GARY KLOPPENBURG

Gary Kloppenburg will enter his second year as Head Coach of the Tulsa Shock in the 2013 season. He was named the Head Coach of the Tulsa Shock on January 4th, 2012 and he guided the Shock to its best record since the team relocated to Tulsa, Oklahoma in 2010.

He was re-united in the WNBA with Lin Dunn, when he joined the Indiana Fever staff in 2008 where he worked 4 seasons. He served on Lin's staff for three seasons with the Seattle Storm from 2000-02. He was instrumental in helping build one of the top defensive teams in the WNBA in a successful stint that included four straight playoff appearances by the Fever.

Regarded for his expertise on the defensive end of the floor, Kloppenburg was on the staff of the NBA's Charlotte Bobcats where he served under head coach Bernie Bickerstaff for three seasons from 2004-05, 2005-06 and 2006-07. He was hired by Bickerstaff when the Bobcats were founded as an expansion team in 2004 – continuing a family bond established when Bickerstaff was in college, and strengthened when Gary's father Bob coached in the NBA with Bickerstaff in Seattle and Denver.

Kloppenburg has coached at virtually every level of college and professional basketball, ranging from his beginnings in the California Community College ranks to stops in the NBA, WNBA, Continental Basketball Association and internationally.

Prior to joining the Bobcats' staff as an assistant coach and advance scout, he was an assistant with the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury for one season after three years with Dunn in Seattle. He worked as a west coast advance scout for the NBA's Toronto Raptors from 1997-99 after two seasons as an assistant coach and assistant director of player personnel in the CBA – first with the Rockford Lightning and then for the Quad City Thunder. Kloppenburg was the interim head coach for four games in 1999-2000 with the Rockford Lightning where he coached former NBA star Earl Boykins.

In the summer of 1999, he was Head Coach for Panteras de Miranda of the Venezuelan Professional League, where he led them to a runner-up finish. He has conducted basketball clinics throughout the world including England, Greece, Belgium, Iceland, Japan, and China.

After graduating from UC San Diego in 1981 with a degree in Spanish Literature, his coaching career began at Lassen Community College (Calif.) where he had successful stints as head coach with both the men's and women's teams. He guided the women's team for five seasons, including back-to-back California Community College State Championships in 92-93 before taking over the men's program for six. Kloppenburg has three children, Sonja, Ian and Carlotta.

JASON GLOVER

Jason Glover enters his second season on Gary Kloppenburg's coaching staff as Associate Head Coach in 2013. He spent four seasons as the Associate Head Coach and was interim Head Coach for the last month of the 2013 season for the Reno Bighorns in the NBA Development League. He also spent the 2010-11 season as a player development coach with the Minnesota Timberwolves of the NBA. He brings a wealth of experience to the Shock staff after coaching 27 years at the professional, collegiate and high school levels.

In 2004 he served as an assistant coach with the Colorado Chill of the NWBL. Prior to that he was Pat Foster's top assistant at the University of Nevada from 1993 through 1999. Glover also served as an assistant coach to current BYU Head Coach Dave Rose at Dixie College in St. George, Utah, for three seasons, where he was instrumental in building Dixie into a national junior college power, helping guide the Rebels to two top-10 national rankings.

After graduating from Grand Canyon College with a degree in education, Glover began his coaching career in Las Vegas as a high school coach at Rancho under Coach Jim Allen. He also had the unique opportunity to learn first hand from two of the nation's winningest coaches, former Nevada and Houston Head Coach Pat Foster, and ex-UNLV and Fresno State Coach Jerry Tarkanian.

Jason has built his prominent coaching reputation on his abilities as an on-court teacher with special emphasis on player development. He has worked individually with players of all ages and levels, most notably NBA players Kevin Love, Sebastian Telfair, Anthony Tolliver and Kosta Koufos just to name a few. Glover is also the founder and Executive Director of Nevada Basketball Academy in Reno, NV which began in 2000.

STACEY LOVELACE

Stacey Lovelace a Detroit, Michigan native and a graduate of Purdue University and is currently working on her M.A in Sports Management at the University of Michigan. Lovelace was the Big Ten Player of the Year in 1995 and is still Purdue's all-time leader in rebounds and blocked shots. In 2013 she will be inducted into the Purdue Hall of Fame.

Lovelace was a member of the University of Michigan's Women's Basketball in 2011-12. Lovelace's professional career included stops Europe, ABL and WNBA where she played with Detroit, Seattle, Seattle, Minnesota, Chicago, Washington and Atlanta from 2000 through 2008.

WNBA CARES

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people with a special emphasis on programs that inspire youth and promote education, health and wellness and youth and family development.

WNBA Cares goal alignment focuses on Philanthropy, Service, Legacy and Inspiring Women. Since WNBA Cares launched, the league, players and teams have:

PHILANTHROPY: Donated more than $11 million to charity, with more than $3.5 million raised in the fight against breast cancer

SERVICE: More than 525,000 hours of hands-on service

LEGACY: More than 40 places where kids and families can live, learn or play

INSPIRATION: 27 current and former WNBA coaches and players have traveled to 27 countries across five continents as sport ambassadors inspiring youth and promoting health and wellness through basketball.

WNBA CARES WEEK

To promote the tip off of the season, the league and teams will partner with community and marketing partners to host community and fan engagement events that highlight our commitment to the community. WNBA Cares Week will take place from May 17 – 23.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Green Game will take place during the June 25 game between the Phoenix Mercury and San Antonio Silver Stars

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. This season, WNBA Breast Health Awareness Week will take place from August 18-August 24.

WNBA FIT

The NBA/WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families. Through programs such as Dribble to Stop Diabetes, Jamba Juice FIT Clinics and Coke Live Positively, the NBA/WNBA informs, engages and educates its fans in healthy living practices.
