2016 GAME SUMMARIES

Game 1

Philadelphia Soul 69, Cleveland Gladiators 41

In the first of four meetings between the two teams, the Philadelphia Soul cruised to a 69-41 opening night victory over the Cleveland Gladiators in front of 12,944 fans at Quicken Loans Arena. Philadelphia quarterback Dan Raudabaugh threw for 233 yards and seven touchdowns with wide receivers Darius Reynolds and Shaun Kauleinamoku hauling in three touchdowns apiece. Gladiators defensive back Joe Powell returned two interceptions for touchdowns in the loss.

Philadelphia opened up the scoring as Raudabaugh found wide receivers Ryan McDaniel and Reynolds for two scores to put the Soul up 14-0 early in the first quarter. The Soul would then capitalize on a Gladiators turnover as Raudabaugh found Kauleinamoku for his first touchdown of the night, a five-yarder, as the visitors quickly built a 21-0 lead.

The Gladiator offense would respond as Dieker would find wide receiver Dominick Goodman for a six-yard score to close the gap to 21-7 at the close of the first quarter.

The Soul offense would strike back early in the second when Raudabaugh would again find Reynolds in the end zone for an 18-yard touchdown. Kicker Tommy Frevert's extra point would extend the Soul lead to 28-7. Philadelphia would hit pay dirt on the ensuing two Cleveland drives when jack linebacker Joe Goosby and defensive back Dwayne Hollis would pick off Dieker passes and return them for Soul touchdowns, increasing their lead to 42-7 with 7:25 remaining in the first half.

The Gladiators would build some momentum with a couple scores late in the second quarter as wide receiver Collin Taylor hauled in his first touchdown of the season, a 18-yarder from Dieker. That, followed by the first interception return for a touchdown by Powell, a 13-yarder, trimmed the Philadelphia lead to 42-21. The Soul would, however, close out the first half with two scores, a 32-yard strike from Raudabaugh to Kauleinamoku, and a 26-yard interception return for a touchdown by defensive back Tracy Belton to go into the half on top, 55-21.

The Cleveland offense got off to a fast start in the second half, as the Gladiators capped off a three-play, 22-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run on a sweep by wide receiver Larry Beavers. That was followed by Powell's 45-yard interception return for a touchdown, his second of the night, which shrank the deficit to 55-34 after kicker Adrian Trevino's extra point.

Cleveland Gladiators 41, Tampa Bay Storm 29

In the first of two meetings between the teams, the Gladiators outlasted the Tampa Bay Storm on Saturday night, 41-29, in front of 11,892 fans at Quicken Loans Arena. The Gladiators were led by defensive back Joe Powell who, for the second time in as many games, intercepted two passes, including the game-winner in which he returned 52 yards for a touchdown. Quarterback Dennis Havrilla led the way on the offensive side of the ball, throwing for 219 yards and five touchdowns in his debut with the Gladiators, while Thyron Lewis surpassed 5,000 career receiving yards in the game, catching ten passes for 94 yards and two touchdowns.

After a Gladiators turnover on the opening kickoff, Tampa Bay used four plays to go 17 yards capped off with a two-yard touchdown run by quarterback Adam Kennedy. A missed extra point by kicker Craig Peterson put Tampa Bay up 6-0 early. After another turnover on the ensuing possession, the Storm marched 43 yards on eight plays finished off by an 18-yard strike from Kennedy to wide receiver Phillip Barnett. Peterson would miss the extra point once again, making the score 12-0 Tampa Bay at the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter saw the momentum shift toward the direction of the Gladiators as Havrilla finished off a six-play, 42 yard drive by finding wide receiver Thyron Lewis for a nine-yard score. On the next possession, jack linebacker Arvell Nelson picked off a Kennedy pass to set up first and goal from the four. On the next play, Havrilla found wide receiver Collin Taylor for the score.

On the next drive, Kennedy would be picked off by Powell, his first of two interceptions on the night. The Cleveland offense would give it right back a few plays later when Havrilla was picked off by Tampa Bay defensive back Cortez Stubbs to close the first half of play.

The Storm would respond to open the second half as quarterback Jonathan Bane, filling in for the injured Kennedy, found wide receiver V'Keon Lacey for an eight-yard touchdown to give Tampa Bay back the lead, 19-14. The Gladiators would answer quickly as Havrilla hit a wide open Taylor for his second touchdown of the game, a 19-yard to give Cleveland the lead once more, 21-19. Tampa Bay's offense would counter again with Bane finding Lacey for a three-yard touchdown at the end of the third quarter to put the Storm back in front, 26-21.

The lead exchanges would continue into the fourth quarter as Havrilla would hit Lewis for his second touchdown of the night, a 19-yarder, as the Gladiators reclaimed the lead, 28-26. The Storm's next drive would stall out at the Cleveland 10-yard line, leaving Peterson to boot a 25-yard field goal to give Tampa Bay a 29-28 lead with 3:46 left to play.

Havrilla would hook up with Taylor for the third time in the game for a 26-yard touchdown to give the Gladiators another lead, 34-29 with just under a minute left in the ball game. On Tampa Bay's final drive, Bane's desperation pass to the end zone with nine seconds left was picked off again by Powell and returned for the game-sealing touchdown.

Los Angeles KISS 47, Cleveland Gladiators 42

In front of 12,243 fans at Quicken Loans Arena, the Gladiators fell in the first of two meetings with the Los Angeles KISS by a score of 47-42, dropping Cleveland's record to 1-2. KISS quarterback Nathan Stanley threw for 191 yards and four touchdowns while wide receiver D.J. Stephens caught 12 passes for 109 and two touchdowns. Gladiators wide receiver Collin Taylor racked up 13 receptions for 101 yards and three touchdowns in the defeat.

The KISS got the scoring started when defensive back Rayshaun Kizer picked off a Dennis Havrilla pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown putting Los Angeles on top 7-0 early in the first quarter. After Gladiators kicker Adrian Trevino missed a 31-yard field goal attempt on the next drive, the KISS offense sputtered themselves, turning the ball over on downs and setting up the Gladiators offense on the KISS nine-yard line. Havrilla capitalized on the very next play to start the second quarter, finding Taylor in the back of the end zone for his first of three scores to even things up at 7.

The Los Angeles offense would respond, as Stanley would find wide receiver Donovan Morgan for a 14-yard hook up. On the ensuing kickoff, Goessling booted the ball off the crossbar leading to a fortuitous bounce and a Los Angeles recovery. Morgan would score again on a sweep from one-yard out to extend the KISS lead to 20-7 with 8:23 remaining in the second quarter. The Cleveland offense answered, marching 45 yards on six plays, capped by Havrilla finding Taylor for his second touchdown of the night and trimming the deficit to 20-14. After a failed onside kick by the Gladiators, Stanley would be intercepted in the end zone by defensive back Brandon Stephens and returned 49 yards to the KISS nine-yard line. The Gladiators would score on the next play, as Havrilla found offensive lineman D.J. Brandel on a screen for the score. Trevino's extra point gave the Gladiators the lead for the first time on the night, 21-20. Once again, the KISS responded quickly as Stanley found Morgan for a 27-yard gain before fullback Rory Nixon scored from six yards out to reclaim the lead for Los Angeles, 26-21, heading into halftime.

Los Angeles opened up the scoring in the second half when Stanley found Stephens for a six-yard strike, extending their lead to 33-21. On the next drive, however, Taylor would find pay dirt for the third time on the night when Havrilla hit him for a quick four-yard score to pull within 33-28. After the KISS turned the ball over on downs for the second time of the night, Havrilla plunged into the end zone from one yard out to give the Gladiators the lead. A Havrilla to wide receiver Dominick Goodman two-point conversion made the score 36-33 in favor of the Gladiators with 12:31 remaining in the game.

The KISS jumped back on top on their next drive as Stanley capped off an eight-play 44 yard drive with an 11-yard touchdown strike to wide receiver Brandon Collins, making the score 40-36 with 6:16 remaining in the contest. On the ensuing possession for the Gladiators, Havrilla was picked off by defensive back Fred Obi leading to a 19-yard throw and catch touchdown from Stanley to Stephens, extending the lead to 47-36 with 3:06 to play in the game.

Philadelphia Soul 67, Cleveland Gladiators 50

In their first road contest of the season, the Cleveland Gladiators started fast but ultimately fell to the Philadelphia Soul Saturday afternoon in front of 7,057 fans at Wells Fargo Center, 67-50. Soul quarterback Dan Raudabaugh threw for 315 yards and eight touchdowns while wide receiver Darius Reynolds hauled in ten passes for 114 yards and three scores. Wide receivers Thyron Lewis, Collin Taylor, and Quentin Sims each found the end zone in the Gladiators loss.

The Gladiators opened the scoring with a three-play 35 yard drive, capped off by a two-yard scoring draw from quarterback Dennis Havrilla. On the ensuing possession, Raudabaugh would answer for the Soul, finding wide receiver Shaun Kauleinamoku for a nine-yard touchdown to even the score, 7-7. On the following drive the Cleveland offense, set-up by a 27-yard catch and run from Phillipkeith Manley, pulled ahead 14-7 on another Havrilla touchdown run, this time from one-yard out to reclaim the lead 14-7.

Raudabaugh and the Soul offense would recover as wide receiver Ryan McDaniel was left all alone in the end zone for a six-yard touchdown catch. However, another missed extra point from Clarke kept it a two-score game, 28-19. After a Gladiators turnover on downs, Raudabaugh would find Reynolds in the back corner of the end zone for his first of three touchdowns, an 11-yarder, to close the gap to 28-26 at the end of the half.

The Soul received the second-half kick-off and only took two plays to get in the end zone, as Raudabaugh connected with Reynolds for a 13-yard score, his second of the game, to give Philadelphia its first lead of the game. A third missed extra point made the score 32-28. The lead didn't last long as Havrilla would hook up with Lewis for a 35-yard score, giving the Gladiators the lead once again, 35-32.

On the following drive, Reynolds would find pay dirt for the third time, a six-yarder from Raudabaugh, to give the lead back to the Soul, 39-35 with 6:05 left in the third quarter. After Havrilla was intercepted by jack linebacker Joe Goosby on the next drive, the Soul would score once again as Richardson would plunge into the end zone from two-yards out, his second score of the game, increasing their lead to 46-35 with 1:50 left in the third quarter.

With Havrilla leaving the game due to injury on the interception, jack linebacker Arvell Nelson stepped under center and hit Sims for his first catch and touchdown as a Gladiator, a 16-yarder. The Soul responded on the next possession, with Raudabaugh tossing a six-yard touchdown pass to McDaniel to bump their lead to 53-43 with 10:29 left. Nelson would answer quickly, finding Taylor on the first play of the ensuing drive for a 35-yard touchdown. Kicker Adrian Trevino's extra point pulled Cleveland to within 53-50 with 9:02 remaining.

That was as close as the Gladiators would get as Raudabaugh would cap the scoring with touchdown throws of seven and 45 yards to Kauleinamoku and wide receiver Chris Duvall, respectively, resulting in the 67-50 Philadelphia victory.

Orlando Predators 76, Cleveland Gladiators 56

In front of 13,429 fans, the team's largest home crowd of the year, the Cleveland Gladiators were defeated by the undefeated Orlando Predators (5-0) on Friday at The Q by a final score of 76-56. With the loss, the Gladiators fell to 1-4 on the season and remain alone in third place in the AFL's National Conference standings.

The Predators capped a three-play scoring drive with an eight-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Randy Hippeard to Brandon Thompkins early in the opening quarter before the Gladiators tied the game on their next possession on a three-yard touchdown rush by Larry Beavers. Orlando re-claimed the lead late in the first quarter with another Hippeard to Thompkins touchdown throw, but Beavers provided Cleveland with another response with just under five minutes remaining in the quarter by returning the ensuing kickoff 57 yards for the Gladiators' first kickoff-return touchdown of the season.

The Predators continued Friday's see-saw first half with a 28-yard touchdown toss from Hippeard to Thompkins before Cleveland capped the quarter with a 30-yard touchdown connection from Northeast Ohio native Arvell Nelson to Collin Taylor, marking Taylor's 21st-consecutive game with at least one touchdown reception. Orlando reclaimed the lead late in the second quarter on a fumble return for a touchdown, before Nelson completed a four-yard touchdown pass to Quentin Sims to again draw the Gladiators even on the scoreboard. With just over three minutes remaining in the second quarter, Hippeard and Thompkins connected again to pull the Predators ahead by a score of 34-28, but Nelson found a familiar target in veteran wideout Dominick Goodman with just under two minutes remaining in the half to put Cleveland in front 35-34 after a successful Adrian Trevino PAT.

The first half's scoring was far from over, however, as a two-yard rushing touchdown from Thompkins put Orlando up 41-35 with just 34 seconds remaining in the second quarter, but yet again, Nelson and the Gladiators punched back, as the Glenville native striped a touchdown pass into the hands of Sims to put Cleveland up 42-41 with just 17 seconds left in the half. The Gladiators stayed hot to start the third quarter, as Nelson and Taylor hooked up for a 23-yard TD pass to make it 49-41 before Thompkins registered his sixth TD of the game on a 56-yard touchdown return of the ensuing kickoff for Orlando just under five minutes into the third to draw the Predators back within just one point at 49-48. After Nelson threw his first interception of the game in the GEICO Blue Zone with just over six minutes to go in the third quarter, Hippeard completed a 45-yard touchdown strike, again to Thompkins, to give the Predators a 55-49 advantage.

A lengthy Gladiators drive ensued, culminating in Nelson's sixth touchdown throw of the night, and third to Taylor, in the third quarter's final minute to, after another successful point after from Trevino, reclaim the edge for Cleveland at 56-55. A 40 yard passing play for the Predators set up a goal-line stand for the Gladiators' defense, but after pushing Orlando to third down, Kippeard connected with offensive lineman Jordan McCray on a one-yard shovel pass for a Predators touchdown, making it 62-56 for the visitors.

Cleveland Gladiators 41, Jacksonville Sharks 40

In front of 8,056 fans at Quicken Loans Arena, the Gladiators defense clamped down on Jacksonville in the second half and quarterback Arvell Nelson found wide receiver Collin Taylor for the game-winning 26-yard touchdown to cap off 20 unanswered points and a 41-40 home victory over the Sharks. Nelson threw for 221 yards and three touchdowns, while rushing for three more in the win. Taylor finished the game with six receptions for 101 yards and two touchdowns. Jacksonville wide receiver Joe Hills finished with 14 receptions for 131 yards and four touchdowns in the loss.

After a Gladiators turnover on downs, the Sharks opened up the scoring when quarterback Tommy Grady hooked up with Hills for an eight-yard touchdown on Jacksonville's opening drive. A missed extra point by kicker Marco Capozzoli gave the Sharks a 6-0 lead to start the game. Cleveland answered on the next possession when Nelson plunged ahead from three-yards out to give the Gladiators the early lead, 7-6. Jacksonville reclaimed the lead when fullback Derrick Ross took a hand-off and ran 23 yards untouched into the end zone, giving the Sharks a 13-7 lead at the end of the first quarter.

On the first drive of the second quarter, Nelson would find pay dirt once again, capping a four-play, 45-yard drive with a sneak from one-yard out to give the Gladiators the lead right back. The Shark offense answered quickly once again when Grady found Hills for his second score of the game, a 14-yarder that put Jacksonville back in front, 19-14. After the Gladiators turned the ball over on downs for the second time of the game, Hills would catch his third touchdown of the game, this time a three-yarder from Grady to extend the Sharks lead to 26-14 going into the half.

On the opening drive of the second half, Grady would find Hills for his fourth touchdown of the night, a 19-yarder to push the Sharks lead to 33-14. The Cleveland offense countered with Nelson's third rushing touchdown of the night, another three-yard scamper to close the deficit to 33-21 with 4:46 remaining in the third quarter. On Jacksonville's ensuing possession, wide receiver Tiger Jones would catch his first touchdown of the night from Grady, a six-yarder that capped off a three-play, 16-yard drive. Cleveland's next drive saw Nelson find Taylor for a 32-yard touchdown, his 22nd consecutive game with a touchdown, to pull the Gladiators to within 40-28 as the game entered the fourth and final quarter.

Cleveland's defense would step up and force a Jacksonville turnover on the next series when defensive back Marvin Ross stripped Hills of the ball and pounced on it for the recovery. The Gladiators capitalized seven plays later as Nelson hit wide receiver Quentin Sims for an eight-yard score to close the gap to 40-35 with 8:19 remaining in the game.

The Sharks would turn the ball over on downs on their next possession, setting up the Gladiators offense with a first ten at mid-field with 42 seconds remaining. On the next play, Nelson hit Taylor on the deep fade for a one-handed 24-yard score. A missed two-point conversion would put Cleveland ahead 41-40 with 34 seconds remaining in the contest. Capozzoli's game-winning field goal attempt clanked off the left upright as time expired to secure the Gladiators victory.

Cleveland Gladiators 55, Portland Steel 48 (OT)

The Steel began the scoring when former Gladiator quarterback Shane Austin led a five-play, 47-yard drive capped off with a touchdown to another former Gladiator, wide receiver Tom Gilson for a 21-yard touchdown to put Portland on top 7-0 early. The Gladiators offense responded on the following drive by marching 38 yards in six plays with Arvell Nelson finding wide receiver Quentin Sims for a six-yard score to even things up 7-7. On the ensuing possession, Austin found Gilson once again for a 13-yard score to put the Steel in front 14-7, but a five-yard touchdown run from Nelson saw the first quarter end with the score all tied up, 14-14. After defensive end Curtis Young intercepted Austin on a screen pass attempt on the first drive of the second quarter, Nelson found Sims once again on the following play for a 23-yard score in the corner of the end zone to put the Gladiators in front for the first time on the night, 21-14.

The Gladiators struck again on the next series when Nelson found wide receiver Collin Taylor for a 35-yard touchdown. A missed extra point by kicker Adrian Trevino made the score 27-21 in favor of Cleveland. The next drive for Portland saw an odd turn of events as 6'3", 330 lb. offensive lineman Deveric Gallington took a hand-off from Austin and rumbled to the two yard line before fumbling into the end zone, where fellow offensive lineman John Collins pounced on it for the Steel touchdown after a wild scrum. The extra point by kicker Ernesto Lacayo put Portland back in front, 28-27. Nelson followed that up with another rushing score, this time from eight yards out to put Cleveland on top once again, 34-28, with a minute remaining in the half.

Cleveland would open the second half with the ball but a Nelson fumble on the third play of the drive would give the ball back to the Steel. Portland couldn't capitalize, however, as the Steel offense turned the ball over on downs, leading to a 33-yard strike from Nelson to wide receiver Thyron Lewis to extend the Gladiators lead to 41-28. Portland would turn it over again on the next drive as Austin would be picked off for the second time by Robinson. Robinson would return the interception 45 yards for a Gladiators score, bumping the score to 48-28.

Austin and the Portland offense answered with a six-yard throw-and-catch touchdown to Goard to make the score 48-35 with ten minutes remaining in the game. Nelson would be intercepted on the next two drives, with the first leading to an 11-yard touchdown from Austin to defensive back Christian Wise to trim the Gladiators lead to 48-42. The second interception, made by Wise, led to the Steel offense getting the ball back with under a minute to go. With 2.4 seconds left in the game, Austin would find Goard for a five-yard touchdown as time expired to tie the game. However, an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty pushed the ball back to the 12-yard line, making Lacayo's extra point a 27-yard attempt. The kick pushed wide left, sending the game into overtime.

Gladiators opened up the extra frame on offense. Six plays later, Nelson found Taylor for his second touchdown of the game, a 10-yard strike that put Cleveland back on top 55-48. On Portland's next drive, Austin would be picked off for the fourth time, this time by defensive back Marvin Ross, to seal the 55-48 win.

Cleveland Gladiators 70, Tampa Bay Storm 63 (OT)

The Storm opened the scoring when Boltus hooked up with veteran wide receiver T.T. Toliver for a 31-yard touchdown on Tampa Bay's opening drive. Kicker Delbert Alvarado's extra point gave the Storm an early 7-0 lead. The Gladiators answered right back on the next drive when wide receiver Larry Beavers took a reverse hand-off from Nelson and then, to the defense's surprise, threw a five-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Quentin Sims in the corner of the end zone to even things up at 7 with 9:27 remaining in the opening quarter. After Tampa Bay turned the ball over on downs on the ensuing possession, Nelson found wide receiver Collin Taylor on a quick hit for a six-yard score to give Cleveland their first lead of the night, 13-7 to end the first quarter.

Boltus gave the lead back to the Storm on the first drive of the second quarter by finding wide receiver Phillip Barnett for a 20-yard touchdown, making the score 14-13. Tampa Bay looked to extend their lead after the Gladiators turned the ball over on downs but Boltus' pass on 3rd-and-10 would be picked off by rookie defensive back Jamie Bender and returned 30 yards for the defensive score, giving Cleveland a 20-14 edge. The Storm offense recovered on the next possession when Boltus found offensive lineman Anthony Parker for an 11-yard score, re-claiming the lead once again for Tampa Bay. Alvarado's attempted onside kick on the ensuing kick-off backfired when defensive back Joe Powell recovered and stumbled five yards into the end zone for a Cleveland touchdown.

The seesaw battle continued as the Storm struck again when Boltus found wide receiver Julius Gregory for a 13-yard touchdown to tie the game at 28. However, another failed onside kick attempt set up the Gladiators for a quick score when fullback Phillipkeith Manley took a hand-off from Nelson and scored from four yards out to give Cleveland a 35-28 lead. Sticking with the theme of the first half, Gregory would catch a two-yard touchdown from Boltus on the final play of the half to again even the score at 35 going into the break.

The teams traded touchdowns to open the second half when Nelson tossed a 22-yard touchdown to Sims and Boltus finding Toliver for a 23-yard strike. Then, after Nelson scored again, this time on a run from three yards out, Boltus hit Toliver for his third touchdown of the night: this time, a 20-yarder to tie the game up at 49 with 11:29 remaining in the game. The following drive saw Cleveland's offense turn it over for the first time when Nelson was picked off by defensive back Cortez Stubbs. Six plays later, Boltus plunged into the end zone from one-yard out to give Tampa Bay the lead, 56-49, with 4:34 remaining in the game.

Nelson and the Gladiators offense responded, as Taylor snared a 30-yard touchdown reception at the wall despite being blanketed by coverage, his second of the game, to tie it up once again at 56 with 2:47 remaining in the contest. On the next drive, Boltus connected with Gregory for his third touchdown of the game, a 33-yarder, to give the Storm a 63-56 lead with 54 seconds remaining. Taylor came up big on the next drive, catching a 12-yard touchdown pass, his third of the game, to send the game into overtime tied at 63.

On the first drive of overtime, Nelson connected with Beavers for a 24-yard score to give the Gladiators the lead, 70-63. On Tampa's possession, defensive back Marvin Ross came through for the second time in as many weeks, intercepting Boltus to seal the game and the victory.

Cleveland Gladiators 63, Philadelphia Soul 49

In front of 11,278 fans at Quicken Loans Arena for Military Salute Night, the Cleveland Gladiators defeated the Philadelphia Soul on Saturday night 63-49. The win improves Cleveland's record to 5-4 as they sit in second place in the National Conference. Quarterback Arvell Nelson threw for 307 yards and seven touchdowns in the win while wide receiver Quentin Sims caught 10 passes for 114 yards and three touchdowns. For the third game in a row Marvin Ross intercepted a pass, a 19-yarder, that he returned for a touchdown to essentially seal the win for the Gladiators. Philadelphia's quarterback Dan Raudabaugh threw for 342 yards, seven touchdowns, and an interception in the loss.

After Raudabaugh found wide receiver Shaun Kauleinamoku on the first play of the game for a 40-yard gain to set up first-and-goal from the four yard line, Cleveland's defense stood tall and forced a turnover on downs. Five plays later, Nelson found wide receiver Collin Taylor for a 10-yard scoring strike as the Gladiators jumped out to an early 7-0 lead. The Soul responded on the next drive when Raudabaugh found wide receiver Ryan McDaniel in the corner of the end zone for a 24-yard touchdown to even things up, 7-7. On the ensuing possession, Nelson found wide receiver Larry Beavers on a quick slant for a 49-yard touchdown. Philadelphia countered with two scores, a 29-yard throw-and-catch from Raudabaugh to wide receiver Darius Reynolds, and an 11-yard throw-and-catch from Raudabaugh to Kauleinamoku after a Beavers fumble to give the Soul their first lead, 21-14.

Cleveland struck again quickly on the next series when Nelson found Sims for an incredible 39-yard, one-handed touchdown grab along the wall to even the score again at 21-21 early in the second quarter. After a Soul turnover on downs, Nelson found Sims once again on a jump ball in the corner of the end zone for a four-yard touchdown, re-claiming the lead for the Gladiators 28-21 with 7:43 remaining in the first half. It didn't take long for the Soul to answer, though, as Raudabaugh hit Reynolds for his second touchdown of the night on the next possession, a 37-yarder to tie it up once again, 28-28. But it was the Sims show in the second quarter, as Nelson converted on 4th-and-9 and hit Sims for this third touchdown of the game, a 14-yarder to push Cleveland ahead 35-28 at the break.

The Gladiators opened up the second half by driving 38 yards on three plays, capped off by a 26-yard touchdown pass from Nelson to Beavers. Philadelphia quickly answered when Raudabaugh hit McDaniel on a 10-yard out to cut the Cleveland lead to 42-35 with 9:37 remaining in the third quarter. After a failed onside kick attempt from the Soul, the Gladiators scored two plays later when fullback Phillipkeith Manley rumbled into the end zone, extending the Cleveland lead to 49-35. After McDaniel caught his third touchdown of the night on the next possession, Nelson would answer with a 16-yard strike of his own to Taylor, his second touchdown of the game, to again extend the Cleveland lead to 56-42 at the end of three quarters.

Raudabaugh would keep the Soul within striking distance, hitting Reynolds for his third touchdown of the game on a four-yard connection cut into the Gladiators lead, 56-49. After a Cleveland turnover on downs, the Soul offense took the field only to see Raudabaugh get sacked twice and then throw an interception to Ross on 4th-and-22. Ross returned the pick 19 yards for the score, driving the Gladiators lead back up to 63-49.

Arizona Rattlers 77, Cleveland Gladiators 62

It was the Gladiators who got on the board first when Nelson found wide receiver Collin Taylor in the corner of the end zone for a 17-yard touchdown pass, giving Cleveland the early 7-0 lead. The touchdown extended Taylor's streak to 26 straight games hitting pay dirt. The former Arena Football League MVP Davila answered on the next series, finding Windsor for a 22-yard touchdown, tying the game 7-7. On the next drive, Nelson capped off a 10-play, 45-yard drive that took up 7:55 of the first quarter, by connecting with Sims on an impressive one-handed, two-yard touchdown catch up against the back wall, giving the Gladiators the lead once again, 14-7.

The Rattlers responded again on the first drive of the second quarter when Davila hooked up with wide receiver Maurice Purify for a 12-yard scoring strike to even up the score once again, 14-14. Cleveland kept the score-trading trend going when Nelson found wide receiver Devin Wilson for his first career catch, a 22-yard touchdown on fourth-and-10 to push the Gladiators back in front of Arizona, 21-14, with 6:46 remaining in the half. Windsor caught his second touchdown pass of the game on the ensuing possession for Arizona, a 2-yard strike from Davila to once again knot the score up at 21-21. After a failed onside kick attempt from kicker Alex Zendejas, Nelson hit Sims on the following play for an eight-yard touchdown. Kicker Adrian Trevino's extra point pushed Cleveland in front 28-21 with 1:50 left in the first half.

The Rattlers quickly answered as Davila hit wide receiver Chase Deadder on a 32-yard touchdown on the first play of their next series, evening things up at 28. After another failed onside kick attempt from Zendejas, Nelson would connect with offensive lineman D.J. Brandel for a nine-yard touchdown. After another failed onside kick attempt from Trevino this time, Davila and Windsor hooked up for Windsor's third touchdown of the game giving Arizona their first lead of the game, 35-34 with 44 seconds remaining in the half. However, yet another failed onside kick led to another Cleveland touchdown as Nelson completed a 12-yard pass to Sims, leading to a score and a 41-35 Gladiators lead with 28 seconds left to play in the second quarter. Arizona concluded first-half scoring with a touchdown pass from Davila to fullback Mykel Benson.

Arizona started fast in second half when Davila threw a 19-yard touchdown strike to Purify, his second of the game to increase the Rattler lead to 49-41. After the teams traded turnovers on downs, Nelson found Taylor for his second touchdown of the game, a 23-yarder to close the gap to 49-48 with 4:47 left in the third quarter. On the next series, a bubble screen from Davila saw Windsor scamper 16 yards into the end zone to extend the Rattlers lead to 56-48.

Benson would tack on two more touchdown runs in the fourth quarter to distance themselves from the Gladiators, 70-48, with 11:20 remaining in the contest. The Gladiators would end that run when wide receiver Larry Beavers scored on a reverse to close the Rattler lead to 70-55. The Rattlers would tack on one final score when Davila found offensive lineman Michael Simons on fourth down for a 17-yard screen for a touchdown, once again extending their lead to 77-55 with 2:30 remaining in the game.

Orlando Predators 59, Cleveland Gladiators 56

In front of 11,117 fans at the Amway Center, the Cleveland Gladiators fell on Saturday night to the Orlando Predators on a late field goal, 59-56. With the loss the Gladiators record drops to 5-6 on the season where they remain in second place in the National Conference. Quarterback Arvell Nelson threw for 296 yards and eight touchdowns in the loss, with wide receiver Quentin Sims catching eight passes for 108 yards and four touchdowns. Predators quarterback Randy Hippeard threw for 316 yards and four scores and ran in two more touchdowns in the win, with wide receivers Brandon Thompkins and Greg Carr each catching two scores.

Orlando jumped out to a quick 7-0 lead after a one-yard touchdown run from Hippeard. Then, following a Gladiators turnover, a 26-yard touchdown pass from Hippeard to wide receiver Brandon Thompkins gave the Predators an early 14-0 advantage. Cleveland got on the board on the first play of the next drive when Nelson found wide receiver Larry Beavers for a 37-yard touchdown to pull to 14-7. The Predators answered right back, scoring on the first play of their next possession, a 32-yard strike from Hippeard to Thompkins, extending the Orlando lead to 21-7.

In the second quarter, Nelson connected with wide receiver Devin Wilson on fourth down for a 14-yard touchdown, closing the gap to 21-14. The Predators answered when Hippeard rushed for his second touchdown of the night, a 11-yarder to push their lead to 28-14. Nelson and the Gladiators followed suit when Nelson found wide receiver Quentin Sims for a six-yard touchdown, once again shrinking the Orlando lead to 28-21. However, just before halftime, Hippeard would hit wide receiver Greg Carr for a two-yard touchdown, sending the Predators to a 35-21 lead at the break.

The Gladiators offense got off to a fast start in the second half when Nelson found wide receiver Collin Taylor for a 33-yard touchdown. After the Cleveland defense recovered an Orlando fumble, the Gladiators were able to capitalize with a four-yard touchdown reception by Sims.

Similar to the previous quarter, Cleveland struck quickly when Nelson hit Sims on a 37-yard touchdown pass. Orlando responded when wide receiver Greg Carr caught a touchdown from Hippeard, giving the Predators a 49-42 lead. Sims continued to light up the scoreboard, as Nelson found him with a 30-yard touchdown pass to even the game with 3:44 remaining. The Predators regained the lead after Martinez punched in his second 1-yard rushing touchdown to put Orlando ahead 56-49 in the final minute of play. After a failed onside kick by Orlando, the Gladiators successfully knotted the game on a 4-yard touchdown completion to wide receiver Larry Beavers with 25 seconds left. In the next possession, Predators' kicker Mark Lewis made a 23-yard field goal with just two seconds to go.

Cleveland Gladiators 58, Portland Steel 49

Thanks to a seven-touchdown performance from quarterback Arvell Nelson, the Cleveland Gladiators defeated the Portland Steel in front of 4,516 fans at the Moda Center in Portland, OR on Saturday by a final score of 58-49. With the win, the Gladiators improved to 6-6 on the season and remain alone in second place in the AFL's National Conference standings. Nelson got the scoring started early for Cleveland as the Northeast Ohio native connected with wide receiver Quentin Sims for a 35-yard touchdown early in the first quarter to make it 7-0 Gladiators. Portland responded with a 3-yard TD toss from former Gladiator Shane Austin to wideout Rashaad Carter to tie the game at seven before Cleveland WR Larry Beavers took a 23-yard Nelson pass to the house late in the opening quarter to help the Gladiators claim a 14-7 advantage heading into the second quarter.

Nelson hooked up with wideout Devin Wilson early in the second stanza for a 23-yard scoring strike to make it 21-7 Glads before a one-yard James Shaw touchdown run for the Steel drew Portland within seven at 21-14. Later in the second quarter, Cleveland receiver Collin Taylor hauled in a nine-yard touchdown pass from Nelson to make it 28-14 Gladiators before a two-yard strike from Nelson to Sims gave Cleveland its largest lead of the game at 35-14 with just 18 seconds left in the first half. Portland's Austin orchestrated a buzzer-beating drive late in the second quarter, however, that culminated in a three-yard TD reception for Carter with no time left on the clock that drew the Steel within two scores at the half at 35-21.

In the third quarter, Portland started quickly with a 23-yard Austin-to-Shaw TD pass that drew the Steel within a touchdown at 35-28, but Nelson and Taylor hooked up for a 15-yard TD strike shortly thereafter to put the Gladiators back up by 14 points. Portland's Austin and Carter then connected for the third time in the game to make it 42-35 Cleveland before the Gladiators closed out the third quarter with a 14-yard Nelson-to-Devin connection that made it 48-35 Glads heading into the final frame.

In the first minute of the fourth quarter, Gladiators DB Marvin Ross delivered the defensive play of the game when he returned an Austin interception 42 yards to the house to claim a 55-35 lead for Cleveland. Portland hung tough though, as back-to-back touchdown passes from Austin, to Shaw and Jared Perry respectively, drew the Steel within six points at 55-49 before another Austin pick paved the way for a 22-yard Adrian Trevino field goal, the Gladiators kicker's first field goal conversion of the season, that iced a 58-49 Gladiators victory with 1:19 remaining in regulation.

Nelson completed 21 of 35 passes for 249 yards and seven touchdown passes while Taylor extended his franchise-record streak of now 28 consecutive games with at least one touchdown catch by virtue of 90 receiving yards on eight receptions with a pair of touchdown grabs to his credit. Sims finished with eight catches of his own for 83 yards and two scores while Cleveland WR Devin Wilson hauled in two catches for 38 yards and two scores. Additionally, Larry Beavers' two receptions resulted in 32 yards and one touchdown for Cleveland as well.

Cleveland Gladiators 48, Jacksonville Sharks 47

Thanks to six total touchdowns from QB Arvell Nelson, five combined touchdown receptions from WR's Collin Taylor and Devin Wilson and three turnovers forced by their defense, the Cleveland Gladiators defeated the Jacksonville Sharks by a final score of 48-47 on Saturday in front of 10,645 fans at Jacksonville Veterans Memorial Arena in Jacksonville, FL. With the win, the Gladiators swept the Sharks in the two teams' two-game season series, have won six of their past eight games, are now 7-6 on the year and remain alone in second place in the AFL's National Conference standings.

Nelson and Taylor opened the scoring by connecting on a seven-yard touchdown strike early in the first quarter before Jacksonville QB Tommy Grady sailed a 42-yard TD pass into the hands of Sharks WR Joe Hills on the ensuing possession to tie the game at seven. After a one-yard Nelson rush made it 13-7 Gladiators, the Sharks tied the game on a four-yard TD pass from Grady to Hills at the start of the second quarter.

Cleveland DB Joe Phinisee returned a fumble by Grady for the Gladiators' league-best ninth defensive score of the season on the ensuing Jacksonville possession and led 20-13 before a 33-yard Nelson-to-Taylor scoring strike with 41 seconds remaining in the half gave Cleveland their largest lead at 27-13. The catch was Taylor's 400th career AFL grab and the Indiana native's 100th career AFL TD catch.

The Sharks proceeded to rattle off 27 straight points to take a 40-27 lead before Nelson and Devin Wilson hooked up for a 12-yard score early in the fourth quarter to make it 40-34 until Jacksonville WR London Crawford found the end zone on a one-yard TD run that made it 47-34 with less than eight minutes remaining in the game. With time winding down in the fourth quarter, Nelson and Wilson struck again, this time for a 25-yard bomb with less than six minutes left to draw within one score at 47-41.

Then, with just 47 seconds left in regulation, Nelson and Wilson combined for Wilson's third TD grab of the game, a four-yard connection, to put the Gladiators on top 48-47, but left former AFL MVP Grady and Jacksonville with plenty of time with which to work. After the Sharks marched all the way to the Cleveland two-yard line on the ensuing possession, Phinisee iced the win with his second fumble recovery of the game with just ten seconds left to play to deliver the Gladiators a one-point victory.

Philadelphia Soul 83, Cleveland Gladiators 62

Despite 404 passing yards and eight total touchdowns from QB Arvell Nelson, the Cleveland Gladiators fell to the Philadelphia Soul in a Week 15 road clash in front of 5,593 fans on Saturday at the PPL Center in Allentown, PA. With the loss, the Gladiators are now 7-7 on the season and remain alone in second place in the AFL's National Conference standings.

Soul QB Dan Raudabaugh started the scoring with a two-yard TD pass to OL/TE Adam Smith mid-way through the first quarter before a missed Philly extra point gave way to Cleveland's first score, a 10-yard Nelson to Collin Taylor hookup that extended Taylor's franchise-record streak to 30 consecutive games with at least one touchdown catch. Philadelphia's Jeramie Richardson capped the first-quarter scoring with a one-yard touchdown run to make it 13-7 Soul heading into the second.

The Gladiators responded with a 34-yard bomb to start to second quarter from Nelson to WR Quentin Sims that, after an unsuccessful extra point try, left the game tied at 13 apiece. Another Richardson TD scamper made it 20-13 Philadelphia with just under 12 minutes left in the first half before Cleveland WR Devin Wilson hauled in a 24-yard scoring strike from Nelson to tie the game at 20. A 37-yard Soul TD pass from Raudabaugh to Darius Reynolds put Philly back in front with eight minutes left in the second before the Glads once again pulled even on a one-yard Larry Beavers TD run with less than five minutes to go in the half.

After Philadelphia parlayed a successful onside kick attempt into 14 more first half points, the Soul scored their third unanswered TD on the first possession of the third quarter on a 10-yard Raudabaugh-to-Shaun Kauleinamoku connection that pushed the Soul edge to three scores at 48-27. A 12-yard TD grab from Taylor, courtesy of Nelson, cut the Philly advantage to 14 points with 10 minutes left in the third quarter, but the Soul rattled off two more unanswered touchdowns to claim their largest lead, a 28-point edge, at 62-34.

In the fourth quarter, a 35-yard Nelson-to-Beavers bomb started things in the right direction for Cleveland to make it 62-41, before Raudabaugh connected with Reynolds for a five-yard score. The Gladiators benefitted from back-to-back eight-yard Nelson touchdown passes, to Wilson and Sims respectively, to get back to within two touchdowns at 69-55, but the Soul posted two of the game's final three scores to claim victory by the final score of 83-62.

With the win, Philadelphia claimed the four-game season series vs. the Gladiators three games to one, while Raudabaugh finished the game completing all but one of 21 pass attempts for 335 yards and eight touchdowns. Sims led the way for the Gladiators' receiving corps with 128 receiving yards on 10 catches for two scores, barely outpacing another big performance from Taylor (10 catches, 101 yards, two TD's).

Los Angeles KISS 63, Cleveland Gladiators 61

Despite eight total touchdowns from QB Arvell Nelson, the Cleveland Gladiators were defeated by the LA KISS on Saturday in front of 8,069 fans at the Honda Center in Anaheim, Calif., by a final score of 63-61. With the loss, the Gladiators fell to 7-8 on the season and currently sit alone in third place in the AFL's National Conference standings.

Nelson started the scoring for the Gladiators with a 19-yard strike to WR Quentin Sims early in the first quarter before LA tied the game at seven thanks to a six-yard touchdown pass from QB Nathan Stanley to KISS WR Donovan Morgan shortly thereafter. Later in the frame, Nelson delivered a three-yard rushing TD before Stanley connected with Morgan once more to knot things up at 14 apiece. Cleveland WR Collin Taylor had the last opening-quarter laugh, however, as the Indiana native reeled in a 28-yard TD heave from Nelson as time expired in the first to extend his franchise-record streak to 31 straight games with at least one touchdown reception.

In the second quarter, Stanley connected with OL/TE Colin Madison on a four-yard TD pass to tie the game at 21 before Nelson and Sims combined on a seven-yard pitch-and-catch to deliver the Gladiators a 28-21 advantage. However, LA once again rallied to tie the game as Stanley and wideout DJ Stephens hooked up for an 11-yard score with just seconds remaining in the half.

In the third and early fourth quarters, LA rattled off 21 unanswered points before Nelson hit Sims for another passing TD, this one from 15 yards out, to start a Gladiators comeback at 49-34 midway through the final stanza. After a successful onside kick attempt, Nelson launched a 38-yard bomb, again to Sims, to continue the rally before an eight-yard passing score from LA's Stanley to Morgan stopped the bleeding for the KISS and pushed LA's edge to 56-41. The ensuing drive resulted in a one-yard Nelson QB sneak that made it 56-48 and led to another successful onside kick that was batted all the way inside the KISS 10-yard line before it was scooped up by Cleveland rookie DL Nick Seither, who took it to the house, hoisting the Glads to within a single score at 56-54.

LA recovered the ensuing onside kick attempt though and benefitted from Stanley's eighth TD pass of the night with less than one minute remaining in the game, a seven-yard connection to Stephens, and, after a 19-yard Nelson to Sims hookup for Cleveland, the KISS held on for a dramatic 63-61 victory.

Nelson finished with 21 completions on 31 pass attempts for 332 yards and eight total touchdowns (two rushing), while Sims paced the Gladiators' receiving corps with 12 catches for 197 yards and five touchdowns and Taylor supplied four grabs for 81 yards and one score.

Arizona Rattlers 68, Cleveland Gladiators 20

In the team's final game of the 2016 AFL regular season, the Cleveland Gladiators were defeated by the Arizona Rattlers on Sunday at Talking Stick Resort Arena in Phoenix, Ariz., by a final score of 68-20 in front of 12,823 fans. With the loss, the Gladiators finished the campaign at 7-9 to end the year in third place in the AFL's National Conference standings. Cleveland will face the second-place LA KISS on the road in the first round of the AFL Postseason on August 6th with the time of the game currently TBD.

After the Rattlers registered a safety on the Gladiators' first play from scrimmage, Arizona's Anthony Amos returned the ensuing Cleveland kickoff 56 yards for a touchdown to give the Rattlers a 9-0 edge. Arizona pushed their lead to 15-0 less than five minutes into the game when Rattlers QB Nick Davila connected with WR Rod Windsor for an 11-yard touchdown strike.

The Gladiators responded with a 16-yard touchdown pass from QB Arvell Nelson to WR Larry Beavers to make it a one-score game, but multiple Cleveland turnovers led to 20 unanswered Arizona points to make it 35-7 Rattlers late in the second quarter. With just over two minutes remaining before halftime, the Gladiators' offense perked up and delivered a 16-yard Nelson touchdown toss to wideout Collin Taylor that extended Taylor's franchise-record streak to 32 consecutive games with at least one touchdown reception. Arizona added a late second quarter Davila-to-Windsor score, however, to take a 42-14 lead into halftime.

From the start of the third quarter into the early stages of the final frame, Arizona piled up three more unanswered scores to make it 61-14 before Taylor reeled in another Gladiators TD, this time from backup QB Stephen Panasuk, to make it 61-20. The touchdown pass was Panasuk's first in his AFL career and it came with just 6:05 remaining in the game. A nine-yard TD pass from backup signal-caller Shane Boyd to Windsor with 2:30 remaining in the fourth quarter was the cherry on top for Arizona in a 68-20 Rattlers victory.

Nelson threw for 155 yards on 13-of-34 passing with two touchdowns, while Taylor led all Cleveland receivers with six receptions for 88 yards and two scores and Beavers caught five balls for 71 yards and one TD. On the other side, Davila turned in a 223-yard performance on 20-of-25 passing with six touchdowns and one interception, hauled in by Gladiators DB Joe Powell in the first half. Arizona's Windsor reeled in seven catches for 75 yards and five scores while Amos led all Rattler receivers with 96 yards on six receptions. Arizona WR Maurice Purify was solid as well, catching five passes for 57 yards and two touchdowns.

Cleveland Gladiators 56, LA KISS 52

In round one of the 2016 AFL Postseason, the Cleveland Gladiators defeated the LA KISS on Sunday in front of 4,269 fans at Valley View Casino Center in San Diego, CA by a final score of 56-52. With the win, the Gladiators advanced to the 2016 National Conference Championship Game vs. the Arizona Rattlers with the opening kickoff set for 9:30 pm EST on Saturday, August 13th at Talking Stick Resort Arena in Phoenix, AZ with a trip to ArenaBowl XXIX on the line.

The Gladiators took a 6-0 lead early in the first quarter when Cleveland QB Arvell Nelson connected with FB P.K. Manley for a 21-yard score before LA tied the game on a two-yard Rory Nixon rushing touchdown less than one minute later. Just 43 seconds after that, Cleveland's Larry Beavers returned the ensuing kickoff 58 yards for a touchdown and on the very next KISS drive, LA QB Nathan Stanley was intercepted by Glads DB Joe Powell in the end zone before Powell scampered 50 yards for a touchdown to make it 20-6 Cleveland.

Stanley connected with LA WR Donovan Morgan on a 44-yard pitch-and-catch to start the second quarter to make it 20-12 Gladiators before a long scoring drought ended with a four-yard Stanley-to-D.J. Stephens pass that drew the KISS within a point at 20-19 with four minutes remaining in the half. Manley responded with a four-yard rushing score on Cleveland's next possession to make it 27-19 before LA capped the second quarter with a seven-yard Stanley-to-Morgan passing TD made it a one-point game at the half.

In the third quarter, a nine-yard Nixon rushing score for LA led to a 27-yard connection between Stanley and Morgan that made it 39-27 KISS with 3:52 remaining in the frame. The Gladiators got back in it moments later when Nelson found Cleveland WR Collin Taylor in the end zone from 16 yards out to make it 39-34 KISS and extend Taylor's franchise-record streak to 33 consecutive games with at least one touchdown reception.

In the fourth quarter, LA started fast with a two-yard Nixon rushing touchdown that pushed the KISS lead to 46-34 before the Gladiators rattled off three straight scores, starting with a 27-yard Nelson TD strike to Devin Wilson that came on 4th and 15 with less than seven minutes remaining in the game. Cleveland parlayed that momentum into a defensive stop that led to a lengthy drive culminating in a one-yard Nelson rushing touchdown with a successful two-point conversion. Beavers added a second special teams score with just 30 seconds remaining in the game when he recovered a Gladiators kickoff off the KISS net and ran it in for a critically-important score. Leading 56-46 in the final minute, Cleveland allowed an inconsequential eight-yard Stanley-to-Fred Williams TD pass, but held on for the victory.

National Conference Championship Arizona Rattlers 82, Cleveland Gladiators 41

In front of 15,103 fans at Talking Stick Resort Arena Saturday night, the Cleveland Gladiators fell to the Arizona Rattlers, 82-41, in the National Conference Championship, ending their 2016 season with an 8-10 overall record. Wide receiver Quentin Sims was a bright spot in the loss, racking up 14 receptions for 172 yards and three touchdowns. Quarterback Arvell Nelson passed for 248 yards and three touchdowns in the defeat. For the Rattlers, quarterback Nick Davila passed for seven touchdowns, with wide receivers Rod Windsor, Maurice Purify, and Anthony Amos each catching three touchdowns. Arizona advances to ArenaBowl XXIX where they will take on the winner of the American Conference Championship game between the Jacksonville Sharks and Philadelphia Soul.

The Rattlers got off to a fast start, jumping out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter after a one-yard touchdown run by fullback Mykel Benson as well as a five-yard scoring strike from Davila to Amos. The Cleveland offense would respond on their next possession when Nelson found Sims for the first of his three touchdowns, a 12-yarder to close the gap to 14-7 at the end of the first quarter.

To open the second quarter, Davila found Windsor for his first touchdown of the night, a 13-yarder to give Arizona a 21-7 lead. On the next drive, defensive back Jeremy Kellem intercepted a Nelson pass and returned it 25 yards for the score, increasing the Rattler lead to 28-7 with 11:19 remaining in the first half. The Gladiators offense would find the end zone on the next series when Nelson connected with Sims once again for a 29-yard throw-and-catch touchdown to trim the Rattlers lead to 28-14.

After two more Rattlers drives resulted in touchdowns to extend the Arizona lead to 42-14, defensive back Joe Powell fielded an onside kick attempt from the Rattlers and waltzed into the end zone for an eight-yard score, once again closing the gap to 42-20. The Rattlers would, however, find the end zone once again when Benson plunged into the end zone from one-yard out, giving Arizona a 48-20 lead heading into the break.

The Gladiators opened the second half with an eight-play, 34-yard drive, capped off with a three-yard touchdown reception by Sims. Kicker Adrian Trevino's extra point made the score 48-27. Arizona answered quickly on the next drive, with Davila hitting Purify for a 24-yard touchdown, giving the Rattlers a 54-27 lead with 8:08 left in the third quarter. Then, as a result of turnovers on each of the next two Cleveland drives, Davila hit Purify and Windsor for two more touchdowns, further extending their lead to 68-27 early in the fourth quarter. The Gladiators never backed down, however, as wide receiver Larry Beavers returned the kickoff 58 yards for a quick Cleveland score. The Gladiators tacked on another score in the form of a 17-yard rushing touchdown from fullback Phillipkeith Manley with 8:15 left in the game, pulling Cleveland to a 68-41 score.

2017 CLEVELAND GLADIATORS BROADCAST TEAM

TONY BROWN - PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCASTER

A 28-year old Rochester, Minnesota native and 2010 graduate of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, Tony Brown is currently in the midst of his second season as the voice of the Arena Football League's Cleveland Gladiators, calling regular-season and postseason action on the radio on 92.3 The Fan in Cleveland, and state-wide on television Fox Sports Ohio and SportsTime Ohio. Brown also serves as the voice of the AHL's Cleveland Monsters on radio and TV, calling all regular-season and playoff action on 99X in Cleveland, with select games simulcast on Fox Sports Ohio, SportsTime Ohio and WUAB CLE 43.

Prior to his time in Cleveland, Brown called games for the expansion Indy Fuel during their inaugural 2014-15 season in the ECHL on CBS Sports 1430 in Indianapolis. Brown spent the 2013-14 campaign broadcasting for the USHL's Omaha Lancers following two years as the radio voice of the NAHL's Odessa (TX) Jackalopes from 2011 to 2013.

Brown spent the summer of 2010 as the inaugural voice of the Northwoods Baseball League's expansion Willmar (MN) Stingers and served as a producer and host at Syracuse, New York's ESPN Radio affiliate

DUSTIN FOX - COLOR COMMENTATOR

Dustin Fox returns for his sixth season providing color commentary for all Cleveland Gladiators home broadcasts. Fox, who can be heard weekdays from 2:00-7:00 p.m. as co-host of 92.3 The Fan's "Bull & Fox" show, brings a wealth of football experience to Gladiators broadcasts.

Fox, a Canton native and graduate of GlenOak high school, was a member of the 2002 Ohio State National Championship football team.

After completing his four years as a starter with the Buckeyes, the defensive back was selected in the third round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

Between 2005 and 2008, Fox played in the NFL with the Vikings, Philadelphia Eagles and Buffalo Bills.

In addition to co-hosting a daily talk show, Fox also serves as an analyst on the Cleveland Browns radio network, working on the pregame and postgame shows.

ADAM THE BULL - FILL-IN PLAY-BY-PLAY VOICE

Entering his second season as the fill-in voice for the Cleveland Gladiators, Adam the Bull has been talking sports on the radio since he was a senior at Sheepshead Bay High School in Brooklyn, NY. His radio career began when he did play by play for a football game that aired on a local college radio station.

In the spring of 1999 The Bull earned his first paid gig as the play-by-play voice of the Batavia Muckdogs of the New York Penn League. During his three summers in Batavia Adam was able to watch as Marlon Byrd, Ryan Madson, Chase Utley and Ryan Howard cut their teeth with the Muckdogs. He graduated from SUNY Brockport in 2000, where he majored in Communications on the broadcasting track.

From 2002-2007 The Bull hosted sports talk shows for several stations in Utica, NY. During his time in central New York, Adam also called football, basketball and hockey games for Utica College and the now defunct UHL team the Mohawk Valley Prowlers. He also did the play-by-play for three Major League Baseball Hall of Fame Games.

In 2007 The Bull returned to NYC to work for Sports Radio 66-WFAN. When he started at WFAN Adam split his time as a host and update anchor for the station. Over the next three years, The Bull was one of the most versatile sports announcers for WFAN in all dayparts.

Adam "The Bull" now begins a new chapter as the afternoon drive host on the new Sports Radio 92.3 The Fan. Within a week of being in town Adam knew that Cleveland had the kind of fans that could match his passion for sports. He is excited to be able to talk sports five days a week with the people of Northeast Ohio.

A native New Yorker, Adam was born and raised in Brooklyn. He is a die-hard fan of the Chicago Cubs and Cincinnati Bengals. The Bull tied the knot in October 2010. He and his beautiful wife Elizabeth reside in Lakewood, OH. In addition to sports, Adam enjoys reading the novels of Lee Child, Michael Connelly and many other mystery and thriller authors, going to the movies, hanging out with his bride, and a great slice of pizza.

KENNY RODA - SIDELINE REPORTER

Veteran sports broadcaster Kenny Roda brings a quarter-century of experience to Cleveland Gladiators broadcasts, serving as the on-field reporter.

Roda, a graduate of Baldwin Wallace University, currently serves as the host of "The Kenny Roda Show", weekdays from 3:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. on WHBC-AM 1480 in Canton, Ohio.

2017 CLEVELAND GLADIATORS THE COACHES

RON SELESKY Head Coach

Ron Selesky enters his seventh season with the Gladiators but his first as Head Coach. Selesky served as Assistant Head Coach from 2013-2014, 2016, and as Director of Player Personnel in 2010 and 2011. Selesky spent the 2015 season as a U.S. scout for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League.

Selesky was named the AFL's Assistant Coach of the Year in 2014 after helping lead the Gladiators to a historic 17-1 regular season, an American Conference Championship and a trip to ArenaBowl XXVII. During that run, Selesky commanded a defense, nicknamed the "No Fly Zone," that allowed a mere 43.4 points per game, the third-fewest in the AFL that season, and recovered a league-high 17 fumbles en route to the AFL's third-best turnover margin (+16).

Prior to joining Cleveland, Selesky was the Defensive Coordinator/Director of Player Personnel for the Grand Rapids Rampage in 2008, helping the team advance to the American Conference Championship after a five year playoff drought.. He boasts several years of Arena Football experience at both head coaching and assistant coaching positions. He returned to the AFL in 2008 season after serving two years (2006-07) as head coach of arenafootball2's Alabama Steeldogs.

Selesky began his Arena Football coaching career as the director of player personnel and assistant coach for the AFL's Tampa Bay Storm from 1997-99, helping to lead the team to a 31-11 regular-season record and a 1998 ArenaBowl appearance. Selesky spent the 2000 season as director of player personnel/line coach for the expansion Carolina Cobras.

He then took his first head coaching position with the af2's Louisville Fire in 2001 and, the following year, earned af2 Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Albany Conquest to a 13-3 regular-season mark and a Northeast Division title.

Upon returning to the AFL in 2003, Selesky led the Buffalo Destroyers as their head coach and director of football operations for one season before the team relocated to Columbus, Ohio. He then joined the Carolina Cobras in 2004, serving as the team's defensive coordinator before taking the reins as an interim head coach for the team's final six games. Selesky rejoined the Columbus Destroyers in 2005, serving as defensive coordinator for one year before returning to the af2 and the Steeldogs.

Selesky also spent several years as a lineman at both the collegiate and professional levels. He played his college ball at North Central College.

Selesky went on to play in two games for the NFL's Minnesota Vikings in 1987, and attended training camps with the San Diego Chargers in 1988, the Miami Dolphins in 1990, and the Detroit Lions in 1992. He also spent three years (1995-97) as a scout for ProQuest Management.

The New Brunswick, N.J., native and his wife, Michelle, have four children: Mallorie, 7; Erin, 13; Madelyn, 17; and Brandt, 19, who is currently a redshirt freshman long-snapper at Southeast Missouri State University.

DOMINIC JONES

Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator

Dominic Jones enters his second season on the Gladiators coaching staff as Assistant Head Coach/Director of Football Operations. Jones served as Defensive Backs Coach in 2016.

An Arena Football League veteran of four seasons, Jones spent three of those in Cleveland and totaled 335 tackles, nine interceptions, five forced fumbles, and seven total touchdowns over the course of his career. Jones also owns two franchise records with most missed field goal return yards in both career and in a single season with 52.

In his final season as a player in 2015, Jones recorded 82.5 tackles, 23 pass break-ups, and one interception.

In 2014, as the leader of the 'No Fly Zone' secondary, Jones posted 93.5 tackles, 27 pass break-ups, four interceptions, four fumble recoveries, and four forced fumbles as the Gladiators posted a 17-1 regular season record en route to an American Conference Championship victory over the Orlando Predators and a berth in ArenaBowl XXVII.

Jones earned Second-Team All-Arena as a kick returner in 2013 in his lone season with the Orlando Predators, setting the franchise record with 1,795 kick return yards and posting 91.5 tackles and two interceptions. Before joining Orlando, Jones made 70 tackles and two interceptions as a rookie in 2012 with Cleveland.

Prior to his professional career, Jones played two seasons at the University of Minnesota (2005-2006), totaling 137 tackles, two and a half tackles for loss, two interceptions, and five pass break-ups as a Golden Gopher before finishing his collegiate career at Otterbein University in 2010 where he notched 66 tackles, 13 tackles-for-loss, four sacks and two interceptions while being named All-OAC, All-Region, and All-America in his lone season.

The Columbus, OH, native prepped at Brookhaven High School where he was first-team All-District, All-State, and was Defensive Player of the Year.

Off the field, Jones has made just as big an impact as he did when he was on it. He is a sought-after motivational speaker, delivering speeches all over the United States. He continues on his quest to give back to his community through local charities and businesses, including the American Red Cross, Big Brother Big Sister, The Driven Foundation, The Salvation Army, Help for Humanity, Toys for Tots and Champions of Choices, Inc.

In 2011, Dominic, along with Nationwide Children's Hospital, formed the Holiday Gospel Charity Classic where he raised $10,000 to benefit a young child battling cancer. In 2013 he joined the "Power 107.5 City School Tour", during which he traveled to inner city schools in the Columbus area and spoke out against violence. Jones then went on to acquire the Mifflin Sharks Little League Organization in hopes of continuing to educate young athletes on the fundamentals of football while emphasizing the importance of education. Dominic started a company called Start Local End Global, an organization geared towards bettering the lives of others through motivational speaking, mentoring and partnering with charities and outreach programs. In 2014, Dominic Jones was honored with an NAACP Image Hometown Champion Award due to his charitable work in his hometown of Columbus, Ohio. Dominic, also affectionately known as "DJ", is a firm believer and living example that if "you can change one person, you can change the world!"

Jones has a fiancé, Heather, and four children: Domiyon, 11; Dominic Jr., 10; Damaiya, 8; Dillan, 7.

SIAHA BURLEY Offensive Coordinator/Asst. Director of Player Personnel

Siaha Burley enters his first season on the coaching staff with the Gladiators as Offensive Coordinator and Director of Player Personnel and is in his sixth season as a coach in the Arena Football League.

Burley comes to Cleveland from Arizona, where he spent the 2016 season as the Rattlers Offensive Coordinator and Director of Football Operations. He spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons as the Offensive Coordinator for the Orlando Predators. During his time in Orlando, the Predators consistently ranked in the top three on offense, including ranking first in the league in 2015 in yards per offensive play, averaging 7.1 yards per attempt, and in rushing offense, earning 4.0 yards per rush. Burley was named the 2015 Assistant Coach of the Year.

Prior to his stint with the Predators, Burley was the Offensive coordinator for the Central Division champion Chicago Rush in 2013. That year, the Rush finished in the top five in total offense. In 2011, Burley was named the wide receivers coach for the Arizona Rattlers. As a player, Burley spent the 2004-05 seasons, as well as the 2008 and 2010 seasons with the Arizona Rattlers. In 2005, he set a franchise record with 45 touchdown receptions. Additionally, Burley also spent time with the Utah Blaze where he earned his second AFL Offensive Player of the Year award in 2007 when he set the league record for reception yards in a season (2,129). Burley began his playing career with the Orlando Predators, where he earned AFL All-Rookie Team honors in 2001. Burley was named to the All-Arena team three times throughout the course of his career.

The Mesa, AZ, native attended Central Florida University, where he led his team in receiving yards for two straight seasons.

Burley has two daughters, Sia Jonet, 12, and N'Lae, 8.
