East Providence, RI. . . . The Rhode Island Oceans, currently in first place in the Eastern Division of the American Soccer League will play host to one of the League's new West Coast Expansion Teams, the Sacramento Spirits, this Saturday night at 7:45 at Pierce Field in East Providence.

The Spirits, currently in third place in the Western Division, boast one of the League's best high powered offenses led by forward Otey "Boom Boom" Cannon. The Oceans have scored 11 goals in their last three games and Saturday night's game should prove to be an exciting high scoring affair. During those last three games, one of the American Soccer League's top goalies, Tony Dicicco, allowed only one goal to be scored against the Oceans. It's shaping up as a classic battle between the two teams.

The Ocean's Mohammed Attiah who has been out of action since the second half of a game against the Chicago Cats on May 19th with an ankle injury, will return to the starting lineup this Saturday night.

The Oceans will take to the road for their next two games, playing in Cleveland on June 4th, Chicago, June 5th, and returning home for a game against another new West Coast Expansion Team, the Los Angeles Skyhawks, on Friday evening, June 11th.
