2014 CLEVELAND GLADIATORS BROADCAST TEAM

DOUG PLAGENS

Doug Plagens is currently the radio play-by-play broadcaster for the Arena Football League's Cleveland Gladiators and the radio/television broadcaster for American Hockey League's Lake Erie Monsters. Plagens, 28, enters his third season in the Gladiators radio booth, and also brings over 400 games of professional hockey broadcasting experience.

Previously, the Michigan native has been the radio and television play-by-play voice of the ECHL's Idaho Steelheads in Boise, Idaho. With the Steelheads, he was recognized as the ECHL's "Broadcaster of the Year" for the 2009-10 season, and was selected as part of the national television broadcast of the 2010 ECHL All-Star Game in Ontario, California. While in Idaho, Plagens also hosted a nightly sports talk radio show on Boise's ESPN Radio affiliate, KTIK 1350 "The Ticket", and freelanced as a sports anchor/reporter/producer at KBOI-TV (CBS).

Plagens' broadcasting experience also includes time as a television sports anchor and reporter at WKBN (CBS), WYFX (FOX), and WYTV (ABC) in Youngstown, Ohio.

Plagens holds a Master's Degree in Broadcast Journalism from Syracuse University, and a Bachelor's in Communication from Lake Forest College (IL). He currently resides in Lakewood, Ohio.

DUSTIN FOX

Canton, Ohio's Dustin Fox provides color commentary for Gladiators home games, and co-host's with Adam "the Bull" every weekday afternoon from 2-7pm. Fox starred with Glen Oak High School and was a first-team AP all-Ohio selection before attending Ohio State and grabbing a National Championship with the Buckeyes in 2002.

Fox also earned a B.A. in Communications but decided to pursue a career on the field and was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the 3rd round (80th overall pick) of the 2005 NFL Draft. His career with the Vikings was cut short when he fractured his arm in training camp but he was able to play for the Eagles and Bills through 2008. Fox played against the Browns in one of the snowiest days in Browns history when Cleveland beat Buffalo in a blizzard in 2007.

You can also see the former Buckeye cornerback on NewsChannel 5 with Andy Baskin during the college football season, on Twitter @Dustinfox37 or hanging with his wife and daughter.

TIM ALCORN

Tim Alcorn brings decades of broadcast experience to the Cleveland Gladiators, and will serve as the primary fill-in for play-by-play broadcaster Doug Plagens. Alcorn has covered sporting events across Northeast Ohio since 1985, and has been a staple at AM 930 WEOL since 1992. While there is no official count, Alcorn has several hundred baseball and softball games, and over 1,000 basketball games.

Alcorn is a three-time winner of the AP "Ohio Best Sportscaster" award, and is in Lorain County's Coaches Halls of Fame in football, boys basketball, and girls basketball. Alcorn has also served as the play-by-play broadcaster for the Frontier League's Lake Erie Crushers, and is the host of the Cleveland Cavaliers pregame show "Countdown at The Q" and Cleveland Indians pregame show "From the Dugout" on AM930 WEOL. Tim and his wife Diane have four children: Kara, Alyssa, Shawn, and Ryan.

2014 CLEVELAND GLADIATORS THE COACHES

STEVE THONN Head Coach

Steve Thonn enters his fifth season with the Gladiators. Thonn was named head coach and director of football operations of the Cleveland Gladiators on December 23, 2009 after spending the 2008 AFL season as the head coach of the Grand Rapids Rampage.

The Gladiators finished the 2013 season with a 4-14 record under Thonn. In 2012, Thonn's Gladiators finished with an 8-10 record and then in 2011, the Gladiators finished with an overall record of 10-8 and claimed the American Conference East Division crown.

In his first year with the Gladiators, the team compiled a 7-9 overall record. Despite the sub-.500 finish, the Gladiators outscored their opponents 938-906 on the year and had receiver Ben Nelson and offensive lineman Adam Tadisich named to the AFL First Team and defensive lineman Anthony Hoke was named to the AFL Second Team. Quarterback John Dutton finished the season with 5,104 passing yards - second-best in the league.

In 2008, the Rampage's 956 total points and 59.5 points-per-game average, both franchise records, were second best in the AFL behind only the 13-3 Philadelphia Soul. In Thonn's lone season, Grand Rapids posted the four highest single-game point totals this season (92 in Week 4; 84 in Week 5; 84 in Week 15; 86 in Week 17) and became the first team in AFL history to post four 80+ point games in a single season. Grand Rapids' 92-point outburst at Kansas City in Week 4 marked the highest total for a road team in AFL history and the second highest point total overall.

CLEVELAND GLADIATORS FOOTBALL

The Rampage advanced to the American Conference Championship, one game shy of playing in ArenaBowl XII.

Prior to the Rampage, Thonn spent three seasons (2005-07) as the offensive coordinator for the Georgia Force, who compiled a 33-15 regular-season record during that span, made two National Conference Championship appearances and reached ArenaBowl XIX.

During Thonn's time as an offensive coordinator for the Force, Georgia regularly set team offensive records while several of its players set individual, team and league marks of their own. In 2007, the Force led the AFL with a record 145 touchdowns while posting the third highest points total (1,007) in the AFL's 21-year history.

Meanwhile, quarterback Chris Greisen, who had thrown just 16 passes in his AFL career entering 2007, connected on a league-record 117 touchdown passes, led the AFL and currently ranks third all-time with a 132.0 quarterback rating, and amassed the second highest passing yards total (4,851) in AFL history.

Other players who emerged as offensive stars while under Thonn's tutelage in Georgia included quarterback Matt Nagy and receiver Troy Bergeron. Nagy, who set every major Force passing record in 2006 only to be eclipsed by Greisen, took Georgia to an ArenaBowl XIX appearance, developing into an established leader that navigated the Columbus Destroyers past the Force and into ArenaBowl XXI in 2007. Bergeron exploded onto the AFL scene in 2005 as the league's Rookie of the Year, and became the league's fifth leading receiver in 2007.

Prior to joining the Force, Thonn served as the offensive coordinator for the Dallas Desperados from 2003-04, where he helped introduced three-time AFL All-Ironman Team member and 2007 Ironman of the Year Will Pettis to the league.

From 1998-2001, Thonn served as head coach for the Houston ThunderBears, posting an 18-38 record and making one playoff appearance. From 1998-99, he helped transform then second-year starter Clint Dolezel into arguably the most prolific and productive passer in AFL history.

Thonn's AFL coaching career also includes stints as the offensive coordinator for the Milwaukee Mustangs (1996) and the Connecticut Coyotes (1995), and he served as the Albany Firebirds' receivers and special teams coach in 1994. In addition, Thonn played for six seasons (1988-93) in the AFL as a wide receiver/defensive back with the Firebirds and the Chicago Bruisers.

The Wheaton College graduate was named to the Division III All-America Team in football and played basketball and baseball for the Crusaders from 1980-84, earning a spot in the school's Hall of Honor. Thonn also served as an assistant basketball coach for his alma mater and has coached for Wheaton North (Ill.) High School's varsity football team.

Thonn and his wife, Pam, have a daughter, Jaimee, and a son, Corey.

RON SELESKY Assistant Head Coach

Ron Selesky enters his fourth season with the Gladiators, serving as Director of Player Personnel in 2011 and Assistant Head Coach in 2012 and 2013. Prior to joining Cleveland, Selesky was the Defensive Coordinator/Director of Player Personnel for the Grand Rapids Rampage in 2008. He boasts several years of Arena Football experience at both head coaching and assistant coaching positions. He returned to the AFL in 2008 season after serving two years (2006-07) as head coach of arenafootball2's Alabama Steeldogs.

Selesky began his Arena Football coaching career as the director of player personnel and assistant coach for the AFL's Tampa Bay Storm from 1997-99, helping to lead the team to a 31-11 regular-season record and a 1998 ArenaBowl appearance. He then took his first head coaching position with the af2's Louisville Fire in 2001 and, the following year, earned af2 Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Albany Conquest to a 13-3 regular-season mark and a Northeast Division title.

Upon returning to the AFL in 2003, Selesky led the Buffalo Destroyers as their head coach and director of football operations for one season before the team relocated to Columbus, Ohio. He then joined the Carolina Cobras in 2004, serving as the team's defensive coordinator before taking the reins as an interim head coach for the team's final six games. Selesky rejoined the Columbus Destroyers in 2005, serving as defensive coordinator for one year before returning to the af2 and the Steeldogs.

Selesky also spent several years as a lineman at both the collegiate and professional levels. He played his college ball at North Central College, where he lined up against Wheaton College graduate and current Gladiators head coach Steve Thonn.

Selesky went on to play in two games for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings in 1987, and attended training camps with the San Diego Chargers in 1988, the Miami Dolphins in 1990, and the Detroit Lions in 1992. He also spent three years (1995-97) as a scout for ProQuest Management.

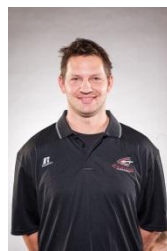

The Brunswick, N.J., native and his wife, Michelle, have three children: Erin, Madelyn and Brandt.
