MEDIA GUIDELINES

NEW YORK LIBERTY MEDIA GUIDELINES

Welcome to the 2011 season, the New York Liberty's 15th year as a charter member of the Women's National Basketball Association. In an effort to provide a professional working environment, we have established the following guidelines to assist in your coverage during this season.

IMPORTANT PHONE NUMBERS

Stacey Escudero	.(212) 465-5902 (W); stacey.escudero@msg.com
Liberty Communications Office	(212) 631-4086 (P); (212) 465-6250 (F)

INQUIRIES/REQUESTS

All inquiries and requests for player or coach interviews from accredited members of the press should be directed to the attention of Stacey Escudero. All media credential requests should be sent to liberty.credentials@msg.com

CREDENTIALS

Three media credentials are honored for admission to the Prudential Center this season: (1) Liberty 2011 season media pass; (2) Liberty 2011 single game pass (good for that specific game only), and (3) 2011 WNBA working media card. NO OTHER CREDENTIALS WILL BE HONORED. Credential requests must be made via e-mail to liberty.credentials@msg.com from the assigning editor. Requests for single game credentials must be submitted 36 hours prior to game time. Day-of-game requests will not be honored. Radio stations, magazines and weekly newspapers will be accommodated on a space-available basis. When applying for the first time, requests from magazines and weekly newspapers, radio and TV stations must be made on company letterhead and include copies of the publication (if applicable) from the assigning editor. Applying for credentials does not guarantee a confirmation. Those holding season media passes and WNBA season working media cards are required to contact the Communications Office to arrange/reserve seating 24 hours before game time. When working at the Prudential Center, it is requested that credentials be worn and displayed at all times.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Positions for credentialed photographers are located on each baseline. Free-lance photographers will not be credentialed without a certificate of assignment from an established publication. No "roving" passes are issued. Assigned photo positions will be posted in the press workroom. Please do not move from your assigned photo positions during game action. Movement is permitted only during timeouts and breaks. Please shoot only from your assigned position(s) unless cleared to move by a PR representative. Please store all coats and extra equipment in the pressroom and/or workroom. It is requested that all photographers please observe the WNBA's mandatory "Three-Foot Lane" rule. There is NO still photography permitted in either team's locker room.

HEAD COACH AVAILABILITY

Liberty head coach John Whisenant will conduct his pre-game media availability at home games outside of the Liberty locker room 90 minutes before tip-off. Whisenant's post-game media availability will take place outside the locker room. The visiting head coach will usually conduct a post-game session in the hallway outside the visitor locker room. On the road, Whisenant will host all pre-game media interviews on the court and all post-game media interviews outside the Liberty locker room.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

GAME-DAY INTERVIEWS

Participating radio and TV stations/networks are strongly urged to conduct their game-day interviews at the morning shoot-around, rather than at the arena prior to the game. It is requested that all game-day interviews pertain to that day's/evening's game. All other interviews should be scheduled in advance through the Communications Office.

LOCKER ROOMS

Entering the locker room area from courtside, the Liberty locker room is on the left and the visitor locker room on the right. As per WNBA regulations, the Liberty locker room will be open for a 30-minute period, ending one hour prior to game time (for example, the room will be open from 6:00 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. for a 7:30 p.m. start). The room will re-open within 10 minutes after the final buzzer and will remain open for a minimum of 30 minutes. Following the 30-minute media access period, locker rooms will be closed for a 20-30 minute period to allow players to shower and dress. The locker rooms may then again be opened to the media. Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a work atmosphere in the locker rooms at all times. Any media members using their credentials to gain locker room access for the purpose of obtaining autographs will have their credentials immediately revoked. It is requested that cell phones be set to vibrate or silent when working at MSG.

PRESSROOM & WORKROOM

The press workroom is for the exclusive use of working media filing on deadline. Please confine all social gatherings and conversations to the dining area to maintain a professional atmosphere in the workroom. If you are not filing on deadline, please be professional and vacate the work area.

PRESS MATERIALS

Game notes and media guides are available online (via MediaCentral.NBA.com) and in the press workroom beginning two hours prior to game time. For visiting media, early-edition game notes will be delivered to their hotel the day before the game. Running sheets, half-by-half sheets and box scores are distributed during the game and will be available in the press workroom after the game. Post-game quotes, notes and practice information will be distributed in the press workroom as soon as possible after the game.

POST-GAME PRESS MATERIALS

Media needing a final box score and/or post game quotes faxed and/or e-mailed back to their newsrooms when working at the Prudential Center should contact Liberty Communications before the conclusion of the game.

PRESS ROW

Press seating is located courtside next to the visiting team bench and in section 14F.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

There is no media parking at Prudential Center, however, there are numerous pay indoor and outdoor parking areas in the immediate vicinity.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

TELEVISION REGULATIONS

Television stations intending to produce live shots from the Prudential Center must inform the Communications Office, in advance of the game-day. All in-arena taping and live shots must be concluded no later than one hour prior to game time. Any stations or organizations with equipment that is not battery-operated must use Prudential Center electricians for connection to power.

PRACTICES/SHOOT-AROUNDS

All Liberty practices and game-day shoot-arounds take place at the MSG Training Center in Greenburgh, NY, unless otherwise noted. Visiting teams typically host shoot-arounds at the Prudential Center. All practice dates and times are subject to change. Members of the media that are interested in covering/assigning either a Liberty or visiting practice/shoot-around should contact the Communications Office in advance to confirm times.

JAMES L. DOLAN

Executive Chairman The Madison Square Garden Company

As executive chairman of The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG), James L. Dolan oversees the company's many entities, including its world-famous arena complex, professional sports teams, sports and entertainment networks, and historic showplaces. Mr. Dolan also serves as president and chief executive officer of Cablevision Systems Corporation, one of the nation's leading telecommunications, media and entertainment companies.

In his role at The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan is responsible for the company's overall growth strategy and manages all of its operations. He also serves as governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and Rangers.

To ensure the standing of the company's premier venues, Mr. Dolan has taken on a number of restoration projects throughout his tenure. The MSG Arena is currently undergoing a complete transformation that will significantly enhance the experience of customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and partners. Mr. Dolan was also the catalyst for a restoration of the company's Beacon Theatre, which was renewed to its former grandeur in early 2009. Among his most significant accomplishments as MSG chairman, Mr. Dolan spearheaded a multimillion-dollar restoration of Radio City Music Hall, returning the national landmark and MSG showpiece to its original splendor.

Over the past few years, Mr. Dolan has taken additional steps to expand MSG's entertainment properties. They include the addition of The Chicago Theatre, which was built in 1921 as one of the country's most opulent motion picture houses. MSG also extended its music business, acquiring a minority-equity interest in Front Line Management, which was recently acquired by Live Nation, the world's largest live entertainment company.

Mr. Dolan has led the company's response to local and national tragedies. He played a principal role in organizing "The Concert For New York City," which generated more than $35 million in aid for 9/11 victims and heroes, and "From The Big Apple to The Big Easy," which raised nearly $9 million for Hurricane Katrina relief. Mr. Dolan also supports The Madison Square Garden Company's ongoing commitment to the community, particularly through the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit charity that works closely with all areas at the company to help children throughout the New York metropolitan area.

In addition to his leadership role at The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan is chief executive of Cablevision Systems Corporation, which served as MSG's parent company until February 2010, when the sports, media and entertainment business became a standalone, public company. Mr. Dolan oversees Cablevision's comprehensive portfolio of advanced telecommunications services: iO TV digital video, Optimum Voice digital voice, Optimum Online high-speed Internet and Optimum WiFi, the nation's largest and most advanced WiFi network.

Mr. Dolan also oversees Rainbow Media Holdings LLC, a programming pioneer that reaches hundreds of millions of consumers through some of today's most watched and recognized cable networks, including AMC, IFC, Sundance Channel, and WE tv. Also under his purview, and serving the New York tri-state area, are the company's local media properties, which include News 12 Networks, MSG Varsity and Newsday Media Group, which features Long Island's leading daily newspaper, Newsday. Other entertainment businesses under the Cablevision umbrella include Clearview Cinemas, one of the tri-state areas leading motion picture exhibitors.

Prior to assuming his present posts at Cablevision and The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan was CEO of Rainbow Programming Holdings, Inc. (now Rainbow Media Holdings LLC) where he oversaw all facets of the business. Mr. Dolan began his career with Cablevision in the 1970s and served in a variety of executive positions before overseeing Rainbow.

Mr. Dolan serves on The Madison Square Garden Company's board of directors and Cablevision's board of directors and its executive committee. He is also on the board of The Lustgarten Foundation, an organization he helped found in 1998 which today is the nation's largest private supporter of pancreatic cancer research. In addition, he sits on the boards of the New York University Steinhardt Dean's Council and the Breathe Easy Play Hard Foundation.

HANK L. RATNER

President and Chief Executive Officer The Madison Square Garden Company

Hank J. Ratner is president and chief executive officer of The Madison Square Garden Company, which includes renowned performance venues, entertainment properties, professional sports teams and television networks. Mr. Ratner directs the overall growth strategy and day-to-day operations of the business. He also serves as alternate governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and Rangers.

The company's signature assets consist of some of the nation's most popular entertainment and sports properties, including "The World's Most Famous Arena," along with New York's Radio City Music Hall and Beacon Theatre, The Chicago Theatre and the Wang Theatre in Boston. The company's other entities include the New York Knicks, Rangers and Liberty; MSG Entertainment, a live-entertainment company; MSG and MSG Plus, regional sports and entertainment networks; and Fuse, a national music network.

In February of 2010, Mr. Ratner led the spin-off of Madison Square Garden from Cablevision Systems Corporation and, today, The Madison Square Garden Company is a standalone, public company. He is also spearheading the transformation of The Madison Square Garden Arena, which will significantly enhance the experience of customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and partners. In addition, the project will include a dramatically redesigned Seventh Avenue entrance, new seats, improved sightlines, new Event Level and Madison Level suites, two new one-of-a-kind bridges suspended above the playing surface, and spectacular public concourses. The Transformation will also pay homage to the building's storied history, while restoring the Garden's distinctive and celebrated ceiling.

Mr. Ratner served as MSG's vice chairman for seven years before being named president and chief executive officer, following MSG's spin-off from Cablevision. Throughout his tenure, Mr. Ratner has been influential in formulating and implementing strategic direction for MSG. He played a key role in bringing three of the country's landmark showplaces – New York City's legendary Beacon Theatre, the historic Chicago Theatre and the Wang Theatre in Boston – under MSG management. In addition, he helped to secure the company's successful relationship with Cirque du Soleil and developed MSG's music strategy, which emphasizes collaboration between MSG Entertainment and Fuse to provide a unique platform for artists to connect with fans and creates innovative programming for Fuse viewers. MSG's music strategy has already led to the development of the "Fuse Presents" concert series in which Fuse exclusively presents live concerts from The Madison Square Garden Company's iconic venues.

As chairman of the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit that works closely with all areas of The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Ratner has been a driving force behind the creation and significant expansion of the charity's programs, enhancing its commitment to "make dreams come true for children facing obstacles." Since its inception in 2006, Garden of Dreams has created thousands of once-in-a-lifetime experiences at Madison Square Garden, Radio City Music Hall, the Beacon Theatre, the MSG Training Center, and at Fuse and MSG television studios brightening the lives of more than 165,000 tri-state area children in crisis, and their families.

Mr. Ratner has also served as vice chairman of Cablevision Systems Corporation since 2003. In this role, he helps to set corporate direction and strategy for the media and telecommunications company whose portfolio of operations includes a full suite of advanced digital television, voice and high-speed Internet services, some of the country's most-watched national television networks, and valuable local media and programming properties. Prior to serving as MSG and Cablevision vice chairman, Mr. Ratner served as COO and then vice chairman of Rainbow Media Holdings, the programming subsidiary of Cablevision. At Rainbow, he helped lead the executive management team that directed AMC, IFC, Bravo, WE tv, Fuse, Lifeskool, News 12 Networks, Rainbow Advertising Sales Corporation and Rainbow Sports Networks. In 2005, Mr. Ratner led Cablevision's negotiations with Fox to restructure the ownership of assets held by Regional Programming Partners, a partnership between the two companies. This restructuring gave Cablevision, among other benefits, 100 percent ownership of MSG and its properties.

Mr. Ratner joined Cablevision as assistant general counsel in 1987. A year later, he moved to Rainbow Media, rising to the position of Rainbow's chief operating officer in 1998. Mr. Ratner was then promoted to vice chairman of Cablevision before also being named vice chairman of MSG in 2003.

Previously, Mr. Ratner was an associate with the law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell. He received a bachelor's degree and doctorate of law with distinction from Emory University.

SCOTT O'NEIL

President, MSG Sports The Madison Square Garden Company

Scott O'Neil was named president, Madison Square Garden Sports in July 2008. In this role, he oversees the business operations of the four professional sports teams, the New York Knicks, New York Rangers, New York Liberty and Connecticut Whale. O'Neil also manages the growing MSG Sports business, which includes college basketball, boxing, tennis and all other sports events and attractions at MSG owned venues. In addition, he is responsible for the cross platform marketing partnerships and suites sales for the transformed Madison Square Garden. The Garden is currently undergoing a comprehensive top-to-bottom transformation that will significantly enhance the experience for customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and partners.

Since joining The Madison Square Garden Company, O'Neil has played a key role in securing multiple unprecedented Signature Partners with industry leading brands Anheuser-Busch, Coca-Cola and Delta Air Lines that incorporate all of MSG's sports, entertainment and media assets as well as the transformed Garden. He also helped secure JPMorgan Chase as MSG's first-ever Marquee Partner, the preeminent multi-platform, multi-venue, multi-media partnership with the company. During his tenure he has also been influential in directing a refocused commitment to providing world-class entertainment and customer service to fans, subscribers and marketing partners.

O'Neil has established a reputation in the industry as a leader in building management teams and attracting and retaining talent. At Madison Square Garden, he has assembled a world-class team of the top sales and marketing talent to lead and drive the business, which has resulted in a transformational partnership based culture-driving results through an emphasis on collaboration, innovation and execution.

O'Neil came to The Madison Square Garden Company from the National Basketball Association, where, as senior vice president, he oversaw the league's team marketing and business operations, advising NBA and WNBA teams on ticket sales and service, sponsorship development, and marketing. He also managed the NBA's Canadian business and the NBA Development League. Prior to joining the NBA, he oversaw the launch of HoopsTV, and honed his sales and marketing expertise with the Philadelphia Eagles and New Jersey Nets.

O'Neil was named to Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal Forty Under 40 Hall of Fame, and was named one of the nation's top marketing executives under 40 by Advertising Age in 2006. He is also a member of Young Presidents' Organization (YPO), a not-for-profit, global network of chief executives connected around the shared mission of becoming better leaders through education and idea exchange. O'Neil has a commitment to a number of non-profit organizations, including serving as a Board Member for the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit charity that works with all areas of Madison Square Garden to "make dreams come true for children facing obstacles." In addition, he is on the Advisory Board for the Each One Counts Foundation.

O'Neil holds a degree in Marketing from Villanova University and M.B.A. from the Harvard Business School. He is married with three children & lives in the Garden State.

JOHN WHISENANT

General Manager & Head Coach First Season

The 2011 WNBA season will be John "Whiz" Whisenant's first season as general manager and head coach for the New York Liberty. Whisenant brings more than 30 years of basketball experience to his new role with the Liberty.

Prior to the Liberty, Whisenant spent seven seasons with the Sacramento Monarchs serving as general manager, and as head coach for three full seasons (2004-2006) and two partial seasons (2003, 2006). While serving as head coach he compiled a .612 winning percentage (85-54) and led the Monarchs to the playoffs six out of seven years with three conference finals appearances. JILL CULBERTSON

Assistant General Manager First Season

The 2011 WNBA season will mark Jill Culbertson's first full season on the New York Liberty's Basketball Operations staff as Assistant General Manager.

Prior to joining the Liberty, Culbertson had a long history with the Sacramento Monarchs where she steadily increased her responsibilities and duties. From 2001 to 2004 she served as the Locker Room Attendant, then served as Equipment Manager for three seasons from 2005 to 2007, and eventually became Manager of Basketball Operations, filling this role for two seasons in 2008 and 2009. Among other duties, Jill handled player contracts and team operations for the team.

As Assistant General Manager for the Liberty, Culbertson will apply her management and operational talents to help Coach Whisenant lead the Liberty to a strong 2011 campaign.

The Sacramento native is a graduate of California Polytechnic State University-San Luis Obispo.

MONIQUE AMBERS

Assistant Coach First Season

The 2011 season will be Monique Ambers first season with the New York Liberty. As assistant coach, Ambers main responsibilities include assisting head coach John Whisenant in player development, game preparation, West coast scouting as well as planning practices and individual player workouts.

Prior to the Liberty, Ambers spent eight seasons with the Sacramento Monarchs as assistant coach from 2002 to 2009. She also helped lead the team alongside head coach John Whisenant to the 2005 WNBA championship and 2006 West Conference Championship.

In 1994, Ambers joined the George Washington University Lady Colonials' as assistant coach for three seasons. While she was there, she helped the team win two Atlantic 10 Championships along with three post-season appearances. In that time she accomplished a winning record of 80-19 (.808).

Ambers ended her college coaching career in 1997 when she was drafted by the Pheonix Mercury in the 4th round of the 1997 WNBA Draft for the league's inaugural season. That same year she helped the Mercury become Western Conference Champions. In addition to her WNBA career, Ambers also played professional basketball internationally for ten years in Italy, France, Korea, Greece, Germany, Spain and China.

Ambers holds a bachelor's degree in Family Resources and Human Development from Arizona State University.

LADY GROOMS

Assistant CoachFirst Season

The 2011 season marks Lady Grooms first season with the New York Liberty. As an assistant coach, Grooms' responsibilities include assisting head coach John Whisenant in player development, game preparation and West coast scouting as well as planning practices and individual player workouts.

Prior to joining the Liberty, Grooms served as head women's basketball coach for the Arlington Christian School in Fairburn, Georgia since 2009. Under Grooms the team was undefeated for three seasons and won two State Championships. Grooms also received State and Regional Coach of the Year honors. In addition to her high school coaching career, Grooms spent two years as the player development coach for the Sacramento Monarchs

After a college career at the University of Georgia, Grooms began her WNBA career playing for the Utah Starzz via the Initial Player Allocation Draft in 1997. Following her time with the Starzz, she played for the Sacramento Monarchs for seven seasons (1998-2004) where she made three playoff appearances. Grooms also played overseas in Turkey, Hungary and Italy. During her WNBA career, Grooms scored over 1,000 career-points while grabbing over 500 rebounds.

LISA WHITE

York into fourth place in the Conference

GAME 26 | 08-03-10: NY 82, IND 72 The Liberty out hustled the Fever to improve to 8-2 since the All-Star break and snapped a 13-game skid at Conseco Fieldhouse ... New York led at half-time 40-29, but Indiana poured in 26 third quarter points to make it a one-point game with 2:40 to go in the frame ... With Leilani Mitchell's three pointer to open the fourth quarter, the visitors' lead was extended to five ... It was a four-point game with just over six minutes in the frame, but it was the closest the hosts would get ... Nicole Powell led the way for New York with a season-high 20 points ... Cappie Pondexter added 19 and Janel McCarville had a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

GAME 27|08-06-10: WAS 77, NY 85

A team effort led to New York's 16th victory of the summer and prevented a season series loss to Conference rival Washington ... After the Mystics created a seven-point lead in the first quarter, the Liberty stepped up in the second and tied the game at 20 with 6:21 remaining in the first half ... Taj McWilliams-Franklin's 17-footer with 5:44 to go sparked a New York run and closed out the half leading by 14 points ... The Liberty's double-digit advantage was maintained throughout the third quarter, as the hosts went up by as many as 19 with four minutes remaining in the period, behind Cappie Pondexter's seven points ... The largest lead of the game (23 points) for the hosts came in the final frame twice, until the Mystics started to chip away at it ... Matee Ajavon came off the bench to net 20 points in the quarter and Washington made it an eight-point game twice in the final 18.7 seconds ... After Kia Vaughn's free throws gave New York a 10-point lead with 10.2 remaining, Ajavon answered with an 18footer with 0.8 seconds, but time expired before the visitors could do anymore damage ... Pondexter, one of four players in double figures, had 23 points in the

GAME 28|08-08-10: NY 74, MIN 72

With 3 players scoring in double figures, a balanced attack helped the Liberty tie the season series with the Minnesota Lynx. The Liberty jumped out in the first frame led by 8 points from Nicole Powell including a 3 of 3 efforts from the field including 2 3-point field goals. The Liberty ended the first quarter on a 6-2 run to take the lead. Minnesota started out the 2nd quarter on a 7-0 run moving ahead 22-19. The Liberty then countered with a 4-0 run to take the lead for good. A four-point halftime lead ballooned to 13 at the 41.4 left in the 3rd guarter. Leilani Mitchell and Nicole Powell led the charge with 5 points a piece. Powell chipped in with 4 assists as well. Minnesota started the 4th quarter on an 11-0 run to get within one point at the 6:44 mark. Monica Write and Lindsay Whalen both led the charge with 6 points a piece. New York maintained the lead down the stretch with a balanced scoring attack. Nicole Powell led New York's charge with 21 points, 4 assists and 4 rebounds.

GAME 29|08-13-10: NY 90, ATL 83

Cappie Pondexter scored a game-high 31 points to lead the Liberty to a 90-83 win over the Atlanta Dream. With the win, New York (18-11) won their seventh consecutive game, tying a franchise record, and moved one game ahead of Atlanta (18-13) in the Eastern Conference. Atlanta was led by Angel McCoughtry's 22 points and 21 from Erika DeSouza. Pondexter scored 16 points in the first quarter, missing only one of her seven shots from the outside and setting the tone for New York. Pondexter finished the game 8 of 11 from the field and 13 of 13 from the free-throw line.

GAME 30|08-14-10: NY 107, PHX

Cappie Pondexter led the way with a game high 28 points and Nicole Powell added a season high 23 points, behind a personal best seven three pointers, as the Liberty rode a franchise record 107-point effort to a 107-69 victory over the Mercury at the Garden. New York jumped out to an eight point lead at the end of the first quarter, and a 19-point lead at the half, before cementing a 38-point victory with a 20-8 fourth quarter. The win helped the Liberty notch their third playoff berth in last four seasons and move within one game of Indiana, atop the Eastern Conference.

GAME 31 | 08-17-10: NY 78, IND 57 Leilani Mitchell scored 19 points and Taj McWilliams-Franklin had 14 points and 10 rebounds (second double of season) to lead the Liberty to a 78-57 win versus first-place Indiana, extending their franchise record nine-game winning streak and holding Indiana to a season low 57 points. Cappie Pondexter scored 13 points and Nicole Powell added 10 to help New York (20-11) win for the 13th time in 15 games since the All-Star break and move one-half game behind Eastern Conference-leading Indiana. The Liberty also evened the season series at 2-2. Tamika Catchings scored 25 points to lead the Fever (21-11), who held a 21-14 advantage late in the first quarter but then totaled just 20 points in the second and third periods, as the Liberty built a double-digit lead.

The Liberty found themselves trailing at halftime, but fought back for a 95-85 win versus Tulsa for their franchise best 10th straight victory. Nicole Powell scored 20 points, Cappie Pondexter had 16, as New York tied the franchise record with their 21st win of the season. The Liberty moved into a tie with Indiana for first place in the Eastern Conference with two games remaining. Taj McWilliams-Franklin added 15 points, Leilani Mitchell had 14, Plenette Pierson 12 and Sidney Spencer season high 10 to help the Liberty (21-11) win for the 14th time in 16 games since the All-Star break. The Liberty, who shot 60 percent (12 for 20) in the opening 10 minutes, were just 4 for 14 (29 percent) in the second quarter. New York also committed seven fouls in the second and Tulsa took advantage by making 9 of 11 at the line to take a 36-33 lead at the break. The Liberty bounced back to shoot 51 percent from the field, including 12 for 26 (46 percent) on 3pointers, and 87 percent (13 for 15) from the free throw line and had 25 assists on its 35 field goals. The Liberty hit five 3-pointers in the final 4 1-2 minutes of the third quarter to pull ahead, and then held off the Shock down the stretch after Tulsa pulled within four points. Spencer's 3 with 7:17 remaining gave New York an 80-65 lead, the Liberty's biggest of the game. Crossley made two free throws and hit a 3 to cut Tulsa's deficit to 10 with 6:36 to go. Crossley made two more free throws, Latta hit a jumper and Chante Black a layup to pull the Shock to 82-76 about 2 minutes later. Jones made a layup and Latta a jumper as the Shock cut the deficit to 84-80 with 2:48 remaining, but that was as close as they got. McWilliams-Franklin had a layup 14 seconds later, Pondexter made a jumper and Carson added a layup to increase New York's lead to 90-80 with about a minute to go. (Complied with AP story).

It came down to the wire, but the Liberty were on the wrong side of an ending that saw three lead changes in the final 30seconds, as Lindsey Harding hit a goahead layup with 8.8 seconds left to hand the Libs a 75-74 defeat, snapping their 10-game winning streak. Cappie Pondexter, who led the way with 28 points, put the Liberty up by one with 12.6 seconds left, answering a Coleman putback with :21.3 left. Harding answered with a driving layup with :08.8 left for two of her 14 points, paving the way for one last attempt for the Liberty to win the game. The Libs missed three attempts in the final :02.9, as the Mystics held on to the victory, forcing a three-way tie atop the Eastern Conference standings with New York and Indiana.

GAME 34 | 08-22-10: NY 88, CT 87 The Liberty wrapped up the regular season in exciting fashion, with an 88-87 (OT) victory versus Connecticut at the Garden, securing the number-two seed in the playoffs. Cappie Pondexter led the way with a game-high 31 points, including six of the Libs eight points in the extra session. Nicole Powell added 14 points, Janel McCarville 12 points and five rebounds and Leilani Mitchell 13 points, four rebounds and four assists. Connecticut had four players score in double figures led by Tina Charles 21 points and 13 rebounds. The Liberty raced out to a 12-5 lead midway through the first quarter, and would outscore the Sun 8-4 over the final 2:22 to grab a 26-15 lead after 10 minutes. Connecticut rattled off six points to open the second quarter, cutting the Liberty lead to 26-21 with 8:06 to play. New York answered with five straight points to regain a double-digit advantage, 31-21, before Connecticut went on a 9-2 run to close within three, 33-30, with 4:07 to play.

New York finished the quarter strong, closing it on a 10-4 run to head to the break with a 43-34 lead. In the third quarter, Connecticut cut it to 46-43 with 6:46 remaining, before New York regained a 56-45 lead two minutes later. The Sun then went on a 14-6 run to close the quarter, cutting New York's lead to 62-59 after 30 minutes. Connecticut opened the fourth quarter on a 9-5 run to grab its first lead, 68-67, since the opening minute, with 6:22 to play. The lead would change hands five times with one tie over the next three minutes before Libs opened an 80-75 lead with 1:44 left. The Liberty went scoreless over the final 1:43, as Connecticut scored the final five points of regulation to force overtime. Tan White opened the scoring for Connecticut in overtime with a layup, but then Pondexter and the Liberty took over. Cappie scored six points, including four in the game's final: 56, as the Liberty held the Sun to 0-7 from the field, with the exception of a White jumper with :01.2 left to secure the victory.

THE NEW YORK LIBERTY STORY

- On October 30, New York was selected as one of eight charter members of the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA).
- Rebecca Lobo and Teresa Weatherspoon joined as the team's first players and the franchise name and logo were introduced.

1997

- Carol Blazejowski, a member of the Basketball Hall of Fame, is named vice president and general manager for the Liberty.
- The Liberty's and WNBA's first game was played on June 21 in Los Angeles. Led by head coach Nancy Darsch, the Liberty defeated the Los Angeles Sparks, 67-57, before a crowd of 14,284 at The Forum.
- On June 29, in front of a Madison Square Garden (MSG) crowd of 17,780, the Liberty scored its first win in its first game at home, defeating Phoenix, 65-57.
- New York notched seven straight victories to start the inaugural season, finished in second 2001 place in the conference and advanced to the first ever Championship game versus the Houston Comets.
- An average of 13,270 fans attended each of the Liberty's 14 home games.

- Despite a rough start to the season, New York rallied late in the second half, including a stretch when it won 10 out of 11 games.
- One of those wins was a 70-54 victory over the champion Houston Comets. This rematch took place in front of the Liberty's first ever-MSG • capacity crowd of 19,563 in a nationally televised contest on NBC.

- Veteran NBA coach Richie Adubato took over the team reins on June 10 and guided the Liberty to an 87-60 victory over the defending 2002 Eastern Conference champion Cleveland Rockers.
- With Liberty posting impressive the attendance figures for the third straight season, MSG played host to the first-ever WNBA All-Star Game, which saw a sellout (18,649) crowd on July 14. Four Liberty players participated: Rebecca Lobo, Teresa Weatherspoon, Kym Hampton, and Vickie
- The Liberty posted an overall mark of 18-14 and won its first Eastern Conference title.

Despite falling short of the WNBA title, the series against the Comets was pushed to a third game when Weatherspoon made the most famous shot in WNBA history - a half court buzzer-beating shot that won Game Two before a stunned Houston squad and Compag Center crowd.

- Newly acquired center Tari Phillips thrived in the New York spotlight, leading the team in points and rebounds and earned the WNBA's Most Improved Player Award.
- Weatherspoon was voted to the WNBA All-Star squad as well as the WNBA All-Second Team.
- With a club best 20-12 record, the team finished atop the Eastern Conference and earned а third trip the WNBA to Championship. New York fell went 2-0 against Houston, but had a strong Game Two showing with four players scoring in double figures.

- In its fifth anniversary season, the team advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals versus Charlotte, however fell in the series 2-1.
- The franchise led the league in attendance, averaging 15,660 fans per game. The team set a new franchise record for victories, finishing the season 21-11. The team tied a record win streak with seven in a row from June 21 - July
- Both Tari Phillips and Teresa Weatherspoon reached the 1,000 career point mark.
- The All-Star Game featured the Liberty coaching staff leading the East squad, which included Liberty starters Phillips, Weatherspoon and Johnson.
- Sue Wicks capped off the season by winning the Kim Perrot Sportsmanship Award.

- Coach Adubato and company led New York to 18 wins, tying for fourth best in the league including a streak of 10 wins out of 14 games.
- The Liberty won four consecutive season ending games to advance to the Playoffs, first in the opening round versus the Indiana Fever, followed by the Conference Finals against the Washington Mystics.
- The Liberty advanced to the WNBA Finals for the fourth time in six years, before falling to the Los Angeles Sparks, 2-0.
- New York shot a franchise and all-time WNBA record 66 percent from the floor versus the

- Mystics on August 24, in game two of the Eastern Conference Championships along with scoring a franchise-high 96 points in the same game.
- Weatherspoon became the first player in WNBA history to tally 1,000 points and 1,000 assists. Johnson became the first Liberty player and 11th in the WNBA to score 2,000 points.
- As a result of her dominant play. Phillips was named to the 2002 All-WNBA Second team.
- For the first time in franchise history, four players finished the season averaging doublefigures in scoring; Phillips (14.1), Whitmore (12.7), Robinson (11.8) and Johnson (11.6).
- By posting a sixth consecutive winning record, the Liberty is also able to boast that they were one of only two teams in the WNBA to have had a winning record in each year the WNBA 2005 had been in existence.

- Sue Wicks, the Liberty's first ever draft pick, announced her retirement just prior to training camp.
- New York started the season winning three of its first five games with guard Hammon leading the charge by averaging 18.6 ppg during that span.
- On July 12, the organization hosted the 2003 WNBA All-Star game for the second time in franchise history.
- At Connecticut versus the Sun on August 12, the Liberty overcame a 17-point deficit to post a 74-73 last second victory, which was the second largest comeback in team history. New York defied the odds a second time in Washington versus the Mystics on August 21, battling back from a 20-point halftime shortfall to mark the largest margin of a comeback victory (65-60) for the Liberty alltime.
- In the strangest scenario all season, due to the New York City blackout on August 14, the 2006 Liberty became the first team in WNBA history to play three games in as many days - playing the first back-to-back-to-back in league history.

- The Liberty was feeling confident heading into its eighth WNBA season and sprinted out of • the gate, posting a 6-1 record.
- After encountering a rough patch in the middle of the season, Pat Coyle replaced Adubato as head coach and immediately turned the team around. Under Coyle's

- guidance, the team registered an 11-6 mark and secured their sixth playoff appearance.
- The Liberty played to sellout crowds for six games at the historic Radio City Music Hall and posted a 5-1 record.
- New York City's "Great Stage" hosted The Game at Radio City, which featured the USA Women's Olympic team vs. a WNBA Select
- In Game Three of the Playoffs first round, the Liberty knocked off the defending champion Detroit Shock. With the clock winding down, Becky Hammon dished off to Bethany Donaphin, who calmly drained a gamewinning jumper and sent New York to the Eastern Conference Finals vs. the Connecticut Sun.

- The Liberty played five games in 10 days, winning each of them.
- New York finished the season posting an 18-16 record, yet another winning year, resulting in another post-season appearance.
- For its seventh playoff berth in nine years, the Liberty matched up against the Indiana Fever in the First Round.
- Hammon was one of only two Liberty players (Vickie Johnson being the other) to start every game during the season. She was voted by the fans as a starter for the 2005 WNBA All-Star Game and recorded her 2,000th career point on August 16. To cap her stellar season, she was named to the All-WNBA Second Team.
- Throughout the season: Vickie Johnson scored her 3,000th point, making her just the seventh player in WNBA history to accomplish this mark. Additionally, she pulled down her 1,000th rebound just over a month later. Elena Baranova recorded her 2,000th career point and Crystal Robinson notched her 500th rebound.

- New York, as well as the WNBA itself, celebrated its 10th Anniversary. The Liberty and Madison Square Garden also hosted the WNBA All-Star Game for the third time.
- The franchise welcomed its two millionth fan and became the first team in the history of the WNBA to reach that mark.
- New York became the first team in the WNBA to have its complete regular season aired on television, as Liberty games were seen on MSG Network, ABC and ESPN2.

- In true New York spirit, the team rallied in the second half of the summer, finishing the season by winning seven of its last 10 games.
- Despite missing part of the season with an injury, Hammon still finished as the top freethrow shooter in the league (.960) and Erin Thorn led the WNBA in three-point shooting, posting a .431 average on the year.
- Liberty honored legend Teresa • Weatherspoon by making her just the second woman to ever be inducted into the MSG Walk of Fame. As a finishing touch, her name and the number 11 is permanently displayed on The Garden court in front of celebrity row.

- In its 11th season, the Liberty carried its then youngest roster in franchise history.
- On Opening Day, New York tied a Madison Square Garden record for the most threepointers (13) in one game, against the Chicago Sky - leading to the team's first season opening victory since the 1999 season.
- The new-look squad went on to win its next four games for a roaring 5-0 start to the summer, the second best season start for the organization.
- In the entire history of the WNBA, never had two teams with at least 3-0 marks met face-toface until the Liberty beat the Indiana Fever on June 5.
- The Liberty went 6-4 in its final 10 games of the season and clinched the final Playoff for its eighth post-season campaign.
- After capturing victory in Game One against the Shock - beating them by a franchise best 22-point margin - the Liberty lost by three points in Game Two and was within seconds of winning the series, but lost by one point in a Game Three overtime thriller.
- Janel McCarville was named the WNBA's Most 2009 Improved Player of the Year in her first season with the Liberty and Loree Moore earned second-team All-Defensive accolades for her third season in New York.
- With a .372 percentage from three-point range on the year, New York wrapped the regular season as the League's No. 1 overall leader and boasted five players in the WNBA's Top 20 category of long-range shooters.

With an average age of 24.4 to tip-off the summer, New York's roster registered as the youngest in the WNBA for the season, in addition to the youngest in its 12 year history.

- New York scored 100-plus (105) points for the first time in franchise history when hosting the defending WNBA Champion Phoenix Mercury on June 22. Ultimately winning the game 105-72, the Liberty's bench out-scored the Mercury's bench, 62-21 and set a new WNBA record for most points scored by a bench.
- Just four days after recording the most points in club history, on June 26 the Liberty once again posted 100-plus points in a victory over the Indiana Fever – winning 102-96. The game went into triple overtime, a regular season first for both clubs and tied for the second longest in overtime periods in WNBA history.
- On July 5, New York earned its 200th franchise victory with a win in Phoenix. The Liberty joined the Sparks, Comets & Monarchs as the only teams in the WNBA to reach the 200-win mark.
- In front of a 19,393 fans, professional basketball history was made when the Liberty hosted the Fever at Arthur Ashe Stadium in the first regular season game to be played outdoors in the sport's history. The game was also the first non-tennis sporting event to be held at the historic USTA Billie Jean King National Tennis Center.
- Pat Coyle coached the young squad to the franchise's first 19-win season since 2001, wrapping the regular season with a 19-15 record.
- After topping the Connecticut Sun 2-1 in the first round of the WNBA Playoffs, the Liberty made its fifth appearance in the Eastern Conference Finals to face rival, the Detroit Shock. New York captured Game One, but was forced to a third match-up and lost the series

- Hall of Famer and a New Jersey native Anne Donovan enjoyed a homecoming when she joined the Liberty sidelines as an assistant. Donovan replaced Pat Coyle as the interim head coach halfway through the season, compiling a 7-10 record to finish off the summer.
- Four Liberty players finished ranked amongst the WNBA's top 10 statistical leaders in six categories.
- Shameka Christon became the 10th player in franchise history to be named a WNBA All-Star and the first since 2006. In the same week of receiving that honor, she scored her 2,000th career point – the fourth player in club history to do so - and was named WNBA

- Eastern Conference Player of the Week after scoring a career-high 32 points versus the Atlanta Dream at Madison Square Garden.
- New York finished the regular season ranked as one of the league's top three long-range shooting teams, registering .358-percent from beyond-the-arc.
- The Liberty wrapped its 13th WNBA season on a high note with a win over Conference rival, the Washington Mystics on the final day of the regular season at The Garden. The franchise owns a 6-1 all-time record when closing out the season on its home floor.

- The Liberty acquires WNBA All-Star Nicole Powell through the dispersal draft.
- The Liberty start off the season slow but end the season on a 11-1 run, including a franchise best 10 game win streak, to finish second in the Eastern Conference.
- The Liberty acquires WNBA All-Star and two-time WNBA Champion Cappie Pondexter from the Phoenix Mercury in a three team blockbuster trade. Cappie registered a careerhigh 40 points in July, followed by her 3,000th career point in August. She earned WNBA Player of the Week honors 5 times, including back to back honors two times in a row along with closing out the month of August as WNBA's Player of the Month. Cappie finished the season ranked in the top 10 in 21 different statistical categories including #2 in ppg, #6 in

- apg, #5 in 3PT FG%, #7 in FT%, #1 in MPG, #1 in FGM, and #6 in Efficiency Ranking

Los Angeles Sparks Minnesota Lynx Phoenix Mercury San Antonio Silver Stars Seattle Storm Tulsa Shock

History: On April 24, 1996, women's basketball announced "We Got Next" as the NBA Board of Governors approved the concept of a Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA) to begin play in June 1997. Since that day in 1996, there have been many firsts for the WNBA:

Val Ackerman: the first president of the WNBA Sheryl Swoopes: the first player signed to the WNBA Cynthia Cooper: the league's first Most Valuable Player

Houston Comets: the first WNBA Champions

Lisa Leslie: the first WNBA player to dunk (7/30/02 vs. Miami) Lauren Jackson: the first international player to win MVP (2007) Candace Parker: the first rookie to earn the league's MVP honor (2008)

1101101 (2008)

Sylvia Fowles: the first goaltending call (6/3/2008 vs. LA)

The inaugural WNBA season tipped off on June 21, 1997, with the New York Liberty taking on the Los Angeles Sparks at the Great Western Forum in Inglewood, Calif. A crowd of 14,284 watched as Sparks guard Penny Toler scored the first basket in WNBA history. The Liberty defeated the Sparks, 67-57.

A Growing Game: The influence of the WNBA can be seen in the explosive growth of organized women's basketball over the past 14 seasons. An estimated 100 million women play basketball worldwide, and the league reflects this trend, featuring 20 international players from 13 countries and territories at the end of the 2010 season. Female AAU youth basketball participation has increased 277 percent since 1991 (from 28,840 to 108,758 players). Female high school basketball participation has increased 17 percent since 1991 (from 387,802 to 456,967 players). And female NCAA basketball participation has increased 43 percent since 1991 (from 10,551 to 15,096 players).

All-Star Game: The San Antonio Silver Stars and the AT&T Center will host the 2011 WNBA All-Star Game in San Antonio on Saturday, July 23, 2011.

In place of the All-Star Game last season, the league hosted a special event, "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Stars at the Sun" at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville Conn. on July 10, 2010. The event showcased the world's best female basketball players under one roof and helped the USA Basketball Women's National Team prepare for the upcoming FIBA World Championship that fall. The USAB squad, featuring 10 WNBA players and one collegian, defeated a team of WNBA stars 99-72. Sylvia Fowles of the Chicago Sky and playing for USAB, earned game MVP honors. University of Connecticut's Geno Auriemma coached the U.S. squad while Seattle Storm Head Coach Brian Agler led the WNBA team.

The first WNBA All-Star Game was held in New York at Madison Square Garden in 1999. The Garden also hosted the event in 2003 and in 2006. Washington's Verizon Center (2002, 2007) is the other venue to host the game multiple times. Other All-Star Games were played in Phoenix (2000), Orlando (2001) and at the Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn. (2009). Due to the Olympics, no All-Star Game was held in 2004 and 2008, although Radio City Music Hall in New York City was the site of an exhibition game on August 5, 2004, as the U.S. National Team, comprised mainly of WNBA greats, faced a squad of WNBA All-Stars in "WNBA vs. USA Basketball: The Game at Radio City"

Inspiring Coach: The Inspiring Coach Award is an annual honor introduced in 2007 to recognize coaches who have positively influenced athletes across numerous levels and whose achievements leave an indelible mark on sports as a whole. The University of Connecticut's Geno Auriemma earned the honor in 2010 for his profound impact on female athletes and his demonstrated commitment, passion, and dedication to work, family, and community. Previous winners include Pat Summit, Kay Yow, and Jody Conradt.

Inspiring Women: The Inspiring Woman Award is an annual honor that celebrates an individual who, on a daily basis, demonstrates her ability to inspire others through her commitment, passion and dedication to work, family, and community. Past honorees include U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Susan Rice (2010), Emmy-award winning journalist Cokie Roberts (2009), Good Morning America's Robin Roberts (2008), Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice (2007), and the WNBA All-Decade Team (2006).

Dawn Staley Award: The Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award was announced in 2006 and is now presented annually to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's contagious leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game. Winners include Chamique Holdsclaw (2009), Tamika Raymond (2008), and Tamika Catchings (2007). A member of the WNBA's All-

Decade Team, Staley, who retired following the 2006 season, established herself as one of the greatest ambassadors in women's basketball history, while also demonstrating outstanding leadership qualities as a coach on the collegiate level and as a philanthropist and humanitarian.

Marketing: The WNBA maintains marketing, promotional, and media partnerships with a variety of top companies, each with varying levels of activation and integration in league operations.

Marketing and Promotional Partners: adidas, American Express, Bacardi, BBVA, CieAura, Coca-Cola, EA, Gatorade, General Mills/Wheaties, Hayworth, HP, InterContinental Hotels Group (IHG) Hotels, Jamba Juice, NewTek, Nike, Panasonic, Pepperidge Farm, Russell Athletic, Sanofi Aventis, Sanofi Pasteur, Spalding, T-Mobile

Media Partners: USA Today, Parenting Group, Essence, Heart & Soul

The WNBA's marketing partners utilize the league to support women's sports and reach its strong fanbase of women, families, and young girls through advertising in WNBA nationally televised games, national promotions, player endorsements, and special events.

The WNBA has an extensive, highly integrated relationship with adidas. The sporting goods and apparel giant not only serves as the official outfitter of the WNBA – having unveiled new uniforms across the league in 2007 and again in 2011 – but also served as the presenter of the WNBA Draft since 2007. In 2008 adidas became the first-ever presenting partner of the WNBA's entire postseason, including both the playoffs and Finals.

Five WNBA teams have entered the league's Marquee Partnership program, which includes multiyear deals featuring branded sponsorship of game jerseys – the Phoenix Mercury partnering with LifeLock, the Los Angeles Sparks with Farmers Insurance Group, the Seattle Storm with Microsoft search engine Bing, the New York Liberty with Foxwoods Resort Casino, and the Washington Mystics with Inova Health System.

Attendance / TV Ratings: The WNBA concluded the 2010 regular season with its fourth consecutive year of increased attendance. Postseason attendance increased for the third consecutive year, finishing up 36 percent over 2009.

For Games 2 and 3 of the 2010 WNBA Finals presented by adidas, average viewership on ESPN2 jumped 15 percent from 2009 and 79 percent from 2008.

The WNBA has one of the top five Facebook fanbases among sports leagues, with more than 318,000 fans (www.Facebook.com/wnba).

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2010 included more than 30 live national telecasts of regular-season and postseason contests on ESPN2 and ABC, and another 40-plus games on NBA TV, as well as games streamed on ESPN360.com.

The WNBA's broadcast coverage in 2011 will include 70 high-definition regular-season, playoff, and Finals games on ESPN2, ABC and NBA TV. In addition, all WNBA games are available online via WNBA LiveAccess unless: (a) They are televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com, or (b) They are televised at the same time a game is televised on ABC or ESPN2 – in which case they stream live on ESPN3.com and are later archived to WNBA.com.

In July 2007, the WNBA signed a new, eight-year TV deal with ESPN that tipped off in 2009 and runs through 2016, the WNBA's 20th season. The agreement, which calls for ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 to telecast WNBA games, includes rights fees, a first for any women's pro team sports league in the U.S.

Global Reach: Now in its second decade, the WNBA has a wide impact on overseas markets. In 2010, for the fourth straight year, WNBA games and programming reached a record 203 countries in 32 languages, surpassing the previous total of 198 countries. In addition, for the fifth consecutive year, fans around the globe are able to view WNBA action via live Webcasts on NBA.com/china.

At the conclusion of the 2010 regular season, WNBA rosters featured 20 international players from 13 countries and territories. Among the league's international contingent were the league's MVP, Seattle Storm forward/center Lauren Jackson (Australia), the Indiana Fever's Tammy Sutton-Brown (Canada), the San Antonio Silver Stars' Sophia Young (St. Vincent), and the Los Angeles Sparks' Ticha Penicheiro (Portugal). They will be joined in 2011 by Tulsa's Elizabeth Cambage (Australia), whom the Shock selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2011 Draft.

WNBA Draft: The 2011 WNBA Draft presented by adidas took place on April 11 at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn. It marked the first professional sports league draft held on the ESPN campus. The Minnesota Lynx selected University of Connecticut's Maya Moore as the top overall pick. The Tulsa Shock selected Elizabeth Cambage second, the Chicago Sky tabbed Courtney Vandersloot third, the Lynx chose Amber Harris fourth, and the Los Angeles Sparks took Jantel Lavender fifth to round out the first five selections.

Ownership: Six WNBA teams now fall under the independent ownership model: the Atlanta Dream, Chicago Sky, Connecticut Sun, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, and Tulsa Shock.

With the announcement on Oct. 20, 2009 that the Detroit Shock would relocate to Tulsa, Okla., Tulsa Pro Hoops L.L.C. began play in 2010. Force 10 Hoops, L.L.C., the entity owned by Seattle businesswomen and civic leaders Anne Levinson, Ginny Gilder, Lisa Brummel, and Dawn Trudeau, purchased the Seattle Storm on Feb. 28, 2008. In October, 2009, Kathy Betty purchased the Atlanta Dream. In addition, the Los Angeles Sparks opened the 2007 season with new ownership after Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson, two long-time season ticket holders, bought the Sparks on Dec. 7, 2006. They joined Michael Alter's Chicago Sky, and the Mohegan Tribe's Connecticut Sun as independently owned WNBA franchises.

Entering the 2011 season, 10 women serve as owners of WNBA teams: Dr. Sheila Johnson (Washington Mystics); Kathy Goodman and Carla Christofferson (Los Angeles Sparks); Kathy Betty, Mary Brock, and Kelly Loeffler (Atlanta); and Dawn Trudeau, Ginny Gilder, and Lisa Brummel (Seattle Storm). A 10th, musical artist Michelle Williams, formerly of "Destiny's Child," is a minority owner of the Chicago Sky.

Dr. Sheila Johnson, a co-founder of Black Entertainment Television, became the WNBA's first African-American female owner on May 24, 2005 when she joined Ted Leonsis' Lincoln Holdings LLC, which in turn purchased the Washington Mystics from Washington Wizards' owner Abe Pollin.

Key Highlights: In 2010, Tina Thompson of the Los Angeles Sparks became the all-time scoring leader with 6,413 points, surpassing her former teammate, Lisa Leslie (6,263) who retired following the 2009 season.

Tina Charles won the 2010 WNBA Rookie of the Year award after averaging 15.5 ppg, 11.7 rpg, and 1.7 bpg, while also setting league records for most total rebounds (398) and doubles-doubles (22) in a single season.

Lauren Jackson won the 2010 WNBA MVP presented by Kia Motors award and also took home 2010 WNBA Finals MVP honors. Lisa Leslie of the Los Angeles Sparks became the first – and only – WNBA player to capture the regular-season, All-Star, and Finals MVP awards during the same season (2001).

Jackson also became the third player to earn WNBA MVP honors three times (2003, 2007, 2010), joining the Sparks' Lisa Leslie (2001, 2004, 2006) and the Houston Comets' Sheryl Swoopes (2000, 2002, 2005). Houston's Cynthia Cooper earned the award twice (1997, 1998). The others to capture MVP honors are the Sacramento Monarchs' Yolanda Griffith (1999), the Sparks' Candace Parker (2008, when she became the first rookie in league history to earn the award), and the Phoenix Mercury's Diana Taurasi (2009).

Candace Parker became the first WNBA player to win Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player in the same season (2008). The first selection in the 2008 WNBA Draft, she earned both honors after leading the league in double-doubles and rebounds per game, while also ranking second in blocks per game and fourth in points per game.

Lauren Jackson became the WNBA's youngest (26 years, 77 days) and fastest (209 games) to score her 4,000th career point on July 27, 2007. Diana Taurasi subsequently surpassed Jackson as the fastest to 4,000 points in terms of fewest games played when she reached the milestone on July 27, 2009 in just 197 games.

Taurasi rewrote the WNBA scoring records in 2006 when she led the league with 25.3 points per contest, became the first WNBA player to top 800 points in a single season (860), and the single-season mark for three-point field-goals (121) and the single-game mark for points (47, a number later equaled by the Storm's Lauren Jackson in 2007).

Sheryl Swoopes, who earned MVP and Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2000 and 2002, made WNBA history with the league's first triple-double (14 points, 15 rebounds, 10 assists) vs. the Detroit Shock on July 27, 1999.

Lisa Leslie became the first player to dunk in a WNBA game when she did so on July 30, 2002 vs. the Miami Sol. Candace Parker, also of the Sparks, was the second, throwing down a dunk vs. the Indiana Fever on June 22, 2008.

WNBA Cares: Through the WNBA Cares initiative, the league is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on promoting a healthy lifestyle and positive body image, breast health awareness, youth and family development, and education. WNBA teams and players donate countless dollars and hours each year through league programs including Breast Health Awareness, WNBA Green Week, Go Red For Women, WNBA Fit, and Read to Achieve.

GARDEN OF DREAMS

Garden of Dreams is a 501c3 non-profit charity that works closely with all areas of Madison Square Garden, including the New York Knicks, Rangers, Liberty, MSG Media, MSG Entertainment and Fuse "to make dreams come true for kids facing obstacles". In the four years since its inception, Garden of Dreams has worked tirelessly to fulfill its mission by creating unique and unforgettable events and activities -often involving unprecedented access to Madison Square Garden celebrities, events and venues -that have brightened the lives of thousands and thousands of special children and their families.

Garden of Dreams strives to be heroic, inspirational and unforgettable – all attributes of the children the Foundation has had the privilege to meet over the course of its history. Partnering with a diverse collection of outstanding children's related organizations – from hospitals, to foster organizations, to homeless shelters and "wish" organizations, the Garden of Dreams Foundation has a singular goal each and every day – to utilize the power and magic of Madison Square Garden and its properties to bring joy and happiness to children facing devastating problems – whether they relate to illness, homelessness, poverty, foster care issues or tragedy.

Since its inception in 2006, the Foundation has created once in a lifetime experiences at Madison Square Garden, Radio City Music Hall, the MSG Training Center, Fuse and the Beacon Theatre for more than 165,000 tri-state area children. Over 145,000 tickets have been donated to organizations served by Garden of Dreams and more than 1,800 special events have been designed for children and families.

For example, Garden of Dreams has spearheaded surprise player visits to local children's hospitals to deliver toys collected through MSG Entertainment and NY Liberty toy drives, trips to community based organizations to distribute coats donated during a Rangers coat drive, opportunities to meet players and celebrities on Dream Suite Nights or at Rangers Skating Parties, on set at Fuse, or the once in a lifetime opportunity to perform on the Great Stage of Radio City Music Hall at the MSG Entertainment Talent Show.

Additionally, the Foundation seeks to brighten the day-to-day lives of children in participating organizations through bricks and mortar enhancements. Each year, the Foundation, in partnership with the Knicks, Rangers and Liberty, unveils newly refurbished spaces at partner organizations by virtue of its annual Room Refurbishment program.

In partnership with MSG Media, Garden of Dreams hosts the MSG Classroom program, an eight week course designed to teach high school students about career opportunities available within the television industry. Throughout the course, students attain skills necessary to create their very own sports and entertainment program. At the conclusion of the program, students present their original piece to MSG executives and employees during a special wrap party.

Together with Fuse, Garden of Dreams created Fuse Rocks the Classroom, a program that introduces high school students to the music television industry. Launched in January, 2009, Fuse Rocks the Classroom provides teens with the unique opportunity to develop skills necessary to pursue a career in music television. Students receive hands on experience working with camera equipment, set design, and production crews while working to create their very own music television show.

Through its flagship 'Make A Dream Come True' program, Garden of Dreams has assisted in making dreams come true for several children– including one child's dream to meet Rangers legend, Adam Graves, and another child's wish to meet the Radio City Rockettes. The meetings may only last a few hours, but the memories and relationships with Garden of Dreams last forever.

The Garden of Dreams Foundation's partnership with Madison Square Garden and its employees provides the Foundation with an opportunity to conduct a meaningful "Adopt a Family" program with Children's Aid Society. This past holiday season, MSG employees "adopted" 135 families in need throughout New York City.

MADDIE

A LIBERTY FAN'S BEST FRIEND

Scanning the crowd at New York Liberty games, you will find many exciting and friendly faces, but one face that stands out is the one that belongs to the New York Liberty mascot, Maddie. Like most dogs, Maddie is lovable and huggable and known for a unique personality among the Liberty faithful.

Besides being a fan favorite, Maddie plays an important role for the team during the Liberty pre-game ceremony. Before every game, you will find Maddie doing pushups and getting the Liberty players pumped up for the game. With less than a minute before tip-off, Maddie leads fans in a L-I-B-E-R-T-Y chant while spelling out the name at center court.

In addition to on-court antics, Maddie is also known for valuable work off the court. Whether it is making appearances at events for The Garden of Dreams Foundations, or pumping up the crowd at The CBS Early Show, you can always count on Maddie to spread happiness throughout the day.

A fact unknown to most, Maddie is named after the Liberty's home arena, Madison Square Garden, and has been entertaining fans at Liberty games since the WNBA's inception in 1997.

LIBERTY DANCE TEAMS

LIBERTY TORCH PATROL

Since the team's inception in 1997, Liberty fans come to expect several championship basketball, deafening crowd noise, York celebrities and great entertainment. Performing at every game, the Liberty Torch Patrol has become one of the hottest acts in town by capturing the spirit of the The Torch Patrol does New York Liberty. whatever it takes to get Liberty fans involved in the action, including t-shirt tosses, high-flying cheerleading stunts and acrobatics, streamer cannons and pre-game giveaways. The 16member Torch Patrol is comprised of both men and women with extensive experience in either professional dance or cheerleading.

LIL' TORCHES

Liberty games are ageless – whether young or old, everyone has a great time. Look no further than the Lil' Torches for proof of just how true that is. The Liberty's junior dance group features local children between the ages of 6-14. When they perform at weekend games at The Prudential Center, they receive just as big of an ovation as Liberty players do! They will once again be brightening games in 2011.

TIMELESS TORCHES

The most recent addition to the Liberty family is a little bit older and a whole lot wiser. The Timeless Torches show that you don't have to be young to be a Liberty fan - just young at heart. This dance group consists of men and women over the age of 40 who want to share their love of the Liberty with the crowd. The Timeless Torches made their debut in 2005, and were a hit from the get-go, making an impact on fans at The Garden, and even showed off their Liberty spirit to a national audience when they performed on ABC's Good Morning America. They have also represented New York by performing at WNBA All-Star Games in 2006, 2007 and 2009. Keep an eye out for this popular and memorable dance troupe, when it returns to MSG for its seventh season this summer.

WNBA IN THE COMMUNITY

Through WNBA Cares, our teams, players and partners are deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people, with a special emphasis on education, youth and family development and health and wellness.

NBA/WNBA FIT

The NBA/WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families through grassroots programs and events, and products related to health, fitness, nutrition and self-esteem. In cooperation with well-established health and wellness organizations, NBA/WNBA FIT informs, educates and engages children and families in healthy living practices.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Greening Initiative is an innovative program designed to reduce the environmental impact of the league's operations and events.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program has focused on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative.

WNBA READ TO ACHIEVE

The Read to Achieve campaign is a program that values reading and on-line literacy and encourages families and adults to read regularly with young children. The program includes special reading time-outs, the donation of books and literacy materials to schools and community based organizations.

DRIBBLE TO STOP DIABETES

Launched in January 2011, the 'Dribble to Stop Diabetes' campaign raises awareness of the American Diabetes Association's "Stop Diabetes" movement and addresses an important piece of diabetes care and prevention – physical fitness. The program will be aimed at using the simple and fun activity of dribbling a basketball as a way to promote healthy, active lifestyles and diabetes awareness, prevention and management during in-arena team nights.

VACCINES FOR TEENS

Launched in February 2009, Vaccines for Teens is a national multimedia campaign designed to educate teens and their parents about the importance of vaccination against meningitis, flu and pertussis. Press events are hosted by WNBA teams and joined by the Society of Adolescent Health and Medicine, sanofi pasteur and the NBA league office (including NBA Legend Bob Lanier). WNBA Legend Lisa Leslie is a campaign spokesperson.

JAMBA JUICE

In partnership with Jamba Juice, WNBA FIT will highlight both companies' commitment to promoting fitness/healthy nutrition through joint promotional activities with WNBA teams.

COKE LIVE POSITIVELY CLINICS

In partnership with Coke, WNBA Cares will host five (5) WNBA FIT Live Positively Clinics in priority markets. These fitness clinics will be led by Players or Legends, for more than 75 youth.

MSG HISTORY

Beginnings

The current Garden - located between 31st and 33rd Streets and Seventh and Eighth Avenues on Manhattan's West Side - is the fourth building (third site) to be named Madison Square Garden.

Garden I: was located at Madison Square: 26th Street and Madison Avenue. It was originally opened in 1874 (at a cost of $35,000) by the legendary P.T. Barnum as "Barnum's Monster Classical and Geological Hippodrome." However, it was soon renamed "Gilmore's Garden" when the lease was auctioned off to bandmaster Patrick S. Gilmore (the term "Garden" was used often during this period to denote a place of public gathering and entertainment).

The building, which had 28-foot walls without a roof, hosted a varied schedule of social and fraternal meetings, flower shows and commercial exhibitions. When Gilmore's lease expired in 1878, it was picked up briefly by W. M. Tileson. The following year, William Vanderbilt of the New York Central Railroad assumed control of the facility and officially renamed it "Madison Square Garden" on May 31, 1879. Featuring a sports and entertainment program that stressed such events as boxing and the National Horse Show, Garden I stood until its demolition in 1889.

Garden II: was constructed on the site of Garden I, opening on Jun. 16, 1890 at a cost of $1.5 million. It contained an 8,000-seat main arena, 1,500-seat concert hall, 1,200-seat theatre and the world's largest indoor swimming pool. The Spanish Renaissance-style structure was topped by its most famous feature: a 32-story tower and roof garden atop which stood Augustus Saint-Gauden's gold statue of Diana, Goddess of the Hunt.

Stanford White, the renowned architect who designed Garden II, also figured in its most famous - and infamous - event. On the night of Jun. 25, 1906, White was gunned down in the Garden's rooftop garden by Pittsburgh millionaire Harry Thaw, allegedly in revenge for White's long-standing affair with Thaw's wife, showgirl Evelyn Nesbit. The White-Thaw-Nesbit love triangle was ultimately immortalized in the 1955 film The Girl in the Red Velvet Swing - starring Ray Milland as White and Joan Collins as Nesbit - and in the recent best-seller American Eve by Paula Uruburu (Riverhead Books, 2008). Nesbit died in obscurity in California at age 81 in 1967.

Garden II hosted a sporting card heavy with boxing, wrestling, six-day bicycle races and horse shows, along with national events such as the 1924 Democratic National Convention, a marathon that lasted through 16 days and 103 ballots. Movie buffs will recall that in Orson Welles' 1941 classic Citizen Kane, Charles Foster Kane's acceptance of the 1916 New York gubernatorial nomination takes place at Garden II (although, obviously, it wasn't actually filmed there).

Garden II closed with a boxing card on May 5, 1925, followed by a mournful eulogy by ring announcer Joe Humphreys: "Farewell to thee, o temple of fistiana. Farewell to thee, o sweet Miss Diana...". The New York Life Insurance Building (51 Madison Avenue) occupies the former site of Gardens I and II, while Diana found a new home at the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

Garden III - the "Old Garden": was built in just 249 days at 49th Street and Eighth Avenue under the watchful eyes of promoter Tex Rickard and architect Thomas Lamb. The fabled 18,000-seat arena, built at a cost of $5.6 million, opened with a six-day bicycle race on Nov. 24, 1925, and for 43 years was America's premier sports and entertainment showplace. Ironically, Rickard did not live to see the blossoming of Garden III, suffering a fatal appendicitis attack on Jan. 6, 1929.

Anyone who ever set foot in the Old Garden remembers its unforgettable atmosphere...the sky-high balcony...the haze from decades of cigarette smoke...the main lobby, a schmoozer's paradise...the marquee...G.O. Cards...the organ (played first by Gladys Goodding, later by Virginia Thomas)...the unmistakable voice of John Condon...the Nedick's and Adam Hats stores that flanked the main entrance...

Sports - especially hockey, basketball, boxing and track - would be the lifeblood of the Old Garden. But it also hosted entertainment extravaganzas ranging from the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus and the Gene Autry Rodeo to star-studded spectacles like Mike Todd's 1957 anniversary party for his film Around the World in 80 Days and President John F. Kennedy's May 19, 1962 birthday party which featured Marilyn Monroe's breathless version of "Happy Birthday." On the screen, the Garden provided the inspiration, and title, for the 1932 Paramount epic Madison Square Garden, starring Jack Oakie and ZaSu Pitts, as well as the on-location backdrop for the harrowing final reel of John Frankenheimer's 1962 classic The Manchurian Candidate.

The first NHL team to play at Garden III was the New York Americans, who rented the building for the 1925-26 season. The Rangers played their first regular-season NHL game there on Nov. 16, 1926, beating the Montreal Maroons 1-0. In the 42 years the Rangers played on 49th Street, they would win three Stanley Cup championships (1928, 1933 and 1940) and develop a host of Hall of Famers, including Bill Cook, Frank Boucher, Ching Johnson, Babe Pratt, Neil Colville, Chuck Rayner, Andy Bathgate, Harry Howell, Gump Worsley, Rod Gilbert, Jean Ratelle and Eddie Giacomin.

The Rangers played their final game at the Old Garden on the afternoon of Feb. 11, 1968;a 3-3 tie with Detroit. The last event ever was the Westminster Dog Show, over Feb. 12-13, 1968. After the Old Garden was demolished, the site was used for years as a Kinney parking lot. The Worldwide Plaza office/apartment complex, which opened in 1989, now occupies the site.

Garden IV: On Nov. 3, 1960, Garden president Irving Mitchell Felt announced plans for a new Madison Square Garden - Garden IV - to eventually be built at 33rd Street between Seventh and Eighth Avenues, atop Pennsylvania Station.

Prospective sites for a New Garden had been discussed throughout the mid- and late-'50s, especially the area at Columbus Circle which would eventually house the New York Coliseum and, ultimately, the Time Warner Center.

MSG HISTORY

Then the Garden Corporation obtained the coveted "air rights" above Penn Station from the Pennsylvania Railroad in 1961. The Railroad had entertained the idea of selling Penn Station's air rights as far back as 1951, when faced with a $72 million deficit. In 1955, Railroad president James Symes and famed real estate developer William Zeckendorf signed an agreement to option the Station's air rights for an industrial-commercial "Palace of Progress", with a new, renovated Penn Station below street level. When the project fell through, the Railroad sold the air rights to the Garden Corporation. Above-ground demolition of Penn Station began on Oct. 28, 1963, with new concrete poured starting on May 1, 1964.

The effort was not without its critics, one of whom called the destruction of Penn Station "an act of irresponsible public vandalism." Ultimately, Penn Station's legacy was the New York City Landmarks Preservation Commission, the guiding force behind a series of laws that today protect more than 1,000 individual city landmarks.

Garden IV opened as a glittering sports and entertainment showplace, with its distinctive circular, cable-suspended roof above the 19,000-seat arena, its 5,000-seat Felt Forum, 48-lane Bowling Center, 500-seat cinema, Hall of Fame Club, National Art Museum of Sport, 50,000-square foot Exposition Rotunda and 29-story office building (Two Penn Plaza) attached by a pedestrian mall.

The first element of the New Garden complex to open its doors was the Bowling Center, on Oct. 30, 1967. On Nov. 26, 1967, the Felt Forum opened with a performance of the Welsh and Scots Guards.

The "New Garden" itself officially opened on Feb. 11, 1968, when Bob Hope and Bing Crosby hosted "The Night of the Century," a star-studded salute to the USO. One week later – Feb. 18, 1968 – the Rangers played their first game in their new home, a 3-1 victory over a Philadelphia Flyers team that had entered the NHL that season in what signaled the end of the NHL's Original Six era.

Odds 'N Ends

- Cost for design and construction of the present Garden was $43 million.
- Garden IV was built by Turner Construction and the Del E. Webb Corporation. The building was designed by Charles Luckman, the fabled entrepreneur and architect who died in 1999. Luckman also designed the Great Western Forum, the Los Angeles Convention Center, CBS Television City, the Prudential Center in Boston and the Johnson Space Center in Houston
- The Garden arena is 425 feet in diameter, 13 stories high, and occupies 820,000-square feet of real estate.
- Each of the four entrance/exit towers is over 100 feet high and contains at least 10 escalators.
- Seating capacity for Rangers hockey is 18,200. .

Through The Years

1972: Garden IV becomes the first New York sports venue to install luxury boxes, formally named "Hall of Fame Lounges." The original deck of 11 luxury suites - each measuring 23x15 feet and accommodating 10 people - is installed above the mezzanine level on the 33rd Street side. Due to the ongoing luxury suite construction, basketball broadcast locations are moved to courtside and directly above center-court exit tunnels. Previously, they had been located in a two-level booth suspended from the roof.

1977: Original end zone scoreboards replaced by new 36-foot long scoreboards in each end zone, and smaller auxiliary boards on the facing of the mezzanine at center court. New boards feature tenth-of-a-second timing capabilities and black-and-white animated matrix boards.

1989-91: Over a three-year span, the Garden complex undergoes its most extensive renovation to date, a multi-million dollar effort in which:

- Each of the original red, orange, yellow, green and blue seats is removed and replaced. Primary color scheme is now purple and teal.
- Existing scoreboards are replaced by a computerized, state-of-the-art system that features the eight-sided Center Display Board (37 feet wide at the top, 34 feet wide at the bottom), complete with "GardenVision" color replay screens and multicolored end zone boards, by White Way Company of Chicago. It is the first eight-sided scoreboard in a major U.S. arena. Original Garden sound system is also completely overhauled, including the replacement of the original center-hung "sound cluster" with four separate speaker clusters affixed to the arena ceiling.
- Original Hall of Fame Lounges (luxury boxes) are removed and replaced by a completely new deck of 89 Club Suites that encircles the entire arena, including a double-deck of suites on the 7th Avenue end.
- The Paramount, a state-of-the-art, 5,600-seat theatre, is constructed on the former site of the Felt Forum, now named the Theater at Madison Square Garden. Fronting the main entrance is the Garden Walk of Fame, which opens in 1992.
- Two dining facilities The Club Restaurant and the Play-By-Play sports bar and restaurant are constructed on the former site of the Bowling Center and the Hall of Fame Club.
- Garden exterior renovated, including the installations of animated color matrix boards above the Seventh Avenue entrance to Penn Station and the Eighth Avenue facade.
- Upgrades and improvements in other areas of the Garden, including concession stands (and all-new Food Courts), locker rooms, press room, box office, Garden Team Store and broadcast facilities.

1995: Knicks and Rangers locker room areas are further renovated and expanded, including increased player/locker space, expanded training and X-ray facilities and individual offices for all coaches.

2000: Ongoing improvement program in the new century features "GardenVision" upgraded to HD format, making it the first indoor arena to feature HD playback.

2007: LED and Matrix center scoreboard and side out-of-town boards installed.

And A New Era Dawns...

Madison Square Garden is currently undergoing a comprehensive, top-to-bottom transformation that will provide a significantly enhanced experience for customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and partners. The project is being paid for entirely by Madison Square Garden and will involve over 2.6 million man hours of union labor, the equivalent of at least 1,300 full-time jobs, and will create as many as 3,700 union construction jobs. It will also restore The Garden's world famous ceiling and pay homage to the buildings storied history. The project's architect is Brisbin Brook Beynon, Construction Manager is Turner and Project Manager is JLL.

Extensive research and focus groups were conducted and the feedback was used to develop the plans for the transformation. The transformed Madison Square Garden is expected to attract even more high profile sports and entertainment events, major concerts and awards shows. Some of the many major upgrades will include:

- Beautiful new entrance which nearly doubles in size and features interactive kiosks, retail, climate controlled space, and broadcast area
- · Public concourses doubling and tripling in size, some with spectacular city views
- · Larger, more comfortable seats
- Improved upper bowl sightlines that put patrons over 17 degrees closer to the action
- Two new one-of-a-kind Bridges that will provide great views of the arena floor and offer a unique perspective for fans
- · State-of-the-art lighting, sound and LED video systems in HDTV, and new fiber-optic cabling throughout the building
- Improved dressing rooms, locker rooms, green rooms and production offices
- Additional bathrooms with 50% more dedicated space
- Corporate offerings: 58 Lower Level suites that will be 40% larger and half the distance to the events and include seats in the arena bowl, 20 Event Level Suites that offer a lounge/entertaining atmosphere, and 18 remodeled 9th level suites. There will also be two new club spaces, one at the event level and one at the lower level of the arena.

Below is a timeline for when elements of the transformed Garden are planned to debut:

2011-12 Season:

- · Lower Bowl seating area
- Expanded Lower Concourse with city views, enhanced concession stands featuring Coca-Cola products and additional retail locations (some components will gradually come on through the season)
- 20 new Event Level Suites offering a sophisticated atmosphere and the best seats in the house
- New Delta SKY360° Club offering exclusive dining options and views of athletes entering and exiting the locker room area

2012-13 Season:

- Upper Bowl seating area and significantly improved sightlines
- Expanded Upper Concourse with city views, enhanced concession stands featuring Coca-Cola products and additional retail locations (some components will gradually come on through the season)
- 58 new Lower Level Suites that are larger and half the distance to the court/ice with bowl seating
- New all-inclusive Super Club with seating in the arena and exclusive club space available for corporations and individuals looking to entertain at Knicks and Rangers games

2013-14 Season:

- New 7th Avenue Entrance featuring interactive kiosks, retail locations and a broadcast area
- Two spectacular new Bridges that will be suspended above the court/ice for a one-of-a-kind view of the action
- New 10th floor Party Decks offering a selection of new food and beverage options and a unique social gathering space with direct views into the arena bowl
- New state-of-the-art GardenVision center-hung scoreboard
- 18 completely remodeled 9th floor Suites

"New York is not a city. It is a set of cities, dozens of them, divided by caste, class, taste and blood. Most of us are welcome in a few of these cities, barred from others by tradition, or fear, or indifference, or income. But all of us hold safe conduct passes to The Garden. It is a center of experience for the same reason New York is: nothing is out of place there. Walk through a neighborhood of New York and you will find people who would never dream of setting foot in Carnegie Hall, the Empire State Building, the Fillmore East, Sunnyside Gardens, The Four Seasons, or the Bronx Zoo. Madison Square Garden is alien to none of us."

Jeff Greenfield, 1974

MSG NETWORK

MSG Network has been providing thrills for New York-area sports fans for nearly 41 years. MSG's historic first telecast was on October 15, 1969 with the New York Rangers' home opener against the Minnesota North Stars to 18,000 cable television subscribers in lower Manhattan. Today, the network is available in over 10.8 million homes in the broader New York region and across the nation.

Since its inception, MSG has prided itself on being a leader in the sports television industry by staying on the cutting edge of sports technology. In 1998, MSG became the first regular provider of sporting events in high definition (HD). And last year, MSG delivered the world's first hockey game in 3D. Currently, MSG, along with sister network MSG Plus, telecasts nearly 700 live events per year. The two networks serve as the television home for the New York Knicks, New York Rangers, New York Liberty, New York Islanders, New Jersey Devils, Sabres and Red Bulls, offering fans live sports action year around along with an extensive line-up of original programming. The most decorated regional network in New York, MSG has won more New York Emmy's the last two years than any other network or station in the tri-state area.

Mike Crispino - Play-by-Play

A seasoned sports host and play-by-play broadcaster, Mike will handle play-by-play duties this season for Liberty telecasts. A member of the MSG family since 1992, Crispino has handled a multitude of roles, and this past season delivered the play-by-play for select Knicks and Rangers telecasts. He also serves as the play-by-play announcer for the St. John's Men's Basketball team on ESPN 1050.

Mary Murphy - Analyst

A long-standing personality in women's basketball, Mary is the former head coach and general manager of the Sacramento Monarchs. She has worked as an analyst for women's college basketball for FSN since 1999 and was the television and radio voice of the Miami Sol from 2000 to 2003. Mary enters her sixth season as an analyst for the Liberty on MSG.

Deb Placey - Sideline Reporter

A part of the MSG family since 1995, Deb Placey has become an integral part of the networks local sports coverage. She currently serves as a host and reporter on MSG Plus for the New York Islanders. Placey has filled many roles throughout her time with MSG, and has hosted "Hockey Night Live," MSG's popular weekly hockey roundup show, as well as numerous other hosting and reporting duties for both MSG and MSG Plus.
