inaugural season in 2003-04. Pyle led the Gladiators to the playoffs in each of their first six seasons, including an appearance in the 2006 Kelly Cup Finals. Following the 2010-11 season, Pyle moved on to the American Hockey League, as head coach for Texas Stars. Pyle returned to the ECHL with the Evansville IceMen for the 2013-14 season. He then went on to coach in the Southern Professional Hockey League for two years with the Evansville Thunderbolts, before returning to the Gladiators. Prior to his coaching career, he played professional hockey for 12 seasons, earning team Most Valuable Player honors nine times and was selected to the All-Star Team on seven occasions. His best season came during the 1986-87 season, when he was named the International Hockey League MVP. He earned the honor by scoring 49 goals, while leading the league with 87 assists and 136 points as a member of the Saginaw Generals. Pyle scored 100 or more points six times during his career, including a career-high 53 goals in the 1982-83 season.

Jerry James
President

Jerry James, a native of Fresno California, brings an extensive background in professional sports to the Gladiators. James, who finished his first year with the Gladiators during the 2018-19 season as the Group Sales Manager, led the department to record highs in revenue. The success led to him being named the new President for the 2019-20 campaign. Before joining Atlanta, he spent a decade on the highest level of minor league baseball, working at Triple-A for the Fresno Grizzlies. During his stretch with the Grizzlies they were affiliated with both the San Francisco Giants and the Houston Astros organizations. James earned some hardware for his hard work with four championship rings. He won two World Series Rings with San Francisco, one with Houston, as well as a Pacific Coast League championship with Fresno. While with Fresno, he served as the team’s Assistant General Manager and Vice President of Revenue. James developed many aspects of the team’s business approach, focusing on corporate partnerships and community alliances. The always committed James spends most of his off time working with community non-profit organizations.

Spiros Anastas
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Spiros Anastas enters his first season as Brampton's head coach after being named to the position on July 17, 2019. The 34-year-old had his first professional head-coaching experience last season, leading the South Carolina Stingrays to a 35-31-6 record and the team's 25th postseason appearance in their 26 seasons of existence. Prior to joining the Stringrays, Anastas spent the previous four seasons as the head coach for the University of Lethbridge men's hockey team in Lethbridge, Alberta. While at Lethbridge, Anastas was also able to gain significant experience in international hockey, representing three different countries. Last year Anastas was behind the bench as head coach for Estonia at both the IIHF U20 and U18 World Championships. He also won a Silver Medal as the head coach for Hockey Alberta at the WHL Cup in October 2017 and won the 2017 U17 National Development Camp Tournament as an assistant coach for Hockey Canada. Anastas also spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Grand Rapids Griffins, AHL affiliate of the Detroit Red Wings, from 2012-14, and helped lead the team to the 2013 Calder Cup championship under head coach Jeff Blashill, who is now the head coach of the Red Wings. A native of Toronto, Ontario, Anastas played college hockey at Lebanon Valley College from 2006-10, where he was a forward and team captain. He began his coaching career with his alma mater, serving as an assistant coach during the 2010-11 season, before moving on to the University of Western Michigan where he was an assistant coach and video coordinator while working under former NHL head coach Andy Murray. During his only season with the Broncos, Anastas helped the team win their second Central Collegiate Hockey Association championship in program history and earned a berth in the NCAA Tournament. Anastas also spent time as the General Manager of the Alberni Valley Bulldogs in the British Columbia Junior Hockey League before joining Grand Rapids.

Matt Thomas Head Coach

Matt Thomas was named Cincinnati's head coach on Aug. 7, 2018. A native of Maple Ridge, British Columbia, Thomas enters the 2019-20 season seventh in ECHL history with 393 regular-season wins and eighth with 719 games coached. He is also the all-time leader in playoff games coached with 108, and ranks second with 54 playoff wins, just one behind all-time leader John Brophy. Last season, he earned the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year while also serving as a coach for the ECHL All-Star Classic for the third time, tying a league record. Thomas served two seasons as an assistant coach with Atlantic City, including helping the Boardwalk Bullies to a Kelly Cup championship in 2003, before assuming the role of head coach and Director of Hockey Operations with the team for the 2004-05 season. He compiled a 42-22-8 mark in his lone season as Atlantic City's bench boss, and also served as the head coach for the 2005 ECHL All-Star Game. He then moved on to Fresno prior to the 2005-06 campaign, leading the Falcons to a 43-15-14 mark along with a trip to the Western Conference Finals. Over the next two seasons in Fresno, Thomas compiled a 76-41-17 record, with trips to the second round of the Kelly Cup Playoffs on both occasions. He coached the Falcons during the first half of 2008-09, leading the team to an 18-10-2 mark before the team ceased operations midseason. Thomas was not out of work for long however, as he was named head coach of Stockton shortly after and finished the year with a record of 22-16-3, and a trip to the second round of the Kelly Cup Playoffs. Thomas went on to coach the Thunder for four more seasons, amassing a mark of 141-111-36, reaching the post season each year, including a trip to the 2013 Kelly Cup Finals where they fell to the Reading Royals, 4-1. Thomas' coaching career also includes stops at the collegiate level, serving a five-year stint at the University of Alaska-Anchorage from 2013-18. He compiled a 42-101-21 record while with the Seawolves, including the team's first .500 or above mark since the 1992-93 season. His coaching career began at the University of Maine where he served as an assistant coach for the Black Bears from 2000-02. Prior to beginning his coaching career, Thomas played collegiately at the Rochester Institute of Technology. The centerman totaled 72 points (25g-47a) in 102 career games. He also served as team captain during his senior year of 1997-98.

Ray Harris
Owner/President/CFO

Ray Harris is chief financial officer for Nederlander Company and is responsible for all aspects of the company's financial operations. He is also directly responsible for the management, marketing and sales business in Detroit and Cincinnati including negotiation of third-party contacts and new business opportunities. He is in his third season as the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors after being elected to the position in June 2015. Harris joined Nederlander in 1984 as controller for several outdoor amphitheatres and in 1986 his responsibilities expanded to include negotiation of national sponsorship contracts for all Nederlander amphitheatres throughout the country. He assisted in negotiation and production of the radio broadcast and preseason television broadcast of the National Football League's Oakland Raiders from 1992-95. Harris was promoted to chief financial officer in 1995 and led the expansion and acquisition of several concert facilities, clubs, theaters and sports arenas. Upon Nederlander's purchase of the Cincinnati Cyclones in 2003, Harris helped build the team into a two-time Kelly Cup champion and a four-time division champion, while setting several ECHL league-attendance records in the process. During his over 30 years with Nederlander, he has been intimately involved in every aspect of the entertainment industry and has served as a leader in evaluating acquisitions of entertainment and sports businesses. Harris received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Walsh College and worked two years in public accounting before joining Nederlander.

Brad Ralph
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Brad Ralph was named the fifth head coach in Everblades' history on July 12, 2016. Ralph, 39, enters his 10th season as a head coach in 2019-20. Ralph has amassed a career coaching record of 400-178-48 spread over the Southern Professional Hockey League, Western Hockey League and ECHL. Ralph's .693 career winning percentage ranks fifth in ECHL history while his 45 career wins in the Kelly Cup Playoffs are tied for fifth. Last year, Ralph helped lead the Everblades to their fourth South Division title in five seasons, served as a head coach in the ECHL All-Star Classic for the second time in his career and advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals for the second consecutive year. In 2017-18, Florida set club records for wins (53) and points (112) while reaching the Kelly Cup Finals for the fourth time in club history. He also received the John Brophy Award as the ECHL Coach of the Year. In 2015-16, he guided the Kelowna Rockets of the Western Hockey League to a 48-20-4 record and a third-round appearance in the playoffs. Ralph coached the Idaho Steelheads of the ECHL for three seasons (2012-15) totaling a 132-64-20 mark along with three postseason appearances. Ralph began his coaching career with the SPHL's Augusta RiverHawks (2010-12), and led his team to the league finals in his first year to garner honors as the SPHL's Coach of the Year. As a player, Ralph appeared in 383 professional games split between the ECHL and AHL, while making his lone NHL appearance with the Phoenix Coyotes during the 2000-01 season.

Craig Brush
President & General Manager

Craig Brush, the President of the Florida Everblades, along with partners Peter Karmanos and Thomas Thewes, founded the Everblades and Hertz Arena in 1998. Brush, a native of Milton, Ontario, oversees all aspects of both the hockey club and the sports complex. In 21 seasons, the Everblades have hosted nearly 4.5 million fans in 754 regular-season games, with an average attendance of almost 6,000 per game. The team has placed in the top three of league attendance in 10 of its 21 seasons, ranking first overall five times, and have led the Kelly Cup Playoffs attendance six times. The Everblades have also earned a post-season berth in 20 of their 21 seasons of existence. Brush was inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame (Class of 2016) in the Builders category, on Feb. 5, 2016 in a ceremony in Kalamazoo. The Everblades won the Kelly Cup and the ECHL Championship in 2012, and have reigned as conference champions four times. During the 2003-04 season, the Everblades captured the Eastern Conference title and made their first ever trip to the Kelly Cup Finals, and followed that up by becoming the first team in ECHL history to make back-to-back trips to the Kelly Cup Finals after capturing the 2004-05 American Conference championship. Florida was also awarded the regular-season championship and the Brabham Cup following the 1998-99 season after finishing with a club record 108 points. Brush played hockey for four seasons at Cornell University where he was a member of the 1970 undefeated NCAA Championship team, which was the only team in collegiate history to accomplish this feat. From 2003-06, Brush served as the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors. In addition, he has coached in the Computware youth hockey program for many years. Craig and his wife, Kyle, split time between Estero, Florida and Birmingham, Michigan. The couple has three sons – Matt, Tyler and Patrick – as well as five grandchildren, Anna, Mary, Jane, Sloan, and Brett.

Ben Boudreau
Head Coach

After serving as the team's assistant coach for the previous two seasons, Ben Boudreau was named the Komets head coach on May 30, 2019. Prior to joining Fort Wayne as assistant coach prior to the 2017-18 season, Boudreau spent one season as assistant coach with Bakersfield (2014-15) and two with Norfolk (2015-17) in the ECHL. Boudreau began his professional playing career appearing in stints with the ECHL's South Carolina Stingrays, the International Hockey League's Flint Generals, the Central Hockey League's Wichita Thunder and the Southern Professional Hockey League's Louisiana Ice Gators. Boudreau completed his North American pro career in 2009-10 with Flint, appearing in 42 regular-season games and all nine playoff games including the IHL Finals against Fort Wayne. He capped his playing career in 2012-13 with Asnieres in France. The St. Catherines, Ontario native is the son of former Komets standout forward Bruce Boudreau, currently the head coach of the National Hockey League's Minnesota Wild. Bruce Boudreau also served as Fort Wayne's head coach for two seasons in 1993-94 and 1994-95.

Michael Franke
President

Fort Wayne native Michael Franke is celebrating his 30th consecutive season as President and co-owner of the Fort Wayne Komets. As President of the Komets, Franke oversees the day-to-day operations of the hockey franchise while also representing the Komets in the ECHL as Fort Wayne's Governor. During Franke's stint as President, the Komets have collected six league championships, five regular season titles and nine trips to the finals. The Komets have been awarded League Member Club of the Year five times and have been a leader in attendance for the past 17 seasons attracting over 7,200 fans per game each year. While a member of the United Hockey League, Franke was personally honored as Governor of the Year twice (2001-02, 2002-03). He was also named Executive of the Year on two consecutive occasions (2007-08, 2008-09) while a member of the International Hockey League. A 1982 graduate of Purdue University Fort Wayne, Franke resides in Fort Wayne with his wife, Theresa. They have two adult children, Katie and James.

Kevin Kerr
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Kevin Kerr was named the third head coach in Swamp Rabbits' history on May 23, 2018. Kerr joined Greenville after serving as head coach for the Southern Professional Hockey League's Macon Mayhem for the previous three seasons. Since assuming the role of Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations/General Manager in 2015, he compiled a 94-56-18 record. Macon qualified for the postseason in each of the team's first three seasons and collected a President's Cup championship in 2017. Prior to taking over as the first coach in Macon Mayhem history, the North Bay, Ontario native spent two seasons with the New York Bobcats in the Eastern Hockey League. His resurgence into coaching came after a five-year hiatus. After wrapping up his playing career, Kerr took over the North Bay Skyhawks of the Northern Ontario Junior Hockey League for his first shot behind the bench. Kerr then took over as head coach of the Flint Generals for two seasons where he had previously played 417 games, tallied 674 points (356g-318a), and accrued 1,421 penalty minutes across eight seasons. Kerr was one of two players to have his number retired by the Generals and led the organization in points and goals when the club ceased operations in 2010. As a player, Kerr was selected by the Buffalo Sabres in the third round pick in the 1986 NHL Entry Draft. After logging four seasons in the Ontario Hockey League, he began his pro career with the Rochester Americans in the 1987-88 season and led the team in with 352 penalty minutes in addition to posting 29 points (18g-11a). Kerr retired after the 2004-05 season after playing professional hockey for 18 seasons across 15 organizations and six leagues. At the time of Kerr's retirement, his 677 goals were a career minor-league record, while compiling 3,706 penalty minutes. He also captured an AHL championship with the Portland Pirates, a Turner Cup title with the Flint Generals, and was the 1993-94 Colonial Hockey League MVP.

Steve Donner
President

Steve Donner took control of the Greenville Swamp Rabbits as President upon the purchase of the club by South Carolina Pro Hockey, LLC on Jan. 3, 2018. Donner is no stranger to success in professional hockey and has over 27 years of experience in professional sports. The Rochester, New York native served as team owner, president and CEO of the AHL's Rochester Americans for 13 years from 1995 to 2008. Donner's early efforts were rewarded in 1996 for his contributions to the league, earning recognition as the most outstanding executive through the James C. Hendy Memorial Award. The Amerks went on to capture the 1997 Calder Cup championship that season, one of 10 championships that Donner has been a part of throughout his career. Prior to his work in Rochester, Donner was the Vice President of Marketing and Sales for the Tampa Bay Lightning during the inaugural season of the NHL franchise. He helped improve the organization and build its average attendance from 10,000 fans in the inaugural season of 1992, to over 22,000 fans in the club's second season. Since his tenure with the Americans, Donner has been a part of multiple ventures in Florida including the start-up of the Orlando City Soccer Club.

Everett Sheen
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

After serving as the team's assistant coach for the previous three seasons, Everett Sheen enters his first season as Idaho's head coach during the 2019-20 season. Sheen, 32, marks his first head coaching position following three seasons as the organization's assistant coach beginning in the 2016-17 season. Over that time, the Lethbridge, Alberta native led the defense and penalty kill units, and last season the team ranked in the top-10 in penalty kill percentage and shots allowed per game while also sitting in the top-five for goals against per game. In all three seasons, he aided the Steelheads into playoff appearances, helping to extend the organization's playoff streak to 22-straight seasons since the inaugural 1997-98 season. At 32-years-old, Sheen is the second youngest head coach in Steelheads history at the time of his hire as well as the second youngest head coach currently active in the ECHL. Prior to coaching, Sheen played professional hockey for five seasons with time spent in the ECHL in all five years. He played 319 career ECHL games with the Reading Royals, Ontario Reign and Colorado Eagles, scoring 137 points (48g-89a), including 35 points (13g-22a) during his final season in 2015-16. He also spent time with the AHL's Providence Bruins during the 2011-12 season. Sheen played four seasons of college hockey at College of the Holy Cross, serving as captain in his junior and senior seasons. He lives in Meridian, Idaho with his wife, Kayla, and their son, Parker.

Eric Trapp
President

Eric Trapp is president of Idaho Sports Properties and is responsible for the business operations of the Idaho Steelheads while also serving as the team’s representative on the ECHL Board of Governors. Trapp received the ECHL Marketing Director of the Year Award following the team’s inaugural season in 2003-04. He has been with the Steelheads since the team’s inception in 1997 and was instrumental in the initial introduction, marketing and promotion of the Steelheads. He began his career in professional sports in 1991 with Diamond Sports, which owned and operated the Boise Hawks minor league professional baseball team. After serving as director of marketing for both the Hawks and the Sioux City Explorers baseball teams, Trapp was promoted to vice president of Diamond Sports in 1996 and was responsible for overseeing the company’s baseball entities (Boise Hawks, El Paso Diablos and Sioux City Explorers) from 1996-98. Named senior vice president in 1998, the University of Idaho graduate also handled the marketing and promotions for other Diamond Sports entities including the Idaho Sneakers World TeamTennis franchise and professional boxing events hosted at CenturyLink Arena.

Doug Christiansen
Head Coach/General Manager

Doug Christiansen was named the third head coach/general manager in Fuel club history on June 14, 2019. He made his ECHL coaching debut last season with the Manchester Monarchs, leading the team to a 39-29-4 regular-season record and the team's fourth consecutive appearance in the Kelly Cup Playoffs. Christiansen joined the Monarchs after spending the past four years as the Director of Player Development & Recruitment for the United States Hockey League.

Before joining the USHL, Christiansen spent seven seasons as a head coach and director of hockey operations for three separate teams in the Elite Ice Hockey League in the United Kingdom, being named EIHL Coach of the Year twice. Christiansen helped lead the Belfast Giants to a league championship in 2012 and a conference championship in 2013. In 2013-14, Christiansen served as the head coach of the Great Britain National Team. During his playing career, Christiansen played professional hockey from 2002-07, playing in the AHL, ECHL and UHL. Through the five years, he played 104 games in the Los Angeles Kings system, including 99 with Reading in the ECHL and five with the Monarchs in the AHL. Christiansen played collegiate hockey at Union College from 1998-2002, where he totaled 102 games and scored 28 points (16g-12a), while racking up 134 penalty minutes.

Jason Christie

Head Coach/Vice President of Hockey Operations

The ECHL's all-time coaching wins leader, Jason Christie was named head coach of the Icemen on June 6, 2017. Last season, Christie led the organization to their first-ever berth in the Kelly Cup Playoffs. Christie became the all-time winningest coach in ECHL history, passing 2012 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee John Marks, with his 492nd career win on Dec. 10, 2015 against Idaho. Christie was head coach of Tulsa from 2015-17 after spending the previous four seasons with the Ontario Reign, leading the club to the Kelly Cup Playoffs in each of his four seasons. The Reign had four straight 40-plus win seasons and three consecutive Pacific Division titles during Christie's time behind the bench. Christie is 609-420-122 in 16 seasons as an ECHL head coach with Peoria, Utah, Ontario, Tulsa and Jacksonville, and has advanced to the Kelly Cup Playoffs on 11 occasions, while winning 40 or more games eight times. He ranks first in ECHL history with 1,151 regular-season games coached and is tied for second in ECHL postseason history with 94 games coached while his 45 postseason wins are tied for fifth all-time. Christie was selected as a coach for the ECHL All-Star Game in his first season in 2000-01 and returned for the 2004 All-Star Game. He was an assistant coach with the Chicago Wolves of the American Hockey League in 2008-09 and 2009-10 before being named head coach of the Central Hockey League's Bloomington PrairieThunder in 2010-11. He led Bloomington to a 37-22-7 record and the team's first postseason appearance on his way to being named the CHL Coach of the Year. Christie played the last of his 10 professional seasons with Peoria and led the Rivermen to the 2000 Kelly Cup championship, earning co-Most Valuable Player honors. He played five seasons in the American Hockey League and the International Hockey League, scoring 172 points (58g-114a) in 305 games. Before turning pro, he scored 290 points (115g-175a) in 279 games with Saskatoon in the Western Hockey League. Christie and his wife, Kelley, are parents of two sons, J.D. and Jaxon.

Bob Ohrablo
President

Bob Ohrablo, President/Partner has more than 30 years' experience in managing professional hockey teams including teams in the National Hockey League (Florida Panthers) and American Hockey League (Syracuse Crunch, Binghamton Whalers, as well as Vice President of Marketing for the League). He was the founding partner of both the ECHL Orlando Solar Bears and now the Jacksonville Icemen. Other projects have included pro tennis, Bermuda Music Festival and consultant for several AHL teams and organizations. He has been involved in all aspects of managing teams including hockey administration, marketing, sales, media relations and overall management. Ohrablo is most proud of how his teams have become involved in the community. The Icemen are active with many local non-profit organizations including the American Cancer Association, Autism Cares, The Donna Foundation, Night to Shine, The Christmas Party of Jacksonville and many others. Ohrablo serves Dreams Come True and Episcopal Children Services, as well as serves on various JaxUSA committees and the JaxChamber Board of Governors. Ohrablo lives in Jacksonville Beach with his wife, Dr. Sue Ohrablo, an Administrator at Jacksonville University and author of several books on insuring college success. Their daughter, Liz, is a tax accountant for DHG.

Nick Bootland
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Nick Bootland is in his 12th season as head coach and director of hockey operations for Kalamazoo having been named to the position on May 29, 2008. He has led the K-Wings eight appearances in the Kelly Cup Playoffs. Bootland enters the 2019-20 season tied for seventh in ECHL history with 720 games coached and eighth with 378 wins. Bootland played two seasons in the ECHL for Cincinnati from 2001-03 and had 98 points (44g-54a) and 216 penalty minutes in 114 regular season games and 18 points (10g-8a) and 21 penalty minutes in 18 Kelly Cup Playoff games. He helped the Cyclones reach the conference finals in 2003 where they lost in to eventual Kelly Cup champion Atlantic City in seven games. He played four seasons for Kalamazoo, including the last three years of his career from 2005-08, and had 260 points (131g-129a) and 351 penalty minutes in 241 regular season games and 38 points (22g-16a) and 45 penalty minutes in 33 playoff games. He led the league his last season with 46 goals and 19 power-play goals while finishing tied for third with 82 points in 73 games. Bootland was named the Most Valuable Player of the playoffs in 2006 when he had 10 goals and 16 points in 13 games to help the K-Wings capture their first championship in 26 years. Selected in the ninth round (220th overall) by Dallas in the 1996 NHL Entry Draft, he played seven seasons in the American Hockey League with Cleveland and Hershey and had 58 points (23g-35a) and 365 penalty minutes in 258 regular season games and seven points (3g-4a) and 43 penalty minutes in 23 playoff games. Bootland and his wife, Christine, reside in Kalamazoo, Mich. with their children, Makayla and Breckyn.

Toni Daniels
Governor/Business Operations Director

A lifelong resident of the Kalamazoo area, and a proud Western Michigan University graduate, Toni Daniels arrived to the Kalamazoo Wings Hockey Club in March 2015, as the team's director of sales. Since then, her sole effort has been to help continue the year-over-year growth of the hockey club's corporate partnerships and attendance growth. In early 2017, Daniels was named as the team's alternate governor and business operations director and oversees the day-to-day operations of the team. Prior to her tenure with the Wings, she spent time in banking and was chamber executive vice president at Southwest Michigan First, where her efforts were centered towards the growth of small business in the Chamber of Commerce. As an active member of the community, Daniels sits on the boards of Buy Local Kalamazoo, the Triakats Triathlon Club, the Kalamazoo Strong Organization and the Friends of Kalamazoo Parks and Rec. Daniels is an avid athlete who has completed over 50 triathlons, 20 half-marathons, four full marathons, and two Ironman competitions.

John-Scott Dickson
Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

John-Scott Dickson enters his fourth season as Kanass City's head coach and director of hockey operations after being named to the position on June 30, 2016. Prior to taking over as Mavericks' head coach in 2016-17, the 35-year-old spent two years as an assistant to former Mavericks' head coach Richard Matvichuk. Dickson skated as a player/assistant coach in 2014-15 before stepping behind the bench as a full time assistant last season. He played four seasons for the Mavericks and amassed 154 points (75g,-79a) along with 75 penalty minutes over 220 games. In addition to his regular season numbers, Dickson posted 15 points (10g-5a) in 26 Central Hockey League playoff games with the Mavericks. Dickson also played parts of four seasons in the ECHL with Alaska, Gwinnett and Idaho recording 30 points (9g-21a) in 73 games. Prior to his professional playing career, Dickson spent five seasons each with the Ontario Hockey League's Windsor Spitfires and the University of New Brunswick in Canadian Interuniversity Sport. He piled up 214 points (94g-120a) in 306 games with Windsor and 142 points (68g, 74a) in 188 games with the Varsity Reds. In 2014 Dickson was selected, in a fan vote, number three out of the top 10 most popular players in Mavericks' history.

Lamar Hunt, Jr.
Owner

Lamar Hunt, Jr. is the founder of Loretto Properties, LLC, a real estate investment company specializing in the operation and management of residential properties, as well as Loretto Foundation, LLC, a private charitable organization. All companies are based in the greater Kansas City area. He is a member of the founding family of the Kansas City Chiefs, a National Football League member team. The family also operates FC Dallas, a member franchise of Major League Soccer. Lamar serves on the board of directors of Hunt Midwest Enterprises, a real estate development company based in Kansas City, Mo. He is a member of the board of the Hunt Family Foundation and also serves on the Advisory Board of the Catholic Radio Network, a religious broadcasting group operating radio stations in the greater Kansas City, Wichita, and Denver markets. He has served on the Case Review Task Force appointed by Archbishop Joseph Naumann, which formulated recommendations for the future growth of the Catholic Archdiocese of Kansas City, Kan. Lamar graduated from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music with a Bachelor of Music Degree and later completed a Master of the Arts degree in counseling at Dallas Baptist University. He was also a flutist in the Kansas City Symphony for nine seasons. He is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) in both Kansas and Missouri, where he worked with neglected and abused teenagers, homeless men with addiction problems, and families in crisis. Two of his passions in life are classical music and promoting healthy family relationships in the community. He is frequently in demand as a public speaker regarding effective interpersonal relationships. Lamar is married to his lovely wife, Rita, and between them, they are the proud parents of nine children and six grandchildren.

Riley Armstrong
Head Coach/Assistant General Manager

Riley Armstrong was named the first head coach in Mariners team history on Feb. 17, 2018. He joined Maine after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach with the Wheeling Nailers. Armstrong joined the Nailers in 2016 following the conclusion of a 12-year professional career. He signed with the San Jose Sharks in 2004 and played five seasons for the team's American Hockey League affiliates in Cleveland and Worcester, making several trips to Portland as a visiting AHL player. He appeared in two NHL games for San Jose during the 2008-09 season before signing with the Calgary Flames as a free agent in 2009 and spending another season in the AHL. Over the next five years, Armstrong made stops in some of Europe's top professional leagues, playing in Russia, Finland, Germany and Sweden. He also had additional stints in the AHL and ECHL during that time before concluding his career with the ECHL's Reading Royals. He played a total of 610 professional games, including 404 in the AHL, 75 in the ECHL and 129 in Europe, and recorded a total of 336 points (156g-180a). Armstrong and his wife Amber are the parents of two children, daughter Peyton and son Ezra.

Daniel Briere
Vice President of Operations

Daniel Briere was named Mariners' Vice President of Operations in June of 2017, two years after finishing his playing career. The former center played 973 National Hockey League games over 17 seasons with the Phoenix Coyotes, Buffalo Sabres, Philadelphia Flyers, Montreal Canadiens and Colorado Avalanche. He finished just shy of 700 career points and was a two-time All-Star. Briere was known as a clutch playoff performer throughout his career as well. As a 2010 Stanley Cup Finalist with the Flyers, he led the league in postseason scoring, putting up 30 points (12g-18a) in 23 games. He averaged just under a point-per-game in his NHL playoff career with 116 points (53g-63a) in 124 career games in the Stanley Cup Playoffs. The Gatineau, Quebec native now resides in New Jersey with his wife, Misha. Briere also has three sons, all of whom currently play hockey in Juniors or high school.

John Snowden
Head Coach

John Snowden enters his first full season as the Growlers' head coach after taking over head-coaching duties on Jan. 24, 2019 after Ryane Clowe stepped down due to medical reasons. Snowden led the club to a 16-10-6 record over the final 32 games of the regular season, and to the North Division title in the team's inaugural season. The Growlers became the first team to win the ECHL championship since Greensboro in 1990. Snowden joined the Growlers as an assistant coach prior to the 2018-19 season after serving in the same role for the Orlando Solar Bears in the previous three seasons. Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Snowden enjoyed an 11-year professional playing career which included stops in the Central Hockey League, International Hockey League, ECHL and American Hockey League, as well as time in Germany.

Glenn Stanford
President/CEO

Glenn Stanford, 62, is in his second season as President and CEO of the Newfoundland Growlers. Previous to this role, he successfully led the AHL's St. John's IceCaps for six seasons as Chief Operating Officer and Governor. Glenn has an extensive background in sports management, marketing and national entertainment events, and possesses over two decades of experience in the sports and entertainment industry. Before joining the IceCaps, Stanford was President of the Hamilton Bulldogs, AHL affiliate of the Montreal Canadiens from 2006-11 and also spent two year as president of both the ECHL's Idaho Steelheads, as well as the building that the team played in, Qwest Arena. Prior to moving south of the border, Stanford served as General Manager of St. John's Sports and Entertainment Ltd., and Vice President of the American Hockey League's St. John's Maple Leafs, a position he held for the duration of the team's 14-season stay in the Newfoundland capital from 1991-2005. In these roles, Stanford oversaw day-to-day operations of the St. John's Maple Leafs, Mile One Stadium and the St. John's Convention Centre, while also establishing the Maple Leafs Foundation, which raised more than $1,500,000 for charities in Newfoundland and Labrador. During his tenure with St. John's, Stanford helped build the Maple Leafs into what many considered one of the model franchises in all of minor professional sports. Stanford has also received numerous awards and professional honours. The St. John's, Newfoundland native is a four-time American Hockey League award winner. In 2004-05, Stanford was recognized with the AHL's Thomas Ebright Award, which is presented annually to an individual deemed to have made outstanding career contributions to the American Hockey League. In 2001-02, Stanford was presented with the James C. Hendy Memorial Award, which is presented yearly to the executive who has made the most outstanding contribution to the AHL and won the top executive award again in 2011-12. In 1996-97, Stanford won the Ken McKenzie Award, which is given to the individual who accomplished the most in promoting his or her AHL team that season. In addition, Stanford was named Canadian Special Olympics Sports Celebrities Festival National Volunteer of the Year in 2004, was selected as one of the Top 50 Chief Executive Officers in Atlantic Canada in 2004, and was awarded the prestigious Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal for significant contributions to Canada in 2002 and the Queens Diamond Jubilee Medal in 2012. Stanford has two daughters, Jessica, 33 and Melissa, 31 and resides in St. John's with his wife, Debbie.

Rod Taylor Head Coach

ECHL Hall of Famer Rod Taylor enters his first season as head coach of the Admirals after being named to the position on June 25, 2019. At the time of his retirement following the 2002-03 season, he was the ECHL's all-time leader in goals (368), points (689) and games (678) and remains second in goals and points while ranking seventh in games. Taylor is tied for first all-time with eight 30-goal seasons and six consecutive 30-goal seasons. He played all but 19 of his professional games in the ECHL and helped Hampton Roads win the Riley Cup as a rookie in 1992, scoring a league record-tying 16 goals in 14 games, and the Kelly Cup in 1998. He is third in career postseason goals (39) and tied for 15th in postseason games (78). Taylor was part of the second induction class into the ECHL Hall of Fame in 2009. A native of Lake Orion, Michigan, Taylor, spent the past five seasons at the helm of the Hampton Roads Jr. Whalers USPHL Premier team, leading the club to the USPHL National Championship in 2016, 2018 and 2019.

Patrick Cavanagh
President

Patrick Cavanagh enters his first season as the Owner of the Norfolk Admirals. In 1989, Cavanagh began his Professional hockey career at the age of 19, which was followed by an ECHL championship in 1991 playing for the Hampton Roads Admirals. He was nominated into the Professional Hockey Players Association’s Executive Committee by his peers, which led to the ECHL’s initial Central Bargaining Agreement (CBA). Always an advocate for the grassroots of youth hockey development in the United States, Cavanagh founded the Cavanagh’s Developmental Hockey Program (CDHP) in 1990. The program operated in over 30 states and provinces in North America, reaching unprecedented success. That success was due in part to the “break your comfort zone” development model, which changed the way “hockey schools” were operated. Cavanagh followed that up with the purchase of the previously failed Arc Ice Sports in 2003 and rebranded the building as the Chilled Ponds Ice Sports Complex. The facility received a comprehensive overhaul, which included every aspect of design, operations and functionality. Now a thriving business and global destination, immediate corporate success of Child Ponds led to Cavanagh’s recognition by Inside Business as one of the region’s “Top 40/under 40” in 2003. After the successful launch of the Hampton Roads Whalers youth hockey organization in 2006, Cavanagh was a pioneer in the formation of the Whalers Junior Hockey franchise. Overcoming the restrictive, geographic and competitive obstacles, the Whalers became the first Southeastern junior hockey franchise and provided players with athletic and scholastic opportunities within the sport of hockey that was previously offered only in traditional hockey regions of the United States. His expectation for excellence was immediately realized when the Whalers won the league Championships in their first two seasons and set an unprecedented, operational standard by winning eight League and National Championships in 13 seasons. This achievement led to over 200 university commitments and scores of players being promoted to higher levels of play. Credited with the rapid expansion in junior hockey, the Whalers success has ultimately opened the entire Southeastern region of the United States to the world of junior hockey and has been responsible for the development of many up-and-coming, American-born hockey players. With his recent acquisition of the ECHL’s Norfolk Admirals franchise, Cavanagh continues his tradition of transforming struggling or failed businesses into tremendous successes. The Admirals ownership brings Cavanagh’s career full circle, as he originally came to the Hampton Roads region under the guidance of former legendary Admirals head coach, John Brophy, in 1989. The success of the Hampton Roads Whalers and Chilled Ponds complements the success and history of the Norfolk Admirals. The three together give the entire community access to hockey for youth, adults, players and fans of all ages.

Drake Berehowsky
Head Coach/General Manager

Drake Berehowsky was named the fourth head coach in Solar Bears history on Nov. 14, 2016, after previously serving as the team's head coach during the inaugural 2012-13 season, in which he guided the club to a 20-11-5 record on home ice. The native of Toronto had been the associate coach of the Ontario Hockey League's Sudbury Wolves since 2015 and from 2013-15 he was head coach of the Western Hockey League's Lethbridge Hurricanes. Prior to his first stint with Orlando, Berehowsky was an assistant coach with the American Hockey League's Peoria Rivermen from 2009-12. Berehowsky enjoyed a 549-game career in the NHL from 1990-2004 with the Toronto Maple Leafs, Pittsburgh Penguins, Edmonton Oilers, Nashville Predators, Vancouver Canucks and Phoenix Coyotes. Known for his rugged play as a defenseman, Berehowsky amassed 149 points (37g-112a) and 848 penalty minutes in the NHL. Berehowsky was a first-round selection (10th overall) of the Maple Leafs in the 1990 NHL Entry Draft. Drake and his wife Lori have six children – Duke, Dawson, Dalton, Dylan, Daniel and Diesel.

Daniel Tetrault Head Coach

Daniel Tetrault was named the third coach in Rapid City Rush history on June 8, 2017 after serving as the club's assistant coach in the 2016-17 season. As a defenseman for a decade and a half during his professional hockey career, Tetrault is no stranger to a major leadership position: from his junior hockey career until his final season as a professional, the defenseman served as his team's captain on five different occasions with the Western Hockey League's Brandon Wheat Kings, Central Hockey League's New Mexico Scorpions and Wichita Thunder, and the ECHL's Evansville IceMen and Rapid City Rush. Along the way in his career, Tetrault expanded his knowledge of hockey even further by playing under many outstanding coaches, such as Bob Lowes in the WHL, Bill MacDonald and Steve Martinson in the CHL, and former NHL players Brent Hughes, Kevin McClelland, and Rich Kromm. Originally from La Broquerie, Manitoba, Tetrault, 39, began the coaching chapter of his career after 15 seasons as a defenseman in which he played 921 games on the blue line in the AHL, ECHL, CHL, IHL and WPHL, and notched 502 career points (143g-359a). He was named the best at his position as the CHL's Most Outstanding Defenseman during his stay with the Austin Ice Bats in the 2001-02 season, where he tabulated 43 points (11g-32a) in 58 games. In the final year of the CHL's existence in the 2013-14 season, he joined the Allen Americans and helped them secure their second Ray Miron Presidents' Cup in franchise history, marking his only professional championship as a player. Prior to the start of his professional career, Tetrault played for the WHL's Brandon Wheat Kings, winning the 1996 WHL championship; Team Canada, where he won a U-18 World Junior Championship Gold Medal; and was drafted by the Montreal Canadiens in the fourth round (91st overall) in the 1997 NHL Entry Draft.

Todd Mackin
President

Todd Mackin joined the Rush as President on March 8, 2019. Mackin came to the Rush after spending the last eight seasons with the Kansas City Mavericks. He began with the Mavericks in the Central Hockey League, originally brought in to revamp the corporate sales of the team as the Director of Corporate Sales, before his promotion to Vice President of Sales in 2016. Recently, Mackin has served as the Executive Vice President of the Mavericks organization. A native of Kansas City, Mackin began his foray into professional sports in the National Football League, where he worked for a decade in ticket sales, premium seating and corporate partnerships. Before working in professional sports, he earned his bachelor’s degree in Marketing and Finance at Northwest Missouri State University in 2001. Following his undergraduate studies, he earned his Master’s in Business Administration from the University of Missouri-Kansas City in 2006.

Kirk MacDonald Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Kirk MacDonald enters his third full season as Royals Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations in 2018-19. During his first full season at the helm in 2017-18, MacDonald navigated Reading to a third-place finish in the North Division at 39-24-9 (87 points). Reading completed 2017-18 ranked sixth in team defense with 2.76 goals-against per game. A 2013 Kelly Cup champion with the Royals, MacDonald was named Head Coach and Director of Hockey Operations on May 24, 2017 and is the seventh coach in the team's 17-year history. Originally tabbed the Royals interim Head Coach in April 2017, MacDonald led the team to wins in the final three regular season games of the 2016-17 season, plus two victories in the Kelly Cup Playoffs vs. Brampton. MacDonald joined the Royals as an assistant to Coach Larry Courville in July of 2014. During his tenure as assistant, the Royals compiled a record of 119-72-14-8 (.610 win percentage). The team qualified for playoffs in all three seasons during which MacDonald served as an assistant. Prior to joining the Royals as an assistant coach, MacDonald served the 2013-14 season as an assistant at his alma mater, Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, New York. MacDonald recorded 217 points and 358 penalty minutes in 406 games over seven-plus professional seasons. He played 272 of those games in the AHL and 24 Calder Cup Playoff games. In the ECHL, MacDonald had two stints with the Royals, 2008-09 and 2012-13. MacDonald had a stellar four-season and five-year career at R.P.I. After leading R.P.I. in goals (16) and points (36) and being selected the team's MVP in his junior season (2004-05), MacDonald was diagnosed with testicular cancer. The diagnosis kept him out of action the following year. In 2006-07, MacDonald returned for his senior season as team captain, led the squad in goals (12) and tied for the team lead in points (27). For his efforts, MacDonald was voted as R.P.I.'s Most Inspirational Player. That year, MacDonald received the Livingston W. Houston Citizenship Award at R.P.I. honoring the "First Citizen of the College," for character, leadership, scholarship and athletic ability and was also a finalist for the Hockey Humanitarian Award, which is awarded to college hockey's finest citizen.

David Farrar
General Manager

David Farrar enters his first full season as Royals’ general manager after being named to the position on Feb. 21, 2019. Farrar is responsible for the overall management, promotion and day-to-day operation of the hockey team. Farrar, previously general manager of Santander Arena and Santander Performing Arts Center, brings established and well-documented knowledge of the Reading/Berks County market to the position. During his tenure in the position the two buildings posted numerous record shattering attendance and revenue results, as well as a record-setting financial year across the 2017-2018 fiscal year. His experience includes administration, operations, marketing, budgeting, booking, and event operations for arenas and theaters. He spent the past year as the Director of Booking for Oak View Group Facilities at Rupp Arena in Lexington, Kentucky. Farrar is a 2005 graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University with a Bachelor’s Degree from the Sports Management Program. He also received his M.D. in Sports Administration from VCU in 2007. He is an active member of the International Association of Venue Managers, and a graduate of the International Association of Venue Management. He and his wife Claire, have three children, Cole, Madelyn and Ashtyn.

Steve Bergin Head Coach

Steve Bergin was named the ninth head coach in Stingrays history on April 26, 2019. He has served as the team's assistant coach for the previous three seasons. A native of Groton, Massachusetts, Bergin was part of the Stingrays' Kelly Cup Finals appearance in 2017 and helped the team to their best regular season in club history the following year. Before starting his coaching career Bergin spent five seasons as a defenseman with the Pensacola Ice Flyers of the Southern Professional Hockey League (SPHL) from 2011-16. He led Pensacola to three SPHL titles in 2013, 2014 and 2016 as well as a regular season championship during the 2013-14 season. Prior to turning pro, Bergin played four seasons of NCAA Hockey at the University of Connecticut and was a product of Lawrence Academy as well as the Boston Jr. Bruins.

Todd Halloran
Governor

Todd Halloran became the majority owner of the Stingrays in April 2018 through his investment entity Deke Hockey Holdings LLC. Todd is a partner at Freeman Spogli & Co., a Los Angeles and New York-based private equity firm with approximately $2 billion under management. Freeman Spogli is dedicated to partnering with management in U.S.-based consumer-related growth businesses providing capital, strategic and financial counsel, and focused industry experience. Over his 23 years at Freeman Spogli, Halloran has worked with and served on the board of directors for a number of public and private companies. He currently serves on the boards of four private companies. In addition, Halloran has been a board member and/or involved with a number of philanthropic and not-for-profit organizations, including organizations focused on underprivileged groups, education and youth sports. He is currently a board member of The Community Fund, a Trustee Emeritus at Colby College and the former president of the Darien (CT) Youth Hockey Association, one of the largest youth hockey organizations in the country. Born and raised in the Boston area, Halloran attended Colby College and graduated with a B.A. in Economics. He also studied for a year at The London School of Economics and earned his MBA at Harvard University. After graduating from Harvard, he worked at Goldman Sachs for five years in the Mergers & Acquisitions Group and the Principal Investment Area (GS Capital Partners). Halloran currently splits his time between South Carolina and CT/NY. He and his family are passionate hockey fans. He grew up playing hockey in a skating family and has four children who all grew up playing the sport including one currently playing collegiate hockey.

Rob Concannon
President/Alternate Governor

Rob Concannon is in his ninth season as president of South Carolina. Born in Dorchester, Mass., Concannon played for the Stingrays from 1995 to 2000, was a member of the 1997 Kelly Cup championship team and was inducted into the Stingrays Hall of Fame in 2004. He retired from hockey with the sixth most games played in Stingrays history at 330, and sixth all-time with 231 points (111g-120a). Prior to turning pro, Concannon was a Division III All-American in 1995 with Salem State College. In addition to the Stingrays, Concannon skated for the Idaho Steelheads and Greenville Grrrowl during his eight-year hockey career. Rob and his wife Keri reside in downtown South Carolina with their two children, John Robert and Ella.

Dan Watson Head Coach

Dan Watson was named the third head coach in Toledo Walleye history on June 29, 2016, replacing Derek Lalonde, who stepped down after two seasons in Toledo to take the head coaching job with the American Hockey League's Iowa Wild. Last season, the Walleye advanced to the Kelly Cup Finals, marking Toledo's first appearance in the ECHL Finals since the Toledo Storm won the Riley Cup in 1994. In 2017-18, he led the Walleye to their fourth consecutive division title. In his first season as head coach, Watson led Toledo to its second Brabham Cup title in three seasons, served as the head coach for the ECHL All-Stars at the CCM/ECHL All-Star Classic and received the John Brophy Award for ECHL Coach of the Year. Prior to taking over as head coach, Watson spent the previous seven seasons as assistant coach and associate head coach for Toledo. Over that time, Watson helped guide the Walleye to four playoff appearances (2010, 2013, 2015, 2016), a Brabham Cup championship (2014-15) and the best Eastern Conference regular season record in back-to-back seasons (2014-15 and 2015-16). He also served 21 games as interim head coach to close out the 2013-14 season, finishing with a 5-13-3 record. Watson played three seasons with the Sarnia Sting of the Ontario Hockey League, being named the 1998-99 Scholastic Player of the Year at Sarnia and the 1999-00 Defensive Player of the Year, and playing in the 1998-99 OHL All-Star Game. Following his junior career, Watson played seven professional seasons in the AHL, UHL, and ECHL, with 447 games played, 89 points (23g-66a) and 394 penalty minutes. He was captain of Long Beach of the ECHL from 2004-06.

Rob Murray

Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Rob Murray enters his third season with the Tulsa Oilers after spending the previous six seasons as head coach of the Alaska Aces. Last season, Murray was runner-up for the ECHL Coach of the Year award and was named ECHL General Manager of the Year after leading to the Oilers to their first division title since the 1975-76 season, when they won the regular season and playoff championship in the six-team Central Hockey League. The Oilers qualified for the Kelly Cup Playoffs for the first time since 2015 with a 16-point improvement over the 2017-18 season and advanced to the Western Conference Finals. In 2013-14, Murray led the Aces to an ECHL record fourth consecutive - and Murray's third straight - Brabham Cup as ECHL regular-season champions with 97 points and to the team's third Kelly Cup title with a 4 games to 2 win over Cincinnati. In his first season with the Aces in 2011-12, Murray was named a co-recipient of the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year, leading the club to its sixth division title in nine ECHL seasons. Prior to joining Alaska, Murray spent eight seasons with the Providence Bruins of the American Hockey League. He was the club's assistant coach from 2004-08, working alongside former ECHL player and coach Scott Gordon. When Gordon was hired as head coach of the New York Islanders prior to the 2008-09 season, Murray was elevated to head coach in Providence. In his first season as head coach, Murray led the P-Bruins to a 43-29-8 record and a berth in the Eastern Conference Finals. He finished his three-year tenure with a 117-103-20 regular-season record. While in Providence, he coached seven players who went on to win the Stanley Cup with Boston in 2011. Prior to his coaching career, Murray enjoyed a 16-year playing career that included 107 National Hockey League games with Washington, Winnipeg and Phoenix. Murray ranks seventh in American Hockey League history with 1,018 games played and is second with 2,940 career penalty minutes and in 2017, he was inducted into the AHL Hall of Fame. Over 500 of his AHL games came with the Springfield Falcons, and he is that club's all-time leader in games played, assists, career penalty minutes and single-season penalty minutes. Murray's number 23 was retired by the Falcons, making him one of just two players in team history to have his jersey retired, alongside Hockey Hall of Famer Eddie Shore. Murray and his wife Carolyn have five children - Taylor, Zack, Quinn, Brendan and Mackenzie.

Taylor Hall
General Manager

Entering his 12th season as General Manager, Hall oversees all day-to-day operations of the Oilers' front office. From forming partnerships with local businesses to increasing attendance and ensuring a memorable fan experience, Hall is involved in every aspect of the Oilers' operation. With his infectious enthusiasm for the game of hockey, Hall has played an integral role in expanding the Oilers' fan base and increasing the visibility of the team in the community. A native of Regina, Saskatchewan, Hall formed a deep connection to the Oilers as a player-assistant coach for the during Tulsa's run to the Central Hockey League championship in 1993. In addition to playing for the Oilers, Hall's 12-year professional career included time with the NHL's Vancouver Canucks and Boston Bruins. Hall retired with the Oilers in 1996 and spent five seasons as a head coach in the Central Hockey League.

Tim Branham Head Coach/General Manager

Tim Branham was named Head Coach/General Manager of Utah on July 8, 2013. He has led the Grizzlies to a record of 215-162-54 in his six seasons behind the bench and five berths in the Kelly Cup Playoffs. He is the second-longest tenured Head Coach in the ECHL and the longest tenured and winningest coach in team history. Grizzlies players have made over 250 public appearances in the community the last six seasons: at local youth hockey practice, elementary schools, hospitals and more. Branham, 38, joined the Grizzlies from the Reading Royals, where he spent four seasons as an assistant coach from 2009-2013. During his time with the Royals, the team went 143-89-23 in the regular season and captured the 2013 Kelly Cup title. In addition, during his tenure as the Royals Assistant Coach, Reading won seven playoff series, two division titles and was second in the ECHL in wins during the four-year period. Since 2003, Branham has owned and operated Branham Hockey Camps in Wisconsin and Utah. A native of Eagle River, Wisconsin and year-round resident of Utah, Branham played 284 professional games in the ECHL and AHL during his playing career from 2002-2010. A defenseman, he was selected in the third round by the Vancouver Canucks in the 2000 NHL Entry Draft.

Kevin Bruder
CEO

Kevin M. Bruder has been with Elmore Sports Group, which owns the Utah Grizzlies, since 1997 and has served as General Manager of Maverik Center since it opened in 1997. In 1998, he was named President of Centennial Management Group which in 2003 added the 20,000-seat USANA Amphitheatre, and in 2004 it entered into an event services agreement with Rice-Eccles Stadium and Tower on the campus of the University of Utah. In 2005, Bruder was named President of the Utah Grizzlies Hockey Club overseeing the club's transition from the AHL to the ECHL. He assumed the role as the team's CEO in February of 2006. He has since presided over the team qualifying for the playoffs in 11 of the last 13 seasons and attendance increases in five of the last six seasons. The team finished fifth in the ECHL in attendance for the second-straight season in 2016-2017 with an average of 5,666 fans-per-game, the team's highest since the 2003-2004 season. Bruder received his bachelor's degree in accounting from Iowa State University and earned a master's of business administration from Drake University. He is also a graduate of the Public Assembly Administration School and attended the International Association of Assembly Managers Senior Executive Symposium. A certified public accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Bruder has also served on the budget committee and the professional development committee for IAAM. He was recently appointed to the board of directors for the TEAM Coalition and also serves as a director for the Life Safety Council. In 2003, he was invited by the Beijing Development and Planning Commission to serve on three bid-evaluation committees pertaining to the following Olympic Games venues, the Olympic Village, Convention Center, National Indoor Stadium and the Wukesong Sports and Entertainment Complex. Bruder serves as the chairman of the board of directors for ChamberWest and is also a member of the Westminster College Foundation Board of Directors. Bruder has also served on Visit Salt Lake Board as chair, Make A Wish Utah as its treasurer, Nationwide Envirocare Utah Golf Classic Board and was president of the Blessed Sacrament School Board. He and his wife, Susan, make their home in the Salt Lake suburb of Sandy. The couple has four children: Allison, Emily, Joel and Christopher.

Mike Bavis

Head Coach/Director of Hockey Operations

Mike Bavis was named the 19th head coach in Wheeling history on Aug. 8, 2018. The 49-year-old began his coaching career in 1998, joining the staff of his alma mater, Boston University. He spent 15 years as an assistant coach and an associate coach with Jack Parker and the Terriers. During his time there, Boston University compiled a 319-208-67 record, won the Hockey East championship twice and reached the NCAA Tournament eight times, including the school's fifth National Championship in 2009. The Terriers also captured The Beanpot eight times with Bavis behind the bench. After leaving B.U., Bavis spent one season as an assistant coach with the American Hockey League's Springfield Falcons, and most recently, one season as an assistant coach at Babson College in Wellesley, Massachusetts. The Roslindale, Massachusetts native was a forward, who entered his freshman year at Boston University after being selected by the Buffalo Sabres in the 1989 NHL Entry Draft. Bavis appeared in 159 games with the Terriers, totaling 82 points (34g-48a). Boston University reached the NCAA National Tournament all four seasons with him in the lineup, including three trips to the Frozen Four. After earning his degree in English, Bavis turned pro, playing two seasons in Buffalo's organization with the Rochester Americans and South Carolina Stingrays. During his coaching career at Boston University, Bavis had the opportunity to work with some outstanding players who went on to have great success in the NHL. Highlighting the top players were Nick Bonino, Charlie Coyle, Kevin Shattenkirk, Ryan Whitney and Colin Wilson. Bavis also had a few former Nailers under his tutelage with the Terriers, led by John Curry, Bryan Ewing and Sahir Gill. Mike and his wife Kim have three children – son Jack (18) and daughters Ciara (16) and Tyler (12).

Don Rigby
Governor

Don Rigby is the Executive Director of the Regional Economic Development Partnership and has spent his career in Manufacturing, Chamber of Commerce Management, and Economic Development in West Virginia. Since joining RED in 1999, Don has assisted over 100 companies expand in or relocate to West Virginia. Through his efforts, RED is now the largest economic development organization in the state. Rigby works in collaboration with city and county governments, local organizations interested in economic development, state government officials and agencies, as well as federal officials and agencies. Don travels extensively throughout the country to discuss the region's many excellent incentives and features for small and large businesses to locate in the area. Don also works with the West Virginia Development Office, the West Virginia Economic Development Authority, and the West Virginia Economic Development Council. He currently sits on the board of directors of Vision Shared, a statewide nonprofit, nonpartisan community and economic development organization; and Bel-O-Mar, an interstate regional planning and development council of governments. Rigby graduated from West Virginia University in 1976 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Management. A life-long resident of the Northern Panhandle, he and his wife, Kathy, reside in Wheeling.

Bruce Ramsay Head Coach

Bruce Ramsay enters his first season as Wichita's head coach after being named to the position on May 15, 2019. Ramsay, 50, returns to the ECHL after spending three seasons as an assistant with the AHL's Grand Rapids Griffins. Before that, he was the bench boss of the Tulsa Oilers from 2009-15, where he compiled a 185-180-35 record and led the Oilers to the playoffs in each of his last two seasons in Tulsa - which coincided with Oilers' final season in the Central Hockey League and their first season in the ECHL. A native of Dryden, Ontario, Ramsay returns to a place that he called home during his playing career. He played for the Thunder during the 2000-01 season, recording 35 points (11g-24a) and compiling 364 penalty minutes. Over his 12-year playing career, he was a part of eight championship teams, winning four Colonial Cups and two Royal Bank Cups. He finished with 245 points (74g-171a) and 3,432 penalty minutes in 677 games as a pro. After his playing career ended in 2005, he was named the Head Coach of the ACHL's St. Pete/Winston-Salem Parrots. His head coaching career spans 11 seasons, including stints with the Port Huron Beacons (2002-04), Muskegon Fury (2004-08), Muskegon Lumberjacks and the Oilers. Ramsay has consistently led his teams to the postseason, making the playoffs eight out of 11 years. In 2015, Ramsay stepped down from the Oilers to pursue an assistant coaching position with Grand Rapids and helped lead them to the 2017 Calder Cup title.

Joel T. Lomurno
General Manager

A native of Moorestown, New Jersey, Lomurno graduated from La Salle University in Philadelphia in 1992. He started with the Thunder in 1993 as an intern and is entering his 27th season with the team. Following the internship, he has worked in almost every department within the organization. Lomurno moved into ticket sales in 1994 and eventually became the director of public relations and play-by-play announcer through 2004, when he was promoted to assistant general manager. During that time, he even dressed for two games as emergency goaltender. Lomurno became general manager of the Thunder in 2008, and was charged with running both the Thunder and the expansion Wichita Wingnuts of the American Association of Professional Baseball, until the Wingnuts were sold to a local ownership group in 2010. Lomurno was twice named Central Hockey League Public Relations Executive of the Year (2000 and 2006) and was a finalist for the CHL Executive of the Year Award in both 2013 and 2014. Joel and his wife, Miranda, have a three-year-old daughter, Cincy.

Michael G. Myers
President

Michael G. Myers was named president of the Worcester Railers HC on May 20, 2016 after spending nine seasons with the AHL's Worcester Sharks as Senior Director of Business and Community Development. Myers made a significant impact in Central Massachusetts over that time overseeing an award-winning community relations department while also becoming a fixture in Worcester County's business landscape. Prior to his work with the Sharks, Myers owned and operated Myers Mask Design in Worcester where he built a reputation as one of the country's top mask designers for 11 years, having designed and painted masks for NHL greats such as former Conn Smythe winners Cam Ward and Bill Ranford, and NHL All-Stars Olaf Kolzig, Jonathan Quick and Dwayne Roloson. Myers painted a mask for Josh Harding of the Minnesota Wild that was voted "Mask of the Decade" by Sports Illustrated in 2010. Myers continues to actively serve on the boards of several non-profits throughout the area including: The Nativity School of Worcester, Devereux of Rutland and Rainbow Child Development Center of Worcester. A varsity hockey goalie and lacrosse player at Assumption College from 1989-93 he graduated with a Bachelor's Degree with a double major in Psychology/Spanish and a minor in Art. Myers attended ECHL training camps with the Hampton Roads Admirals in 1993 and the South Carolina Stingrays in 1994. The Assumption graduate returned to his alma mater, serving as the Greyhounds' hockey assistant coach from 1999-2005. As a USA Hockey Level 3 Coach, Mike has spent the last 11 years coaching over 17 youth hockey teams in the Junior Sharks and Junior Railers Organization. He is currently the head coach of the 2005 AAA Elite and Assistant Coach of the 2002 AAA Elite and Mite II teams. Myers resides in Worcester with his wife Ann and three sons: Matthew (18), Damon (15) and John (10).

SECTION 5 OFFICIALS

Thirty-three former ECHL officials were part of the National Hockey League's officiating team in 2018-19. Included among those on the staff were referee Wes McCauley (left), who was selected to work the Stanley Cup Final for the seventh consecutive season, and linesman Tim Nowak (right), who retired following the season after working over 1,700 career NHL games since making his debut on Oct. 8, 1993.

Major Rule Changes

1988-89

ECHL adopts use of NHL rulebook to govern on-ice play.

1990-91

The goal lines, blue lines, defensive zone face-off circle and markings all moved one foot out from the end boards.

1991-92

Crease changed to semi-circular configuration. Time clock to record tenths of a second in last minute of each period and overtime. Major and game misconduct penalty for checking from behind into boards.

1992-93

No substitutions allowed in the event of coincidental minor penalties called when both teams are at full strength. Minor penalty for attempting to draw a penalty ("diving").

1993-94

High sticking redefined to allow goals scored with a high stick below the height of the crossbar of the goal frame.

1995-96

Overtime period eliminated from game. If a game is tied at the end of regulation, it will be decided by a shootout.

1996-97

Maximum stick length increased to 63 inches. High sticking redefined to include any use of the stick above shoulder-height. All players must be clear of the attacking zone prior to the puck being shot into that zone. The opportunity to "tag-up" and return into the zone has been removed. A player who instigates a fight in the final five minutes of regulation time will receive a minor, a major, a misconduct and an automatic one-game suspension.

1998-99

Goal crease altered to extend one foot beyond each goal post (eight feet across in total). Sides of crease squared off, extending 4'6". Only the top of the crease remains rounded.

1999-2000

Crease rule revised to implement a "no harm, no foul" standard.

2001-02

Teams to play with four skaters and a goaltender in regular-season 5-minute overtime. If a goal is scored in regular-season overtime, the winner is awarded two points and the loser one point. If no goal is scored in overtime then a shootout will occur.

2002-03

"Hurry-up" face-off and line-change rules implemented. "Tag-up" off-side rule reinstated.

2003-04

All players are required to wear a visor. Maximum length of goaltender pads set at 38 inches.

2004-05

Ten-minute misconduct removed for player deemed to be the instigator of an altercation.

2005-06

Center red line eliminated for two-line passes. Goaltender not permitted to play the puck outside a designated trapezoid-shaped area behind the net. A team that ices the puck will not be permitted to make any player substitutions prior to the ensuing faceoff. The size of goaltender equipment has been reduced by approximately 11 percent. If a defending player from his defending zone shoots the puck directly out of the playing surface (over the glass) a penalty will be assessed for delaying the game. This rule was modified in 2006-07.

2006-07

If a defending player, from his defending zone, shoots the puck directly out of the playing surface, his team will not be permitted to make any player substitutions prior to the ensuing face-off. The penalty Gross Misconduct is eliminated from rulebook. All penalties that would have warranted gross misconducts are now called as game misconducts.

2008-09

When players are penalized at a stoppage of play so as to result in penalties being placed on the penalty time clock to one team, the ensuing face-off shall be conducted at one of the two face-off spots in the offending team's end zone. The Linesman may stop play and report to the Referee when it is apparent that an injury has resulted from a high-stick that has gone undetected by the Referee. When the puck hits the goal frame, goal post or crossbar and goes out of play the ensuing face-off shall take place at one of the end zone face-off spots in the zone where the puck went out of play. An automatic game misconduct will be assessed to players whose elbow pads are removed other than through the actions of his opponent during an altercation. A player who receives his third aggressor game misconduct will result in an automatic two game suspension. This suspension will increase by two games for each subsequent aggressor game misconduct.

2010-11

A lateral or blind side hit to an opponent where the head is targeted and/or the principle point of contact is not permitted. An automatic game misconduct penalty shall be assessed whenever a major penalty is assessed under this rule. The Referee, at his discretion, may assess a match penalty if, in his judgment, the player attempted to or deliberately injured his opponent with an illegal check to the head. If deemed appropriate, supplementary discipline can be applied by the League Office at its discretion.

2011-12

The ECHL adopts the 'Attainable Pass' icing standard in conjunction with no-touch icing. Under this icing standard, the Linesman shall have discretion to wave off apparent icing infractions on attempted passes if those passes are deemed receivable (attainable). In order for the Linesman to wash out the icing for this reason, the receiving player's stick must be on the attacking side of the center red line.

The ECHL also will follow the NHL standard for Boarding (Rule 41) and Head Shots (Rule 48).

2012-13

Anytime a player places his hand over the puck while it is on the ice in order to conceal it from or prevent an opponent from playing the puck, a minor penalty shall be assessed for "closing his hand on the puck." When this is done in his team's goal crease area, a penalty shot shall be assessed (67.4) or a goal awarded (67.5).

A minor penalty shall be imposed on a player who, while play is in progress, picks up the puck off the ice with his hand.

A two-referee system will be in use for all games in the Conference Finals and the Kelly Cup Finals.

2013-14

A two-minute minor penalty will be assessed to any player who removes his helmet prior to the start of a fight.

2014-15

The ECHL adopts hybrid icing. The hybrid-icing system allows the linesman to blow the play dead and call an automatic icing if he determines that the puck will cross the goal line and the defending player is not behind in the race to the end-zone faceoff dots in his defensive zone. The faceoff would go to the far end of the ice. If the attacking player is leading the race, the linesman is supposed to allow the play to continue.

Teams will start overtime of all regular-season games in the opposite end they started the game.

2015-16

Overtime will consist of five minutes of "sudden death" in a 3-on-3 format.

If neither team scores during the overtime period, the game will proceed to a shootout. The number of shooters per team in the shootout has been reduced to three. After each team has taken three shots, if the score remains tied, the shootout will proceed to a "sudden death" format.

The "spin-o-rama" move has been eliminated from the shootout. Should a player score a goal in the shootout while making such a move, the goal will not be allowed.

The distance of the hash marks on the end-zone faceoff circles is increased to 5 feet, 7 inches.

Two referees will be used for all games in the Kelly Cup Playoffs.

2016-17

A team is not permitted to call a time-out following an icing violation.

2018-19

Video replay for goal review is tested in Idaho, Kalamazoo, Toledo and Worcester

2019-20

Video replay review is expanded to include all 26 of the ECHL's cities.

Overtime in the regular season is extended from five minutes to seven minutes.

\ Please refer to the ECHL Rulebook for clarity on all situations.*

Ryan Birmingham Award

The award honors an On-Ice Official for his contributions and dedication to the league officiating staff and is determined in voting of ECHL On-Ice Officials. It is named in honor of ECHL linesman Ryan Birmingham, who tragically lost his life in an automobile accident in May 2007.

Birmingham began his officiating career when he was 12 years old in the Southgate Minor Hockey Association and worked his way into the USA Hockey Junior Officiating Development Program in 2003. Birmingham was hired as a full-time linesman by the ECHL in 2006 and worked 83 games in the regular season and four games in the Kelly Cup Playoffs, including his final game, Florida at Charlotte on April 17, 2007.

Jesse Schultz of the Cincinnati Cyclones was named the ECHL Most Valuable Player for the 2018-19 season. He led the league with 58 assists and 80 points, while he was tied for fourth with a +39 rating. He finished the season third in the league with 22 power-play assists and tied for sixth with 25 power-play points. Schultz had at least one point in 48 of his 71 games this season, and had 25 multi-point games.

ECHL Hall Of Fame

In conjunction with the celebration of its 20th Anniversary in 2007-08, the ECHL announced the formation of the ECHL Hall of Fame.

Class of 2019

The third-longest tenured professional hockey league, behind only the National Hockey League and the American Hockey League, the Premier 'AA'

Class of 2018

Hockey League has grown from five teams in four states in 1988-89 into a coast-to-coast league with 29 teams playing in 19 states and two Canadian provinces in 2019-20.

The inaugural class of inductees were league founder Henry Brabham, first league commissioner Patrick J. Kelly, five-time ECHL champion Nick Vitucci and seven-time All-Star defenseman Chris Valicevic.

The Class of 2019 included former ECHL players Jim Birmingham, Alex Hicks and Rick Judson, along with former ECHL Commissioner Brian McKenna.

Hall of Fame members will be selected in four categories: Player, Developmental Player, Builder, and Referee/Linesman. Players must have concluded their career as an active player for a minimum of three playing seasons, though not continuous or full seasons. Developmental Players must have begun their career in the ECHL and went on to a distinguished career in the NHL, playing a minimum of 260 regular season games in the NHL, AHL and ECHL. Builders may be active or inactive whereas Referee/Linesman must have concluded their active officiating career for a minimum of three playing seasons.

Class of 2017

Class of 2016

No more than five candidates may be elected to the ECHL Hall of Fame each year with no more than three Players, one Developmental Player, two Builders and one Referee/Linesman. The Builder and the Referee/Linesman categories are dependent upon the number of candidates in the Player category.

The nomination and/or selection of candidates is determined by the Hall of Fame Selection Committee and its Chairman Patrick J. Kelly.

Only members of the Selection Committee, the Board of Governors, teams or persons affiliated with the ECHL may submit official nominations which must be made in writing to the league office. Fans are encouraged to contact their team to propose names for nomination.

Class of 2015

Class of 2019

Jim Bermingham enjoyed a nine-year career in the ECHL, appearing in 500 games with Toledo, Wheeling, Huntington, Jackson and Pensacola. He ranks 10th in ECHL history with 588 points, 11th with 362 assists and tied for 15th with 226 goals. Bermingham scored at least 29 goals in five of his nine ECHL seasons, and over the course of his career, he was selected to play in three ECHL All-Star Games (1996, 1998 and 1999) which is tied for the fifth most in league history.

Alex Hicks began his professional career in the ECHL with the Toledo Storm in 1992-93, and recorded 140 points (57g-83a) in 112 games over two seasons. He was part of the Storm's Riley Cup championship teams in both 1993 and 1994, tallying 35 points (15g-20a) in 30 postseason contests. Hicks made his National Hockey League debut with the Anaheim Mighty Ducks in 1995-96 and posted 79 points (25g-54a) in 258 career NHL games with Anaheim, Pittsburgh, San Jose and Florida. He spent the final six years of his playing career in Germany in the DEL, and is currently an assistant coach at Arizona State University.

Rick Judson stands 21st in ECHL history with 213 goals and 31st with 488 points in 525 career games with Toledo and Greenville over 11 seasons from 1991-2006. He ranks as one of the top postseason performers in league history, ranking 13th all-time with 72 playoff points in just 57 postseason contests, while capturing Riley Cup titles with Toledo in 1993 and 1994. He was named Most Valuable Player of the 1993 Riley Cup Playoffs after posting 23 points (7g-16a) in 16 games.

Brian McKenna is the longest-serving Commissioner in ECHL history, holding the role for 16 seasons from the 2002-03 season through 2017-18. During his tenure, the ECHL became the only "AA" league in hockey, through absorbing members of the former West Coast Hockey League in 2003-04 and the Central Hockey League in 2014-15. In his first season as Commissioner, the ECHL changed its focus to become the primary developmental league for the NHL and AHL. Since that time, 451 players have gone on to play in the NHL after playing in the ECHL. Prior to being named Commissioner, McKenna was Executive Vice President and General Manger of the Trenton Titans from their founding and was named ECHL Executive of the Year following the Titans' inaugural season in 1999-2000, a season that saw the team average over 7,000 fans per game and advance to the Northern Conference Finals.

Class of 2018

Steve Chapman began his involvement with the ECHL in 1992, when he was hired as a sales executive with the Birmingham Bulls. Three years later, he was offered, and accepted, the General Manger position for the Mobile Mysticks, who brought professional hockey to Mobile, Alabama for the first time. In 2001, he played in integral role in relocating the team to Gwinnett County, Georgia, where the Gladiators began play in the 2003-04 season. The team reached the playoffs in each of their first six seasons in Atlanta, and finished in the top six in League attendance five times in their first six seasons. Chapman served as Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors for nine seasons from 2005-06 through 2014-15, and is the only person to win the ECHL Executive of the Year award in back-to-back seasons, doing so in 2005-06 and 2006-07. He departed the Gladiators following the 2014-15 season and is currently the Group VP, Brand, Community & Partnership Development for the National Hockey League's St. Louis Blues.

Sam Ftorek spent 15 seasons of his 18-year professional playing career in the ECHL, culminating in setting the League's all-time games played record with Kalamazoo in 2014-15. He set the record on Dec. 13, 2014, breaking the previous mark of 789 which was held by 2010 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee Cam Brown, and ended his career having appeared in 859 career ECHL games. Ftorek is tied for seventh in ECHL history with 367 career assists, 15th with 556 career points and 30th with 189 career goals. He earned a spot on the All-ECHL First Team, and was runner-up for the League's Defenseman of the Year award in 2013-14, when he posted 47 points (13g-34a) in 70 games with the Kalamazoo Wings.

Jason Saal became just the fourth goaltender to be selected for induction into the ECHL Hall of Fame. He ranks second among goaltenders in ECHL history with 455 career games, is fourth with 20 shutouts, and is fifth with 19,858 minutes played and 173 wins. He won 20 or more games five times in his ECHL career, which ranks third all-time in League history and he is one of just six goaltenders to have posted at least four consecutive seasons of at least 20 wins, doing so from 2000-01 through 2003-04. He also holds a record that may never be broken among ECHL goaltenders, as he posted a three-assist game for the Augusta Lynx on Dec. 12, 2003 against Greenville, becoming the first, and to this point only, goaltender in League history to record a three-point game.

Class of 2017

T. Paul Hendrick has served as the ECHL's General Counsel since the 1994-95 season. He began his association with the ECHL during the League's inaugural season in 1988-89 when he represented the Carolina Thunderbirds. He continued to serve as counsel for the Thunderbirds after their move to Wheeling in 1992, and also represented the Raleigh IceCaps upon their entrance to the ECHL in 1991. Hendrick has been instrumental in the guidance and foundation of building the league including the acquisition of expansion teams from the former West Coast Hockey League in 2002 and the Central Hockey League in 2014 and has played a significant role in League structure, governing documents and labor relations. In addition to representing the ECHL, Hendrick has also represented NASCAR; Kyle Petty, Richard Petty and Petty Enterprises; various NFL players, including Tony Dorsett; and the property ownership trust of the Atlanta Falcons. He is a current member and past chairman of the Sports and Entertainment Section of the North Carolina Bar Association.

Rick Kowalsky enjoyed a 10-year playing career in the ECHL, appearing in 516 career games with Hampton Roads, Roanoke and Trenton. He is tied for 34th all-time in League history in games played while ranking 19th with 221 goals, 23rd with 329 assists and tied for 16th with 550 points. He participated in a pair of ECHL All-Star Games – in 1995 and 2003 – and enjoyed his best years late in his career, earning All-ECHL First Team honors with Roanoke in 2001-02 and earning a spot on the All-ECHL Second Team in 2002-03. Kowalsky also enjoyed considerable postseason success, scoring 32 goals, which is tied for seventh in ECHL playoff history, and adding 30 assists in 68 postseason games. He ended his playing career by captaining Trenton to the 2005 Kelly Cup title, then returned to the Titans in 2006-07 as the team's head coach, going 138-122-28 over four seasons and winning the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year in 2009. He was named head coach for Albany of the AHL in 2010-11, and in 2015-16, joined Claude Noel as the only two individuals to win Coach of the Year honors in both the ECHL and AHL. Prior to the 2018-19 season, Kowalsky was named an assistant coach with the National Hockey League's New Jersey Devils.

Brad Phillips ranks as one of the best on-ice officials to ever work in the ECHL. The linesman worked 15 years in the League, and is one of just three officials – along with 2011 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee Joe Ernst and former linesman Norm Eberle – to work at least 1,000 ECHL games. He was selected to work the 2001 ECHL All-Star Game in Arkansas, and he served as a linesman during nine Kelly Cup Finals, the most of any linesman in ECHL history. Following the 2012-13 season, he received the Ryan Birmingham Memorial Award in a vote of his fellow on-ice officials. The award honors an official for his contributions and dedication to the league officiating staff and is named in honor of ECHL linesman Ryan Birmingham who tragically lost his life in an automobile accident in May 2007. He becomes only the second on-ice official to be inducted into the ECHL Hall of Fame.

Class of 2016

Daniel Berthiaume appeared in 364 games over a nine-year ECHL career with the Wheeling Thunderbirds, Roanoke Express and Greensboro Generals. He ranks fifth all-time among League goaltenders in games played while his 201 career wins are third and his 18 shutouts are fourth all-time. During the 1994-95 season with Roanoke, he put together a personal 13-game winning streak, which stood as the ECHL record for 20 seasons. Seven times in his nine ECHL seasons, Berthiaume won 20 or more games, which is tied with 2008 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee Nick Vitucci for the most 20-or-more win seasons in League history. He earned a spot on the All-ECHL Second Team in 1999-2000 when he finished fourth in the League with a .918 save percentage and fifth with a 2.48 goals-against average. A third-round selection (60th overall) of the Winnipeg Jets in the 1985 NHL Entry Draft, Berthiaume appeared in 215 career NHL games with the Jets, Minnesota North Stars, Los Angeles Kings, Boston Bruins and Ottawa Senators prior to joining Wheeling in the 1994-95 season.

Craig Brush helped to found the ECHL's Florida Everblades and Hertz Arena along with partners Peter Karmanos and Thomas Thewes in 1998. He has served as the team's President and General Manager since inception and he oversees all aspects of both the hockey club and the sports complex. In their first 20 seasons, the Everblades welcomed over four million fans, placing in the top 10 of ECHL attendance in every season, including leading the league for five consecutive seasons from 2000-01 through 2004-05. Florida has reached the Kelly Cup Finals four times, capturing the title in 2012. He served as the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors for three seasons from 2003 through 2006.

Allan Sirois enjoyed an 11-season career in the ECHL, suiting up in 687 career games with Baton Rouge, Jacksonville, Pee Dee, Greenville and Texas. He sits fifth all-time in League history in games played while ranking 12th with 249 goals, tied for 15th with 345 assists and ninth with 594 points. He participated in a pair of ECHL All-Star Games, and took home Most Valuable Player honors at the 2002 game in Trenton when he scored two goals and added an assist. Sirois enjoyed most of his success in Pee Dee, ranking as the all-time leading scorer in Pride history with 432 points (176g-256a) in 486 games. He enjoyed his best statistical season in 1998-99 when he finished seventh in the league with 84 points (35g-49a) earning a spot on All-ECHL Second Team and helping Pee Dee to the Brabham Cup as ECHL regular-season champions.

Class of 2015

Darren Colbourne played 421 games over seven seasons in the ECHL with Dayton, Richmond, Raleigh and Augusta. He ranks fifth in League history with 323 goals and 14th with 567 points while his 0.77 goals-per-game average ranks third all-time. Twice during his career, he scored 69 goals in a season – 1991-92 with Dayton and 1993-94 with Richmond – which ranks as the third-most in a single season in ECHL history. He owns third (26 in 1991-92) and fourth (25 in 1993-94) place in League history for most power-play goals in a season, and his six hat tricks in 1991-92 are the third best in a single season. Colbourne scored 40 or more goals four times in his ECHL career, including three seasons of at least 50 goals, which is tied for the most in history. He was named the ECHL Rookie of the Year and earned a spot on the All-ECHL First Team in 1991-92 after posting 119 points (69g-50a) in 64 games with Dayton and earned a spot on the All-ECHL Second Team in 1993-94.

Louis Dumont is the ECHL's all-time leader with 566 assists and 891 points and is third all-time with 771 games played and is tied for third with 325 goals. He made his pro debut in the ECHL with Tallahassee and Wheeling in 1994-95 and went on to play 12 seasons in the League. Dumont captured the ECHL scoring title with Pensacola in 2001-02, recording 102 points (32g-70a) in 72 games on his way to earning a spot on the All-ECHL First Team. He also represented the Ice Pilots in the 2002 ECHL All-Star Game, where he picked up a pair of assists and won the Fastest Skater competition. Dumont also enjoyed postseason success, as he is tied for 19th all-time with 38 postseason assists and tied for 23rd with 74 postseason games played.

Scott Sabatino worked in the ECHL League Office for 12 years from 1995 through 2006, serving as the League's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for the final six seasons of his tenure. During his time with the ECHL, Sabatino oversaw all areas of business operations for the League while working closely with team ownership and management on risk management programs, initiating the annual review and reporting project, overseeing league-wide scheduling and other League programs. Sabatino joined the Pac-10 Conference in November 2006 as Associate Commissioner for Business and Finance and in 2010, was hired as Director of Finance for the San Francisco 49ers, where today he is the Vice President of Finance.

Carl Scheer enjoyed over 20 years of experience as an ECHL team executive. He first joined the League in 1993-94, when the Charlotte Checkers joined the ECHL as an expansion team. It was the first time professional hockey had called Charlotte home in over 15 years, and the team was a nearly instant success drawing over 8,100 fans per game in its inaugural season. Charlotte finished in the top four in ECHL attendance in each of its first four seasons and went on to capture the Riley Cup championship in 1996. Scheer, who served as the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors for several seasons in the 1990s, developed the BI-LO Center in downtown Greenville and brought the Greenville Grrrowl into the ECHL for the 1998-99 season. The Grrrowl averaged over 9,200 fans per game in their first season, and still hold three of the nine largest single-game crowds in ECHL history.

Class of 2014

James Edwards served as President for the Johnstown Chiefs from the 1995-96 season through 2002-03. He was the Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors for four seasons from 1999-2000 through 2002-03. Edwards was instrumental in helping to keep the last remaining original ECHL team in its same city as the League continued to expand into larger markets and served as the Chairman of the Board as the ECHL approved expansion to include seven markets in the western United States for the 2003-04 season, making the League a coast-to-coast league.

Wes Goldie is the ECHL's all-time leader in career goals with 370, breaking the previous mark of 368 held by 2009 Hall of Fame inductee Rod Taylor, and he ranks fourth in League history with 697 games played over 11 seasons with Pee Dee, Victoria and Alaska. He shares with Taylor the ECHL record for most 30-or-more goal seasons with eight, and he shares the league mark for most consecutive 30-plus goal seasons with six from 2006-07 through 2011-12. Goldie also had success in the Kelly Cup Playoffs, as he ranks fifth all-time in postseason games played with 84, third with 36 postseason goals and fifth with 78 points. He enjoyed perhaps his best season in 2010-11 with Alaska, earning ECHL Most Valuable Player honors with 83 points (46g-37a) in 72 games and adding 14 points (3g-11a) in 13 postseason contests as the Aces captured their second Kelly Cup title in team history.

Al MacIsaac played two seasons in the ECHL with the Hampton Roads Admirals in 1991-92 and 1992-93, scoring 73 points (22g-51a) in 95 career games. He was part of the Admirals' 1992 Riley Cup championship team, scoring 10 points (1g-9a) in 14 postseason games and represented the club in the first-ever ECHL All-Star Game in 1993. MacIsaac also won an American Hockey League Calder Cup title with the Cape Breton Oilers in 1993. Following his playing career, MacIsaac became the Admirals' assistant general manager/assistant coach, was promoted to general manager/assistant coach in 1996 and he earned a Kelly Cup championship ring with the club in 1998. MacIsaac is currently in his 19th season in the front office of the National Hockey League's Chicago Blackhawks where he was part of the team's 2010 and 2013 Stanley Cup titles, and is in his ninth season as the club's Vice President of Hockey Operations.

John Spoltore, who passed away in 2010, made his mark on the ECHL Record Book while playing with the Louisiana IceGators from 1995-96 through 2000-01. He scored an amazing 532 points (142g-390a) in just 275 career ECHL games, an average of 1.93 points-per-game, and his 390 assists are tied for the third most in League history. His 1.15 assists-per-game average ranks tops in ECHL history and he fell just one assist shy of tying the League's single-season assist record when he recorded 92 during the 1999-2000 season. He was named to the All-ECHL Second Team in 1997-98 before earning a spot on the All-ECHL First Team in each of the next two seasons. Spoltore represented the IceGators in the 1999 and 2000 ECHL All-Star Games, and he earned a Calder Cup title with the Providence Bruins of the American Hockey League in 1999 after tallying 12 points (6g-6a) in 11 postseason contests.

Class of 2013

David Craievich began playing in the ECHL as a rookie in 1991-92 with the Cincinnati Cyclones, and went on to play 516 games over nine seasons in the league with the Cyclones, Birmingham Bulls and Mobile Mysticks. He ranks third all-time among ECHL defensemen with 123 goals and 467 points while ranking fourth among blue-liners with 344 assists. Twice during his career he scored at least 20 goals, and in 1995-96, he led the expansion Mysticks in scoring with 74 points (23g-51a) in 65 games. Craievich played in three ECHL All-Star Games, and was selected as a starter for the 1994 and 1996 games. He was named to the All-ECHL Second Team in 1993-94, 1995-96 and 1997-98.

Marc Magliarditi became the second goaltender to join the ECHL Hall of Fame. He is tied for the League's all-time lead with 25 career shutouts, ranks second behind 2008 Hall of Fame inductee Nick Vitucci with 217 career wins and is third with 21,154 minutes played. He played in 366 games, which is fourth all-time among goaltenders, with the Columbus Chill, Florida Everblades, Louisiana IceGators, Richmond Renegades and Las Vegas Wranglers. Six times in his ECHL career he won at least 20 games, and his two seasons of 30 or more wins are tied for second all-time.

Steve Poapst is the second inductee in the Developmental Player category. Poapst began his professional career in the ECHL with the Hampton Roads Admirals in 1991-92, scoring 28 points (8g-20a) in 55 regular-season games and adding five points (1g-4a) in 14 postseason games, helping the Admirals to claim their second consecutive Riley Cup championship. He returned to Hampton Roads the following season, tallying 45 points (10g-35a) in 63 games. Poapst made his NHL debut with the Washington Capitals in 1995-96, scoring one goal in three regular-season games, while also seeing action in six games during the Stanley Cup Playoffs. He appeared in 307 career National Hockey League games with Washington, Chicago, Pittsburgh and St. Louis, tallying 36 points (8g-28a). Poapst also registered 205 points (45g-160a) in 498 career games in the American Hockey League with Baltimore, Portland and Norfolk. Following his retirement, he went on to coach three seasons in the United States Hockey League and five seasons in the AHL.

Darren Schwartz arrived in the ECHL during the league's second season in 1989-90 and played eight seasons in the league with the Johnstown Chiefs, Winston-Salem Thunderbirds, Wheeling Thunderbirds, Tallahassee Tiger Sharks and Wheeling Nailers. Schwartz made his biggest mark in the ECHL during Wheeling's inaugural season in 1992-93. He scored a team record 62 goals in 62 games that season, becoming one of just eight players in ECHL history to score at least 60 goals in a single season. He set the ECHL record with a 16-game goal streak, scoring 25 goals from Jan. 14-Feb. 21, 1993; tallied a hat trick in a span of 30 seconds on Dec. 20, 1992; and was named the Most Valuable Player of the league's inaugural All-Star Game with four points (2g-2a). Schwartz ranks seventh in ECHL history with 313 goals, is 13th with 571 points, is tied for seventh with 32 postseason goals and is 14th with 70 postseason points. He was named to the All-ECHL First Team in 1992-93, 1993-94 and 1994-95 and upon his retirement following the 1998-99 season, held the ECHL career record with 490 games played.

Class of 2012

Bill Coffey was one of the driving forces behind the creation of the ECHL. Along with inaugural ECHL Hall of Fame inductee Henry Brabham, Coffey came up with the idea to form the league during the summer of 1988. He was the original owner of the Knoxville Cherokees, and also assisted in establishing the Erie Panthers, giving the league five teams for its inaugural season in 1988-89. He also established one of the ECHL's first expansion teams, the Greensboro Monarchs, who entered the league in 1989-90.

Sheldon Gorski began playing in the ECHL as a rookie in 1990-91 with the Louisville IceHawks, and went on to play eight seasons in the league with the IceHawks, Louisville RiverFrogs, Miami Matadors and Pensacola Ice Pilots. He ranks sixth in ECHL history with 316 goals and 608 points, and is tied for fifth with a 0.67 goals-per game average. Three times during his career, Gorski scored 50 or more goals, including a career-high 56 in 1991-92. He was an All-ECHL Second Team selection in 1990-91 and was named to the All-ECHL First Team in 1991-92. Gorski played in the 1993 and 1998 ECHL All-Star Games, tallying five assists, which is tied for third all-time. He is one of just four players in league history to tally 100 or more points in consecutive seasons (1990-91 and 1991-92).

John Marks ranks as one of the most successful coaches in ECHL history. He joined the league as head coach of the expansion Charlotte Checkers in 1993-94 and won at least 35 games nine times. He posted an all-time record of 491-422-95 in 15 seasons as an ECHL head coach with Charlotte, Greenville, Pensacola and Augusta, and ranks second all-time in games coached (1,008), wins (491) and seasons (15). His teams also excelled during the postseason as he led Charlotte to the 1996 Riley Cup championship and Greenville to the 2002 Kelly Cup championship, joining 2009 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee John Brophy as the only coaches to win both a Riley

Cup and Kelly Cup title. His 10 postseason appearances are second behind only Brophy, while his 45 wins are tied for fifth.

Dave Seitz played in 489 games over eight seasons with the South Carolina Stingrays. He ranks sixth in ECHL history with 384 assists, is 11th with 587 points and is 20th with 217 goals. Seitz was part of South Carolina's 1997 and 2001 Kelly Cup championship teams, and was named Most Valuable Player of the 2001 Kelly Cup Playoffs after leading the postseason with 15 assists and 28 points and tying for the lead with 13 goals. His 73 postseason points are tied for 10th all-time, while his 44 assists are tied for 11th and his 29 goals are tied for 14th. Seitz played in the 1998 and 1999 ECHL All-Star Games, and is tied for third in All-Star history with five career assists.

Bob Woods ranks ninth in ECHL history with 599 games played, and is the all-time leader among defensemen with 159 goals, over 10 seasons with Johnstown, Hampton Roads, Mobile, Tallahassee and Mississippi. He is ninth all-time with 364 assists and his 523 points are 24th all-time. Both marks are second among defensemen, trailing only 2008 ECHL Hall of Fame inductee Chris Valicevic. Woods holds the ECHL record for shots on goal in a game with 17 on March 14, 1998 and was an All-ECHL Second Team selection three times (1996-97, 1998-99 and 2000-01). Woods, who led ECHL defensemen in points in 1996-97 and in goals in 1998-99, was part of Mississippi's 1999 Kelly Cup championship team. Following his retirement as a player, he was head coach of the Sea Wolves from 2001-2005.

Class of 2011

Richard Adams joined the ECHL as Vice President of Business Operations prior to the 1994-95 season. The following season, he was named President/CEO, a position he held through the 2001-02 season. Under his leadership, the League executed its first Collective Bargaining Agreement with the Professional Hockey Players' Association, launched ECHL Properties, unveiled a new logo and launched the official League website, ECHL.com. The League grew from 21 members in 1995-96 to 29 in 2001-02, and moved into 17 markets that had never before had professional hockey. Adams was one of the driving forces behind the addition of six former West Coast Hockey League markets during the summer of 2002.

Phil Berger began playing in the ECHL as a rookie in 1989-90 with Greensboro and played nine seasons in the league with Greensboro, Charlotte, Raleigh and Hampton Roads. He ranks eighth in ECHL history with 599 points, 11th in goals (251) and 14th in assists (348). His 0.69 goals-per-game, 0.95 assists-per-game and 1.64 points-per-game averages are all fourth-best in league history. Berger led the ECHL in scoring with 130 points (60g-70a) in 1991-92 and with 139 points (56g-83a) in 1993-94. He was named to the All-ECHL Second Team and the ECHL Most Valuable Player in 1991-92 and was named to the All-ECHL First Team in 1993-94. Berger is the ECHL's all-time leader in postseason scoring with 117 points, is tied for first with 50 postseason goals and is second with 67 postseason assists. He was a member of two Riley Cup championship teams – Greensboro in 1990 and Charlotte in 1996. Berger played in the first two ECHL All-Star Games in 1993 and 1994 and scored three points (2g-1a).

Luke Curtin made his ECHL debut in 1998-99, and went on to play in 501 games over nine seasons with Baton Rouge, Atlantic City and Fresno. He is fifth in ECHL history with 384 assists and 12th with 577 points. Curtin is second all-time with five ECHL All-Star Game appearances (1999, 2000, 2005, 2006 and 2007) and he was named the Most Valuable Player of the 2006 ECHL All-Star Game with two goals. He was a member of Atlantic City's 2003 Kelly Cup championship team and finished tied for second during the Kelly Cup Playoffs with 20 points (2g-18a). Curtin is fifth in ECHL postseason history with 58 assists and is tied for seventh with 75 postseason points. He was an All-ECHL First Team selection in 2003-04 and 2005-06 and was named to the ECHL All-Decade Team for 2000-2010 in a vote of fans on ECHL.com.

Joe Ernst, who was the first inductee in the Referee/Linesman category, is celebrating his 29th season in the ECHL in 2019-20. Ernst spent 16 seasons as a referee with the ECHL beginning in 1991-92, and after retiring was named Assistant Director of Officiating. He was named Vice President of Hockey Operations prior to the 2011-12 season and was promoted to Senior Vice President of Hockey Operations in 2018. Ernst officiated 1,061 regular-season games and over 200 postseason games, and is the only referee in ECHL history to have worked over 1,000 games. He was a member of the NHL Trainee Program for seven seasons and worked preseason games in the National Hockey League, as well as games in the American Hockey League and International Hockey League. Ernst was selected to work the 1999 ECHL All-Star Game and worked nine ECHL Finals series (1993-1995 Riley Cup Finals and 2002-2007 Kelly Cup Finals).

Class of 2010

Cam Brown retired as the ECHL all-time leader, and currently ranks second, with 789 regular-season games and is the all-time leader with 2,425 penalty minutes. He played 13 seasons in the ECHL beginning in 1991-92 and ranks 24th with 206 goals, 29th with 499 points and 33rd with 293 assists. He retired in 2002-03 to serve as head coach of Baton Rouge, but returned to the ice in 2003-04 and spent three seasons as a player/assistant coach for Gwinnett. He also played two seasons with Columbus (Ohio), three seasons with Erie and six seasons with Baton Rouge while also playing in the American Hockey League and the International Hockey League.

He played one game in the National Hockey League as a rookie with Vancouver in 1990-91 and had seven penalty minutes. Brown was honored after the 2005-06 season by the Gladiators who created a replica of his locker with gear and sweater in a glass case on the concourse of The Arena at the Gwinnett Center.

E.A. "Bud" Gingher, who passed away in 2002, co-founded the Dayton Bombers in 1991 and served as President and Governor until he sold the team in 1998. He was Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors from 1992-95 and is a member of both the Dayton Hockey Hall of Fame and the Peoria Rivermen Hockey Hall of Fame. The club that advances to the Kelly Cup Finals as the winner of the Eastern Conference is presented with the E.A. "Bud" Gingher Memorial Trophy. Dayton was the inaugural recipient of the trophy after its renaming and the Bombers captured it again in 2006-07.

The first inductee in the Developmental Player category, Olaf Kolzig was 11-9-1 and ranked third in the ECHL with a 3.41 goals-against average in 21 regular-season games and 1-2-0 with a 4.66 goals against average in three postseason games with Hampton Roads in 1990-91. In 1991-92 with Hampton Roads, Kolzig led the ECHL in the regular season with a .914 save percentage while going 11-3-0 with a 2.90 goals-against average in 14 regular-season games. He was selected as an NHL All-Star in 1998 and 2000 and became the first former ECHL player to win the Vezina Trophy in 1999-2000. Kolzig appeared in 719 career NHL games and ranks 21st all-time with 303 wins while posting 35 shutouts and having a goals-against average of 2.71 and a save percentage of .906. He led the Capitals to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1997-98 registering four shutouts and a goals-against average of 1.95. He had 41 wins, five shutouts and a goals-against average of 2.24 in 1999-2000 earning a selection to the NHL All-Star Game and First Team All-NHL while winning the Vezina Trophy.

Darryl Noren began playing in the ECHL as a rookie in 1990-91 with Greensboro and played 10 seasons including his final six with the Charlotte Checkers. He ranks third in ECHL history with 685 points, tied for third with 390 assists, eighth with 295 goals and 24th with 549 games. He finished his career in 1999-2000 as the ECHL all-time leader in games, assists and points. Noren scored 30-or-more goals five times including a career-high 46 in 1994-95. He tied the ECHL record with three consecutive three-or-more goal games in December of 1994 and had seven games with three-or-more goals in 1994-95. He helped the Checkers capture the Riley Cup Championship in 1996 and had 41 points (18g-23a) in 48 postseason games. He was selected to the 15th Anniversary All-ECHL Team in voting by coaches, players, front office personnel and media from the first 15 years of the ECHL and was inducted into the inaugural class of the Charlotte Hockey Hall of Fame in 2008. He was chosen to play in the ECHL All-Star Game in 1995, 1997 and 1998.

Class of 2009

John Brophy won a record three ECHL titles with Hampton Roads in 1991, 1992 and 1998. He coached at all levels of professional hockey, including the National Hockey League, and his more than 1,000 coaching victories rank him second all-time to Scotty Bowman. He retired as the ECHL leader for regular season games (882), regular season wins (480) and years coached (13). He holds the league records for postseason wins (55), postseason appearances (11) and championships (3) while ranking second in postseason games coached (94). The ECHL Coach of the Year award is named in his honor.

Blake Cullen was the founder and owner of the Hampton Roads Admirals for the team's first seven seasons in the ECHL. The Admirals advanced to the playoffs every year and won back-to-back Riley Cup championships in their second and third seasons. Hampton Roads drew more than 1.8 million fans during his tenure and led the league in attendance in 1989-90 and 1992-93 while ranking among the attendance leaders every year.

Tom Nemeth won the ECHL Defenseman of the Year award three times and was selected First Team All-ECHL three years. He holds the ECHL records for assists and points by a defenseman in a season with 82 assists and 98 points in 1993-94. He is third all-time among defensemen with 345 assists and 463 points and he led all defensemen in 2000-01 with 20 goals, 48 assists and 68 points. He played in the ECHL All-Star Game in 1993, 1994, 1998 and 2001, tying him for the third-most appearances.

Rod Taylor is second all-time in ECHL history with 368 goals and is tied for first all-time for most 30-goal seasons (8) and most consecutive 30-goal seasons (6). He played all but 19 of his professional games in the ECHL. He retired as the all-time leader in goals (368), points (689) and games (678) and remains second in scoring and sixth in games. He helped Hampton Roads win the Riley Cup as a rookie in 1992, scoring a league record-tying 16 goals in 14 games, and the Kelly Cup in 1998. He is third in career postseason goals (39) and tied for 15th in postseason games (78).

Class of 2008

Henry Brabham founded the ECHL, formerly known as the East Coast Hockey League, in 1988-89 with five teams in four states. Brabham owned three of the original five teams, including the legendary Johnstown Chiefs who were the last original ECHL team to play in their original city. The dedication of the Virginia businessman was crucial to the league surviving to span from coast-to-coast while advancing more than 650 players and countless coaches, on-ice officials and front office personnel to the National Hockey League.

Patrick J. Kelly was the inaugural Commissioner of the ECHL, which from 1988-96 experienced the greatest expansion in minor league hockey history, growing from five teams to 21. He was instrumental in establishing affiliations with teams in the NHL, creating the opportunity for players, on-ice officials and front office personnel to develop and move up the hockey ladder. He became Commissioner Emeritus in 1996, and since 1997 has presented the postseason champion with the Patrick J. Kelly Cup.

During his nine-year career, Chris Valicevic established himself as not only one of the best defensemen in league history, but one of the greatest players overall while playing for the Greensboro Monarchs and the Louisiana IceGators. He was selected to a record seven All-Star Games and was named First Team All-ECHL five times while being named the league Most Valuable Player in 1998-99. He ranks second all-time with 102 postseason games and is the career regular season and postseason leader among defensemen in assists and points.

Nick Vitucci won a record five ECHL championships, four as a player and one as an assistant coach. Named the postseason Most Valuable Player twice, he played 14 seasons and is the career regular-season leader among goaltenders in games, minutes and win. He played in two All-Star Games and was named First Team All-ECHL in 1991-92 and 1997-98.

---

Cincinnati Cyclones' head coach Matt Thomas received the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year last season after leading the Cyclones to the Brabham Cup title as ECHL regular-season champions with a 51-13-8 record for 110 points. Cincinnati went 30-2-4 at home, tying the ECHL record for most home wins and fewest regulation losses in a single season, while the Cyclones' Central Division championship marked their first division title since 2012-13. Thomas also served as a coach for the 2019 CCM/ECHL All-Star Classic, marking his third All-Star appearance, tying the most All-Star coaching assignments in ECHL history.

Every team takes the ice each October with one goal in mind, to be the team that gets the honor of hoisting the Kelly Cup as the ECHL champion. The trophy is presented each year by the man for whom it is named - ECHL Commissioner Emeritus Patrick J. Kelly. The Newfoundland Growlers captured the 2019 Kelly Cup title, defeating the Toledo Walleye 4 games to 2 in the Kelly Cup Finals, to become the first team since Greensboro in 1990 to win the ECHL title in their first season of existence.

CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHIES*PATRICK J. KELLY CUP

Beginning with the 1996-97 season, the Patrick J. Kelly Cup is awarded annually to the playoff champion of the ECHL.

History: Named in recognition of Patrick J. Kelly, one of the founding fathers of the ECHL. Kelly served as Commissioner of the ECHL for the first eight seasons before being named Commissioner Emeritus in 1996, a title which he continues to hold. Kelly celebrated his 65th season in hockey in 2017-18, having begun his career with the St. Catharines Tee Pees of the Ontario Junior Hockey League in 1952. He played professionally for the Springfield Indians of the American Hockey League, the Troy Bruins of the International Hockey League, and the Greensboro Generals of the Eastern Hockey League. Kelly coached in the Eastern Hockey League from 1965-73 and was head coach and general manager of Charlotte in the Southern Hockey League from 1973-76. He coached the Colorado Rockies in the NHL in 1977-78 and is the only coach to lead the Rockies to the Stanley Cup Playoffs. Following coaching stops in the American Hockey League, he went to Peoria in the International Hockey League where he led the Rivermen to the Turner Cup in his first season in 1984-85. The ECHL is proud to recognize his distinguished career by naming its most coveted trophy in his honor.

JACK RILEY CUP

History: Named in recognition of Jack Riley, the Jack Riley Cup was awarded to the playoff champion of the ECHL from the league's inaugural season in 1988-89 until 1995-96 when it was retired and replaced with the Patrick J. Kelly Cup. Beginning in 1938, Jack Riley did it all in professional hockey as a player, coach, general manager and scout. One of the most respected names in hockey, Riley was President of the American Hockey League from 1964-67 and was then a scout for the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League until being named Commissioner of the Southern Hockey League in 1975.

HENRY BRABHAM CUP

Beginning with the inaugural season in 1988-89, the Henry Brabham Cup is awarded annually to the regular-season point champion of the ECHL.

History: Named in recognition of Henry Brabham, a founding member of the ECHL, who was the first owner of the Erie Panthers. A former mayor and businessman who was a major force in professional hockey in Virginia for more than 15 years, Brabham worked tirelessly to establish the fledgling league. The ECHL is proud to recognize his hard work and dedication by naming its regular-season champion award in his honor.

E.A. "BUD" GINGHER MEMORIAL TROPHY

The club that advances to the Kelly Cup Finals as the winner of the Eastern Conference Championship is presented with the E.A. "Bud" Gingher Memorial Trophy.

History: Named in recognition of E.A. "Bud" Gingher, who was Chairman of the ECHL Board of Governors from 1992-95. Gingher, who passed away in 2002, co-founded the Dayton Bombers in 1991 and owned the team for seven seasons, serving as President and Governor until selling the team in 1998. Beginning in 1997-98, the trophy was awarded to the playoff champion of the Northern Conference in the ECHL.

BRUCE TAYLOR TROPHY

The club that advances to the Kelly Cup Finals as the winner of the Western Conference Championship is presented with the Bruce Taylor Trophy.

The trophy is named in recognition of Bruce Taylor, who was the founding father of the West Coast Hockey League. In the early 1990s, Taylor purchased teams in Fresno, Reno and Bakersfield and in 1995 joined them with teams in Anchorage, Fairbanks and San Diego to form the West Coast Hockey League. The Taylor Cup was presented to the playoff champion in the WCHL from the league's inaugural season in 1995-96 until the league ceased operations following the 2002-03 season. Taylor's ownership in hockey began in 1983 with the purchase of the Burnaby Bluehawks of the British Columbia Junior Hockey League and continued with the purchase of the Richmond Sockeyes in the BCJHL and the New Westminster Royals in the BCJHL.

History: Beginning in 1997-98, the trophy was awarded to the playoff champion of the Southern Conference in the ECHL. With the restructuring of the league divisional alignment beginning in 2003-04, the trophy was designated for the playoff champion of the Western Conference and in 2004-05, the winner of the National Conference.

JUNE M. KELLY PLAYOFFS MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

An annual award presented "to the most valuable player for his team in the playoffs." Winner selected by the media and ECHL staff at the conclusion of the final game in the Kelly Cup Finals.

The trophy is named in honor of June M. Kelly, the wife of ECHL Commissioner Emeritus Patrick J. Kelly, whom the Kelly Cup is named after. Mrs. Kelly was an integral part of the ECHL behind the scenes during her husband's tenure as Commissioner from the League's inaugural season in 1988-89 through his retirement following the 1995-96 season.

During the early years of the ECHL, the Kelly tandem were the only employees of the League Office. As the administration and financial overseer of the League, June served as the backbone of the office, allowing her husband, Pat, to travel and build the League during its infancy.
