Vipers Game 71, IHL GAME 576

Visit the Vipers on the Web: www.detroitvipers.com

TONIGHT'S CONTEST: Detroit and Manitoba hook-up for the 7th and final time during the 1998-99 regular season tonight. Detroit is 26-7-4 at home and Manitoba is 21-10-5 on the road. Both Detroit and Manitoba won last night. The Moose are un-beaten in their last seven games. Peter Ciavaglia leads the way with seven points vs. Manitoba this year. Stan Drulia and Mike Prokopec each come in with five points vs. Manitoba. Former Viper Scott Thomas is one of four Moose players to have four points vs. Detroit.

MANITOBA MEMORIES: Stan Drulia led all Vipers with seven points in four games vs. Manitoba last year. Drulia also had a team-high five assists. John Gruden was a +7 in last year's series as the Vipers went 3-1.

THREE'S WILD: Tonight marks the third game in three days for both Detroit and Manitoba. This is the sixth time Detroit has played three games back-to-back-to-back.

FIRST IMPRESSIONS COUNT: Center Stefan Ustorf has a point in each of his two games since joining the Vipers in a trade with Las Vegas on Thursday. He notched a goal Friday and an assist Saturday at Orlando.

MULTI-POINT PEOPLE: Detroit has had three players earn multi-point games in two of its last three games. Last night, it was Brian Mueller, Bobby Reynolds and Steve Walker each hitting the Solar Bears with a goal and an assist each.

GET OUT OF MY CREASE: Viper netminder Andrei Trefilov has been whistled for penalties in five-straight games after being called for a minor infraction on Saturday night at Orlando. His 2 minutes worth of penalties now gives him a total of 14 for the season. Former Detroit goaltender Jeff Reese has the dubious distinction of registering 26 PIM in a season (1996-97), topping the all-time list of Viper netminders.

MORE TROUBLE: Playing three straight games against each other, Detroit and Orlando combined for 129 PIM last night. The excitement included eight fighting majors and three misconducts.

STAN'S THE MAN, BUT DON'T FORGET ABOUT "WALKS": Captain Stan Drulia competed in his 200th game as a Viper on Friday night, and the 10-year veteran needs only 3 more points to reach the 200 mark for his Detroit career. Likewise, left wing Steve Walker played in his 200th game last night; his 2 points last night gave him 150 for his IHL and Viper career.

HISTORY 101: Tonight is the 7th meeting between Orlando and Detroit this year.

Detroit is: 4-1-1 this year vs. Manitoba

Detroit is: 9-3-1 all-time vs. the Moose

Detroit is: 6-1 all-time at The Palace vs. Manitoba (3-1 this year)

Detroit is: 3-2-1 all-time at Manitoba (1-0-1 this year)

Detroit is: 1-1 all-time in the shootout vs. Manitoba (1-1 this year)

Tonight's Game

Tonight the Manitoba Moose take on the Detroit Vipers for the seventh and final time this season. The Moose are 2-3-1 against the Vipers so far in 1998-99. Manitoba is coming off back-to-back games against the Houston Aeros where they went 1-0-1 over the past two nights. The Moose sit in sole possession of third place in the Western Conference- three points up on the Long Beach Ice Dogs and four points behind the Chicago Wolves. Manitoba needs one point or a Utah loss or shoot-out loss tonight to clinch a playoff berth.

The Moose added goaltender Mike Rosati to their roster at the trading deadline after the New Jersey Devils recalled Richard Shulmistra. Rosati made an impressive first start for the Moose last night stopping 30 of 33 Houston shots in regulation and then turning away four of five in the shoot-out to earn his first IHL win. Defenseman Brett Hauer continued his strong offensive play last night with his sixth two-point game in his last seven games. Hauer is currently on a eight-game point streak (4G, 10A).
