media information

TO REQUEST A MEDIA CREDENTIAL, PLEASE CONTACT AIMEE COOPER AT ACOOPER@TULSASHOCK.NET.

A. DAY OF GAME:

- (1) Shoot-arounds: Shoot-arounds may be closed to media, but all players and coaches must be available for a 15-minute interview session in a designated interview area (i.e., lockers room, court or interview area). In the event that a team does not have a shoot-around, it is not required to have a media availability session at the standard shoot-around time.
- (2) Pre-Game: Locker rooms are to be open for a 30-minute period ending 1 hour before the game (e.g., Media access from 6:00-6:30 p.m. for a 7:30 p.m. start). Coaches and GMs are responsible for ensuring that all players are available for a minimum of 15 minutes during this 30-minute period. All head coaches must make themselves available for a minimum of 15 minutes pre-game as well. Team PR representatives must work together to coordinate the pregame coach interview sessions to ensure they are not simultaneous and enable the Media to attend both sessions. The home coach has the first option for availability time. The visiting coach may not be available at the same time as the home coach. Once pregame coaches times are set, the home team must put the information on page one of the press notes.
- (3) Post-Game: No later than 10 minutes following the game, all coaches must make themselves available to the Media. Following a five-minute window for coaches to be available, all locker rooms must be open to Media. Coaches and GMs are responsible for ensuring that players do not leave by back doors and are available to the Media. Teams have the option of opening locker rooms earlier. Bringing players out into the hallway to be interviewed does not satisfy the requirement to open the locker room.

B. OFF-DAY ACCESS:

(1) Practice: All off-day practices must be open to the media for the final 30 minutes. Immediately upon the conclusion of practice all players must remain on the floor or in the locker room for a minimum of 15 minutes up to a maximum of 30 minutes for media interviews. If media interviews are held on the court, the media must be given access to the entire court area during the interview period. If media interviews are in the locker room, media must have access to the primary locker room area for the entire session. Each team PR Director is responsible for determining the length of each interview session depending upon media needs. Coaches may leave the interview area for the first 5-10 minutes, but must make themselves available no later than 10 minutes into the session.

TULSA SHOCK HEAD COACH

FRED WILLIAMS, HEAD COACH

Fred Williams is entering his first season as the Head Coach of the Tulsa Shock. Williams was named Head Coach of the Shock on Jan. 23, 2014. Williams previously spent six seasons with the Atlanta Dream becoming their head coach midway through the 2012 season. In the last four years Williams has been on a coaching staff in three WNBA Finals (2010, 2011, 2013). While with the Dream, Williams helped coach Atlanta to three WNBA Eastern Conference Championships and in six years coached in five WNBA Playoff appearances.

Williams also served as an advance scout for the NBA Utah Jazz, Seattle Supersonics, Sacramento Kings and Washington Mystics. He was awarded the National Women's Basketball League coach of the year and all-star coach in 2006 in which he guided the San Diego Siege to the NWBL championship finals.

From 2003-2004, Williams spent two seasons with the former WNBA team Charlotte Sting as an assistant. Williams spent four seasons rebuilding the formerWNBA team Utah Starzz starting the first season (1998) as an assistant and the next three (1999, 2000, 2001) as the Head Coach.

Williams served as assistant and head coach at the University of Southern California (USC) from 1983-90 and 1994-97. Williams helped guide the 1983-84 USC team to back-to-back NCAA titles.

Williams has coached several Hall of Fame players such as Cynthia Cooper, Pamela McGee, Lisa Leslie and Tina Thompson.

Williams is from Inglewood, California and a graduate of Boise State University. While at Boise State, Williams was an All-Big Sky player and one of the top free-throw shooter in the country. After graduating from Boise State, Williams signed as a free agent with the Utah Jazz.

When Williams isn't coaching he's an avid musician and goes by Freddy Bass Williams. Williams has released two Jazz Albums called "Game Time" in 2011 and "My Gift to You" in 2013. He also owns Freddy Bass Music Productions and in the process of writing a kids coloring book.

2014 Media Guide

TULSA SHOCK ASSISTANT COACHES

BRIDGET PETTIS, ASSISTANT COACH

Bridget Pettis starts her first season as an assistant coach with the Tulsa Shock. Pettis was formally an assistant coach for the Phoenix Mercury and won two WNBA Championships on Phoenix's coaching staff (2007 and 2009).

In 2013, Pettis was an assistant coach on Carol Ross' coaching staff for the Los Angeles Sparks. Pettis served as an assistant coach with Phoenix from 2006 to 2009. She later served as director of basketball operations from 2010 to 2011 before retiring at the end of the 2011 season.

Pettis played in the WNBA for eight years. She was selected in the first round (seventh overall) in the 1997 WNBA Draft by the Phoenix Mercury. Pettis played for the Mercury for seven years (1997-2001)(2004-2006). She also played for the Indiana Fever for two seasons from 2002 to 2003. She finished her playing career with a total of 1,408 points playing in 228 games.

In 2006, Pettis was honored for her contributions to the Phoenix Mercury organization with a banner that hangs in the US Airways Center.

She attended the University of Florida from 1991 to 1993 where she played under head coach Carol Ross. In 1993, Florida earned their first birth into the NCAA Tournament and made it to the second round.

Pettis played 14 years internationally in Italy, Turkey and Spain.

ED BALDWIN, ASSISTANT COACH

Ed Baldwin enters into his first season as an assistant coach with the Tulsa Shock.

Baldwin previously spent four years as an assistant coach for Ohio State University Women's Basketball on Jim Foster's staff from 2008 to 2013. In his first full year as an assistant on Foster's staff in 2008-09, Ohio State won 29 games, captured its fifth-straight Big Ten championship and reached the Sweet 16. In 2009-10, he helped the Buckeyes to a school-record 31 wins and a record sixth-straight conference crown. In 2011, the Buckeyes captured their third straight Big Ten tournament title before advancing to their second Sweet 16 in 3 years. Then last season Ohio State advanced to its school-record 10th consecutive NCAA tournament while finishing the season 25-7 overall. He was the Director of Basketball Operations at Ohio State from 2007 to 2008.

Prior to Ohio State, Baldwin spent 13 years as the Head Coach at UNC-Charlotte from 1988 to 2000. Baldwin left as the winningest Head Coach of the women's program in UNC-Charlotte history with 175 victories. Establishing school records for wins in a season (24) and winning percentage (.793), Baldwin also mentored two All-Americans; Markita Aldridge (1992-93, 1995-96) and Jameka Jones (1999-00). Under his guidance, Tonya Phifer was selected for the All-Conference USA team.

Baldwin also coached alongside Dawn Staley at Temple, 2000 to 2002. He helped lead Temple to its first-ever Atlantic 10 Championship and its first NCAA Tournament appearance in his initial season. Baldwin also served as an Assistant Coach at the University of South Carolina for two seasons in 2002 to 2004. In 1997, Baldwin won gold as an Assistant Coach for the USA at the World University Games in Sicily. Representing USA Basketball in 2000, Baldwin won gold again as an Assistant Coach at the Junior World Championship in Argentina.

Prior to his arrival at Charlotte, Baldwin, worked for three years as an assistant to 1988 Olympic coach Kay Yow at NC State. NC State went 52-35 while he was in Raleigh, winning the 1987 Atlantic Coast Conference title.

Baldwin began his coaching career at Raleigh's Broughton High School. The Caps compiled an incredible 124-26 record during his six years and won state 4-A championships in 1983 and 1985. He was recognized for his efforts on no fewer than three occasions, earning Coach of the Year honors from the Raleigh Times and the Raleigh Sports Club. In 1986, he was tabbed North Carolina High School Coach of the Year by the Greensboro Record for his work at Broughton.

Baldwin graduated from North Carolina Central University with a degree in social studies in 1976. As an athlete, he was a four-year letterwinner on the offensive line in football.

Baldwin is married to the former Terri Hemphill. Married in 1994, they have a daughter, Shantia, and a son, Stevon.

TULSA SHOCK BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

ALLISON RUSSELL, HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Allison Russell is going into her third season with the Tulsa Shock. She is originally from Tulsa and graduated from East Central High School in 2000. She earned her Bachelor degree in Athletic Training at the University of Tulsa (TU), in 2004. While at TU, she worked with their football, women's soccer, women's basketball, and men's and women's track and field programs.

Following her graduation form TU, Russell was offered a Graduate Assistant in the Sports Medicine Department at Oral Roberts University (ORU) in Tulsa in the fall of 2004. While at ORU, she began her masters in Public School Administration, while working also with ORU's women's soccer and women's basketball programs. Russell was hired as the Director of Sports Medicine at ORU in May of 2005. She oversaw the Sports Medicine Department and continued to work primarily with women's basketball and women's soccer.

In July 2008, Russell took a Clinical Athletic Trainer with STI: Physical Therapy and Rehab in Phoenix, Ariz. While with STI, she assisted therapists in daily care of all patients. In 2011, she returned to Tulsa to join the Tulsa Shock staff midway through the season. She returned to STI following the completion of the 2011 season. Russell returned to the Tulsa Shock for the 2012 season and went back to STI in Phoenix immediately following. In November 2012, she began working for Phoenix Fire Physical Therapy in Phoenix, Ariz.

In March 2014, Russell returned to become a full-time member of the Tulsa Shock Staff as Head Athletic Trainer and Director of Basketball Operations.

JOHN JACKSON, STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Jackson is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma. During Jackson's college career he played forward for Ohio Dominican University basketball team for one year before transferring to the University of Oklahoma for track and field. Jackson broke Oklahoma's school record becoming the first athlete Sooner's history to break 50 feet in the triple jump.

Jackson provides strength and conditioning services for all levels of sports and post therapeutic rehab needs through Impact Fitness, LLC in Tulsa. During Jackson's 15-year training career he has trained high school, college and professional athletes.

BOK CENTER INFORMATION

The BOK Center is Tulsa's state-of-the-art sports and entertainment venue that opened in fall 2008. The 19,199-seat venue is home to the WNBA Tulsa Shock, and the CHL Tulsa Oilers. The BOK Center was designed to host major concerts, family shows, ice shows, and other world class entertainment.

Located off Interstate 244 in downtown Tulsa, the BOK Center is diagonal from the Tulsa Convention Center which completed renovations in January 2010, making it an entertainment and business complex.

Owned by the City Of Tulsa, and Tulsa Public Facilities Authority, the BOK Center is part of Vision 2025, a project to grow economic and community infrastructure for future generations. The City hired SMG, a world leader in venue management, marketing and development, to manage the facility.

In 2011, the International Association of Venue Managers (IAVM) awarded BOK Center the Venue Excellence Award. This prestigious award is given annually to only one arena in the world and recognizes the best arena based on four criteria used to demonstrate the ways in which the venue has excelled in the management and operation of a public assembly venue. The criteria for the award includes:

Operational Excellence, Teambuilding/Professional Development, Safety and Security, and Service to the Community

The rules will go into effect beginning with the 2013 season.

The WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership for another six years, paving the way for WNBA games to be televised on ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 through 2022. The announcement, made by John Skipper, President of ESPN, Inc. and Co-Chairman of the Disney Media Networks, and Laurel J. Richie, WNBA President, extends the WNBA's television relationship with ESPN to 26 years. With the deal, up to 30 live games will be televised on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2 each season, including exclusive telecasts of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile.

On the same day as the WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership, the league also introduced a new brand identity. The refreshed identity reflects how far the level of play has come in 16 years as stronger, more agile players have made the game more competitive. The cornerstone of the new WNBA visual identity is a more modern "Logowoman" -- the player silhouette within the logo -- that better embodies the athleticism and diversity of current WNBA players while leveraging the distinctive orange-and-oatmeal color scheme of the league's iconic game ball.

For the first time in the WNBA's 17 seasons, the league's Draft is televised live in primetime. The 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm takes place for the third straight year at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn., this time airing live at 8 p.m. ET on ESPN2. One of the most anticipated draft classes in league history is led by the "3 to See" -- Brittney Griner of Baylor, Elena Delle Donne of Delaware, and Notre Dame's Skylar Diggins. The Phoenix Mercury select Griner with the No. 1 overall pick; the Chicago Sky then take Delle Donne with the No. 2 selection, and the Tulsa Shock claim Diggins third.
