THE CREST

Unveiled for the first time on Dec. 13, 2012, through a unique video featuring 16 members of Girls, Inc. of NW Oregon, the Portland Thorns FC crest is infused with several different elements of Rose City pride. Designed by artist and Timbers Army member Brent Diskin, the club's green, red and black color scheme is emphasized throughout the logo. In the center sits a stylized rose, emblematic of Portland's nickname, the Rose City. The red rose is shielded by a protective layer of thorns, the club's namesake. Enveloping it all is the team's name in bold white lettering. The design around the outer edges includes two four-pointed stars, also called hypocycloids, that house the letters "F" and "C" and anchor the sides of the badge. The stars are a call-out to the left-centered, directional star that is prominent on Portland's city flag, which flies high above Providence Park in downtown Portland. Resting atop the logo are two solitary five-pointed star, signifying the team's 2013 and 2017 National Women's Soccer League championships.
