CARD SHOW AND OLD-TIMERS GAME SCHEDULED FOR SAT, JULY 9

Serious baseball fans, make plans now for Saturday, July 9th, when we'll be holding our Second Annual Old-Timers Game, sponsored by Peterson Toyota and The Observer-Times. Gates will open at 5:00 PM for a great show of memorabilia, cards, and more. Then, at 6:00 PM, our Old-Timers team of ex-major leaguers will take the field against the Media All-Stars, with the Generals versus Braves to follow. The Old-Timers team will feature former Braves second baseman ('78-'87) Glenn Hubbard, ex-Generals manager and major league outfielder ('74-'84) Leon Roberts, former big league catcher ('48-'52) Len Okrie, General manager and Tigers catcher ('84-'88) Dwight Lowry, former Red Sox, Colt 45's, and Tigers ('56-'62) shortstop Don Buddin, and Fayetteville favorites Bob Spicer (A's, '55-'56) and Len Okrie (Senators, Red Sox, ('48-'52).

YMCA CAMP A SMASH HIT!

The Generals and the Fayetteville Family YMCA would like to welcome all the participants from their recently completed baseball camp to tonight's game. Over the last four days, 125 campers received expert instruction from Generals coaches and players, wrapping up the camp with games this morning. The Generals and the YMCA would also like to thank Sub Zone for their assistance with the camp.

QUOTABLE QUOTES

"It's no fun throwing fastballs to guys who can't hit them. The real challenge is getting them out on stuff they can hit."

- Sam McDowell, Indians pitcher ('61-'71)

JACKETS' ARMS GET BIG-LEAGUE INSTRUCTION FROM TANNER

When Augusta's pitchers work out, they do so under guidance from a very big name in the Pirates organization. Pitching coach Bruce Tanner is a former big league pitcher who played for the Chicago White Sox in 1985. He is also the son of long-time Pittsburgh Pirates manager Chuck Tanner, who piloted the Bucs during their late-70's glory days. Bruce joins an Augusta staff headed by manager Scott Little, who lead Augusta in '92. Trainer Todd Hoyt is in his first season in the South Atlantic League. The GreenJackets, a Pittsburgh Pirates affiliate, have been in the Sally League for six years, and were known as the Augusta Pirates until this year.
