E. Stanley Kroenke | OWNER

Mr. E. Stanley Kroenke was officially introduced as the owner of the Colorado Mammoth on July 9, 2002, and under his leadership, the Mammoth has become the model franchise in the National Lacrosse League.

In the team's first decade in Denver, the Mammoth has reached the postseason nine times. Colorado won the Champion's Cup on May 13, 2006 in Buffalo, N.Y.

Mr. Kroenke has been widely recognized as one of the top owners in professional sports, as well as a strong and committed leader throughout the community. Kroenke Sports & Entertainment, Mr. Kroenke's Denver-based company, also owns the National Basketball Association's Denver Nuggets, National Hockey League's Colorado Avalanche, Major League Soccer's Colorado Rapids and Pepsi Center. His teams have hosted the 2004 and 2009 NLL All-Star Games, the 2001 NHL All-Star Game, the 2005 NBA All-Star Game and the 2007 MLS All-Star Game, bringing some of the world's greatest athletes to Denver.

KSE's dedication to success has been evidenced by the consistent playoff runs of its teams. The Avalanche claimed its second Stanley Cup in June 2001, and the Rapids won the MLS Cup in 2010.

In February 2007, Mr. Kroenke purchased a significant stake in Arsenal FC. He is the controlling shareholder of London's storied football club. The initial investment came months after KSE and the Colorado Rapids formed a landmark marketing and strategic partnership with the famed Barclays Premier League club. The relationship has been further strengthened by KSE's acquisition of 83 percent shareholding in Arsenal Broadband Limited. In September 2008, Mr. Kroenke was appointed to the Arsenal board as a non-executive director.

In August 2010, National Football League owners unanimously approved Mr. Kroenke's bid to become principal owner of the St. Louis Rams. A native Missourian, Mr. Kroenke played a vital role in bringing the NFL back to St. Louis in 1995. Prior to becoming the majority owner of the Rams, he was the minority owner of the team. With his real estate development expertise, Mr. Kroenke was instrumental in the building of Rams Park, now known as the Russell Training Center.

Under Mr. Kroenke's direction, KSE completed three of the company's most ambitious projects to date. On April 7, 2007 KSE opened Dick's Sporting Goods Park. The state-of-the-art sports facility on more than 160 acres in Commerce City, Colo. seats 18,000 fans for field sports and up to 27,000 for concerts. The award-winning field at Dick's Sporting Goods Park has been heralded as "one of the finest pitches in the world" by numerous international players and coaches who have played at the complex.

In November 2008, the stadium hosted Colorado's first-ever World Cup qualifier between the USA and Guatemala. Dick's Sporting Goods Park also includes 24 surrounding playing fields for youth and adult recreational sports such as soccer, lacrosse and rugby. The complex anchors the 917-acre Prairie Gateway site that is a public-private partnership between KSE and Commerce City. The site is host to the Commerce City municipal hall, retail facilities, offices for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, and a visitors' center for the Rocky Mountain Arsenal Wildlife Refuge. The project has created hundreds of jobs in the community and is expected to generate thousands more as the growth continues.

Altitude Sports & Entertainment, a 24-hour regional television network began operation in September 2004, becoming the new television home for the Mammoth, Nuggets and Avalanche. Altitude also features other professional, collegiate and high school sporting events, as well as outdoors and lifestyle programming, entertainment and community interest coverage throughout the Rocky Mountain West.

TicketHorse became the official and exclusive ticket provider for both primary and secondary ticket sales for all KSE properties in July 2009.

One of KSE's primary focuses has been the Colorado community and civic causes. $16 million in contributions have been made to Colorado charities through Kroenke Sports Charities and the teams' Community Funds.

KSE purchased the Paramount Theatre, a historic landmark in downtown Denver, in July 2002. The venerable venue remains a vibrant, multi-event facility where Denver residents and visitors enjoy a wide variety of entertainment ranging from classic concerts to family shows, dance productions, comedic performances and charitable events each year. Pepsi Center and the Paramount Theatre are home to more than 250 events annually including world renowned concerts such as Madonna, Celine Dion, U2 and Lady Gaga.

Peak Entertainment, LLC, a joint venture of Kroenke Sports Enterprises and AEG Live Rocky Mountains, opened 1STBANK Center together in March 2010. The multi-use arena accommodates up to 6,500 people for a range of events located in Broomfield, Colo. It was recently voted one of Colorado's top new concert venues.

Mr. Kroenke's enthusiasm and vision ensure that Denver will continue to be the top entertainment destination in the Rocky Mountain region for generations to come. Local media outlets have consistently named Mr. Kroenke one of the most significant people in the Denver arts and entertainment community, saying "No other person entertains more people more often."

In August of 2008, Pepsi Center played host to the Democratic National Convention. Tens of thousands of delegates, journalists, volunteers and patrons descended on Denver and the Pepsi Center for the Convention. The landmark event ranks as one of the most important in KSE and Colorado history.

Millions of people around the world watched the Convention, which city officials estimated boosted the local economy by nearly $270 million.

Mr. Kroenke is chairman and owner of The Kroenke Group, a private real estate investment and development company with properties located throughout the United States and Canada.

Over the past two decades, he has built a reputation as one of the nation's leading real estate developers. One of the largest ranch property owners in North America, Mr. Kroenke's ownership stakes also includes the Screaming Eagle and Jonata vineyards.

Mr. Kroenke's current and former board and trustee memberships include Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., Central Bank Holding Company, Boone County National Bank, Community Investments Partnership of St. Louis, the College of the Ozarks, and the Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame. He is a member of St. Louis' Civic Progress, which provides support and leadership for various community improvements that promote economic development, education and quality of life. In February 2009, Mr. Kroenke was enshrined into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

Mr. Kroenke holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri. He and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, an award winning documentary film producer; and a son, Josh, Governor and President of the Denver Nuggets and Governor of the Colorado Avalanche.

COACHING STAFF

Bob Hamley | HEAD COACH

Bob Hamley enters his fourth season as head coach of the Colorado Mammoth. Previously, he served as head coach and general manager of the Arizona Sting and Edmonton Rush. Hamley guided the Sting to the Champion's Cup final in 2005 and 2007.

Following the 2005 campaign, Hamley received the Les Bartley NLL Coach of the Year Award. Just one day later, he was named the league's general manager of the year, becoming the first person in league history to win both awards.

Hamley is no stranger to the Mammoth organization. He was an assistant under former head coach Bob McMahon during the 2008 season, having initially joined the Mammoth following the Arizona Sting's suspension of operations. The Mammoth began that season 5-1 with Hamley behind the bench, but his tenure in Colorado was cut short when he accepted the head coach and general manager position with Edmonton.

In March of 2010, Hamley was hired once again by the Mammoth as head coach. Hamley looks to lead the Mammoth to another NLL championship in the 2013 season.

Ed Comeau | ASSISTANT COACH

In 2008, Comeau assumed the dual role of head coach and general manager of the Titans organization where he served for two years. In his first season with the Titans, he was named the league's GM of the year.

His previous coaching experience was with the Rochester Knighthawks, spending two years as an assistant and three years as head coach. In 2007, his team set a franchise record finishing the regular season 14-2, winning its last 12 games in a row. The Knighthawks' winning streak continued into the playoffs as they won the league title and ran their winning streak to 15 straight games, the second-longest streak in league history. Following the season, Comeau was named the winner of the Les Bartley Award as the NLL's coach of the year.

He began his NLL career with the Ontario Raiders as an assistant coach, moving to Toronto when the franchise relocated after his first season. Comeau was with the Rock for five-plus seasons and won four championships during his tenure.

Comeau resides in Hamilton, Ontario with his wife, Tracy, and their twins, Alex and Spencer.

Having spent time with the franchise in Washington, Govett has been able to build and maintain one of the most talented rosters and successful franchises in the NLL in his ten years in Denver.

Under Govett's leadership, the Mammoth has won three division titles, made nine playoff appearances and captured the 2006 NLL championship. The Mammoth has led the league in attendance four times, helping to grow downtown Denver's sports and entertainment economy. The team also has made a positive impact on area youth with various charitable donations and community outreach programs, including player clinics, school appearances and hospital visits.

In the fall of 2012, Govett was named the Vice President of New Business Development for Kroenke Sports & Entertainment. He is responsible to lead the evaluation, analysis and development of potential new business ventures for KSE.

In his early days as an executive, after two successful seasons as General Manager of the Philadelphia Wings, Govett joined the newly-formed Washington franchise as president and general manager in 2001. Govett led the Power to two winning seasons, the NLL semifinals in 2001 and 2002, and the East Division title in 2002 before the franchise relocated to Denver.

After the Mammoth compiled a league-best 13-3 record in 2004, Govett was named the NLL's Executive of the Year. Currently the Chairman of the League's Board of Governors, Govett works closely with the NLL Commissioner to ensure the long-term vitality of the league and its teams. A member of the league's properties and expansion committees, Govett has twice served as general manager of the U.S. world indoor lacrosse team. In October of 2009, Govett and his staff were instrumental in the creation of the NLL All-Star Series in Melbourne, Australia. After three years of planning and preparation, 32 NLL players made their way to Melbourne to compete in a two game series at Hisense Arena, home of the Australian Open.

Govett was a physical presence for the Philadelphia Wings from 1994-1998, collecting 26 goals, 23 assists and 115 penalty minutes in 36 regular-season games. During his five-year career, the Wings won three league championships (1994, 1995 and 1998). In 1999, Govett took the next step in his career when he combined his extensive lacrosse experience with his professional expertise. The result was a seasoned executive - the new Wings' general manager.

A native of Burnaby, British Columbia, Govett maintains dual citizenship in Canada and the United States, where he took the oath of citizenship on March 24, 2005. An avid golfer and youth lacrosse coach, he and his wife, Eileen, reside in Highlands Ranch, CO, with their two children, Mackenzie and Jake.

NLL Awards

2003 Most Valuable Player

Gary Gait's historic first season in Denver showed Colorado fans exactly why he is considered to be the best player in National Lacrosse League history. Gait carried the Mammoth in its inaugural season, smashing the single-season scoring record with 61 goals. He added 35 assists to finish third in overall league scoring with 96 points and was the centerpiece of the Mammoth offense that finished second in league scoring.

2004 Sportsmanship Award

Mammoth captain Gary Gait, who led the NLL with 55 goals and five game-winning goals, served just four penalties for eight penalty minutes in 16 games. The Mammoth was the third-least penalized team this season, averaging just 18.75 penalty minutes per game.

2005 Sportsmanship Award

Gary Gait won the Sportsmanship Award for the second consecutive season in 2005 after retiring as the National Lacrosse League's all-time leading scorer. Gait served just two penalties for four penalty minutes in 16 games, while finishing ninth in league scoring with 81 points. The Mammoth was the fourth-least penalized team in 2005, averaging 23.25 penalty minutes per game.

2003 Rookie of the Year

Brian Langtry quickly endeared himself to fans in Denver by scoring the overtime game-winner against the Toronto Rock in the Colorado Mammoth's first ever game on Jan. 3, 2003. He continued to delight fans of the fledgling Mammoth during the 2003 season with his deadly shooting and fiery on-field persona. Langtry racked up 28 goals and 34 assists to place third on the team in scoring and led all NLL rookies with 62 points.

2004 Goaltender of the Year

Gee Nash was named the National Lacrosse League's top goaltender after posting a career-high 11 wins and backstopping his team to the league's best record. In his fifth NLL season Nash recorded a league-best .790 save percentage and posted the third-best goals against average (10.68) among regular starting goaltenders.

2008 Sportsmanship Award

The Mammoth's Dan Carey deservingly won the NLL 2008 Sportsmanship Award. The left-handed forward has played three seasons for the Mammoth and in his 43 career games; Carey has accumulated only 11 penalty minutes, none in 2008. Before suffering a season-ending injury in 2008, Carey scored 22 goals and 27 assists in 11 games. Admired by teammates and opponents alike, Carey was named to the 2008 All-Star team. The Mammoth was the 4th least penalized team in the National Lacrosse League in 2008, averaging 20.56 penalty minutes per game.
