E. STANLEY KROENKE Owner

Mr. E. Stanley Kroenke became owner of the Colorado Mammoth on July 9, 2002. Under his leadership the Mammoth has become the model franchise in the National Lacrosse League. The team has qualified for the playoffs in 13 of its 14 seasons, and won the Champion's Cup in 2006.

Colorado has led the league in attendance seven times, and was the runner-up in its other seven seasons. The Mammoth has averaged more than 16,000 fans per game in its history, and hosted the NLL All-Star Game in 2004 and 2009. Team president & general manager Steve Govett was the NLL's Executive of the Year in 2004. Four other employees have garnered executive acknowledgement from the league office.

Kroenke's tenure as owner of the Denver Nuggets has included a streak of 10 consecutive seasons in the NBA playoffs, a feat accomplished by only one other team in that span. Since purchasing the team in 2000, Kroenke has overseen two Executive of the Year winners as well as one Coach of the Year award. The Nuggets have also enjoyed the most successful five-year span (2006-2011) in franchise history, boasting an all-time team-best 15-game winning streak (March 2013) and posting a franchise-record for home wins in the regular season with 38 in 2012-2013.

The Colorado Avalanche remain one of the most accomplished hockey clubs in the NHL. In the team's first season under Kroenke's ownership (2000), the Avalanche hosted the NHL All-Star Game, won the Presidents' Trophy, and defeated the New Jersey Devils to win the Stanley Cup (2001), the second in franchise history (1996). The Avalanche have won four division championships under Kroenke's watch, and during his first five years of ownership they sold out every home game and went on to post an NHL-record 487 consecutive game sellout streak.

Off the field, one of Kroenke's priorities has been the Colorado community. More than $16 million in contributions have been made to Colorado charities through Kroenke Sports Charities. The Mammoth is a strong advocate of youth lacrosse in Colorado, and the team's efforts have played a significant role in introducing lacrosse to those who were previously unexposed.

Kroenke Sports & Entertainment, Kroenke's Denver-based company, also owns Major League Soccer's Colorado Rapids. In 2007 and 2015 the Rapids hosted the MLS All-Star Game, and in 2010 they won the MLS Cup Championship. In 2016 they played in their conference championship.

In June 2011, Kroenke became the majority shareholder of Arsenal FC, the storied English Premier League football club. The St. Louis Rams (now the Los Angeles Rams) won the Super Bowl in 2000 while Mr. Kroenke was a co-owner; he became the team's principal owner in August 2010.

Overall, the Mammoth, Nuggets, Avalanche and Rapids have made 39 playoff appearances, won three league championships and hosted six All-Star Games since 2000-01. Arsenal won the 2014 and 2015 FA Cup and has qualified for the Champions League in 19 consecutive seasons.

In addition to his success as an owner, Kroenke has been an innovator in television programming. In September 2004, Kroenke launched Altitude Sports & Entertainment, a 24-hour regional television network that is the broadcast home for the Mammoth, Nuggets, Avalanche and Rapids. Altitude also airs professional, collegiate and high school sporting events throughout the Rocky Mountain region. KSE acquired Outdoor Channel in May 2013. The independent cable network is received by nearly 40 million U.S. households, making it the largest outdoor TV footprint in the country.

In 2014 KSE added to its outdoor media holdings with the acquisition of Sportsman Channel, which reaches more than 36 million U.S. households, along with a number of well-known outdoor enthusiast print and digital publications. KSE also owns World Fishing Network.

On Dec. 31, 2015, KSE announced the acquisition of three Denver FM radio stations, KIMN-FM (Mix 100.3), KXKL-FM (Kool 105), and KWOE-FM (92.5 the Wolf). KSE also acquired 950AM, now known as Altitude Sports Radio, the new radio broadcast home for the Nuggets, Avalanche and Rapids.

Pepsi Center, a KSE-owned facility and the largest indoor arena, event center and concert venue in Colorado, is the home arena for the Mammoth, Nuggets and Avalanche, seating 18,007 fans for lacrosse and hockey, and 19,718 for basketball.

On April 7, 2007, KSE opened Dick's Sporting Goods Park, one of the largest sports complexes in the world. It played host to the 2014 FIL World Lacrosse Championships. The state-of-the-art sports facility sits on more than 160 acres in Commerce City, CO, and seats 18,000 fans for field sports and up to 27,000 for concerts. KSE also owns the Paramount Theatre, a historic landmark in downtown Denver, and through Peak Entertainment, LLC, a joint venture between KSE and AEG Live Rocky Mountains, co-manages 1STBANK Center in Broomfield, CO, a multi-use arena accommodating up to 6,500 people for a variety of events. Pepsi Center, the Paramount Theatre and 1STBANK Center are home to more than 300 events annually, including world renowned acts such as Garth Brooks, U2, Madonna, Taylor Swift, Phish, Aerosmith and Bruce Springsteen.

Kroenke's enthusiasm and vision ensure that Denver will continue to be the top entertainment destination in the Rocky Mountain region for generations to come. Local media outlets have consistently named Kroenke one of the most significant people in the Denver arts and entertainment community, saying "no other person entertains more people more often."

Kroenke is chairman and owner of The Kroenke Group, a private real estate investment and development company with properties located throughout the United States and Canada. Over the past four decades, he has built a reputation as one of the nation's leading real estate developers.

A member of the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame, Kroenke holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri. In addition to their son Josh, who is President and Governor of the Nuggets and Avalanche, Stan and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, an award-winning documentary film producer.

JIM MARTIN President & CEO – Kroenke Sports & Entertainment (KSE)

Jim Martin became President and CEO of Kroenke Sports & Entertainment in November of 2010. Martin oversees KSE business and venue operations. KSE owns and operates the Denver Nuggets, Colorado Avalanche, Colorado Rapids, and Colorado Mammoth professional sports teams, the Pepsi Center, Dick's Sporting Goods Park, and Paramount Theatre sports and entertainment venues, the Altitude Sports & Entertainment regional television network, the Outdoor Channel, as well as various additional affiliated and related businesses.

Martin first joined Kroenke Sports as President of Altitude Sports & Entertainment following successful stints at a number of major media companies. In the mid-1990s, he was the first Chief Operating Officer of FOX Sports Net, overseeing all aspects of that network's launch and operation. He was subsequently promoted to Executive Vice President, Head of Business Operations for FOX/

Liberty Networks, which built, owned and operated a number of regional and national sports and entertainment television networks.

Prior to joining FOX, Martin was President of Regional Network Operations for Liberty Sports, managing Liberty Media Corporation's owned-and-operated regional networks and other sports network investments. Martin was Vice President and Chief Operating Officer of Liberty Media Corporation from 1991 through 1994.

A 1977 graduate of the University of Wyoming with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting, Martin graduated from the University of Notre Dame Law School in 1980. Martin currently serves on the Gold Crown Foundation and the Visit Denver Board of Directors. He also serves on the Arsenal Broadband board. Martin and his wife have three grown children and are long-time Colorado residents.

MATT HUTCHINGS Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer – KSE

Matt Hutchings returned to Denver and to Kroenke Sports & Entertainment in October 2013, as the Chief Operating Officer and Executive Vice President for the integrated sports and entertainment organization.

Prior to his return to KSE, Hutchings spent two years as President and General Manager of the new regional sports network, Comcast SportsNet Houston. CSN Houston launched in October 2012, in a joint partnership of the Houston Astros, Houston Rockets and NBC Sports. The 24/7 sports network broadcasted to a five state region, Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and parts of New Mexico. The network is the home of the Rockets, Astros and Houston Dynamo, and select collegiate, high school and other events from the region, as well as national programming from NBC Sports. Starting in December 2011, Hutchings built his team of 125 plus staff as well as the build out of their new 32,000 sq. ft. broadcast center in downtown Houston.

The CSNH position was Hutchings return to Houston following 8 years in Denver as President and CEO of Altitude Sports & Entertainment, owned by Kroenke Sports & Entertainment, of which Hutchings was also an Executive Vice President. Altitude, launched in 2004 by Stan Kroenke, is the 10-state regional sports network home of the Denver Nuggets, Colorado Avalanche, Colorado Rapids and Colorado Mammoth. Hired originally as the COO, Hutchings helped build the Altitude team and facilities from the start and helped lead Altitude to one of the preeminent regional sports networks in the United States today.

From 1997 to 2004, Hutchings was President and CEO of Texas based, HMG International, a global creative services and advertising firm, specializing in programming development and distribution to television networks world-wide.

Launching sports networks is nothing new for Hutchings. From 1991 to 1997, he helped launch two of the world's first and largest multi-continent and multi-channel distribution platforms. Starting in 1991, Hutchings moved his wife and two young children to Hong Kong to be part of the launch team for STAR TV Asia. Originally five networks, of which Prime Sports was one, STAR launched to 39 countries in three languages. Hutchings was the Director of Operations and a Producer / Director for STAR. In late 1993, he was recruited by ESPN International to help launch their Middle Eastern / North African partnership, Orbit Satellite and Television Radio Network, and be ESPN's General Manager and Executive Producer. Within three months Hutchings was promoted to VP of Programming and Production, and ultimately SVP, overseeing the launch and operation of 22 television channels and 12 radio channels. With his production and creative teams, Hutchings won numerous broadcast accolades and awards.

Starting as a contract production and operations staff member in 1983, then moving to full-time in 1987, Hutchings worked for then Home Sports Entertainment (today Fox Sports Southwest) until 1991. Beginning as a contractor on production trucks covering the Astros, Rockets and schools of the old South West Conference for HSE, Hutchings rose to Director of On-Air Operations for SportsCom (HSE's operations partner) helping in the launch and management of six sports networks originating from their Houston based facility.

Graduating from Texas A&M with degrees in both Psychology and Sociology in 1987, Hutchings then attended graduate school at the University of Houston.

An award winning Producer and Director, he has won several Emmy's, Telly's, Pro-Max Awards and other broadcast industry recognitions.

From 2007 to 2011, at the request of the Colorado National Guard and United States Army / Department of Defense, along with his producing partner, Hutchings traveled to Iraq four times and Afghanistan once to embed with and produce documentaries on deployed elements of the National Guard and United States Army. The DOD also enlisted Hutchings and his partner to train over 60 Iraqi journalists in Southern Iraq.

Hutchings is also involved in youth sports, over the years serving as a coach and president of several sports related booster clubs. He is currently on the selection committee for the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

Hutchings is married to his high school sweetheart. They have four children.

BRUCE GLAZER Executive Vice President & Chief Financial Officer – KSE

Bruce Glazer was promoted to Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Kroenke Sports & Entertainment in November of 2010. Glazer oversees KSE's finance, risk management and internal audit departments.

Since 2004, Glazer has served as Executive Vice President and CFO of Altitude Sports & Entertainment and directed the KSE internal audit department. In addition to his work with Altitude, Glazer has assisted in the management of resort, ranch and vineyard investments owned by KSE founder Stan Kroenke.

Glazer joined KSE after more than 10 years at food processing giant, ConAgra Foods, Inc., where he held numerous senior financial positions within the company's various protein divisions including CFO of Monfort Beef Company. His responsibilities included all financial matters related to strategic planning, mergers and acquisitions, operations and information systems.

Prior to ConAgra, Glazer worked at accounting firm Ernst & Young and Iowa-based Master Manufacturing Co. A 1980 graduate of the University of Colorado with a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting, Glazer is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Colorado Society of Certified Public Accountants. Glazer is a board member of Temple Emanuel. He and his family reside in Denver.

STEPHEN L. STIENEKER Executive Vice President & General Counsel – KSE

Stephen Stieneker joined Kroenke Sports & Entertainment in 2005 as Vice President and General Counsel. He was promoted to Senior Vice President in 2011 and to his current position in 2013.

During his time with the company, Stieneker has managed the legal affairs of KSE and its family of sports teams while also working closely with several other Kroenke-owned businesses. He played a crucial role in KSE bringing the 2008 Democratic National Convention to Denver and Pepsi Center; opening 1st Bank Center; acquiring The Outdoor Channel and World Fishing Network; and brokering the deal for the Pepsi Center's new state-of-the-art center hung scoreboard. Stieneker also oversees KSE's Human Resources and Risk Management departments.

Stieneker holds a BS in Economics from Virginia Tech and a JD from the University of Virginia School of Law. Prior to joining KSE, he worked for Janus Capital Group as Assistant General Counsel, Vice President of Public Affairs and Chief Administrative Officer of Investments.

He resides in Denver with his wife and three children.

BEN BOYLAN President of Altitude Sports & Entertainment

Ben Boylan, President of Altitude Sports & Entertainment, has been with Altitude Sports since the launch of the network in 2004. Boylan oversees the sponsorship media sales for Altitude Sports including creating sales packages and overseeing all Directors of Sales. Boylan started with Altitude as the network's local sales manager in 2004 and was promoted to general sales manager, then later VP of Sales.

Prior to joining Altitude Sports, Boylan started his career in promotions for KOA Radio, followed by talk show producer, before moving on to Ad Sales. Boylan then moved on to Prime Sports Net as an account Executive, which later turned in Fox Sports Network. He was promoted to Local Sales Manager and then National Sales Manager in his 13 years at Fox. Boylan has a degree in Mass Communications from the University of Denver. He lives in Denver with his wife and two sons.

DAVE FLECK Senior Vice President of Media Sales & Partnership Marketing

Dave Fleck, Senior Vice President of Media Sales & Partnership Marketing, joined Altitude Sports in 2006 with over 15 years of advertising and sales experience. Fleck oversees the sponsorship media sales department for Altitude Sports. Fleck started with Altitude as an Account Executive of Media Sales and was later promoted to Director of Partnership Marketing & Media Sales for Kroenke Sports & Entertainment.

Fleck started his career in sales with Outdoor Systems Advertising, before moving on to radio sales and management with Alice and Mix radio. Fleck also worked for Fox Sports Net Rocky Mountain as an Account Executive, and prior to joining Altitude was the General Manager of Next Media Outdoor. Fleck has a degree in Political Science from Arizona State University. He lives in Littleton with his wife and three children.

RYAN BRACH Senior Vice President of Partnership Marketing

Ryan Brach was named Senior Vice President of Partnership Marketing in December, 2012. In this role, he oversees all corporate partnerships with the Denver Nuggets, Colorado Avalanche, Colorado Mammoth and Colorado Rapids. Additionally, Brach also manages all corporate partnerships with KSE's three venues; Pepsi Center, Dick's Sporting Goods Park and the Paramount Theater.

He comes to Denver after serving as the Senior Vice President of Business Development and Broadcasting for the Portland Timbers

(MLS) for the past eight seasons, and was awarded the 2011 Major League Soccer Corporate Partnership Executive of the Year. Prior to his time in Portland, Brach held the position of Corporate Sales Manager for the Sacramento Kings (NBA). Brach joined the KSE team with over 17 years of sports industry experience.

Originally from Morgan Hill, California, Brach graduated from the University of San Diego. Brach now resides in Denver with his wife and 3 children.

DAVID BURKE Senior Vice President and Chief Ticketing Officer

Burke joined KSE in 2013 and has been instrumental in enhancing the fan ticketing experience while also helping to bring the 2015 Major League Soccer All-Star Game to Colorado and the 2016 NHL outdoor game against the rival Detroit Red Wings to Coors Field.

Burke is responsible for developing and implementing ticket sales and service strategies, and managing ticket operations, for all of KSE's professional teams, including building and developing department staff and structure.

Prior to joining KSE, Burke was President of the Houston Aeros, the American Hockey League affiliate of the NHL's Minnesota Wild, where he was in charge of day-to-day business operations.

From 2007 to 2011, prior to working for the Aeros, Burke was Vice President of Ticket Sales and Service for the Phoenix Coyotes and Jobing.com Arena, where he managed all luxury suite sales, premium seat sales, and ticket sales and service for the Coyotes and their arena. He also served as Director of Season Ticket Sales for the NBA's Charlotte Bobcats, who ranked in the league's top five in new season tickets sales in 2007.

Raised in Houston, TX and a graduate of the College of Charleston, Burke began his work in professional sports in 2003 with the Dallas Stars, later joining the New Orleans Hornets and helping the club through its temporary relocation to Oklahoma City after Hurricane Katrina."

DEB DOWLING-CANINO Vice President, Community Relations

Deb Dowling-Canino returned to Kroenke Sports & Entertainment in 2002 as Vice President of Community Relations. Previously she served as Special Events Director for the Denver Nuggets and Colorado Avalanche from 1993-96.

Her responsibilities include community involvement and initiatives for all KSE entities including the Colorado Avalanche, Denver Nuggets, Colorado Mammoth, Colorado Rapids, Pepsi Center, Dick's Sporting Goods Park and Paramount Theatre.

Dowling-Canino's professional career has included media stints at KHOW and KWBZ Radio as public service, promotion and programming director. She owned and operated Abracadabra Events, an event production company whose clients included The International at Castle Pines, Colorado Department of Local Affairs, Colorado Special Olympics, Metro State College, Downtown Denver Partnership and Colorado Broadcaster's Association. In the non-profit sector she has worked with the March of Dimes, AMC Cancer Research Center and Colorado Sports Hall of Fame. From 1996-2000 Deb and restaurateur-husband Roland Canino owned and operated the highly acclaimed Canino's Trattoria. Professional recognition includes WomanSchool - Outstanding Woman in Denver Radio and Contribution Award by Sportswomen of Colorado.

Dowling-Canino's personal involvement with non-profit and civic organizations in Denver has included volunteer leadership roles with Special Olympics Colorado, ALS Association, Junior League of Denver, Central City Opera, Denver Baseball Commission, Colorado Tourism Board, National Philanthropy Day and others.

A native of Colorado, she graduated from Colorado State University with a degree in Technical Journalism.

STEVE GOVETT President, General Manager & Governor

Steve Govett, in his 15th season as the Colorado Mammoth President and General Manager, was instrumental in bringing the National Lacrosse League and the former Washington Power franchise to Colorado. Having spent time with the franchise in Washington, Govett has been able to build and maintain one of the most talented rosters and successful franchises in the NLL in his years in the Denver market.

Under Govett's leadership, the Mammoth has won three division titles, made 13 playoff appearances and captured the 2006 NLL championship. The Mammoth has led the league in attendance seven times, helping to grow downtown Denver's sports and entertainment economy. The team also has made a positive impact on area youth with various charitable donations and community outreach programs, including player clinics, school appearances and hospital visits.

In addition to his role with the Mammoth, he is also responsible for the business operations of NDP Championships that oversees a number of profitable youth and amateur based sports enterprises that includes tournaments, competitions, events, and festivals nationally in the sports landscape. NDP Championships has launched a number of successful spin off entities in custom merchandising, sponsorship sales, and television productions.

In the fall of 2012, Govett was named the Vice President of New Business Development for Kroenke Sports & Entertainment. He is responsible to lead the evaluation, analysis and development of potential new business ventures for KSE. In conjunction with Outdoor and Sportsman channels he spearheaded the inception and launch of the grassroots based competition that is the platform for the television show American Marksman.

An innovative sports experience professional, Govett drives a robust business for Kroenke Sports & Entertainment that crosses a number of boundaries. In the creation of new and unique events and experiences in sports and entertainment, he has blended a style of staff integration and collaboration with others to create one of the most successful sports and entertainment platforms in the industry.

In his early days as an executive, after two successful seasons as General Manager of the Philadelphia Wings, Govett joined the newly-formed Washington franchise as president and general manager in 2001. Govett led the Power to two winning seasons, the NLL semifinals in 2001 and 2002, and the East Division title in 2002 before the franchise relocated to Denver.

After the Mammoth compiled a league-best 13-3 record in 2004, Govett was named the NLL's Executive of the Year. Govett works closely with the NLL Commissioner to ensure the long-term vitality of the league and its teams, and has served as the NLL's Chairman of the Board of Governors. A member of multiple league committees, Govett has twice served as general manager of the U.S. world indoor lacrosse team. He was also general manager of Canada's gold medal-winning team at the 2007 world indoor championship, and served on the staff of the 2006 Team Canada Outdoor team. In 2014, he helped assemble a roster that claimed gold in the 2014 FIL World Lacrosse Championships at Dick's Sporting Goods Park. He was recently inducted into his hometown Burnaby Sports Hall of Fame as a builder in the sport of Lacrosse, and was also an October inductee into his college athletics hall of fame.

In October of 2009, Govett and his staff were instrumental in the creation of the NLL All-Star Series in Melbourne, Australia. After three years of planning and preparation, 32 NLL players made their way to Melbourne to compete in a two-game series at Hisense Arena, home of the Australian Open.

Govett was a physical presence for the Philadelphia Wings from 1994-1998, collecting 26 goals, 23 assists and 115 penalty minutes in 36 regular-season games. During his five-year career, the Wings won three league championships (1994, 1995 and 1998). In 1999, Govett took the next step in his career when he combined his extensive lacrosse experience with his professional expertise. The result was a seasoned executive - the new Wings' general manager.

A native of Burnaby, British Columbia, Govett maintains dual citizenship in Canada and the United States, where he took the oath of citizenship on March 24, 2005. An avid golfer and youth lacrosse advocate, he and his wife, Eileen, reside in Highlands Ranch, CO, and have two children, Mackenzie and Jake.

DON SUNBLADE Assistant General Manager

Don Sunblade, in his 13th year with the team, was promoted to Assistant General Manager on December 1, 2014. He has significant team responsibilities including salary-cap management and player personnel coordination and scheduling. Sunblade attended Metropolitan State University of Denver where he majored in sports industry operations and minored in marketing. Before graduating in 2005, he interned for the perennially-powerful Metro State men's basketball team, helping design and implement a marketing plan as well as assisting in game entertainment.

While attending college, Sunblade saw the Mammoth's first open tryout and immediately became a lacrosse fan. He interned with the Mammoth during the 2005 season before being hired later that year to assist the general manager and handle many of the team's day-to-day operations. Sunblade is a Colorado native and lives in Lakewood with his wife, Rachel, and their sons, Jackson, Ryan and Casen.

DAN CAREY Director of Player Personnel

Dan Carey joined the Colorado Mammoth front office as Director of Player Personnel on October 20, 2015 after serving as the team's Head Eastern Scout. A fan-favorite during his playing days, Carey was the Mammoth's first-round selection in the 2005 NLL Entry Draft. He was a member of the 2006 NLL All-Rookie Team and won the Champion's Cup in his first pro season.

Carey was a three-time all-star (2006-2008) and won the league's Sportsmanship Award in 2008. That year, he co-founded the Mammoth's Sticks for Schools program and curriculum that taught basic fundamentals to elementary school students.

A national champion at the collegiate level (Herkimer County Community College, 2003) and in Canada, winning the Mann Cup with the Peterborough Lakers in 2004, 2006 and 2007, Carey won a world championship with Team Canada in the 2007 World Indoor Lacrosse Championship.

More recently, Carey earned bachelor's degrees in history and education. He was a teacher and varsity lacrosse coach at the renowned school, The Hill Academy, for two years before relocating to Colorado with his wife, Lisa, and their daughter, Nina.

Carey oversees all collegiate, club and professional scouting activities and operations for the Mammoth, and works closely with the coaching staff and team management to address the team's greatest on-field needs.

JOSH GROSS Vice President, Business Operations & Alternate Governor

Josh Gross is in his 13th season with the Colorado Mammoth and assumed the role of Vice President, Business Operations for the Mammoth and NDP Championships in 2014. The Bridgewater, N.J. native began with the organization as the team's sideline reporter on radio broadcasts in 2005. He continued as play-by-play announcer on the internet and radio, and then called games on Altitude Sports & Entertainment from 2007-2014.

Gross oversees the team's daily business operations while connecting departments within KSE to ensure consistent messaging and information-sharing, all with the goal of providing a superior fan experience. His work includes growing the Mammoth brand in the marketplace while leading the team's public and media relations efforts and fan development and community outreach initiatives. He also serves as the Mammoth's Alternate Governor on the National Lacrosse League's Board of Governors, and is a member of the league's Marketing Committee.

Under Gross' leadership, NDP Championships has expanded from a lacrosse tournament company into a full-scale event management leader that produces events at the local, regional and national levels. He also co-founded NDP Custom Apparel, a division that customizes and embellishes event-branded garments.

After graduating magna cum laude with a broadcast journalism degree from the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, Gross began his professional career with the Boston Cannons of Major League Lacrosse. He then assumed ticket sales responsibilities for the Colorado Crush of the Arena Football League.

Gross lists his career highlight as calling the 2006 NLL Champion's Cup Final, a game the Mammoth won. He has also freelanced on television and radio, from play-by-play for Major League Soccer and college basketball to studio and talk show host on Denver's airwaves. Gross resides in Arvada with his wife, Natalia, and children, Carter and Quinn.

PAT COYLE Coach

Pat Coyle enters his third full season (and fourth overall) on the Mammoth bench after being named interim coach with Chris Gill and Dan Stroup on March 5, 2014. He guided the team to a franchise-record eight wins at Pepsi Center in 2016. Under his supervision, the Mammoth was the least-penalized team in the NLL a season ago (9.28 PIM per game), 54% less than the second-least-penalized squad. Colorado has earned the number-two seed in the West Division, and home playoff games, in each of Coyle's two full seasons.

In 2014, Coyle became the first defenseman in league history to win induction into the NLL Hall of Fame. A Mammoth player from 2005-2008, he was named to the Mammoth's All-Decade Team in 2012. Coyle was the 2002 NLL Defensive Player of the Year in the inaugural season of the award.

A five-time champion in his 12-year playing career, Coyle hoisted the Champion's Cup four times with the Toronto Rock (1999, 2000, 2002, 2003) and once with the Mammoth (2006).

CHRIS GILL Coach

A prolific goal-scorer in his playing days, Chris Gill enters his third full season (and fourth overall) on the Mammoth bench after being named interim coach with Pat Coyle and Dan Stroup on March 5, 2014. He oversaw a power-play unit that was one of just two in the NLL to convert on 50-percent or more of its opportunities both at home and on the road. Gill has helped steer the Mammoth to the number-two seed in the West Division, and home playoff games, in each of his two full seasons.

In 2015, Gill was inducted into the Canadian Lacrosse Hall of Fame. He was a fourth-generation inductee, joining great-grandfather Les Dickinson, grandfather Bill Dickinson and father Sohen Gill.

Gill tallied 338 goals in his NLL career and led the league with 17 power-play goals in the Mammoth's championship season in 2006. It was the first of Gill's four years in Colorado (2006, 2008-10). He retired as a member of the organization. Gill was also a member of the Toronto Rock dynasty. He won two championships with the franchise (1999, 2000).

DAN STROUP Coach

An NLL Hall of Famer who was enshrined in the Canadian Lacrosse Hall of Fame in November, Dan Stroup begins his third full season (and fourth overall) as a member of the Mammoth coaching staff after being named interim coach with Pat Coyle and Chris Gill on March 5, 2014. In 2016, Stroup's Mammoth squad was a perfect 7-0 when leading at halftime, and was the only team with four or more wins in one-goal games (a perfect 6-0). His tutelage resulted in a second-straight season of a number-two seed in the West Division, which comes with a home playoff game.

In his playing career, Stroup scored 19-plus goals in 10 consecutive seasons. He also won four championships as a player (Toronto: 1999, 2000, 2002; Colorado: 2006) and one as a coach (Washington: 2010).

Stroup's heroics in the championship game in 2000 earned him MVP honors.

JOEL RAETHER Head of Sports Performance

Joel Raether has been with the Mammoth organization since 2007, working with the players to improve conditioning, nutrition and on-field performance. Raether also serves as the Director of Sport Performance at Authentic Performance Center in Denver, Colorado. He served as the Education Programs Coordinator for the National Strength and Conditioning Association from 2009-2011. His coaching career includes stints as the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the University of Denver from 2002-2009 and the University of Nebraska Kearney from 2000-2002. Raether earned his bachelor's and master's degree in exercise science from the University of Nebraska Kearney and is a certified strength and conditioning specialist with distinction (CSCS*D) by the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Raether has co-authored the books 101 Agility Drills, 101 Sand Bag Exercises, and was a contributing author for Fit Kids for Life, Developing Agility and Quickness and Core Training for Sport.

He has published numerous peer reviewed articles and popular literature contributions, as well as training DVDs. He is a highly sought after presenter who has presented nationally and internationally in the area of sports performance and also served as a consultant to various media outlets such as The Chicago Tribune, New Balance, Men's Health, SOBEfit Magazine, 9 News Denver and Wellness News. He has trained athletes at all levels including high school, NCAA, NHL, NFL, NLL, MLL, MLS, World Cup Skiing and the LPGA. His coaching accolades include numerous all-Americans, more than a dozen conference championships, and more than 10 individual or team collegiate national championships, as well as two Olympians which included an Olympic Gold medalist in Torino. Raether is also the co-founder of Performance Sandbag Training Systems (PST).

NLL AWARDS

2003 Most Valuable Player

Gary Gait's historic first season in Denver showed Colorado fans exactly why he is considered to be the best player in National Lacrosse League history. Gait carried the Mammoth in its inaugural season, smashing the single-season scoring record with 61 goals. He added 35 assists to finish third in overall league scoring with 96 points and was the centerpiece of the Mammoth offense that finished second in league scoring.

2003 Rookie of the Year

Brian Langtry quickly endeared himself to fans in Denver by scoring the overtime game-winner against the Toronto Rock in the Colorado Mammoth's first ever game on Jan. 3, 2003. He continued to delight fans of the fledging Mammoth during the 2003 season with his deadly shooting and fiery on-field persona. Langtry racked up 28 goals and 34 assists to place third on the team in scoring and led all NLL rookies with 62 points.

2004 Sportsmanship Award

Mammoth captain Gary Gait, who led the NLL with 55 goals and five game-winning goals, served just four penalties for eight penalty minutes in 16 games. The Mammoth was the third-least penalized team this season, averaging just 18.75 penalty minutes per game.

2004 Goaltender of the Year

Gee Nash was named the National Lacrosse League's top goaltender after posting a career-high 11 wins and back-stopping his team to the league's best record. In his fifth NLL season Nash recorded a league-best .790 save percentage and posted the third-best goals against average (10.68) among regular starting goaltenders.

2005 Sportsmanship Award

Gary Gait won the Sportsmanship Award for the second consecutive season in 2005 after retiring as the National Lacrosse League's all-time leading scorer. Gait served just two penalties for four penalty minutes in 16 games, while finishing ninth in league scoring with 81 points. The Mammoth was the fourth-least penalized team in 2005, averaging 23.25 penalty minutes per game.

2008 Sportsmanship Award

The Mammoth's Dan Carey deservingly won the NLL 2008 Sportsmanship Award. The left-handed forward has played three seasons for the Mammoth and in his 43 career games; Carey has accumulated only 11 penalty minutes, none in 2008. Before suffering a season-ending injury in 2008, Carey scored 22 goals and 27 assists in 11 games. Admired by teammates and opponents alike, Carey was named to the 2008 All-Star team. The Mammoth was the 4th least penalized team in the National Lacrosse League in 2008, averaging 20.56 penalty minutes per game.

2012 Most Valuable Player

John Grant Jr. rewrote the NLL record books, setting a new single-season points record (116) despite missing two games. His 50 goals were tops in the NLL, and his 19 power-play assists were second-most. Grant scored his 500th career goal and recorded his 1000th career point and 1000th career loose ball. He was a three-time NLL Player of the Month and four-time NLL Offensive Player of the Week.

2012 Rookie of the Year

Adam Jones, the third overall pick in the 2011 NLL Entry Draft, led all rookies in points (76) and assists (47). Both were franchise rookie records, as was his goal total (29). Jones was a three-time NLL Rookie of the Week and two-time NLL Rookie of the Month. He was the team's third-leading scorer.

2015 Transition Player of the Year

Joey Cupido enjoyed a breakout season in 2015, leading all defensemen in goals (16) and points (31). He topped the National Lacrosse League with 40 caused turnovers while his .372 shooting percentage was best among all players league-wide who scored nine or more goals. Cupido's four short-handed tallies were the most among defensemen, and one shy of the league-leader.

2016 NLL Air Canada 'Wingman of the Year'

Callum Crawford tied an NLL single-season record with 83 assists in 2016, and was honored for his playmaking ability and aerial athleticism around the crease. The forward – in his first season with the Mammoth – registered five-plus assists eight times, including a nine-assist output against Buffalo in January which tied for the most by a player in a game in 2016. His 32 goals tied a career-high, and his 115 points were one shy of the team's single-season record.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for all credentials must go through the Mammoth communications department. Full-season credentials will be granted to media that cover the Mammoth on a regular basis. Single-game credentials will be granted to media with a written request submitted at least 48 hours prior to game time. All credentials are issued at the sole discretion of the Colorado Mammoth. Please email to Josh.Gross@ColoradoMammoth.com.

MEDIA ENTRANCE

Members of the working media enter Pepsi Center through the media entrance located at the truck docks on the northwest side of the arena.

PRESS ROOM

The working media room is located at floor level adjacent to the press dining room. Access to the working media room is reserved for those members of the media filing reports for daily news outlets. The Mammoth will rely on members to maintain a courteous, professional atmosphere in the working media room.

PRESS SEATING

Press seating at Pepsi Center is located on the press box level.

PRESS DINING ROOM

The media dining area is located at the end of the hallway leading from the media entrance on the northwest side of Pepsi Center. Food and beverages will be available to the working media beginning two hours prior to game-time.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those photographers on assignment will be allowed access to designated photography locations at floor level and in overhead positions. Photography positions will be assigned by the Colorado Mammoth.

DRESSING ROOMS

The dressing rooms will be open after the game. Requests for individual interviews must go through the Mammoth communications staff. The officials' dressing room is off-limits to the media.

INTERVIEWS

Media requesting access to players or staff for interviews must contact Josh Gross (Josh.Gross@ColoradoMammoth.com) of the Colorado Mammoth.
