History

the new era UNLEASHED

Entering his 18th season as a head coach, Bob Lilley takes the reigns of Riverhounds SC in 2018. Lilley and seven players join Pittsburgh and its six returners for this season after being a part of the USL-side Rochester Rhinos in 2017.

It is a veteran roster overall, and 18 players have appeared in at least 10 combined USL and MLS games. Kevin Kerr, Dennis Chin and Ben Zemanski have totaled more than 100 games played at the USL and MLS levels, and Hugh Roberts nearly joins them as he sits at 99 career appearances.

Only three players have not yet had a season on a USL team. Noah Franke and Thomas Vancaeyezeele are the club's rookies, while Bakie Goodman spent last season in the National Premier Soccer League.

Three players, including Joe Greenspan, Joe Holland and Zemanski, appeared in at least one MLS game last year. Neco Brett and Raymond Lee also have at least one game played at the MLS level.

positional outlook

Riverhounds SC features a young trio of goalkeepers for the 2018 campaign. Dan Lynd carries the most experience in net, as he holds 11 career USL appearances from 2016-17. Keepers Mike Kirk and Kyle Morton have not yet appeared in an USL game, although they each were rostered on USL teams last year with the Rio Grande Valley FC Toros and Rochester Rhinos, respectively.

Roberts holds four seasons of USL experience and an All-League First Team honor whereas Pratzner is coming off a 13-appearance rookie campaign with Rochester. Jordan Dover, Noah Franke, Andrew Lubahn and Ray Lee make up the club's outside backs. Dover and Lee both arrive in Pittsburgh after spending the 2017 season with the Rhinos, while Lubahn spent 2017 with the San Francisco Deltas and Franke is a rookie out of Creighton.

Playing more distributive and holding roles in the midfield, Kenardo Forbes, Ben Zemanski, Mouhamed Dabo, Bakie Goodman and Thomas Vancaeyezeele all join Pittsburgh for the first time. quick facts

Opened: April 13, 2013
 Spectator Capacity: 5,000
 Field Size: 110 x 70 square feet

Positioned right on the Monongahela River with the skyline of Pittsburgh across the river, Highmark Stadium has served as the home of Riverhounds SC since its opening in 2013.

One of the premier venues in the Steel City, Highmark Stadium broke ground on June 25, 2012. It was completed on April 13, 2013 at a total cost of $10.2 million raised entirely through private investment. Along with being the home of Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC, the venue hosts a variety of events including local sports ranging from high school football to college soccer, as well as concerts and other unique entertainment.

The first match ever to be played at the venue pitted the Hounds against long-time rival Harrisburg City Islanders, now Penn FC, in the 2013 season opener. In front of a sellout of more than 4,000 in attendance, former Hound José Angulo, assisted by Matthew Dallman, would score the first-ever goal at Highmark Stadium in the 70th minute to give Pittsburgh the lead in the second half. The score would not hold though as the City Islanders responded with tallies in the 78th and 90th minute for the 2-1 victory.

In the four seasons played at Highmark Stadium, the Hounds have twice held a winning record during the USL regular season - 2013 (6-3-5) and 2015 (6-2-6). The club is 25-28-20 all-time in USL play on the Mon and has never hosted a playoff match at the venue.

Outside of league play, the Hounds have hosted nine matches at Highmark Stadium between the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup and international friendlies.

At the time of its construction, the venue's FIFA 2-star certified artificial turf was one of only six fields to earn that designation in the United States.

This past offseason saw Highmark Stadium expand to 5,000 seats in accordance with USSF Division II standards. The expansion included new rows of seatings along the riverside, allowing fans to take in a brand new and unique experience of watching soccer on the Mon.

On Hounds gamedays, the club is cheered on faithfully by its supporter's group, the Steel Army, who are located in the Paul Child Stand that can be found on the East End of the stadium.

Announced as the club's 10th head coach in its history on Nov. 14, 2017, Bob Lilley enters his first season at the helm for Riverhounds SC.

Lilley comes to Pittsburgh after coaching the USL-side Rochester Rhinos, which he led during two separate stints (2014-17 and 2010-11). In his six seasons with the Rhinos, Lilley compiled an 82-39-51 regular season record, which includes a 2015 mark of 17-1-10 en route to winning Coach of the Year honors and the USL Cup. He also was named Coach of the Year in 2010, when Rochester won the USSF Division 2 Professional League regular season title. The Rhinos made the playoffs in every season under Lilley and achieved at least a fourth-round finish in the Lamar Hunt U.S. Open Cup from 2014-17.

Before joining the Rhinos ahead of their 2010 season, Lilley spent the 2007-08 campaign as head coach of the Detroit Ignition of the Major Indoor Soccer League (MISL). He earned Coach of the Year honors, as the Ignition logged a 22-8 record and won the league's regular season championship.

For three seasons (2005-07), Lilley served as head coach for the Vancouver Whitecaps of the USL First Division. While with the club, he guided the Whitecaps to a 33-20-31 overall regular season record and a league championship in 2006.

From 2002-03, Lilley was the head coach for the Montreal Impact of the USL A-League. He directed the club to the playoffs both years and amassed a regular season record of 32-15-9, in addition to winning Coach of the Year honors in 2003.

The Fort Monmouth, New Jersey native began his head-coaching career with the Hershey Wildcats, which he led from 1997-01. In his five seasons with the USL A-League club, he compiled an 86-46-6 overall regular season record and was named Coach of the Year in 1997, his first-ever campaign as a head coach. Hershey made the playoffs each season with Lilley at the helm, including a trip to the A-League final in 2001.

Across his 17 seasons of head-coaching experience at every level, Lilley holds an all-time record of 255-128-97, has logged at least a .500 winning percentage during each regular season and has led his team into the postseason every year. He also has won two league titles and earned Coach of the Year honors five times. In 2010, he was inducted into the USL Hall of Fame as a coach.

Lilley played professionally with the Orlando Lions of the American Soccer League from 1989-90 (two seasons) and the Maryland Bays of the American Professional Soccer League in 1991 (one season). He also played professional indoor soccer with the Hershey Impact of the National Professional Soccer League (NPSL) from 1988-91 (three seasons), the Harrisburg Heat of the NPSL from 1991-97 (six seasons) and the Pittsburgh Stingers of the Continental Indoor Soccer League in 1994 (one season).

From 1984-87, Lilley played collegiately at George Mason University, where he was a four-year starter and team captain. He was inducted into the George Mason Men's Soccer Hall of Fame in 2011.

Lilley has prior ties with Riverhounds SC assistant coach Mark Pulisic. In 2017, Pulisic was an assistant coach under Lilley with the Rochester Rhinos. At the Detroit Ignition, Pulisic served as Director of Soccer Operations while Lilley was head coach during the 2007-08 season. The duo played together as teammates with the Harrisburg Heat in the 1990s and George Mason in the late 1980s.

➔ Bob Lilley comes to the Hounds with a stacked resume that not only includes a league title in 2015, but also an incredible 17-year coaching career that has exactly zero missed playoff appearances.

Mark Pulisic

- assistant coach

Mark Pulisic joins Riverhounds SC after serving as an assistant coach with the USL-side Rochester Rhinos during the 2017 campaign.

While with the Rhinos for the 2017 season, Pulisic served under current Riverhounds SC head coach Bob Lilley. The team posted a 14-7-11 record and advanced to the conference semifinals of the USL playoffs.

Pulisic and Lilley also have shared ties while at the Detroit Ignition of the Major Indoor Soccer League (MISL) during the 2007-08 season, in addition to playing together as teammates with the Harrisburg Heat of the National Professional Soccer League in the 1990s and George Mason University in the late 1980s.

From 2015-17, Pulisic relocated to Germany to work with the academy of Borussia Dortmund, as his son Christian Pulisic, a member of the United States National Team, signed a deal to play for the Bundesliga club.

In 2006, Pulisic assumed head coaching duties of the Detroit Ignition, an expansion team in the MISL at the time. He led his team to the league final and earned Coach of the Year honors during his first year at the helm. Following the 2006-07 season, Pulisic was named Director of Soccer Operations for the Ignition and hired Lilley as head coach for the 2007-08 campaign.

Pulisic began his coaching career at Lebanon Valley College in 1993, when he became head coach of the men's soccer program. He later founded the women's soccer program in 1996. He remained at the NCAA Division III school until 2005. During this stretch, he also had a brief stint as an assistant coach with the USL's Harrisburg City Islanders in 2004.

While coaching at Lebanon Valley, Pulisic also played professionally for the Harrisburg Heat from 1991-99. He scored 296 goals in his career with the Heat and has been inducted into the team's Hall of Fame.

USL

A Year of Peaks and Valleys

Needing to overcome a slew of injuries throughout the season, it was a year that could have been for Riverhounds SC. Amassing an 8-12-12 record, the team missed the playoffs after staying in the hunt for most of the campaign. Pittsburgh finished the regular season 13th with 36 points in the USL Eastern Conference.

Over the course of the 2017 campaign, 32 different players recorded at least one appearance, which is the second-highest total in team history. A number of season-ending injuries factored into the large roster turnover. Goalkeepers Trey Mitchell and Keasel Broome, as well as starters Rich Balchan, Ben Swanson and Marshall Hollingsworth sustained season-ending injuries. Key contributors, such as forward Kay Banjo and midfielder Victor Souto, also missed weeks of the season.

Despite the carousel of players in and out of the lineup, Pittsburgh eyed a playoff spot in the second half of the campaign. The team caught fire in August, as a Keystone Derby Cup-clinching performance fueled it to an undefeated month (3-0-1). Winning the rivalry trophy for the second time in its three years of existence, Pittsburgh capped off the series against the Harrisburg City Islanders (now known as Penn FC) with a 3-0 road win, which marked three shutouts in three games of its in-state rival.

A late-season skid proved to be the deciding factor that kept Pittsburgh from postseason action for the second straight year. Facing six eventual playoff teams during the final seven games of the schedule, Riverhounds SC could only muster three points.

About a month after the season ended, it was announced head coach Dave Brandt, who logged a 13-25-16 overall record during his time with Pittsburgh, would not return in 2018. Instead, former Rochester Rhinos head coach Bob Lilley would be at the helm for the upcoming campaign.

The 2017 season was Pittsburgh's fifth at Highmark Stadium and seventh in the USL (formerly known as USL Pro).

Joe Greenspan provided a huge boost as a loanee from Minnesota last season, anchoring the backline to four clean sheets.

History

The Battle for PA

Created in 2015, the Keystone Derby Cup, presented by K&L Gates and the Pennsylvania Lottery, is awarded to the season series winner between Riverhounds SC and Penn FC, formerly known as the Harrisburg City Islanders. In the three seasons of its existence, Pittsburgh holds a 2-to-1 advantage over its Keystone State counterparts.

The Hounds were victorious in the inaugural season of the Keystone Derby Cup, and a miraculous comeback helped pave the way. In the second of four games during the 2015 series, Pittsburgh found itself trailing 5-3 in the 90th minute. Despite the deficit, the Hounds accomplished the unthinkable, winning the match 6-5 in front of the Highmark Stadium crowd.

In the 2016 chapter of the Derby Cup, the second of three matches proved to be the deciding factor. Having tied the first and third tilts, Penn FC snuck by Pittsburgh by a score of 2-1 in game two and went on to win its first-ever Derby Cup.

Riverhounds SC bounced back and dominated Penn FC in 2017. Pittsburgh shut out its rival in all three matches en route to winning its second Derby Cup in club history. This was the first time the Hounds shut out Penn FC multiple times in a single season since joining the USL in 2011 (then known as USL Pro).

NEW ERA

UNLEASHED

A new era officially arrived for Pittsburgh Riverhounds SC over the offseason. The club unveiled a new logo in advance of the 2018 campaign, swapping out the long-time "Hounds head" logo – the trademark of the club since 1999 – for a traditional badge look to coincide with an offseason of growth and change.

The new badge is rooted in the sporting culture of Pittsburgh. First and foremost, it is adorned primarily in Black and Gold to further solidify the club's standing alongside the three major professional teams in the city. Traditional colors of the Steel City itself (most notably in the city's official crest), Black and Gold signifies a considerable shift for the club's identity from its original "brick and mud" scheme in its inaugural season to the blue used through the opening of Highmark Stadium.

Paying homage to the 446 bridges that grace the landscape of the city, a literal bridge links the words Pittsburgh and Riverhounds SC in the outer band of the badge. The architectural elements are a direct inspiration of Fort Pitt Bridge, which has provided a formidable presence in the West Side backdrop of Highmark Stadium since the club began play at that location in 2013. Furthermore, a checkered pattern anchors both sides of the city name, drawing from the city's crest as well.

A uniquely shaped shield centered within the badge provides striking character, inspired directly from capstone elements within the entryway of the Allegheny County Courthouse located downtown. Split diagonally in Black and Gold, the crest holds the defining qualities of the club and is bookended by "1999," the inaugural year of play for the Hounds. Within the shield is a soccer ball, as well as a "Hounds" paw to forever link the club with the Riverhounds name.

The shield is buoyed in the element of water, as the three levels of waves represent the three rivers of Pittsburgh – the Allegheny, Monongahela, and Ohio.

Finally, the typography is custom, in direct inspiration of a wealth of unique examples found throughout the city defined primarily by a flare serif quality.

The new brand identity was developed by Portland, Oregon-based graphic designer, Brian Gundell. Gundell specializes in graphic design for athletics organizations, having worked with major brands such as Adidas, Nike, Under Armour and numerous professional teams, such as the Miami Dolphins, Miami Marlins, San Francisco Giants, San Diego Padres, LA Galaxy and D.C. United.

Riverhounds SC began play in 1999 as a member of the USL-A League. The club has kept the Riverhounds name almost primarily throughout its existence, adding "FC" for a short spell during 2005-06. The addition of SC (short for 'Soccer Club') to the club name provides little doubt to what Riverhounds SC represents as a brand moving forward and its place in the soccer world both nationally and globally.
