Peter Holt

Chairman and CEO, Spurs Sports & Entertainment

Now in his 18th season as Chairman and CEO, Peter Holt and his wife, Julianna, bought into the Spurs ownership group in 1996 ... Since that time, the organization has enjoyed unprecedented growth and success including four NBA championships, a successful campaign for a new arena and two new San Antonio-based sports franchises ... Thanks in part to the AT&T Center, which opened in 2002, the organization is now known as Spurs Sports and Entertainment (SS&E) ... SS&E runs four professional sports franchises – the Spurs, the Silver Stars, the Rampage and the Austin Toros, while also managing the day-to-day operations of the AT&T Center ... The Spur's winning percentage of .695 over the last 13 years is the best of any team in the four major sports, and they have twice been named the best franchise in professional sports in the annual ESPN The Magazine Ultimate Standings ... Holt is proud of the Spurs commitment to South Texas and its residents ... In 2000 the Spurs earned the 'Pro Team Community Award' presented by the World Sports Humanitarian Hall of Fame ... Holt's own efforts include a lengthy list of community service positions, and in 2009 he was the recipient of the Woodrow Wilson Award for Public Service ... Holt serves on several boards including the McCombs School of Business at the University of Texas, and was named to the Texas Business Hall of Fame in 2004 ... Holt also serves as the CEO of San Antonio-based HOLT CAT which is the largest Caterpillar dealership in the U.S. Holt served two years in the U.S. Army during which time he earned a Silver Star, three Bronze Stars and a Purple Heart from his one-year tour of duty in Vietnam.

Dale Tallon

Florida Panthers Executive Vice President and General Manager

Dale Tallon enters his fourth season as executive vice president and general manager of the Florida Panthers after being appointed to the position on May 17, 2010. Prior to joining the Panthers organization, Tallon, 62, spent 33 years with the Chicago Blackhawks as a front office executive, player and broadcast personality. He served as Chicago's general manager from June 2005-July 2009, and assistant general manager from Nov. 2003-June 2005. He was responsible for drafting or acquiring many of the Blackhawks' top players who captured the 2010 Stanley Cup as well as a Western Conference Finals appearance in 2009, notably Jonathan Toews, Patrick Kane, Marian Hossa, Patrick Sharp, Kris Versteeg, John Madden and Brian Campbell.

A defenseman, Tallon was Vancouver's first-round selection (2nd overall) in the 1970 NHL Entry Draft. The Rouyn-Noranda, Quebec native played in 642 NHL contests with Vancouver (1970-73), Chicago (1973-78) and Pittsburgh (1978-80) registering 336 points (98-238-336) and 568 PIM. Tallon recorded a career-high 17 goals in 69 games with Vancouver during the 1971-72 season and appeared in the 1971 and 1972 NHL All-Star Games. In 1972, Tallon was picked as an alternate for Team Canada at the 1972 Summit Series against the USSR. After retiring following the 1979-80 season, Tallon served as color analyst for Chicago radio and television broadcasts for 16 seasons.

Most recently, Tallon spent the 2009-10 season serving as a senior advisor of hockey operations for the Blackhawks. He also served four years (1998-2002) as director of player personnel for the Blackhawks before returning to the radio and television booth prior to the 2002-03 season. Tallon and his wife, Meg, have two daughters, Lauren and Kristen.

Mike Santos

Florida Panthers Assistant General Manager

San Antonio Rampage General Manager

Mike Santos enters his fourth season as the Panther's assistant general manager after being named to the position on July 1, 2010. He is responsible for negotiating player contracts, salary arbitration preparation, overseeing the club's minor league affiliates, managing the club's payroll and salary cap, as well as serving as the day-to-day contact of the hockey operations department.

Prior to joining the Panthers organization, Santos, 47, spent the previous four seasons as the Nashville Predators director of hockey operations. Santos served as the Florida Panthers director of hockey operations/corporate counsel for the 2002-03 season, after joining the organization during the 2001-02 season as a hockey operations consultant. He was named commissioner and president of the North American Hockey League in 2003 and led the Junior "A" league through three seasons of unprecedented growth. The Lowell, Mass., native has also spent time working in the NHL's New York office, as well as for the New Haven Nighthawks (AHL) and the New York Islanders.

A graduate of Boston College, he received his Master's Degree from the United States Sports Academy in 1989, earned his Juris Doctorate from St. John's University School of Law in 1998. In addition, Santos has been a member of the New York state bar since 1999 and serves on USA Hockey's Congress, as well as its junior and legal councils.

Peter Horachek

San Antonio Rampage Head Coach

Peter Horachek enters his first season as head coach of the San Antonio Rampage and became the eighth head coach in the 12-year history of the franchise when he was named the bench boss on June 25, 2013. Horachek has spent the last nine seasons working for the NHL's Nashville Predators (2003-2013), serving his last two years as an associate head coach and his first seven seasons as an assistant coach. Horachek helped the Predators reach the playoffs and the 40-win plateau in seven of the nine years he was behind the bench. Horachek will take the reins of an American Hockey League club for the second time, as he served as head coach of the Milwaukee Admirals – the top affiliate of the Nashville Predators – from the 2002-03 season and helped the club win their first playoff series since 1998, alongside Rampage head associate coach Chuck Weber. As a result of his success in Milwaukee, Horachek was promoted to Nashville the following season as an assistant coach, a position he held for seven years (2003-10) before being promoted to associate coach on June 15, 2011.

Prior to his season at the helm in Milwaukee, Horachek helped the Trenton Titans of the ECHL to the Eastern Conference Finals, again with Weber serving as an assistant coach. Horachek also served as the head coach of the Orlando Solar Bears of the IHL for two seasons (1999-2001), amassing an impressive 94-51-0 record as head coach. Horachek helped the team to an IHL Championship after a 12-4-0 run in the Turner Cup Playoffs and was named 2001 IHL Coach of the Year for his efforts. Before being promoted to head coach of the Solar Bears, Horachek served as an assistant coach in Orlando for four seasons (1995-99).

Horachek began his coaching career in the IHL as an assistant coach with the Saginaw Spirit in 1987-88. He spent one year as a player and an assistant coach with the Flint Spirits (1988-89) before becoming the head coach and director of hockey operations for the Nashville Knights of the ECHL (1990-91). Horachek then spent two seasons at the helm of the St. Thomas Wildcats (1991-93) and Flint Generals (1993-95) before becoming the assistant coach in Orlando.

As a player, Horachek held the title of team captain in four of his five seasons with the Saginaw/Flint Generals and won a Turner Cup Championship in 1984. He started his playing career with the AHL's Rochester Americans, playing in parts of four seasons (1979-83) with the club. He tallied 188 goals and 238 assists in 545 professional games throughout his career.

Chuck Weber

San Antonio Rampage Director of Hockey Operations | Associate Coach

Chuck Weber enters his third season as a member of the San Antonio Rampage coaching staff and his first season in his expanded role of director of hockey operations and associate head coach. Weber served as head coach of the Rampage for two seasons (2011-13) and owned a 70-68-5-9 record at the helm of the Silver and Black. Weber also earned his milestone 100th career AHL victory in the Rampage's 4-1 win over Grand Rapids on March 28. Weber led the Rampage to a 41-30-3-2 record and their third playoff berth in franchise history during the 2011-12 season. San Antonio also won their first-ever playoff series under Weber in his first year at the helm. Weber was named the head coach of the Florida Panthers AHL affiliate, the Rochester Americans, on July 27, 2010 after guiding the ECHL's Cincinnati Cyclones to their second Kelly Cup championship in three years.

Weber, 40, joined the Rampage following one season with the Amerks, as the Panthers switched affiliation from Rochester to San Antonio following the 2010-11 season. Prior to his first head coaching position in the AHL, Weber served as the vice president of hockey operations and head coach of the Cincinnati Cyclones (ECHL) from 2006-10. The Lockport, N.Y. native led his club to the ECHL conference finals in three of his four years at the helm, capturing the ECHL Kelly Cup title in 2008 and 2010. With the victory to secure the 2010 Kelly Cup, Weber won his 45th career Kelly Cup playoff game. He passed former Alaska Aces coach (and current Los Angeles Kings assistant coach) Davis Payne for most playoff wins by a coach in any four-year period in ECHL history. Weber was named ECHL Coach of the Year in 2007-08 and finished second in voting in 2006-07. Prior to joining the Cyclones, Weber served as an assistant coach and assistant director of hockey operations with the Utah Grizzlies (ECHL).

Weber began his coaching career during the 1999-2000 season as an assistant with the Orlando Solar Bears (IHL). In just his second season (2000-01) as an assistant coach to new Rampage head coach Peter Horachek, he was part of the Turner Cup championship team. The following year (2001-02), Weber was the assistant coach with Trenton (ECHL), again with Horachek at the helm, and the Titans posted the ECHL's second-best record (46-16-10). In 2002-03, Weber and Horachek teamed up for a third-straight season, this time with the Milwaukee Admirals, and helped direct the team to a 32-27-14-7 record and a playoff berth.

Weber, a 1995 graduate of the University of Albany, majored in communications and had minors in athletic training and business. He was also a member of the Great Danes hockey program and captained the team during his junior and senior seasons.

Chris Walker

San Antonio Rampage Athletic Trainer

Walker enters his third season with San Antonio as the team's head athletic trainer. He joined the Rampage from the Everett Silvertips of the Western Hockey League (WHL) where he spent four seasons (2007-10) serving as the head athletic trainer. Prior to his time with the Silvertips, Walker spent the 2006-07 season working as the assistant athletic trainer for the New Mexico Scorpions of the Central Hockey League (CHL). While completing his Masters of Science at the University of New Mexico, he served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer (2005-07) where he worked with various athletic programs. A native of St. Paul, Minn., Walker spent 2004-05 completing a season-long internship with the Minnesota Timberwolves (NBA) and also interned with the St. Paul Saints Baseball Club (2004). As an undergrad at St. Cloud University, he worked with both the men's and the women's ice hockey teams as well as with their football and basketball programs.

Steve Passineau

San Antonio Rampage Equipment Manager

Passineau begins his third season in San Antonio as the team's equipment manager. He joined the Rampage from the Florida Everblades of the ECHL where he spent the 2010-11 season serving as the head equipment manager. Prior to his time with the Everblades, Passineau spent four seasons as the assistant equipment manager with the Albany River Rats of the American Hockey League. Passineau's experience also includes time as the head equipment manager of the Albany Firebirds of the Arena Football 2 League from 2008-09. Passineau first worked with the River Rats from 2003-06 while attending Hudson Valley Community College as the locker room attendant.

GAME NOTES

SAN ANTONIO RAMPAGE | ONE AT&T CENTER | SAN ANTONIO, TX | 78219

2012-13 RAMPAGE SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

THAT'S A WRAP: The Rampage wrapped up the 2012-13 season in a 5-2 defeat on April 20 to Houston on Fan Appreciation Night, in which the Rampage gave away more than $60,000 in prizes to fans in attendance. San Antonio finished the year with a 29-38-2-7 record and were 16-17-0-5 at the AT&T Center and 13-21-2-2 on the road.

TOP DOGS: Forward Jon Rheault finished the season atop the Rampage scoring charts with 48 points and also led the team with 28 assists. Greg Rallo led the club with 23 goals, while Zach Miskovic paced the team with a plus-10 rating.

ATTENDANCE: More than 10,000 fans packed AT&T Center in the team's final two games to cap off the 2012-13 season. The Rampage finished sixth in the league in attendance (7,067) and welcomed more than 250,000 fans to AT&T Center in 38 home games this season (268,560).

FEEDING TIME: Alex Petrovic became the 14th player who wore a Rampage sweater to be recalled to the Panthers when he made his season debut for the NHL club on March 18. Injuries to the big club has resulted in several moves between the Panthers and Rampage this season, most notably on the March 8 contest against the Winnipeg Jets, where 10 players in the lineup between the two teams had played for the Rampage this season.

NOW DEBUTING: Six players who donned the Silver and Black made their NHL debuts with the Panthers this season – Alex Petrovic, Jon Rheault, Eric Selleck, Quinton Howden, Drew Shore and Michael Caruso.

TOUGH DIVISION: All four of San Antonio's South Divisional foes finished in the top eight of the Western Conference standings and qualified for the Calder Cup Playoffs. The Rampage were 13-26-1-4 against the South Division on the year.

PINK IN THE RINK: San Antonio hosted their third annual Pink in the Rink Night against the Rockford IceHogs on Feb. 1. The Rampage set a franchise attendance record, as a sell-out crowd of 16,205 fans watched the Rampage skate to a 1-0 victory. The Rampage raised $42,000 in the postgame jersey auction that benefitted breast health awareness. In the three years of Pink in the Rink, the Rampage have raised more than $115,000 to help in the fight against breast cancer.

RODEO ROAD TRIP: The Rampage finished their nine-game, 21-day Rodeo Road Trip with a 5-3-1-0 record and were one win shy of setting the franchise record in terms of winning percentage on the trip, which was set last year (7-3-0-1).

HE'S COMING BACK: The Rampage announced that the club signed netminder Dov Grumet-Morris to a one-year contract extension on April 9 to lock down the goalie for a third season in San Antonio.

WHAT A GUY!: The Rampage announced that Justin Vaive was named the team's winner of the IOA/American Specialty AHL Man of the Year award for his outstanding contributions to the San Antonio community. Vaive participated in several of the organization's community initiatives, including Team Up Challenge, Stick with Reading and Face-Off Against Kids Cancer.

CENTURY CLUB: Rampage head coach Chuck Weber collected his 100th career American Hockey League victory in San Antonio's 4-1 win over Grand Rapids on March 28.

STEADY DOES IT: Goaltender Jacob Markstrom had been incredibly consistent for the Rampage before being recalled by the Panthers in mid-February. Markstrom owned a 16-15-2 record in 33 appearances with a 2.65 goals-against average and a 0.920 save percentage for the Rampage. He was also became the seventh player in Rampage history to earn the CCM/AHL Player of the Week for the period ending Dec. 9.

ALL-STAR: Rookie center Drew Shore was selected to represent the Rampage in the 2013 AHL All-Star Classic on Jan. 28th in Providence R.I. Shore tallied a goal and an assist and competed in the Sher-Wood Puck Control Relay, the Pepsi Pass and Score event and the H&R Block Breakaway Relay.

JESSICA REDFIELD PRESS BOX: The Rampage announced that the press box for the 2012-13 season will name the "Jessica Redfield Press Box" in honor of Jessica Redfield Ghawi, a San Antonio native who was one of 12 people killed in the movie theater shooting incident in Aurora, Colo. Redfield interned at the San Antonio media outlets Ticket 760 and KABB Fox-29 and attended Rampage games and practices on assignment.

* Beginning with the 2004-05 season, the AHL has implemented a shootout to decide regular-season games which are tied after a five-minute overtime period. In the AHL standings, teams will receive two points for a win (W), one point for a loss in overtime (OTL) or in a shootout and zero points for a loss (L) in regulation time; the standings now read W-L-OTL-SOL.

[^] Beginning with the 2005-06 season, the Rampage changed NHL affiliations to the Phoenix Coyotes from the Florida Panthers.

Total standings records reflect W-L-T-OTL-SOL

RAMPAGE HISTORY

Team History

May 6, 2002

The American Hockey League approves the purchase of an AHL franchise by the Florida Panthers (NHL) and San Antonio Spurs (NBA). The team will play at San Antonio's new SBC Center.

May 31, 2002

John Torchetti is named head coach of Florida's AHL affiliate in San Antonio.

June 3, 2002

The San Antonio Spurs announces that the team will be named the San Antonio Stampede and unveiled their logo, featuring a rampaging bull with a blue, black and silver color scheme. The blue color is complimentary to the blue used in the Florida Panthers logo, while the black and silver make a subtle connection to the Spurs. The logo was designed by Al Aguilar and Jamie Stolarski with Creative Civilization—an Aguilar/Girard Agency. The team also announces KTKR "The Ticket 760 AM" will serve as flagship station.

June 14, 2002

San Antonio Spurs announces team has changed the name of the AHL team to the San Antonio Rampage. The logo will remain the same.

June 28, 2002

Scott Allen named assistant coach of Rampage

July 1, 2002

Brent Flahr named director of hockey operations

August 15, 2002

Rick Carden named director of hockey business operations.

September 4, 2002

Team unveils their home and road jerseys for their inaugural season. The home jersey has a white body, with a light gray, blue and navy blue trim, while the road jersey has a blue body with a light gray and navy blue trim. Both jerseys display the Rampage logo on the chest with the secondary logo appearing on the shoulders, and the words "San Antonio" written across the bottom of the uniform. SP Apparel, the official supplier of the American Hockey League produced the jerseys.

September 9, 2002

Rampage name Andrew Monaco as radio voice.

September 12, 2002

Panthers open training camp in Sunrise, Florida.

September 19, 2002

First group of the Panthers players assigned to San Antonio

September 20, 2002

Rampage open training camp in Sunrise, Florida

October 2, 2002

Rampage open training camp at Freeman Coliseum in San Antonio

October 4, 2002

The Rampage open their inaugural two-game preseason schedule against the Houston Aeros at Aerodome (Houston) with 4-3 loss.

October 12, 2002

The Rampage open their inaugural season in the AHL in Milwaukee against the Admirals at 7 p.m.— a 6-2 loss.

A franchise-record sellout crowd of 16,205 fans watches the Rampage skate to a 1-0 victory over the Rockford Ice Hogs during the team's third annual Pink in the Rink Night to support breast health awareness. The postgame jersey auction raises $42,000 to up the total to $116,000 raised to help in the fight against breast cancer.

February 24, 2013

Rampage wrap up their nine-game, 21-day Rodeo Road Trip with a 7-3 defeat at Grand Rapids and fall one win short of setting the franchise record for the most successful Rodeo Road Trip, finishing with a 5-3-1-0 record.

March 2, 2013

Rampage return from the month-long Rodeo Road Trip and earn a 2-1 win over the Chicago Wolves on Military Appreciation Night in front of 10,717 fans. In addition to the victory, the Rampage auction off their military-themed jerseys and raised $30,000 to benefit Operation Comfort and the Rampage Sled Hockey Team. In 10 years, the Rampage have raised nearly $250,000 to benefit San Antonio's military community.

March 10, 2013

More than 300 dogs were in attendance, along with 6,858 fans, for the team's sixth annual Pucks & Paws Night at AT&T Center. For every dog ticket purchased, the Rampage donated $5 to Alamo Area Partners for Animal Welfare.

March 19, 2013

Greg Rallo tallies his 100th career AHL goal against his former team, the Texas Stars.

March 28, 2013

Rampage head coach Chuck Weber collects his 100th career AHL victory in San Antonio's 4-1 win over Grand Rapids.

April 18, 2013

Alex Petrovic becomes the sixth player who has donned the Silver and Black this season to make their NHL debuts with the Panthers – joining Jon Rheault, Eric Selleck, Quinton Howden, Drew Shore and Michael Caruso. Petrovic also becomes the 14th player from the Rampage to be recalled to the Panthers.

Team History

April 19, 2013

Rampage captain Nolan Yonkman plays in his 600th career AHL game and collects an assist against Rockford.

April 20, 2013

Rampage wrap up the 2012-13 season on an 11-game skid and drop the final game of the season, 5-2, to the Houston Aeros. San Antonio finished the season in 14th place in the Western Conference with 67 points (29-38-2-7). The Rampage welcomed 268,560 fans to AT&T Center during the season (7,067 per game), good for sixth in the AHL.

June 25, 2013

Peter Horachek named the head coach of the Rampage and becomes the ninth head coach in the history of the franchise. Chuck Weber's role is expanded to director of hockey operations and associate coach. Former assistant coach Jason Cipolla joins the Florida Panthers coaching staff as the team's video coach.

July 11, 2013

With the Houston Aeros relocating to become the Iowa Wild, the American Hockey League announces the realignment of the South Division. Now coined the "West Division" of the Western Conference, the Rampage will add Abbotsford to their list of divisional foes, which also includes Charlotte, Oklahoma City and Texas.

July 11, 2013

Rampage ticket sales staff recognized by the AHL for leading the league in new season-ticket sales during the 2012-13 season. Award marks the club's third Team Business Service award in as many years.
