2015 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 1

Cleveland Gladiators 60, Tampa Bay Storm 44

QB Shane Austin threw for 221 yards and seven touchdowns and the defense forced four turnovers as the Cleveland Gladiators (1-0) opened the 2015 season with a 60-44 victory over the Tampa Bay Storm (0-1). Amarri Jackson, Dominick Goodman, and Collin Taylor caught two touchdowns a piece, while Jackson rushed for a third. JLB Joe Phinisee had a hand in three of the four Tampa Bay Storm turnovers as he recovered two fumbles and recorded an interception.

The Gladiators got on the board first when Shane Austin found Dominick Goodman in the back of the end zone for a 15-yard score to make it 7-0 with 8:24 left in the first quarter. The Storm responded with a touchdown of their own on Tampa Bay's opening drive as QB Jason Boltus connected with Jarvis Williams for a 19-yard score with 5:45 left in the quarter to even things back up at 7-7. The Gladiators answered quickly as Austin found WR Collin Taylor on the first play of the following drive for a 29 yard touchdown with 4:23 remaining in the first quarter to put Cleveland ahead 13-7.

To open the second quarter, Austin found WR Andrae Thurman for his first score as a Gladiator, a 24-yarder to put Cleveland up 19-7. After the ensuing kickoff, JLB Joe Phinisee fell on a Boltus fumble in the end zone for another Gladiators score, extending the lead to 25-7 with 13:35 left in the first half.

The Storm would respond with two touchdowns of their own as Boltus threw touchdown passes of 10 and 28 yards to wide outs T.T. Toliver and Kendrick Ings to trim the Gladiator lead to 25-21 with 48 seconds left in the opening half.

The Gladiators quickly answered with two touchdowns of their own as WR Amarri Jackson, making his debut for the Gladiators against his former squad, took a jet sweep for eight yards and his first score as a Gladiator. Then following Joe Phinisee's second fumble recovery of the night, Shane Austin threw his fourth touchdown pass of the game to WR Dominick Goodman as time expired to make the score 39-21 at the half and the Gladiators never looked back.

Cleveland opened up the scoring in the third quarter as Austin found Amarri Jackson for his first receiving touchdown of the season, a 20-yarder with 5:14 remaining. Boltus and the Storm offense trimmed it back down to an 18-point Gladiators lead when T.T. Toliver hauled in a 29-yard touchdown pass at the 1:22 mark of the third quarter.

Tampa Bay never seriously threatened the Gladiator lead in the fourth quarter as the Storm couldn't cut the deficit lower than 16 points. Austin found Jackson for his third touchdown of the night, a 23-yarder, just 30 seconds into the final quarter. Boltus countered by finding Toliver for a 25-yard touchdown pass, Toliver's third score of the night. The Glads found the end zone one last time on the night as Austin would find Collin Taylor for a four-yard touchdown. The catch was Taylor's second touchdown grab on the night. Tampa Bay capped off the scoring for the game when Boltus found Jarvis Williams for a three-yard score with 48 seconds left.

Cleveland Gladiators 70, New Orleans VooDoo 42

Dominick Goodman matched a career-high with five touchdown receptions and Quarterback Shane Austin passed for 272 yards and totaled eight touchdowns as the Cleveland Gladiators (2-0) pulled away from the New Orleans VooDoo (1-1) in the second half on Saturday night by a final score of 70-42. Wide Receivers Amarri Jackson and Collin Taylor and Fullback Jeramie Richardson each scored touchdowns and Jack Linebacker Joe Phinisee recovered a fumble and returned an interception for a touchdown.

Cleveland got on the board first when Shane Austin hooked up with Dominick Goodman on their first drive for a nine-yard score. The Gladiators quickly followed that up with a defensive touchdown as defending Arena Football League MVP of the Week Joe Phinisee picked off an Adam Kennedy pass at the 3-yard line and walked into the end zone for the quick two-touchdown lead with 10:29 remaining in the first quarter.

New Orleans answered with their first score when Kennedy hooked up with Wide Receiver Marcus Smith on a four-play drive to pull within 14-7 with 7:20 left in the opening quarter. At the 2:33 mark, Austin found Goodman once again from five yards out to push the Gladiators led back up to two scores, 21-7. The VooDoo responded once again when Wide Receiver Chris Duvalt hauled in a 7-yard touchdown with 50 seconds left to pull New Orleans within a touchdown once again at 21-14.

In the second quarter Shane Austin took things into his own hands, scoring from one-yard out on a keeper to push the Gladiator lead back up to 28-14 with 11:30 remaining in the half. With 6:17 remaining, Kennedy closed the gap once again, as he completed a 10-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Smith, his second receiving touchdown of the night. On the following drive, Wide Receiver Amarri Jackson found his way into the end zone for the first time, hauling in a 36-yard touchdown pass from Austin to make it 35-21. The touchdown pass was Austin's fourth of the night.

New Orleans started the scoring in the second half as the VooDoo offense worked its way down the field and Quarterback Adam Kennedy scored on a sneak from one yard out to make the score 42-35. The theme of the night continued as the Gladiators answered quickly and moved down field for another score when Austin completed a nine yard touchdown pass to Wide Receiver Collin Taylor to put Cleveland back on top by two touchdowns. New Kicker Adrian Trevino's extra point made the score 49-35 with 4:52 remaining in the third quarter.

In the fourth quarter, former Gladiator Wide Receiver Carlese Franklin scored on a 2-yard run for the VooDoo to make the score 56-42, but the Gladiator offense returned the favor with a seven play drive capped off by a three yard touchdown run by Fullback Jeramie Richardson, to make the score 63-42 with 8:46 left in the game. The Gladiators put an exclamation point when Austin found Goodman in the end zone for the fifth time on the night, an 11-yard score to put the game out of reach for good, 70-42 to cap off the scoring for the night.

Arizona Rattlers 49, Cleveland Gladiators 41

Arizona quarterback Nick Davila threw for 352 yards and seven touchdowns and wide receiver Rod Windsor caught 13 passes for 168 yards and four touchdowns as the Rattlers (2-1) outlasted the Cleveland Gladiators (2-1), 49-41, in front of a home opener crowd of 12,776. For the Gladiators, quarterback Shane Austin threw for 230 yards, four touchdowns, and three interceptions, while wide receiver Dominick Goodman led the way receiving, catching nine passes for 66 yards and three touchdowns.

Arizona struck first after a Cleveland turnover when Davila threw a 15 yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Kerry Reed. The Gladiator offense answered quickly however when it only took two plays before fullback Jeramie Richardson took a hand-off and walked into the end zone untouched for the score. A missed extra point made the score 7-6 Rattlers. Davila didn't waste time, finding veteran wide receiver Rod Windsor for a 34-yard score to put Arizona on top 14-6 with 8:07 left in the opening quarter.

On Cleveland's next drive Shane Austin guided the offense on a five-play drive that resulted in a 7-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Dominick Goodman. Kicker Adrian Trevino's extra point pulled the Gladiators within one, 14-13. To open the second quarter, Davila and Windsor hooked up for a touchdown once again, a 12-yarder, to put the Rattlers up 21-13 with 10:51 remaining in the half.

After the Gladiators turned the ball over on downs, Davila tossed a 30-yard touchdown pass to Kerry Reed for his second score of the night. On the following drive, the Arizona defense came up with their second interception of the half as defensive back Jeremy Kellem picked off Shane Austin to end the Cleveland drive. With time winding down in the half and Arizona driving, defensive back Terrance Sanders picked off a Nick Davila pass and returned it 50 yards down the sideline for a much needed Gladiators touchdown. The extra point gave Arizona a 28-20 lead at the break.

To open the second half, Arizona marched down field on a six-play drive that culminated in a 6-yard touchdown pass from Davila to Windsor, Windsor's third touchdown reception of the night. The Gladiators offense responded when wide receiver Amarri Jackson caught a 19 yard touchdown pass from Austin to pull within 35-27 with 7:37 left in the third quarter.

On the first drive of the fourth quarter, the Gladiators offense used a nine-play drive capped off by a 5-yard pitch and catch touchdown from Austin to Goodman. However, a missed extra point put the Gladiators down nine, 42-33, with 10:02 remaining in the game. After a failed onside kick attempt, Arizona quarterback Nick Davila found wide receiver Kerry Reed on the first play of their drive for a 17-yard touchdown, putting Arizona on top 49-33. On the ensuing drive, Shane Austin was able to connect with Goodman for a 3-yard touchdown pass. The reception was Goodman's third touchdown of the night. A successful two point conversion made the score 49-41 with 5:06 remaining in the contest.

Philadelphia Soul 63, Cleveland Gladiators 48

Philadelphia quarterback Dan Raudabaugh threw for 262 yards and seven touchdowns while wide receivers Marco Thomas and Ryan McDaniel each scored three times as the Soul (4-0) rolled past the Cleveland Gladiators (2-2) on Saturday night, 63-48. For the Gladiators, quarterback Shane Austin passed for 298 yards and five touchdowns while wide receiver Collin Taylor caught ten passes for 120 yards and a career-high four touchdowns in the losing effort.

The Gladiators opened the scoring when fullback Jeramie Richardson capped off a seven-play drive with a one-yard touchdown run on fourth and goal to put Cleveland on top 7-0 early in the first quarter. The Philadelphia Soul were quick to respond however on their next offensive series, as Raudabaugh hooked up with Marco Thomas for a six-yard score. The extra point by kicker Tommy Frevert tied the game up, 7-7, with 6:48 remaining in the opening frame. On the following drive, Gladiators quarterback Shane Austin found Taylor on 3rd and 18 for a 28-yard touchdown to push the score to 13-7 at the end of the first quarter.

To open the second quarter, the Philadelphia offense, led by Raudabaugh, marched down field and punched it in the end zone on a one-yard run from wide receiver Ryan McDaniel to put the Soul on top, 14-13, with 9:04 remaining in the quarter. After recovering the ensuing onside kick, the Philadelphia offense only needed two plays to find pay dirt once again as Raudabaugh found McDaniel for a six-yard touchdown. The Frevert extra point made the score 21-13 with 8:12 left in the half.

The Gladiators responded quickly and in a big way, as Austin found former Soul wide receiver Andrae Thurman on the first play of the drive for a 36-yard touchdown, to pull the Gladiators to 21-20. On the next series, fullback Tommy Taggart would cap off the scoring in the first half when he scored from one-yard out to put Philadelphia up 28-20 at the break. Philadelphia dominated time of possession in the second quarter as the Gladiators offense only ran two offensive plays.

Opening the second half with the ball, Philadelphia struck quickly as Raudabaugh found Marco Thomas wide open on the first play of the drive for a 48-yard touchdown. The score put the Soul ahead by two scores, 35-20, for the first time in the contest.

The Gladiators offense would answer on the next drive as Richardson would pick up his second touchdown of the game on a one-yard touchdown run. A failed two-point conversion made the score 56-40 with 3:14 left in the game. After Cleveland failed to recover the onside kick attempt Philadelphia would tack on another score, a five-yard pitch and catch from Raudabaugh to wide receiver Shaun Kauleinamoku to give the Soul a 63-40 lead with a minute left. The touchdown pass was Raudabaugh's seventh of the game. On the next series, Austin would find Collin Taylor for a four-yard touchdown. The catch was Taylor's fourth touchdown of the night and a career high. A successful two-point conversion made the score 63-48 at the final buzzer.

Cleveland Gladiators 62, Tampa Bay Storm 54

Collin Taylor's interception returned for a touchdown gave the Cleveland Gladiators (3-2) their first lead in the third quarter, and Donnie Fletcher's touchdown off an interception gave the Gladiators the insurance they needed to knock off the Tampa Bay Storm (2-3) 62-54 before a crowd of 11,120 at Quicken Loans Arena. Taylor led the Gladiators with 111 receiving yards and three touchdowns in the game, and added the defensive touchdown for his second straight game with four touchdowns. Shane Austin passed for 285 yards and six touchdowns.

After the two teams traded fumbles on the first two offensive series of the game, they traded touchdowns on their next two drives. Kendrick Ings scored the first of his two touchdowns on an 11-yard strike from Jason Boltus with 5:50 left in the opening quarter, and just under three minutes later, the Gladiators tied the game when Jeramie Richardson scampered in for a 23-yard touchdown run. After one quarter, the game was tied 7-7.

Each team scored 35 points in the second and third quarters combined, and for Tampa Bay, T.T. Toliver was the key factor. Toliver notched three of his four receiving touchdowns in the second quarter, and each one was from at least 21 yards. With the Gladiators down 28-14 late in the first half, Austin found Taylor from five yards out for a touchdown, and with a successful extra point try from Adrian Trevino, the Gladiators cut the deficit to seven points heading into halftime.

The Gladiators had the ball to start the second half, and tied the game by executing a five-play, 47-yard drive that took 2:37 off the clock. The drive was capped off by a 24-yard catch-and-run touchdown pass from Austin to Taylor; Taylor took a short pass and streaked up the right sideline en route to the end zone, and the Gladiators tied the game at 28-28 with the successful extra points.

After Taylor picked up his third receiving touchdown of the game to boost the Gladiators to a 48-42 lead with 11:35 left in the fourth quarter, Tampa Bay tied the game on a one-yard run from Boltus with 4:22 left in regulation. A wild snap on the extra point attempt led to the Gladiators foiling the extra point try, leaving the game tied at 48-48 entering the final minutes.

Cleveland took a 55-48 lead with 52 seconds left after Austin marched the Gladiators offense down the field on a three-minute drive, finishing the series off with an eight-yard touchdown pass to Dominick Goodman; the second touchdown catch of the night for Goodman, who finished with 63 receiving yards in the game. On the ensuing Tampa Bay drive, Boltus was picked off by Fletcher on a pass over the middle, and Fletcher returned the interception 22 yards to the end zone, putting the Gladiators on top for good. Tampa Bay added a late touchdown from Toliver, but were unable to erase the deficit.

Cleveland Gladiators 56, Orlando Predators 55 (OT)

After erasing an eight-point deficit before regulation time expired, the Cleveland Gladiators (4-2) emerged with a 56-55 overtime road win over the Orlando Predators (3-3) Saturday night at the Amway Center in Orlando, Florida. Shane Austin completed 36 of 44 passes for 364 yards and eight touchdown passes for the Gladiators. In the receiving game, Dominick Goodman and Collin Taylor each hauled in three touchdown grabs while Amarri Jackson had two receiving touchdowns and also had a two-point conversion catch with two seconds remaining to ultimately force overtime. The Gladiators host Jacksonville Saturday, May 9th at Quicken Loans Arena in their next game.

The two teams battled back and forth in the first half, exchanging leads on almost every possession. The Gladiators led 13-7 after one quarter, but Orlando took its first lead, 14-13, 1:59 into the second quarter on a four-yard touchdown pass from Randy Hippeard to Larry Brackins. A 35-yard touchdown pass from Austin to Taylor later helped the Gladiators to a 27-21 advantage with 4:07 left in the second quarter, but Orlando managed to gain a lead that lasted into halftime. Bernard Morris, Orlando's backup quarterback, entered the game and threw a one-yard touchdown pass on fourth down with 41 seconds left in the first half to give the Predators a 28-27 halftime advantage.

Each team scored 14 points in the third quarter, setting up a 42-41 game entering what would be a low-scoring final frame of regulation. After Hippeard connected with Brackins on a six-yard touchdown pass 1:58 into the fourth quarter, the Gladiators defense held the Predators off the board for the duration of regulation time. Orlando had an opportunity to stretch their lead to two scores, but the Gladiators defense stood tall and held the Predators to a missed 28-yard field goal with 90 seconds remaining.

Austin connected with Taylor on an 11-yard touchdown pass with two seconds remaining in regulation to pull the Gladiators to within 49-47, and on the ensuing two-point conversion try, Austin found Jackson in the end zone to his right to tie the game at 49-49.

Orlando won the coin toss before overtime and elected to kick the ball away to start the extra frame. Austin and the Gladiators offense executed an eight-play, 44 yard drive that ended with a six-yard touchdown pass to Goodman; his third of the game. After Goodman's third touchdown and a converted extra point from Adrian Trevino, the Gladiators led 56-49. The Predators scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass to Kendal Thompkins to pull to within a point, but on the two point conversion try, the Gladiators defense took away all the options and Hippeard threw an incomplete pass, securing a one-point overtime win for Cleveland.

Jacksonville Sharks 46, Cleveland Gladiators 43

Jacksonville's four consecutive touchdowns, which spanned from the late stages of the first half through the third quarter, proved to be too much for the Cleveland Gladiators (4-3) to overcome in a 46-43 loss to the Sharks (2-5) on Saturday night. A Quicken Loans Arena crowd of 9,872 was on hand as the Gladiators Amarri Jackson led all receivers in the game with 135 yards and three touchdowns. Collin Taylor also added a pair of receiving touchdowns for the Gladiators, who turned the ball over five times in the loss.

The Gladiators defense helped the Gladiators gain an upper hand in the first half with a goal line stand on the Sharks first drive of the game. Following Jacksonville's turnover on downs, the Gladiators took a 7-0 lead on a 13-yard pass from quarterback Shane Austin to Dominick Goodman, who finished the game with seven catches and 78 yards. The two squads exchanged touchdowns throughout the first half, and the Gladiators led 21-19 at halftime. Austin found each of the Gladiators starting wide receivers on touchdown passes in the first half, as Jackson had a four-yard touchdown catch with eight seconds left in the first quarter, and Taylor reeled in a nine-yard touchdown pass from Austin with 4:21 left in the second quarter. After Taylor's second quarter touchdown, however, Jacksonville went on a 26-0 run and outscored the Gladiators 20-0 in the third quarter.

Down three points, the Gladiators attempted an onside kick, but did not recover, and Jacksonville extended their lead to 46-36 on a three-yard Derrick Ross touchdown run with 6:28 remaining. Austin found Jackson on a 21-yard touchdown pass with 3:18 left in the fourth quarter to again pull the Gladiators to within three points, but Jacksonville ran the clock out on their final drive to preserve the victory.

Cleveland Gladiators 64, New Orleans VooDoo 42

Shane Austin threw for six touchdowns and ran for another to help the Cleveland Gladiators to a 64-42 victory Friday at Quicken Loans Arena before a crowd of 12,127. Dominick Goodman led all receivers with nine catches, 97 yards, and three touchdowns, and Amarri Jackson chipped in three total touchdowns, as the Gladiators outscored New Orleans in every quarter of the game.

Austin connected with Collin Taylor for a 36-yard touchdown pass on the first play from scrimmage to help the Gladiators to an immediate 7-0 lead, and the two teams traded touchdowns into the second quarter. After New Orleans tied the game 14-14 on a 15-yard touchdown grab by former Gladiator Carlese Franklin, the Gladiators charged ahead with a pair of touchdowns and two field goals before halftime. With 9:02 left in the second quarter, Austin connected with Goodman from six yards to help the Gladiators to a 21-14 lead. On the next Cleveland possession, Austin completed a four-yard touchdown pass to Goodman with 4:01 left in the first half to give the Gladiators a 27-14 lead.

The Gladiators took a 12-point lead into halftime after another field goal, which was made possible because of Trevino recovering his own kickoff. Trevino's kick bounced off the center bar, and the Gladiators kicker pounced on the ball at the New Orleans 13-yard line. After the recovery, Trevino was able to nail a 34-yard field goal as the first half expired to give the Gladiators a 33-21 lead after 30 minutes.

All three of Jackson's touchdowns took place in the second half; the first of which was a 10-yard strike to the right from Austin to give the Gladiators a 40-21 lead with 8:23 left in the third quarter. After New Orleans countered with a touchdown 3:30 later, Jackson returned a kickoff 51 yards for a score, once again giving the Gladiators a 19-point advantage. The Gladiators led 47-28 after three quarters.

The Gladiators outscored New Orleans 17-14 in the fourth quarter. Jackson notched his third touchdown of the game on a 14-yard pass from Austin just 35 seconds into the frame to give the Gladiators a 54-28 lead. Goodman's third receiving touchdown- an 11-yarder with 3:10 remaining- to secure the 64-42 victory.

San Jose SaberCats 70, Cleveland Gladiators 58

After scoring more points in the first half against San Jose than any team had scored in a game against the SaberCats (9-0) all season, the Cleveland Gladiators (5-4) were outscored 28-6 in the second half en route to a 70-58 loss at the hands of the Arena Football League's lone unbeaten team at SAP Center in San Jose, California. Collin Taylor led the Gladiators with 11 catches for 152 yards and four touchdowns, and also added a rushing touchdown. Shane Austin threw for 326 yards and seven touchdowns in the loss.

The Gladiators scored on their second play from scrimmage: a 46-yard touchdown pass from Austin to Amarri Jackson, who ended the game with three touchdowns and 61 yards. Leading 7-0, the Gladiators defense forced SaberCats quarterback Erik Meyer to fumble on the ensuing possession, and the Gladiators cashed in with a seven-yard touchdown pass from Austin to Taylor to take a 14-0 lead just 3:16 into the opening frame. The two teams battled back and forth for the rest of the first half, alternating scores through the end of the second quarter. Each of Taylor's four receiving touchdowns came in the first half, including his longest reception of the game: a 45-yard touchdown reception on the right side with 5:15 left in the second quarter. Each of Jackson's three receiving touchdowns were posted in the first half, and an Adrian Trevino 40-yard field goal as the first half expired gave the Gladiators a 52-42 halftime lead.

San Jose opened the second half with a 17-yard touchdown pass from Meyer to Diondre Borel to cut the Gladiators lead to 52-49; the first scoring play in a 28-0 run for the SaberCats that secured them the victory. The Gladiators added a one-yard rushing touchdown from Taylor with four seconds remaining, but were unable to overcome what before was an 18-point SaberCats lead when the margin was its largest..

Orlando Predators 63, Cleveland Gladiators 42

Three turnovers led to the Cleveland Gladiators (5-5) falling by a 63-42 score to the Orlando Predators (6-4) Friday night before 10,670 fans at Quicken Loans Arena. The Gladiators Dominick Goodman led all receivers in the game with 145 yards, and Gladiators receiver Collin Taylor had a game-high 14 catches while amassing 103 yards. Orlando managed to intercept two passes and also recovered a Gladiators fumble, as the three-game season series between the two teams is even at a game apiece with one meeting remaining.

Orlando opened the game with a 43-yard drive that took 5:03 and culminated with a seven-yard touchdown pass from Bernard Morris to LaMark Brown. On the ensuing Gladiators drive, Collin Taylor was met with a hard hit in the red zone that jarred the ball loose, and Orlando recovered the fumble. Orlando marched down the field for a five-play, 39-yard drive that ended with a 12-yard touchdown run by fullback Michael Simons; the first of his four rushing touchdowns in the game. Leading 14-0 after 15 minutes, Orlando never surrendered their advantage.

Goodman's six-yard touchdown catch with 8:58 remaining in the second quarter and Austin's one-yard touchdown run with 58 seconds left in the first half each pulled the Gladiators to within seven points, but the seven-point margin was the closest the Gladiators would come on Friday night. Orlando managed 14 points in the final 46 seconds of the first half, including a 44-yard touchdown pass from Morris to Kendal Thompkins with 10 seconds left in the half to bolt to a 35-14 halftime lead.

The two teams evenly split 42 combined points that were scored in a busy fourth quarter. Three different Gladiators: Taylor, Andy Cruse, and Goodman found the end zone, but Orlando was able to respond and match each Gladiators touchdown. Cruse's touchdown came on an 11-yard pass from Austin with 10:45 left in regulation, and marked his first AFL touchdown catch.

Just as he capped off the scoring in the first half, Kendal Thompkins scored the game's final touchdown with 28 seconds left on a 14-yard touchdown pass. Thompkins' second touchdown of the game pushed Orlando to a 63-42 lead, which ultimately was the final score.

Cleveland Gladiators 63, Las Vegas Outlaws 44

Joe Phinisee returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the second half to help the Cleveland Gladiators (6-5) secure a 63-44 road win over the Las Vegas Outlaws (3-7) Sunday afternoon at the Thomas & Mack Center in Las Vegas, Nevada. Phinisee leads the Gladiators in interceptions with four on the season, as the Gladiators snapped a two-game losing skid. Quarterback Shane Austin accounted for six total touchdowns, five of which were through the air. Dominick Goodman had two receiving touchdowns, while Amarri Jackson, Thyron Lewis, and Collin Taylor posted one each.

Austin found Goodman on a six-yard touchdown pass and Lewis on an eight-yard touchdown pass to help the Gladiators to a 14-0 lead through one quarter. Las Vegas turned the tables in the second quarter as they were jumpstarted by a 34-yard touchdown pass from Sean Brackett to Jomo Wilson 1:39 into the second frame. Overall, the Outlaws outscored the Gladiators 31-15 in the second quarter, and thanks to a 30-yard field goal from Ernesto Lacayo as the first half expired, Las Vegas took a 31-29 lead into the halftime break. Two of the Gladiators biggest plays of the game, however, led to second quarter points. Defensive lineman Mike Alston sacked Brackett with 50 seconds left in the half for a Safety, and Amarri Jackson posted a 56-yard kickoff return for a touchdown with 14 seconds left in the half. Overall, Jackson finished the game with 199 kickoff return yards.

The Gladiators took control of the game in the third quarter. Leading 36-31 after a five-yard, one-handed touchdown catch by Jackson, Phinisee intercepted a Brackett pass in the middle of the field and returned the turnover 13 yards for a touchdown, extending the Gladiators lead to 42-31. The Gladiators added three touchdowns in the fourth quarter, including a 47-yard interception return for a touchdown by Phinisee with 21 seconds remaining to help the Gladiators to a 63-44 advantage.

Cleveland Gladiators 51, New Orleans VooDoo 34

Three first-half turnovers on downs forced by the Gladiators defense propelled Cleveland (7-5) to a 51-34 road win over the New Orleans VooDoo (2-10) Friday night at the Smoothie King Center in New Orleans, Louisiana. The Gladiators went on a 24-0 run that stretched from the early portion of the second quarter and into the third quarter, as Cleveland never trailed Friday evening in securing their second straight road win. Shane Austin accounted for 265 passing yards and six touchdown passes while adding a rushing touchdown, and Dominick Goodman led all receivers with 13 receptions in the game; Goodman finished with 128 yards and two touchdowns, while Collin Taylor also notched three receiving touchdowns. The Gladiators return home to take on Tampa Bay next Friday, with the game set to begin at 7:00 p.m. at Quicken Loans Arena.

After the VooDoo turned the ball over on downs on their first drive of the game, the Gladiators executed a six-play, 45-yard drive that ended with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Amarri Jackson to give the Gladiators a 6-0 lead. New Orleans would match the Gladiators to tie the game at 6-6 through one quarter, but the Gladiators pulled away by outscoring the VooDoo 17-0 in the second quarter.

Goodman ignited the Gladiators second quarter scoring with an acrobatic 24-yard touchdown grab on fourth down just 1:35 into the frame. The Gladiators would lead 13-6 as a result of Goodman's first touchdown of the game, and held that lead until Taylor's seven-yard touchdown catch with 2:05 left in the second quarter extended the Gladiators lead to 20-6. Adrian Trevino drilled a 22-yard field goal as the first half expired to give the Gladiators a 23-6 lead at the break.

The Gladiators extended their scoring run to 24-0, and took their largest lead of the game when Austin and Taylor connected on a 23-yard touchdown pass with 10:21 left in the third quarter. Taylor's second of three touchdown catches in the game pushed the Gladiators ahead 30-6, and marked the only Gladiators points of the third quarter.

The Gladiators entered the fourth quarter with a 30-13 lead, and each team posted 21 points in the fourth quarter. The Gladiators scored on a two-yard rushing touchdown by Austin just seven seconds into the fourth, and Taylor and Goodman each hauled in touchdown catches during a busy final minute of regulation to secure the Gladiators victory.

Tampa Bay Storm 52, Cleveland Gladiators 48

An onside kick recovery led to a touchdown in the final seconds for the Tampa Bay Storm (6-6), who topped the Cleveland Gladiators (7-6) 52-48 Friday night before a Quicken Loans Arena crowd of 10,123 fans. Julius Gregory scored the go-ahead touchdown for the Storm with 2.5 seconds to play. For the Gladiators, quarterback Shane Austin passed for 229 yards and six touchdowns while rushing for another score. Receivers Amarri Jackson, Quorey Payne, and Collin Taylor each chipped in a pair of receiving touchdowns.

Neither team was able to score on its first possession before Tampa Bay struck first with a five-yard touchdown pass from Jason Boltus to Gregory with 2:46 remaining in the opening quarter. Gregory's first receiving touchdown of the game led to Tampa Bay taking a 7-0 lead, and the points were the only ones registered in the opening frame before the two teams combined for 38 second quarter points.

Tampa Bay took a 14-0 lead after a 42-yard touchdown pass from Boltus to Kendrick Ings with 11:31 left in the second quarter before the Gladiators mustered their first of three second quarter touchdowns. Austin found Jackson for a nine-yard touchdown pass with 8:36 left in the second quarter. Austin's rushing touchdown came later in the second quarter, and with just 25 seconds remaining in the first half, Austin found Taylor for the first of his two touchdown catches to pull the Gladiators to within three points. Taylor finished the game with 95 receiving yards to lead the Gladiators.

The Gladiators outscored Tampa Bay 13-6 in the third quarter on the strength of a 19-yard touchdown catch by Jackson and a 10-yard touchdown catch by Payne as the frame expired; Payne's first touchdown catch for the Gladiators this season. The Gladiators took a 34-30 lead into the fourth quarter, and Tampa Bay managed 22 points in the final frame to the Gladiators 14.

With 3:27 left in the fourth quarter, Austin found Payne from 18 yards to help the Gladiators to a 48-37 lead. Tampa Bay responded with a two-yard touchdown pass from Boltus to T.T. Toliver with 47 seconds left and a two-point conversion pass to Gregory to cut the Gladiators lead to 48-45. Craig Peterson's onside kick attempt was recovered by Tampa Bay, setting up a game-winning drive that was capped off by an eight-yard touchdown pass from Boltus to Gregory with 2.5 seconds remaining, catapulting Tampa Bay to a 52-48 lead.

The Gladiators attempted a Hail Mary pass as time expired, but were unable to convert as Tampa Bay held on for the win; their first in three tries this season against Cleveland.

Jacksonville Sharks 74, Cleveland Gladiators 41

ix turnovers forced by the Jacksonville Sharks (7-6) led to the Cleveland Gladiators (7-7) suffering a 74-41 loss at the Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena Saturday night. Despite the loss, Gladiators receiver Collin Taylor posted three receiving touchdowns, vaulting his team-leading total to 30. The 74 points allowed by the Gladiators was the most in a single game this season. The Gladiators dictated the tempo of the game from the start, charging out to a 13-0 lead through one quarter. Austin completed a 13-yard pass to Lewis for a touchdown on the Gladiators first offensive series just 3:28 into the game, and after over 10 minutes of scoreless football and the two teams trading turnovers, the Gladiators took a two-score lead.

Jacksonville bolted out to a 14-0 lead after scoring on their opening drive and taking possession off an interception thrown by Gladiators quarterback Shane Austin with Cleveland in the red zone with 11:18 left in the first quarter. Jacksonville capitalized on Austin's first interception, as Sharks quarterback Tommy Grady found the Arena Football League's leading receiver, Tiger Jones, for a 37-yard touchdown pass. Austin rebounded and put the Gladiators on the board on the following possession when he scampered in for a two-yard touchdown run to his right. Before the first quarter ended, Jacksonville added another touchdown to take a 20-7 lead into the second frame.

The Gladiators held Jacksonville to just six second quarter points despite committing a pair of interceptions in the frame. With 1:12 left in the second quarter, Taylor found the end zone for the first of his three touchdowns on a nine-yard pass from Austin, who finished the game with 211 yards passing on 16 of 25 passing; he also finished with three interceptions. The Gladiators trailed 26-14 heading into halftime after stopping Jacksonville's Derrick Ross, the AFL's all-time rushing leader, just feet from the end zone as the half expired.

Down 12 and receiving the second half's opening kickoff, the Gladiators executed a four-play, 49 yard drive that ended with a five-yard touchdown pass to Amarri Jackson. Adrian Trevino's extra point pulled the Gladiators to within five points, which was the closest the Gladiators would get to Jacksonville on two occasions in the second half. Jacksonville responded with a seven-yard touchdown pass to Joe Hills to extend their lead to 32-21 with 9:53 left in the third quarter, and after Jackson returned a kickoff to the Sharks six following the touchdown, the Gladiators scored on a six-yard pass to Taylor. The Gladiators attempted a two-point conversion that would have pulled them to within three points, but the attempt was foiled and the Gladiators trailed 32-27 with 7:38 left in the third quarter.

After the missed two-point conversion, Jacksonville scored three straight touchdowns to take a 53-27 lead. Overall, the Gladiators were outscored 48-27 in the second half and 28-14 in the fourth quarter as the Sharks ultimately won 74-41.

Philadelphia Soul 72, Cleveland Gladiators 56

A 23-6 second quarter scoring advantage propelled the Philadelphia Soul (13-2) past the Cleveland Gladiators (7-8) on Saturday afternoon at Wells Fargo Center, as Philadelphia topped the Gladiators 72-56. Amarri Jackson led the Gladiators in receiving with eight catches for 125 yards and three touchdowns despite the loss, while also amassing 152 kickoff return yards.

Quarterback Shane Austin was hit as he threw on the Gladiators first play from scrimmage, and after being reviewed, the play was ruled a fumble recovered by Soul defensive back Kent Richardson. The turnover led to Philadelphia's Tommy Taggart notching the first of his two rushing touchdowns in the game, and giving Philadelphia a 7-0 lead. The Gladiators responded with a one-yard rushing score from Jeramie Richardson on the ensuing drive to tie the game at 7-7. After trading touchdowns again before the end of the first quarter, the two teams were tied 14-14 heading into the second.

Philadelphia's 23-6 second quarter run began with a 20-yard touchdown pass from Dan Raudabaugh to Harvey Binford with 12:16 left in the frame, helping Philadelphia to a 21-14 advantage. After a Gladiators turnover, Philadelphia's Ryan McDaniel caught an eight-yard touchdown pass with 3:49 left in the second quarter and made the score 28-14 for Philadelphia. This marked the first time the Soul held a two-score advantage, and they held a two-score lead for the duration of the contest. Jackson posted the first of his three receiving touchdowns on a 12-yard pass from Austin with 30 seconds left in the second quarter, but Philadelphia blocked the extra point, and James Romain ran the live ball back for a two-point conversion, giving Philadelphia a 30-20 lead.

Philadelphia took a 37-20 lead into halftime after a 22-yard touchdown pass to Binford with seven seconds left in the first half, and extended their lead to 44-20 with a 36-yard touchdown pass to Binford 1:18 into the third quarter. Overall, the Gladiators would equal Philadelphia's 14 third quarter points with an 18-yard touchdown run from Austin and a 17-yard touchdown catch by Jackson.

In the fourth quarter, the Gladiators outscored Philadelphia 22-21 as three Gladiators receivers- Collin Taylor, Jackson, and Dominick Goodman- managed to haul in touchdown catches, but the Gladiators were unable to overcome the deficit. Philadelphia held off a late Gladiators threat to win 72-56.

Orlando Predators 65, Cleveland Gladiators 58

Collin Taylor registered four receiving touchdowns for the Cleveland Gladiators (7-9), but the Orlando Predators (10-6) topped the Gladiators 65-58 Saturday night at Quicken Loans Arena in Cleveland. The loss marks the fourth straight for the Gladiators, as Orlando took the three-game season series two games to one.

The Gladiators scored on their first drive, as quarterback Shane Austin plunged into the end zone from a yard out for the first of his two rushing touchdowns in the game. After taking a 7-0 lead with 10:03 left in the first quarter, Orlando responded as Larry Brackins caught the first of his four touchdowns with 5:47 left in the first quarter to even the score at 7-7. On the ensuing kickoff, Orlando's LaMark Brown recovered a bouncing ball off the iron for a touchdown, leading to a Predators 14-7 lead with 4:15 left in the opening quarter. The Gladiators tied the game at 14-14 with 3:17 left in the first quarter on a 12-yard pass from Austin to Taylor, who finished the game with nine catches and 95 yards.

Trading touchdowns throughout the second quarter, the teams ventured deeply into the final minute of the first half before each kicker was put to the test. Orlando took a 31-28 lead on a 21-yard field goal by Mark Lewis with 16 seconds left in the half, but the Gladiators were able to tie the game at 31-31 before halftime on a 35-yard boot by Adrian Trevino.

Orlando received the opening kickoff in the second half, and immediately regained the lead on a 13-yard touchdown pass from Hippeard to Brown 1:49 into the third quarter. With the Predators leading 38-31, Orlando's Nick Taylor intercepted a deflected pass on the ensuing Gladiators possession. The Gladiators forced Orlando to fourth down and 10, but Hippeard found Brackins for a 21-yard touchdown pass to give the Predators a 45-31 lead with 7:33 left in the third quarter.

The Gladiators erased the deficit, tying the game at 45-45 with back-to-back touchdowns. Austin connected with Amarri Jackson on a nine-yard touchdown pass with 2:37 left in the third quarter to help the Gladiators pull to within seven, and after a Devon Dace interception, the Gladiators tied the game at 45-45 just 41 seconds into the fourth quarter on an 11-yard touchdown hookup from Austin to Taylor. Orlando responded by scoring back-to-back touchdowns four minutes apart to take a 58-35 lead. With 11:05 left in the fourth, Hippeard connected with Brackins to give the Predators a seven-point lead. Shortly after, Gladiators quarterback Shane Austin was stripped and Orlando jack linebacker Terence Moore returned the fumble for a touchdown. The Gladiators foiled the extra point and trailed by 13 points with 7:05 remaining.

Cleveland added two more touchdowns, one on an Austin run and one on a Dominick Goodman catch, but a fourth touchdown pass from Hippeard to Brackins with 50 seconds left ultimately made Orlando's lead too great to overcome, as the Predators held on for a 65-58 win.

Cleveland Gladiators 59, Spokane Shock 42

With a 59-42 victory over the Spokane Shock Saturday at Quicken Loans Arena, the Cleveland Gladiators clinched a berth in the Arena Football League playoffs for the second straight season.

Needing a victory to earn a second straight trip to the playoffs, the Cleveland Gladiators (8-9) topped the Spokane Shock (6-11) 59-42 Saturday night at Quicken Loans Arena before a crowd of 11,674. Shane Austin threw six touchdown passes- five of them to Collin Taylor- to propel the Gladiators to the victory.

The Gladiators set the tone early against Spokane on both offense and defense. On the second offensive play of the game, Austin tossed a pass to Taylor to his right, and Taylor took the ball 29 yards to the end zone to help the Gladiators to a 7-0 lead 1:19 into the game. On Spokane's first drive, Devon Dace intercepted Shock quarterback Arvell Nelson, and the Gladiators proceeded to take a 14-0 lead after a 27-yard touchdown pass from Austin to a wide-open Taylor with 10:15 left in the opening quarter. Taylor added another touchdown catch with 6:12 left in the first quarter, and the Gladiators ultimately led 21-7 after the opening stanza.

In the second quarter, a 29-yard Adrian Trevino field goal with 9:16 left in the frame and a 30-yard hookup from Austin to Taylor with 21 seconds left before halftime gave the Gladiators a 31-14 halftime lead. Overall, Taylor finished the game with a team-high nine catches for a game-high 142 yards and five touchdown catches.

The Gladiators continued to build their lead with a takeaway on Spokane's first possession of the second half. Nelson fumbled near the goal line, and Gladiators Jack Linebacker Joe Phinisee scooped up the loose ball before trotting to the end zone with the first of his two fumble recoveries in the game. Phinisee's defensive touchdown helped the Gladiators to a 38-14 advantage 1:10 into the second half. Phinisee's touchdown marked the only scoring in the third quarter for the Gladiators, who led 38-21 through three quarters.

Each team tallied 21 points in the fourth quarter. The first Gladiators points came on Taylor's fifth touchdown catch of the game; a 16-yarder from Austin with 9:33 left that put Cleveland up 45-21. Taylor finished the game with 41 touchdown passes, making him the first Gladiator since 2010 to reach and surpass the 40 receiving touchdown plateau. Taylor's 41 touchdown catches on the campaign put him into a tie for the league's leading total. Thyron Lewis added an 11-yard touchdown catch and Jeramie Richardson posted a six-yard touchdown run later in the fourth quarter, as the Gladiators topped Spokane 59-42.

Philadelphia Soul 48, Cleveland Gladiators 33

Shane Austin tossed his 101st touchdown pass of the season Saturday night to break John Dutton's five-year old single-season franchise record of 100, but the Cleveland Gladiators (8-10) closed out the regular season with a 48-33 loss to the Philadelphia Soul (15-3) before a Quicken Loans Arena crowd of 12,474.

A Gladiators turnover on downs to open the game led to Philadelphia posting the game's first points, as Soul quarterback Dan Raudabaugh found Shaun Kauleinamoku for a 46-yard touchdown pass 5:20 into the opening frame. On the ensuing kickoff return, Amarri Jackson ran the ball 55 yards before he was stripped at the one-yard line. Philadelphia took over possession, but the Gladiators defense stood tall, forcing a turnover on downs and keeping the Philadelphia lead at just seven points.

Austin found Collin Taylor for his first touchdown pass of the game with 5:46 left in the opening quarter to help the Gladiators tie the game at 7-7. Austin sent a quick pass to the right for Taylor, who carried defenders with him en route to his 42nd touchdown catch of the season. Taylor finished the game with a pair of scores and led the Gladiators with eight receptions and 74 yards. After Cleveland tied the game at 7-7, Philadelphia managed to regain the lead, 14-7, on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Raudabaugh to fullback Tommy Taggart with 1:39 left in the first quarter.

The back-and-forth scoring continued into the second quarter when Austin barreled into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run- the first of his two rushing touchdowns in the game- with 12:12 left in the second quarter. A missed extra point attempt led to Philadelphia scoring back-to-back touchdowns, including a one-yard rushing touchdown from Taggart in the half's final seconds, and the Soul led 28-13 at halftime.

The Gladiators outscored Philadelphia 13-7 in the third quarter; the lone quarter in which the Gladiators outscored the Soul. History was made with 1:08 left in the third quarter and the Gladiators trailing 35-20. Austin looked to his right and spotted an open Thyrone Lewis, and Austin found Lewis for a 16-yard touchdown pass. The pass was Austin's 101st of the season, setting a new single-season franchise record, and the total is a new career-high for Austin. Austin finished the game completing 16 of 33 passes for 176 yards and three touchdowns.

Philadelphia outscored the Gladiators 13-7 in the fourth quarter to secure the win, topping Cleveland 48-33. The Gladiators finished the season series against the Soul with an 0-3 record.

Game 19

Playoffs

Philadelphia Soul 47, Cleveland Gladiators 35

Four turnovers forced by the Philadelphia Soul defense led to the Cleveland Gladiators suffering a 47-35 loss in the quarterfinal round of the Arena Football League Playoffs Saturday at Wells Fargo Center in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Collin Taylor led the way for the Gladiators offense, posting 13 catches for 137 yards and three touchdowns in the defeat. Dominick Goodman returned to the Gladiators lineup and registered a pair of receiving touchdowns after missing last week's regular season finale due to injury.

The Gladiators bolted out to a 14-13 lead through one quarter. Gladiators starting quarterback Shane Austin engineered an opening drive that traveled 45 yards over 5:07 of game time to give the Gladiators a 7-0 lead; Taylor notched a 23-yard touchdown catch to give the Gladiators an early lead. Philadelphia answered with a touchdown, but missed the extra point try, leaving the Gladiators with a one-point lead. On the Gladiators second drive, Taylor was the recipient of a 19-yard touchdown pass from Austin with 2:37 left in the opening frame. Philadelphia answered with a 37-yard touchdown pass to Shaun Kauleinamoku, pulling the Soul to within a point and leaving the Gladiators lead at 14-13. On the ensuing kickoff, the Soul executed a surprise onside kick that led to a Tommy Frevert field goal from 24 yards. Frevert's first of two successful field goals in the game gave the Soul a 16-14 lead, and Philadelphia never surrendered their advantage. The Soul outscored the Gladiators 17-0 in the second quarter en route to a 30-14 halftime lead.

Philadelphia took the ball to start the second half, and with 13:36 left in the third quarter extended their lead to 37-14 on a 29-yard touchdown pass by Dan Raudabaugh to Marco Thomas. The Gladiators fought back when Austin found Taylor again on a 22-yard touchdown pass over the middle of the field with 1:31 remaining in the third quarter; the play helped the Gladiators pull to within 16 points, making the score 37-21 in Philadelphia's favor.

The Gladiators outscored the Soul 14-10 in the fourth quarter, but were unable to erase the deficit before falling 47-35. Dominick Goodman hauled in a pair of touchdowns- one from four yards with 4:04 remaining, and one from three yards with 1:17 left to play- but Philadelphia took over possession and managed to occupy the duration of the game.

2016 CLEVELAND GLADIATORS BROADCAST TEAM

TONY BROWN - PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCASTER

A 28-year old Rochester, Minnesota native and 2010 graduate of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, Tony Brown is currently in the midst of his first season as the voice of the Arena Football League's Cleveland Gladiators, calling regular-season and postseason action on the radio on 92.3 The Fan in Cleveland, and state-wide on television Fox Sports Ohio and SportsTime Ohio. Brown also serves as the voice of the AHL's Lake Erie Monsters on radio and TV, calling all regular-season and playoff action on ESPN 850 WKNR, 99X and AM 1420 The Answer in Cleveland, with select games simulcast on Fox Sports Ohio, SportsTime Ohio and WUAB CLE 43.

Prior to his time in Cleveland, Brown called games for the expansion Indy Fuel during their inaugural 2014-15 season in the ECHL on CBS Sports 1430 in Indianapolis. Brown spent the 2013-14 campaign broadcasting for the USHL's Omaha Lancers following two years as the radio voice of the NAHL's Odessa (TX) Jackalopes from 2011 to 2013.

Brown spent the summer of 2010 as the inaugural voice of the Northwoods Baseball League's expansion Willmar (MN) Stingers and served as a producer and host at Syracuse, New York's ESPN Radio affiliate

DUSTIN FOX - COLOR COMMENTATOR

Dustin Fox returns for his fifth season providing color commentary for all Cleveland Gladiators home broadcasts. Fox, who can be heard weekdays from 2:00-7:00 p.m. as co-host of 92.3 The Fan's "Bull & Fox" show, brings a wealth of football experience to Gladiators broadcasts.

Fox, a Canton native and graduate of GlenOak high school, was a member of the 2002 Ohio State National Championship football team.

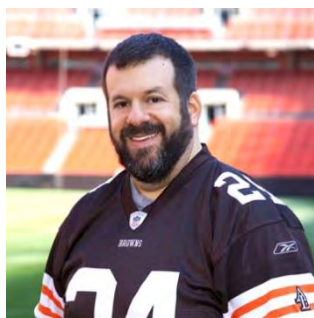

After completing his four years as a starter with the Buckeyes, the defensive back was selected in the third round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

Between 2005 and 2008, Fox played in the NFL with the Vikings, Philadelphia Eagles and Buffalo Bills.

In addition to co-hosting a daily talk show, Fox also serves as an analyst on the Cleveland Browns radio network, working on the pregame and postgame shows.

ADAM THE BULL - FILL-IN PLAY-BY-PLAY VOICE

Adam the Bull has been talking sports on the radio since he was a senior at Sheepshead Bay High School in Brooklyn, NY. His radio career began when he did play by play for a football game that aired on a local college radio station.

In the spring of 1999 The Bull earned his first paid gig as the play-by-play voice of the Batavia Muckdogs of the New York Penn League. During his three summers in Batavia Adam was able to watch as Marlon Byrd, Ryan Madson, Chase Utley and Ryan Howard cut their teeth with the Muckdogs. He graduated from SUNY

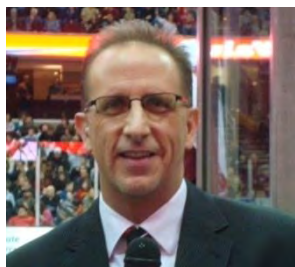

Brockport in 2000, where he majored in Communications on the broadcasting track.

From 2002-2007 The Bull hosted sports talk shows for several stations in Utica, NY. During his time in central New York, Adam also called football, basketball and hockey games for Utica College and the now defunct UHL team the Mohawk Valley Prowlers. He also did the play-by-play for three Major League Baseball Hall of Fame Games.

In 2007 The Bull returned to NYC to work for Sports Radio 66-WFAN. When he started at WFAN Adam split his time as a host and update anchor for the station. Over the next three years, The Bull was one of the most versatile sports announcers for WFAN in all dayparts.

Adam "The Bull" now begins a new chapter as the afternoon drive host on the new Sports Radio 92.3 The Fan. Within a week of being in town Adam knew that Cleveland had the kind of fans that could match his passion for sports. He is excited to be able to talk sports five days a week with the people of Northeast Ohio.

A native New Yorker, Adam was born and raised in Brooklyn. He is a die-hard fan of the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Bengals. The Bull tied the knot in October 2010. He and his beautiful wife Elizabeth reside in Lakewood, OH. In addition to sports, Adam enjoys reading the novels of Lee Child, Michael Connelly and many other mystery and thriller authors, going to the movies, hanging out with his bride, and a great slice of pizza.

KENNY RODA - SIDELINE REPORTER

Veteran sports broadcaster Kenny Roda brings a quarter-century of experience to Cleveland Gladiators broadcasts, serving as the on-field reporter.

Roda, a graduate of Baldwin Wallace University, currently serves as the host of "The Kenny Roda Show", weekdays from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on WHBC-AM 1480 in Canton, Ohio.

2016 CLEVELAND GLADIATORS THE COACHES

STEVE THONN Head Coach

Steve Thonn enters his seventh season with the Gladiators. Thonn was named head coach and director of football operations of the Cleveland Gladiators on December 23, 2009 after spending the 2008 AFL season as the head coach of the Grand Rapids Rampage.

The Gladiators finished the 2014 season with a 17-1 record under Thonn. Last season's 17 wins set a new AFL record for wins in a regular season. Thonn's Gladiators won the East Division and American Conference en route to a berth in ArenaBowl XXVII, where they fell to Arizona. Thonn was named AFL Coach of the Year following the season.

In his first year with the Gladiators, the team compiled a 7-9 overall record. Despite the sub-.500 finish, the Gladiators outscored their opponents 938-906 on the year and had receiver Ben Nelson and offensive lineman Adam Tadisich named to the AFL First Team and defensive lineman Anthony Hoke was named to the AFL Second Team. Quarterback John Dutton finished the season with 5,104 passing yards - second-best in the league.

In 2008, the Rampage's 956 total points and 59.5 points-per-game average, both franchise records, were second best in the AFL behind only the 13-3 Philadelphia Soul. In Thonn's lone season, Grand Rapids posted the four highest single-game point totals this season (92 in Week 4; 84 in Week 5; 84 in Week 15; 86 in Week 17) and became the first team in AFL history to post four 80+ point games in a single season. Grand Rapids' 92-point outburst at Kansas City in Week 4 marked the highest total for a road team in AFL history and the second highest point total overall.

Prior to the Rampage, Thonn spent three seasons (2005-07) as the offensive coordinator for the Georgia Force, who compiled a 33-15 regular-season record during that span, made two National Conference Championship appearances and reached ArenaBowl XIX.

Meanwhile, quarterback Chris Greisen, who had thrown just 16 passes in his AFL career entering 2007, connected on a league-record 117 touchdown passes, led the AFL and currently ranks third all-time with a 132.0 quarterback rating, and amassed the second highest passing yards total (4,851) in AFL history.

Prior to joining the Force, Thonn served as the offensive coordinator for the Dallas Desperados from 2003-04, where he helped introduced three-time AFL All-Ironman Team member and 2007 Ironman of the Year Will Pettis to the league.

The Wheaton College graduate was named to the Division III All-America Team in football and played basketball and baseball for the Crusaders from 1980-84, earning a spot in the school's Hall of Honor. Thonn also served as an assistant basketball coach for his alma mater and has coached for Wheaton North (Ill.) High School's varsity football team.

Thonn and his wife, Pam, have a daughter, Jaimee, and a son, Corey.

RON SELESKY Assistant Head Coach

In 2016, Ron Selesky enters his fifth season with the Gladiators, serving as Director of Player Personnel in 2011 and Assistant Head Coach in 2012 and 2013. Prior to joining Cleveland, Selesky was the Defensive Coordinator/Director of Player Personnel for the Grand Rapids Rampage in 2008 and spent the 2015 season in the CFL in the Saskatchewan RoughRiders' scouting department. He boasts several years of Arena Football experience at both head coaching and assistant coaching positions. He returned to the AFL in 2008 season after serving two years (2006-07) as head coach of arenafootball2's Alabama Steeldogs.

Selesky began his Arena Football coaching career as the director of player personnel and assistant coach for the AFL's Tampa Bay Storm from 1997-99, helping to lead the team to a 31-11 regular-season record and a 1998 ArenaBowl appearance. He then took his first head coaching position with the af2's Louisville Fire in 2001 and, the following year, earned af2 Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Albany Conquest to a 13-3 regular-season mark and a Northeast Division title.

Upon returning to the AFL in 2003, Selesky led the Buffalo Destroyers as their head coach and director of football operations for one season before the team relocated to Columbus, Ohio. He then joined the Carolina Cobras in 2004, serving as the team's defensive coordinator before taking the reins as an interim head coach for the team's final six games. Selesky rejoined the Columbus Destroyers in 2005, serving as defensive coordinator for one year before returning to the af2 and the Steeldogs.

Selesky also spent several years as a lineman at both the collegiate and professional levels. He played his college ball at North Central College, where he lined up against Wheaton College graduate and current Gladiators head coach Steve Thonn.

Selesky went on to play in two games for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings in 1987, and attended training camps with the San Diego Chargers in 1988, the Miami Dolphins in 1990, and the Detroit Lions in 1992. He also spent three years (1995-97) as a scout for ProQuest Management.

The Brunswick, N.J., native and his wife, Michelle, have three children: Erin, Madelyn and Brandt.
