WASHINGTON STARS' GAME NOTES

STARS VS. NEW JERSEY EAGLES
FRIDAY, JULY 13, 8:00 P.M.
COCHRANE STADIUM

TONIGHT'S GAME

Tonight's match will be the eighth road game of the year for the Washington Stars and the eighth home match of the season for the New Jersey Eagles.

Lady luck has certainly not sided this season with either team here tonight, with only six wins under the Stars' belt so far, and four, for the Eagles. Although eliminated from any chance at the playoffs, both teams plan to fight hard for a respectable third place finish and to cause some havoc for the three other teams vying for the Northern Division title.

All in all, tonight's match promises to be a great showing, with the Stars featuring U.S. National Team player, Bruce Murray and scoring wonder Richard Eaton and the Eagles countering with their own scoring powerhouses, Paul Riley and Roger Chavez, guaranteed to give the Stars a run for their money.

TEAM OVERVIEWS

Washington's dramatic win last Saturday, 2-1, over their cross-town rivals -- the Diplomats -- showed a team that has not yet given up the fight. Trailing 1-0 in the game's closing moments, midfielder Richard Eaton struck twice to steal the match away. The win has given the Stars renewed confidence and a burning vengeance to win their four remaining games against their Northern Division competitors.

U.S. National team member, Bruce Murray will be playing for the Stars tonight. Murray rejoined the team two games ago, when the Stars' played the Orlando Lions at home. In last Saturday's game Murray assisted on the winning goal, lofting a 50-yard pass to Eaton, who scored with just ten seconds left in the match.

The Eagles, meanwhile, are coming into tonight's game on a five week losing streak, including a disappointing shutout loss to Penn-Jersey last Saturday. They will no doubt try to repeat their first win against the Stars earlier this season when they posted a 1-0 overtime victory.

MISSING PERSONS REPORT

The club will miss the services of defender Doug Bradley, who tore his right knee three weeks ago in the Stars' win over Miami. It is still questionable as to whether or not forward John Kerr, Jr. will miss tonight's game due to a tryout commitment with a French Second Division team.

RECENT PERFORMANCES

Last Saturday, the Stars defeated their local rivals, the Washington Diplomats, for a second time this season. Richard Eaton performed the damage against the Diplomats, tying the 1-0 game with ten minutes to play on a 20-yard rocket off passes from Doug Davies and Andrew Hoffmann and with just 10 seconds left in the game, scoring again off a 50-yard pass from Bruce Murray.

The Eagles, meanwhile, lost their fifth consecutive game to Northern Division leaders, the Penn-Jersey Spirit. After a scoreless first half, the Spirit team took over the match, scoring three times to capture the contest.

NEXT GAMES

Following tonight's game, the Stars head north tomorrow night to face the Albany Capitals at Bleecker Stadium.

The Eagles, meanwhile, head South tomorrow for their first matchup this season against the Maryland Bays, starting at 8:00 p.m.

SEASON/LIFETIME

Tonight's game is the seventh meeting between the two clubs, with the Stars holding a 4-2 lifetime edge. In 1988, both games between the teams ended in a penalty kick shootout and a season tie between the two clubs. The Stars came back in 1989 to dominate all three games against the Eagles.

The Eagles have gained a little ground this season, beating the Stars in overtime in their first meeting, April 28 at the W.T. Woodson Stadium.

OVERTIME RECORDS

Heading into tonight's game, the Stars are 1-2 in games tied after regulation play, with all three games ending in sudden death. They have yet to appear in a penalty kick shootout.

The Eagles, meanwhile, have played three overtime games this season, resulting in only one loss against Miami. They have not appeared in a penalty kick shootout this season either.

TRAVELING WITH THE STARS

In the press box for tonight's game will be Stars' general manager Gordon Bradley and assistant general manager Paul Marstaller. Anything you want to know about the Stars, all three of these guys can help you! Also on hand will be the Stars radio crew of Dave Bartel and Karl Minor, who will broadcast tonight's game back to the Washington, D.C. area over WDCT Radio, 1310-AM.

PLAYER NOTES

SEEING CIANY

The Stars recently signed midfielder Gary Ciany. The Buffalo, New York native played last season with US San Vito, a semi-professional team in Italy. Ciany also played for one season under the Stars' coach John Kerr, Jr. for the Fairfax Spartans.

EATON SEES DOUBLE

With his two goals in Saturday night game's, Richard Eaton broke a Stars' record set in 1989 by Scott Snyder for consecutive goals scored by a Stars' player. Eaton scored twice in the Stars' 2-1 win over Miami on June 23 and then, following last weekend's shutout loss to Orlando, scored twice again in the win over the Diplomats.

SCORING STARS

With those four goals, Eaton moved into the team lead in goals scored, tied with midfielder Popee James. James, who assisted on Eaton's second goal Saturday night, leads the team in scoring with 11 points on four goals and three assists, followed by Eaton (4-1 = 9), John Kerr, Jr. (2-3 = 7), Scott Snyder (3-0 = 6) and Doug Bradley (3-0 = 6).

Kerr and James are both tied for the team assist lead with three.

SHOOTING STARS

In the shots department, Kerr continues to lead the team with 31, followed by Snyder's 27, Doug Davies' 24 and Chris Maier's 11.

IRON MEN

Jim Hicks and Bruce Heon continue to match one another for minutes played, performing in every minute of every game for the club -- 1465:12 -- this season.
