KELLOGG SCORES TWICE AS ICE DEFEAT MILWAUKEE 3-2

Rookie defenseman Bob Kellogg notched two goals, including the game-winner, as the Ice defeated Milwaukee 3-2 Saturday afternoon at the Bradley Center. Indianapolis never trailed in the game as Chris Rogles backstopped the Ice to the victory with 24 saves. Indianapolis has defeated the Admirals both times they have met this season. Rob Cimetta scored the other goal for Indianapolis, and the victory snapped an 0-3-1 streak.

MURRAY JOINS ICE, ADDS EXPERIENCE AND SCORING

Chicago RW Troy Murray, a veteran of 791 National Hockey League games, was reassigned to the Indianapolis Ice on February 18 to give the Ice some scoring punch after Steve Dubinsky and Jeff Shantz were recalled by the Blackhawks. Murray, who had never played a minor-league game before, scored his first IHL goal in his first IHL game. Murray has recorded two goals and two assists in five games. Murray spent all but 103 games of his NHL career with the Blackhawks and recorded 217 goals, 325 assists (542 points).

ROGLES CRACKS TOP TEN IN GOALS AGAINST AVERAGE

Ice goaltender Chris Rogles has improved his average to 3.35 GAA and currently ranks eighth in the IHL in GAA. Rogles is 5-1-4 in his last 10 starts and has improved his overall record to 11-16-4. Rogles has made 292 saves on 328 shots during that span (.890 save percentage) and has a 3.32 GAA. Rogles is 9-5-4 since January 7, after beginning the season 2-11-0.

"KID LINE" PLUS CARNEY RECALLED BY BLACKHAWKS

The Chicago Blackhawks recalled the "Kid Line" of Sergei Krivokrasov (RW), Jeff Shantz (C) and Steve Dubinsky (LW) and Keith Carney (D) recently. Shantz and Dubinsky were recalled on February 15 and Krivokrasov, who would have been recalled sooner but he was injured, got the call on February 21. Carney was recalled on Friday morning after Chicago defenseman Steve Smith broke his leg in a game against Winnipeg. Indianapolis is 7-3-2 when the "Kid Line" plays together. Dubinsky has had the most success since his recall (two goals and an assist) while Shantz has recorded two assists. Krivokrasov and Carney are scoreless since their recall. What does Indianapolis miss without the "Kid Line?" Scoring. The trio have combined for 38 goals and 57 assists (95 points).

ICE NOTES

- The Ice begin an 8-game homestand today.
- Ice RW Yves Heroux has an 8-game point scoring streak (6-3=9).
- Ice defenseman Bob Kellogg has a five game scoring streak (2-4=6)
