Hey Baltimore - Thanks!

...for the memories and support in
'88-89 - a Record Breaking Year!

FAN APPRECIATION NIGHT / SATURDAY, APRIL 1, 1989

Yvon's favorite childhood memory? "Catching a 25 lb. salmon."

▼ Yvon Corriveau

Tim remembers the clutch goals: "While playing for the Rink Rats, I scored in overtime to beat the Ice Mice!" Years later it was "the overtime goal against Adirondack."

◀ Tim Bergland

Thanks to their fans' great support, the Skipjacks exceeded their all-time attendance high (previous record: 144,204 in 1983-84) this season!

▼ Tyler proved to be one of the fiercest AHL competitors, although his curls did fall victim to a rookie shearing midway through!

Tyler Larter

◀ Jeff Greenlaw

"He will kill me" wrote his mom on the back of this one! Despite being troubled by injuries, Jeff had a career best year, highlighted by a pure hattrick versus Newmarket December 30th.

Dave Farrish▶

Dave added some veteran savvy on the blueline for the Skipjacks.

Rob Murray▶

Ken Spangler ▼

What'd you wish for, Rob? His smile at three belies the intensity he brings to his role as the team's best defensive forward.

Zack the Jack celebrated his birthday on March 30th!

Thanks to all our fans for your support and loyalty -- We appreciate it!

Our newest Skipjack is on loan from the Toronto organization.

After two years in Fort Wayne, Alain was the Skipjacks only season-long goal-tender, often coming up with some critical saves to get the win.

▼ Alain Raymond

He doesn't look too happy about being atop a pony, but Mike thrilled Skipjacks fans with his season-long stay near the top of the AHL scoring charts!

▼ Mark Hatcher

Mike Millar ►

Mike (at press time) was on pace to become the only AHL player to score 50 goals in 50 games (or the fastest). He led the league in hattricks and set several Skipjacks scoring records, always seeming to come up with the big goal just when Baltimore needed it.

▲ Mike Richard

Mike's favorite memories in '88-89? "Scoring the overtime goal versus Utica, and my 100th point." As a child, he recalls "driving a Skidoo into a river!"

Dallas Eakins ▼

After an absence from the game, Mark joined his brother Kevin in the Capital's organization, making a mark as the biggest player in the league!

Dallas moved to Canada from Florida when he was eight, and began skating at nine. He's one of eight rookies on the team.

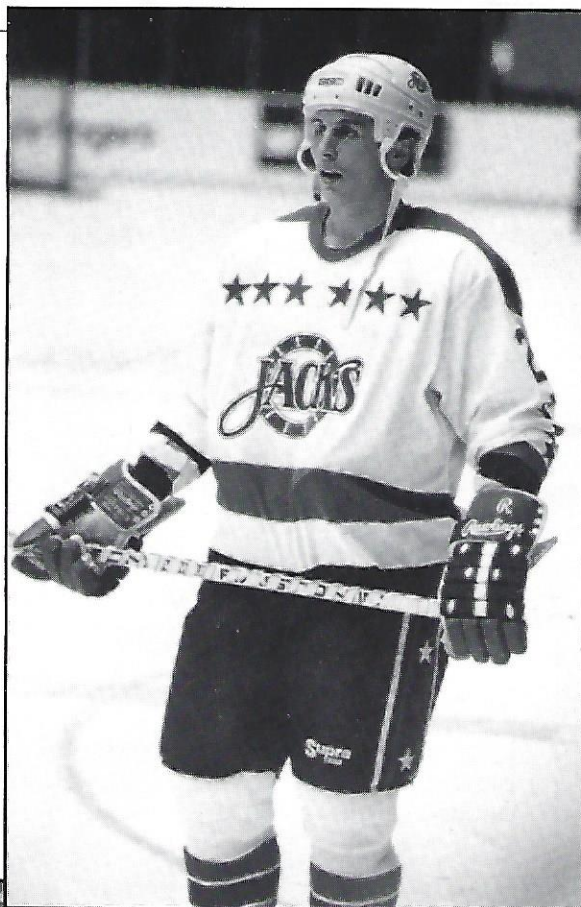

This cherub hardly looks as if he'll grow up to become the AHL's toughest player, but that's the official vote! Shawn's aggressive play was welcomed by Baltimore fans in '88-89.

◀ Shawn Cronin

The Skipjacks' "Player of the Month" for February, Rob was a defensive stand-out all season long.

Rob Whistle ▶

"I remember playing in front of the biggest crowd of the season against Rochester and beating them soundly (7-3 final)," says Scott McCrory. "Plus all the people who stuck with us after a rough start."

◀ Bill Houlder

Other than destroying two rolls of aluminum foil, what does Bill remember of his childhood? "Being shot in the rear end with a shotgun loaded with salt while stealing crabapples!"

Steve's favorite memories are all firsts -- as a child, "my first Holy Communion," and here in Baltimore, it's "my first pro goal against Hershey." Fortunately, 6'3" Steve gave up this habit before it stunted his growth!

Steve Seffel

Coach/General Manager Terry Murray came back to Baltimore (he was a Clipper in 1972!) to guide a new, young team in its first AHL season. Under his tutelage, a number of players had banner years, and the Skipjacks remained competitive all season long.

"When the lake I lived on froze for the first time each year, my friends and I would play for hours with the nets a mile apart...just having a good time!"

◀ Scott McCrory

At seven years old, Frank scored six goals in one game! His favorite memory of '88-89? "Scoring two goals against Sherbrooke"

◀ Frank Dimuzio

Jim left his senior year at Merrimack College to join the Skipjacks, earning a victory in his first professional appearance versus Moncton on February 5th.
