

Lumberjacks DUG OUT

Saturday, June 17 vs. Yonkers

Look out Lumberjack fans! Tonight your Lumberjacks are facing the Yonkers Hoot Owls, here at the Lumberyard. After losing a close game last night a win is on their agenda.

Greenwich native, Bill Faile, will get the start tonight. Last season Faile played with a minor league affiliate of the Atlanta Braves. If Faile keeps the 'Jacks ahead going into the 8th or 9th inning look for big Glens Falls native, Matt Stevens, to come in to close out the game. Stevens played last year with the AAA affiliate of the Minnesota Twins and will be the Lumberjacks number one man out of the bullpen.

At the plate the 'Jacks hope to get things going tonight. Leading the team thus far is first baseman Darren Doucette. Doucette is batting .500 with both a double and a homerun after only one game. It appears as if Doucette will be a powerhouse this year for the 'Jacks.

Keep an eye on lead off man Jeff Cook. Cook was on base three out of five times in the Jacks opener. Cook also has a stolen base and has scored a run. Cook appears to be a very productive lead-off hitter.

Defensively, at third base, Antonio Cabrera displays a great arm and good range. Cabrera, in the "hot corner" seems key to the Lumberjacks defense.

Tonight the "Jacks will be careful with Yonkers' DH Pete Bifone and second baseman Mike Roig. Bifone and Roig are each batting .667. Bifone's on base percentage is .750. On the mound for the Hoot Owls will be right hander Damon Piccolo. Last year Piccolo played in the Frontier League.

Game time will be at 7:00. Go get'm 'Jacks!

The Adirondack Lumberjacks would like to thank all the students attending the game for Student Night. Keep those good grades coming!

PREVIOUS GAME RESULTS

Last night your Adirondack Lumberjacks took the field for the first time. In what was an innaugural gala the 'Jacks lost a close battle to the Yonkers Hoot Owls 5-3. With close to 4,000 fans attending the game, East Field, now more commonly known as the Lumberyard, was booming. Good, old fashioned, pure baseball returned to Glens Falls.

With the exclusion of a rough first inning and a small jam in the seventh 'Jacks starting pitcher Chris Rauth pitched exceptionally well. The only problem was Yonkers starter Michael Maerten pitched even better. Maerten pitched a complete game while only giving up six hits.

First basman Darren Doucette supplied some early fireworks for the Lumberjacks in the 8th inning as he blasted a homerun over the centerfield fence. Doucette had displayed power earlier in the game by just missing a homerun in a previous at bat.

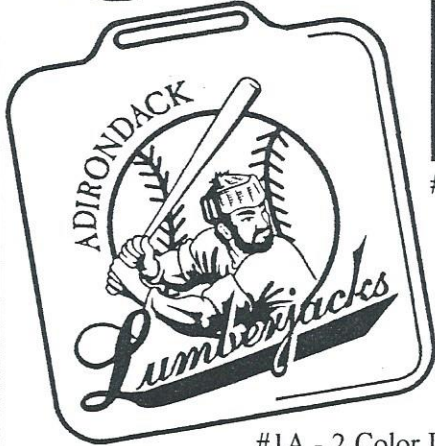

Chad Ward came in to relieve Rauth in the 7th. Ward pitched superbly giving up no runs, no hits, and striking out four in three innings of work.
