MAJOR LEAGUE LACROSSE

BACKGROUND

During the summer of 1998, Jake “Body By Jake” Steinfeld was inspired to start a professional outdoor lacrosse league after reading a magazine article about the growth of the sport of lacrosse. Steinfeld sought out a contributor to the article, Dave Morrow, Owner and President of Warrior Lacrosse, a leading lacrosse equipment manufacturer, to discuss formation of such a league.

In February 1999 Steinfeld and Morrow joined forces with Steinfeld’s friend and business associate Tim Robertson, Chairman of Bay Shore Enterprises and former CEO of the Family Channel, to form Major League Lacrosse, LLC, a Virginia limited liability company. In 2003, New Balance Athletic Shoe Inc. came on board as a Founding Member of Major League Lacrosse, as well as an Anchor Level League Sponsor.

Major League Lacrosse began play in 2001, to capitalize on the growing demand for world-class field lacrosse driven by dramatic growth in the U.S. lacrosse market. The MLL was praised and heralded for its on-field play, regarded as the best ever seen. With a year-on-year attendance increase, Major League Lacrosse has continued to lead the sport of lacrosse into the mainstream of competitive team sports.

OUR TEAMS

The MLL is comprised of eight teams across the US and Canada. The Boston Cannons, Long Island Lizards, and Chesapeake Bayhawks (formerly Baltimore and Washington) have been members of the League since its inception in 2001. The Denver Outlaws began play in 2006 as part of the League’s western expansion. The Hamilton Nationals (formerly Toronto) joined the MLL in 2009 as the League’s first international team. The Charlotte Hounds and Ohio Machine will begin play in 2012 as a part of the league’s expansion initiative to have 16 teams in the next decade.

Current teams include:

Boston Cannons
Charlotte Hounds
Chesapeake Bayhawks
Denver Outlaws
Hamilton Nationals
Long Island Lizards
Ohio Machine
Rochester Rattlers

OUR PLAYERS

The 230 best lacrosse players in the world-well-spoken, articulate young men from some of the top academic institutions, including Princeton, Johns Hopkins, Syracuse, Duke, and Virginia. MLL icons include Ryan Boyle, Jesse Hubbard, John Grant Jr., and Brodie Merrill. The League also features current stars in lacrosse such as Paul Rabil, Max Seibald, and Matt Danowski.

OUR SEASON

The 2012 Major League Lacrosse season will consist of a total of 56 regular season games running from April to August with the following league-run special events – Major League Lacrosse Collegiate Draft (January), All-Star Game (June), and Major League Lacrosse Championship Weekend (August). The twelfth season of MLL action is slated to begin April 28, 2012. In January 2011, the league announced not only its expansion plans, but that it would add two regular season games in 2012. Each team is now slated to play 14 games in the regular season.

OUR GAME

Major League Lacrosse has implemented some innovative dynamics to the traditional game field lacrosse that bring the sport into the next millennium. MLL rule changes include the addition of a two-point goal line located 16 yards from each goal and a 60-second shot clock. In 2009 Major League Lacrosse allowed a fourth long-pole defenseman. This move brought MLL rules more in-line with those at the high school and collegiate levels, where a fourth pole is allowed. This addition assisted in creating closer games by helping to generate a more balanced game at the professional level.

OFFICIAL PARTNERS

Body by Jake Global, Brine, Cascade, POWERADE, Great Atlantic Lacrosse Company, Upper Deck, US Lacrosse, Ford, EFX.

SPONSORSHIP

A full range of integrated sponsorship packages are available. Partnerships can include league/team category exclusivity, special events rights, corporate branding on player uniforms, national TV commercial units and in-game TV features, field signage, SLASH Magazine ads, web site banners, tickets/hospitality, game footage, photo usages, player appearances, customized activation, and cross-promotional programs.

TELEVISION

ESPN2 has been the national television home of Major League Lacrosse since 2003, when the two parties agreed on a two-year commitment. In 2004, ESPN aired the New Balance Championship Game, making it the first live national telecast of a Major League Lacrosse competition. Today, MLL and ESPN's relationship is the longest commitment that any television outlet has given to a lacrosse entity.

The partnership between the MLL and ESPN continued to grow when on June 9, 2007, ESPN360.com, ESPN's signature broadband network, streamed its first MLL game live from Sports Authority Field at Mile High. ESPN360.com went on to stream 5 more MLL events that season. In 2008, all 64 MLL games, including the All-Star game, both, Semi-Finals, and the NB ZIP MLL Championship Game were streamed live on ESPN360.com. After airing live, the games were archived on the website for a period of one week.

In 2008, MLL licensed its broadcast and digital media rights to Lax United Marketing (LUM). The license is for five (5) years with LUM having two additional five (5) year options. The 2008 season also marked the first time in League history that every regular season MLL game was broadcast live on regional sports networks throughout the country. Lax United Marketing syndicated every game not available on ESPN2, including the second MLL Semi-Final from Boston to top regional sports networks such as Comcast Sports Net, Fox Sports Net, Cox Sports, Time Warner Cable, Charter Communications, Brighthouse, Charter Sports and CN8.

In 2010, ESPN2 aired a total of 6 MLL games, including live broadcasts of the All-Star Game (July 8) from Boston, as well as the first Semi-Final game (August 21) and the MLL Championship Game presented by Warrior (August 22) from Annapolis.

In 2011, all 36 regular season games in addition to the 2011 Sports Authority MLL All-Star Game (July 9) and the 2011 Sports Authority MLL Championship Weekend presented by Warrior (August 27 and 28), were broadcast in syndication. Every MLL game was streamed live on ESPN3.com in HD, and a total of six MLL games including the All-Star Game and the Championship Weekend were broadcast live on ESPN2.

Most recently, MLL negotiated a major television agreement with CBS Sports Network. In 2012, 14 games will be aired live in HD on CBS along with 18 episodes of "Inside the MLL", the league's 30-minute magazine style show. In addition to six games that will be aired live on ESPN2, this will bring the number of nationally televised games to 20 in 2012.

CURT STYRES

Owner

Hamilton Nationals Owner Curt Styres has established himself as a builder and a supporter of lacrosse in Six Nations, and throughout Canada and the United States for decades. Styres is in his fourth season as the owner of the Nationals.

Styres has become accustomed to building winning products and franchises. He began his first business back in 1991, as he owned a gas station and variety store. From there, he went on to become a founding partner in Grand River Enterprises in 1993. He then built the Ohsweken Speedway and has turned it into the fastest-growing speedway in Canada.

In 1998, he began scouting for the Six Nations Arrows lacrosse team. In 2004, Curt partnered with the Arrows and took the team to the Ontario Championship four straight years (2004-07), winning the 2007 Minto Cup (Canadian Junior Lacrosse Championship). It doesn't stop there. In 2004, he also built the 3,000-seat Iroquois Lacrosse Arena to give local kids a place to improve their skills and it has led to one of the strongest youth programs across Canada. In fact, the Junior B's won the 2011 Founders Cup.

Further, Styres began the "Dreamcatcher Fund" that same year to aid native youth in education and athletics. Over 6,000 people have been helped by the fund with 100,000 applicants coming in each year, which included Knighthawks and 2010 No. 1 overall pick Cody Jamieson, and fellow Knighthawks Craig Point and Sid Smith. He also built a school for kindergarten through 12th grade in the Iroquois Lacrosse Arena. In 2008, he achieved one of his lifelong dreams and became the owner of not one, but two professional sports franchises with the purchasing of the Amerks and Knighthawks. In 2009, he added to his professional sports ledger by helping start the Major League Lacrosse Toronto Nationals. That investment paid instant dividends as the Nationals won the MLL Championship in the first year of their existence.

Currently, Grand River Enterprises is the largest native owned company in Canada. It's the No. 1 exporter in Canada in its field and the seventh largest in North America.

In the summer of 2011, Styres rebuilt the Nationals, which began with moving the team to Hamilton. Through the draft and key acquisitions, the Nats finished in a second-place tie with the Denver Outlaws and tied their franchise record with seven wins. The Nationals experienced the greatest turnaround over the past two seasons, going from three wins in 2010 and a last-place finish to a 7-5 team and a return to the MLL Championship Game.

CURT STYRES

Owner

In 2009, his first-year team brought a Major League Lacrosse championship to Toronto.

Styres has been heavily involved at growing the sport of lacrosse at the youth level, as well. In October 2011, Styres and Nick Skye coached the Six Nations Express U13A team to a berth in the Dick's Sporting Goods Tournament of Champions Tournament in late December, which was followed by a championship at the Junior Turkeyshoot in Ithaca, NY, and an automatic bid for the seventh/eighth grade team. Furthermore, he guided Six Nations to a title shot at the Pee Wee Ontario Provincial Box Lacrosse Championship Game in August. Additionally, Styres was on the coaching staff for the Iroquois Team that advanced to the finals of the 2011 Warrior Pee Wee Lacrosse National Championship of Canada in early August.

In 2011, Styres partnered with Paul Gait to create Team 22 Innovation, under the Under Armour banner, which designs, manufactures and distributes lacrosse equipment. Under Armour stands as a world-wide developer, marketer, and distributor of branded performance apparel, footwear, and accessories. His latest venture had been in the works for the past eight years. That dream took center stage at the 2011 Men's Lacrosse Final Four in Baltimore, Md. From an airplane towing an Under Armour banner to a large transport trailer showcasing the new lacrosse heads and shafts, Under Armour made a splash at the Final Four. At college's biggest weekend, Team 22 unveiled its Under Armour line of men's and women's heads and shafts. Fans can check out the latest Under Armour lacrosse equipment at www.underarmour.com.

Styres has also transformed the National Lacrosse League's Rochester Knighthawks over the past four seasons, serving as the owner team's general manager. In 2011, he rebuilt the Knighthawks into a playoff team and was rewarded with the NLL's Executive of the Year and General Manager of the Year, which was an NLL first. In 2012, his hard work paid off with the NLL Champion's Cup.

The Knighthawks have made strides in the standings and in the community. The Knighthawks have advanced to the playoffs in three of his four seasons (2009 and 2011-12). Off the field, Styres established the Knighthawks Charitable Foundation, Inc. that has donated over $300,000 to local charities in four years. Over the past two seasons, he has also supported ROC E6 Lacrosse through player participation and financial commitments to help spread lacrosse throughout Monroe County. His reason, "To create lacrosse fans you have to create lacrosse players."

He expanded his efforts to grow the game by providing equipment and monetary resources to the National Lacrosse League's partnership with Right To Play. Throughout First Nations communities in Ontario, NLL players will help deliver skill-based instruction to children, youth and coaches. In addition, this program will inspire and motivate First Nation children and youth to connect to the strong culture and tradition of Lacrosse. This program has the potential to impact over 500 children and youth in First Nations in its first year (2012), and inspire a lifelong commitment to lacrosse.

As the leading international humanitarian and development organization, Right To Play uses the transformative power of sport and play to build essential life skills in children, thereby driving social change in communities worldwide affected by war, poverty and disease.

From his seat as the team's general manager, Styres has created more fans through his deals this offseason. In 2010, he and his lacrosse staff drafted and acquired some of the most exciting players in the NLL. Styres drafted Jamieson with the No. 1 overall pick and Jarrett Davis with the fifth overall selection. The Knighthawks also acquired 2010 NLL Goalie of the Year Matt Vinc, along with NLL transition star Jordan Hall, and signed free agent Mike Accursi, who helped the Knighthawks win the 2007 NLL Championship. He also signed free agent and former Knighthawk Pat McCready. The team finished 10-6 and in a three-way tie for first in the East Division.

The Knighthawks advanced to the opening round of the playoffs and were honored by their peers in the NLL year-end awards. Vinc was named the NLL Goaltender of the Year, while McCready took home the Defensive Player of the Year. Hall was honored with the league's Sportsmanship Award and Mike Hasen became the first rookie bench boss to win Head Coach of the Year. Additionally, Jamieson was honored with an All-Rookie Team selection. The Knighthawks were active in the offseason in promotions with NASCAR legend Tony Stewart racing the Knighthawks car in the Empire Sprint Series in August 2011 and winning his heat at Canandaigua Motorsports Park.

In 2012, the awards continued to roll in for the Knighthawks as 19-year-old Johnny Powless won the NLL Sportsmanship Award and earned a place on the All-Rookie Team. Stephen Keogh also earned All-Rookie Team status, while Jamieson was named a Second Team All-Pro and the Championship Game MVP.

While his interests may be vast, his mission in 2012 is to bring a championship to Hamilton.

LEWIS STAATS

President

Lewis Staats enters his second season in Major League Lacrosse in 2011 as the president of the Hamilton Nationals. Staats brings his business acumen and passion for lacrosse to the position. Staats also serves as the president of the National Lacrosse League's Rochester Knighthawks.

He is a Mohawk from the Six Nations of the Grand River territory, located in southern Ontario. Staats has a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Western Ontario, (1979) specializing in economics. He also attended and completed the Banff School of Advanced Management (BSAM) Senior Executive Development Program in 1991. Staats is currently on the faculty of the Banff Centre's Aboriginal Leadership and Management programs. He also completed the Executive P.Log certification program (2000) with a professional designation in logistics.

Staats is presently the owner of Staats & Associates, a Six Nations based company specializing in strategic consulting focused on First Nations leadership training, economic and business development. He is also President of First People's Plus Information Management and President of Grand River Green Power, both headquartered at Six Nations. First People's Plus is the exclusive Aboriginal partner for Adobe Canada. Grand River Green Power is a business focused on developing business verticals in the renewable energy sector concentrating on wind power. In addition to these activities, Mr. Staats is also the President of the Six Nations Business Association. The association provides advocacy and other services on behalf of its members who have combined revenues exceeding $500 million and sustain over 550 fulltime jobs in the community.

Staats is currently the Vice President of Operations of Arrow Express Sports (AES), a company focused on the professional sports business sector. In 2008, AES finalized a deal to take majority ownership in the Rochester Americans of the AHL and the Rochester Knighthawks of the NLL. For over 10 years Staats has also been the President of the Six Nations Arrows Lacrosse Association, who operate the Six Nations Arrows Express Jr. "A" lacrosse team in the Ontario Lacrosse Association. The Six Nations Arrows Express won the 2007 national junior lacrosse championship of Canada and have captured the Ontario provincial championship four of the past six years.

Lewis and his wife Wendy have four children and two grandchildren all living at Six Nations.

JODY GAGE

General Manager

The last time Jody Gage was an MLL lacrosse general manager, his team won a championship. In 2011, Gage returned to a familiar place with the Hamilton Nationals of Major League Lacrosse: MLL Championship Weekend.

In 2011, he returned to the field game as the general manager of the Major League Lacrosse Hamilton Nationals. Through the “best draft class in MLL history,” free agent signings and trades, the Nats finished in a tie for second place with a 7-5 record. In 2011, the Nats finished in a tie for second place with a 7-5 record and earned their second playoff berth in three seasons. Hamilton advanced to the championship game, falling by one goal to the Boston Cannons.

Gage’s first stint in the MLL was with Rochester Rattlers. In seven seasons, the Rattlers also advanced to the MLL Semi-finals in 2001, 2004, 2005 and 2007, and captured the 2008 Steinfeld Cup.

After being out of the sport for the 2009 season, Gage rejoined the Nationals and the Rochester Knighthawks of the National Lacrosse League, which is also owned by Curt Styres. He joined a Hamilton franchise, which included some of the same players that won the 2008 title. The list of players includes John Grant Jr., Jordan Hall, Brett Bucktooth, Brett Queener, Gavin Prout and Brodie Merrill. The Nationals won the 2009 championship, but missed the playoffs in 2010.

Gage holds a place of distinction in the pantheon of Rochester sports. The North York, Ontario, native is the only person to grace the Hall of Fames for two Rochester professional sports teams: the Knighthawks and the Rochester Americans. Gage served as the general manager for 12 seasons and built the Knighthawks into a lacrosse dynasty (1997-2008). The Knighthawks advanced to five championship games and won two titles during his tenure. In 2007, he assembled a Knighthawks team that won a league record 17 games and suffered only two losses. He currently serves as the VP of Player Personnel and is in the process of helping another former championship return to the postseason.

He had a hand in drafting current superstars John Grant, Casey Powell, Curt Malawsky, Josh Sanderson and Colin Doyle. He also was a masterful GM when it came to trades, acquiring such notable players as Mike Accursi, Chris Schiller, Steve Toll and Shawn Williams during his tenure.

Gage officially rejoined the Rochester Knighthawks management team on September 29, 2010, as the Vice President of Player Personnel. In this position, he will work closely with GM Curt Styres and Assistant GM Landon Miller. Gage will be actively involved in, and have input into the day-to-day decision making for the Knighthawks team. He will also take on the responsibility of being the key point of contact for the Knighthawks on all team business matters in Rochester.

Gage was inducted into the Amerks Hall of Fame in 1999 and is only one of three players to have his number retired. He stands as the Amerks’ all-time leader in games played, goals, assists and points. He also holds numerous team and American Hockey League records. He was inducted into the AHL Hall of Fame in 2006. After retiring from hockey, he moved into the front office where he still works for the Amerks as the Director of Player Personnel. He was the team’s general manager from 1996 to 2009 and was the assistant GM when the Amerks won their sixth Calder Cup in 1996.

REGY THORPE

Head Coach

Regy Thorpe completed his first season as a Major League Lacrosse head coach in 2011 by guiding the Hamilton Nationals to a second-place finish and a berth in the playoffs. Hamilton advanced to the championship game, falling by one goal to the Boston Cannons.

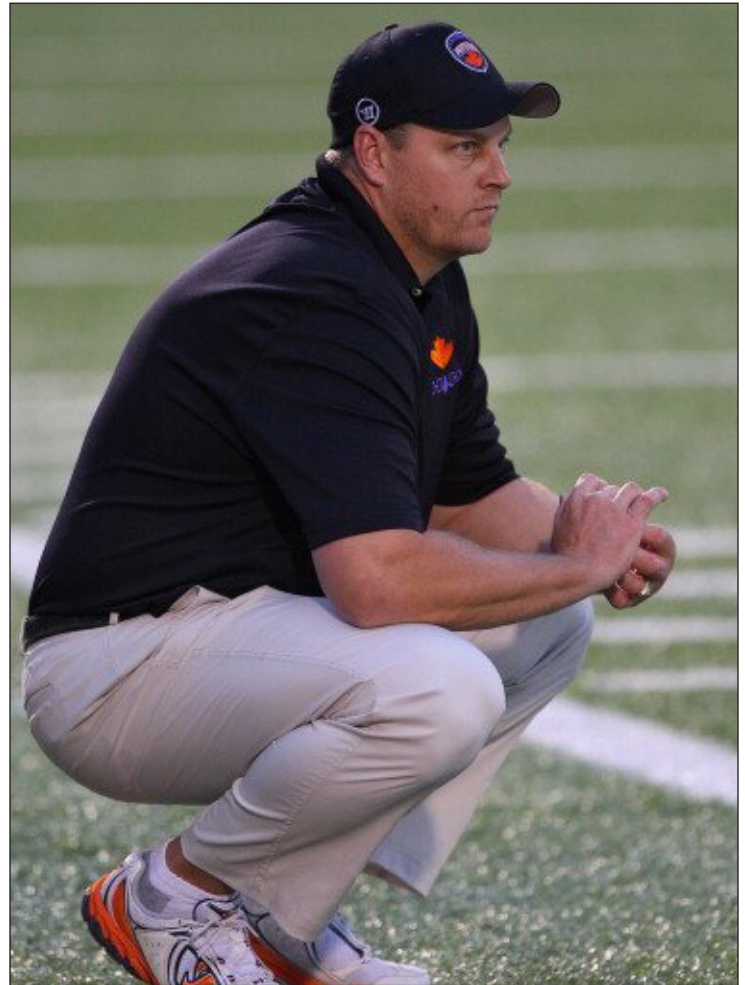

Thorpe returned to the MLL for the first time since the 2008 season when he helped the Rochester Rattlers win the 2008 Steinfeld Cup. Thorpe spent three seasons as an assistant coach with the Rattlers, which included a stint as a player/assistant coach during the 2006 season. He also played for Rochester for six seasons (2001-06). The job with the Nationals is his first professional head coaching job.

Thorpe has an extensive playing and coaching background. Thorpe coached the Junior "A" Six Nations Arrows for three seasons. In his first season, the Arrows won the 2007 Minto Cup, which is the national junior championship in Canada. In 2009, he led the Arrows to the OLA Junior "A" Finals. He is currently in his second season as the Assistant Coach and Recruiting Coordinator at Syracuse University, where he works under lacrosse icon Gary Gait. Gait and Thorpe have worked together for three seasons at Syracuse and in 2012 guided the women's team to the NCAA Finals.

Thorpe spent 15 seasons with the National Lacrosse League's Rochester Knighthawks and in 2008 became the first player to also serve as a team's general manager. It's on the field, however, where Thorpe made a name for himself that placed him among the greatest names in National Lacrosse League history.

What's more impressive is that the Elbridge, NY, native spent his entire career in Rochester, where he stands as the team's all-time leader in games played (193), loose balls (966) and penalty minutes (385). Thorpe also played in every postseason game in franchise history (23), guiding Rochester to six title games and 13 playoff berths in 14 seasons. More importantly, Thorpe is the only player in team history to play for both championship teams: 1997 and 2007.

The defensive stalwart was also the team captain in 2008 and served as an alternate captain from 2005 to 2007. He also wore the "C" after Mike Hasen was injured in 2007 and captained Rochester to its second championship. Thorpe also won numerous team and individual accolades along the way, winning the team's Unsung Hero three times and earning the Connors & Ferris Comeback Player of the Year twice. In 2005, he was also named to the Knighthawks' All-Time Team.

Thorpe arrived in Rochester in 1994 after playing his college lacrosse at nearby Syracuse University (1992-93). He was one of the co-captains on the 1993 team that captured the Division I National Championship. That season, he earned Honorable Mention All-American honors.

JASON JOHNSON

Assistant Coach

Jason Johnson is in his fourth season with the Nationals organization. The Six Nations native had a busy summer in 2011 both on and off the field. At the professional level, he helped the Knighthawks return to the Champion's Cup Playoffs in May and then moved on to begin his fourth season as an assistant coach with the Hamilton Nationals.

The Nats, like the Knighthawks, finished near the top of their league and advanced to the postseason. The Nationals went all the way to the MLL Finals. Johnson has been with the team since its inaugural season in 2009, when he served as an assistant coach with the Major League Lacrosse championship team.

Johnson also packed up the family and flew to Germany for the 2011 FIL Lacrosse Under-19 Women's World Championships. His daughter Tawnie scored 10 goals and added four assists in her international debut with Team Canada. She netted a hat trick to help Canada defeat England in the bronze medal game.

If that wasn't enough, Johnson served as the offensive coordinator coach for U-19 Team Ontario at the 2011 Field Lacrosse National Championships. While working under Head Coach Clancy Almas, the team captured the gold in Burnaby, BC.

Additionally, he was the head coach for the Six Nations U-16 and U-19 men's field teams. The U-16 team won gold this summer as well. He also was the assistant coach for the Senior "A" Six Nations Chiefs (MSL) from 2008-09. In 2009, he was the head coach for the Six Nations U-19 women's field teams as well. Johnson also assists with minor box teams throughout his community. In addition, he was a player/coach on the Six Nations Senior Men's Field Team in 2008 that won Ontario Championship and the 2009 team that won the Canadian Field Nationals.

He was the offensive coach for the Six Nations Arrows from 2004 to 2006 and helped the team win three consecutive Ontario Championships and advance to three Minto Cup Finals. He was also the offensive coach at the Indoor World Games for the silver medalists: the Iroquois Nationals. Further, Johnson was an assistant coach for the Six Nations Arrows in 2009 and 2010. In 2012, Johnson will serve as one of the assistant coaches for the Iroquois Nationals U19 team at the 2012 World Championships in Turku, Finland.

As a player, Johnson spent his entire career in the Six Nations lacrosse system, working his way through minor, Junior "B", Junior "A", Senior "A" and the Cam-Am ranks. He was a teammate of Cam Bomberry on the 1992 Minto and 1994 Mann Cup championship teams.

In his junior career, he notched 53 goals and 70 assists in 59 games. In his senior career, he recorded 27 goals and 36 assists in 68 games. He also collected 27 goals and 30 assists in 36 postseason contests. Johnson was drafted in the third round of the National Lacrosse League Entry Draft by the Syracuse Smash.

GARY GAIT

Assistant Coach

Gary Gait, arguably one of the greatest names in lacrosse, joined the Hamilton Nationals as the team's assistant coach in 2011. Last season, the Nats finished in a tie for second place with a 7-5 record and earned their second playoff berth in three seasons. Hamilton advanced to the championship game, falling by one goal to the Boston Cannons.

Gait has achieved unprecedented success as coach and a player. In his playing career, he has won 11 championships, which includes three National Lacrosse League titles (1991, 1994-95), three Major League Lacrosse titles (2001-02, 2005), three Mann Cups (1991, 1997 and 1999), the Heritage Cup (2004) and the International Lacrosse Federation (ILF) World Championship (2006). Further, Gait captured three NCAA championships with the Syracuse University Orange men's team.

Gait played 18 seasons in the National Lacrosse League, three of those with the Rochester Knighthawks. The Victoria, BC, native ranked second in league history in goals (635), fourth in assists (529) and second in points (1,164). His playing career has taken him to Rochester, the Detroit Turbos, Philadelphia Wings, Baltimore Thunder, Pittsburgh CrosseFire, Washington Power, and Colorado Mammoth. In 1991 with Detroit, he was named the NLL Rookie of the Year, and later in his career he was selected the league's MVP a record six times, including five in a row (1995-99). He was also an All-Pro 15 straight seasons and led the NLL in points and goals seven times and won three league championships, leading the Turbos to the title in 1991 and the Wings to consecutive titles in 1994 and 1995. In 2006, he was selected as one of five charter members of the league's Hall of Fame.

His other playing accomplishments include helping the Victoria Shamrocks to the Mann Cup in 1997 and 1999, winning the 2004 Heritage Cup, and leading Canada to its first world title since 1978 at the 2006 ILF World Championship in London. Playing on the international stage for the last time, Gait saved his best for last, tallying four goals in the ILF title tilt to lead the Canadians to a 15-10 upset of the U.S. squad.

After retiring, Gait has achieved the same success as a coach. In two seasons as the head coach of the Colorado Mammoth of the NLL, he led the Mammoth to two playoff appearances and the 2006 Champion's Cup. The following year, he coached Team Canada to the 2007 World Indoor Championship.

Gait completed his fifth season as the head coach of the Syracuse University women's lacrosse team. During his tenure, he has led the Orange to a 57-23 record, two trips to the national semifinals (2008 and 2010) and an appearance in the NCAA Finals (2012). Gait also served as the assistant women's lacrosse coach at the University of Maryland and was a part of seven national championship teams (1995-01).

BRIAN HOBART

Assistant Coach

Brian Hobart is in second season with the Nationals organization. The Penn Yan, NY, native has worked as a professional scout for the past three seasons with the Rochester Knights of the National Lacrosse League.

In 2012, he was a member of the National Lacrosse League Championship team.

Hobart also serves as the head lacrosse coach at Penn Yan Academy, a position he has held since 2004. In 2012, he won his eighth Section V title as a head coach and 16th overall. He was an assistant at Penn Yan from 1992 to 2003 and coached Nationals star goalie Brett Queener in high school. Hobart has coached 17 High School All-Americans and five professional players during his tenure.

His coaching accomplishments also include serving as the head coach of the Western Region Empire State Games from 2005-06. Hobart also was a featured speaker at U.S. lacrosse national convention in 2010 with Queener on goalie play.

Hobart played lacrosse for the Onondaga Redhawks of the Iroquois Lacrosse Association from 1998-2003. He spent his college playing career on the gridiron with the Canisius College football team. He played college ball for four seasons and was the team captain his senior season.

Brian currently lives in Penn Yan with son, Bowen. He works as a Youth Counselor at Penn Yan Elementary and will become Dean of Students at Penn Yan Middle School in September 2011.

STUART BROWN

Director of Marketing and Sponsorship

Stuart Brown has been with the Nationals lacrosse club since its inception in 2009. He is a Director of Marketing and Sponsorship for the Hamilton Nationals after serving as team in past roles as president, general manager and consultant. Brown was instrumental in the team's championship season in 2009.

In 2011, the Nats finished in a tie for second place with a 7-5 record and earned their second playoff berth in three seasons. Hamilton advanced to the championship game, falling by one goal to the Boston Cannons.

He is currently the president and founder of Edge Lacrosse, which combines his Canadian elite youth lacrosse program with Zack Greer. The Edge88 camp product offers a "quality experience specializing in the field lacrosse game." The development of the youth field lacrosse environment is a top priority for Brown. In 2006 and 2009-10, Edge Lacrosse was the NDP North American Champions. Last year, Edge Lacrosse was also the National Scholastic Club Lacrosse Association North American Champions. The NSCLA includes the top high school and youth club teams competing in one division.

The Calgary native has also been instrumental in Canada's success internationally. He was the assistant general manager for silver-medal winning Team Canada at the 2010 FIL World Lacrosse Championships that won silver in Manchester, England. Brown will also accompany Team Canada to Prague for the 2011 FIL World Indoor Lacrosse Championships as the director of lacrosse operations.

Brown grew up playing in the Oakville Minor Lacrosse system and was coached by Bruce Donovan, Rob MacDougal and Troy Cordingley. He graduated to the Junior "B" ranks with the Oakville Buzz and the Halton Hills Bulldogs. Brown then competed at the Junior "A" level with Mississauga. Brown attended college at the University of Guelph and holds a degree in management economics.

NATIONALS ON LOCAL TV

The Hamilton Nationals announced their Major League Lacrosse national TV schedule by unveiling a seven-game TV schedule on Cable 14, which serves the Greater Hamilton community.

For seven Sundays this summer, 7:00 p.m. will be Lacrosse Night in the Steel City. Lacrosse fans in the Hamilton area will have an opportunity to watch all eight Major League Lacrosse teams on Cable 14. According to Team President Lewis Staats, the TV schedule will allow the Nationals to introduce the professional outdoor game to an expanded audience.

The first tape-delayed broadcast will air the Nationals' home opener against the Chesapeake Bayhawks at Ron Joyce Stadium at McMaster University. The game is set for Friday, May 18th at 11:00 a.m. The game will air locally on Sunday, May 20th at 7:00 p.m.

The schedule also includes games against the Rochester Rattlers on Saturday, June 9th and a Championship Game rematch against the Boston Cannons on Saturday, July 7th. Both games will air the following Sundays at 7:00 p.m. The fourth TV contest will cover the Nationals' road game in Columbus against the Ohio Machine. The game will be available on Cable 14 on Sunday, July 15th at 7:00 p.m. The final three TV games feature the Denver Outlaws, Charlotte Hounds and Long Island Lizards. Listed below is the complete Cable 14 TV schedule.

Cable 14 TV Schedule

Day	Game Date	Opponent	Time	Airs
Friday	5/18/2012	vs. Chesapeake	11:00 am	Sunday, May 20 at 7:00 pm
Saturday	6/9/2012	vs. Rochester	7:30 pm	Sunday, June 10 at 7:00 pm
Saturday	7/7/2012	vs. Boston	7:30 pm	Sunday, July 8 at 7:00 pm
Saturday	7/14/2012	@ Ohio	7:00 pm	Sunday, July 15 at 7:00 pm
Saturday	7/28/2012	vs. Denver	7:30 pm	Sunday, July 29 at 7:00 pm
Saturday	8/4/2012	vs. Charlotte	7:30 pm	Sunday, August 5 at 7:00 pm
Saturday	8/11/2012	vs. Long Island	7:30 pm	Sunday, August 12 at 7:00 pm

The Nationals will open the 2012 season against the Denver Outlaws, on Saturday, May 5th at INVESCO Field at Mile High. Hamilton enters the season after a 7-5 season, which ended with a trip to the 2011 MLL Finals. The play-off berth was the second in three seasons. The Nationals won the MLL title in 2009, which was their first season of operation.
