NEW YORK AT EDMONTON

CONTACT: BRIAN MEARS

EDMONTON DRILLERS: 6 - 13 (Home 5 - 4; Away 1 - 9) 52 Points

NEW YORK COSMOS: 14 - 5 (Home 8 - 0; Away 6 - 5) 123 Points

WELCOME, NEW YORK COSMOS!... This prominent franchise was established in 1971 and grew to become the most successful in the history of the North American Soccer League. This season, the Cosmos lead the way in the Eastern Division with 123 points. This is not unusual... In 1981, they won their fourth straight regular season championship with a 23-9 record and 200 points. This followed successful seasons of 24-6 (212 points) in 1978; 24-6 (216 points) in 1979; and, 24-8 (213 points) in 1980, when they advanced through the playoffs to their fourth Soccer Bowl appearance in five years. In 1975, they signed the legendary Pele as well as other renowned players such as Franz Beckenbauer, Dennis Tueart, and Francois Vander Elst. The Cosmos, today, include such great names as Giorgio Chinaglia, Johan Neeskens, Vladislav Bogicevic, Carlos Alberto, and Steve Hunt, who has returned from Coventry City. In the current season, Chinaglia has scored 12 goals with 8 assist in 19 games for a point total of 32.

CHICAGO STING vs. EDMONTON DRILLERS, JULY 3, 1982

PLAYED AT WRIGLEY FIELD, CHICAGO

RESULT: STING 3 - DRILLERS 2; ATTENDANCE: 9,392; WEATHER: CLOUDY & WARM

This was a game with three penalty kicks... Chicago was awarded two, the first in the fifteenth minute when Peter Mellor tripped Charlie Fajkus just inside the penalty box. Gordon Hill converted the penalty as he did again in the 34th minute when Joe Raduka was adjudged to have fouled Arno Steffenhagen inside the area. A goal by Hans Weiner in the 43rd minute gave Chicago a 3-0 lead at halftime. Edmonton came back strongly in the second half and Kai Haaskivi scored off a penalty kick in the 46th minute after Drew Ferguson was pushed by Ivan Belfiore. In spite of Haaskivi slipping as he took the kick, he still managed to beat Goalkeeper Dieter Ferner in the 58th minute. Drillers scored again when David Kemp finished off a good move by Haaskivi and Andre Oostrom. With 11 minutes remaining, Kai Haaskivi scored to level 3-3 but was flagged offside. Ferguson played a cross from the right to Haaskivi on the far post who beat the goalkeeper from close range-- but the linesman's flag went up to deny the Drillers the possibility of overtime.
