James L. Dolan
Executive Chairman
Madison Square Garden Sports Corp.

James L. Dolan is Executive Chairman of Madison Square Garden Sports Corp. (MSG Sports), which features the New York Knicks (NBA) and New York Rangers (NHL) franchises. In addition, the Company's properties include two development league teams – the Westchester Knicks (NBAGL) and the Hartford Wolf Pack (AHL) – as well as Counter Logic Gaming, a North American esports organization, and Knicks Gaming, an NBA 2K League franchise.

In his role at MSG Sports, Mr. Dolan sets the Company's overall vision and guides the development of effective strategies to drive its business and maximize growth opportunities. Mr. Dolan also serves as governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

In addition to his oversight of MSG Sports, Mr. Dolan is Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Madison Square Garden Entertainment Corp. (MSG Entertainment), which became a standalone company in April 2020 when The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG) separated its entertainment and sports businesses. MSG Entertainment's portfolio features a wide array of venues, including Madison Square Garden – home to the New York Knicks and New York Rangers. The Company is also building a state-of-the-art venue in Las Vegas called MSG Sphere, and has announced plans for a second venue in London. MSG Entertainment's other properties include the Christmas Spectacular Starring the Radio City Rockettes; Boston Calling Events, which produces the Boston Calling Music Festival; and Tao Group Hospitality, which features popular entertainment dining and nightlife brands. In addition, the Company has two regional sports networks, MSG Network and MSG+, that telecast a wide range of sports content, including exclusive live local games featuring the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

Mr. Dolan also serves as Chairman of AMC Networks Inc., which owns and operates several award-winning brands in television and film.

Mr. Dolan was CEO of Cablevision Systems Corporation from 1995 until June 2016, when the media and telecommunications company, which served as MSG's parent company until 2010, was sold to Altice. Prior to his role as Cablevision CEO, Mr. Dolan was CEO of Rainbow Media Holdings, the former Cablevision programming subsidiary now known as AMC Networks. Mr. Dolan began his career with Cablevision in the 1970s and held a variety of executive positions before overseeing Rainbow Media.

Mr. Dolan supports the ongoing commitment of MSG Sports and MSG Entertainment to their communities, particularly through the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit organization that works closely with both companies to assist young people in need. In addition, he is Vice Chairman of the board of the Lustgarten Foundation, an organization he helped found in 1998, which today is the nation's largest private supporter of pancreatic cancer research.

Mr. Dolan has six children and is an avid musician.

Pops Mensah-Bonsu
Director of Minor League Operations

Prior to the start of the 2021 NBA G League season, Pops Mensah-Bonsu was named Director of Minor League Operations of the Westchester Knicks.

During the 2021 NBA G League single-site condensed season in wake of the COVID-19 pandemic and first under the direction of Mensah-Bonsu, the team improved its win percentage from a season prior and boasted a pair of NBA Call-Ups in Justin Patton (Houston Rockets) and Louis King (Sacramento Kings). Shortly after the season, New York Knicks Two-Way Player, Jared Harper, was named to the 2021 All-NBA G League First Team and became Westchester's first-ever recipient of the award earning the highest nod in the franchise's seven-year history. Additionally, three players joined the New York Knicks in 2021 NBA Summer League.

Before arriving to Westchester, Mensah-Bonsu served as the General Manager of the Capital City Go-Go, the official NBA G League affiliate of the Washington Wizards. Under his leadership, the Go-Go concluded its inaugural season 25-25, becoming just the second NBA G-League expansion team to finish .500 or above in its first season since 2010.

After going undrafted in the 2006 NBA Draft, Mensah-Bonsu joined the Dallas Mavericks in 2006 NBA Summer League before signing with the club the following month to officially commence his rookie season. Upon signing with the Mavericks, Mensah-Bonsu became the second player of Ghanaian descent to play in the NBA.

Mensah-Bonsu's professional playing career, which spanned from 2006-15, included time with five NBA franchises (Dallas, San Antonio, Toronto, Houston, and New Orleans) and 11 overseas clubs. In those nine years, he won a 2012 Euro Challenge Championship and named the Euro Challenge MVP that same season, a 2012 TBL Player of the Year, a 2012 TBL Defensive Player of the Year, a 2007 NBA D-League All-Star MVP and captained the Great Britain Men's Basketball Team in the 2012 London Olympics.

Upon retiring in 2015, Mensah-Bonsu joined the National Basketball Players Association (NBPA) as a Regional Representative & International Liaison, helping advise and shape the image of domestic/international NBA players nationally and globally. In 2017, the San Antonio Spurs recruited him as their Pro Personnel Scout for the Eastern region of the United States – specifically aiding in trades and free agency.

Mensah-Bonsu currently serves as the President of SEED Academy Ghana and is helping provide developmental opportunities for the next generation of basketball leaders.

Born September 7, 1983, in North London, Mensah-Bonsu is a proud parent of Lola, Raelyn, Chloe and Joseph.

Ryan Borges
General Manager

On April 19, 2021, Ryan Borges was elevated to General Manager of the Westchester Knicks. Borges becomes just the third person to hold the position. Borges previously served as the Assistant General Manager of the Westchester Knicks-the first position of its kind. Having been with The Madison Square Garden Company since 2014, his journey in the mecca started as the New York Knicks Basketball Operations Student Associate prior to ascension as the Westchester Knicks Manager of Basketball Operations.

Serving as Assistant General Manager for one season, Borges administered the franchise's participation in the 2021 NBA G League single-site condensed season in wake of the COVID-19 pandemic. Under his direction, the team improved its win percentage from a season prior, boasted a pair of NBA Call-Ups in Justin Patton (Houston Rockets) and Louis King (Sacramento Kings) and saw three players join the New York Knicks in 2021 NBA Summer League. Shortly after the season, New York Knicks Two-Way Player, Jared Harper, was named to the 2021 All-NBA G League First Team and became Westchester's first-ever recipient of the award.

As Manager, Borges was integral part of Westchester's scouting, trading acquisitions, and logistical needs, including travel, of coaching staff, front office, and players. Serving as the main conduit between basketball and business operations, Borges was instrumental in the managing of housing and lodging of the players and visiting teams on their organization's behalf, and off-court player development. During road trips, in absence of a communications representative, Borges coordinated on-site media appearances for both the staff and players.

Borges' resume includes a stint interning with the Brooklyn Nets where he assisted coaches in on-court player workouts, compiled data for staff dissemination, and deep dives into scouting reports.

Born October 6, 1990, in Middletown, RI, Borges is a St. John's University alumnus, and served as a Student Manager under distinguished collegiate coach, Steve Lavin.

Derrick Alston
Head Coach

On August 20, 2019, former Westchester Knicks assistant coach, Derrick Alston, became the franchise's fourth head coach in team history succeeding Mike Miller.

During the 2021 NBA G League single-site condensed season in wake of the COVID-19 pandemic and under Alston's direction, the team improved its win percentage from a season prior, boasted a pair of NBA Call-Ups in Justin Patton (Houston Rockets) and Louis King (Sacramento Kings) and saw three players join the New York Knicks in 2021 NBA Summer League. Shortly after the season, New York Knicks Two-Way Player, Jared Harper, was named to the 2021 All-NBA G League First Team and became Westchester's first-ever recipient of the award earning the highest nod in the franchise's seven-year history.

In his first season at the helm, Alston led the team to a 17-24 (.415) record. Alston's first win came in a 116-109 victory against the Greensboro Swarm, just two games into the season, on November 13, 2019 in historic fashion. Andrew White III tied a then-franchise record for triples (9) in the road victory.

During the 2019 MGM Resorts NBA G League Showcase in mid-December, Alston piloted the squad to a perfect 2-0 showing which earned starting guard, Lamar Peters, a spot on the All-NBA G League Winter Showcase Second Team—the highest Showcase nod for a Knick to date.

The following month, Kenny Wooten inked a Two-Way contract with the New York Knicks marking Alston's first call-up of his head coaching campaign. At the time of the signing, Wooten was the NBA G League's second-leading shot-blocker and the first player in franchise history with eight games of at least five blocks in a single season.

Due to COVID-19, Alston's first year as head coach fell victim to an unfinished season with nine regular season games unplayed.

Prior to his promotion to head coach, Alston spent four seasons as an assistant for Westchester helping guide the franchise to a 108-92 (.540) record from 2015-2019. Alston helped Westchester capture its first-ever postseason victory in 2018-19.

Before joining the Knicks organization, Alston served as a player development coach with the Houston Rockets for three seasons. He played four years at Duquesne University and was named First Team All-Atlantic 10 in 1994. Selected 33rd overall in the 1994 NBA Draft by the Philadelphia 76ers, Alston spent two seasons with the team (1994-1996) and signed with the Atlanta Hawks prior to the 1996-97 season.

Alston graduated from Hoboken High School in Hoboken, N.J. in 1990. Born on August 20, 1972, in the Bronx, N.Y., Derrick and his wife Robin are proud parents of Derrick Jr., a member of the Utah Jazz, and Avery.

Allen Deep
Assistant Coach

Allen Deep joined the Westchester Knicks staff as an assistant coach prior to the start of the 2019-20 season.

Deep arrived at the Knicks by the way of then Maine Red Claws, the official NBA G League affiliate of the Boston Celtics.

In his second season with Westchester and during the NBA G League's single-site condensed season, the Knicks improved its win percentage from a season prior, 7-8 (.467), boasted a pair of NBA Call-Ups in Justin Patton (Houston Rockets) and Louis King (Sacramento Kings) and saw three players join the New York Knicks in 2021 NBA Summer League. Shortly after the season, New York Knicks Two-Way Player, Jared Harper, was named to the 2021 All-NBA G League First Team and became Westchester's first-ever recipient of the award.

During the 2019-20 season, the Knicks finished a shortened season with a 17-24 (.415) record, saw Lamar Peters earn a spot on the All-NBA G League Winter Showcase Second Team, an NBA Call-Up as the league's second-leading shot-blocker, Kenny Wooten, signed a Two-Way contract with the New York Knicks.

Deep spent a little over two years in Portland, Maine where he helped guide the Red Claws to fourth (2017-18) and fifth (2018-19) place finishes in the Atlantic Division. In 2019, he was named an assistant coach for the 2019 NBA G-League International Challenge in Montevideo,

Uruguay where an elite team comprised the league's premiere talent competed against top international standouts from around the world. Deep helped pilot the team to a second-place finish, falling within 10 points to euro-league powerhouse, Bayern Munich, in the championship game.

In 2020, Deep was named an Assistant Coach for USA Basketball Men's National Team under Mike Fratello, a 17-year NBA coaching veteran, for the November AmeriCup Qualifiers. Deep was elevated to this capacity following four years as the Support Staff/Player Development. In this role, he carries out day-to-day operations tasks for National Team Director Sean Ford, assists with the World Cup Qualifying Team under esteemed former NBA coach Jeff Van Gundy and coordinates and personally carries out individual player development with Select and National Team members.

In 2016-17, Deep was a Graduate Assistant for player development for the University of Akron men's basketball program. That season, the Zips defeated the University of Houston in the opening round of the National Invitation Tournament (NIT) by three before enduring a second-round setback to UT Arlington.

Deep is a graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania (2008) and the University of Akron (2017). Born on July 28, 1984 in New Castle, Penn., Deep and his wife Kathryn are proud parents of Emilia Bailey and proud pet parents of Larry and Belle.

Jaren Jackson Sr.
Assistant Coach

Jaren Jackson Sr. joined the Westchester Knicks staff as an assistant coach prior to the start of the 2020-21 season.

In his first season with Westchester and during the NBA G League's single-site condensed season, the Knicks improved its win percentage from a season prior, 7-8 (.467), boasted a pair of NBA Call-Ups in Justin Patton (Houston Rockets) and Louis King (Sacramento Kings) and saw three players join the New York Knicks in 2021 NBA Summer League. Shortly after the season, New York Knicks Two-Way Player, Jared Harper, was named to the 2021 All-NBA G League First Team and became Westchester's first-ever recipient of the award.

Jackson Sr.'s professional career spanned from 1989-2002, including experience on nine NBA teams, four Continental Basketball Association (CBA) teams, a World Basketball League (WBL) team, and a European Basketball League (FIBA-France) team.

Highlighting a 13-year professional career is Jackson Sr.'s 1998-99 NBA World Championship won with the San Antonio Spurs under esteemed head coach, Gregg Popovich. In his final season with the Spurs and second to final season in the NBA, Jackson Sr. and the Spurs won the NBA Midwest Division in 2001-02. Jackson Sr. also hoisted a pair of CBA championship trophies-first with the Wichita Falls Texans in 1990-91 and the other with the La Crosse Catbirds in 1991-92.

Collegiately, Jackson Sr. was a four-year letterwinner at Georgetown University in 1985-89 and two-time BIG EAST champion under the tutelage of John Thompson. Jackson Sr. and the Hoyas earned four NCAA Tournament bids which included a pair of Elite 8 appearances. Having dressed for every single game of his collegiate career, Jackson Sr.'s scoring increased in successive seasons. He was also a member of the 1988 BIG EAST Conference All-Star Team.

Jackson Sr.'s coaching resume commences at Georgetown, includes head coaching stints in the CBA, NBLC and the Fort Wayne Mad Ants of the NBA G League (2008-10) and opportunities at the NBPA Top 100 Camp and NBA Assistant Coaches Program. For the last five years, Jackson Sr. has been an on-air talent serving as the Mad Ants' Color Analyst.

Born October 27, 1967 in New Orleans, Louisiana, Jackson Sr. married fellow Hoya Terri Carmichael Jackson, the Director of Operations for the Women's National Basketball Players Association (WNBPA). They are the parents of Jaren Jackson Jr., who played college basketball for Michigan State before getting drafted by the Memphis Grizzlies.

Aaron Brooks
Two-Way Liaison

Prior to the start of the 2020-21 NBA season, Aaron Brooks was appointed as Two-Way Liaison. As a hybrid role, Brooks works closely with both the New York Knicks and Westchester Knicks franchises and players under Two-Way contracts.

During his first season with the Knicks organization, Brooks saw time on the Westchester sideline amid the NBA G League's single-site condensed season. Highlighting a season in which the team improved its win percentage from a season ago as well as boasting a pair of NBA Call-Ups in Justin Patton (Houston Rockets) and Louis King (Sacramento Kings), Two-Way Player, Jared Harper, who specifically falls under the instruction of Brooks, was named to the 2021 All-NBA G League First Team. The acknowledgement was the first ever for a Westchester Knick becoming the highest nod in the franchise's seven-year history.

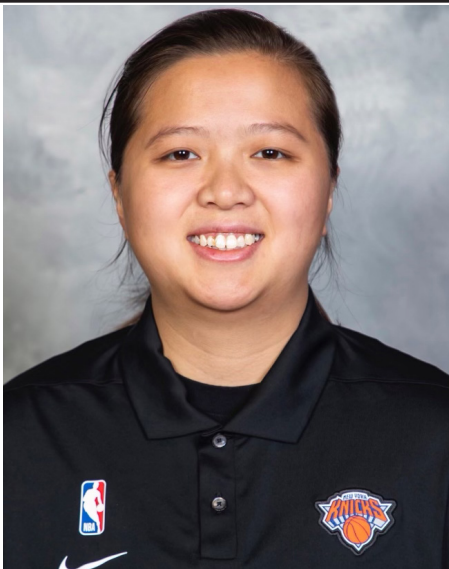

After the conclusion of the NBA G League season, Brooks re-joined the New York Knicks bench. Alongside New York Knicks head coach, Tom Thibodeau who coached Brooks in both Chicago and Minnesota, New York earned its first playoff berth since 2012-13 after finishing fourth in the Eastern Conference.

Before arriving to New York, Brooks appended his 12-year professional playing career with the Illawarra Hawks of the National Basketball League (NBL) averaging 18.0 points and 3.6 assists through 11 games in 2019. Brooks' playing experience spanned from 2007-19, also including stretches with seven NBA franchises-Houston Rockets, Phoenix Suns, Sacramento Kings, Denver Nuggets, Chicago Bulls, Indiana Pacers and Minnesota Timberwolves-and the Guangdong Southern Tigers of the Chinese Basketball Association (CBA).

In 2010, Brooks was awarded NBA Most Improved Player as a member of the Bulls after averaging career-highs of 19.6 points and 5.3 assists and starting all 82 games he appeared in. He would go on to start 13 playoff games registering 16.8 points, 3.4 assists and 2.6 boards.

Brooks was drafted 26th overall during the 2007 NBA Draft by Houston following a decorated four-year collegiate career at Oregon. With the Ducks, he earned Pac-10 All-Freshman honors in 2007 and named an All-Pac-10 honorable mention as a sophomore.

Born on January 14, 1985, in Seattle, Wash., Brooks is a proud parent of MiKah, Khyllie, Khobi and Aaron Jr.

Yen Pham
Head Athletic Trainer

Prior to the start of the 2021-22 NBA G League season, Yen Pham was promoted to Head Athletic Trainer of the Westchester Knicks.

Pham has extensive experience working in physical therapy and athletic training. She most recently served as the Assistant Athletic Trainer & Equipment Manager for the Westchester Knicks and New York Liberty of the WNBA, where she worked from 2017-2021 and 2017-2019 respectively. Prior to those positions, Pham was a physical therapy aide for both JAG Physical Therapy and Professional Physical Therapy for parts of two years (2016-2017), where she assisted physical therapists with the implementation and development of rehab protocol with patients. As part of her career journey, Pham served as an intern for Evolution Physical Therapy, LLC. in 2014, where she helped implement rehab plans with patients.

Pham's resume includes substantial clinical experience with stops at: Ramapo Oral Maxillofacial Surgery Center (2017), Sleepy Hollows Physical Therapy (2016), Advanced Orthopedics & Sports Medicine (2015-2016), Monroe College (2015-2016), and Manhattan College (2014-2015). Besides for being a certified and licensed athletic trainer, Pham is also a certified Corrective Exercise Specialist, Functional Movement Techniques and Kinesiology Tape Specialist, expert in CPR, First Aid, Oxygen Administration, and BLS, and is a member of the National Athletic Trainer Association.

Pham has made stops in the College of Mount Saint Vincent and Dominican College where she studied Athletic Training.

Marc Drobenko
Equipment Manager and Athletic Trainer

Prior to the start of the 2021-22 G League season, Marc Drobenko was hired as an assistant athletic trainer with the Westchester Knicks. Drobenko has an extensive amount of experience working in clinical health care management within athletics. He most recently served as the Host Athletic Trainer for the 2021 NCAA Men's Lacrosse National Championship, where he served as the primary health care point person for the 8 participating university programs. Over the past year, he also served as an assistant athletic trainer at Fairfield University, where he served as the primary health care provider for the Men's Lacrosse program. Early on during the coronavirus pandemic, Drobenko started Movement with Marc, LLC., and provides private personal training and consulting in the New York & Connecticut area.

Drobenko has also been the performance director at ProMet Physical Therapy, P.C., where he was responsible for the construction and implementation of General Physical Preparedness programs for local PSAL & CHSAA High Schools within the Queens and Long Island communities. He was also the Director of Business Development and a fitness coach at Integrated Health Sciences in New York, where he was responsible for the continuing education for the Gotham Gym Personal Training Staff.

As part of his career journey, Drobenko served as Host Athletic Trainer for the Geico National Basketball Championships in New York, where he was responsible for the coordination and execution of health care delivery and player safety. Drobenko's resume includes substantial experience in college athletics, having been Assistant Athletic Trainer and Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer at Quinnipiac University. He has been held responsible for the health & wellness of the school's Baseball, Softball, Tennis, Golf, Women's Lacrosse, Cross Country, and Track & Field programs. He was also an Athletic Trainer at Stanford University for the school's football and synchronized swimming programs, and was a member of the 2016 Rose Bowl Championship team.

Drobenko is an alumnus of Quinnipiac University, where he holds a B.S. in Athletic Training and a M.B.A. in Health Care Administration. He is also a fully Licensed Athletic Trainer and a Certified Athletic Trainer in New York.

Charles Woessner
Manager, Basketball Operations

On October 4, 2021, Charles Woessner was promoted to Manager, Basketball Operations of the Westchester Knicks after serving as a Basketball Operations Associate for three seasons.

Woessner spent time as an Associate from 2018-21, developing and overseeing the implementation of Westchester's daily schedule which included practice, game, and medical treatment times and locations. In this capacity, he also assisted the coaching staff in various aspects of on-court player development like individual player workouts.

Frequently, Woessner represented the Westchester Knicks as a primary point of contact for players, staff, and NBA G League personnel as it pertained to operational inquiries. For visiting teams, he also coordinated their needs to make certain any practice, shoot-around, and equipment asks were met.

Woessner has been instrumental in fielding queries and concerns with the home arena ticket office to ensure all ticket needs are met for both home and visiting teams, front office, and scouting personnel. Additionally, Woessner has interfaced with team public relations and marketing on player recommendations and availability.

In wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, Woessner aided the franchise's relocation to the 2021 NBA G League single-site in facilitating travel, reinforcing COVID-19 protocols and team eligibility as well as on-site support as it pertained to meals, testing, practice availabilities, internal communication, and game day logistics.

Born November 19, 1993, in Natick, Mass., Woessner is a 2016 graduate of Fordham University.

Mike Hall
Manager, Player Development

Prior to the start of the 2021-22 G League season, Michael Hall was hired as the Manager of Player Development for the Westchester Knicks. As a former professional athlete himself, Hall has substantial worldwide experience both on and off the court throughout his career, and is well equipped for the position. Over the course of 14 years, Hall has made stops with the Washington Wizards, Tulsa 66ers of the NBA D League, and professional teams in Italy, Turkey, Spain, Israel, Venezuela, Argentina, and Greece. Over the past 5 seasons of his professional career in second division Italy I, Hall has assisted his team with scouting reports and game planning by providing detailed analysis and reports. He has also assisted the coaching staff by planning skill and conditioning programs for the team to enable players to reach maximum performance. He was also named Italian League A2 MVP twice (2017, 2018) in back-to-back seasons.

Hall's resume also includes being a volunteer scout for the Capital City Go-Go open tryouts, where he analyzed participants and assisted in the selection of potential roster additions. Hall was also involved in freelance scouting at the 2019 NBA Summer League in Las Vegas. Over the summer in 2016, Hall attended the NBPA Leadership Program during the summer league session, where he gained valuable insight and training into NBA front office positions. Hall was also the founder and director of the Future Stars Basketball, LLC, which aimed at providing basketball camp and training to low-income athletes. Hall managed, trained, and supervised all employees, while handling all marketing and advertising for the program as well.

Hall is an alumnus of The George Washington University, graduating in 2006 with a Bachelor of Science in Pre-Health Professional/Exercise Science. He was also the Team Captain of the GWU Basketball Team in the 2005-2006 season, and has been named to the Atlantic 10 All-Rookie Team, Atlantic 10 All-Tournament Team, All-Defensive Team, and Team MVP. In 2019, Hall was inducted into the GWU Athletics Hall of Fame.

Joshua Steward
Strength and Conditioning Coach

Prior to the start of the 2021-22 G League season, Joshua Steward was hired as strength and conditioning coach of the Westchester Knicks. Steward has substantial experience working in exercise science and strength and conditioning throughout his career. He most recently served as a strength and conditioning coach and basketball trainer at Panorama Orthopedics & Spine Center, where he led youth programming and development for middle school, high school, and college athletes. Steward has also been the director of player performance at Arapahoe High School, where he was head strength and conditioning coach and a varsity assistant coach for the boys' basketball program.

Steward's resume also includes stops at ThunderRidge High School and Evergreen High School, where he has held positions of head boys' basketball coach for 7th grade, head freshman boys' basketball coach, assistant varsity boys' basketball coach, and strength and conditioning coach. Steward has led countless try-outs, practices, and strength and conditioning workouts at all of his positions.

Steward is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), and an official Performance Enhancement Specialist (PES) from the National Academy of Sports Medicine (NASM).

Steward is an alumnus of Metropolitan State University of Denver, where he holds a Bachelor of Science in Exercise Science. Steward also has a Master of Science in Applied Exercise Science & Strength and Conditioning from Concordia University Chicago.

Joel Garcia
Video Coordinator

Prior to the start of the 2021 NBA G League single site condense season, Joel Garcia was hired as video coordinator of the Westchester Knicks. Garcia previously served as the Basketball Operations Assistant of the Capital City Go-Go, the official NBA G League affiliate of the Washington Wizards.

While in the nation's capital, Garcia worked closely with the coaching staff in recording specific statistics for in game adjustments and post-game review. He was also involved in on-court player development for both the Go-Go and Wizards and served as visiting team liaison for practice and shoot around set up and execution.

Garcia is also part of the WGL Management Staff at the NBA Summer League in Las Vegas where he provides operational support related to preparation and management of games, manages social media content and postings to increase league followers. In addition, he manages the distribution of stats between media, scouts, NBA General Managers, coaches, and TV personnel.

Along his journey, Garcia has staffed both the Nike Skills Academy and the Michael Jordan Flight School Camp. Garcia helped scout and monitor players, deal with merchandise and equipment, and worked closely with professional players and staff to ensure participant satisfaction. Garcia's resume also includes a stint interning with Nike in their New York showroom where he provided logistical support to employees, agencies, and clients.

Garcia is an alumnus of Washington and Jefferson College, where he starred as the starting point guard and captain of the men's basketball team.

FREE THROW EXPERIMENTAL RULE CHANGE
The NBA G League enforced an experimental rule change for the 2019-20 season regarding the number of free throws a player will attempt when he goes to the free-throw line.
Under the new experimental NBA G League rule, one free throw worth one, two or three points will be awarded in the event of any foul that would typically result in one, two or three free throws being shot under standard NBA rules. The experimental free throw rule will not apply during the last two minutes of the fourth quarter or the entirety of any overtime period.

WESTCHESTER KNICKS AND USA BASKETBALL

In May 2017, USA Basketball announced the formation of a six-member 2017-20 USA Basketball World Cup Qualification Committee, responsible for the selection of players who will comprise the 2017-20 USA Men's World Cup Qualification Teams. The committee is comprised of appointees by USA Basketball and the NBA G League, marking the first time NBA G League players would become a part of the USA roster pool.

PLAYER	DATE	COUNTRY/EVENT	FINISH
Xavier Rathan-Mayes	8/25-9/3/17	Canada/Americup	1-2
John Jenkins	11/28-12/1/18	USA/World Cup Qualifiers	1-1
Stephen Zimmerman	2/22-2/25/19	USA/World Cup Qualifiers	2-0
Ivan Rabb	2/14-2/22/20	USA/World Cup Qualifiers	2-0
Tyler Hall	11/23-11/28/20	USA/World Cup Qualifiers	2-0

John Jenkins

Member of the November 2018 USA Basketball Men's World Cup Qualifying Team that compiled a 1-1 record. Started in both games, averaged 23.5 minutes, 7.5 points and 2.5 rebounds a game. Shot 31.3% from the field, 28.6% from 3-point and made 3-of-3 free throws.

Stephen Zimmerman

Member of the February 2019 USA Men's World Cup Qualifying Team. Helped the USA to two victories, 111-80 over Panama and 84-83 over Argentina in Greensboro, N.C. Played in both games, averaged 13.0 minutes, 6.0 points and 3.0 rebounds a game. Shot a team-best 83.3 percent (5-6 FGs) from the field and 66.7 percent from the foul line.

Ivan Rabb

Helped lead the 2020 February USA AmeriCup Qualifying Team to a 2-0 record and a pair of wins over Puerto Rico in the first window of FIBA AmeriCup qualifying tournament. Played in two games, averaged 13.5 minutes, 2.0 points, 3.5 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.0 blocked shots a game.

Tyler Hall

Helped USA Basketball to a 2-0 record in the November 2020 FIBA AmeriCup Qualifying games. In a reserve role, Hall gifted the squad 15 points in 39 minutes spanned across the two contests.

In a 99-59 rout of the Bahamas on November 29, Hall had a 12-point display all reigning from behind the arc (4-for-6). Two helpers shy of a team-high, Hall dished four assists to go along with two rebounds in 25 minutes. USA shot 51.4-percent from the field and 41.4-percent from distance. Bahamas only sank 30.2-percent of its shots with a 24-percent clip from deep. Former Westchester Knicks, John Jenkins and Travis Trice, loaned 12 and 10 points, respectively.

The following day in a 94-78 triumph over Mexico, Hall recorded a triple and hauled a board on USA's behalf. Jenkins added 16 points in 26 minutes.
