Release from the R.I. Oceans

Werder Bremen of West Germany, one of the top soccer teams in operation today, will invade Pierce Memorial Stadium in East Providence on Wednesday night to test the unbeaten Rhode Island Oceans.

The International match will get underway at 7:45 with the West German team favored to knock the Oceans over for the first time.

In five years of visits to the United States, the Werder Bremen team, from the land of the World Cup champion, has not lost. That means they have defeated 30 American teams in succession and will try to add the Oceans to the list.

The Oceans, the only unbeaten pro team in either the American or North American Soccer League, will face the West German team with a 9-0-1 mark in 10 ASL games.

Manfred Schellscheidt, coach of the Oceans and a native German himself, said last night
"they are good but we will be ready to go all out."
