

Game Notes, Pittsburgh Phantoms vs New York Generals, August 6, 1967

BUSY WEEK - Today's match is the first of a three-game home stand during the week for the Generals. Wednesday night at 8:00 p.m. they meet the eastern division leading Baltimore Bays and Saturday night at 8:00 p.m. the western division pace setters, the Oakland Clippers.

PICTURE DAY- All youngsters entering the stadium today will receive a Generals team photograph.

VS. PHANTOMS-The Generals have scored more goals against the Phantoms, 9, than against any other team in the league. On May 17, New York lost 5-3 in Pittsburgh, won 4-1 in Pittsburgh July 12, won 2-1 in New York July 19.

PITTSBURGH - Highest scoring team in NPSL with Oakland with 52 goals but also weakest defensive club allowing 65 goals. Top scorers: Manfred Rummel, 12 goals; Ron Cocks, 9; Co Prins, 8; and Manfred Seissler, 7. Goalie Bertus Hoogerman has not lost yet in nets. In his seven games, Phantoms won three and tied four.

NEW PLAYERS- Phantoms acquired this week three Brazilian players. Center forward Olivio Lacerda, center halfback Jose Bolognesi and halfback Nelson Bergamo. Lacerda and Bolgnesi have been playing in Canada for past few seasons while Bergamo has spent entire career in Brazil.

GEORGE KIRBY-Continues his hot scoring pace. In 11 games he has appeared, Kirby has scored 10 goals coupled with one assist. Other top Generals scorers are Barry Mahy with six goals and two assists and Julio Alas with seven goals and one assist. Kirby has scored three goals against Pitt. in two games, while Alas has also scored three in three matches.

BALLBOYS - Today are from PAL -- 44th precinct.
