Jeff Bouchy

Operating Manager

YEARS IN THE AFL: 11

(Jacksonville Sharks, 2010-15; Orlando Predators 1998-2002)

CAREER RECORD IN AFL: 132-76

REGULAR SEASON RECORD: 115-69

POSTSEASON RECORD: 17-7 (3-2 in ArenaBowl contests)

Jeff Bouchy continues his duties as the Operating Manager of the Jacksonville Sharks for the 2016 season, his 12th in the Arena Football League. Bouchy has overseen a budding franchise that in its inaugural 2010 season won a South Division title while setting an AFL record for wins in an expansion season (12). The Sharks followed that successful campaign by winning an AFL-record 13 consecutive regular-season games in 2011, capturing its second South Division title in as many years and continuing on to a dramatic victory in ArenaBowl XXIV. In 2012, the Sharks again finished atop the South Division, becoming the first team in AFL history to win a division title in each of their first three years as a franchise. The Sharks continued to build on their reputation as one of the league's model franchises in 2013, capturing a fourth consecutive South Division title and reaching the conference championship game for a third straight season.

Bouchy is no stranger to success in the AFL. As a minority owner of the Orlando Predators, Bouchy served as General Manager and Vice President of Football Operations from 1998 to 2002. During that time, the Predators competed in post-season play all five seasons. With a record of 72-36 (10-4 during post-season play), the Predators appeared in three ArenaBowls, winning two.

With the Sharks, Bouchy continued a tradition of excellence. Bouchy managed teams have consistently been at the top of league ranks in season ticket sales and corporate partnerships. His teams have won awards and received national acclaim for innovative and exciting marketing campaigns - including the famous "Fake Left, Fake Right" billboard campaign in 2000.

Bouchy has also managed the Peoria Pirates of the arenafootball2 (af2) league, a member of the Arena Football Family from 1999-2009. From 1992-1998, Bouchy was the Chief Financial Officer of Gum Tech International, a publicly held chewing gum manufacturer located in Phoenix, AZ. Prior to that, Bouchy was an event coordinator at the Charlotte Coliseum, then home of the Charlotte Hornets in North Carolina.

Bouchy also owns three companies, all serving the sports and entertainment markets, Destroyer Promotional Products (DPP), Destroyer Graphics (DG) and Destroyer Merchandising Company (DMC). DPP imports promotional and retail items for sports teams. Formed in 2002, DPP provides giveaway products for all professional sports teams across the country. DPP imports from China, India, Taiwan and Vietnam. DPP sells bobbleheads, headwear, bagwear, sporting goods and many different novelty products.

DG was founded in 2006. DG is a 5,000 sq. ft. screen printing and embroidery facility located in Middleburg, FL. DG produces over 500,000 promotional tees and rally towels per year for various sports teams and their retail shops.

DMC operates retail outlets for sports teams in their arenas. Currently DMC operates the arena team shops for the Grand Rapids Griffins and the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League, the Rochester Nighthawks of the National Lacrosse League, and the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League.

Bouchy has a Master's of Science in Sports Management from West Virginia University and the Bachelor's of Science in Accounting from Arizona State University. He currently resides in St. Augustine, Florida with his wife Laura, and four children Jeff, Jr., Lola, Sophie and Ryne. The family has three dogs, Abbie, Gunner and Tinkerbell.

Sharks - 50

March 28, 2015

New Orleans, LA

Smoothie King Center

Attendance: 3,833

The Sharks opened the season in New Orleans and got off to a slow start, trailing the VooDoo by a 20-0 count at the end of the first quarter. The Jacksonville offense got in gear in the second, as Tommy Grady and Joe Hills connected for touchdown passes on three consecutive drives. Down 37-24 heading into the third quarter, defensive back Terrance Smith forced a pair of turnovers to help the Sharks tie the game and eventually take a 50-44 lead on Derrick Ross' second rushing touchdown of the game. But New Orleans answered, as Carlese Franklin eluded tacklers on an end-around to score with 2:45 remaining. The Sharks had the ball in the final minute with a change to come out on top, but Grady's fourth-down pass to Hills fell incomplete with 12 seconds left, and the VooDoo burned off the remainder of the clock to seal the game.

April 3, 2015

Jacksonville, FL

Sea Best Field

Attendance: 8,741

The Sharks opened up their 2015 home schedule against the rival Orlando Predators in Week 2. This game was a back-and-forth affair from the start, as the teams traded scored throughout the first half. The second quarter featured 55 combined points, including four touchdowns in the final minute as Orlando led 35-34 at the break. Getting the ball to start the third, Tommy Grady and the Sharks' offense took the lead on a quick 30-yard touchdown pass to Tiger Jones. But Orlando responded with a score and the only stop of the game, cashing in on the ensuing short field to take a 48-40 lead. After Derrick Ross scored a touchdown and a two-point conversion to tie it at 48, Orlando fullback Michael Simons crossed the goal line to put Orlando in front for good. The Sharks scored with a minute and a half remaining, but a missed extra point left Orlando in front by a point. After a fourth-down penalty gave Orlando's offense an automatic first down, the Predators burned off the rest of the clock.

SOUL - 63
Sharks - 52
 April 12, 2015
 Philadelphia, PA
 Wells Fargo Center
 Attendance: 9,043

The Sharks traveled to Philadelphia to take on the Soul in Week 3. The two teams kept pace early, as Tommy Grady hit Tiger Jones for touchdowns on a pair of fourth-down passes in the first quarter. But the Soul were able to generate a pair of defensive stops in the second quarter, allowing Philadelphia to take a 35-21 halftime lead. The Soul then broke the game open in the third. After scoring on the opening drive of the second half, Philadelphia executed a surprise onside kick, turning that extra possession into a touchdown to take a 49-21 lead. The Sharks did mount a rally in the fourth quarter, forcing a pair of turnovers on defense that helped cut the lead to 63-52 in the final minute. But the comeback ultimately proved to be too little, too late, as the Sharks fell to 0-3.

Attendance: 7,596

The Sharks had a very quick turnaround in Week 4, facing the San Jose SaberCats on a Friday night after playing in Philadelphia the previous Sunday. Down 21-7 early in the second quarter, Jacksonville stayed in the game with Jimmy Gordon recovered a SaberCat fumble, leading to Derrick Ross tying the score at 21 on the third of his four rushing touchdowns. Trailing 28-24 at halftime, Jacksonville traded touchdowns with San Jose into the third quarter. But after Jeron Harvey's 18-yard TD catch made it 48-45, San Jose responded with a quick touchdown, then recovered a kickoff off the iron and scored again, turning a three-point game into a 17-point margin. Jacksonville was not able to rally in the final minutes, as the Sharks dropped their fourth straight game.

The Sharks got in the win column in Week 5, taking it to the Las Vegas Outlaws with a 60-28 victory over the Las Vegas Outlaws. The teams traded scores early on, as the game was knotted at 14-14 halfway through the second quarter. From there, the game turned, as the Sharks ripped off a 35-0 scoring run thanks in large part to two fumble recoveries and an onside kick recovery. Jacksonville scored 21 points in a 48-second span in the final minute of the first half, taking a commanding 35-14 lead at the break. Las Vegas never got closer than that 21-point margin at any point in the second half, as Jacksonville defensive lineman Joe Sykes provided the exclamation point with an emphatic safety in the fourth quarter.

Attendance: 11,124

The Sharks began their Week 6 matchup against the Tampa Bay Storm with a strong defensive start, generating a turnover on downs and an interception on the Storm's first two offensive drives. Those stops helped the Sharks hold a 7-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, but Jacksonville missed opportunities to seize control of the game. Tampa Bay intercepted Tommy Grady twice in the first half, including once when Jacksonville was driving to tie the score with less than a minute remaining in the first half. Instead, Tampa Bay scored on a touchdown pass to T.T. Toliver that made the game 28-14 at halftime, and the Storm never looked back. Jacksonville did not score in the third quarter, trailing by 28 points heading into the final frame, and ultimately fell by a 63-28 count.

The Sharks and Gladiators began their Week 6 matchup in back-and-forth fashion, as each team forced a defensive stop on the opponent's opening drive, then exchanged touchdowns into the final minute of the second quarter. After Derrick Ross' three-yard touchdown run cut the Sharks' deficit to 21-19, Alvin Ray Jackson snared an interception on the final play of the first half to keep Cleveland off the board. In the third quarter, the Jacksonville defense changed the game with back-to-back stops, as Joe Sykes recorded a strip-sack and Greg Reid grabbed his second pick of the game. The Shark offense took advantage, scoring off of each turnover to take a 39-21 lead. The Gladiators charged back, cutting the deficit to just three points on two separate occasions. But after Cleveland scored with 3:18 remaining, the Jacksonville offense burned off the remainder of the clock to seal the victory.

Riding a two-game winning streak, the Sharks headed back to New Orleans in Week 9, looking to avenge their Week 1 loss to the VooDoo. The Sharks carried a three-game winning streak into their Week 10 matchup with the LA KISS. Jacksonville raced out to a quick lead, as Tiger Jones hauled in a 40-yard touchdown on the game's second play, and Alvin Ray Jackson snared a pick-six on Los Angeles' first possession. But the KISS battled back into the game, as Los Angeles scored the final touchdown of the first half and the first touchdown of the third quarter, bringing themselves within a 28-21 margin. In the fourth quarter, the Jacksonville offense stumbled, turning the ball over twice. But each time, the Shark defense stepped up to force a turnover on downs. Up by six in the final minute, the Sharks missed a field goal, giving Los Angeles a chance to potentially win the game. The KISS offense took several shots into the end zone, but Jacksonville rookie Greg Reid picked off Danny Southwick as time expired to seal the Sharks' 41-35 victory.

 Attendance: 10,127

The Sharks took a four-game winning streak into their Week 11 rematch with the division rival Orlando Predators. The Predators gained an early advantage by intercepting Tommy Grady twice in the first half, holding a 10-point lead on two separate occasions. But Jacksonville closed the gap with a field goal at the end of the first half and a touchdown on the opening drive of the third quarter, closing the gap to 30-29. The Jacksonville defense then came up with two turnovers late in the third quarter, as the team used those extra possessions to outscore Orlando 27-7 in that period. Grady's touchdown pass to Joe Hills gave the Sharks their first two-score lead, and Orlando's offense never had the ball with less than a two-score deficit for the remainder of the game. Joe Sykes provided an exclamation point in the fourth quarter, as his second strip-sack of the game led to a safety. Following the safety, Derrick Ross put the finishing touches on the Sharks' second-highest scoring output of the season with a rushing touchdown in the final minute of the game, his third of the night.

Attendance: 12,602

The Sharks headed back to Tampa in Week 12, looking to keep their five-game winning streak alive. After a back-and-forth first quarter, Tampa Bay gained an advantage early in the second. Following an Emery Sammons touchdown catch, Kendrick Ings recovered a bar ball for a touchdown on the ensuing kickoff, putting Tampa Bay ahead by two scores for the first time. From there, the teams matched scores through halftime, as the Storm lead by a 56-42 count at the break. The Sharks were unable to score on the opening drive of the third quarter, but stayed in the game thanks to a pair of red-zone interceptions courtesy of Chris Smith and Alvin Ray Jackson. Joe Hills' touchdown catch and two-point conversion tied the score at 56-56 with just under two minutes left. Tampa Bay then scored on its next drive and forced a turnover on downs on the Sharks' final possession, keeping Jacksonville out of the end zone and sealing the game.

Facing the Cleveland Gladiators in Week 14, the Sharks raced out to an early two-score lead, thanks to an interception by Greg Reid on Cleveland's first offensive possession. The Gladiators kept the game close through the second quarter, as Cleveland had a chance to cut their deficit to just one score in the final minute of the half. But Chris Smith intercepted Amarri Jackson's attempted wide receiver pass to keep the Gladiators off the board. In the second half, the Sharks opened the floodgates by forcing three more turnovers and returning two attempted onside kicks for touchdowns. In all, the Jacksonville offense scored on all but one drive and the defense forced six Gladiator turnovers, a dominant team effort that resulted in a 33-point win.

The Sharks returned home for a matchup with the Philadelphia Soul in Week 17. The Soul gained an early advantage by forcing two turnovers, as Tommy Grady fumbled near the goal line on the game's opening drive, and Greg Reid lost the handle on a kickoff return in the second quarter. As a result, Philadelphia took a two-score lead, 33-21. The Sharks' defense got a key stop just before halftime, as Philadelphia's field goal attempt missed wide right. Jacksonville then kept pace into the fourth quarter, when Greg Reid changed the complexion of the game with interceptions on back-to-back passes. Reid's first pick tied the game at 60, and his next one set the Sharks' offense up in prime position to take the lead, 67-60. The defense stepped up again in the final minute, as Terrance Smith hauled down a Soul receiver in bounds with less than 10 seconds left, burning off the remainder of the clock and sealing a Jacksonville victory.

The Sharks entered their Week 18 matchup with the Tampa Bay Storm with a chance to clinch a playoff spot. Jacksonville set the tone early, following up an opening-drive touchdown by forcing a turnover on downs on Tampa Bay's next possession. That gave the Sharks a quick 14-0 lead, and Jacksonville never looked back. The Sharks' offense scored on each of its nine possessions, only failing to find the end zone when they ran out the clock in the final minute. On the other side, the Jacksonville defense recorded a total of seven defensive stops, only yielding two touchdowns and a field goal. The Sharks' dominant effort in all phases of game

The Sharks headed down to Orlando in Week 19 needing a win to remain alive in the South Division race. Jacksonville jumped out to a quick three-score lead, thanks to interceptions by Terrance Smith and Greg Reid on Orlando's first two drives. Though the Sharks led 17-0 early in the second quarter, Orlando quickly closed the gap with an interception return touchdown by Nick Taylor, pulling the Predators to within three points. That margin held into the third quarter, when Orlando opened the second half with a touchdown, forced a fumble that turned into a safety, and followed that stop with another score. At that point, the Predators led by a 43-30 count and never looked back. The Sharks yielded a second interception return touchdown early in the fourth, and never came closer than two scores over the final 14 minutes of the game. The loss sealed Jacksonville's playoff fate, as the Sharks will head back to Orlando on August 15 for a rematch in the first round of the postseason.

The Sharks entered the regular season finale already locked into the No. 3 playoff spot in the American Conference. Jacksonville's defense set the tone early, stopping New Orleans' offense on each of its first two possessions. But a lost fumble on the Sharks' first drive allowed the VooDoo to keep the game close. A blocked PAT return for two points by LaRoche Jackson allowed the Sharks to seize a one-point halftime lead, but New Orleans embarked on a 21-0 run in the second half, allowing the VooDoo to go up by a 33-21 count with 10 minutes left in the game. Backup quarterback Lee Chapple engineered a fourth-quarter comeback, as he led two consecutive touchdown drives sandwiched around a successful onside kick. The second of those drives ended with a four-yard TD run by Tiger Jones, giving Jacksonville a 36-33 edge with under two minutes remaining. Nicolas Jean-Baptiste then recovered a fumble on the VooDoo's next possession, and the Sharks' offense ran out the clock from there.

Attendance: 9,186

The Sharks headed down to Orlando for the team's first road play-off game since the 2012 season, and their first-ever road playoff matchup against this in-state rival. The Sharks set the tone early, as on Orlando's first offensive possession, Terrance Smith laid a thunderous hit on Larry Brackins to force a fourth-down incomplection, leading to a Jacksonville touchdown and a 14-0 lead. Just before halftime, JLB Alvin Ray Jackson came up with a phenomenal diving interception, and the Sharks' offense cashed in with a touchdown to go up 35-14 at the break. Orlando went on a run early in the third quarter, as the Predators opened with a score, a stop and another score to close the gap to 35-27. But in the fourth quarter, the Sharks reasserted their authority, forcing back-to-back defensive stops to go along with three touchdowns in as many possessions. Derrick Ross' eight-yard touchdown run with four and a half minutes left served as the exclamation point as the Sharks advanced with a 55-33 victory over the Predators.

JACKSONVILLE SHARKS

Sharks - 61
SOUL - 56
 August 23, 2015
 Philadelphia, PA
 Wells Fargo Center
 Attendance: 9,378

The Sharks headed up to Philadelphia to battle the Soul in the American Conference Championship for the third time in the last four years. Jacksonville gained the early advantage, as late in the first quarter, Alvin Ray Jackson stripped the ball from Soul receiver Shaun Kauleinamoku, forcing a fumble that Terrance Smith recovered. The Sharks used that extra possession to build a two-score lead, and held a 28-14 advantage at halftime. In the second half, each team's offense came out firing on all cylinders, as both the Sharks and Soul scored on their first five possessions of the second half. After Tommy Grady's one-yard quarterback sneak gave the Sharks a 61-49 lead, Marco Thomas caught a five-yard touchdown to pull the Soul within five points with 39 seconds left in the game. The Sharks had a chance to score, but after three incompletions, Julian Rauch's field goal attempt missed wide right, and the Soul got the ball back with 18 seconds left. On the final play from scrimmage, Greg Reid tipped a pass into the air, which LaRoche Jackson picked off in the end zone to seal the game.

Stockton, CA

Stockton Arena

Attendance: 9,115

The Sharks headed out to California to try and complete their remarkable run with the franchise's second ArenaBowl title. Jacksonville and San Jose exchanged scores throughout a back-and-forth first half, as Joe Hills' touchdown pass with less than two minutes remaining in the second quarter and Greg Reid's interception on the final play of the first half helped Jacksonville take a 33-27 lead into the locker room. But San Jose dominated the third quarter, using a pick-six, a fumble recovery, a net recovery touchdown and a turnover on downs to score five consecutive touchdowns into the third quarter. The 34-0 run enabled the SaberCats to take a commanding 61-33 lead with just under 11 minutes left in the game, and Jacksonville was never able to make the game significantly closer. Though the Sharks scored twice in the fourth quarter, San Jose emerged victorious by a 68-47 count, as the SaberCats hoisted the trophy after capturing ArenaBowl XVIII.

PLAYOFF QUALIFICATION, SELECTION OF TEAMS

All eight teams will participate in the postseason. There will be one (1) conference top seed and three (3) wildcards in each conference. Seeding in each Conference is based on overall record, with the top record in each Conference reserved for that Conference's #1 seed (overall seed #1 and #2 respectively) (i.e.- Team A in American Conference has the top record at 12-4. Team B has second best record in the American conference at 11-5. Team C in the National Conference has a record of 10-6; Team A earns #1 seed, Team C earns #2 seed and Team B earns #3 seed)

Scott C. Butera

AFL Commissioner

Scott C. Butera enters his first season as the AFL's Commissioner. An avowed sports enthusiast who played football at his alma mater Trinity College in Hartford, Commissioner Butera has spent most of his career in top management positions with nationally recognized entertainment brands such as Foxwoods and Tropicana Entertainment.

At Foxwoods (2011-present), a property with over $1.0 billion in annual revenues, he led the restructuring of the Resort's finances and operations through business development and marketing programs aimed at repositioning the brand. He secured sports partnerships with professional teams in Boston (Red Sox) and New York (Yankees, Rangers, Knicks, Nets, Madison Square Garden) to help spearhead the effort.

As CEO of Tropicana Entertainment (2008-11), Butera engineered the company's emergence from Chapter 11 bankruptcy and, in the process, helped to revitalize the iconic brand through improved marketing and property redevelopment.

Butera honed his business operations skills as Chief Operating Officer of the Cosmopolitan Resort and Casino in Las Vegas. Prior to that he was President, Chief Operating Officer, and Executive Vice President of Trump Entertainment Resorts, Inc.

Butera's financial background includes 20 years in investment banking with UBS Investment Bank, Credit Suisse First Boston, Smith Barney and Bear Stearns & Co. During that time he concentrated on analysis and client service for companies in the real estate, lodging, gaming and leisure industries. The new Commissioner earned his MBA at New York University's Leonard N. Stern School of Business. He recently served as a member of the Board of Fellows at Trinity College.

FIELD

- An indoor padded surface 85 feet wide and 50 yards long with eight-yard end zones.
- Goal posts are nine feet wide with a crossbar height of 15 feet (NFL goal posts are 18-1/2 feet wide with the crossbar at 10 feet).
- The goal-side rebound nets are 30 feet wide by 32 feet high. The bottoms of the nets are eight feet above the ground.
- Sideline barriers are 48 inches high and made of high-density foam rubber.

EQUIPMENT

- The official football is the same size and weight as the National Football League ball. Each ball is manufactured by Spalding, a division of Russell Corporation.

PLAYERS AND FORMATIONS

- Eight players on the field; 21-man active roster; three-man inactive roster.
- Players may play both offense and defense.
- Substitution: Coaches are permitted to substitute players at will.
- Four (4) offensive players must line up on the line of scrimmage.
- Three (3) defensive players must be down linemen (in a three- or four-point stance). One linebacker may blitz on either side of the center. Alignment is two-or-more yards off the line of scrimmage. No stunting or twisting.
- Offensive motion: One receiver may go in forward motion before the snap.

TIMING

- Four 15-minute quarters with a 15-minute halftime.
- The clock stops for out-of-bounds plays or incomplete passes only in the last minute of each half and when the referee deems it necessary for penalties, injuries or timeouts.
- Each team is allowed three (3) timeouts per half.

MOVEMENT OF THE BALL AND SCORING

- Four downs are allowed to advance the ball 10 yards for a first down, or to score.
- Six points for a touchdown.
- One point for a conversion by place kick after a touchdown, two (2) points for a conversion by drop kick and two (2) points for a successful run or pass after a touchdown.
- Three points for a field goal by placement or four (4) points for a field goal by drop kick.
- Two (2) points for a safety.

KICKING

- Kickoffs are from the goal line. Kickers may use a one-inch tee.
- Punting is illegal. On fourth down, a team may go for a first down, touchdown or field goal.
- The receiving team may field any kickoff or missed field goal that rebounds off the net.
- Any untouched kickoff, which is out of bounds, will be placed at the 20-yard line or the place where it went out-of-bounds, whichever is more advantageous to the receiving team.

PASSING

- Receivers must have one foot inbounds for a catch. A forward pass that rebounds off the rebound net or sideline barrier is a live ball and is in play until it touches the playing surface.

OVERTIME RULES

- Overtime periods are 15 minutes for both the regular season and the playoffs.
- Each team gets one possession to score. If, after each team has had one possession, one team is ahead, that team wins. If the teams are tied after each has had a possession, the next team to score wins.

JACKSONVILLE SHARKS

GLOSSARY OF TERMS

BALL IN THE STANDS

When a ball is thrown or bounces into the seats surrounding the playing field, the "lucky" fan that catches the ball keeps it.

DROP KICK

A drop-kicked FG is worth 4 points. A drop-kicked extra point is worth 2 points. Spokane Shock kicker Taylor Rowan was the last man to connect on a two-point dropkick (7/22/2011 vs. Jacksonville).

FANS

More than 26 million fans have experienced an AFL game in the League's 24-year history. Last year, in 2011, the AFL drew 1,338,544 fans in the regular season.

IRONMAN

Signifies participants playing both offense and defense.

"MAC" AND "JACK" LINEBACKERS

"Mac" may rush the QB straight on without stunting, twisting or drop-back coverage. "Jack" must stay within an imaginary box behind the line of scrimmage. Either LB may cover the fullback or tight end.

OFFENSIVE MOTION

Unlike stadium-played football, one offensive back may go into forward motion prior to the snap of the ball.

OVERTIME

Arena Football has a unique overtime rule. If a contest is tied after regulation, teams will play a 15-minute overtime. Each team will have one opportunity to score. If, after each team has had one chance to score, the game is tied, the first team to score is crowned the winner.

REBOUND NETS

Goal-side rebound nets extend outward from each upright. The nets are 30-feet wide, 32-feet high and extend to 40 feet above the playing surface. The bottom bars of the frames are positioned eight feet above the surface. The "scoring area" is nine-feet wide and 15-feet high. Nets are stretched taut so that a missed kick attempt will rebound off the net and back into the field of play. Once the ball caroms off the net, it's live.

SIDELINE BARRIERS

Similar to the sideboards that surround a hockey rink, the sideline barrier encircles the playing surface. The barrier is made of a high-density foam pad, measuring four inches thick.

STUNTING OR TWISTING

When a defensive lineman is rushing the passer, there's no "stunting" or "twisting". In other words, linemen are required to power past offensive linemen.

TIGHT END

One offensive lineman must declare himself a tight end prior to the snap by simply raising his arm and "declaring" himself a tight end. The Mac (rush-eligible) linebacker must line-up on the opposite side of the center from the tight end.

TWO-WAY PLAYERS

One of the most "throwback" features of the Arena Football League is the fact that the game features eight-on-eight football, where at times, some players will play both offense and defense.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

ROSTER LIMITS

From the first day the League allows the signing of free-agent players until the first league-sanctioned cut-down date, teams are prohibited from having more than 35 players on their roster. Players listed on the active list or free-agent signees are considered eligible to be counted for the 35-man roster.

Teams will be required to reduce their active lists to 28 players by 5 p.m. CST 14 days before the first regular season game and to 24 players by 5 p.m. CST seven days before the first regular season game.

Each team may maintain a maximum 20-player roster and 4-player practice squad during the season. In a documented emergency, a team may add an emergency kicker to their roster, no later than one hour before kickoff.

TRADES

The trading period began on November 5, 2012 and will end at 5 p.m. CST on Monday, June 10, 2013. Upon reporting to his new team, each traded player must pass the physical given by his new team. Failure to pass the physical and/or failure to report will nullify the trade.

RESERVE LISTS

The reserve list of each team consists of the following categories; retired, refused to report, left squad, injured reserve, injured exempt, team suspended, league suspended, other league exempt and physically unable to perform.

INJURED RESERVE

A player who is placed on injured reserve list must remain on injured reserve for a minimum of four weeks. Training camp weeks will not count against that total. Teams activating players from their injured reserve list must do so no less than 24 hours prior to that team's game.

ARENA INFORMATION

JACKSONVILLE SHARKS

JACKSONVILLE VETERANS MEMORIAL ARENA

The ArenaBowl XXIV Champion Jacksonville Sharks play their home games at Sea Best Field, in the Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena. The 15,000 seat venue is widely considered around the north Florida area as a top notch multi-purpose arena.

Nicknamed "The Vet," the state of the art sports/event venue, located in the heart of the Jacksonville Sports Complex near downtown Jacksonville, was built by HOK Sports Facility Group out of Kansas City, Mo. It was constructed as part of Mayor John Delaney's Better Jacksonville Plan, to replace the archaic Jacksonville Memorial Coliseum in 2003. It cost $130 million at the time of construction and is owned by the city of Jacksonville.

The Arena provides the Sharks with a state-of-the-art facility that allows for a great game-day experience for both the teams and the fans. The Sharks ranked sixth in 2011 in average attendance, making for a home-field advantage that has helped the Sharks to a 17-3 record on Sea Best Field over the team's first two seasons (including playoffs). A recent Arena Football League fan poll ranked Sea Best Field as the fourth-rowdiest atmosphere in the 25-year history of the AFL.

In addition to being the home field of the Sharks for the past four AFL seasons, the arena plays host to the Jacksonville University men's and women's basketball teams, and the Jacksonville Giants of the American Basketball Association.

It also has hosted a number of big sporting events throughout its 10-year history. In 2004, the USA Men's Olympic basketball team played their only game in the United States at "The Vet."

The Venue has also brought March Madness to Jacksonville, hosting first and second-round NCAA Men's Division I Basketball Tournament games in 2006 and 2010. World Wrestling Entertainment Inc., and the Professional Bull Riders (PBR) Built Ford Tough Rodeo Series also have hosted events at the arena.

Sports are not the only thing going on inside the walls at Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena. The venue is a regular stop for headline musicians, bands, comedians and other entertainers. The state-of-the-art acoustics make it a great place to see a concert or show. The first artist to ever perform at "The Vet" was Elton John, in November 2003. It also plays host to the Annual Jacksonville Craft and Import Beer Festival.

Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena meets or exceeds all structural and service requirements set by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). It is managed by SMG (property management), which is the world's leading company in managing public assembly facilities.

Restrooms, ATM machines, drinking fountains, four elevators, and phones are all easily accessible. Concession stands are available on each of the four levels and merchandise booths are also spread throughout the arena. The doors open one hour before games or events and the Box Office is open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
