E. STANLEY KROENKE Owner

Mr. E. Stanley Kroenke became owner of the Colorado Mammoth on July 9, 2002. Under his leadership the Mammoth has become the model franchise in the National Lacrosse League. The team has qualified for the playoffs in 14 of its 15 seasons, and won the Champion's Cup in 2006.

Colorado has led the league in attendance seven times, averaging more than 16,000 fans per game in its history. The Mammoth was honored as the host for the NLL All-Star Games in 2004 and 2009.

Kroenke has overseen five NLL Executive Award winners including the 2004 Executive of the Year, 2005 Sponsorship Executive of the Year, 2005 Ticket Sales Executive of the Year, 2008 Marketing Executive of the Year and 2008 Sponsorship Executive of the Year. Notable Mammoth players who have received NLL awards include former Mammoth captain, Gary Gait (2004, 2005 Sportsmanship Award); current Mammoth General Manager, Dan Carey (2008 Sportsmanship Award); and Colorado Mammoth all-time leading goal scorer, John Grant, Jr. (2012 Most Valuable Player).

As direct owner of the Denver Nuggets (in 2015 the Denver Nuggets and the Colorado Avalanche were transferred into a family trust), Kroenke's tenure has included a streak of 10 consecutive seasons in the NBA playoffs from 2003-2013, a feat accomplished by only one other team in that span. Since purchasing the team in 2000, Kroenke has overseen two Executive of the Year winners as well as one Coach of the Year award. The Nuggets have also enjoyed the most successful five-year span (2006-2011) in franchise history, boasting an all-time team-best 15-game winning streak (March 2013) and posting a franchise-record for home wins in the regular season with 38 in 2012-2013.

Under Kroenke's ownership, the Colorado Avalanche has won a Stanley Cup (2001), captured four division championships (2000-03, 2013-14), won the Presidents' Trophy (2001) and hosted the NHL All-Star Game (2001). During his first five years of ownership, the Avalanche sold out every home game and went on to post an NHL-record 487 consecutive game sellout streak.

Kroenke Sports & Entertainment, Kroenke's Denver-based company, also owns Major League Soccer's Colorado Rapids. In 2007 and 2015 the Rapids hosted the MLS All-Star Game, and in 2010 they won the MLS Cup Championship. In 2016, they played in their conference championship.

In June 2011, Kroenke became the majority shareholder of Arsenal FC, the storied English Premier League football club. The St. Louis Rams (now the Los Angeles Rams) won the Super Bowl in 2000 while Mr. Kroenke was a co-owner; he became the team's principal owner in August 2010.

Overall, the Mammoth, Nuggets, Avalanche and Rapids have made 39 playoff appearances, won three league championships and hosted five All-Star Games since 2000-01. Arsenal won the 2014, 2015 and 2017 FA Cup.

Off the field, one of Kroenke's priorities has been the Colorado community. More than $16 million in contributions have been made to Colorado charities through Kroenke Sports Charities. The Mammoth is a strong advocate of youth lacrosse in Colorado, and the team's efforts have played a significant role in introducing lacrosse to those who were previously unexposed. As well as contributing to the Colorado community, the Kroenke family donated $1 million to the Red Cross Organization in response to the hurricanes that devastated the coastal regions of the country earlier this year.

In addition to his success as an owner, Kroenke has been an innovator in television programming. In September 2004, Kroenke launched Altitude Sports & Entertainment, a 24-hour regional television network that is the broadcast home for the Mammoth, Nuggets, Avalanche and Rapids. Altitude also airs professional, collegiate and high school sporting events throughout the Rocky Mountain region.

On Dec. 31, 2015, KSE announced the acquisition of three Denver FM radio stations, KIMN-FM (Mix 100.3), KXKL-FM (Kool 105), and KWOF-FM (92.5 the Wolf). KSE also acquired 950AM, now known as Altitude Sports Radio, the new radio broadcast home for the Nuggets, Avalanche and Rapids.

Pepsi Center, a KSE-owned facility and the largest indoor arena, event center and concert venue in Colorado, is the home arena for the Nuggets, Avalanche and Mammoth, seating 18,007 fans for lacrosse, 19,520 fans for basketball and 17,809 for hockey.

On April 7, 2007, KSE opened DICK'S Sporting Goods Park, one of the largest sports complexes in the world. It played host to the 2014 FIL World Lacrosse Championships. The state-of-the-art sports facility sits on more than 160 acres in Commerce City, CO, and seats 18,000 fans for field sports and up to 27,000 for concerts. KSE also owns the Paramount Theatre, a historic landmark in downtown Denver, and through Peak Entertainment, LLC, a joint venture between KSE and AEG Live Rocky Mountains, co-manages 1STBANK Center in Broomfield, CO, a multi-use arena accommodating up to 6,500 people for a variety of events. Pepsi Center, Paramount Theatre and 1STBANK Center are home to more than 300 events annually, including world renowned acts such as Garth Brooks, U2, Madonna, Taylor Swift, Phish, Aerosmith and Bruce Springsteen.

Kroenke's enthusiasm and vision ensure that Denver will continue to be the top entertainment destination in the Rocky Mountain region for generations to come. Local media outlets have consistently named Kroenke one of the most significant people in the Denver arts and entertainment community, saying "no other person entertains more people more often."

Kroenke is chairman and owner of The Kroenke Group, a private real estate investment and development company with properties located throughout the United States and Canada. Over the past four decades, he has built a reputation as one of the nation's leading real estate developers.

Kroenke holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri. In addition to their son Josh, who is President and Governor of the Nuggets and Avalanche, Stan and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, an award-winning documentary film producer.

DAN CAREY General Manager & Alternate Governor

Dan Carey was appointed the second General Manager in Mammoth history in July 2017. Carey joined the Colorado Mammoth front office as Director of Player Personnel on October 20, 2015 after serving as the team's Head Eastern Scout. A fan-favorite during his playing days, Carey was the Mammoth's first-round selection in the 2005 NLL Entry Draft. He was a member of the 2006 NLL All-Rookie Team and won the Champion's Cup in his first pro season.

Carey was a three-time all-star (2006-2008) and won the league's Sportsmanship Award in 2008. That year, he co-founded the Mammoth's Sticks for Schools program and curriculum that taught basic fundamentals to elementary school students.

A national champion at the collegiate level (Herkimer County Community College, 2003) and in Canada, winning the Mann Cup with the Peterborough Lakers in 2004, 2006 and 2007, Carey won a world championship with Team Canada in the 2007 World Indoor Lacrosse Championship.

More recently, Carey earned bachelor's degrees in history and education. He was a teacher and varsity lacrosse coach at the renowned school, The Hill Academy, for two years before relocating to Colorado with his wife, Lisa, and their daughter, Nina.

COACHING STAFF

PAT COYLE Head Coach

Pat Coyle enters his first full season as Head Coach on the Mammoth bench. This season marks Coyle's fifth season overall after being named interim coach with Chris Gill and Dan Stroup on March 5, 2014. He guided the team to a franchise-record eight wins at Pepsi Center in 2016. Under his supervision, the Mammoth was the least-penalized team in the NLL a season ago (9.28 PIM per game), 54% less than the second-least-penalized squad. Colorado has earned the number-two seed in the West Division, and home playoff games, in each of Coyle's two full seasons.

In 2014, Coyle became the first defenseman in league history to win induction into the NLL Hall of Fame. A Mammoth player from 2005-2008, he was named to the Mammoth's All-Decade Team in 2012. Coyle was the 2002 NLL Defensive Player of the Year in the inaugural season of the award. Coyle's most recent accolade, awarded just prior to the 2017-18 NLL season, was induction into the Canadian Lacrosse Hall of Fame.

A five-time champion in his 12-year playing career, Coyle hoisted the Champion's Cup four times with the Toronto Rock (1999, 2000, 2002, 2003) and once with the Mammoth (2006).

CHRIS GILL Assistant Coach

A prolific goal-scorer in his playing days, Assistant Coach, Chris Gill enters his fifth season overall on the Mammoth bench after being named interim coach with Pat Coyle and Dan Stroup on March 5, 2014. He oversaw a power-play unit that was one of just two in the NLL to convert on 50-percent or more of its opportunities both at home and on the road. Gill has helped steer the Mammoth to the number-two seed in the West Division, and home playoff games, in each of his two full seasons.

In 2015, Gill was inducted into the Canadian Lacrosse Hall of Fame. He was a fourth-generation inductee, joining great-grandfather Les Dickinson, grandfather Bill Dickinson and father Sohen Gill.

Gill tallied 338 goals in his NLL career and led the league with 17 power-play goals in the Mammoth's championship season in 2006. It was the first of Gill's four years in Colorado (2006, 2008-10). He retired as a member of the organization. Gill was also a member of the Toronto Rock dynasty. He won two championships with the franchise (1999, 2000).

DAN STROUP Assistant Coach

An NLL Hall of Famer who was enshrined in the Canadian Lacrosse Hall of Fame in November, Assistant Coach, Dan Stroup begins his fifth season overall as a member of the Mammoth coaching staff after being named interim coach with Pat Coyle and Chris Gill on March 5, 2014. In 2016, Stroup's Mammoth squad was a perfect 7-0 when leading at halftime, and was the only team with four or more wins in one-goal games (a perfect 6-0). His tutelage resulted in a second-straight season of a number-two seed in the West Division, which comes with a home playoff game.

In his playing career, Stroup scored 19-plus goals in 10 consecutive seasons. He also won four championships as a player (Toronto: 1999, 2000, 2002; Colorado: 2006) and one as a coach (Washington: 2010).

Stroup's heroics in the championship game in 2000 earned him MVP honors.

JOEL RAETHER Head of Sports Performance

Joel Raether has been with the Mammoth organization since 2007, working with the players to improve conditioning, nutrition and on-field performance. Raether also serves as the Director of Sport Performance at Authentic Performance Center in Denver, Colorado. He served as the Education Programs Coordinator for the National Strength and Conditioning Association from 2009-2011. His coaching career includes stints as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the University of Denver from 2002-2009 and the University of Nebraska Kearney from 2000-2002. Raether earned his bachelor's and master's degree in exercise science from the University of Nebraska Kearney and is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with distinction (CSCS*D) by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Raether has co-authored the books 101 Agility Drills, 101 Sand Bag Exercises, and was a contributing author for Fit Kids for Life, Developing Agility and Quickness and Core Training for Sport.

He has published numerous peer reviewed articles and popular literature contributions, as well as training DVDs. He is a highly sought after presenter who has presented nationally and internationally in the area of sports performance and also served as a consultant to various media outlets such as The Chicago Tribune, New Balance, Men's Health, SOBEfit Magazine, 9 News Denver and Wellness News. He has trained athletes at all levels including high school, NCAA, NHL, NFL, NLL, MLL, MLS, World Cup Skiing and the LPGA. His coaching accolades include numerous all-Americans, more than a dozen conference championships, and more than 10 individual or team collegiate national championships, as well as two Olympians which included an Olympic Gold medalist in Torino. Raether is also the co-founder of Performance Sandbag Training Systems (PST).

NLL AWARDS

2003 Most Valuable Player

Gary Gait's historic first season in Denver showed Colorado fans exactly why he is considered to be the best player in National Lacrosse League history. Gait carried the Mammoth in its inaugural season, smashing the single-season scoring record with 61 goals. He added 35 assists to finish third in overall league scoring with 96 points and was the centerpiece of the Mammoth offense that finished second in league scoring.

2003 Rookie of the Year

Brian Langtry quickly endeared himself to fans in Denver by scoring the overtime game-winner against the Toronto Rock in the Colorado Mammoth's first ever game on Jan. 3, 2003. He continued to delight fans of the fledging Mammoth during the 2003 season with his deadly shooting and fiery on-field persona. Langtry racked up 28 goals and 34 assists to place third on the team in scoring and led all NLL rookies with 62 points.

2004 Sportsmanship Award

Mammoth captain Gary Gait, who led the NLL with 55 goals and five game-winning goals, served just four penalties for eight penalty minutes in 16 games. The Mammoth was the third-least penalized team this season, averaging just 18.75 penalty minutes per game.

2004 Goaltender of the Year

Gee Nash was named the National Lacrosse League's top goaltender after posting a career-high 11 wins and back-stopping his team to the league's best record. In his fifth NLL season Nash recorded a league-best .790 save percentage and posted the third-best goals against average (10.68) among regular starting goaltenders.

2005 Sportsmanship Award

Gary Gait won the Sportsmanship Award for the second consecutive season in 2005 after retiring as the National Lacrosse League's all-time leading scorer. Gait served just two penalties for four penalty minutes in 16 games, while finishing ninth in league scoring with 81 points. The Mammoth was the fourth-least penalized team in 2005, averaging 23.25 penalty minutes per game.

2008 Sportsmanship Award

The Mammoth's Dan Carey deservingly won the NLL 2008 Sportsmanship Award. The left-handed forward has played three seasons for the Mammoth and in his 43 career games; Carey has accumulated only 11 penalty minutes, none in 2008. Before suffering a season-ending injury in 2008, Carey scored 22 goals and 27 assists in 11 games. Admired by teammates and opponents alike, Carey was named to the 2008 All-Star team. The Mammoth was the 4th least penalized team in the National Lacrosse League in 2008, averaging 20.56 penalty minutes per game.

2012 Most Valuable Player

John Grant Jr. rewrote the NLL record books, setting a new single-season points record (116) despite missing two games. His 50 goals were tops in the NLL, and his 19 power-play assists were second-most. Grant scored his 500th career goal and recorded his 1000th career point and 1000th career loose ball. He was a three-time NLL Player of the Month and four-time NLL Offensive Player of the Week.

2012 Rookie of the Year

Adam Jones, the third overall pick in the 2011 NLL Entry Draft, led all rookies in points (76) and assists (47). Both were franchise rookie records, as was his goal total (29). Jones was a three-time NLL Rookie of the Week and two-time NLL Rookie of the Month. He was the team's third-leading scorer.

2015 Transition Player of the Year

Joey Cupido enjoyed a breakout season in 2015, leading all defensemen in goals (16) and points (31). He topped the National Lacrosse League with 40 caused turnovers while his .372 shooting percentage was best among all players league-wide who scored nine or more goals. Cupido's four short-handed tallies were the most among defensemen, and one shy of the league-leader.

2016 NLL Air Canada 'Wingman of the Year'

Callum Crawford tied an NLL single-season record with 83 assists in 2016, and was honored for his playmaking ability and aerial athleticism around the crease. The forward – in his first season with the Mammoth – registered five-plus assists eight times, including a nine-assist output against Buffalo in January which tied for the most by a player in a game in 2016. His 32 goals tied a career-high, and his 115 points were one shy of the team's single-season record.

2017 Goaltender of the Year

Dillon Ward, in his fourth year with the Mammoth, enjoyed a remarkable seven-game stretch in 2017, boasting a save percentage of .800 or better in every outing. He anchored a defense that held its opponents to single-digit goals in four straight games. Ward finished the 2017 campaign second in save percentage (.793) and in goals-against-average (10.89).
