East Providence, RI. . . . The Rhode Island Oceansers announce an International Weekend of Soccer Saturday, May 22nd and Sunday, May 23rd at Pierce Memorial Field in East Providence.

This Saturday, May 22nd, at 7:45 PM the Oceansers will meet the Cork Hibernians, one of the most successful soccer teams in the League of Ireland for the past decade. The game with the Hibernians will count in the official League scoring statistics of the American Soccer League.

On Sunday, May 23rd, at 6:00 PM the Oceansers have designated the day as "Family Day," when they play an exhibition game against the Rams Head Rangers, a premiere soccer club from Bermuda. All children 12 and under will be admitted free to Sunday's game when accompanied by a paid adult.

On Saturday, May 29th, the Oceansers will meet one of the American Soccer League's new West Coast franchises for the first time -- the Sacramento Spirits -- with one of the League's "hottest" scorers, Otey "Boom Boom" Cannon.
