

VS.

Last Night

- Roger Luque pitched a two-hit, complete game shutout against the RoadRunners as Yuma won 4-0 on Thursday night. Maikal Jova provided all the offense the Scorpions would need with a two-run double in the 1st inning.
- Santiago Guerrero and Geron Sands were the only two RoadRunners to have hits last night. Both knocked singles off Luque.
- With last night's win, Yuma leads the season series 5-3.

Around the League

- Chico 12, Reno 6: The Chico Outlaws proved Thursday they aren't about to rest on their first half laurels – already with a playoff berth in hand, the Outlaws opened up the sseason's second half by piling up double digits in both runs and hits en route to a 12-6 thumping of the Reno Silver Sox. Right-hander John Jefferson made his first-ever professional start and pitched well, allowing just three runs in six innings of work.
- Long Beach 6, Orange County 5: The Orange County Flyers dropped to 0-3 in the second half. Heaverlo struck out 13 batters in 8 innings and gave up just two earned runs. Holguin struck out six through 6.2 innings. Nick Casanova dazzled in 2.1 innings of relief for the Flyers by retiring seven of the eight batters he faced. Andrew Soto was handed the loss in the 10th inning after giving up a leadoff double to Jorge Araiza, who scored the winning run on Cicatelli's hit.
