GAME # 3

vs. Detroit Express

GAME NOTES

WITH THE DRILLERS: Coming off a 4-2 win over San Jose last weekend, the Drillers have a record of 1-1, good for 10 points and 3rd place in the Western Division of the American Conference.... the Drillers have played the fewest number of games by any team in the league so far this season.

Andre Oostrom is still listed as probable with the hamstring strain he aggravated last week he is the only regular who may not start his place could be filled by defender Ron Klinkenberg moving up, with Joe Raduka possibly getting the starting nod on the back line.

WITH THE EXPRESS: The surprising sale of forward Keith Furphy to the Atlanta Chiefs on Friday, the Express will likely have a new look up front today. Midfielder Sam Oates is believed to be the man expected to move up front, joining Pato Margetic and Don Nardiello.

The Express sport a 2-3 record, good for 17 points and 3rd place in the Central Division of the American Conference.

PREVIOUS MEETINGS: Detroit was the first ever team to visit the Drillers at Commonwealth Stadium. They opened the 1979 season in Edmonton, and provided the Drillers with their first ever win; 1-0. The goal came from Jan Goossens, and 'keeper Jan Endeman stopped the now departed Furphy on a penalty kick to preserve the win.

The return match at the Silverdome went in favour of the Express by a 4-1 count, so the two teams are even with a win each.

OTHER GAMES TODAY: Division rivals California are in action today, playing the Diplomats in Washington. Last night it was:

San Jose 0 at Seattle 4; and Memphis 1 at San Diego 0.

Elsewhere today, Philadelphia visits Rochester, and Dallas is in New York to meet the Cosmos.

NEXT GAME: The Drillers start a busy week of action at home. They host the two-time American Conference Champion Tampa Bay Rowdies on Wednesday night at 7:30 PM, then face a return match with the Houston Hurricane one week from today (Sunday, May 11) at 2:30 PM.

That is followed by a two game road trip, with a regularly scheduled game in California against the Surf on Tuesday, May 13, and the rescheduled meeting with the Earthquakes in San Jose on Thursday May 15. That will make three games in six nights for the Drillers; a fact which must concern the coaching staff, especially if the club encounters injury problems.

NOTE TO MEDIA: Tampa Bay will arrive in town on Monday night, and will practise on both Tuesday and Wednesday. Please contact Josh Keller for times and locations.
