COACHING STAFF

THOMAS RONGEN

Head Coach/Director of Operations

Entering his second season with the new Strikers organization, newly appointed head coach Thomas Rongen relinquished his playing status to guide the Strikers in 1989. Rongen, a former NASL and ASL Strikers standout and Strikers assistant coach a year ago, will also serve as the Club's Director of Operations.

Rongen is a native of Holland, having made 25 appearances for the Dutch Olympic Team. He came to the United States in 1979, playing for world-renowned Rinus Michels in NASL Los Angeles Aztecs. He played also for the Washington Diplomats in 1980 before coming to the Ft. Lauderdale Strikers. Moving to Minnesota with the MISL Strikers in 1984, he since played for the South Florida Sun (1985), Chicago Sting (1986), and the Strikers again (1988).

A crusader for the development of America Soccer, Thomas has made a lasting impression on the South Florida Soccer scene. Thomas serves as the Director of Coaching for the Plantation Eagles, one of the areas dominate youth programs, is an Assistant Coach for Nova University and Head Coach for South Plantation High School. He is also a partner in Thomas Rongen Soccer Locker, a local supply and specialty shop.

A Florida State Coach, Rongen holds his Masters Degree from the Dutch Government Institute of Sportsleaders, a KNVB European coaching license, and the USSF "A" license, thus bringing a unique combination of coaching qualifications to the Strikers at his very important and pivotal time in American soccer. He and his wife, Kimberly, reside in Fort Lauderdale.

DAVID IRVING

Director of Player Personnel/Assistant Coach

David Irving join the Strikers as Director of Player Personnel and Assistant Coach. Irving began his professional career with Everton in the English 1st Division later moving to 2nd Division Oldham Athletics. He was acquired by the NASL Strikers in 1977 playing three seasons with the club. During his Striker career, he provided color analysis for Strikers T.V. telecasts. In 1981, Irving moved to the Tulsa Roughnecks, the Atlanta Chiefs and San Jose' Earthquakes during the 1981-82 season.

After retiring from active play, he returned to Ft. Lauderdale and became assistant coach of the USL's Ft. Lauderdale Sun. He has coached for Stranahan High School and serves as Head Coach for Westminster Academy. Irving was appointed to his post in February. He oversees contract negotiations, scouting, day to day player related operations and serves as the Strikers assistant coach. A resident of Ft. Lauderdale, Irving is a partner in FP Wholesale Florist. He is married to Pamela and has one son, Jeremy.

JOE MASSI

Goalkeeper Coach

Joe joins the Strikers organization after spending last season as an assistant coach for the Miami Sharks. He is primarily responsible for development of the goalkeepers. An "A" licensed coach, he was assistant coach at Miami Dade Community College South when the school won the Junior College National Soccer Championship in 1983. He also serves as assistant coach for Florida International University.

Joe is single and resides in Miami.

GEORGE LEACH

Equipment Manager

George handles all the team equipment and assists the trainer in daily practice and game preparation. He became involved in soccer in 1979 when he joined the Strikers booster club and served as a club officer.

George is retired from Southern Bell and the US Air Force. He and his wife, reside in Cooper City.

ALEX HOFFMAN

Team Masseur

Alex, a physiotherapist, begins his second season as the Strikers masseur. He has been involved in American soccer since 1979 when he became the NASL Strikers team masseur. A native of Austria, Alex came to the US in 1949, moving to Florida in 1954.

The 70 year old Hoffman, a lifelong soccer player, holds a black belt in Karate. He and his wife, Ginger, reside in Oakland Park. He has one son, Peter, of Salzburg, Austria.

EDDIE RODGERS

Head Trainer

Eddie is entering his second year as the Strikers head trainer. He handles physical therapy for injury protection, rehabilitation of all injuries and is responsible for coordinating team travel. He received his degrees in Sports Medicine, Physical Education and Science from Northeastern University in Boston and has been training for 13 years. He has worked for the NFL's New England Patriots, the NASL's New England Tea Men, Ft. Lauderdale Strikers Team America and the US National Team. He also spent a season with the Ft. Lauderdale Sun of the USL.

The 31 year old Rodgers also is a partner in FP Wholesale Florists. He is single and resides in Ft. Lauderdale.
