Tom Dickson and Sherrie Myers, Co-Owners

In 1996, Tom Dickson and Sherrie Myers launched their first minor league baseball team, the Lansing Lugnuts, spearheading the development and construction of the team's home stadium.

During that inaugural season, the Lugnuts set the attendance record for any Class-A team in its first year, drawing over 535,000 fans. The total ranks second in Midwest League history, trailing only the 1996 attendance of the West Michigan Whitecaps.

In large part due to the success of the Lugnuts, Dickson and Myers were named "Entrepreneurs of the Year in the State of Michigan" in 1997.

In 2001, the couple purchased Charleston of the South Atlantic League and worked with government officials to put together financing for a new ballpark. In October 2002, funding for the new $23 million facility was approved.

In 2004, Dickson and Myers purchased the Orlando Rays franchise, moving it to Montgomery, Alabama. The renamed Montgomery Biscuits served as one of the crown jewels of Class-AA and were named MiLB.com's Double-A Team of the Year in 2006 and 2007.

In addition to Lansing, Charleston and Montgomery, Dickson and Myers were responsible for the development of over $150 million worth of new minor league ballparks in Dayton, Ohio; Joliet, Illinois; Gary, Indiana; and Eastlake, Ohio.

Tyler Parsons, General Manager

Tyler Parsons joined the Lugnuts as General Manager beginning with the 2018 season. He previously served as GM of the Johnson City Cardinals from 2014-17. Prior to Johnson City, Parsons spent two years in the Coastal Plain League as the GM of the Martinsville Mustangs and Director of Fun with the Forest City Owls. He also served as the Ticket Sales Coordinator at Central Michigan and Sports Information Director at Mid Michigan Community College.

Under Parsons's direction, the Lugnuts won the Golden Bobblehead Award for best single game promotion in 2018 (Backyard Baseball Night) and were named the Midwest League's 2019 nominee for the Larry MacPhail Award for best promotions and marketing in Minor League Baseball.

Zac Clark

Assistant General Manager - Sales

A native of Dansville, Mich., Zac Clark earned his bachelor's degree from Central Michigan University and his master's degree from East Tennessee State.

Clark entered the world of baseball as an intern with the Martinsville Mustangs before spending three years with the Johnson City Cardinals, rising to Assistant General Manager. He departed for one season as Sponsorship Services Manager with the Asheville Tourists, and then returned to Johnson City as General Manager for three seasons, where he was honored as the 2018 and 2019 Appalachian League Executive of the Year.

Greg Kigar

Assistant General Manager - Sales

A native of Gladwin, Mich., Greg Kigar brings over 25 years of experience to the Lugnuts. He earned his bachelor's degree in sports studies from Central Michigan University and his master's degree in sports management from Western Illinois University.

Greg has worked as Intramural Coordinator at Notre Dame, Event Manager at the Jacksonville Memorial Coliseum, Director of Operations at the Dow Events Center, and Assistant Athletic Director at Central Michigan University. He served as the very first Director of Stadium Operations for the Great Lakes Loons.

The Captains won the championship in their first year in the Midwest League, 2010. In Game 2 at Clinton, the Captains lost in 18 innings (and five hours, 37 minutes), 8-7, on a grounder through the legs of third baseman Adam Abraham. After an eight-hour drive to Lake County, the Captains pulled out a five-game series win.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE

- 1889 - William Mumby manages the very first Lansing squad to a 42-56 record and fourth place in the six-team Michigan State League.
- 1890 - Under Al Manassau, Lansing loses 17 of its first 21 games. The Michigan State League folds in June.
- 1895 - The Lansing Senators post a highly-respectable 56-36 record in the Michigan State League, finishing in second place. The team features 47-year-old Bud Fowler (born John W. Jackson in Cooperstown, New York), the very first professional African American baseball player. Fowler made his debut in 1876 in the International Association. In 1895, he is the only black baseball player playing professionally anywhere in the country. Fowler will finish his career with a batting average of .308 in 465 career minor league games. The team also features future Senators manager John "Jack" Morrissey, who bats .362. The star of the team, though, is Jack Daley, who bats .397 with 124 runs scored, 143 hits, and 25 home runs.
- 1897 - After a year's hiatus, Lansing rejoins the league... only to see the MSL shut down mid-season with the team in second place.
- 1902 - The Senators shut down operations in August and the Michigan State League disbands soon after.
- 1907 - Playing in the Southern Michigan League, the Senators post a 46-57 record behind the leadership of Lansing native Jack Morrissey. It is Morrissey's first of eight consecutive seasons in charge of the Senators. He had played in the National League with Cincinnati in 1902-03, batting .258 in 41 games.
- 1908 - Lansing finishes 60-65, but George Pearce notches 298 strikeouts and player/manager Jack Morrissey collects 141 hits.
- 1910 - In Jack Morrissey's finest season at the helm, Vic Saier (175 hits) and Homer "Slab" Warner (23 wins) lead Lansing to an 87-52 record, tied for first with the Kalamazoo Celery Eaters. The Celery Eaters defeat the Senators in a playoff to capture the title.
- 1911 - Slab Warner sets a league record with 26 wins alongside 231 strikeouts. The Senators finish in second place.
- 1912 - Al "Bull" Durham, playing for Lansing and Bay City, sets a new league record with 25 home runs and Jack Onslow tears up Southern Michigan League pitching to the tune of a .385 batting average, but the Senators finish only 65-62.
- 1913 - T.H. Nellis collects 146 hits in the Senators' first season in the Southern Michigan Association.
- 1914 - On July 10th, the 33-35 Senators move to Mount Clemens and become the Bathers, finishing 63-80. The Southern Michigan Association disbands at season's end.
- 1921 - Playing in the Central League, the third-place Senators finish 65-63 thanks in large part to 18 wins from star pitcher Lawrence Reno and a .348 batting average from Charles Miller..
- 1922 - Lansing slips to 60-67, but Les Bell shines with a .329 average. The league shuts down after the season.
- 1940 - Affiliated with the Cardinals as part of Branch Rickey's farm system, the Lancers are last in the Michigan State League despite batting .294 as a team. Gerald Burnmeister leads the way with a .360 average, 15 home runs and 86 RBI. Dick Sisler, son of Hall of Famer George, bats .322; he would later play eight seasons in the Majors.
- 1941 - Renamed the Senators and now unaffiliated, Lansing loses 78 of 113 games, Everett Robinson's .345 average and 95 RBIs going for naught. The team and league both disband at the end of the season.
- 1996 - Professional baseball returns to Lansing with the Lugnuts, a Class-A Midwest League affiliate of the Kansas City Royals. The franchise that became the Lugnuts was born in Lafayette, IN, in 1955, moving to Waterloo, IA, in 1957, where it would stay for 35 seasons. The franchise was purchased by Tom Dickson and Sherrie Myers in 1995, who moved it to Springfield, Illinois. The next year, it was brought to the capital city of Michigan. The very first game played at brand new Oldsmobile Park is between the University of Michigan and Michigan State University on April 3rd, 1996, won by the Wolverines, 5-4, in 10 innings. On April 5th, the Lugnuts play their first game, drawing 9,318 fans despite temperatures in the 30s to see a 9-5 10-inning loss to the Rockford Cubbies. July 6th, the Colorado Silver Bullets, an all-female pro baseball team, play at Oldsmobile Park. The Silver Bullets, managed by Hall of Famer Phil Niekro, lose to the Madison Stars, 8-1. Over the course of this inaugural season, the Lugnuts set a record for Minor League Baseball attendance, drawing 538,326 fans. Pitcher Blaine Mull sets single-season franchise records with 15 wins and 174.2 innings pitched, though he also allows a franchise-record 186 base hits.
- 1997 - How could an inaugural season be topped? By hosting the Midwest League All-Star Game and then winning the Midwest League Championship! In the ASG, a league record crowd of 10,060 sees the Lugnuts' Steve Medrano drill a triple in the bottom of the ninth and score the winning run on Jason Conti's walkoff single, lifting the East to a 6-5 victory. The Lugnuts finish the season with a 69-68 mark, squeaking into the playoffs. In the first round, the Nuts eliminate Michigan, 2 games to 1; in the second round, the Nuts sweep Fort Wayne in two straight games; and in the championship round, the Nuts outlast Kane County in dramatic fashion, 3 games to 2, made even more memorable by a mascot brouhaha between Big Lug and Ozzie the Cougar in Geneva, Illinois. The season also sees Jose Santiago make his debut with the Kansas City Royals on June 7th, making him the first Lugnut to reach the Major Leagues.
- 1999 - After missing the playoffs in 1998, the Lugnuts enter 1999 with a new affiliation, switching from the Royals to the Cubs. Lansing hosts its second All-Star Game, setting a new ASG attendance record with a crowd of 10,234. The game lasts just two hours, nine minutes, a Western Division one-hit victory, 4-0. The Nuts return to the playoffs behind Prospect of the Year Corey Patterson, who hits for the franchise's first cycle at South Bend on July 5th. In the first round of the postseason, Lansing sweeps away Michigan in two games before having the tables turned on them in a two-game sweep by Wisconsin in the second round
- 2000 - Ryan Gripp leads the league with a .333 batting average and 166 hits, adding 20 home runs and 92 RBI while Oscar Montero posts a 0.37 ERA, allowing only one ER in 24.1 innings, but the Lugnuts finish 70-68 and miss the playoffs. On June 13th, Clinton's Scott Dunn twirls a 7-0 perfect game, the first time the Lugnuts have been no-hit.
- 2001 - In his first year as skipper, Julio Garcia steered the Nuts to a 65-75 record and a first-round exit at the hands of Dayton. First-rounder Lou Montañez was the top prospect, but Jason Dubois (24 HR, 92 RBIs) was the hitting star, crushing three home runs on August 30th. On the mound, Aaron Krawiec notched strikeouts by the bunch, whiffing a team record 17 on April 29th and finishing with 170 for the year..
- 2002 - Another All-Star Game and Championship in the same year? Lansing hosts its third All-Star Game and breaks the Midsummer Classic attendance record again with a throng of 10,334, as the East defeats the West, 6-3. Notable All-Stars include Joe Mauer and Edwin Encarnacion. But the Lugnuts fall in the MWLCS to Peoria, 3 games to 1. In the series finale on September 13th, the Chiefs overcome a 10-2 deficit with a run in the 8th and eight in the 9th for a stunning 11-10 win and the title.
- 2003 - A memorable April 21st: Donnie Hood hits for the cycle and Justin Jones, Westin O'Brien, Mark Carter combine to throw the first no-hitter in franchise history, blanking Dayton, 15-0. The season gets better from there: Keith Butler collects three hits in three at-bats and drives in the game-winning run in the All-Star Game to be named the Star of Stars. The Lugnuts win their second league championship in dominating fashion, sweeping South Bend in two games, Battle Creek in two games, and Beloit in three games. Starters Anderson Tavares, Carlos Vasquez and Andy Sisco lead the way, with lights-out closer James Wylie saving a franchise record 29 games to go along with 1.38 ERA.
- 2004 - Eight different Lugnuts are named to the Midwest League All-Star Team, though one stands above the rest. The Lugnuts' Brian Dopirak is honored as both the Most Valuable Player and the Prospect of the Year after ripping up Midwest League Pitching for a .307 batting average, 39 home runs, and 120 RBI. Both home run and RBI totals set new franchise records. Chris Walker adds a franchise record 60 stolen bases. Catcher-turned-ace Carlos Marmol posts 14 wins and K's 154, though he is overshadowed by 21-year-old Sean Marshall, who records a 1.11 ERA in seven starts, striking out 51 while allowing only 29 hits, six earned runs and four walks in 48.2 innings. And in the season's biggest games, Cubs star Mark Prior makes a pair of rehab starts.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE

- 2005 - In the offseason, the Lugnuts switch affiliations from the Cubs to the Toronto Blue Jays, though the change does not result in a fifth consecutive entrance into the postseason. Still, seven different players earn All-Star Game nods, including highly-regarded pitching prospect Casey Janssen. In seven starts, Janssen notches a 4-0 record with a 1.37 ERA and a 38/4 strikeout/walk ratio. The season's other highlight sees Chip Cannon hit for the cycle in a 14-13, 13-inning victory against Clinton on June 2nd.
- 2006 - Joyce's Lugnuts finish 72-65, making the postseason and eliminating South Bend before losing in the second round to West Michigan. The season features two 17-inning marathons, an April 23rd 4-3 victory over Beloit and a June 3rd 5-3 victory at South Bend. Notably, not one member of the 2006 Lugnuts roster -- numbering 43 total players -- has made the Majors.
- 2007 - The inaugural Crosstown Showdown is held between Michigan State and Lansing on April 3, won 4-3 by the Lugnuts in nail-biting fashion. The season's star is Blue Jays 1st round draft pick Travis Snider, who hits for the cycle in reverse order (amidst a 5-for-5 night) in a 9-3 victory at Fort Wayne on July 7. On August 25th, the Nuts welcome Oldsmobile Park's 5,000,000th fan.
- 2008 - Behind 28-year-old first-year manager Clayton McCullough and seven MWL All-Stars, the Lugnuts win their first division title since 1999, wrapping up the first-half Eastern Division title.
- 2009 - On April 16th, a record crowd of 12,992 watches the Crosstown Showdown on April 16. The Spartans squash the Lugnuts, 12-2, for their first win in the series. 18-year-old Henderson Alvarez receives the Opening Day start vs. Fort Wayne. Alvarez further distinguishes himself in defeat on May 24th, losing a 1-0 game to Cedar Rapids in an hour and 46 minutes.
- 2010 - Oldsmobile Park is renamed Cooley Law School Stadium in the off-season and former MLB catcher Sal Fasano makes his managerial debut. On May 1st, Chris Hopkins's walk-off single lifts the Nuts to their 1,000th victory, 3-2 over Fort Wayne.
- 2011 - Steered by Manager of the Year Mike Redmond, the Lugnuts qualify for the playoffs via tiebreaker on the last day of the first half. On September 9th, one out from elimination against powerful Dayton in the 1st round of the playoffs, the Lugs receive a dramatic two-run game-winning home run from second baseman Matt Nuzzo, starting a string of four consecutive playoff victories vs. Dayton and Fort Wayne. The Lugs are swept in three games by Quad Cities in the Championship Series. The season also included a stretch of 27 consecutive scoreless innings from Drew Hutchison.
- 2012 - After defeating the Michigan State Spartans, 7-0, before a new stadium record crowd of 12,997, the powerhouse Lugnuts jump out to a team-record 7-0 start behind new manager John Tamargo, Jr., the club's hitting coach during the previous two seasons. On May 12th, left fielder Kevin Pillar goes 6-for-6 to tie the team and Midwest League record, finishing the historic day with a 9th inning grand slam in a 16-4 rout at Dayton. Two days later, on May 14th, the Lugnuts turned a triple play in a 4-2 victory over the host Dragons. The Lugs went 20-9 in May to tie another team record before finishing the first half with a team-best 47-22 mark, easily topping the Eastern Division. Seven players are named to the midseason Eastern Division All-Star Team, helmed by the Lugnuts coaching staff, which rounds the Western Division All-Stars, 18-2, in Kane County. Led by a prospect-laden pitching rotation starring Justin Nicolino, Aaron Sanchez, Noah Syndergaard and Anthony DeSclafani, Lansing finishes the season with a club-best 82-55 record, including a team record 16 shutouts. Closer Ajay Meyer sets a new team record with 33 saves and first baseman K.C. Hobson supplies a team record 43 doubles. At season's close, Tamargo is named the Midwest League Manager of the Year and Pillar is named MWL Most Valuable Player, with Pillar (outfield), Nicolino (left-handed starter) and Meyer (right-handed reliever) named to the MWL Postseason All-Star Team. The good fortune lasts only as long as the regular season; the Lugnuts are swept in two games by Fort Wayne.
- 2013 - The Lugnuts gain dubious notice, victimized by no-hitters on three separate occasions and experiencing a 21st century version of Merkle's Boner when Santiago Nussy neglects to run to second base on Chris Hawkins' seeming game-winning single on July 1st. The ballclub finishes the season with a 61-78 record, though the season is redeemed by breakout performances from pitchers Daniel Norris and Ben White, shortstop Emilio Guerrero and outfielders Dwight Smith, Jr. (the team MVP) and Dalton Pompey. On June 16th, Pompey serves as the hero of the All-Star Game, averting a potential tie with a game-winning full-count, two-out RBI single in the bottom of the ninth. On August 16th, Guerrero seizes the day with a franchise/league record-tying 6-for-6 performance, including a grand slam, in a 14-5 rout at West Michigan. Norris, though, gains the most attention, thanks to a highlight-making grab against the Whitecaps on a vicious liner turning his face that goes viral on YouTube.
- 2014 - The Lugnuts feature the talents of third baseman Mitch Nay, a Midseason and Postseason MWL All-Star, assisted by fellow Midseason All-Stars Derrick Lovless, a breakout star in the outfield; slugger Matt Dean; and closer Griffin Murphy. The team's initial star, though, is Kendall Graveman, who takes a no-hitter into the ninth at Beloit and allows only one earned run during four April starts. Graveman vaults through the system, jumping through A.Dv. Dundin, Double-A New Hampshire and Triple-A Buffalo on his way to an MLB debut in September. The season is also highlighted by cameos from 30-year-old knuckleballing Frank Viola III, 19-year-old outfield phenom Anthony Alford (who then leaves to play defensive back on the Ole Miss football team) and 19-year-old pitching prospect Miguel Castro. The Lugs compete until the season's penultimate day, when they are knocked from playoff contention by a home loss to South Bend, finishing 62-77.
- 2015 - Cooley Law School Stadium undergoes a massive renovation in the off-season, including a new 360-degree concourse; permanent stadium seating throughout the seating bowl; the all-you-can-eat Pessi Porch tiered picnic area; three HD video boards - a primary board above the left field wall and ribbon boards along the right field wall and the suite facade; remodeled suites, front offices and clubhouses; the Michigan Baseball Hall of Fame; and The Outfield development, featuring Good Hops and The View. On the field, the Lugnuts met with great early-season success. The team's hitting coach in 2014, Ken Huckabay moves into the manager's chair, presiding over the Lugnuts' first Eastern Division title since 2012. Lansing wins the first half with a 42-28 record, turns a triple play on June 21st, and boasts a prolific offense that led the league in runs (699), total bases (1878), doubles (263), stolen bases (162), slugging percentage (.396) and OPS (.733), and was only shut out on all season. The lineup is loaded: a regular day features future MLbers hitting 1-2-3-4-5 in center fielder Anthony Alford, shortstop Richard Ureña, first basemen/designated hitters Rowdy Tellez and Ryan McBroom (who ties the league/franchise records with a 6-for-6 performance on July 12th at Dayton, and collects hits in nine consecutive at-bats to come within one of the league record), and catcher Danny Jensen, with future Major Leaguer Tim Locostrato batting either at the top or bottom of the order. In early July, Locostrato, leading the Midwest League with 30 steals and 21 HBPs, is traded with ace Chase De Jong to the Dodgers for international cap space; on the same day, Toronto signs top international free agent Vladimir Guerrero, Jr. Promising right-hander Jesus Tinoco is later packaged in a deal to the Rockies in exchange for All-Star shortstop Troy Tulowitzki. On August 6, the 10-member inaugural class of the Michigan Baseball Hall of Fame is inducted in a special ceremony at The View. McBroom is voted the 2015 Midwest League Most Valuable Player and named to the Post Season All-Star Team at both First Base and Designated Hitter. The end of the season is spiced by the September 2nd rehab appearance of Blue Jays' standout Marcus Stroman, who works a 4 2/3 hitless and scoreless innings, striking out seven Great Lakes Loons. The Lugnuts finish the season 73-66, sweeping the Great Lakes Loons in two games, and then falling in three games in the Eastern Division Finals to the West Michigan Whitecaps.
- 2016 - Steered by John Schneider, the Lugnuts experience a season with a seven-minute skunk delat (in Dayton on August 22nd) and the second no-hitter in franchise history... in a losing cause (Game 2 of a DH at Peoria on July 14th). Mid-Season / Post Season All-Star Angel Perdomo leads the league with 156 strikeouts in just 127 innings. The season concludes with the first autumn edition of the Crosstown Showdown presented by Auto-Owners Insurance. A crowd of 8,432 on September 6th enjoys a pregame Home Run Derby won by Connor Panas, besting 17-year-old Vladimir Guerrero, Jr. and 18-year-old Bo Bichette in the first round before outmarching MSU's Dan Durkin 14-10 in the final, followed by a 4-1 Lugnuts triumph. To cap off the year, Lugnuts general manager Nick Grueser is named the Midwest League Executive of the Year.
- 2017 - Cesar Martin's Lugnuts are headlined by Bo Bichette and Vladimir Guerrero, Jr. Both are voted Mid Season and Post Season All-Stars and represent the Blue Jays at the MLB Futures Game. 19-year-old Bichette bats a league-leading .384 with 109 hits (including 32 doubles) in just 70 games, earning the double honor of Midwest League Most Valuable Player and Prospect of the Year. 18-year-old Guerrero receives national media coverage and is named Baseball America's No. 2 prospect in baseball. Edward Olivares enjoys the most notable game of the season, hitting for the cycle on April 24th vs. the South Bend Cubs. On May 18, the Lugnuts win their 1500th game as a franchise, a 5-1 victory over the Cubs in South Bend. Another running theme: hit-by-pitches. The Lugnuts set the MWL single game record on May 3rd by getting plunked six times by Peoria pitchers. On August 20, Solar Eclipse Day, outfielder Nick Sinyt sets a new single season record with 38 HBPs. The two largest crowds of the year: 11,449 on the 4th of July, and 10,232 on Harry Potter Night. The Lugnuts finish 63-73, missing the playoffs, ending the year with a 5-1 defeat of MSU in the 11th Crosstown Showdown presented by Auto-Owners Insurance on September 5th. The HR Derby is won by MSU freshman Adam Proctor, topping Marty Betchina in a swing-off before beating David Jacob in the final.

HISTORICAL TIMELINE

- 2018 - Cesar Martin returned for a second season in Lansing, and a cohesive clubhouse led by outfielder Chavez Young and first baseman/outfielder Ryan Noda qualifies for the MWL postseason with a 43-27 first half record and finished with an 80-60 record, the second most wins in a season in franchise history, tying for the most road wins (39) in franchise history. The Nuts score an MWL-leading 720 runs and steal an MiLB-leading 203 bases behind 44 steals apiece from Chavez Young and Samad Taylor. Noda himself tops MiLB with a franchise record-breaking 109 walks. Opening Day starter Yennys Diaz is named MWL April Player of the Month after posting a 0.31 ERA (1 ER in 26.2 IP) and .063 avg against (6-for-95). On May 22nd, reliever Kyle Weatherly commits three balks in the 7th inning at South Bend. On June 19th, the Lugnuts host their fourth Midwest League All-Star Game. Bowling Green catcher Ronaldo Hernandez wins the pregame Home Run Derby and Dayton first baseman Montrell Marshall takes MVP honors with a two-out walk-off RBI single in the 10th inning, lifting the East to a 3-2 win before a crowd of 9,396, the second largest crowd of the year (11,302 on the 4th of July). On August 26th, a day after hitting an inside-the-park home run, Brandon Grudzielanek swats a massive three-run homer off the dragon's claw to the top left of the Fifth Third Field videoboard in Dayton. The 12th Crosstown Showdown is held the day before the postseason, September 4th: MSU's Adam Proctor defends his home run derby title through two playoff swing-offs against teammates Zaid Walker and Andrew Morrow, and then walks off to beat Lugnuts outfielder Freddy Rodriguez, 7-6, in the final. The Nuts win, 6-4, with starter Nate Pearson touching 102 mph while striking out four Spartans in two scoreless innings. The postseason ends in a two-game sweep against eventual champion Bowling Green. Head Groundskeeper Zach Severns was named the 2018 Midwest League Sports Turf Manager of the Year.
- 2019 - Managed by former Major Leaguer Dallas McPherson, the Lugnuts finish 68-71 and don't make the playoffs, though Griffin Conine leads the league with 22 home runs, Cre Finrock leads the league with 17 saves, and Otto Lopez leads the league with a .324 batting average and 145 hits. On April 18th vs. Dayton, Ryan Gold becomes the 7th Lugnut to hit for the cycle, going for 4-for-5 with a grand slam and seven RBIs (the "Golden Cycle"). The Nuts lead the MWL in slugging pct., hits, total bases and triples. The two largest crowds of the year are Harry Potter Night (10,824) and the 4th of July (9,798). Sean Wymer wraps up the year with an 85-pitch complete game in a 4-1 win at Fort Wayne. In the 13th Crosstown Showdown, PK Morris wins the HR Derby over MSU's Andrew Morrow after topping D.J. Daniels and Alberto Rodriguez in the first round, and then Miguel Hiraldo and Yhon Perez homer in a 5-1 victory over the Spartans.
- 2020 - With the Minor League Baseball season canceled due to COVID-19, the Lugnuts hold the inaugural Lemonade League, a college wood-bat league from July through August featuring yellow baseballs. One of the league's great innovations is a Home Run Derby to decide any game tied at the end of seven innings -- but the tiebreaker was not needed once during the league's 20 games. A maximum of 100 fans were allowed into the stadium, by health directive of Ingham County, with every game selling out. At the Major League level, catcher Alejandro Kirk, who had formed a formidable 3-4 punch with Jordan Groshans in April 2019 for the Lugnuts, becomes a Blue Jays fan favorite, jumping over Double-A and Triple-A into the Major Leagues and batting .375 in nine games. On October 2, the stadium is renamed Jackson Field.
- 2021 - Minor League Baseball is reorganized under Major League Baseball's control, with the Lugnuts partnering with the Oakland Athletics and moving up as members of the new High-A Central. Scott Steinmann skips the Nuts to a 58-62 record overall. The year begins with limited capacity due to the Covid-19 pandemic before full capacity is restored at the start of June. The Lugnuts set a franchise record with 55 different players suiting up over the course of the year. Among the standouts: Max Schuemann, who swipes 34 bases - including a single game record five steals on June 15 - and goes on to earn promotions to Double-A Midland and Triple-A Las Vegas by season's end; catcher Drew Millas, who is packaged with pitchers Seth Shuman and Richard Guasch in a trade deadline deal to Washington for Josh Harrison and former Lugnut Yan Gomes on July 30; and slugger Jordan Diaz, the youngest player on the team, who homers in his first swing of the season and goes on to lead the Lugnuts in most offensive categories.
- 2022 - Phil Pohl, the Oakland Athletics' bullpen catcher from 2016-2021 and native of Cooperstown, N.Y., manages the Lugnuts to a 54-77 record, 10th in the 12-team Midwest League (regaining its name from the High-A Central shortly before the year). The Lugnuts are headlined by 20-year-old Tyler Soderstrom, who shakes off a cold April to excel during the summer, crushing a walk-off grand slam against Dayton on May 12 and a walk-off three-run homer in front of 10,055 against Great Lakes on July 4. It's a season of great single-game feats, from Grant Holman's immaculate inning at West Michigan on April 14 to Jared McDonald's three-HR game at Lake County on June 30 to Denzel Clarke becoming the second player in the history of recorded Minor League Baseball with two straight games with inside-the-park home runs vs. West Michigan on August 2 and 3 to a four-pitcher no-hitter in the road finale at eventual league champion South Bend on September 4. 12 former Lugnuts reach the Major Leagues, including 2021 Lugnuts Norge Rutz and Jordan Diaz. At season's end, 2021 third-rounder Mason Miller, sporting a fastball of 100-102 mph, made three starts (the last a three-inning hitless stint against Dayton) before vaulting up the ladder to Triple-A Las Vegas. The season also sees the interim managerial debut of Veronica Alvarez, manager of Team USA Baseball Women's National Team, who took over for the vacationing Phil Pohl from August 16-21 and beat the Great Lakes Loons twice.

THE CROSSTOWN SHOWDOWN

The Lansing Lugnuts and Michigan State University Spartans began playing the Crosstown Showdown in 2007 in order to raise interest in the national pastime within the Lansing and East Lansing community. The game has produced the three largest crowds in Jackson Field history.

Quick stats: Lugnuts lead, 12-2. Total Attendance: 110,785 (7,913 average)

- In the inaugural showdown in 2007, Michigan State mounted a ninth-inning rally that put the potential game-tying run on base, only to see Julio Pinto whiff Kyle Hurtt to preserve a 4-3 win.
- In 2008, a run-scoring error and a wild pitch in the sixth opened the door for the Lugs to escape, 4-2.
- In 2009, MSU picked up its first win, hammering Nuts starter Scott Gracey for seven runs and cruising to a 12-2 rout in front of a record crowd of 12,992.
- In 2010, the Showdown was scheduled to be played on April 7th, but was postponed due to rain. 19 days later, the Nuts exploded for five in the fifth en route to a 5-4 victory.
- In 2011, the Spartans tallied in the first and fourth innings and held off the Lugnuts in a slim 2-1 victory.
- In 2012, the Lugs broke a tie with seven runs in the seventh, winning 7-0 before 12,997 fans and BTN.
- In 2013, Dwight Smith, Jr. went 4-for-4 with a single, double, triple and walk, as the Lugnuts routed the Spartans, 10-2, in a seven-inning game.
- In 2014, Michigan State committed three errors, leading to two crucial unearned runs, in a 3-2 Lugnuts victory.
- In 2015, the Spartans' first four batters hit for the cycle, but the Lugnuts rallied back for a decisive 9-4 rout.
- In 2016, the game was postponed to September 6th because of poor April weather. The day opened with a HR Derby, won by Lansing's Connor Panas over teenagers Bo Bichette and Vladimir Guerrero, Jr. in the opener round before besting MSU's Dan Durkin in the final round, 14-10. Christian Williams then slugged a two-run homer and the Lugnuts cruised to a 4-1 win.
- In 2017, MSU freshman Adam Proctor won the pregame HR Derby over the Lugnuts' David Jacob, but Jacob's Lugnuts won the game, 5-1, with five unanswered runs, backed by the pitching of Yennys Diaz, Emerson Jimenez and Maverik Buffo.
- In 2018, Adam Proctor defended his HR Derby title, outlasting teammates Andrew Morrow and Zaid Walker in a second playoff swing-off before walking off the Nuts' Freddy Rodriguez in the final, 7-6. Then top prospect Nate Pearson fired two scoreless innings, touching 102 mph, and striking out four straight Spartans, as the Lugnuts beat MSU for the seventh straight year, 6-4.
- In 2019, Adam Proctor served as catcher for the HR Derby, won by the Lugnuts' PK Morris, 10-8, over MSU's Andrew Morrow. In the game, Morris delivered an RBI single, Miguel Hiraldo hit a solo home run and Yhon Perez belted a pinch-hit three-run homer in a 5-1 Lugnuts victory.
- In 2022, after a two-season, 947-day hiatus, the Lugnuts topped the Spartans in the 14th Crosstown Showdown, 3-2, for their ninth straight win in the series. Jack Winkler delivered a two-run double in the second inning, wiping out an early 1-0 deficit. Peter Ahn homered in the loss.

Notable: The only players to suit up for both teams are Eli Boike and Marty Bechina. Boike took part in CTSDs in 2007-09 with MSU, then signed with Toronto as a free agent and played 20 games with the Nuts. Bechina played in the 2016 and 2017 Showdowns before joining the Lugnuts for a 13-game stint in 2022.

The Lemonade Stand News

“When life gives you lemons, make a Lemonade League.”

The Lemonade League

Though the Minor League Baseball season was canceled in 2020, there was still baseball in Michigan's state capital: a college wood-bat league created by Director of Stadium Events Greg Kigar from July 23 - August 22. Players were divided into two teams, the Locos and the Lugnuts (wearing the Lansing Locos' gem blue Copa De La Diversión jerseys and the Lansing Lugnuts' black and red Batting Practice jerseys). They played 20 games, each one sold out to 100-fan capacity as directed by the Ingham County Health Department. An eye-catching rule directed that any game tied through seven innings would be decided by Home Run Derby... but the tiebreaker was never needed.

The Lemonade Leaguers: There were 57 players in total, representing 22 colleges and universities: Albion, Central Michigan, Cleary, Colorado School of Mines, Concordia, Davenport, Eastern Florida State, Eastern Michigan, Grand Valley State, Kalamazoo, Lansing CC, Madonna, Michigan State, Mott CC, Northwood, Oakland, Oakland CC, Olivet, Saginaw Valley State, Schoolcraft, Toledo and Wayne State.

All Told: The league's 20 games totaled 1,318 plate appearances, 993 at-bats, 272 runs, 268 hits, 266 walks, 241 strikeouts, 113 stolen bases and nine home runs, all with a yellow baseball instead of the normal white ball.

Stitched Lemons: Yellow baseballs were first used in a game between the Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals on August 2, 1938. Said Dodgers coach Babe Ruth, "What's the difference? They're all round. I hit three over the fence in practice... I didn't even know it was yellow until somebody fouled one down there by me. The color don't make no difference. It's the guy who who's chucking 'em at you that counts." A baseball from that game can be seen at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown.

Video Broadcasts: The games were streamed live on Facebook, YouTube, Twitch and Vimeo, with replays, split screens and commercials, the first time the Lugnuts ever created and aired their own video broadcasts. Jesse Goldberg-Strassler and Adam Jaksa called the action.

Masks are REQUIRED to enter the stadium – no questions.

We use a yellow baseball. No they are not shaped like lemons.

Games are 7-innings.

No extra innings. Tie games go to a 1-on-1 Home Run Derby.

Games will be streamed for FREE.

The Coaching Staff

- Director of Baseball Chad Roskelly played at Macomb Dakota before excelling at Michigan State University as a catcher/DH. He was named to the All-Big Ten Freshman Team in 2015 and was honored as MSU's Danny Litwhiler Defensive Player of the Year. After a stint coaching at Lansing Community College, he joined Oakland University as Assistant Coach.

- Locos Coach Pete Romsek, a native of Haslett, played his college ball at Adrian. He spent a year on the Olivet coaching staff before joining Salem University. At the end of the Lemonade League season, he announced a new position as Assistant Baseball Coach and Recruiting Coordinator at Saint Xavier University.

- Locos Pitching Coach Cam Vieaux was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the sixth round in 2016 from Michigan State University. On June 17, 2022, Vieaux made his Major League debut for the Pirates.

- Lugnuts Coach Cullen Turner, another former Haslett Viking, served as the Lugnuts' bullpen catcher in 2018, 2019, 2021 and 2022. Turner is the Assistant Baseball Coach at LCC.

- Lugnuts Pitching Coach Riley McCauley entered his first year on the MSU coaching staff in 2020. McCauley was drafted out of Michigan State in the 14th round in 2018 by the Cubs, splitting 2019 between Short-Season Eugene (where he was a Northwest League All-Star) and Class-A South Bend (where he pitched against the Nuts).

Jackson® Field™ Ground Rules

- Dugout Railings (Green Padded and Gray Metal): If a thrown ball bounces off a dugout railing and lands in the playing surface, it remains in play. If a ball hits a dugout railing and goes into a dugout, it is considered dead.
- Railings along first and third base lines: If a batted or thrown ball bounces off a railing and stays in the playing surface, it remains in play. If a ball bounces over a railing and into the stands, it is considered dead.
- Tarp: If a thrown or batted ball bounces off the tarp, it remains in play. If the ball lodges in the tarp, it is considered dead.
- Bullpens: A batted or thrown ball that goes into either bullpen remains in play.
- Outfield Wall: A batted ball must clear the painted yellow line to be considered a home run. A ball that bounces off the yellow line and over the wall is a home run; a ball that bounces off the line and back onto the playing surface remains in play.

Lugnuts Broadcast Team

Adam Jaska joined the Lugnuts' booth in 2019. He is also the Voice of Central Michigan University football and men's basketball.

Jesse Goldberg-Strassler joined the Lugnuts in 2009. He was named the 2013 Midwest League Broadcaster of the Year and 2019 Ballpark Digest Minor League Baseball Broadcaster of the Year. He made his MLB debut with the A's on June 14, 2022.

Broadcast Lineage

- Mike Vander Wood, 1996–1997. Vander Wood went on to become the first broadcaster of the Dayton Dragons (2000-2007), and then the voice of Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre (2008-2012).
- Jeff Walker, 1998–1999. Walker left for Triple-A Sacramento in 2000 before becoming Boise Hawks GM.
- Scott Moore, 2000–2002. Moore became the voice of MSU hockey and a Spartan Sports Network original.
- Jim Tocco, 2003. Tocco served as the voice of the Montgomery Biscuits from 2004–2008.
- Seth Van Hoven, 2004–2005. Van Hoven worked diligently for the Lugnuts for years, predating and postdating his broadcast position with press box responsibilities and serving as official scorer.
- Brad Tillery, 2006–2008. Tillery joined from Montgomery (2004-2005), where he worked alongside Jim Tocco.
