Pertinent Season Press Release

Release: 08/03/05

CLOSING THE BOOK ON DONOVAN MORGAN: Tulsa rookie OS DONOVAN MORGAN became the first player in league history to score more than 300 points in a single season by amassing an unbelievable 346 total points in 2005. What's more amazing is that Morgan accomplished the feat in 15 games because he had to miss one game due to injury. Overall, Morgan caught 121 passes for 1,687 yards and 54 touchdowns (af2 record). He also ran back 35 kickoffs for 686 yards and two touchdowns and returned five missed field goals for 123 yards and another score. Morgan was also on the receiving end of two two-point conversions for another four points. Below is a game-by-game look at Morgan's record-setting season. The previous record for single season scoring was 284 points by SHON KING for Quad City in 2000. It should also be noted that Manchester's J.J. MCKELVEY also broke the scoring record by registering 298 points in 2005.
