1972
NORTH AMERICAN SOCCER
LEAGUE
CHAMPS

NOTHING CAN STOP THEM NOW. THEY'RE THE CHAMPS!

The New York Cosmos. 1972's North American Soccer League Champs are back where they belong in their Long Island home—Hofstra Stadium, for another action-packed season of the most exciting, fastest growing sport in the United States and Canada. Watching soccer is almost as good as playing it and you can be part of the 1973 action by applying for priority seating with the special coupon in this folder. There's not one bad seat in the house... there won't be one tame game in the season.

"Soccer arrives."
Ed Comerford,
Newsday.

"Professional soccer has been permanently established on Long Island."
Joe Gergen,
Newsday.

"Pro soccer blossoms as the Cosmos make Long Island their home."
Mike Lee,
Sports Editor,
L.I. Press.

"The Cosmos-Fun City's New Champs."

"13,205 jam Hofstra Stadium to see Cosmos."
Dave Hirshey,
N.Y. Daily News.

"It was more than a good season, it was a great one."
Alex Yannis,
N.Y. Times.

"The Cosmos can be thanked for having revived interest in soccer in the metropolitan area."
Irma Miller,
L.I. Press.

"The Cosmos are an exciting team to watch and Long Island is very lucky to have them here."
Joe Krupinski,
Newsday.

"The Cosmos have the right idea, playing exciting offensive soccer, and this style is needed throughout the world."
Ike Kuhns,
Newark Star Ledger.

"The Cosmos become the power in metropolitan soccer."
Joe Marcus,
N.Y. Post
