SOCKERS VS. NEW YORK COSMOS, JULY 25, GIANTS STADIUM

SOX

RECORD: 12-11 Home: 7-6 Road: 5-5 Goals Scored: 45 Goals Against: 39

DIVISION: Western, Defending Champion

SOCKERS VS. COSMOS: This will be the second meeting of the season for the Sox and Cosmos, New York having taken a 2-1 win in San Diego on May 12, the first of six straight setbacks for the Sockers in 1982. Moyers and Chinaglia scored for New York, with Kaz Deyna getting his first goal of the season for San Diego. The Sockers outshot the Cosmos 30-22, with Birkenmeier making 11 saves to Gross' 8.

San Diego has not defeated New York in three meetings to date:

5/12/82 - New York 2 at San Diego 1 Deyna (Moyers, Chinaglia)

7/23/80 - San Diego O at New York 5 (Chinaglia-2, Van Der Elst, Neeskens, Cabanas)

3/31/79 - New York 2 at San Diego 1 OT Coker (Chinaglia, Seninho)

SOX GO FOR FIVE: San Diego is currently on a four-game winning streak that started July 7 at home against Seattle (2-1) and includes two recent road wins in Ft. Lauderdale (7-1) and Jacksonville (3-1). This string equals the four-game opening-season streak that the Sox put together before going into the six-game slide.

Tonight's match is also the third for the Sox in a four-game, two-week road trip that concludes Wednesday in Vancouver. In games with the Strikers, Cosmos, and Whitecaps, the Sockers will have faced all the current division leaders in the NASL.

"We need to break even on this roadtrip", said Sockers coach Ron Newman. The Sox collected their 18 points in the first two games of this trip (Ft. Lauderdale & Jacksonville).

SOCKERS INJURIES: Defenders Nico Rohmann and Gordon Dallas are not on the current road trip, Rohmann nursing an arthritic knee and Dallas with a thigh contusion.

PROBABLE SOCKERS LINEUP: Gross, Moura, Donnelly, Geyer, Keough, Veee, Walker, Wieczorkowski, Fernandez, Hilkes, Coker (Subs: Willrich, Deyna, Newman)

SOCKERS STANDOUTS: "We're playing very much as a team right now, and it's very tough to single out individuals because everyone is making a tremendous contribution," says Newman. ADE COKER: Four goals in last two games...recently got starting job and became a U.S. citizen on July 7. JULIE VEEE: The Sox current leading scorer with 19 points and the team's alltime leading scorer with 104 points in 5 seasons...Just signed a new four-year contract with the Sockers...Leads the team in assists with 9 and game-winning goals with 3. VOLKMAR GROSS: The NASL's 6th leading goalkeeper with a 1.48 GAA...Four shutouts this season. GERT WIECZORKOWSKI: Emerging as the team's on-field leader...Is the only Socker to have played every minute (2139) of every game (23) to date. VIDAL FERNANDEZ: A former Cosmos player who joined the Sockers for the past Indoor season...Displays endless hustle as both offensive and defensive midfield player.

VEEE & COKER MOVING-UP ON ALLTIME SCORING LIST: Julie Veee began the '82 season in 37th place on the NÁSL's alltime scoring list, and Ade Coker was 47th. With 19 points to date, Veee has advanced to the 25th spot, and Coker's 12 points have pushed him into the top 40 in 37th place.

GROSS SCORES GOAL: Sox goalkeeper Volkmar Gross scored the 7th goal on his professional career when he took a penalty kick against Ft. Lauderdale on July 17. Gross' six previous goals also came on penalty kicks while playing in West Germany and South Africa. He did not score a goal during the recent Indoor season, although he was used as an attacker on power play situations and did take 19 shots.

SHOOTOUTS: The Sockers are 17-8 in Shootout tiebreakers since the procedure began in 1978. Volkmar Gross' overall record is 11-6, having allowed only 32 goals in 94 attempts by the opposition. Career scoring for selected Sockers players: Veee 10/13 (3 game-winners), Willrich 3/9 (2 winners), Wieczorkowski 7/11, Deyna 3/7 (1 winner), Hilkes 0/4, Coker 2/3.

WILLRICH LOOKING FOR 100: Jean Willrich, one of the original Sockers players from the '78 initial season, needs only 2 points to reach the 100-point level in NASL career scoring. He entered the '82 season as the Sox alltime leading scorer and alltime assist leader.

SOCKERS SWAP SAVERS WITH SOUNDERS: Just beating the league deadline for player trades, San Diego and Seattle exchanged backup goalkeepers, the Sox sending Chris Turner North in exchange for Mike Barbarick and cash. Barbarick will join the Sox in Vancouver. He has not seen any NASL playing time to date, having been signed by Seattle as a free agent in November, 1981. A U.S. citizen, he attended the University of Washington for four years and graduated in 1981.
