Shaine BOYLE

#21 - Defensive Back

5-10 - 190 - 5/1/1988
 Faulkner (AL) AFL Exp: 2

2016: Began the season with the Cleveland Gladiators and appeared in one game with Cleveland. Boyle has suited up for the Steel in the final eight contests of the regular season. To go along with 38.0 tackles and one interception as he covers some of the AFL's talent at wide out, he has become quite the find when it comes to special teams.

In three consecutive weeks spanning June 27 to July 16, Boyle notched a kickoff return for touchdown; against the Philadelphia Soul (June 27) a 57-yard attempt, one against the Orlando Predators (July 9) another 57-yard attempt and last week against the Jacksonville Sharks a 54-yard effort.

Emerging as the Steel's new threat off the net, he has returned 20 kickoffs for 492 yards (24.6-yard avg.) and three scores.

2016: Started in all 16 games for the Portland Steel at center. He did not record a stat but is cornerstone of the offensive line.

Dexter DAVIS JR.

#11 - Defensive Line

6-2 - 230 - 1/27/90

Friends (KS) AFL Exp: 1

Dexter Davis Jr. has been quite the disruptor on the defensive side of the ball. Davis Jr. finished tied for 14th in the AFL with 3.0 sacks and led the Steel with nine passes batted down this season.

For his career he has corralled nine sacks in just 24 career AFL games. The Friends University (Kansas) graduate, has accumulated 47.0 tackles in his AFL career.

Deveric GALLINGTON

#66 - Offensive Lineman

6-3 - 330 - 5/6/90

Texas Tech AFL Exp: 2

2016: Appeared in 14 games for the Steel on the offensive line. As the main target as tight end, he hauled in 6 passes for 28 yards. For his career he has 11 receptions for 61 yards.

Sergio GILLIAM

#9 - Defensive Back

6-2 - 190 - 1/29/85

Clemson AFL Exp: 5

Defensive back Sergio Gilliam was named Defensive Player of the Week after his performance against the LA KISS in Week 18. He made five tackles and intercepted KISS quarterback Pete Thomas twice and returned those turnovers for a combined 26 yards.

The first interception of the night produced an acrobatic highlight-reel attempt as he leaped and in mid-air corralled the errant pass with one arm and secured the ball as he fell to the ground, a truly remarkable effort.

Now in his sixth season out of Clemson, Gilliam led all Steel defenders with 55.0 tackles, nine passes defended, one tackle for loss, one forced fumble and led Portland with five interceptions.

Tom GILSON

#5 - Wide Receiver

6-2 - 200 - 11/6/88
UMASS AFL Exp: 3

Now in his third year in the AFL, UMASS graduate Tom Gilson raked in a career-game high in Week 7 against the Cleveland Gladiators. His 16 receptions set an AFL season-high, a Portland AFL game-high and a career game-high. He also set single-game career highs with 174 receiving yards and four touchdowns against the Arizona Rattlers in Week 11.

He finished his 2016 campaign in the top 10 of nearly every AFL receiving category, 4th in the AFL with 8.2 receptions per game, 4th with 132 receptions and 10th in receiving yards per game with 81.4.

Gilson led the team in every receiving category; receptions, receiving yards (1,303) and receiving touchdowns (14). All are career season highs. Amidst all the injuries to the Steel this season, he is the lone ironman on the wide receiving corps playing in all 16 games this season.

Bryson KELLY

#36 - Defensive Lineman

6-2 - 265 - 7/1/89
Central Washington AFL Exp: 3

Now in his 3rd season in the AFL, fullback/nose guard Bryson Kelly is definitely one for the dramatics. Before sitting out the last ten games due to injury, he made his dominant return to the turf against the Jacksonville Sharks in Week 16. Tallying 3.5 tackles, he sacked Sharks quarterback Tommy Grady giving him his first sack of the 2016 campaign.

In the last two weeks, he has sparked the Steel rushing attack carrying the ball seven times for 18 yards and three touchdowns.

In 31 games played in his AFL career, he has notched 34.5 tackles, 5.0 sacks, one forced fumble. On the offensive side of the ball he has rushed 48 times for 117 yards and 12 touchdowns.

Ernesto LACAYO

#17 - Kicker

5-8 - 180 - 5/5/89

Hastings AFL Exp: 1

Second-year kicker Ernesto Lacayo converted 76-of-93 (81.7%) extra point attempts in 2016. The Hastings College product is now 125-of-145 (86.2%) on point after attempts in his AFL career.

After only connecting on 1-of-4 point after attempts against the Rattlers in Week 11, he bounced back converting 34-of-38 (89.5%) extra point attempts in the final six games of the season.

In Week 16 against the Jacksonville Sharks, he nailed two 19-yard field goals. His first multi-field goal game of his AFL career.

Jared PERRY

#6 - Wide Receiver

6-1 - 180 - 8/27/88
Missouri AFL Exp: 4

Former AFL Rookie of the Year Jared Perry had a breakout game against the Arizona Rattlers in Week 11. Making seven catches for 122 yards and one touchdown, the fifth-year WR from Missouri caught 71 passes for 870 yards and 14 touchdowns this season.

For his career in 59 games, he has caught 373 passes for 5,039 yards and 95 TD's.

Perry became the 10th active player to reach the 5,000 receiving yard mark. His performance against the LA KISS in the season finale was vital in the team's 48-46 victory. Hauling in five passes for 60 yards and three touchdowns. With 6.2 seconds remaining in the game, Austin found Perry at the goal line for the game-winning touchdown.

Nick TRUESDELL

#81 - Wide Receiver

6-6 - 235 - 3/14/90

Cincinnati AFL Exp: 2

Truesdell was activated from injured reserve four weeks ago after spending 12 weeks out with an ankle injury. He has caught 14 passes for 162 yards and seven touchdowns since returning and is easily becoming the red-zone threat that the Steel offense has needed.

Last week he was placed on the Steel's Other League Exempt List as he attended training camp with both the Indianapolis Colts and the Detroit Lions. In his final game before attending both camps he hauled in three touchdowns against the Tampa Bay Storm in Week 17 as he was named Offensive Player of the Game.

In 27 career AFL games, he has hauled in 127 passes for 1,527 yards and 38 touchdowns. The talented 6-foot-6 wide out is capable of huge outings, on June 21, 2015 with Spokane he hauled in seven passes for a career-game high 124 yards and five touchdowns against Portland. In the same season, he made a career single game high 12 catches against San Jose on June 26.

PORTLAND - The Steel opened up the 2016 campaign with an 80-28 loss to the Arizona Rattlers in front of 6,782 fans at Moda Center in Portland. After jumping out to a quick 7-0 lead, Portland turned the ball over three times that were all returned for defensive touchdowns and were unable to overcome the Rattlers offense that scored on nine of 10 possessions. Steel QB Danny Southwick completed 19 of 37 passes for 239 yards, three touchdowns and two interceptions. Wide receiver Tom Gilson led all Steel pass catchers with 12 grabs for 128 yards and a touchdown. Before being hampered by injury, newcomer Nick Truesdell hauled in a 38-yard touchdown to start the scoring, his first catch as a member of the Steel.

ORLANDO - The Steel dropped their first-road contest of the season against the Orlando Predators last Saturday night in front of 10,732 fans at Amway Center, 53-50. Portland took a 50-46 lead with :49 seconds left in the game after fullback Bryson Kelly rushed for his second touchdown of the night from a yard out. On the ensuing kickoff, the Predators got a game changing kickoff return from Brandon Thompkins which setup what would eventually be their game-winning touchdown. With 18 seconds remaining in the game the Steel had a chance to win the game on their final drive, only to see that dashed on an interception by Orlando defensive back Kent Richardson. Portland dropped to 0-2 all-time against the Orlando Predators.

ANAHEIM - The Steel dropped to an 0-5 to start the season as they turned the ball over six times against the LA KISS in front of 9,235 fans at Honda Center and lost, 66-27. QB Thomas made his first-start in 2016 and threw for three touchdowns but also threw five interceptions with three returned for TD's. A bright spot for the Steel is the emergence of DB/KR Terrence Mitchell, he returned nine kickoffs for 163 yards (18.1 yard average) including a 55-yard return for touchdown, the team's first-TD return of the year. On defense, DL/LB Robert Hayes was able to sack KISS QB Nathan Stanley twice, setting a new career-game high.

CLEVELAND - The Steel lost an overtime thriller against the Cleveland Gladiators, 55-48, at Quicken Loans Arena in front of 6,733 fans. Down by 20 points to start the 4th quarter, Austin threw three touchdown passes to send the game to overtime. In the extra period, the Gladiators scored a touchdown on their lone possession and the Steel rebuttal attempt was thwarted by an interception in the end zone to end the game. Many records were set on a Portland AFL game-high standpoint and career game-highs for many players. The loss is the team's sixth consecutive loss in 2016 and 19th consecutive loss on the road, dating back to May 3, 2014 (Tampa Bay).

ANAHEIM - Up by a score of 42-41, the Portland Steel looked to be in the driver seat against the LA KISS with less than six minutes left in the final quarter. The KISS were able to recover a botched fumble in the end zone and recovered a football that bounced off the upright on consecutive kickoffs and were able to pull away with a 54-42 victory in front of 7,150 fans at Honda Center last Saturday night. Under Armour Offensive Player of the Game, Pete Thomas, connected on six touchdown passes, four of them to WR Donovan Morgan. Steel WR Tyrone Goard hauled in four touchdown passes of his own. The Steel saw more injuries in Week 9, losing DB Tim Shelley II to a hip injury.

PORTLAND - The Steel weathered the Storm, 68-35, in front of 5,136 at Moda Center last Friday night. A game that saw Portland set a franchise high for margin of defeat, 33.

Shane Austin completed 19-of-26 passes for 139 yards, five touchdowns and ran for two touchdowns against the Storm last week. Behind a pair of touchdowns to wide receivers Jared Perry and Tyrone Goard and a one-handed effort by James Shaw, the Steel offense scored their highest point total of the season, 68.

The Steel defense were able to force Tampa Bay into six total turnovers (two interceptions and four fumbles). And were able to get to Storm QB Jason Boltus on two occasions forcing intentional grounding penalties.

The win gave the Steel their first victory of 2016.

PHOENIX - The Steel lost to the Arizona Rattlers, 76-49, in front of 14,401 fans in attendance at Talking Stick Resort Arena last Saturday night. Shane Austin threw for 351 yards, seven touchdowns and rushed for one. Austin also surpassed the 500-yard rushing mark for his career. With 28 yards gained on the ground, he has rushed for 521 yards in his four-year career. Tom Gilson hauled in four of those touchdown passes and racked up 174 yards receiving, all are career game highs. But it was not enough to slow down a hot Rattlers offense that scored on 11-of-12 possessions. Arizona QB Nick Davila completed 24-of-33 passes for 270 yards and eight touchdowns, en route to being named Under Armour Offensive Player of the Game. Arizona moves to 10-0 all-time against Portland AFL teams.

PORTLAND - Down by six points with 9:35 left in the fourth quarter, the Steel were unable to stop the Cleveland Gladiators from an extended possession that lasted 11 plays and seven minutes and 26 seconds late in the quarter. The Gladiators would cap that drive with a field goal and the eventual 58-49 victory in front of 4,516 fans at Moda Center in Week 12. The Steel offense welcomed back WR Rashaad Carter who hauled in six passes for 71 yards and led all receivers with three touchdowns. In his fourth game with Portland, WR James Shaw caught eight passes for a game-high 109 yards and two touchdowns. He also added a touchdown rushing. QB Shane Austin eclipsed two career records as he completed his 1,000 AFL pass and has now passed for 250 touchdowns in his 50th career game.

TAMPA - The Portland Steel were able to get the ball all the way down to the Tampa Bay Storm 8-yard line where they would try a 23-yard field goal to win the game. With :03 seconds on the clock, the snap from center Robert Hayes was online, the hold from Darron Thomas was true but the kick attempt was blocked at the line giving the Tampa Bay Storm the one-point victory, 41-40, in front of 8,958 fans at Amalie Arena. A huge second half helped Shane Austin to the tune of 16 completions on 23 attempts for 192 yards, three touchdowns and also scored a rushing touchdown. A streak of turnovers plagued the Steel in the second quarter before their huge second half scoring rush. Steel wide out Tom Gilson led all pass catchers with seven receptions for 108 yards. Wide receiver Nick Truesdell scored three touchdowns on his four reception, 78-yard game, earning him Under Armour Offensive Player of the Game honors. The Steel defense which has been playing better as of late were able to force an interception in the final quarter as Matt Pierce picked off Storm quarterback Adam Kennedy to give Austin and the Steel offense operating room at their own 22-yard line and 4:28 left on the clock. For his effort, Pierce was named Riddell Defensive Player of the Game.

PORTLAND – With 11 seconds remaining the Portland Steel were down by five points to the LA KISS. On 4th and 1 on the KISS 13-yard line, Shane Austin was able to find Jared Perry in the end zone for the eventual game-winning touchdown and a 48-46 victory in front of 5,236 fans at Moda Center on Fan Appreciation Night. It was Perry’s third touchdown of the contest on the same night that he eclipsed the 5,000 receiving yard mark for his career. Austin completed 25-of-42 passes for 207 yards, four touchdowns and one interception. An added twist to the game was the Steel rushing attack, as the team was able to gain 27 yards on 15 carries including three touchdowns. Two scores from Bryson Kelly and one from Kevin Myers. Portland defensive back Sergio Gilliam was named the AFL’s Defensive Player of the Week after he intercepted KISS QB Pete Thomas twice, one of which was a highlight-reel acrobatic interception as he corralled the ball in one arm in mid-air only to secure it as he was going to the ground. Portland AFL has never lost to the LA KISS in the friendly confines of Moda Center, running Portland’s record against LA to 4-0.
