Honorary Support Crew

Besides having the best fans in arena football, the Barnstormers have a great support crew. Billy the Barnstormer has been a key component of the team since the beginning. He is seen at each game supporting the rowdy crowd and flying Barnforce One across the field. Billy's loyal companion Ace has more recently become the team's second mascot. The friendly dog is a favorite among the kids.

Ownership Group

Jeff Lamberti

President/Owner

Jeff is an Iowa native and resident of Ankeny. Jeff is a shareholder in the Ankeny law firm, Block, Lamberti & Gocke, P.C and currently serves as firm President. He served twelve years in the Iowa Legislature (1995-2006), including three years as President of the Iowa Senate. Jeff serves on the Executive Committee and Compliance Committee for the AFL League Office and is currently serving as Chair of the Executive Committee. Jeff is also a Board Member of numerous local organizations such as: Casey's General Store, Inc., Valley Bank, On with Life Foundation, March of Dimes, Central Iowa Division and Iowa Legal Aid Foundation. Jeff and his wife Shannon have been married for 24 years. They have a daughter, Merideth, and a son, Domenic.

Ben Silverstein

Honorary Owner

Ben Silverstein was a member of the original Barnstormers ownership group from 1995-2001. He was the Original CEO of Scrap Processors, Inc. When the Barnstormers were re-formed in 2007, Ben and his son David jumped at the opportunity to once again own part of the team. Sadly, Ben passed away during the summer of 2012, but will always be remembered for his love of the Barnstormers. At the end of each season the Ben Silverstein Character Award will be presented to the Barnstormers player who displays the most character, both on and off the field. Last season, Marcus Harris was the recipient of this award.

Additional Owners:

Don Lamberti, David Silverstein, Scott Thurber, Dave Knau, Jim Gocke, Brian Lohse, Dan Stanbrough, Tom Nelson, Jeff Lipman, Brian Chittenden, Dan Oshyski

Ownership Group

John Pettit

Vice President/Chief Operating Officer/Owner

John Pettit comes to the Iowa Barnstormers with over 30 years of executive level management experience and a background in startup organizations. Having worked with several championship teams in both the NHL and AHL, as well as Arena Football, John's track record is exemplary in developing winning teams and franchises.

John started his career in upstate New York, overseeing the construction of and managing the Glens Falls Civic Center in the late 1970's. It was there that the Detroit Red Wings recognized John's talents and brought him to Detroit. During his time in Detroit, John directed and managed several properties including Joe Louis Arena and Cobo Arena. He was responsible for overseeing business operations for the Red Wings, and was a part of two Stanley Cup Championships. In addition, John was the Vice President of Stadium Operations for the brand-new Comerica Park.

From 1999 to 2001, John was the Senior Vice President of Business Operations with Madison Square Garden. While with MSG, John oversaw the entire business operation of the New York Rangers AHL team, the Hartford Wolf Pack. During that time, the Wolf Pack won the 2000 Calder Cup Championship, and the team set an AHL record for the highest gross ticket revenue in league history during the playoffs.

John is highly regarded for his professional leadership in developing initiatives utilized industry wide. His expertise at successfully negotiating labor contracts, creating high impact marketing and sales strategies, and developing new departments and programs, has been successfully felt at each of the organizations he has served as Vice President or President of. These attributes earned John AFL honors Executive of the Year in 2012 and Commissioners Award in 2013.

In addition to his business success, John has been active in several charitable organizations, including Special Olympics, Connecticut Children's Medical Center, United Way and March of Dimes.

John resides in Urbandale, with his wife Janice and their daughters Jaclyn and Juliann.

2014 Coaching Staff

Mike Hohensee

Head Coach

The 2014 season will be Mike Hohensee's 28th consecutive season in Arena Football and his third as the Head Coach and Director of Football Operations for the Iowa Barnstormers. Hohensee joined the organization on August 16, 2011. He is regarded as one of the best coaches in the history of the AFL, and was rewarded this past season by being inducted into the AFL Hall of Fame.

During his previous 19 seasons, his teams have qualified for the playoffs 13 times. Hohensee is best known for his 10 year run as Head Coach of the Chicago Rush (2000-2010). During that time period, the Rush made the playoffs every year of their existence, won four division titles and ArenaBowl XX in 2006. Hohensee also coached the now defunct Albany Firebirds to three first-place finishes and has made stops in Washington, New England, Anaheim, Philadelphia and Peoria (af2). His career AFL coaching record of 159-147 makes him the third winningest coach in the history of the league, only 3 victories behind Danny White in the number two spot.

In college, Hohensee played for the Minnesota Golden Gophers. After coming out of junior college at Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, California, Hohensee quarterbacked the Gophers for two seasons in 1981 and 1982, setting numerous school passing records. Hohensee went on to play professional football for the Washington Federals of the USFL from 1983-84, and played in the CFL in 1985. In 1987 he joined the Chicago Bears briefly before moving on to quarterback the AFL's Pittsburgh Gladiators during the league's first two seasons in 1987-88. While with Pittsburgh, he threw the first TD pass in AFL history in 1987. Twenty-eight years later, Hohensee is ready to lead the Barnstormers to their first ArenaBowl Championship!

2014 Coaching Staff

Ernesto Purnsley

Defensive Coordinator

The 2014 season will be Ernesto "Netto" Purnsley's third season as the Barnstormers Defensive Coordinator. He was hired by the Barnstormers on September 30, 2011. Purnsley will once again oversee all aspects of the Barnstormers defensive unit. Purnsley brings a wealth of experience to the Barnstormers organization, having coached in the AFL for 16 seasons. His AFL coaching career began with stops in Albany (1997-98) and Indiana (2000-02). In 2003, he began a 5 year run as Defensive Coordinator of the Colorado Crush (2003-07), where the team 3 division titles and the Arena Bowl XIX Championship in 2005. In 2008, Purnsley joined Barnstormers Head Coach Mike Hohensee in Chicago as Defensive Coordinator of the Rush. In 2010, Purnsley got his big break when he was named Head Coach of the AFL's Utah Blaze, however his tenure lasted just one year. Purnsley reunited with Hohensee in Philadelphia for the 2011 season, before ultimately landing here in Des Moines. Purnsley is a native of North Carolina. He played college football at Catawba College, where he was a wide receiver and quarterback. In 1991 he was named wide receivers coach at Concord College (West Virginia). He has also coached at Southern Illinois (1994-96), Charleston Southern University (1997) and Murray State (1998-99).

Remembering Greg Boyd

Last December, the Iowa Barnstormers unexpectedly lost one of their own. Greg Boyd was not only the team's Director of Marketing, but one of their biggest fans. He will always be remembered by his devotion to the Iowa Barnstormers. This 2014 season, the team will honor Greg by wearing his initials on their helmets.

2014 Coaching Staff

David Paffenroth

Offensive Line Coach

The season marks David "Coach Paff" Paffenroth's second with the Iowa Barnstormers. Formerly the team's 2012 defensive line coach, Paffenroth's primary role will now be to oversee the developing offensive line. In 2010, he was the Offensive Coordinator for Coach Purnsley with the now defunct Utah Blaze. Paffenroth's other coaching experiences include stops at Penn State, Southern Illinois, West Texas A&M, and Missouri Western.

Stanley Wrubluski

Defensive Line Coach/Special Teams Coordinator

Stanley "Coach Stan" Wrubluski enters his third season in the Arena Football League as the Defensive Line Coach and Special Teams Coordinator for the Barnstormers. Prior to the 2014 season, Wrubluski was in his hometown of Jacksonville, Florida coaching for the Jacksonville Sharks and has also spent time with the Orlando Predators. He spent one year with the Jacksonville Tomcats of the AF2 and a season in the Indoor Football League with the Eastern Kentucky Drillers. Wrubluski's varied college coaching experiences include tenures at the University of Texas-El Paso, Valdosta State, Jacksonville University, University of Pikeville, and Lambuth University.

The Early Years

In February 1992, Jim Foster, Founder of the Arena Football League, met with a small group of local investors with the idea of bringing an expansion franchise to Des Moines, Iowa. One year later the Arena Football League played its first game in Iowa; a preseason match-up between the Arizona Rattlers and Cleveland Thunderbolts. The teams played in front of a sell-out crowd of 10,082. Following the success of that game, the AFL brought their All-Star Game to Des Moines that August and in April of 1994, Des Moines was awarded an expansion franchise for the 1995 season!

On February 6, 1995 the Iowa Barnstormers introduced John Gregory as their first ever head coach. The Barnstormers kicked off their inaugural season on the road May 12th against the Milwaukee Mustangs and returned home a week later on May 20th to take on the Miami Hooters. By the end of June the Barnstormers had sold out four straight games. Their good fortune continued through the summer as the team qualified for playoffs, scoring their first playoff win in August of 1995.

It only took until their second season for the Barnstormers to make it to their first league championship game as they qualified for ArenaBowl X in 1996. Unfortunately, the Barnstormers were unable to pull out a victory. However, a sold-out crowd in Veterans Memorial Auditorium along with a record TV audience tuned in to ESPN to see the boys play in "The Barn." They made a repeat appearance to the ArenaBowl in 1997, but once again fell short of a victory.

Official Uniform

The Barnstormers have had distinctive uniforms true to the aviation theme. The original uniforms included wings on the jerseys across the shoulders and a propeller on the sides of the pants. Since the Barnstormers return the uniforms have been modernized and those iconic pieces removed. One component of the uniform that the team held on to was the very unique helmets. The gold helmets with the aviator goggles have not changed since the original team and continue to be one of the most recognized helmets. In 2008 The Shutdown Corner ranked the helmet 8th as one of the coolest helmets of all time. The NFL Pittsburgh Steelers, Green Bay Packers, and Indianapolis Colts were also on the list in the Top 10. Prior to the 2013 season, the Barnstormers made some notable changes to their uniforms. The team replaced the gold pants with black ones that contained a red stripe on the side. In addition, the colors on the helmet were reversed, making them black with gold goggles. The changes were well liked by fans of all ages.

Big Win Over Chicago in Season Opener

Iowa Shines in all Phases on Way to 63-41 Victory

Chicago, IL – The Iowa Barnstormers entered the 2013 season with a new look, a new attitude and many new players. Saturday night the “new” theme continued as Iowa defeated the Chicago Rush for the first time in the last 5 meetings by a score of 63-41.

The Barnstormers dominated all aspects of the game as they never trailed. Iowa jumped out to a quick 12-0 lead as Quarterback J.J. Raterink connected with Receivers Marco Thomas and Darius Reynolds for two quick scores. Raterink was in mid-season form, completing 22 of 30 passes for 257 yards and 7 touchdowns. In addition, Raterink also ran for an eighth score. Meanwhile, Reynolds led the way with 4 touchdown receptions and the ‘Stormers defense forced 3 turnovers.

By the end of the first half, Iowa had increased its lead to 39-21. Iowa scored two touchdowns in a 12 second span in the second quarter as Raterink connected with Collin Taylor for a score. On the ensuing kickoff, DB Ter’Ran Benton picked up a loose ball and ran it into the end zone for a net recovery touchdown. Benton led the Iowa defense by also contributing 5 tackles and an interception.

The second half was more of the same as the Barnstormers outscored the Rush by 24-20. Kicker Phil Marfuggi, a new addition this week to the Iowa roster struggled early, but rallied connecting on his last 6 PAT attempts along with a 25 yard field goal to close the scoring for Iowa.

The Barnstormers two-game season opening road trip continues next Saturday night March 30 when they face the New Orleans VooDoo for the first time in franchise history. Kickoff is set for 7:00pm and the game will be aired live on CBS Sports Network. Iowa’s home opener is scheduled for Friday, April 5th when they take on the Spokane Shock at 7:05pm. Season tickets for the 2013 Iowa Barnstormers season remain on sale now for as little as $99.00 per seat. To order your seats, or for more information, please call the Barnstormers at (515) 633-2255, or you can log onto www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #2 Iowa @ New Orleans

Barnstormers "D" Shines in Victory Over VooDoo

For the second straight week, the Barnstormers traveled into a hostile environment and emerged victorious, this time defeating the New Orleans VooDoo by a 48-34 score. Just like last week Iowa never trailed in the contest, improving to 2-0 on the young season. Meanwhile New Orleans falls back to .500 with a 1-1 record on the season.

Iowa jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead as WR Marco Thomas scored on a 3 yard run on the second play from scrimmage. The touchdown was set up by a perfect 44 yard passing play from QB J.J. Raterink to WR Collin Taylor. The TD by Thomas was one of three for him on the night, as he also caught 8 passes for 86 yards and two touchdowns. Last week's star, WR Darius Reynolds was quiet early on but woke up big with two huge TD receptions later in the game. Raterink finished the night completing 15 of 30 passes for 253 yards and 4 touchdowns, while also chipping in with 2 scores on the ground as well.

By the midway point of the second quarter, Iowa was in complete control ahead by a score of 28-14. However the VooDoo rallied with a long touchdown drive followed by a defensive stop cutting the lead to 28-20 as the team's entered halftime. New Orleans came out of the locker room poised to make a comeback, but the attempt was short lived as Barnstormers LB Darnell Carter forced VooDoo QB Kurt Rocco to fumble on the first drive resulting in one of 3 turnovers forced by Iowa's defense in the second half.

Iowa's defensive charge was led by DB Erick McIntosh who finished the game with 10 tackles, 2 break-ups and interception and a fumble recovery. Fellow DB Ter'Ran Benton also made some key plays, including an interception in the game's final minute that helped seal the Barnstormers victory.

After a successful road trip, the Barnstormers finally kick-off the home portion of their schedule next Friday night, April 5th when the Spokane Shock come to Wells Fargo Arena. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. Season tickets for the 2013 Iowa Barnstormers season remain on sale now for as little as $99.00 per seat. Great seats remain on sale now! Game #3 Iowa vs. Spokane

Barnstormers Drop Home Opener vs. Spokane

Iowa Now Stands at 2-1 on the Season

Des Moines, Iowa – The Iowa Barnstormers attempt to start the season 3-0 for the first time in franchise history came to an abrupt halt Friday night as they fell to the Spokane Shock by a 66-43 score. With the loss, Iowa falls to 2-1 on the season, while Spokane finishes their 3 week road trip with a perfect 3-0 record.

The Barnstormers fell behind early as they struggled offensively throughout the first half. Spokane jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead, marking the first time Iowa had trailed all season. The Barnstormers found themselves behind 14-6 at the end of the first quarter and 28-9 at the end of the half. Spokane QB Erik Meyer was a star for the third consecutive week, completing 24 of 34 passes for 330 yards and 9 touchdowns. Iowa attempted a second half rally, cutting the lead to just 12 points at one point, but three turnovers proved to be too much to overcome on this night.

The lone bright spot for the Barnstormers was the play of WR Marcus Harris. Making his professional debut, Harris shined with 4 catches for 121 yards including a 41 yard touchdown. Meyer distributed his 9 touchdowns to 4 different receivers, including Kamar Jordan who had a game-high 137 receiving yards and 3 touchdowns.

The Shock now head back home for their home opener, Friday April 12. The Barnstormers remain home for a second straight week, when the Philadelphia Soul come to town next Saturday, April 13. Kickoff is scheduled for 6:05pm and the game will be aired nationally on the CBS Sports Network. Tickets for all remaining home games are now available for purchase at the Wells Fargo Arena box office, by calling the Barnstormers at 515.633.2255 online at www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #4 Iowa vs. Philadelphia

Barnstormers Fall To Philadelphia 54-43

Iowa Now Stands at 2-2 on the Season

Des Moines, Iowa – The Iowa Barnstormers dropped another hard fought battle on Saturday night as they fell to the Philadelphia Soul by a score of 54-43. The game was played in front of a Wells Fargo Arena crowd of 7,743 along with a National television audience watching on the CBS Sports Network. With the loss the Barnstormers are now 2-2 on the season, while Philadelphia improves to 2-1.

Just as they did last week, the Barnstormers fell behind early as they struggled offensively throughout the first half. Philadelphia took the ball and scored on their first play from scrimmage, when QB Dan Raudabaugh connected with WR Tiger Jones on a 33 yard touchdown. After the Soul added a Field Goal, Iowa responded when QB J.J. Raterink hit newly signed Jesse Schmidt on a 36 yard score to cut the lead to 9-6.

Trailing 18-6 in the second quarter the Barnstormers rallied as Raterink connected again with Schmidt for a score. On the ensuing Philadelphia possession, Barnstormers DB Erick McIntosh intercepted Raudabaugh and returned it for a 23 yard touchdown to give Iowa their first lead of the night at 19-18. Philly regained the lead 25-19 but the Barnstormers got within 3 at Kicker Phil Marfuggi nailed a 50 yard field goal to end the first half.

The Barnstormers took a brief 29-25 lead early in the third quarter, but then the Soul turned up their defense, stopping Iowa on consecutive possessions. Philadelphia sealed the win with two more fourth quarter touchdowns from Raudabaugh to Jones.

The Barnstormers now hit the road again next Friday night when they battle the Jacksonville Sharks in Jacksonville, FL. Iowa returns home on Friday, April 26 when the Chicago Rush comes to town. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. Tickets are available for purchase at the Wells Fargo Arena box office, by calling the Barnstormers at 515.633.2255 online at www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #5 Iowa @ Jacksonville

Barnstormers Bitten By Sharks Again in Jacksonville

Jacksonville, FL – The Iowa Barnstormers faced off against the Jacksonville Sharks on Friday night at Sea Best Field in Jacksonville, FL. For the third straight season, Iowa came up short against the Sharks, falling this time by a narrow margin of 40-34. The loss was Iowa's third straight, dropping the Barnstormers to 2-3 on the season. Meanwhile, Jacksonville improved to 5-0 on the year before an announced crowd of 8,011.

The Sharks jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead as QB Bernard Morris connected with WR Markee White for a 29 yard score. The touchdown was setup by DB Terrance Smith, who intercepted Iowa QB J.J. Raterink on the Barnstormers first drive. On Iowa's second drive, the Barnstormers settled for a field goal to cut the lead to 7-3. Jacksonville extended their lead to 13-3 on their second drive as Morris found WR Jeron Harvey for a 16 yard touchdown. Iowa responded with their first touchdown of the night when FB Kai Brown scored on a 1 yard run, making the score 13-9 at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter began with each team exchanging touchdowns. Morris connected with Harvey again, before Iowa countered on a 10 yard pass play from Raterink to Marco Thomas. The remainder of the quarter was a defensive battle, as both teams stopped each other on downs. In the final minute of the first half, Jacksonville finally broke through as FB Matt Marcorelle scored on a 1 yard run, giving the Sharks a 27-16 halftime lead.

Iowa came out of the locker room looking like a different team. Trailing by 11, DL Mike Lewis sacked Morris at the 4 yard line, forcing a fumble that was returned for a touchdown by Iowa LB Darnell Carter. On the next Jacksonville Drive Morris was intercepted by Iowa DB Jason Simpson and two plays later Raterink connected with WR Marcus Harris for a 43 yard touchdown to give the Barnstormers their first lead of the night 28-27. Jacksonville reclaimed the lead 34-28 on the final play of the 3rd quarter as Morris hit Harvey for his third TD of the game.

After trading defensive stops, the Barnstormers tied the game at 34-34 when Raterink found Harris in the end zone for a 25 yard touchdown. The Sharks replied with a 5 yard pass from Morris to White, regaining the lead 40-34 with just over 4 minutes remaining in the game. The Barnstormers had one final opportunity to regain the lead, but their effort fell short as Jacksonville stopped the Iowa offense on downs with just over a minute to play to seal the victory.

Next up for the Barnstormers is a key matchup against their division rivals the Chicago Rush, next Friday April 26 at Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. Great seats remain on sale now for as low as $12.00 per seat. To order yours, or for more information, please call the Barnstormers at (515) 633-2255, or you can log onto www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #6 Iowa vs. Chicago

Barnstormers Fall To Chicago in OT Shootout

Iowa Comes up 1 point short 64-63

Des Moines, Iowa – The Iowa Barnstormers gave everything they had on Friday night, but in the end the effort was one point short of being good enough, as they fell in overtime 64-63 to the Chicago Rush. Iowa's fourth straight loss leaves the Barnstormers 2-4 on the season, while Chicago improves to 4-2 with their fourth straight win.

Iowa jumped out to a quick 13-0 lead as QB J.J. Raterink connected with WR Marcus Harris for a 26 yard touchdown and then scored on a one yard run by himself on the next drive. Chicago responded with the first of WR Reggie Gray's 6 touchdown receptions on the night to cut the lead to 13-7. Chicago outscored the Barnstormers 21-13 in the game's second frame, giving the Rush a narrow 28-26 halftime lead.

The back and forth battle continued into the second half as the Rush extended their lead to 42-26 after scoring two quick touchdowns. The Barnstormers then rallied to erase the 16 point deficit as they responded with two touchdowns and two 2 point conversions of their own to tie the game at 42-42. However the Rush jumped back out to a 56-42 lead following two more TD passes from QB Carson Coffman to Gray. After Iowa cut the lead to 56-49, the Barnstormers defense made their biggest stand of the season, forcing a missed field goal by the Rush. Raterink connected with WR Marco Thomas with 13 seconds remaining in regulation to send the game to overtime tied 56-56.

In overtime, the Barnstormers got the ball first and wasted no time scoring as Raterink hooked up with Harris to put Iowa up 63-56. Chicago then marched the length of the field and pulled within one point after FB Kelvin Morris scored from 2 yards out. Faced with a huge decision, Rush Head Coach Bob McMillan decided to go for two and the gamble paid off as Coffman connected with WR Jared Jenkins to seal the 64-63 victory for Chicago.

The Barnstormers now hit the road again next Friday night when they battle the San Antonio Talons. Iowa returns home on Saturday, May 11 when the New Orleans VooDoo come to town. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. Tickets are available for purchase at the Wells Fargo Arena box office, by calling the Barnstormers at 515.633.2255 online at www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #7 Iowa @ San Antonio

Second Half Rally Leads Barnstormers to Victory

San Antonio, TX – The Iowa Barnstormers overcame a 15 point halftime deficit, rallying to defeat the San Antonio Talons by a score of 48-36 on Friday night. Iowa outscored the Talons 34-7 in the second half, putting an end to their four game losing streak. With the victory, Iowa improves to 3-4 on the season, while San Antonio falls to 2-4.

The Talons jumped out to an early 14-0 lead as the Barnstormers offense struggled to get organized. Iowa finally broke through on the scoreboard early in the second quarter when QB J.J. Raterink connected with WR Marco Thomas on a screen pass that turned into a 30 yard score. Raterink finished the night throwing for 7 touchdowns with no interceptions. Trailing 20-14 the Barnstormers seemed to be on the move, but a mishandled snap led to a San Antonio safety, and when the dust settled Iowa trailed 29-14+ at the half.

Iowa came out of the locker room looking like a different team. The Barnstormers turned up the defense, forcing 3 second half interceptions by Talons QB Nick Fraser. DB Ter'Ran Benton accounted for two of the interceptions, and he now leads the Barnstormers with 5 on the season. Raterink was near perfect in the second half, throwing for 5 touchdowns, including 3 in to WR Jesse Schmidt. Trailing 41-36 with less than 9 minutes remaining Raterink found Schmidt for touchdowns on consecutive drives to seal the Iowa victory.

Next up for the Barnstormers is a visit from the New Orleans Voodoo next Saturday May 11 at Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. For this game only, all 100 level corner and end zone tickets are now on sale for just $15.00, while supplies last. To order yours, or for more information, please call the Barnstormers at (515) 633-2255, or you can log onto www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #8 Iowa vs. New Orleans

Barnstormers Roll Over Voodoo 62-16

The Iowa Barnstormers played their most complete all-around game of the season, in route to an impressive 62-16 victory over the New Orleans Voodoo at Wells Fargo Arena on Saturday night. With the victory, the Barnstormers improve to 4-4 on the season, while the Voodoo falls to 1-6.

Iowa jumped out to an early lead as QB J.J. Raterink connected with TE Michael Garrity for a 15 yard touchdown. On the ensuing drive, the Barnstormers defense came up big, forcing a fumble that was returned for a touchdown by DL Rodney Gnat, giving Iowa a 14-0 lead. After the Voodoo cut the lead to 14-7, Iowa responded with 21 straight points to close the first half with a 35-7 lead.

The second half was more of the same as the Barnstormers offense capitalized on every opportunity. Iowa's defensive unit forced 5 turnovers on the night while also making multiple stops on downs. After the Voodoo narrowed the score to 42-14, the Barnstormers responded with 3 straight touchdown drives to close out the game, making the final score 62-16. Raterink finished the night 12 of 20 for 111 yards and 4 touchdowns. Backup Brian Reader saw his first action of the season and finished 5 of 7 for 67 yards and 2 touchdowns. WR Jesse Schmidt turned in a 3 touchdown performance for the second straight week.

Next up for the Barnstormers is a two game road trip that begins next Saturday, May 18 in Utah. Iowa's next home game is set for Saturday, June 1 at Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. To order your tickets, call the Barnstormers at (515) 633-2255, or you can log onto www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #10 Iowa @ Arizona

Barnstormers Snake Bitten in Arizona

Phoenix, AZ – The Iowa Barnstormers entered Saturday night's game against the Arizona Rattlers short 4 starters due to a rash of injuries. The team was forced to make numerous roster changes over the past week and the lack of team cohesiveness showed as they fell to the AFL's best team by a score of 70-26. The win was Arizona's sixth straight as they improve to 9-1 on the season, while Iowa falls to 4-6.

Arizona jumped out to a quick 21-6 first quarter lead as QB Nick Davila threw 3 touchdown passes, 2 of them to WR Kerry Reed. Things went from bad to worse on the injury front for Iowa as QB J.J. Raterink left the game with a foot injury on the last play of the first quarter. Rookie QB Brian Reader played the final 3 quarters for Iowa, finishing 14 of 29 for 168 yards and 3 touchdowns.

The Barnstormers effort was admirable, but the loss of Raterink was too much to overcome. By the end of the first half, Arizona had increased their lead to 42-13. Davila's play continued to be flawless as he finished the night 19 of 23 for 241 yards and 8 touchdowns. WR Jared Perry led the way for the Rattlers with four receiving touchdowns and DL Marcus Pittman was a force on defense recording 2 sacks.

The Barnstormers return home to Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines next Saturday, June 1 when the Tampa Bay Storm comes to town. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. The first 1,000 fans age 18 and over will receive a coupon for a Free Large 3-topping pizza courtesy of Papa John's Pizza. Game #11 Iowa vs. Tampa Bay

Barnstormers Defeated in Final Seconds

Tampa Bay prevails with game winning TD as time expires

Des Moines, IA – A beat up and battered Iowa Barnstormers squad gave it everything they had, only to fall 3 points short to the Tampa Bay Storm at Wells Fargo Arena on Saturday Night. Tampa Bay scored the game winning touchdown as time expired, improving to 7-4 on the season with the 65-62 victory. Iowa lost their third straight and now stands at 4-7 on the season.

The game was a classic Arena Football Matchup. The teams matched each other score for score for most of the first 3 quarters of the game. The Barnstormers were led by J.J. Raterink who completed 25 of 34 passes for 264 yards and 7 touchdowns. Tampa QB Adrian McPherson was just as good, completing 26 of 39 passes for 286 yards and 6 touchdowns. In addition, McPherson also ran for three scores.

Leading 42-35 in the third quarter, the Barnstormers got their big break as DL Mike Lewis forced a fumble by McPherson which led to a one yard score by QB Brian Reader, giving them their biggest lead of the night at 14. However Tampa countered with a touchdown of their own, followed by an on-side kick and a second touchdown to tie the game at 49-49 with just over 10 minutes remaining. The two teams then matched scores again, keeping the game tied at 56-56.

The Barnstormers took possession of the ball with just over 2 minutes remaining, but Raterink was sacked on the second play of the drive, resulting in a safety which gave Tampa a 68-56 lead. Iowa's defense came up strong, stopping Tampa on downs to giving the Barnstormers offense one more shot to secure a victory. Three plays later Raterink found the end zone from 1 yard out, to put Iowa in front 62-58. However Tampa was left with 25 seconds to see if McPherson could work his magic. The Tampa QB did exactly that, driving his team the length of the field. Facing a 4th and goal situation from the 3 yard line with .3 seconds remaining on the clock, McPherson connected with WR Joe Hills for the game winning score, sending the Iowa faithful home disappointed.

The Barnstormers now hit the road again next Friday night when they battle the Cleveland Gladiators. Iowa returns home on Saturday, June 15 when the San Jose SaberCats come to town. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. Tickets are available for purchase at the Wells Fargo Arena box office, by calling the Barnstormers at 515.633.2255 online at www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #12 Iowa @ Cleveland

Barnstormers Win Nail Biter in Cleveland

Cleveland, OH – The Iowa Barnstormers headed to Cleveland with only one goal in mind, returning home with a victory in hand. Friday night they accomplished their goal with a gutsy 37-33 win over the Cleveland Gladiators. The Barnstormers improve their record to 5-7 on the season, while Cleveland falls to 2-9.

Cleveland featured a familiar face to Iowa fans as former Barnstormers QB Chris Dieker was under center for the Gladiators. Early on, he did not disappoint the home crowd, connecting with WR Jamar Howard to give Cleveland a 7-0 lead. Following a Jason Simpson interception, the Barnstormers responded as QB J.J. Raterink connected with WR Darius Reynolds to tie the game at 7-7. After falling behind 13-7, Raterink connected with Reynolds again, giving Iowa a narrow 14-13 lead at halftime.

The Gladiators got the ball first to begin the second half and drove the length of the field, regaining the lead when Dieker connected with WR Dominick Goodman. The touchdown put Cleveland up 19-14, however Iowa blocked the extra point attempt and returned it for two points to make the score 19-16 at the end of 3 quarters of play.

The fourth quarter was wild from start to finish. The Gladiators opened up a 10 point lead following a rare Raterink interception. However, Iowa stayed strong, cutting the lead to 26-23 when Raterink connected with WR Marco Thomas for a touchdown. On the ensuing drive Iowa DB De'Mon Glanton produced the play of the game and maybe the season as he intercepted Dieker on a deep throw to the end zone and returned it 56 yards for a touchdown. With the Barnstormers now leading 30-26, Dieker led another drive and gave his team a 33-30 lead when he scored on a 4 yard run with :46 remaining.

With their backs against the wall and possibly the season on the line, the Barnstormers executed a near-perfect game-winning scoring drive that finished when Raterink found Reynolds for his third TD of the night with just :13 remaining, sealing the 37-30 victory for the Barnstormers.

The Barnstormers return home to Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines next Saturday, June 15 when the San Jose Saber Cats come to town. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. Join us for our 5th annual salute to the military, sponsored by Allied insurance. The Barnstormers will be wearing special camouflage jerseys that will be auctioned off after the game. The first 5,000 fans will receive a coupon for a Free McWrap courtesy McDonald's. Great seats are still available for as low as $12.00 per seat. To order your tickets, head to the arena box office, call the Barnstormers at (515) 633-2255, or you log onto www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #13 Iowa vs. San Jose

Barnstormers Earn Shootout Victory on Military Night

Iowa Defeats San Jose 73-68

Des Moines, IA – The Iowa Barnstormers put together their best all-around effort of the season on Saturday night, defeating the San Jose SaberCats 73-68 in front of a Wells Fargo Arena crowd of 9,052. The win was the Barnstormers second straight, improving their record to 6-7 on the season. With the loss, San Jose falls to 8-5.

Both quarterbacks were outstanding throughout the duration of the contest, with each throwing for 9 touchdowns. The 9 touchdown passes in one game was a career high for Iowa QB J.J. Raterink, who completed 33 of 44 passes for 376 yards. WR Marco Thomas also starred for Iowa, collecting 15 receptions for 165 yards and 5 touchdowns.

After forcing a fumble on the opening kickoff, Iowa struck on their first play from scrimmage as Raterink connected with WR Jesse Schmidt to give the Barnstormers a 7-0 lead. The team's matched each other score for score for the rest of the first half of play. On the final play of the second quarter, Iowa Kicker Fabrizio Scaccia drilled a 27 yard FG to put the Barnstormers up 38-35 with the teams headed to the locker room.

During the second half of play Iowa opened up their lead to as large as 12 points when Raterink connected with Schmidt with 2:26 remaining to put the Barnstormers up 73-61. San Jose responded with a score of their own and then forced Raterink to make his only bad decision of the night when he threw a costly interception with just under a minute remaining.

The turnover gave the SaberCats one last shot at victory and they looked as if they were prepared to do it, marching the length of the field before being stopped at the 8 yard line. From there San Jose had 4 opportunities to punch the ball into the end zone, but the Iowa defense held strong on 4 straight downs to seal the victory for the Barnstormers.

The Barnstormers now hit the road again next Saturday night when they battle the Philadelphia Soul. Iowa returns home on Saturday, June 29 when the San Antonio Talons come to town. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. Tickets are available for purchase at the Wells Fargo Arena box office, by calling the Barnstormers at 515.633.2255 online at www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #14 Iowa @ Philadelphia

Turnovers Doom Barnstormers in Loss To Soul

Iowa Falls to Philadelphia 54-30 on Saturday Night

Philadelphia, PA – The Iowa Barnstormers hit the road looking for their third straight victory on Saturday night, only to fall short by a score of 54-30 to the Philadelphia Soul at the Wells Fargo Center in downtown Philadelphia. The Soul were led by their defense who forced 3 interceptions by Iowa QB J.J. Raterink and allowed only 6 first half points.

Philadelphia QB Dan Raudabaugh was solid, finishing the night completing 12 of 14 passes for 142 yards and 4 touchdowns. FB Derrick Ross who recently became the AFL's all-time leading rusher scored on a 3 yard run with :17 remaining to give the Soul a 27-6 half-time lead.

Iowa Head Coach Mike Hohensee made a half-time adjustment, replacing Raterink with rookie backup QB Brian Reader. Reader led the Barnstormers on three second half touchdown drives and Iowa narrowed the lead to 11 points at 41-30 with about 10 minutes remaining. However, Philadelphia responded by closing the game with two touchdowns of their own as Raudabaugh connected with Ryan McDaniel and then DL Calvin Fance recovered a fumble by Reader and returned it for the game's final score.

The Barnstormers return home to Wells Fargo Arena next Saturday night, June 29 when the San Antonio Talons come to town for a key division matchup. Kickoff is set for 7:05pm. Tickets are available for purchase at the Wells Fargo Arena box office, by calling the Barnstormers at 515.633.2255, and online at www.theiowabarnstormers.com. Game #15 Iowa vs. San Antonio

Barnstormers Fall One Point Short Again

Talons Block Game Winning Field Goal Attempt to Preserve Victory

Des Moines, IA – The Iowa Barnstormers had a great start to Saturday night's game, only to fall one point short again, this time to the San Antonio Talons by a score of 35-34. With the loss, the Barnstormers playoff hopes take a major hit, as they fall to 6-9 on the season. Meanwhile San Antonio improves to 8-6 and is now tied for the Central division lead with the idle Chicago Rush.

Things couldn't have started better for the Barnstormers as they jumped out to an early 7-0 lead at WR Darius Reynolds recovered a loose ball off of the net for a TD on the opening kickoff. The Talons tied the game 7-7 when QB Rohan Davey connected with WR Jomo Wilson for a 3 yard score. However, Iowa responded with a 20 yard TD pass from QB J.J. Raterink to WR Marco Thomas. The touchdown was the first of 4 times the Barnstormers duo would hook up on the night.

With Iowa leading 20-7, the Talons fought back with two quick TD drives at the end of the second quarter. Iowa drove down the field, all the way to the San Antonio 3 yard line when time ran out in the first half. The teams went to the locker room with the Talons holding a narrow 21-20 lead.

The Barnstormers bounced back, taking a 34-28 lead into the fourth quarter, compliments of two more touchdown receptions by Thomas. San Antonio regained the lead for good 35-34, when Davey connected with WR Xavier Lee from 9 yards out. From there the teams exchanged possessions, with each failing to score. The Barnstormers found themselves driving for the victory in the game's final minutes following a De'Mon Glanton interception of Davey. Once again, Iowa drove to the brink of the San Antonio goal line. Faced with a 4th down situation, the Barnstormers decided to attempt a field goal to win the game. However the kick by newly acquired Ross Gornall was blocked, preserving the one-point victory for the Talons.

The Barnstormers now enter their only bye week of the season. Iowa then heads south for a matchup against the Orlando Predators on July 13th, before returning home to Wells Fargo Arena on Saturday July 20th to face the Utah Blaze in the first annual Iowa Bacon Bowl! Ticket packages that include the game and pre-game bacon bowl tailgate party are on sale now for just $25.00. Fans can order their package at the Wells Fargo Arena box office, by calling the Barnstormers at 515.633.2255 or online at www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #16 Iowa @ Orlando

Barnstormers Denied Victory By Orlando

Iowa Loses 55-41, Officially Eliminated From Playoff Contention

ORLANDO, FL – The Iowa Barnstormers played another hard fought game on Saturday night at the Amway Center in Orlando, Florida. However four untimely turnovers were too much for Iowa to overcome as they dropped a 55-41 decision to the Predators. With the loss, the Barnstormers drop to 6-10 on the season and are officially eliminated from playoff contention. Meanwhile Orlando improves to an identical 6-10 record and remains in solid contention for the American Conference's final playoff spot.

Iowa Quarterback J.J. Raterink faced heavy pressure for most of the game, which resulted in him completing just 25 of 45 passes and throwing 3 costly interceptions. Two of the interceptions were by former Iowa DB Tanner Varner who was making his debut with the Predators. That being said, the Barnstormers were able to remain in the game for the entire contest.

The Barnstormers jumped out to a quick 14-7 lead as Raterink connected with WR's Darius Reynolds and Marco Thomas for touchdowns. However these two scores turned out to be the only two Iowa would have in the first half. Orlando rallied behind QB Aaron Garcia to take a 21-14 lead into the locker room at halftime.

The Predators received the opening kickoff and were driving when Iowa DL William Stokes sacked Garcia, forcing a fumble that was returned by Iowa's Matangi Tonga for a TD, evening the score at 21-21. Once again though, Orlando would respond with two more Garcia TD passes to open up a 34-21 lead. However, the Barnstormers returned the favor again as Raterink connected with WR Jesse Schmidt on consecutive drives to tie the game again at 34-34 just seconds into the final quarter.

The fourth quarter continued to be much of the same as Garcia hooked up with WR Jason Geathers to regain the lead for the Predators. On the ensuing kickoff Orlando forced a fumble by Iowa DB Jason Simpson and recovered the ball at the Barnstormers 3 yard line. On the next play, the Predators extended their lead to 48-34 on a 3 yard TD run by Mykel Benson. The team's then exchanged touchdowns one final time, however the 14 point difference was too much for the Barnstormers to overcome.

The Barnstormers now return home for their final 2 games of the 2013 season. One week from tonight they take on the Utah Blaze on Saturday July 20th in the first annual Iowa Bacon Bowl! Ticket packages that include the game and pre-game bacon bowl tailgate party are on sale now for just $25.00. Then one week later, Iowa closes the season when the Arizona Rattlers come to town on July 27th. Fans can order tickets for both games at the Wells Fargo Arena box office, by calling the Barnstormers at 515.633.2255 or online at www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #17 Iowa vs. Utah

Blaze Take Home the Bacon in Victory Over Barnstormers

Utah Prevails 55-41 in Inaugural Iowa Bacon Bowl

Des Moines, IA – Playing for nothing but pride, and bragging rights to the Inaugural Bacon Bowl, the Iowa Barnstormers and Utah Blaze put on an entertaining and hard fought battle Saturday night in front of a crowd of 8,262 at Wells Fargo Arena in Des Moines. Ultimately the Blaze prevailed with a 55-41 victory over Iowa. With the loss, the Barnstormers now stand at 6-11 on the season, while Utah improves to an identical 6-11 record.

Barnstormers head coach Mike Hohensee decided to start rookie Quarterback Brian Reader in a surprise move. However Reader struggled early on, throwing 2 first half interceptions, including one that was returned for a touchdown by Utah's Arness Ikner. Meanwhile Blaze Quarterback Tommy Grady returned to the starting lineup and had an efficient night completing 19 of 34 passes for 231 yards and 4 touchdowns.

With the Blaze in front by a score of 17-7 early, Hohensee replaced reader with Quarterback J.J. Raterink. The veteran signal caller quickly connected with WR Darius Reynolds for a 22 yard scoring strike, and then ran for a one yard score with :33 remaining in the second quarter to cut the lead to 24-21. However Grady and the Blaze responded with their own touchdown drive to take a 31-21 lead into halftime.

The second half was more of the same. Utah opened up their biggest lead of the night at 38-21 when Grady connected with WR Dejay Lester from 16 yards out. Once again, the Barnstormers rallied to within 3 points as WR Marco Thomas caught scoring passes on consecutive drives. However, this was as close as Iowa would get as the Blaze scored 17 points in the fourth quarter to secure the victory. With the win, the Blaze not only received the Iowa Bacon Bowl trophy, but each player and coach received 5 pounds of fresh Iowa Bacon courtesy of Eden Farms.

The Barnstormers close the 2013 season with another home game next Saturday night, July 27th when the defending Arena Bowl champion Arizona Rattlers come to town. The first 2,000 fans will receive a FREE Barnstormers "Black Storm" T-Shirt, courtesy of Scrap Processors, Inc. Fans can purchase their tickets for the season finale at the Wells Fargo Arena box office, by calling the Barnstormers at 515.633.2255 or online at www.theiowabarnstormers.com.

Game #18 Iowa vs. Arizona

Barnstormers End Season With Loss To Rattlers

Iowa Finishes With Disappointing 6-12 Record

Des Moines, IA – If there was any doubt that that Arizona the AFL's top team heading into playoffs it was erased on Saturday night as the Rattlers came to Des Moines and defeated the Iowa Barnstormers by a score of 84-45. The rattlers scored by ground and by air, on defense, and special teams as well, dominating in all aspects of the game. With the win Arizona improves to 15-3 on the season and clinches the #1 seed in the National Conference, while Iowa ends the season with a disappointing 6-12 record.

The Rattlers jumped out to a quick 21-0 first quarter lead and never looked back. As usual, Arizona was led by QB Nick Davila, who finished the night 16 of 22 for 222 yards and 6 touchdowns. Davila's favorite target was WR Tysson Poots, who caught 9 passes for 85 yards and 4 scores. WR Rod Windsor also found the end zone 3 times for the Rattlers. Meanwhile Iowa QB J.J. Raterink struggled early throwing 3 interceptions, 2 of which were returned for scores by Arizona DB Virgil Gray. Raterink was replaced in the second quarter by Brian Reader who kept the game respectable by throwing for a career high 4 touchdowns, however the Barnstormers never cut the lead to any less than 17 points the rest of the way.

Next up for the Rattlers is a first round home playoff game against the San Jose Saber Cats next weekend. The Barnstormers will instead begin the rebuilding process as they prepare for the 2014 season.

The Barnstormers would like to thank the Arena Football League's best fans and sponsors for another great season. Season tickets for the 2014 season are already on sale. The Kurt Warner Impact

In 1998 the Barnstormers saw one of their stars, and former Iowa native Kurt Warner, shine even brighter when the quarterback signed a contract to play for the NFL's St. Louis Rams. Warner would later lead the Rams to a SuperBowl XXXIV victory in January, 2000. Warner led the Rams back to the SuperBowl once again in 2002 and later brought the Arizona Cardinals to their first SuperBowl game in franchise history in 2010.

With Warner gone, the Barnstormers found their next great quarterback as newcomer Aaron Garcia grabbed the starting role after Warner's exit. Garcia went on to break many of Warner's team records, spending four years with the Iowa franchise.

Under the leadership of Garcia, the Barnstormers returned to the playoffs in 1999 (improving from 5-9 in 1998 to 11-3 in 1999). The 2000 season sent them to the playoffs once again and was highlighted by the return of Kurt Warner to Iowa to see his #13 jersey become a retired number in the Barnstormers organization.

The Barnstormers Disappearance

Following the 2000 season, the Barnstormers franchise was sold to the NHL's New York Islanders ownership group, led by Charles Wang and Sanjay Kumar. They believed that the team needed a more modern venue and they were searching to place the team in a larger market. That fall, the AFL approved to move the team from Des Moines to Long Island, New York and renamed the team, the New York Dragons. However, this did not remove the team completely, because the Barnstormers were awarded an af2 franchise carrying the same name. The franchise played one season in af2 before ceasing operations in 2001. Vet's Auditorium was left dark and the Barnstormers were gone.

Playoff Format

Eight teams qualify for the playoffs, four from each conference-- American and National. The four qualifying teams in each conference consist of the two division champions and two Wildcards, determined by best overall record. Seeding in each conference is based on overall record, with the top two seeds in each conference reserved for the division champions, regardless of record. In the First Round, August 2-3, the first two seeds in each conference are the two division winners. The next two teams are seeded by next best two overall records. Teams ranked 1 and 2 earn home playoff games with 1 hosting 4 and 2 hosting 3. In the Conference Championship Round, August 9-10 the winner of the 1-4 game plays the winner of the 2-3 game. The home team is decided by the team with the higher seed. The winners of the Second Round will face off in ArenaBowl XXVII on August 23rd, with the highest remaining seed hosting the championship game.

Tiebreaking Procedures

Definitions

Strength of Schedule – Combined winning percentage of opponents played.

Best net points in all games – Difference of points scored and points scored against. (Includes all points: offense, defense, and special teams.)

Winning percentage – Total number of wins divided by total number of games.

Division Champions – Two Teams

If two teams are tied for Division Championship:

1. Head-to-head (best winning percentage in games between clubs)
2. Point differential in head-to-head games
3. Best winning percentage in division games
4. Best net points in all games
5. Strength of Schedule
6. Coin toss

Division Champions – Three or more teams

(Note: If three or more teams are tied, follow steps until one team is eliminated. Once two teams remain, revert back to Step 1 of the two team tiebreaker to determine which team advances.)

1. Head-to-head (best winning percentage in games among the clubs)
2. Best winning percentage in division games
3. Best net points in all games
4. Strength of Schedule
5. Coin toss

Playoff Format

Wildcard – Three or more teams

(Note: If three or more teams are tied follow steps until one team is eliminated. Once two teams remain, revert back to Step 1 of the two team tiebreaker to determine who advances)

1. Head-to-head (best winning percentage in games between the clubs)
2. Best net points in all games
3. Strength of schedule
4. Best winning percentage in division games
5. Coin Toss

Other Tie-Breaking Procedures

1. Only one team advances to the playoffs in any tie-breaking step. Remaining tied teams revert to the first step of the applicable two team division or Wildcard tie-breakers. As an example, if two teams remain tied in any tie-breaker step after all other teams have been eliminated, the procedure reverts to Step 1 of the two-team format to determine the winner. When one team wins the tiebreaker, all other teams revert to Step 1 of the applicable two-team or three-team format.
2. In comparing records within the division among tied teams, the best winning percentage is the deciding factor, since teams may have played an unequal number of games.

Conference Seeding Tie-Break Procedure

If both division winners in the same conference finish with the same record, the following will break the tie for seeding purposes:

1. Head-to-head, best winning percentage in games between clubs
2. Point differential in head to head games
3. Total net points in all games
4. Strength of schedule
5. Best winning percentage in division games
6. Coin toss.

ArenaBowl Tie-Break Procedure

1. Highest Playoff Seed
2. Overall record (Best winning percentage)
3. Head-to-head, best winning percentage in games between clubs (if applicable)
4. Point differential in head-to-head games
5. Total net points in all games
6. Strength of schedule
7. Coin toss

Playoff Format

Qualification Order

1. Qualifications for Playoff Position
 - a. Four Division Winners
 - b. Next 2 best records from each Conference
2. Seeding
 - a. American Conference
 - i. Best record of Division Winners
 - ii. 2nd best record of Division Winners
 - iii. Best record for Non-Division Winners
 - iv. 2nd best record for Non-Division Winners
 - b. National Conference
 - i. Best record of Division Winners
 - ii. 2nd best record of Division Winners
 - iii. Best record for Non-Division Winners
 - iv. 2nd best record for Non-Division Winners

Commissioner Jerry B. Kurz

Jerry B. Kurz returns for his 28th season of Arena Football and fifth season as the AFL's Commissioner. Out-tenured only by the creator of Arena Football, Jim Foster, Kurz has dedicated his life to furthering the sport with a strong business ethic and core values meant to bring the highest quality product to the ever-growing fan base of Arena Football fans.

In his time as the president of the af2, the League saw extensive growth in small-to-midsized markets, building an extremely dedicated fan base across the country. That foundation helped to fuel the return of the Arena Football League in 2010 after a year on hiatus due to financial instability. Kurz and a group of enthusiastic investors arranged the acquisition of the AFL's assets in bankruptcy court in late 2009 and revived the League in early 2010, fulfilling the promise that Arena Football would be played in 2010.

Kurz has also served as the AFL's Vice President of International Development, where he was in charge of the League's international exposure. During his tenure, he was responsible for administering the H3 Visa program, allowing international players to play for AFL teams stateside. He also arranged and executed all internationally played games for the Arena Football League.

Arena Football isn't Kurz's only claim to fame. He is also a founding member of Gridiron Enterprises, Inc., a sports consulting firm based out of Chicago. Gridiron Enterprises, consisting of Kurz, Foster and attorney William Niro, is the original founder of the AFL. Kurz has been a player, coach, general manager and owner during his lifelong involvement with the game of football. He is also a member of four football Halls of Fame, including membership in the first class of the Arena Football Hall of Fame as well as membership in the arenafootball2 Hall of Fame.

Kurz attended the University of Oklahoma as an undergraduate and later earned his Juris Doctor Degree at Northern Illinois. Kurz is a licensed attorney in Illinois and operated a law firm with his wife, Kathryn Hall, for 20 years. Jerry and his wife, Kathryn, have one son named Matthew, who currently serves as the Director of Player Personnel for the AFL.

AFL 101

FIELD

- An indoor padded surface 85 feet wide and 50 yards long with eight-yard end zones.
- Goal posts are nine (9) feet wide with a crossbar height of 15 feet (NFL goal posts are 18-1/2 feet wide with the crossbar at 10 feet).
- The goal-side rebound nets are 30 feet wide by 32 feet high. The bottoms of the nets are eight (8) feet above the ground.
- Sideline barriers are 48 inches high and made of high-density foam rubber.

EQUIPMENT

- The official football is the same size and weight as the National Football League ball. Each ball is manufactured by Spalding, a division of Russell Corporation.

PLAYERS AND FORMATIONS

- Eight players on the field; 21-man active roster; three-man inactive roster.
- Players may play both offense and defense.
- Substitution: Coaches are permitted to substitute players at will.
- Four (4) offensive players must line up on the line of scrimmage.
- Three (3) defensive players must be down linemen (in a three- or four-point stance). One linebacker may blitz on either side of the center. Alignment is two-or-more yards off the line of scrimmage. No stunting or twisting.
- Offensive motion: One receiver may go in forward motion before the snap.

TIMING

- Four (4) 15-minute quarters with a 15-minute halftime.
- The clock stops for out-of-bounds plays or incomplete passes only in the last minute of each half and when the referee deems it necessary for penalties, injuries or timeouts.
- Each team is allowed three (3) timeouts per half.

MOVEMENT OF THE BALL AND SCORING

- Four (4) downs are allowed to advance the ball ten (10) yards for a first down, or to score.
- Six (6) points for a touchdown.
- One (1) point for a conversion by place kick after a touchdown, two (2) points for a conversion by drop kick and two (2) points for a successful run or pass after a touchdown.
- Three (3) points for a field goal by placement or four (4) points for a field goal by drop kick.
- Two (2) points for a safety.

KICKING

- Kickoffs are from the goal line. Kickers may use a one-inch tee.
- Punting is illegal. On fourth down, a team may go for a first down, touchdown or field goal.
- The receiving team may field any kickoff or missed field goal that rebounds off the net.
- Any untouched kickoff, which is out of bounds, will be placed at the 20-yard line or the place where it went out-of-bounds, whichever is more advantageous to the receiving team.

PASSING

- Receivers must have one foot inbounds for a catch. A forward pass that rebounds off the rebound net or sideline barrier is a live ball and is in play until it touches the playing surface.

OVERTIME RULES

- Overtime periods are 15 minutes for both the regular season and the playoffs.
- Each team gets one (1) possession to score. If, after each team has had one possession, one team is ahead, that team wins. If the teams are tied after each has had a possession, the next team to score wins.

Glossary of Terms

BALL IN THE STANDS – When a ball is thrown or bounces into the seats surrounding the playing field, the “lucky” fan that catches the ball keeps it.

DROP KICK – A drop-kicked FG is worth 4 points. A drop-kicked extra point is worth 2 points. Spokane Shock kicker Taylor Rowan was the last man to connect on a two-point dropkick (7/22/2011 vs. Jacksonville).

IRONMAN – Signifies participants playing both offense and defense.

FANS – More than 26 million fans have experienced an AFL game in the League’s 24-year history. Last year, in 2011, the AFL drew 1,338,544 fans in the regular season.

“MAC” AND “JACK” LINEBACKERS – “Mac” may rush the QB straight on without stunting, twisting or drop-back coverage. “Jack” must stay within an imaginary box behind the line of scrimmage. Either LB may cover the fullback or tight end.

OFFENSIVE MOTION – Unlike stadium-played football, one offensive back may go into forward motion prior to the snap of the ball.

OVERTIME – Arena Football has a unique overtime rule: If a contest is tied after regulation, teams will play a 15-minute overtime. Each team will have one opportunity to score. If, after each team has had one chance to score, the game is tied, the first team to score is crowned the winner.

REBOUND NETS – Goal-side rebound nets extend outward from each upright. The nets are 30-feet wide, 32-feet high and extend to 40 feet above the playing surface. The bottom bars of the frames are positioned eight (8) feet above the surface. The “scoring area” is nine-feet wide and 15-feet high. Nets are stretched taut so that a missed kick attempt will rebound off the net and back into the field of play. Once the ball caroms off the net, it’s live.

SIDELINE BARRIERS – Similar to the sideboards that surround a hockey rink, the sideline barrier encircles the playing surface. The barrier is made of a high-density foam pad, measuring four (4) inches thick.

STUNTING OR TWISTING – When a defensive lineman is rushing the passer, there’s no “stunting” or “twisting.” In other words, linemen are required to power past offensive linemen.

TIGHT END – One offensive lineman must declare himself a tight end prior to the snap by simply raising his arm and “declaring” himself a tight end. The Mac (rush-eligible) linebacker must line-up on the opposite side of the center from the tight end.

TWO-WAY PLAYERS – One of the most “throwback” features of the Arena Football League is the fact that the game features eight-on-eight football, where at times, some players will play both offense and defense.

The Return

Over the next few years, the sports landscape in Des Moines changed drastically, most notably with the opening of Wells Fargo Arena in 2005. With a new facility in place a group of local investors led by Jeff Lamberti applied for an af2 expansion franchise in 2007 and the Barnstormers were re-born!

The team returned for the 2008 season and the fan support came back as though the team had never left. The Barnstormers may have ended their return season with a record of 6-10, but were second in the league in attendance averaging over 9,000 fans per game. The 2009 season proved that the Barnstormers could only continue to grow, they improved their record to 13-5 they made it to the second round of playoffs and pushed their attendance up to over 9,500 per game.

In 2010, the Barnstormers took their next step forward as they once again became part of the Arena Football League. The 2010 and 2011 seasons provided the Barnstormers with some growing pains, as the franchise finished with 7-9 and 5-13 records. Following the 2011 season, the Barnstormers reached out to Mike Hohensee to become their next Head Coach. Hohensee brings with him a proven track record, including an ArenaBowl victory as Head Coach of the Chicago Rush in 2006. In 2012 Hohensee was named to the Arena Football Hall of Fame. The team has developed a group of young exciting players and is ready to make the next step in 2014. We need you, the fans, to come along for the ride!
