CREDENTIALS MUST BE VISIBLE AT ALL TIMES.

All media with access to restricted areas will be required to produce a photo ID, and all bags and equipment will be subject to inspection.

CREDENTIALS

Seating at Bankers Life Fieldhouse's press tables is restricted to accredited working media representatives. Non-working media will be seated in reserved seat areas when seats are available.

Single-game credentials must be requested no later than noon the day before the game (Friday noon for Sunday games).

You may request credentials by faxing, on your company's letterhead, to the Fever's Media Relations Department at (317) 917-2799, or by writing, on your company's letterhead, to the Fever's Media Relations Department, 125 S. Pennsylvania Street, Indianapolis, IN 46204.

Credentials are good for admittance to Bankers Life Fieldhouse, the Bill York Media Room and home and visiting locker rooms.

Pre-arranged credentials may be picked up before the game at the media entrance.

MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING FEVER SEASON CREDENTIALS MUST NOTIFY THE FEVER'S MEDIA RELATIONS DEPARTMENT IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING.

AUTOGRAPHS

SEEKING AUTOGRAPHS OR SOUVENIR ITEMS FROM PLAYERS OR COACHES IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED AND SUBJECT TO FORFEITURE OF CREDENTIAL.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

The media entrance is located at the southeast corner of Bankers Life Fieldhouse, off of Delaware Street. Only media members who hold Indiana Fever or WNBA media credentials will be admitted through this entrance.

BILL YORK MEDIA ROOM

Located on the Event Level of Bankers Life Fieldhouse in the southeast corner. It is accessible by elevator or stairs near the Media Entrance.

The Fever must limit media room usage to members of the media only when valid Fever or WNBA media credentials are presented. It is impossible to accommodate family members, friends, guests or others.

The professional intent of the room is to provide a meeting and working place for the media and game personnel. Any abuse of the media room and/or media privileges will cause forfeiture of your credential.

SERVICES

Complete statistics, along with pregame notes, lineups, information regarding injuries and other pertinent facts will be furnished by the Fever's Media Relations Department.

Play-by-play and halftime boxscores will be delivered directly to the press table. Complete final boxscores, play-by-play, postgame quotes and notes will be available following the game in the media room.

FAX - The Indiana Fever will provide one fax machine for use in the media room.

Wireless Internet access is available in the media room and the seating bowl. Please contact a member of the Fever media staff for password access.

PRESS ROW

Your cooperation is asked in maintaining a working atmosphere at press row. Smoking is prohibited in Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

LOCKER ROOMS

Both the Fever and visitors' locker rooms will be open to the media for 30 minutes, beginning 90 minutes before tipoff. For example, the locker rooms will be open from 5:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. for a 7:00 p.m. tip.

Both locker rooms will be open for 30 minutes following the game. Players will remain in uniform for the media availability period.

Cell phone use by media is prohibited inside team dressing rooms.

MEDIA GUIDELINES

PHOTOGRAPHY GUIDELINES

Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed space on the floor and their photo credentials must be worn prominently at all times.

Space permitting, other photographers will be allowed on the floor.

Credentials are good for admittance to Bankers Life Fieldhouse, Bill York Media Room and the designated photographer areas on The Fieldhouse floor. Only television photographers doing postgame interviews will have access to locker room areas.

Photographers are allowed only within the designated photographers' area at each end of the court. As necessary, spaces will be assigned by the Fever's Media Relations Department.

All photographers and camera operators must stay at least four feet behind the baseline at all times. In the event it is not physically possible to achieve this in certain arenas, an appropriate standard will be determined by the Fever's Media Relations Department and the WNBA.

Photographers must remain stationary and seated at all times, except during quarter breaks and halftime.

Photographers are not permitted on the court at any time during the game.

No food or drink is allowed on the playing floor.

Photographers cannot photograph from public walkways or vomitories.

If space is available, photographers may request to photograph from the media seating in the stands.

When placing tape on the playing floor, authorization must be received by a member of the Pacers Sports & Entertainment Media Relations Department or Facilities Division.

PHOTOGRAPHER'S EQUIPMENT

Photographers located on the baseline or sideline will be permitted only one standard size "Domke" bag, which must be placed behind the photographer during the game. Equipment not needed during the game must be stored off the court. One additional camera can be stored either beside or directly behind the photographer.

Each photographer will be permitted one monopod - NO TRIPODS - at courtside. No stand-alone remotes or seats other than "lawn-type" photographer seats will be permitted.

All film should be unpacked before the game and all trash should be properly disposed of by the photographer.

RUBBER LENS SHADES

In order to reduce the risk of injury to players, rubber lens shades are required for all still photographers, broadcasters, news and entertainment video and film crews who are authorized to shoot WNBA game action.

Any additional light sources or sun guns must either be removed or covered with bubble wrap.

Rubber lens covers are available by contacting:

Robert's Distributors, Inc.
255 S. Meridian Street
Indianapolis, IN 46225
(317) 636-5524 / (800) 726-5544
FAX: (317) 636-5793

The only exception to this policy will be for those photographers utilizing telephoto lenses (i.e. 300 and 400 mm lenses) when such lenses are used to shoot game action at the opposite end of the court. These lenses must be stored behind the photographer when the action is in the near side of the court.

PHOTOGRAPHY IN LOCKER ROOMS

No still photography is permitted in either team's locker room.

CLOTHING

All photographers must leave any outerwear (i.e. coats, hats, etc.) in the Bill York Media Room during game action.

TV NEWS CREWS

Credential requests must be received by noon the day of the game.

News crews are restricted to crowd interviews in the Indiana University Health Entry Pavilion, Balcony and Main Concourse. Interviews are not allowed in the vomitories on any level of Bankers Life Fieldhouse. News crews are not allowed on the Founders Level or Krieg DeVault Club Level, unless accompanied by a member of the Fever's Media Relations Department. In order to enter a Suite, each news crew must have permission from the individual Suite Holder to enter their respective Suite. Once permission is granted, the news crew must inform a member of the Fever's Media Relations Department, and then will be accompanied into the suite by a member of the Fever's Media Relations Department.

During game action, news crews must shoot crowd reaction from designated areas. Check with the Fever's Media Relations Department for locations. No interviews will be allowed within the seating bowl once game action begins.

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA

All international media (affiliations distributed outside of the U.S.) requests are handled by the NBA International PR Department. Any international media member interested in covering an Indiana Fever regular season game must first submit a request in writing to the WNBA/NBA. Please do not contact the Fever individually.

All credential requests must be received at least three business days prior to the first games requested.

Photo identification will be required when picking up confirmed credentials at the Media Entrance.

Requests may be FAXED to the attention of:

NBA International
FAX: (212) 407-8044

Additional information on international media policies may be obtained by contacting the NBA International PR Department at (212) 407-8000.

BANKERS LIFE FIELDHOUSE

With 750,000 square feet and 18,165 seats, this is a fairly new house that is, remarkably, in just its 12th year, an old home.

Bankers Life Fieldhouse, opened Nov. 6, 1999, when the Indiana Pacers hosted the Boston Celtics, is a step into the future while taking a walk back into history. It's big, yet comfortable. It has all the modern appliances, yet there's that favorite old picture on the wall. It is a building that is unique in today's sports society because the extra effort was made to make it that way. In other words, if you have a religion, you must build the appropriate cathedral.

In Indiana, basketball is religion. Bankers Life Fieldhouse is a cathedral. That's why the home of the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever is unique.

"We wanted this building to have a kind of special feeling to it, that when people came into it they felt part of the tradition that the building is for," said Donnie Walsh, then the Pacers Sports & Entertainment CEO & President who was instrumental in the Fieldhouse becoming a reality. "I think this is a pure basketball arena that reflects the game itself and the roots of the game."

Ground was broken on July 22, 1997 on the $183 million multi-purpose facility and while there were blueprints, a scale model and dreams, it was hard for anyone at the time to fathom what would evolve. But what has risen 14 stories into the Indianapolis skyline is a fit perfect for the city, the state, the game of basketball at any level and the various events a facility of this type would host.

"There are so many features that make it one-of-a-kind," said Tom Proebstle, Project Designer for Ellerbe Beckett, the Fieldhouse design firm. "The most obvious feature is the two huge glass curtain walls facing east and west that mark the beginning of an incredible architectural promenade as you are approaching downtown on the highway and see the lit-up glass set against the Indianapolis skyline. No other arena in the world can claim this. I'm sure it will be copied many times over."

That's the view from the outside. Inside, the unique look and feel of Bankers Life Fieldhouse takes over. The Indiana University Health Entry Pavilion is a vast gathering place that funnels fans to the Grand Staircase. As patrons make their way up the staircase, their view takes them to their first look at the seating bowl (another unique feature) or to large memorabilia cases on each side of the entrance to the Fieldhouse seating bowl.

From there, no matter which direction one takes, it's a nostalgic look. From the signage, to the concession stands, to the sponsor pavilions, to the bathrooms, to the one-of-a-kind Practice Court, to the light fixtures, to the scoreboard, Bankers Life Fieldhouse is unique, distinct and, as Pacers' great Reggie Miller described, "Unbelievable. Absolutely unbelievable. Far beyond my expectations."

Bankers Life Fieldhouse has suites (69), club seats (2,400) and state-of-the-art amenities. But it has a look and feel unlike any other indoor facility.

This unique feel has brought many comparisons and compliments to Bankers Life Fieldhouse. The USA Today calls the Fieldhouse "A Cathedral to Basketball" and Amusement Business Magazine refers to Bankers Life Fieldhouse as "The Camden Yards of Basketball." NBC's Bob Costas said Bankers Life Fieldhouse "is winning raves all around the league, many think it's the best building in the NBA."

A 2006 survey by the Sports Business Journal ranked Bankers Life Fieldhouse as the No. 1 venue in the NBA. An informal ranking in the Orange County Register, in 2008, echoed the same rating.

In addition to hosting the Indiana Pacers and Fever, the Fieldhouse has hosted major boxing events and visits from Pavarotti, Bill Cosby, Bruce Springsteen, Elton John and Billy Joel, Bob Seger, George Strait & Reba McEntire, The Boston Pops, John Mellencamp, Paul McCartney, Tim McGraw & Faith Hill, The Dixie Chicks, NSync, AC/DC, Britney Spears, Carrie Underwood, Crosby Stills, Nash & Young, Kid Rock, U2, Hannah Montana, Disney On Ice and Dancing With The Stars. It has also played host to the 2002 FIBA World Basketball Championships, the 2004 FINA World Short Course Swimming Championships and the United States Gymnastics Championships. In April 2011, it played host to the NCAA Women's Final Four. In 2012 the Fieldhouse provided a border to the east side of the Super Bowl Village for Super Bowl XLVI. It has been an annual host of the Big Ten Conference men's and women's basketball tournaments, and a gathering point for the National FFA Convention – the nation's largest annual youth gathering.

Additionally, Bankers Life Fieldhouse has been cited for its compliance and exceeding of ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) requirements.

Bankers Life Fieldhouse was the host site of the 2011 NCAA Women's Final Four, welcoming Connecticut, Stanford, Notre Dame and Texas A&M to Indianapolis. Texas A&M defeated Notre Dame to earn its first national championship.

A basketball and entertainment showplace, Bankers Life Fieldhouse has regularly been rated as the top arena in the NBA.

BANKERS LIFE FIELDHOUSE

QUICK FACTS

- Ground breaking was on July 22, 1997.
- Approximately 300,000 cubic yards of dirt were removed from the construction site.
- The world's largest crane was brought in to install tresses on top of building. The crane was so large it was disassembled before being brought into the structure and reassembled on the ground level once inside the structure.
- Was the first retro-styled facility in the NBA.
- Main Concourse width ranges from 24 to 60 feet.
- 69 luxury suites available for sale and two hospitality suites available for rent.
- Founders Level Suites are 16 rows from courtside seating.
- Approximately five trips around the Main Concourse equal a mile.
- Four main stairwells with approximately 1,014 steps.
- Assisted listening devices available for events as well as sign language interpreters
- Concierge on staff at all events to assist with guest needs
- Heating ducts under plazas melt ice during cold weather
- The ice that is used for hockey takes approximately eight hours to make. (Pipes under the floor are filled with a substance that freezes the floor to approximately 12-15 degrees.)

WELCOME TO INDIANAPOLIS

What's to love about Indianapolis?
Plenty.

There are big-time professional and college sports, led by the NBA Indiana Pacers, the 2012 WNBA champion Indiana Fever and past NFL Super Bowl champion Indianapolis Colts.

There is the world-famous Indianapolis Motor Speedway, home to the world's two largest single-day sporting events (the Indianapolis 500 and the Allstate 400 at the Brickyard). The Speedway's Hall of Fame Museum is a year-round attraction.

There is the city's renowned reputation as an amateur sports capital, serving as home to the National Collegiate Athletic Association, four national sports governing bodies, Super Bowl XLVI, NCAA Men's and Women's Final Fours, the Big Ten Men's and Women's Basketball Tournaments and numerous regional, national and international championships.

It boasts three of the finest sports venues in the world: Bankers Life Fieldhouse (home to the Pacers and Fever), Lucas Oil Stadium (home to the Colts) and Victory Field (home to the Triple-A Indianapolis Indians), not to mention historic Hinkle Fieldhouse on the campus of Butler University. Just a short walk from the NCAA offices and NCAA Hall of Champions are another pair of world-class venues downtown, on the campus of Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis (IUPUI). The IUPUI Natatorium has been a frequent host to U.S. Olympic Trials, and the Michael Carroll Track & Field Stadium is a frequent host of Olympic Trials events and the USA Outdoor Track & Field Championships.

Indy is home to six unique "cultural districts," each bustling with its own distinct flavor, flair and mix of pubs, restaurants, shops, arts and attractions.

Then there is a world-class urban park, White River State Park, with five major attractions within steps of each other. Stroll from the Indianapolis Zoo to the Indiana State Museum to the NCAA Hall of Champions to the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art to the Medal of Honor Winners Memorial. In the summertime, you can also catch a concert performed by renowned recording artists at The Lawn or a baseball game at Victory Field.

White River State Park also serves as the portal to the enchanting Central Canal, an ideal place to walk, jog or ride its one-and-a-half-mile length on a pedal boat or gondola.

The park is just one of 50 major attractions located within Indy's deliberately designed downtown that places dozens of hotels, more than 200 restaurants, shopping (including the 100 stores and shops of Circle Centre mall), cultural attractions and sports venues such as Bankers Life Fieldhouse and Lucas Oil Stadium within a few blocks. Even better, most are connected by the city's system of enclosed skywalks.

Just a short distance from downtown, the Children's Museum of Indianapolis, the world's largest, beckons to the young and young of heart. Nearby is the Indianapolis Museum of Art, which houses one of the largest general collections in the United States.

Other major attractions ring the city, including the delightful Conner Prairie, a living history museum that instantly transports visitors to 19th century Indiana; Traders Point Creamery, an organic farm featuring award-winning dairy products, or the enchanting village of Zionsville.

But as much as there is to love about Indiana's capital city, it's only getting better.

The 63,000-seat Lucas Oil Stadium opened in August 2008. Featuring a retractable roof, this multi-function stadium is not just home to the Colts, but the 2010 NCAA Men's Final Four, the 2011 and 2012 Big Ten Football Championship Games, the 2012 Super Bowl, music competitions, conventions, trade shows and concerts.

The new $1 billion Weir Cook Terminal also has opened at Indianapolis International Airport. It is the first terminal to be constructed post-9/11 and features state-of-the-art security and convenience.

Recently completed is a complex of four hotel properties known as Marriott Place. The complex, adjacent to White River State Park and the Indiana Convention Center, includes 1,600 rooms and brings to 4,700 rooms (most in the country) connected to a convention center complex.

Also recently completed is Indy's "Cultural Trail." The landscaped trail will link the city's six cultural districts with biking and pedestrian pathways that will feature public art.

Whatever your pleasure – nightlife, museums, sports, music, arts, dining, shopping – it can be found in Indianapolis, all contained in a remarkable package of ease and convenience.

OWNERSHIP

HERBERT SIMON
OWNER/CHAIRMAN & CEO

Herbert Simon is Chairman Emeritus of Simon Property Group, Inc., which owns or has an interest in more than 385 retail properties worldwide. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., along with brothers Melvin and Fred, and raised in the Bronx, Mr. Simon earned his bachelor's degree at City College of New York.

Mr. Simon, together with brother Melvin, led the company to a leadership position within the industry which it continues to maintain today. Some of the "breakthrough" retail projects that have drawn worldwide industry and media attention under Simon leadership include The Forum Shops at Caesars in Las Vegas, Nev., The Fashion Centre at Pentagon in the Washington, D.C. metro area and Circle Centre in Indianapolis, Ind., one of the key components in the revitalization of the city's downtown. Mr. Simon helped lead the effort to build another key component for downtown, Bankers Life Fieldhouse, which is the Pacers' and Fever's home. It is widely regarded as one of the best indoor arenas in the world.

Mr. Simon, with his late brother Melvin, purchased the Pacers in 1983 to ensure the team would stay in Indianapolis and currently is Owner/CEO of Pacers Sports & Entertainment.

A firm supporter of professional, environmental and community groups, Mr. Simon has served on the Boards of numerous organizations and served a term as Chairman of the NBA Board of Governors.

Mr. Simon is married and has seven children.

PACERS SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

KELLY KRAUSKOPF
PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Kelly Krauskopf is in her 14th season as the Indiana Fever's top executive, engineering the franchise from its birth in 1999 and directing the club's business and basketball interests all the way to its first WNBA championship in 2012. The club's chief operating officer through 13 seasons and the past nine as general manager, she was promoted to President and General Manager last October.

Since the team was established, Krauskopf has been the guiding force of the Fever from building the team roster to building a fan base for Indiana's WNBA franchise. In her role with the Fever, Krauskopf oversees all aspects of the team's operation.

Since moving to Indianapolis and beginning the task of building a WNBA franchise, Krauskopf has engineered numerous player moves enabling the Fever to sustain arguably the highest level of consistency the 16-year WNBA has ever seen.

Krauskopf has guided the franchise to nine playoff berths in its first 13 seasons – including a run of eight consecutive from 2005 to 2012. Indiana has become one of the WNBA's most successful franchises, joining the Los Angeles Sparks as the only clubs in league history to post seven 20-win seasons. In fact, the Fever is the league's only franchise ever to post seven 20-win seasons in an eight-year span.

Under Krauskopf's guidance, the Fever secured identical 21-13 records in 2005, 2006, 2007, 2010 and 2011; and set its club standard with 22-12 records in each of its two seasons reaching the WNBA Finals - 2009 and 2012.

Though Indiana reached the WNBA Finals in 2009 and though the franchise had achieved such consistent, annual success, the Fever had never won the title -- until the 2012 season culminated in a magical playoff run resulting in the city's first professional basketball crown since the 1973 ABA Indiana Pacers.

The Krauskopf-built Fever is the most stable the franchise has ever been, led by a solid core of returning starters that include All-Stars Tamika Catchings and Katie Douglas with a mix of fresh faces such as Briann January, Erin Phillips and Shavonte Zellous.

Annually one of the league's most active GMs, Krauskopf's key trades and free agent acquisitions have re-tooled the Fever roster over the years. Besides a February 2008 deal to land hometown star Douglas, other moves have resulted in the acquisitions of Phillips and past stars Tangelia Smith, Natalie Williams, Yolanda Griffith, and Kelly Miller. A midseason move during the 2002 campaign brought veteran guard Coquese Washington to the Fever to ignite a late run to the franchise's first appearance in the WNBA Playoffs.

The cornerstone of the franchise was solidified by the draft selection of Catchings in the 2001 WNBA Draft. The third overall selection in the 2001 Draft and a three-time U.S. Olympian, Catchings was named Rookie of the Year in 2002 and Defensive Player of the Year in 2005, 2006, 2009, 2010 and 2012. The seven-time WNBA All-Star and nine-time All-WNBA selection finally earned a long-deserved MVP honor in 2011, finishing in the top five in MVP balloting 10 times. She won her first WNBA crown while earning Finals MVP honors in 2012.

Krauskopf also serves on USA Basketball's Women's Senior National Team Committee, helping select WNBA players to develop U.S. National Team rosters. Krauskopf has been a committee member since 2000, helping select the gold-medal winning roster for the 2004 Summer Olympics in Athens, and again for Beijing in 2008 and London in 2012.

Krauskopf has been in the forefront of the development of the WNBA. In September 1996, she was named the WNBA's first Director of Basketball Operations. In that role, she was involved in all phases of the league's start-up operation and initiatives. She also developed the league's first set of playing rules, officiating policies, scheduling and other league standards, while working daily with WNBA team general managers and operations personnel.

Before joining the WNBA, Krauskopf was the Managing Director of League Development for Media Sports Partnership, Limited in Dallas, Tex. From 1990 to 1994, she was Assistant Commissioner for the Southwest Conference. In addition to overseeing league marketing, she was the chief administrator for all eight women's sports programs in the conference. She served from 1986 to 1990 as Texas A&M's Assistant Athletic Director for Women's Sports/Marketing.

Krauskopf has served on committees for the Women's Sports Foundation, the Women's Basketball Coaches Association, Citizenship for Sports Alliance, and Texas A&M's Lettermen's Association Board of Directors. She currently serves on the Indiana Sports Corporation Presidents Council.

Recently, she was part of the Local Organizing Committee that hosted the 2011 NCAA Women's Final Four at Bankers Life Fieldhouse where she proudly watched her alma mater win its first national championship in women's basketball.

A 1983 graduate of Texas A&M University with a bachelor of arts degree in journalism, she was a three-year letterwinner in basketball for the Lady Aggies after transferring from Stephen F. Austin University where she played her freshman year under legendary coach Sue Gunter.

JIM MORRIS
PRESIDENT

Jim Morris is in his sixth year with Pacers Sports & Entertainment, his fifth as the franchise's president.

Morris joined PS&E in 2007 as a Special Advisor to then CEO/President Donnie Walsh and was named President, April 16, 2008. Prior to joining the Pacers, Morris has had a career that has been successful, both professionally and philanthropically. A graduate of Indiana University with a master's degree from Butler University, Morris has spent much of his life in Indianapolis in a variety of key positions. He started with American Fletcher National Bank in 1965 after graduating from IU and from 1967-73 served under former Mayor Richard G. Lugar as chief of staff. He then went to the Lilly Endowment, serving as its president from 1984-88 and from 1989-2002, he was the chairman and chief executive officer for IWC Resources Corporation and Indianapolis Water Company.

Before joining PS&E, Morris was the executive director for five years for the United Nations World Food Programme (WFP) where he oversaw the world's largest humanitarian agency. That rewarding position took him to many oppressed parts of the world as he worked on behalf of the hungry poor, particularly children.

Morris has received many honors, including 16 honorary degrees, throughout his life in recognition for service, particularly in the city of Indianapolis. He has also served on numerous boards and committees – including the chairman of the Indiana University Board of Trustees, treasurer of the United States Olympic Committee and a member of the Board of Governors of the American Red Cross – devoting countless hours to various causes. His interests reflect this: community development, core city revitalization; enhancing opportunities for young people, especially those at-risk; developing world issues; building a sense of community; fund-raising; philanthropy; and the independent sector.

Morris is happily married to Jackie and they have three children, eight grandchildren and two wonderful King Charles Cavalier puppies, Buster and Lucy.

RICK FUSON
CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Since joining the Pacers' organization in 1984, Rick Fuson has been influential in shaping events within Market Square Arena, Bankers Life Fieldhouse and many other events elsewhere in Indianapolis.

A graduate of Indiana University and a life-long resident of Indianapolis, he joined the staff of Market Square Arena in 1984 as director of special events and was promoted the following year to vice president. Fuson helped oversee the Pacers' move to Bankers Life Fieldhouse in September 2000. He was promoted to Executive Senior Vice President of Pacers Sports & Entertainment in November 2001. Rick was named Chief Operating Officer in April 2008. In his current role, Fuson is responsible for operation of all aspects of the business and facilities elements of Pacers Sports & Entertainment.

Through the years, Fuson has been active in pursuing major events for Bankers Life Fieldhouse and the City of Indianapolis. He served as Co-Chair of the 2012 Super Bowl Village Committee. In the past, he was a member of the Executive Committee for the 1991 World Gymnastics Championships and served as chairman for the opening ceremonies. He was co-chairman of special events for the 1991, 1997 and 2000 NCAA Final Four, served on the Local Organizing Committee for the 2006 and 2010 NCAA Final Four. He produced the opening ceremonies of the 2001 World Police & Fire Games and the closing ceremonies of the Pan American Games in 1987. Fuson also served on the Local Organizing Committee for the 2002, 2004, 2006, 2008-2012 Big Ten Basketball Championships, 2002 FIBA World Basketball Championships, and 2004 FINA World Swimming Championship.

Throughout his career, he has received such honors as Recipient of the Indianapolis Ambassadors 1988 Community Service Award, Indianapolis Business Journal's "Who's Who in Hospitality", "Who's Who in Sports" and "Forty Under Forty." He has also been active with the Indianapolis Fellowship of Christian Athletes, the 1985 NBA All-Star weekend, the grand opening of the Indianapolis Zoo in 1988, the White River Park State Games and Indianapolis Downtown Space 2010.

Fuson is a professional member of the International Association of Assembly Managers. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for Indianapolis Downtown, Inc., Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce and Indiana Convention & Visitors Association. He is an Advisor to the Indiana Sports Corporation Board of Directors and currently serves as Chair of the Pacers Foundation.

Rick has three children and two grandchildren: Amy, Emily, Matthew, Jackson and Sullivan.

DONNIE WALSH
PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

After working two years as the President of Basketball Operations for the New York Knicks, Donnie Walsh returned to his home in Indianapolis and "did nothing." The avowed workaholic/basketball junkie added, "I found out I was okay with doing nothing."

Then in June of 2012, Pacers Owner Herb Simon called Larry Bird, the President of Basketball

Operations for the Pacers, was stepping down and would Donnie be interested in coming back.

He's back.

"After discussing this with Herb and Larry, I'm very comfortable in coming back and doing whatever I can to help the Pacers return to prominence in the NBA," said Walsh. "This is home in so many ways and I couldn't be more proud about coming back and being part of this great franchise again. And, I came back in part, because I love the team Larry put together."

Walsh hopes the second time around is as good as the first.

During his initial 24-year run as, first, an assistant coach, then General Manager, then President, and, finally, President/CEO, the Pacers made the NBA Playoffs 17 times, reaching the NBA Finals in 2000 and making it to the Eastern Conference Finals six times with four Central Division championships.

When Donnie Walsh arrived in Indianapolis in 1984, he didn't plan on staying long. Hired as an assistant coach by head coach and good friend George Irvine, Walsh knew coaching jobs came with short-term realization and real estate agents on speed dial. He didn't plan to stay long since his goal was to be a general manager in the NBA.

"Never in my wildest dreams did I think it would be with the Pacers," said Walsh.

In 1986, he became the Pacers' General Manager and was in charge of a team coming off a 26-56 season and had reached the playoffs only once in 10 NBA seasons. Walsh admitted, "It was hard to change your team back then, you had to do it through the draft, not through free agency. My first week, when I looked at our team and realized what was ahead, I thought I was an interim guy."

Everyone now knows how that turned out.

"My personal goal for the Pacers' franchise was to always be included in the great tradition of Indiana basketball with both high school and college," Walsh said. "The team's success when I was here before is a point of excellence that I think puts us in that category of Indiana basketball and reflects well on the basketball in this state. But the ultimate goal is still to win a championship."

"I'll tell you, I don't want to think of a team that doesn't have a person of Donnie Walsh's quality as part of it," said Pacers co-owner Herb Simon has said. "He's my kind of guy. He's straight forward, honest, hard-working, very talented and treats everyone fairly. I don't know what else you could ask for in a person."

Walsh has overseen many key moves in the franchise's history: the drafting of Hall of Fame player Reggie Miller; the hiring of successful coaches Larry Brown, Larry Bird and Rick Carlisle; hiring Bird nine years ago to eventually replace him in the front office; the landing of the WNBA franchise, the Indiana Fever, in 1999; and, maybe most importantly, the building of Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

"I think it culminated all of our dreams for the Pacers, but I think it also encompasses everything that is Indiana basketball to me," said Walsh. "That was our goal when we started this and I'm talking about when we started back in 1986 to build a team. We wanted the team to be a part of the tradition of Indiana basketball, which it really hadn't been up until that point in the NBA. It has been a long process over many years, but I think it culminated with the Fieldhouse because it kind of embodies it."

"Looking back at it, I'm glad we were able to get the team to the point it was. There's great satisfaction in doing that. As for the Fieldhouse, I get the feeling of accomplishment in the sense that after being here for so many years, if I have a part in this building it's that it is something permanent I can look back on and think, 'Well, I had something to do with that.'"

The 71-year-old (3/1/41) Walsh left the Pacers in 2008 to go back to his boyhood home, New York, to run the Knicks' basketball operation. Many league experts credit Walsh with making them relevant again as he masterfully created cap room to sign key free agents and make New York a playoff team. He mutually parted with the Knicks in 2011.

Walsh, who in 1988 was named president of the Pacers Basketball Corporation (now Pacers Sports & Entertainment which runs the Pacers, the Fever, Pacers Foundation, Inc. and also directs the management of Bankers Life Fieldhouse), has spent his life in and around basketball.

An outstanding high school player in New York City, Walsh played at North Carolina under Frank McGuire and Dean Smith. After graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science, Walsh attended the North Carolina Law School and helped coach the Tar Heels' freshman team for two seasons.

After graduating from law school and turning down offers from then former Vice President Richard Nixon's law firm in New York City and the U.S. Justice Department's Honors programs, he took a graduate coaching position under Smith at North Carolina and then became an associate head coach under McGuire at South Carolina. In 1977, Walsh was about to enter private law practice in South Carolina, but Brown, the head coach of the Denver Nuggets, asked Walsh to join him as an assistant. Walsh stayed with the Nuggets as an assistant coach and a head coach before entering private business in 1982.

But in 1984, Walsh was back in basketball as a Pacers' assistant coach. Two years later, he became GM. He has since been a member of the U.S. Olympic Games Committee for men's basketball for Dream Teams I and II.

Walsh's knowledge, professionalism, accessibility and courtesy are highly-recognized throughout the NBA by players, coaches, front office personnel and the media. He is also a respected member of the Indianapolis community, serving on the boards of many charities. In June 2004, he was honored with the Indiana Pathfinder Award for his contributions to causes involving youth.

He and his wife, Judy, both natives of New York, have five children and live in Indianapolis. They also are avid dog lovers.

KEVIN BOWER
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER/EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Kevin Bower is in his 11th year with Pacers Sports & Entertainment, and his second as the organization's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. His duties include management of all financial matters as well as human resources and information technology.

Bower came to PS&E in January 2002 from Alltrista

Corporation, a publicly traded manufacturer and distributor of niche consumer products used in and around the home. He spent nine years at Alltrista and most recently served as Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Bower started his career in 1980 with Schneider & Shuster, a locally-based public accounting firm in Denver, Colo. After five years in Denver he returned to Indiana where he continued his career in public accounting with Price Waterhouse.

Bower, 54, was born in Fort Wayne, Ind., and grew up in South Bend, Ind. He attended Bentley University in Waltham, Mass., on a basketball scholarship and graduated with a BS in accounting. He is married to Maureen and they have three children, Erin, Megan and Kevin.

Bower is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Indiana CPA Society. He serves on the Boards of Pacers Foundation and Mother Theodore Catholic Academics, as well as the Finance Committee of the St. Vincent Foundation and the Rotary Club of Indianapolis. In his spare time, he enjoys reading, golf and traveling.

KEVIN PRITCHARD
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL
OPERATIONS/GENERAL MANAGER

Kevin Pritchard is in his first season as the Pacers' General Manager after joining the Indiana Pacers last year as Director of Player Personnel. Pritchard was named General Manager June 27, 2012.

"This is a great opportunity," said Pritchard. "To be able to work with someone like Donnie Walsh, whose record with the Pacers and Knicks speaks for itself, and to continue to build on what Larry (Bird, previous President of Basketball) has done here is a great honor."

Prior to coming to the Pacers, Pritchard was the general manager of the Portland Trail Blazers from 2007-10 where he was instrumental in landing 2007 Rookie of the Year Brandon Roy and 2007 first team, All-Rookie member LaMarcus Aldridge. In his time with the Trail Blazers, Pritchard helped turn around a team that eventually posted its sixth-best record (54-28) in franchise history in 2008-09, a year that marked Portland's return to the playoffs for the first time in six seasons.

The 45-year-old Pritchard was born in Bloomington, Ind., and played collegiately at Kansas where he was a member of the Jayhawks' 1988 National Championship team. He played in the NBA with Golden State (drafted in the second round, 34th overall, by the Warriors), Boston, Philadelphia, Miami and Washington. He also played internationally in Italy and Germany.

After his playing career, Pritchard was the coach/general manager of the Kansas City Knights of the ABA, winning a championship in 2002. He has scouted for the San Antonio Spurs and became the Blazers' Director of Player Personnel in 2004. In the 2004-05 season, he served as the Blazers' interim coach for 27 games, then in 2006 became Portland's assistant general manager before taking over the GM position in 2007.

Kevin has one son, K.J., and a daughter, Kendall.

TODD TAYLOR
SR. VICE PRESIDENT/CHIEF SALES & MARKETING OFFICER

Todd Taylor, 40, is entering his second year with Pacers Sports & Entertainment, as the organization's Senior Vice President/Chief Sales and Marketing Officer. In his role, Taylor oversees all aspects of PS&E's sales and marketing initiatives, including ticket sales, corporate partnerships, game operations, promotions, advertising and interactive marketing.

Prior to joining PS&E, Taylor was the Executive Vice President of Ticket Sales and Marketing for the Texas Rangers. During his time in Texas, he was responsible for all facets of the Rangers' ticketing operations, including season, group, and individual ticket sales, suites sales and services, and oversight of the ticket office. He also led the marketing department and played a major role in the club's branding initiatives.

From 2006 to 2010, Taylor served as Vice President, Consumer Marketing for the Milwaukee Brewers where he was responsible for all aspects of ticket sales and services, suite sales and services, consumer marketing and branding for the Brewers. Building a fully integrated ticket sales and marketing team led to Milwaukee drawing over three million fans in both 2008 and 2009, including a franchise record total of 3,068,458 in 2008.

Prior to arriving in Milwaukee, Taylor was Vice President of Ticket Sales and Service for the Portland Trail Blazers from 2004-06, where he led the NBA club's ticketing and retail operations. He spent the previous seven years from 1998-2004 with the Columbus Blue Jackets of the National Hockey League as Senior Account Executive, Director of Ticket Sales, and Vice President of Ticket Sales. In Columbus, he is credited with inventing the "Stock Split" and "Stock Split Vesting" programs, which helped the Blue Jackets record 102 sellout crowds, including 58 consecutive, and play to 97% capacity from 2000-04.

In 2011, Taylor was named to the SportsBusiness Journal's "Forty Under 40" list which identifies and recognizes the most influential sports executives under the age of 40.

Taylor is a native of Sidney, Ohio and a 1995 graduate of The Ohio State University. Todd and his wife Jennifer live in Westfield and have three children, daughter Brynn and sons Keenan and Ian.

A native of nearby Bloomington, Ind., Kevin Pritchard helped Kansas to a national championship in 1988.

FEVER BASKETBALL CORPORATION

JULIE GRAUE
VICE PRESIDENT OF BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Beginning her 12th season with the Indiana Fever, Julie Graue has managed business operations for the franchise since 2005. She was promoted to Vice President for Business Operations following the 2006 season. Graue manages the day-to-day management of all Fever business matters including ticket sales, sponsorship sales, promotions and community relations.

She also provides oversight on Fever marketing efforts.

In 2001, she joined the Fever organization as a sales manager. She managed sales accounts, ticket pricing and the development of ticket packages for all individual and corporate accounts. She oversaw all Fever sales campaigns and ticket-related events, and was named director of Fever ticket sales in October 2004.

She came to the organization after a 12-year stint with Ambassador Travel Club. She served in a variety of roles including her capacity as advertising sales manager for the airline's in-flight magazine, Journey Magazine, before she joined the Fever. During her tenure with Ambassador, she also managed tour operations and helped in the development of new tours and products.

Graue is a 1989 graduate of Ball State University where she completed her undergraduate degree in public relations. Born and raised in Greensburg, Ind., she has been an active participant in sports all of her life – taking part in basketball, volleyball, softball, track and tennis.

Graue married her husband Geoff in November 2003, and the couple has a daughter, Sierra (6). A resident of Noblesville, Ind., she is an active member of Woman's Life Chapter 611 and serves on the committee for the "Women Like Us" tea and speaker series. She also is a volunteer mentor for the Common Goal Task Force, an initiative of the Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce to help raise high school graduation rates in Marion County.

KEVIN MESSENGER
MEDIA RELATIONS DIRECTOR

Kevin Messenger is in his 11th year as the Fever's director of media relations, responsible for all duties related to the team's publicity, media operations and public information. He also serves as a PR contact for Bankers Life Fieldhouse events including concerts, ice shows, circus and rodeo events, and high school and college sports events.

A native of Denver, Colo., he attended the University of the Pacific in Stockton, Calif., before embarking on a career which included collegiate stints at UNLV, Indiana State, Pacific and Maryland. Most recently, he worked with the Maryland football and women's basketball teams in 1999 and 2000 before directing media efforts for three seasons with the Terrapins' nationally prominent men's basketball program.

While at Maryland, he worked in a media market comprising the Baltimore and Washington, D.C. metro areas - the largest media concentration of its kind among U.S. colleges. He twice attended the Final Four with the Terrapins' basketball team while working daily with local, regional and national media outlets.

A college sports information director dating to his college years in California, Messenger has worked with baseball, basketball, football, golf, soccer, water polo and volleyball teams during his career. He boasts distinction as having been a part of three NCAA championship teams - 1985 and 1986 Pacific women's volleyball, and 2002 Maryland men's basketball.

This is his second career stop in Indianapolis, having spent three years in Indy from 1995 to 1998, working with U.S. Water Polo and a professional indoor soccer franchise before making a return to college athletics.

Messenger received a bachelor's degree in communications from UOP in 1987. His professional career began as an assistant sports information director at UNLV in summer of 1987. He was hired as the SID at Indiana State University in 1989, and made a return to his alma mater for a four-year stint as SID from 1991-95.

He resides in Brownsburg with his wife Melissa and stepdaughter Madison.

ROBERTA COURTRIGHT DIRECTOR OF COMMUNITY/PLAYER RELATIONS

Entering her seventh season with the Fever, Roberta Courtright handles all day-to-day community efforts of the franchise. She was promoted to director of community and player relations following the 2012 season.

Courtright joined the Indiana franchise after two years with the Detroit Pistons and Detroit Shock. She served a community relations internship in 2005 before acting as the Pistons' community relations auction manager during most of the 2006-07 NBA season.

A graduate of Aquinas College in her hometown of Grand Rapids, Mich., she was a member of the Aquinas softball team in 2001-02, and traveled with the U.S. Coast-to-Coast Softball Team, representing the United States in an international softball tournament in the Netherlands and Belgium. She graduated from Aquinas while majoring in business administration/sports management, and receiving a minor in coaching.

She also coached the Grand Rapids Christian High School softball team for four years, the same school from which she graduated and played softball. She served as a basketball statistician and volunteered with a variety of community programs when she was a student, and participated in an exchange student program by spending two weeks in Japan during 2000.

Courtright has been an active participant in the Big Brothers Big Sisters program since 2002.

GAME ENTERTAINMENT

FREDDY FEVER

The friendliest Fever fan of them all!

During Fever games, it's easy to pick out Fever fans of all shapes and sizes, but no one has the shape and size of the Fever's team mascot, Freddy Fever.

One of the top mascots in the WNBA, Freddy can be seen throughout Bankers Life Fieldhouse before, during and after Fever games. The lovable and huggable character is a fan favorite among children and adults. Freddy does it all – from dancing, riding goofy scooters, aggravating officials, performing hysterical skits and much more. He keeps fans laughing from tipoff to the final buzzer.

Freddy certainly has the ability to tickle anyone's funny bone, but there's also a softer and lovable side to him. Freddy loves the Fever's fans and enjoys interacting with fans on a one-on-one basis and in groups. Freddy is often involved in numerous charitable efforts throughout the Indianapolis community. His schedule is hectic year round, but he wouldn't have it any other way.

In addition to being at every Fever game, Freddy is also available for birthday parties, corporate events and other similar-type events. For more information about Freddy, or to book the biggest Fever fan for your next event, call (317) 917-2500.

INFERNO DANCE TEAM

Since the Indiana Fever hit the hardwood in the summer of 2000, the Fever Inferno has been right by the team's side. This exciting, energetic and enthusiastic group of young males and females has evolved into one of the WNBA's best hip-hop dance squads!

Coordinated and choreographed by former Pacemate Michelle Duggan, the Inferno is made up of a diverse group of young dancers that provide energetic entertainment during timeouts of Fever home games. Explosive tumbling and high-energy hip-hop dance routines are performed during every Fever home game. These youngsters are definitely fan favorites. Watch them once and you're hooked on their energy.

Along with performing at Fever home games, the Inferno makes appearances throughout the spring and summer months. The dance team joins the Fever players, coaches and front office staff in various community events.

For more information on the Inferno, or to schedule an appearance at your next event, call (317) 917-2500.

A former member of the Pacemates, Michelle Duggan is in her fifth year as director and choreographer for the Inferno.

FEVER BROADCASTERS

CHRIS DENARIRADIO AND TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY

Chris Denari enters his 14th season as the Fever's radio and television play-by-play announcer after being named the Voice of the Fever on April 28, 2000. He has called the action in virtually every game in Fever history.

Involved in broadcasting sports in Indianapolis for 28 years, Denari was named the Indiana Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association 2004

Broadcaster of the Year.

Denari also serves as the television play-by-play announcer for the NBA's Indiana Pacers, which he has done for the past seven seasons. Previously, he was the Sports Director at WXIN-TV Fox 59 in Indianapolis. With his move to Pacers' TV, he ended his 17-year association as the radio play-by-play voice of Butler University basketball. He called five of Butler's recent NCAA Tournament appearances, including the Bulldogs' first trip to the Sweet Sixteen in 2003.

He is a member of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Radio Network and has also been a member of the Indianapolis Colts Radio Network. He also previously worked for Pacers' TV as a locker room reporter and was the television play-by-play voice for the Indiana High School Athletic Association's state championship events.

A 1979 graduate of Westfield (Ind.) High School, he played basketball for his father, Bob. He graduated from Wabash College in 1983, and was a member of the Little Giants' 1982 NCAA Division III National Championship basketball team.

Denari also serves on the board of directors for Special Olympics Indiana and as a spokesman for the Hamilton County Humane Society. He was recently named to the inaugural class of the Westfield High School Distinguished Alumni Hall of Fame.

Denari and his wife, Terry, live in Carmel, Ind., with their sons Evan, Wilson and Max.

DEBBIE ANTONELLITELEVISION ANALYST

Debbie Antonelli is in her 12th season with the Fever broadcast team after spending four seasons as a Charlotte Sting broadcaster. She joins play-by-play announcer Chris Denari as the color analyst for each of the team's local television broadcasts.

Antonelli worked as an NBA analyst for select Charlotte Bobcats games last season, and she formerly covered WNBA games for three seasons on the Oxygen Network.

Antonelli's television resume includes: lead television analyst for the Atlantic Coast Conference, Big XII Conference, Southeastern Conference and CBS College Sports' coverage of women's basketball. Beginning in 2007-08, she teamed with the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) and broadcast partner Beth Mowins to produce a 30-minute weekly podcast called "Shootaround with Beth and Debbie," dedicated to women's college basketball.

Antonelli has worked NCAA tournament games for ESPN and has worked as the radio analyst for the national syndication of the CBS/NCAA Dial Global Radio Network for the past 17 NCAA Women's Final Fours. She worked as a sideline reporter for CBS Sports during the 2000 Men's NCAA Tournament, and for the past 11 years, she has been a part of CBS Sports' women's basketball tripleheader coverage each January.

Before joining the broadcast team in Charlotte, Antonelli served as a FOX Sports Net national television analyst during the American Basketball League's first three seasons and was the analyst for the ABL's Columbus Quest regional television package.

Prior to her broadcasting career, Antonelli spent four years as the Director of Marketing for the University of Kentucky, and four more in a similar capacity at Ohio State University. She spent five years as the television analyst for the Ohio State women's basketball team and prior to that, she spent three years as the TV analyst for the Dayton Flyers men's basketball team.

Antonelli was a three-year starter at guard for North Carolina State where she helped guide the Wolfpack to four NCAA tournament appearances and two Sweet 16 appearances. The Cary, N.C., native graduated with a double major in business management and economics. She went on to earn her master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, where she also served as the graduate assistant women's basketball coach.

Antonelli, her husband, Frank and their three sons, Joey, Frankie and Patrick reside in Mt. Pleasant, S.C.

KEVIN LEERADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Kevin Lee is in his 14th season covering the Fever and his 18th season as the host of the Pacers radio network where he handles pregame, halftime and postgame shows.

In addition to handling radio play-by-play duties during all Fever TV games, he is the sideline reporter for the Indianapolis Colts radio network, and a pit reporter for the Indianapolis Motor Speedway Radio Network and Versus, covering the IndyCar Series and Indy Lights. Lee also hosts a weekly racing show on 1070 The Fan.

Lee has called play-by-play for the Indiana High School Athletic Association Radio Network and has served as a television and radio announcer for Ball State University sports.

Lee, a graduate of Indianapolis' Ben Davis High School and Ball State University, lives with his wife Stacey, and their children Jackson and Savannah, in Avon.

FEVER IN THE COMMUNITY

CORE PURPOSE

At Pacers Sports & Entertainment, our Core Purpose is Winning Championships & Serving Community.

MISSION

Our mission is to promote the development and well being of youth and families within our community through Fever Cares, with a particular focus on Education, Service & Health. We support this mission by providing the practical tools necessary to enrich the lives of our community and develop and implement resourceful and valuable programs that contribute directly to our Core Purpose.

VALUES

We will support our Core Purpose and Mission by focusing on four core values: Teamwork, Commitment, Pride and Respect.

GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

To support our Core Purpose and Mission, Pacers Sports & Entertainment's goals and objectives include:

1. Stimulate love of learning and reading in young people by providing them with access to books & technology.
2. Engage in community partnerships to continue to bring public awareness to the value of education & literacy.
3. Support the efforts of those in our community who serve the needs of others and increase youth participation in community service activities.
4. Increase ways to recognize those involved in community service activities and develop a community where the passion for serving is turned into action.
5. Promote wellness & fitness as a way of life.
6. Target and address issues facing today's youth.

Questions on how to become involved with your favorite Fever activity may be directed to Roberta Courtright, Fever Community Relations & Special Projects Manager, at rcourtright@feverbasketball.com, or by calling (317) 917-2500.

EDUCATION

READ TO ACHIEVE

Read to Achieve serves as the NBA/WNBA's and its teams' primary community activity and harnesses all of professional basketball's best assets to impact one of the most pressing issues our society faces. The program promotes the value of reading and online literacy while encouraging families and adults to read regularly with young children.

The goals of this initiative are to build a lifelong love of reading in young people by providing greater access to books and technology; encourage and engage members of the NBA/WNBA family including current & former players, league and team personnel, coaches and parents to participate in the program as a Volunteer Reading Coach and to use all of the NBA/WNBA assets to create ongoing public awareness of this initiative through courtside signage, PSA's, NBA.com and WNBA.com TV presence and events around the league.

At the local level, the Indiana Fever Read to Achieve Program is composed of Monthly Reading Time-Outs during the WNBA season and a Read to Achieve Tip Off.

Reading Time-Outs

As a component of the Read to Achieve Program, the Indiana Fever presents reading timeouts throughout the WNBA season. (May – August). Special guest readers include members of the Indiana Fever, Freddy Fever and the Fever Inferno. Guest readers read students selected children's stories from large oversized books. Students participating in the Fever reading timeouts have the opportunity to win Fever prizes including books, autographed items and game tickets! Each visit is approximately one hour in length.

Read To Achieve Tipoff

A component of the Read to Achieve Program, the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever host a Read to Achieve Tip-off prior to the each team's season.

The Fever tip-off the season with a large Read to Achieve Tip-off event, events such as Reading Pep-Rallies at a local school and events held at The Children's Museum of Indianapolis.

Each child in attendance receives a book, Fever items, a ticket to the Fever home opener and the opportunity to win Fever autographed memorabilia.

Bounce Back To School

A component of the Read to Achieve Program, the Indiana Fever Bounce Back to School Attendance Program was created to both recognize and maintain good attendance practices in our young fans throughout the state of Indiana.

Simply by attending classes on the first day of the school's 2012-13 academic year, students qualify to participate in the program and will receive (1) a complimentary ticket to an upcoming Fever game at Bankers Life Fieldhouse, (2) special in-game recognition of schools with participating students and (3) additional lower level tickets at a discounted rate for parents, friends and family.

FEVER IN THE COMMUNITY

PROLIANCE ENERGY BACKPACK ATTACK

A component of the Read to Achieve Program, the Indiana Fever & Proliance Energy helps support the Backpack Attack. Since 1999, Backpack Attack has collected more than 2.1 million school supplies for children in the Indianapolis Public Schools (IPS) as well as other schools in Marion, Boone, Hancock and Hendricks counties.

The Indiana Fever and Proliance Energy teams up to host this event at a Fever game before school begins. Fans donate school supply items, and in return receive a FREE Pepsi product. In addition, employees of each organization host internal collections to help support the effort.

FEVER READING AND LEARNING CENTER

As part of the Indiana Fever Education Initiative, the Fever, WNBA and Toyota sponsored a Fever Reading and Learning Center renovation for the 2009 WNBA Finals as part of the Toyota Project Rebound Program.

The Fever Reading and Learning Center provides books and technological resources to kids at the Boys and Girls Club of Indianapolis Lilly Unit to implement the WNBA's national reading initiative, Read to Achieve, at the local level. This center also provides a fun place to learn and do homework.

SERVICE

WELL DUNN AWARD

As part of Pacers Sports & Entertainment's Citizenship Initiative the Indiana Fever and head coach Lin Dunn recognize Indiana citizens who have done well in the community at five of the Fever home games through the Well Dunn Award presented by Harrison College. Everyday Indiana citizens make an overwhelming impact on the lives of others and make lasting contributions to our community and our state.

Each award recipient receives four tickets to a Fever home game, where they are recognized during a special on-court presentation. In addition, each recipient also receives a special memento and commemorative photo.

KROGER BALL EXCHANGE

As part of the Kroger Ball Exchange, each Fever home game the Indiana Fever and Kroger allow 11 children to receive an autographed basketball from an Indiana Fever player during the player introductions. In addition, each child receives a Kroger Ball Exchange t-shirt.

FEVER FRIENDS

In partnership with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Central Indiana, the Fever matches young boys and girls with an adult mentor to attend Fever games throughout the season. Through this program, Fever players interact with kids and serve as role models. Fever Friends, which started during the inaugural Fever season, partnered exclusively with Big Sisters of Indiana prior to 2003. Since the Big Brothers and Big Sisters programs merged, the Fever began hosting boys and girls.

GO GREEN

As part of the Pacers Sports & Entertainment Citizenship Initiative and WNBA Go Green Initiative, the Fever supports the WNBA's commitment to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment.

FEVER IN THE COMMUNITY

SEASON OF GIVING

As part of the Pacers Sports & Entertainment's Citizenship Initiative, the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever celebrate a "Season of Giving" during the year with a variety of community outreach efforts throughout the month to give back to the community that has given so much to us.

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL VISITS

As part of the Pacers Sports & Entertainment Community Spirit Initiative, members of the Indiana Pacers team, Indiana Fever and coaching staff, including mascots Boomer and Bowser, along with members of the Indiana Pacemates, visit area children's hospitals to help lift the spirits of those children and their families.

Hospital visits include the Peyton Manning Children's Hospital at St. Vincent, Riley Children's Hospital, Community Hospital North and Methodist Children's Hospital.

PLAYERS IN THE COMMUNITY

The WNBA connects with fans of all ages through extensive community outreach. As the league marks the 15th season of the WNBA, the players continue to be recognized for their commitment and dedication to fans in cities across America. The WNBA has three primary community initiatives: WNBA Fit, Read to Achieve and Breast Health Awareness. In addition to these initiatives, the WNBA honors players who are active in their communities with the WNBA Community Assist Award presented four times a year.

COMMUNITY ASSIST AWARDS

Indiana is fortunate to have had a number of outstanding female role models on the Fever roster that make unbelievable efforts to give back to the fans and the community.

The Fever has consistently had players win the Community Assist Awards. Tamika Catchings has been an off-season recipient as well as a six-time winner of in-season awards. Other past winners include Katie Douglas, Niele Ivey, Nikki McCray, Kelly Schumacher and Natalie Williams. In all, Fever players have garnered WNBA Community Assist Awards on 13 occasions.

Catchings won the inaugural Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award in 2007 for her work around Indiana and with her own Catch the Stars Foundation. The award signifies a WNBA player who is an excellent personal role model to younger children.

PS&E COMMUNITY SERVICE DAYS

This program is meant to emphasize one of the Core Purposes of PS&E – Serving Community by organizing four days per year when we "Outreach Together" as a company.

This program builds upon the work of the Community Relations Department and the Pacers Foundation. It allows employees to contribute in a real and consistent way to our community and brings the company together in a positive way to help others within our community.

Since its inception in 2008, the staff of PS&E has contributed to organizations that include Creston Middle School, Danville Middle School, IPS #27, Triton Central Elementary & Middle School, Gleaners Food Bank, Second Helpings, Wheeler Mission, the Julian Center, Fay Biccard Glick Neighborhood Center and the Catch the Stars Foundation.

DONATIONS

As part of Pacers Sports & Entertainment's Citizenship initiative, the Indiana Pacers and Indiana Fever provide donations to events & fundraisers for non-profit organizations. Donation requests for an Indiana Fever item can be made at www.fevermvp.com/donate.

COMMUNITY TICKET BLOCKS

Kids love going to a professional sports event. For many of our kids, at risk or not, they might never get a chance to see the Pacers or Fever in action. A night out with a chaperone and a group of friends lets them see on-court athletic achievement. And it might just turn out to be instructive about the benefits of determination and perseverance.

All we know is that the kids have fun and laugh and let us into their lives for a night. And for us, that's a good start.

Our Community Ticket Block Program is open to all non-profit organizations. To request complimentary tickets through this program, you must provide your Tax ID #. Each season you must resubmit an online application form. Ticket donation requests can be made at www.fevermvp.com/tickets.

Tamika Catchings was the first winner of the Dawn Staley Community Leadership Award.

HEALTH

GET FEVER FIT

As part of PS&E's Health Initiative and WNBA Fit program the Get Fever Fit program presented by Kroger holds monthly Get Fever Fit clinics throughout the WNBA season. In these clinics, Fever coaches, players and/or Fever staff teach proper exercise techniques, show how being active can be fun with basketball drills and teach about healthy living styles including eating and exercise habits. These clinics are normally about one hour in length and vary in amount of children depending on gym size.

WNBA Fit

The WNBA will embrace its responsibility as the preeminent women's professional sports league with powerful role models to continue to deliver important messages and program related to the areas of health, fitness, nutrition and self esteem. WNBA Fit encourages teens and women of all ages to learn more about their bodies and the importance of physical fitness.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

As part of PS&E's Health Initiative and WNBA Breast Health Awareness Initiative, the Indiana Fever hosts a special Breast Health Awareness Night presented by Community Health Network at a select Fever game.

During this special game, the Fever concentrates on bringing awareness to breast cancer. In conjunction with this promotion, the Fever conducts a health fair in Bankers Life Fieldhouse where several organizations distribute educational materials about breast cancer. Pink ribbons and other giveaways are distributed, and breast cancer survivors are recognized during the pregame ball exchange.

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. More than $2 million was raised by the WNBA, its players and teams to help fight breast cancer through Breast Health Awareness programs.

The 2012 Fever Breast Health Awareness Game presented by Community Health Network will be held on Friday, September 14 vs. Minnesota at 7:00 p.m. Pink jerseys will be worn by the Fever players and auctioned off after the game in a live auction to raise money for the Community Breast Health Fund.

HEART HEALTHY NIGHT

As part of PS&E's Health Initiative, the Indiana Fever hosts Heart Healthy Night presented by Community Health Network at a select Fever game.

Heart Healthy Night encourages women to learn more about heart health, and raises awareness of the risks of heart disease in women.

A cardiologist from The Indiana Heart Hospital conducts a pregame seminar about heart health, and a Heart Health Fair is offered on the Main Concourse where fans can have their blood pressure tested among other screenings and public information opportunities.

CHOICES FOR CHAMPIONS

The Indiana Fever Annual Choices for Champions program is conducted for students to enjoy an educational event with the Fever and other local celebrities and community programs. Topics include education, goal setting, health and fitness, bullying, and building healthy relationships.

FEVER FOR RESPECT

The Indiana Fever and Choose Respect have joined forces to implement Fever for Respect within middle school curriculums. Choose Respect is an initiative that encourages young men and women to make every effort in forming healthy and respectful relationships with one another. It is founded on the research maintained by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). These relationships are especially important as young people get older and begin dating. Since 2007, the CDC has worked with the WNBA to promote this initiative to young fans. The Fever also works locally with INCASA to bring the "choose respect" message to Indiana youth.

PACERS YOUTH BASKETBALL

The Pacers Youth Basketball program is a community-wide initiative of the Indiana Pacers, the Indiana Fever and Pacers Sports & Entertainment which solidifies PS&E as a leader in supporting youth basketball in Indiana. With a vision toward the future, it is geared primarily toward youth ages 4 to 18. The program provides a long-term commitment to help provide structure, organization and teamwork to youth programs by offering a direct association with the local pro basketball team; lending playing and coaching expertise with 1-on-1 interaction; and providing an easier and enhanced opportunity to participate in Pacers and Fever events.

For additional information on times and locations of camps and clinics, visit www.pacersgroups.com/camps.

2013 INDIANA FEVER MEDIA GUIDE
PACERS FOUNDATION, INC.

Behind every statistic is a story about a kid, at-risk of going under, who needs help. From abuse to obesity to drugs, Indiana's kids face tremendous obstacles. That is why the Pacers Foundation gets involved early and often. We fund programs that teach kids how to make winning life choices.

Pacers Foundation has contributed millions of dollars in contributions, community partnerships, scholarships and tickets to Pacers and Fever games.

But there is still a lot of work to be done. We need your help to assist our neediest communities and give Indiana's at-risk kids a winning shot in life.

COMMUNITY PARTNERSHIPS

We give communities the power to change by partnering with community-based organizations and corporations. These partnerships enable us to leverage your donations for greater impact.

For example, Pacers Foundation partnered with the Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce to support Common Goal, a program designed to raise the Marion County high school graduation rate to 80 percent by 2012. The Pacers Foundation contributed $500,000 toward this effort.

BE A PART OF THE SOLUTION

We are not a traditional corporate foundation, supported solely by our corporate parent. We strongly believe that helping Indiana's youth make winning life choices requires all of us in the community to do our part. Therefore, we invite you to join us in this effort by making a financial contribution to Pacers Foundation and/or volunteering your time to help the non-profits we fund. In our view, the community's greatest challenges necessitate the community's best solutions. Join us and be part of the solution.

INDIANA FEVER BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Members of the Fever team and coaching staff serve up strikes at an annual bowling tournament which benefits the Be YOUUnique Fund. Fever sponsors, season ticket holders and fans are treated to a night of bowling fun, pizza a silent auction and autographs from the Fever team and other celebrities.

The 2012 tournament raised nearly $13,000 for the Be YOUUnique Fund of the Pacers Foundation.

The 2013 event will be conducted July 16 at Pinheads in Fishers.

The Fever's annual bowling tournament has become a centerpiece among the franchise's many community events.

WNBA IN THE COMMUNITY

Through WNBA Cares, the WNBA is deeply committed to creating programs that improve the quality of life for all people with a special emphasis on programs that inspire youth and promote education, health and wellness and youth and family development.

WNBA Cares goal alignment focuses on Philanthropy, Service, Legacy and Inspiring Women. Since WNBA Cares launched, the league, players and teams have:

- PHILANTHROPY: Donated more than $11 million to charity, with more than $3.5 million raised in the fight against breast cancer.
- SERVICE: More than 525,000 hours of hands-on service.
- LEGACY: More than 40 places where kids and families can live, learn or play.
- INSPIRATION: 27 current and former WNBA coaches and players have traveled to 27 countries across five continents as sport ambassadors inspiring youth and promoting health and wellness through basketball.

WNBA CARES WEEK

To promote the tip off of the season, the league and teams will partner with community and marketing partners to host community and fan engagement events that highlight our commitment to the community. WNBA Cares Week will take place from May 17 – 23.

WNBA GREEN

The WNBA is committed to a long-term environmental plan through the implementation of sustainable business practices and procedures that decrease the league's carbon footprint and contribute to a clean, healthy environment. The WNBA Green Game will take place during the June 25 game between the Phoenix Mercury and San Antonio Silver Stars

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

The WNBA Breast Health Awareness program focuses on generating awareness and educating women about breast cancer in addition to raising funds for the initiative. This season, WNBA Breast Health Awareness Week will take place from August 18-August 24.

WNBA FIT

The NBA/WNBA FIT platform is the league's comprehensive health and wellness program that encourages physical activity and healthy living for children and families. Through programs such as Dribble to Stop Diabetes, Jamba Juice FIT Clinics and Coke Live Positively, the NBA/WNBA informs, engages and educates its fans in healthy living practices.

Just hours before Indiana hosted Game 3 of the WNBA Finals on Oct. 19, 2012, Pacers Sports & Entertainment and the Indiana Fever announced a marquee partnership with athletic retailer Finish Line that will feature the Finish Line logo on Fever team jerseys beginning in the 2013 season. The Finish Line brand will be integrated into Fever television broadcasts and team merchandise, team advertising and signage at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

Where the Fever players are shown in uniform, Finish Line will be there too.

The multi-year agreement combines brand awareness with the Fever as well as activation of the Finish Line Ball Kids Program to be executed at all home games for the Fever and Indiana Pacers. Finish Line also will receive in-game advertising as part of the Pacers and Fever radio networks, and web links on FeverBasketball.com and BankersLifeFieldhouse.com.

"I am proud to partner with the Indiana Fever, one of the premiere women's professional sports teams in America," said Glenn Lyon, chairman and chief executive officer of Finish Line. "We are both teams that show dedication, commitment to our community and passion to be the best."

"Reaching agreement with Finish Line is one of the landmark moments in our franchise history," said Kelly Krauskopf, whose team won the 2012 WNBA championship just two days later. "Finish Line is a widely respected national brand in the athletic retail market. Partnering with such a reputable and prestigious company as Finish Line will enhance our own branding and visibility in the Indiana sports community and abroad."

Consumers in Central Indiana and all 12 WNBA markets will see the Finish Line logo during Fever radio and TV broadcasts as well as the Fever's Live Stream Webcast presented by Finish Line. Visitors to Bankers Life Fieldhouse will see the Finish Line logo aligned with the Fever on banners inside the building as well as on LED, courtside and scoreboard advertising during all Fever home games. A "Race to the Finish Line" scoreboard promotion also will take place during every Fever home game.

One of the most consistently competitive franchises in the WNBA, Indiana's jersey sponsorship became the sixth of its kind in the 16-year league, joining the Phoenix Mercury, Los Angeles Sparks, Seattle Storm, New York Liberty and Washington Mystics. Tulsa added a jersey partner during the 2012-13 WNBA offseason.

HEAD COACH LIN DUNN

The fourth head coach in Indiana Fever history, Lin Dunn is also the winningest coach in franchise history, boasting a five-year record of 103-67 (.606) with the 2012 WNBA championship as the finest accomplishment in a distinguished 42-year coaching career.

Already regarded as one of the most successful women's basketball coaches in history, Dunn has led the Fever to three trips to the conference finals and a pair of appearances in the WNBA Finals. Including three years as head coach of the Seattle Storm, Dunn ranks eighth in regular season coaching wins (136-130, .511) in WNBA history and sixth in postseason victories (18-16, .529).

Her current streak of five straight WNBA Playoffs appearances matches Seattle's Brian Agler with the longest active streak in the league.

Dunn is well-chronicled as one of the nation's foremost pioneers of women's basketball and one of its most prominent coaches and leaders, she has been a proven winner at both the college and pro levels, evidenced by three hall of fame inductions in 2010 and another in 2012.

Dunn's coaching career preceded the passing of Title IX legislation in the 1970s. Her storied career includes trips to the NCAA Final Four and the WNBA Finals. A native of Dresden, Tenn., she was named to the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame on Feb. 19, 2010. She was inducted into the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame on April 24, 2010. She was inducted into her alma mater's athletics hall of fame at UT-Martin on Oct. 16, 2010. She was named to the Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame on April 14, 2012.

A longtime college coach and former general manager and head coach of the Seattle Storm, Dunn returned to her position as head coach when she was named to guide the Fever on Dec. 12, 2007, shedding the assistant's title she had worn the previous four seasons.

Now, after five seasons as head coach of the Fever, she boasts 646 college and pro wins, including the WNBA postseason. During 36 seasons as head coach, she has coached 1,079 games.

In addition to the elusive WNBA crown she won in 2012, she has guided the Fever to a No. 1 seed in the Eastern Conference Playoffs in 2009 and 2011, and her first WNBA Finals appearances in 2009 and 2012.

Dunn was the runner-up in coach of the year balloting in 2009, after a summer with the WNBA's best record from June through August, and a franchise-record 22 regular season wins. The 2009 club was within minutes of the championship and her 2011 Fever finished one win from another return to the Finals.

Dunn's coaching resume includes four decades of coaching at the highest levels – the past 15 years in the professional ranks, between stints in Portland, Seattle and Indiana.

Dunn served in a scouting capacity for the Fever and former coach Nell Fortner during the 2003 season, and was added to the Fever staff in 2004 – allowing her to remain close to her Tennessee roots. She completed four seasons as an assistant coach, the final three which saw Indiana match its franchise record with identical 21-13 records.

Before joining the Fever, Dunn served as Seattle's first head coach and general manager, operating the city's expansion franchise from 1999 to 2002. She built the Storm by drafting eventual league MVP Lauren Jackson and 2002 NCAA Player of the Year Sue Bird. In her final year with the Storm, 2002, she guided Seattle to a 17-15 record and the club's first appearance in the WNBA Playoffs. Dunn was runner-up as the WNBA's Coach of the Year.

Dunn's first assignment in professional basketball came with a midseason phone call to take over the coaching reigns of the American Basketball League's Portland Power during its inaugural campaign in 1996-97. She won her first game on the same night she was introduced as the head coach. A year later, Dunn led the Power on a worst-to-first run that culminated with a 27-17 record and a Western Conference championship. The remarkable turnaround earned Dunn the ABL Coach of the Year honor while guiding such stars as DeLisha Milton-Jones, Sonja Henning, Elaine Powell and former Fever center and two-time ABL MVP Natalie Williams. Portland was in first place at 9-4 when the ABL ceased operations two days before Christmas in 1998.

Her tenure in Portland not only continued the coaching success she has achieved at every level of her career, but also enhanced her profile off the court. In the fledgling league that preceded the WNBA, Dunn's charisma helped the Power to achieve the largest marketing revenue in the ABL and its second-highest attendance.

She is perhaps best known as the architect of the Purdue University women's basketball program, guiding the Boilermakers for nine seasons (1988-96) and collecting three Big Ten conference titles. She led the Old Gold-and-Black to seven NCAA Tournaments, four Sweet Sixteen appearances and a trip to the Final Four in 1994. In nine years at Purdue, she earned a 206-68 (.752) record and catapulted the school among the elite women's basketball programs in the country. She still is the program's winningest coach.

Dunn coached and recruited three Kodak All-Americans, three Big Ten Players of the Year and two Big Ten Athletes of the Year. Future WNBA stars that emerged from her tenure at Purdue were Summer Erb, Ukari Figgs, Stacey Lovelace, Michelle VanGorp and former Fever star Stephanie White.

Since her collegiate coaching career began at Austin Peay in 1970, she put together a remarkable 25-year record that includes a .635 career winning percentage at four schools (447-257). She left three of those schools – Purdue, Miami and Austin Peay – as the winningest coach in program history.

On the national level, she served on USA Basketball staffs for the 1992 Olympics and 1990 gold medal-winning World Championship and Goodwill Games teams. She was head coach of the 1995 bronze medal-winning USA Jones Cup team, and also served for eight years on the USA Basketball Team selection committee.

Prior to arriving in West Lafayette, she coached at Miami, Fla., from 1979-87. She posted a 149-119 (.556) record through eight seasons and was the first coach to award a scholarship to a women's basketball player. One of the last players she recruited, Frances Savage, was a Kodak All-American in 1992. She was named the Florida Coach of the Year in 1980-81.

After building a program at Austin Peay for five years, Dunn spent one season at Mississippi before taking the Miami job. She led the Rebels to a 25-15 record and a 12th-place finish at the AIAW National Tournament. Her club ended three-time national champion Delta State's 56-game winning streak and was named the Mississippi Coach of the Year.

Dunn also has earned induction into the athletic halls of fame at both Miami and Austin Peay. She served as chair of the Kodak All-America Selection Committee from 1982-88 and was president of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in 1984-85.

Dunn earned a B.S. degree in health, physical education and English from Tennessee-Martin. A year later, she received an M.S. degree in physical education from Tennessee-Knoxville.

FEVER COACHING STAFF

MICKIE DEMOSS
ASSISTANT COACH

A participant in six national championships and 12 NCAA Final Four appearances, longtime college assistant and head coach Mickie DeMoss begins her second season as a Fever assistant coach to Lin Dunn.

Her first season with the Fever was marked by the club's 2012 WNBA championship.

A 35-year veteran at the very height of NCAA women's basketball and the 2006 SEC Coach of the Year, DeMoss served 20 seasons as an assistant and associate head coach under Pat Summitt at Tennessee. She spent three seasons as an assistant to Gail Goestlenkors at Texas and served four years with record-breaking results as the head coach at Kentucky.

"Mickie is one of the most highly respected basketball people in our business," said Chief Operating Officer and General Manager Kelly Krauskopf. "She has been at the highest level in the collegiate game and has taught and prepared many of her players to move on and become great WNBA players. She is a winner and a tireless worker. I am very happy that she has chosen to join our franchise."

DeMoss spent the past two seasons with the Lady Volunteers where she had previously spent 18 years as part of a coaching trio featuring Summitt and Holly Warlick. During a span from 1985-86 to 2002-03, the trio led the Lady Vols to six national titles and 12 trips to the Final Four. DeMoss took the coaching reins at Kentucky for the 2003-04 season and later spent time at Texas before returning to Rocky Top in 2010-11.

"I have known Coach DeMoss for 30 years," added Fever coach Lin Dunn who has long-standing ties with the UT program. "She brings to our staff an elite knowledge both offensively and defensively. She has had tremendous experiences on championship teams at Tennessee. I have always been highly impressed with her work ethic, her ability to develop players, her attention to detail and her excellent communication skills. We are thrilled to have her with the Fever!"

During her first 18 seasons at UT, the Lady Vols amassed a 554-77 (.878) overall record. DeMoss was promoted to associate head coach in 2000, but stepped aside three years later to lead her own program.

In four seasons at Kentucky, she guided the Wildcats to a 71-56 record including consecutive 20-win seasons and three post-season appearances (one NCAA and two WNIT).

The 2006 SEC Coach of the Year honor was a first for a UK coach, as she guided the 22-9 Wildcats to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in seven seasons and punctuated the trip with an NCAA win. The breakout year also included a victory over No. 1-ranked Tennessee, 66-63, in front of a school-record crowd of 13,689 at Rupp Arena. It marked the first win over a top-ranked team in UK history. In 2006-07, Kentucky was 20-14 and advanced to the WNIT. That season, DeMoss' Cats attracted a school record attendance of 5,863 fans per game.

She elected to step aside as head coach at Kentucky in April 2007, but her coaching hiatus ended when she accepted an assistant coaching position at the University of Texas in the summer of 2007. She was the Longhorns' top recruiter while also coaching the post game.

Over the past three decades, DeMoss has cemented a reputation as one of the country's most elite coaches. A survey of the nation's NCAA Division I women's head basketball coaches tabbed her as the top assistant in the country in 2000. She also garnered that distinction from a 1998 The Women's Basketball Journal poll. While at UT, DeMoss was considered a great technical mind, floor coach and entertainer. Off the court, she was regarded as one of the best recruiters in the college game, year after year recruiting future All-SEC and All-America award-winners, while stockpiling rosters with the kind of players essential to winning national championships.

Some of DeMoss' most notable recruits at Tennessee include: Tonya Edwards, the 1987 Final Four MVP, Dena Head, the 1992 SEC Player of the Year, Chamique Holdsclaw, the 1996 and 1997 Final Four MVP, and Tamika Catchings, a four-time All-American and current star of the Fever.

Noted for her success coaching post players, DeMoss protégés have represented Team USA in every Olympic Games since 1992.

Prior to joining the Tennessee staff in 1985, DeMoss had been an assistant coach at Auburn University (1983-85), a head coach at the University of Florida (1979-83) and an assistant at Memphis State (1977-79). DeMoss received her undergraduate degree in physical education from Louisiana Tech University in 1977, where she starred at point guard. She then received her master's degree in education at Memphis State University in 1979. She is a native of Tallulah, La.

STEPHANIE WHITE
ASSISTANT COACH

Stephanie White is in her third season as an assistant coach for the Indiana Fever.

The 2012 WNBA title held special meaning for White who was one of the original Fever players in 2000 and a member of the Fever's All-Decade Team announced in 2009. She has coached in the college and pro ranks since 2003. She retired from playing in the WNBA following the 2004 season.

White's hiring in 2011 marked the first time the Fever has hired an assistant coach with pro playing experience. White was reunited with Fever Head Coach Lin Dunn, the former Purdue coach who recruited White to the West Lafayette campus.

Prior to joining the Fever, White spent four seasons as an assistant coach with the Chicago Sky after previous stints as a college assistant at Ball State, Kansas State and Toledo. White also has parlayed her playing and coaching into a prominent broadcasting career with the Big Ten Network and ESPN. She appears regularly on BTN's women's basketball studio show and provides game analysis for both networks.

"I am very pleased to have Stephanie back with our franchise," said Chief Operating Officer and General Manager Kelly Krauskopf, who executed a 1999 trade for White prior to the team's inaugural season. "I think she is one of the brightest young coaches in women's basketball. I knew that her high basketball IQ would transfer into coaching from her playing career. She will be a terrific addition to our staff."

The 2006 SEC Coach of the Year while at Kentucky, DeMoss spent 20 years on the sideline beside Pat Summitt.

FEVER COACHING STAFF

"Stephanie is someone who is more than just a coach," said Dunn. "What makes her so very valuable is that she's not only had college and pro coaching experience, but she's a former player. She has been a winner all her life."

After leading Purdue to a national championship in 1999 and being drafted by the Charlotte Sting, White was eventually acquired by the Fever in a draft-day trade in December 1999 to lead her hometown team into its first season of existence. A former Indiana Miss Basketball and a Purdue All-American, White played four pro seasons with the Fever where she was a teammate of current Fever star Tamika Catchings.

She played five pro seasons between 1999-04, capping her career with the Fever for whom she was annually one of the club's top playmakers, 3-point artists and free throw shooters. She still ranks prominently among franchise leaders in games played, minutes, 3-pointers, assists, steals, 3-point percentage and free throw percentage. Her 93 percent free throw shooting in 2003 remains a Fever record.

White's legacy as a prep and college star made her one of the state's most popular figures even before she donned a Fever uniform. Beginning with a prep career at nearby Seeger Memorial High School, White set early standards for basketball excellence while becoming an Indiana icon. She averaged 36.9 points and 13.1 rebounds per game while being named the 1995 national high school player of the year. She led Seeger to a 92-7 record over four seasons and finished her prep career with an Indiana record 2,869 points.

She took her game to Purdue and averaged double-figure scoring for the Boilermakers in four straight seasons. As a senior she averaged 20.2 points and 4.5 assists per game while earning the 1999 Wade Trophy as the national college player of the year. She led Purdue to its first NCAA title and finished second in school history in points and assists. She has since been inducted into the Purdue Athletics Hall of Fame.

She recently gave birth to her first child, Landon Fletcher White, on Sept. 27, 2011 – the morning of Game 3 of the 2011 Eastern Conference Finals.

TODD CHAMPLIN ATHLETIC TRAINER

Todd Champlin is a licensed athletic trainer and board-certified sports physical therapist provided to the Indiana Fever by St. Vincent Sports Performance. A team sports practitioner for nearly 20 years, Champlin begins his second season in the WNBA.

Hockey has been Champlin's focus of attention for the past decade as team athletic trainer for the USHL's Indiana Ice since 2004, and the CHL's Indianapolis Ice from 2000 to 2003. He also has worked several seasons with the Buffalo Bandits, a professional indoor lacrosse team.

In Summer 2011, Champlin was the athletic trainer for Team USA when it won the gold medal at the Five Nations Tournament in Huttwil, Switzerland.

Before arriving in Indianapolis, Champlin owned his own private practice and sports therapy business for ten years in Buffalo, New York.

He received a bachelor of science in physical therapy from Daemen College in Buffalo prior to receiving a master's degree in sports physical therapy from the University of Pittsburgh. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the American Physical Therapy Association.

Champlin is a native of Buffalo, NY, but now makes his home in Noblesville, Ind. He is married to wife, Victoria. The couple has three children: Andrew, Lindsey, and Lauren; and a granddaughter, Payson.

EMILY NOVITSKY STRENGTH COACH & PERFORMANCE SPECIALIST

Beginning her third season with the Indiana Fever is strength coach Emily Novitsky.

A performance specialist contracted with St. Vincent Sports Performance, Novitsky is responsible for the Fever players' overall strength, conditioning, flexibility and nutrition. She also represents St. Vincent while working with the USA Diving National Team and the Indiana Ice (USHL) who are both based in Indianapolis.

She has served a variety of youth and professional teams, including the Robert Morris University men's hockey team with whom she worked in 2009-10 prior to arriving in Indianapolis.

Novitsky hails from Pittsburgh, Pa., and played softball at Slippery Rock University. She earned a bachelor's degree from Slippery Rock in 2009 and received a master's degree in human performance from the California University of Pennsylvania, in 2010.

Novitsky is a certified member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association, the National Academy of Sports Medicine and the American Red Cross.

Indiana's "do-everything" forward returns for her 13th season in the WNBA after leading the Fever to the 2012 WNBA championship...Catchings earned WNBA Finals MVP honors one year after capturing her first regular-season MVP honor in 2011.

A telling note is that, at age 33, Catchings was the only WNBA player in 2012 to start every regular season and playoff game, as well as every game in the Olympics.

She was named the WNBA's Defensive Player of the Year again last season, receiving the award an unprecedented five times – in 2005, 2006, 2009, 2010 and 2012...Catchings was second in WNBA MVP balloting in 2002, 2009 and 2010, and has finished among the top three in balloting for the WNBA MVP Award in seven of her 11 active pro seasons including 2012...she has finished among the top five in MVP balloting in 10 of 11 active seasons, asserting herself as one of the world's premier players...she has scored in 346 of 347 games played in her pro career...she is a seven-time WNBA All-Star and 10-time All-WNBA recipient...she has earned WNBA Player of the Week honors 18 times, second in WNBA history (Lauren Jackson, 19).

She has averaged 16.6 points, 7.6 rebounds, 3.6 assists and 2.4 steals per game during her career... Catchings led the Fever in points per game, rebounds, assists and steals in each of her first six active pro seasons and again in 2010 and 2011 – no other WNBA player has led her team in as many categories in even one of those seasons.

Catchings became the WNBA's all-time leader in steals during the 2011 season and she emerged from the 2012 season as the league's all-time leader in free throws made...she is the WNBA's all-time leader in steals and FTs made during the regular season as well as the postseason...she is the only player in WNBA history to rank among Top 25 all-time leaders in points, rebounds, assists, steals and blocks – and Catchings actually ranks in the Top 15 in all of them: points (5,766, 5th), rebounds (2,625, 4th), assists (1,254, 8th), steals (845, 1st) and blocks (307, 13th)...she also ranks among WNBA career leaders in free throws made (1,573, 1st) and 3-point field goals made (503, 9th)...she is the only player 6-foot or taller ranked among Top 10 WNBA assist leaders...she averages more steals per game (2.44) than any player in WNBA history with more than two seasons...Catchings owns four of the top five single-season steals figures in league history and in 2009 finished just one shy of Teresa Weatherspoon's league record of 100 in a season (94 in 2006; 94 in 2002; 90 in 2005; 99 in 2009)...a member of the WNBA's 10th Anniversary All-Decade Team, awarded in 2006, she is the only player in WNBA history to ever rank in the league's top 10 in scoring, rebounding, assists, steals and blocked shots in the same season...Catchings, though, has done it twice – in 2002 and 2006...she has posted double-doubles in nearly one-fourth of her professional games (82-of-347), now second in WNBA history.

Catchings is a three-time Olympic gold medalist for the United States, medaling at the 2004 Olympics in Athens, Greece; the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, China and the 2012 Games in London where she served as a U.S. tri-captain alongside Sue Bird and Diana Taurasi.

Off the court, Catchings is one of the country's most highly-regarded citizen-athletes...within the past year, she served on a mentoring panel at the White House to honor Women's History Month, speaking with other female luminaries to a group of high school students...she was named by Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton to serve on the U.S. Department of State's Council to Empower Women and Girls Through Sports...serving in that capacity with the State Department, she traveled to Bangkok, Thailand last March to engage girls and women in sports...she was named a National Ambassador for Inaugural Allstate WBCA Good Works Team, honoring college women's basketball stars who do good work in their communities...Catchings was the 2012 Honoree for the Pacers Foundation and Simon Youth Foundation Masquerade Gala and prior to the 2013 season, the Catch The Stars Foundation was honored by the Indianapolis City-County Council.

In 2012 alone, she was a spokesperson for Indy's Super Cure, a community initiative of the 2012 Indianapolis Super Bowl Host Committee to aid in research and donation of healthy breast tissue; she was named an NBA/WNBA ambassador for Sanofi's 'Dribble to Stop Diabetes' campaign; she was named to serve on the board of trustees of the Women's Sports Foundation; and appeared with First Lady Michelle Obama in Des Moines, Iowa, as part of Obama's 'Let's Move Tour,' geared toward solving the problem of childhood obesity.

In 2011, she was voted a Top 5 Finalist for the United Nations NGO Positive Peace Award and one of ten "Dream Team for Public Service" finalists for the Jefferson Award for outstanding service by an athlete...she was invited to President George W. Bush's State of the Union Address in 2004 and was named a finalist for the 2006 Wooden Citizenship Cup, presented annually to the nation's top professional athlete who exhibits outstanding community service...she was the 2008 female recipient of the Rotary Club of Tulsa Henry P. Iba Citizen-Athlete Award...she was the first recipient of the WNBA's Dawn Staley Leadership Award, presented in 2008 to the player who best exemplifies the characteristics of a leader in the community and reflects Staley's leadership, spirit, charitable efforts and love for the game...Catchings is the current president of the WNBA Players Association.

Tony Dungy was the keynote speaker at Catch The Stars Foundation's annual scholar-athlete reception on May 10, 2012.

With an MVP performance in the WNBA Finals, Tamika Catchings finally captured the elusive WNBA title she had sought during 12 pro seasons. The league's MVP in 2011 and a five-time WNBA Defensive Player of the Year, Catchings has risen among the most elite players in women's basketball history. What's more, her star shines just as bright off the court as founder of the Catch The Stars Foundation. She already is the league's all-time leader in steals and free throws, with her sights set on more statistical milestones in 2013.

Catchings' sister, Tauja, was drafted by the Phoenix Mercury in 2000, a year before Tamika was selected by the Fever.

A four-time WNBA All-Star, four-time All-WNBA selection and a five-time member of the WNBA's All-Defensive Team, Katie Douglas has completed five WNBA summers in her hometown of Indianapolis...in those five seasons, she has become the second-leading scorer in Fever history and ranks second to Tamika Catchings in most shooting categories...after leaving empty-handed in her first three WNBA Finals appearances – two with Connecticut, one in Indiana – Douglas finally earned her first WNBA championship last season despite an injury in the conference finals that kept her from playing in the Finals...she underwent ankle surgery in late December and resumed playing overseas in March, prior to the 2013 WNBA campaign.

Douglas is a well-rounded guard who can pass, shoot, defend and handle the ball...she is capable of playing both guard spots...her lanky build makes her a tough matchup for opposing guards...she is adept at stepping into passing lanes for steals...one of the league's premier defenders and fourth in WNBA history with 586 steals, she joins Fever teammate Tamika Catchings (1st)...she ranks fifth in WNBA history with 656 career 3-point field goals and became the league's first player ever to surpass 500 in both categories...late during the 2012 season, Catchings joined her as league's only players to eclipse both career milestones...entering her 13th pro season, she ranks ninth in WNBA history with 5,082 points...she ranks 15th with 1,000 career assists.

PRO - WNBA

2012: Douglas played and started in 32 games, missing the last two games of the season (illness) to snap a two-year streak of 53 consecutive appearances...she averaged 16.5 points, 3.8 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.5 steals per game, all of which ranked her either second or third on the team...she made a franchise record 80 3-point field goals, only the fourth person in WNBA history to do so...she became the 15th player in WNBA history with 1,000 assists and the 10th to score 5,000 points...she was second on the team with 48 steals...against Atlanta, 8/18, she broke a franchise record with seven 3-point field goals (7-of-9), scoring 29 points...she scored 30 points, just two shy of her career-high against Phoenix, 9/9, setting a career-high with 12 field goals on 18 attempts.

2011: Douglas started 32 games, averaged 13.9 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.8 assists and 1.2 steals per game...Douglas was named Eastern Conference Player of the Week, 6/13...during that week, she averaged 21 points per game...Douglas was named to the WNBA All-Defensive Second Team...along with teammate Tamika Catchings, Douglas was named an All-Star starter for the East...Douglas scored a season-high 30 points vs. Atlanta, 9/11...she ranked fourth in the WNBA in both 3-point FG made

(66) and 3-point FG percentage (44%)...with a steal and two assists vs. Tulsa, 6/14, she became the fourth player in WNBA history with 800 assists and 500 steals in a career...in that same game Douglas became the first player in WNBA history with 500 steals and 500 3-pointers made...her 16 points in the second quarter vs. Atlanta, 9/11, is a franchise record... she tied a franchise record with six 3-point FG made vs. New York, 6/10, vs. Tulsa, 6/14, and vs. Phoenix, 6/28.

2010: A 34-game starter, Douglas joined Tamika Catchings as the only Fever players with over 1,000 minutes (1,014)...she was second on the club with 13.7 points, 3.3 assists and 1.35 steals per game while leading Indiana with 68 3-pointers...Douglas earned All-WNBA second-team recognition in addition to making the WNBA All-Defensive squad...while representing the Fever in the USA vs. WNBA: Stars at the Sun midseason classic, Douglas became the first Indiana player to win an All-Star skills competition by winning the 3-point shooting contest...she posted a season-high 29 points in a road loss at Seattle, 6/25...she became the first player in league history with 500 steals and 500 3-point field goals when she hit her 500th 3-pointer against Atlanta, 8/6.

2009: Douglas started in 31 games, averaged 17.6 points, 3.9 rebounds, 2.7 assists and 1.81 steals per game... the Fever's leading scorer overall and the league's top scorer after the All-Star Break, she finished third in WNBA MVP balloting...along with Tamika Catchings, Douglas was named an All-Star starter for the East...Douglas was named to the All-WNBA Second Team...she became the first Fever player to win Eastern Conference Player of the Week honors in consecutive weeks, on 7/26 and 8/9...during that two-week, five-game span, Douglas averaged 26.8 points and 5.8 rebounds per game...included in those games was a career-high 34 points against Washington on 7/28, when she was 9-for-19 from the field and shot a career-high 15-for-16 from the free-throw line...her 34-point night was a franchise-record for most points scored in game...at New York, 6/26, Douglas scored 28 points, including a franchise-record 26 points in the second half, almost single-handedly helping the Fever overcome a 17-point deficit...she was sixth in the WNBA in points per game...she led the Fever in scoring for a second consecutive year, was second on the team in free throw percentage and third on the team in assists and steals per game.

October 7, 2009: A capacity crowd of 18,165 looks on at Bankers Life Fieldhouse during Game 4 of the WNBA Finals between the Fever and Phoenix Mercury. Indiana led the series 2-1 with a chance to win its first WNBA crown before this throng of onlookers. Phoenix won the game, 90-77, and captured the title two nights later in Phoenix.

In nine playoff seasons, the Fever has been seeded #2 three times and #1, #3 or #4 two times each.

Tamika Whitmore's 41 points for Indiana in a 98-83 playoff loss at Detroit, 8/19/06, was a WNBA Playoff record until 2010. Whitmore made 15-of-22 shots and added 10 rebounds in what was one of the greatest playoff performances in league history. Pacing the Fever while Tamika Catchings was lost for the second half due to a concussion, Whitmore scored 25 points in the second half, including 15 in the third quarter.

Shavonte Zellous' 30 points in Game 3 of the 2012 WNBA Finals matched the third-highest scoring output in Indiana playoff history. Zellous hit 10-of-17 shots in the game while staking the Fever to a stunning 37-point third-quarter advantage (70-33), which is the largest lead in Finals history. Zellous shot 18-of-18 from the FT line during the series and closed the 2012 campaign with 19 straight free throws made.

Erlana Larkins established a new Fever record with 109 rebounds during the 2012 playoffs season. She matched a league standard with nine offensive rebounds and grabbed 20 boards overall in Game 3 of the East Semis to match Tamika Catchings' mark which is second in league playoffs history. She twice registered 15 rebounds in the Finals which fell one shy of the single-game mark in a championship series.

When Indiana took a 70-33 lead over Minnesota in Game 3 of the 2012 WNBA Finals, it was the largest lead in Finals history.

2013 INDIANA FEVER MEDIA GUIDE
GREAT DATES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

JUNE 7, 1999

Indianapolis, Miami, Portland and Seattle awarded WNBA expansion franchises to begin play in 2000.

JUNE 25, 1999

Sold 1,000th season ticket to Dorothy Mengerling, the mother of late-night talk show host David Letterman.

JULY 22, 1999

Hired Kelly Krauskopf as the team's first Chief Operating Officer. Krauskopf becomes the highest-ranking female front office executive at any of the city's professional sports franchises.

JULY 30, 1999

Sold 2,000th season ticket to Indianapolis 500 veteran racecar driver Lyn St. James. "When the WNBA was initially launched in 1997, I was actually surprised that Indianapolis, with its tremendous basketball tradition and the support that surrounds basketball here, was not one of the cities on the list," St. James said. "I am certainly pleased to see that Indianapolis has now been awarded a franchise, and I am confident that the team will be embraced by the loyal basketball fans in Indiana."

AUGUST 13, 1999

Sold 3,000th season ticket to San Diego Padres' All-Star outfielder Tony Gwynn, just days after he became the 22nd player in Major League Baseball history to reach the 3,000-hit plateau. "I was glad to hear that Indiana was awarded a franchise," Gwynn said, who has a home in Indianapolis. "I have seen first hand how kids look up to professional athletes. My wife and I are looking forward to the opportunity for our kids to watch these WNBA players, who are not only great athletes, but great role models."

AUGUST 17, 1999

Named Nell Fortner as the team's first head coach and general manager. Already committed to the U.S. women's national team through the 2000 Olympic Games, Fortner is scheduled to join the team in 2001, following her Olympic commitment.

AUGUST 27, 1999

Sold 4,500th season ticket to Grammy Award-winning recording artist and Anderson, Ind., native Sandi Patty. "I have come to love and respect women's sports, and I think this is a wonderful opportunity for Indianapolis and the state of Indiana," Patty said. The team also announces its 2000 individual game ticket prices at a press conference at Market Square Arena. The average ticket price to attend a WNBA game at Bankers Life Fieldhouse will be $13, with prices ranging from $5 to $85.

SEPTEMBER 23, 1999

Sold 5,000th season ticket to Indiana Pacers Head Coach Larry Bird. "I think Indiana's WNBA franchise will be a huge success, and I'm happy to be a part of helping to ensure that success," Bird said. "Indiana fans love their basketball and I think they will embrace the WNBA team and the high quality of play it will bring to Indiana," Bird said.

OCTOBER 1, 1999

Sold 5,500th season ticket to former U.S. Senator Birch Bayh, enabling the franchise to meet the league's minimum goal two weeks ahead of schedule. Said Bayh, "I have long believed that both our daughters and our sons need to experience the benefits that come with participating in sporting activities." Bayh introduced the 1972 Title IX law, which provided equal opportunities for female participation in athletics.

OCTOBER 12, 1999

WNBA President Val Ackerman visits Indianapolis as the guest speaker at a WNBA corporate luncheon. Ackerman speaks to 220 corporate representatives at The Columbia Club on Monument Circle.

OCTOBER 20, 1999

Named Hall-of-Famer Anne Donovan as the team's head coach for the 2000 season. Donovan will coach the team in the absence of Fortner and become the team's lead assistant coach upon Fortner's return.

NOVEMBER 15, 1999

Awarded the first pick in the 2000 WNBA Expansion Draft in a random drawing at the WNBA League Meetings when the team's designated ping-pong ball was the first out of the selection receptacle.

DECEMBER 15, 1999

Selected Gordana Grubin (Los Angeles) with the first pick, Sandy Brondello (Detroit) with the eighth pick, Nyree Roberts (Washington) with the ninth pick, Kara Wolters (Houston) with the 16th pick, Rita Williams (Washington) with the 17th pick and Chantel Tremittiere (Utah) with the 24th pick in the 2000 WNBA Expansion Draft. Acquired Stephanie White from Miami, in exchange for Sandy Brondello and a first-round pick in the 2000 WNBA Draft. Acquired Monica Maxwell from Washington, in exchange for selecting Nyree Roberts and a fourth-round pick in the 2000 WNBA Draft.

DECEMBER 17, 1999

Unveiled team name and logo before 300 in attendance at the Arts Garden in Circle Centre Mall. Pacers Sports & Entertainment President Donnie Walsh, Fever Chief Operating Officer Kelly Krauskopf, Head Coach Anne Donovan, Indianapolis Mayor Stephen Goldsmith and Stephanie White speak at the unveiling.

APRIL 28, 2000

Chris Denari was named the team's first radio and television play-by-play announcer.

APRIL 29, 2000

Local tryouts conducted at Butler University's Hinkle Fieldhouse, with over 200 women competing with hopes of landing a spot on the 11-player Fever roster. After two days of basketball, one player, Texlin Quinney from Buffalo, N.Y., made the final cut and found herself on the Fever's opening day roster.

MAY 1, 2000

Members of the media get their first glimpse of the new WNBA franchise as the morning begins with media day. Later that day, the team opens training camp and holds its first practice on Emmis Court in Bankers Life Fieldhouse. Karen Wilkins, Shantel Hardison, Monick Foote, Stacey Lovelace, Katasha Artis, Donna Harrington, Alicia Thompson and Texlin Quinney are assigned to the Fever by the WNBA.

The Fever's home opener in its 10th anniversary season (2009) was exactly 10 years to the day after the franchise was founded.

GREAT DATES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

GREAT DATES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

JULY 12, 2006

Tamika Catchings was the WNBA's leading vote-getter for the WNBA All-Star Game, but was held from participation because of injury. Teammate Tamika Whitmore attended her first All-Star Game, scoring nine points in an East victory.

JULY 29, 2006

Despite a home loss to Washington, the Fever clinched its third playoff berth, and its second in two seasons. With eight games and two weeks remaining in the regular season, it was the earliest that Indiana had ever clinched a playoff spot.

AUGUST 11, 2006

Anna DeForge scored 20 points to pace the Fever in an 87-68 win at Connecticut, matching the club record with its 21st victory of the season. At 21-12, it also marked the first time in franchise history that the club moved nine games over .500.

AUGUST 17, 2006

Tamika Catchings named WNBA Defensive Player of the Year for a second straight season. She joined Tully Bevilacqua on the WNBA All-Defense First Team.

AUGUST 19, 2006

Tamika Whitmore posted one of the most memorable games in WNBA Playoff history by scoring a record 41 points in a Game 2 loss at Detroit. Whitmore had 16 points by halftime, added 15 points in the third and 10 in the fourth quarter as the Fever fell short in a 98-83 decision to close the first round of the playoffs. With Tamika Catchings injured much of the second half, Whitmore was virtually unstoppable. She finished 15-of-25 shooting and was 10-of-10 at the foul line. She also added a team-high 10 rebounds.

JULY 15, 2007

Paced by starters Anna DeForge and Tamika Catchings and joined by Tammy Sutton-Brown, the Fever was represented by three players in the WNBA All-Star Game – the most in its history. DeForge's jumper with 39 seconds remaining iced the East's win. Catchings finished with 15 points and 11 rebounds.

JULY 18, 2007

Following a 75-74 home defeat of the Chicago Sky, the Fever moved to 16-4 overall and claimed the best 20-game record in the history of the Eastern Conference. The win capped a franchise-record six-game win streak and gave the Fever the best record in the WNBA. The Fever's afternoon crowd of 10,542 was its best daytime crowd in history.

AUGUST 23, 2007

Connecticut beat Indiana 93-88, at Connecticut, in what was the first triple overtime game in WNBA Playoffs history. Indiana was led by Anna DeForge's 31 points and Tamika Catchings' 20 rebounds. It was Catchings' first game since July 20.

AUGUST 27, 2007

In a decisive Game 3 of a first-round playoff series with Connecticut, Indiana staged the largest comeback in WNBA Playoffs history to advance to the Eastern Conference Finals. Trailing by 22 in the second quarter, the Fever rallied and sent the game into overtime. Tamika Catchings led the assault with 30 points, 13 rebounds and six assists.

AUGUST 31, 2007

A home crowd of 9,623 was the best in Fever playoff history, and a 75-65 win over the Detroit Shock gave the Fever its first-ever lead in a conference finals series.

JULY 14, 2010

On Kids Day, Indiana welcomed its largest crowd of the season (10,076) and one of three crowds eclipsing the 10,000 mark as the Fever showed an attendance increase for the fourth straight year.

JULY 18, 2010

Tamika Catchings scored nine of her 22 points in overtime to lift the Fever to an 84-81 victory at New York. Katie Douglas had 21 points and Ebony Hoffman added 15 to help the Fever beat the Liberty for the seventh straight time and move into first place in the Eastern Conference. Indiana overcame a career-high 40 points by Cappie Pondexter. Catchings' tiebreaking 3-pointer gave the Fever the lead for good, 78-75 with 4 minutes left in the extra period.

AUGUST 6, 2010

Tamika Catchings scored 30 points during a 95-93 win over Atlanta, pulling the Fever percentage points ahead of the Dream for first place in the East. Catchings hit game-winning free throws with 3.5 seconds remaining. Earlier in the game, she became the first player in WNBA history to score 4,500 points, grab 2,000 rebounds and hand out 1,000 assists. In the same game, Douglas hit the 500th 3-point field goal of her career to become the WNBA's first player with 500 3FGs and 500 assists.

AUGUST 8, 2010

Tamika Catchings scored 24 points and grabbed 10 rebounds to lead the Fever past Phoenix 104-82, putting Indiana atop the Eastern Conference with two weeks left in the regular season.

AUGUST 11, 2010

Indiana won 82-76 at Los Angeles to sweep two games with the Sparks for just the second time in franchise history.

AUGUST 13, 2010

Indiana scored a franchise-record 110 points while beating Phoenix 110-90 and clinching a playoff spot for the sixth consecutive season.

AUGUST 29, 2010

After dropping Game 1 of the Eastern Conference Semifinals in New York, the Fever responded with a 75-67 win at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

SEPTEMBER 1, 2010

Katie Douglas scored 24 points and Tamika Catchings added 21, but it was not enough for the Fever to overcome Cappie Pondexter and the Liberty. Pondexter scored 30 points and New York outscored Indiana 8-2 down the stretch to claim a 77-74 Game 3 victory and a 2-1 outcome in the best-of-three playoff series.

OCTOBER 3, 2010

Tamika Catchings helped the United States to a gold medal victory at the FIBA World Championships conducted in the Czech Republic. Tully Bevilacqua earned a bronze medal with Australia.

JUNE 13, 2011

Katie Douglas was named the WNBA's Eastern Conference Player of the Week after opening the season with 21.0 points per game through the Fever's first three games. Douglas' week included a 27-point effort in a win over New York that included a team-record six 3-pointers.

JUNE 14, 2011

Katie Douglas became the first player in WNBA history to record 500 career 3-pointers and 500 career steals. In a win over Tulsa, Douglas recorded 22 points with six 3-pointers, and added a steal to reach the milestone.

JULY 9, 2011

Tamika Catchings passed Ticha Penicheiro to become the WNBA's career steals leader with six thefts in a win over the Washington Mystics. Catchings tied a league record with five steals in the fourth quarter.

JULY 23, 2011

As part of 2011 All-Star festivities in San Antonio, and in celebration of the WNBA's 15th season, Tamika Catchings was named as one of the league's Top 15 Players of All-Time.

AUGUST 13, 2011

Matching her own career scoring high, Tamika Catchings scored 32 points in a win over the New York Liberty. She made a Fever-record 17 free throws and became the sixth player in WNBA history to reach the 5,000-point plateau.

SEPTEMBER 7, 2011

Katie Douglas scored 21 points to lead four double-figure scorers in an 87-69 win over the Washington Mystics, as Indiana clinched the top seed in the WNBA Eastern Conference playoffs for the second time in franchise history.

SEPTEMBER 15, 2011

Erin Phillips' 14-foot jumper with 1.5 seconds remaining lifted Indiana to a 74-72 playoff victory over New York at Bankers Life Fieldhouse. Katie Douglas finished with a game-high 25 points as the Fever took a 1-0 lead in the Eastern Conference Semifinals.

SEPTEMBER 19, 2011

Katie Douglas scored 21 points and Tamika Catchings added 17 to help Indiana past New York, 72-62, to advance past the Liberty, 2-1, into the Eastern Conference Finals.

SEPTEMBER 22, 2011

A four-time Defensive Player of the Year and a top-five vote-getter in MVP balloting in 8 of 9 previous seasons, Tamika Catchings was named the WNBA's Most Valuable Player for the first time in her career. Catchings accepted the award from WNBA President Laurel Richie in a news conference at Bankers Life Fieldhouse.

SEPTEMBER 22, 2011

Tangela Smith knocked down a Fever playoff record five 3-pointers while scoring a career high 25 points as Indiana beat Atlanta 82-74 in Game 1 of the Eastern Conference Finals. The win drew the Fever within one victory of a second trip to the WNBA Finals.

2013 INDIANA FEVER MEDIA GUIDE
GREAT DATES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

JUNE 21, 2012

The Fever celebrated the 40th anniversary of Title IX by welcoming the "Father of Title IX," former U.S. Senator Birch Bayh, and celebrity honoree Ann Meyers Drysdale, by unleashing a franchise-record 15 3-pointers as part of a 95-61 win over Connecticut. A WNBA-record eight different players made 3-pointers for the Fever.

JULY 7, 2012

Already the WNBA's all-time leader in free throws, Tamika Catchings used six FTs in an 88-86 overtime win over Chicago to become the first WNBA player to reach 1,500 in a career.

AUGUST 11, 2012

A tri-captain on the U.S. Olympic Women's Basketball Team, Tamika Catchings won her third Olympic gold medal as the USA defeated France, 86-50. Catchings started all eight games in the Olympic Tournament, averaging 6.1 points and 4.9 rebounds per game, and finishing second on the team with 13 steals.

AUGUST 23, 2012

Indiana trimmed a 13-point deficit to one before Briann January found Shavonte Zellous for a wide-open 3-pointer at the buzzer as the Fever won at Seattle, 68-66, for just the second time in history.

SEPTEMBER 1, 2012

Indiana won for the seventh time in eight games, beating Chicago 81-64 to clinch the club's eighth consecutive playoff berth. Briann January paced the Fever with 19 points and four assists as Indiana completed a 5-game sweep of the Sky in 2012.

SEPTEMBER 9, 2012

Katie Douglas scored a season-high 30 points during an 89-83 home win over Phoenix to become just the 10th player in league history to reach 5,000 career points.

SEPTEMBER 17, 2012

Indiana fell for the second time in three nights to defending champ Minnesota. The 86-79 loss to the Lynx in Minneapolis overshadowed a 19-point, 10-rebound double-double for Tamika

Catchings which included three 3-pointers. Catchings joined teammate Katie Douglas as the only players in WNBA history to reach career milestones of 500 steals and 500 3-point field goals.

SEPTEMBER 19, 2012

In a 73-67 loss at Connecticut, Katie Douglas notched four 3-pointers to move past Tamika Catchings' club mark of 76 in a season, established in 2002. Douglas finished with 80, matching Becky Hammons for the league lead and joining Katie Smith and Diana Taurasi as the only players to reach 80 in a single year.

SEPTEMBER 28, 2012

Tamika Catchings was the recipient of an unprecedented fifth WNBA Defensive Player of the Year award. Joining her on the league's All-Defense Team was Briann January.

SEPTEMBER 30, 2012

Facing early elimination and watching its top scorers shoot just 2-14 before halftime, Indiana got 24 points and seven assists from Briann January to surprise Atlanta on the road, 103-88, in Game 2 of the Eastern Conference Semifinals. Tamika Catchings caught fire for 18 points in the fourth quarter to finish with 25 and Erlana Larkins, inserted into the starting lineup, finished with 16 points and seven rebounds.

OCTOBER 2, 2012

Katie Douglas scored a game-high 24 points while Erlana Larkins pulled down 20 rebounds to help Indiana to a 75-64 win over Atlanta and advance to the Eastern Conference Finals. Larkins' rebounding effort included a WNBA-record tying nine offensive rebounds. Her total was the second-best in WNBA Playoffs history, matching Tamika Catchings with an Indiana record.

OCTOBER 8, 2012

A frantic, last-second outlet pass from Tamika Catchings to Briann January resulted in a missed layup and buzzer-beating jump shot by Shavonte Zellous as Indiana once again staved off elimination, beating Connecticut 78-76 to force a decisive Game 3 in the East Finals. Katie Douglas finished with 24 points before a Bankers Life Fieldhouse playoff crowd of 9,225.

Spontaneous eruption by Fever fans and players was matched only by dejection on the Connecticut bench as an unlikely Catchings-to-January-to-Zellous game-winning scramble sent the 2012 East Finals to a decisive Game 3 in Connecticut. Zellous' buzzer-beating jumper broke a 76-76 tie just moments after the Sun missed an apparent game-winning free throw.

Indiana was 4-0 in elimination games in the 2012 playoffs, turning back Atlanta & Connecticut before ousting Minnesota in the Finals.

GREAT DATES IN FRANCHISE HISTORY

OCTOBER 11, 2012

The story of the game in the decisive game of the East Finals appeared to be the loss of Fever star Katie Douglas, who sustained a left ankle injury in the early moments of the first quarter. But the eventual story was the resilient Fever's sharpshooting in the absence of their top scorer in the playoffs. Indiana made 10-of-16 3-point field goal attempts and ran past Connecticut on the road, 87-71, to advance to the WNBA Finals for the second time in four seasons.

OCTOBER 14, 2012

Facing the defending champs on the road, Indiana was a prohibitive underdog entering the WNBA Finals opener at Minnesota. Forty minutes later and on the strength of 20 points from Tamika Catchings and 15 rebounds by Erlana Larkins, the Fever beat the Lynx 76-70 to take a 1-0 lead in the WNBA Finals.

OCTOBER 19, 2012

As the WNBA Finals returned to Indianapolis, Pacers Sports & Entertainment and the Fever announced a marquee partnership with athletic retailer Finish Line. The Finish Line logo will appear on team jerseys beginning in the 2013 season.

OCTOBER 19, 2012

Before a sellout crowd of 18,165 at Bankers Life Fieldhouse, the Fever produced a 76-59 rout to take a 2-1 series lead over the Lynx. Shavonte Zellous led the Fever assault with a career-high 30 points as Indiana thoroughly blasted Minnesota – at one point leading 70-33, the largest lead (37) by any team in Finals history.

OCTOBER 21, 2012

The elusive championship that had eluded the Fever franchise through its first 12 seasons had finally arrived in Indianapolis! Behind 25 points from Tamika Catchings and 13 rebounds from Erlana Larkins, Indiana turned back Minnesota, 87-78, to clinch the WNBA Finals series 3-1 and claim the first pro basketball title in Indianapolis since an ABA title by the Indiana Pacers in 1973. It was the first WNBA crown for every member of the Fever team and coaching staff. Catchings was named the Finals MVP.

OCTOBER 23, 2012

Indianapolis Mayor Greg Ballard declared the day as "Fever World Champions Day" as fans and Central Indiana residents were encouraged to join the Fever's championship celebration. After flocking through the streets of downtown Indianapolis, nearly 3,000 fans gathered in the Indiana University Health Entry Pavilion to honor the WNBA Champions.

OCTOBER 30, 2012

The Fever's chief executive since the club's founding in 1999, Kelly Krauskopf was promoted to President and General Manager.

The WNBA Champion Indiana Fever posed with fans during its Championship Celebration on Oct. 23, 2012. Lin Dunn paid a tribute to its fans, many of whom she proclaimed as the team's "founding fans," referring to longtime season ticket holders who joined the team on its day of honor. Mayor Greg Ballard proclaimed the day as "Fever World Champions Day" in the City of Indianapolis. FRONT ROW: Briann January, Katie Douglas, Erin Phillips, Shavonte Zellous, Jeanette Pohlen, Assistant Coach Stephanie White, Assistant Coach Mickie DeMoss. BACK ROW: Jessica Davenport, Karima Christmas, Tamika Catchings, Erlana Larkins, Tammy Sutton-Brown, Sasha Goodlett, COO/GM Kelly Krauskopf, Head Coach Lin Dunn.

A native of San Bernardino, Calif., California guard Layshia Clarendon was chosen by Indiana with the ninth pick of the 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm. An honorable mention All-American by the Associated Press and WBCA, Clarendon led the Golden Bears with 16.4 points per game while helping Cal to its first NCAA Final Four appearance where it lost to Louisville in the national semifinals. The 5-9 Clarendon was a first team All-Pac-12 selection and the league's scholar-athlete of the year while leading Cal to a 32-4 record. She was finalist for the State Farm Wade Trophy and a first team Senior CLASS Award All-American while pacing the Golden Bears to their first 30-win season. She became just the fourth Golden Bear to hit the 1,600-point mark in a career and finished her four seasons in Berkeley with 1,820 points.

2013 Fever first-rounder Layshia Clarendon led Cal to the best record in school history (32-4) and its first NCAA Final Four.

* All-Star Game Leader

Champion, 3-point shooting competition

• The 2010 All-Star showcase was billed as "Stars at the Sun," in a USA vs. WNBA format designed to serve as a training competition for USA Basketball, prior to the 2010 World Championships. Fan balloting determined guaranteed participants in the game. Tamika Catchings represented USA Basketball. Katie Douglas played for the WNBA.

• No All-Star Game was conducted in 2008, due to a tightened schedule to accommodate the 2008 Olympics in Beijing, China.

• No All-Star Game was conducted in 2004. Natalie Williams represented the WNBA as part of a WNBA Select Team vs. Team USA exhibition at Radio City Music Hall in New York (Aug. 5, 2004). Tamika Catchings played for Team USA as part of training prior to the 2004 Olympics.

Katie Douglas won the 2010 WNBA 3-point shooting competition to become the first Fever player to win a WNBA skills competition.

HONOR ROLL

In 2009, Fever coach Lin Dunn became the first Indiana coach named to lead the Eastern Conference All-Star Team. She was joined at the All-Star Game, played at Mohegan Sun Arena in Uncasville, Conn., by assistant coaches Gary Kloppenburg (left) and Jim Lewis (right) and trainer Craig Stull (not pictured). Representing the Fever on the team were All-Star starters Tamika Catchings (24) and Katie Douglas (23). Both Fever starters were selected by fan balloting. Catchings was the league's top overall vote-getter.

Lin Dunn was the first Fever coach ever named to lead the Eastern Conference All-Star Team.

Following the league's Board of Governor's Meeting, the WNBA announces it will implement new rules regarding flopping and defensive three-seconds, while also extending the three-point line from 20 feet, 6 1/4 inches to 22 feet, 1 3/4 inches, consistent with the distance inherent in all FIBA competitions. The rules will go into effect beginning with the 2013 season.

March 28, 2013

The WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership for another six years, paving the way for WNBA games to be televised on ABC, ESPN, and ESPN2 through 2022. The announcement, made by John Skipper, President of ESPN, Inc. and Co-Chairman of the Disney Media Networks, and Laurel J. Richie, WNBA President, extends the WNBA's television relationship with ESPN to 26 years. With the deal, up to 30 live games will be televised on ABC, ESPN or ESPN2 each season, including exclusive telecasts of the WNBA Finals presented by Boost Mobile.

March 28, 2013

On the same day as the WNBA and ESPN announce an extension of their partnership, the league also introduced a new brand identity. The refreshed identity reflects how far the level of play has come in 16 years as stronger, more agile players have made the game more competitive. The cornerstone of the new WNBA visual identity is a more modern "Logowoman" -- the player silhouette within the logo -- that better embodies the athleticism and diversity of current WNBA players while leveraging the distinctive orange-and-oatmeal color scheme of the league's iconic game ball.

April 15, 2013

For the first time in the WNBA's 17 seasons, the league's Draft is televised live in primetime. The 2013 WNBA Draft presented by State Farm takes place for the third straight year at ESPN headquarters in Bristol, Conn., this time airing live at 8 p.m. ET on ESPN2. One of the most anticipated draft classes in league history is led by the "3 to See" -- Brittney Griner of Baylor, Elena Delle Donne of Delaware, and Notre Dame's Skylar Diggins. The Phoenix Mercury select Griner with the No. 1 overall pick; the Chicago Sky then take Delle Donne with the No. 2 selection, and the Tulsa Shock claim Diggins third.

The only team in history with four players having 50 or more steals, the '09 Fever broke its own mark for steals by a team.

WNBA PLAYOFFS FORMAT

The top four teams from each conference will qualify for the 2013 WNBA Playoffs. The first and fourth-place teams, and the second and third-place teams, will each play a best-of-three conference semifinal series. The winners of the semifinal series in each conference will then play in a best-of-three conference final.

Tiebreaker Procedure

The following tiebreak procedure shall be used to break ties for playoff eligibility, home court advantage and draft order. In determining draft order, non-playoff teams will always select before playoff teams.

Two-Way Tie Between Teams In The Same Conference

1. Better record in head-to-head games
2. Better winning percentage in own conference
3. Better winning percentage against all teams with .500 or better record at the end of the season
4. Better point differential in games head-to-head
5. Coin toss

Two-Way Tie Between Teams In The Different Conference

In order to break a tie, the following criteria will be utilized in the order set forth:

1. Better record in head-to-head games
2. Better winning percentage against teams in the opposite conference
3. Better winning percentage against all teams with .500 or better record at the end of the season
4. Better point differential in games head-to-head
5. Coin toss

More Than Two Teams Tied

As many teams as possible will be eliminated at each step. As soon as one or more teams are eliminated at any step, the process must begin again from step (1).

1. Better winning percentage among all head-to-head games involving tied teams
2. Better winning percentage against teams in own conference (if all teams are from the same conference) or better record against teams in the opposite conference (if one or more teams are in different conferences)
3. Better winning percentage against all teams with .500 or better record at the end of the season
4. Better point differential in games involving tied teams
5. Coin toss

Scheduling

Conference Semifinals

The first and second place teams in each conference will have home court advantage in the Conference Semifinals and will host Game 1 and, if necessary, Game 3 of the series.

Conference Finals

The team with the better regular season record will have home court advantage in the Conference Finals and will host Game 1 and, if necessary, Game 3 of the series.

WNBA Finals

The team with the better regular season record will have home court advantage in the WNBA Finals. The championship series will be played in a 2-2-1 format with the higher seed hosting the first two games and the final game, if necessary.
