BAKERSFIELD CONDORS EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

President Matthew Riley

Matthew Riley has been at the helm for all 22 years of the Bakersfield Condors. He is responsible for the growth and development of KG (US) Oilers Corp. and the Bakersfield Condors.

Riley has guided the team through dramatic advancements and projects, starting with moving the Bakersfield Fog into the then-named Centennial Garden in 1998, and including the absorption of the West Coast Hockey League into the ECHL, the 2014 purchase of the Condors by the Edmonton Oilers, the team's elevation to the American Hockey League (AHL) in 2015-16 and the Three-Way Chevrolet Condorstown Winterfest on the turf at Bakersfield College's Memorial Stadium in 2016-17.

Riley took charge of the Condors in July of 1998, and in his first season at the helm, the Condors were named the West Coast Hockey League Organization of the Year. In 2001, his title was expanded to include President. During the summer of 2002, Riley was named the Acting Commissioner of the West Coast Hockey League, and he served on the ECHL Board of Governors Executive Committee.

He was the second 2-time winner of the ECHL Executive of the Year (2006-07, 2013-14) Award and was runner-up on several occasions. He captured the WCHL Executive of the Year during his second season in 1999-2000, and the Condors have won 27 league awards for their business operations under his leadership.

The Keokuk, Iowa, native previously served as the Executive Director of the Mobile (AL) BayBears Baseball Club, the class-AA Southern League affiliate of the San Diego Padres, and was integral in the construction of Hank Aaron Stadium, their home park. During their inaugural season in 1997, the BayBears led the Southern League in attendance. He also served as General Manager with the Mobile BaySharks Baseball Club, Assistant General Manager of the Chattanooga (TN) Lookouts (Southern League) and interned for the St. Louis Cardinals Baseball Club. Riley is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan University with a degree in communications. He earned a master's degree in sport management from the United States Sports Academy in Daphne, Alabama.

Riley serves on the Board of Directors for the Condors Community Foundation, and is very active with youth sports in Bakersfield, where he organized the adoption of the Junior Condors name for Bakersfield's existing youth hockey program. He and his wife, Teri, reside in Bakersfield with their son, Landon.

BAKERSFIELD CONDORS COACHING STAFF

Head Coach Jay Woodcroft

Woodcroft was named the second head coach in Condors AHL history on April 27, 2018. He received an extension through 2022.

In his first season (2018-19) behind the bench in Bakersfield, Woodcroft led the team to its first-ever AHL Pacific Division title, regular season Western Conference title, AHL Calder Cup Playoffs berth, and Calder Cup Playoffs series victory. The team's 42 wins were the most-ever for the Condors organization. During the season, the team won 17 consecutive games, all in regulation or overtime, tied for the second longest streak in AHL history. Five Condors made their NHL debuts in 2018-19 with Edmonton.

The Toronto native spent 13 seasons in the NHL coaching ranks, including three in Edmonton and seven in San Jose. Prior to joining San Jose, Woodcroft spent three seasons on the Detroit Red Wings coaching staff from 2005-08, including their 2008 Stanley Cup Championship season. Internationally, Woodcroft won a gold medal with Team Canada at the 2015 Men's World Championships.

Woodcroft has been a part of 428 regular season wins, five Western Conference titles, six Division titles, three Presidents' Trophies and a Stanley Cup championship.

Woodcroft entered the NHL coaching ranks following a six-year minor league playing career. He spent the 2004-05 season in Germany playing for the Stuttgart Wizards and he also spent time with the Corpus Christi Rayz (CHL), Flint Generals (UHL), Anchorage Aces (WCHL - where he played against Bakersfield), Missouri River Otters (UHL) and Jackson Bandits (ECHL).

Assistant Coach Jean-Francois (JF) Houle

Jean-Francois Houle enters his sixth year in Bakersfield after serving as an assistant coach for the team's first four seasons in the AHL, and head coach in 2014-15, the team's final ECHL season. In 2018-19, he helped the Condors to league's top offense in goals per game, the seventh best PP in the AHL, and two of the top scoring rookies in the AHL in Tyler Benson (2nd) and Cooper Marody (3rd).

He spent the prior four-plus seasons as a head coach in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League (QMJHL) with both Lewiston and Blainville-Boisbriand. In 305 regular season games, the Quebec City native compiled a record of 174-101-12-18, good for a .617 point percentage. That record includes four consecutive 40-win seasons.

As a player, Houle was drafted by the Montreal Canadiens in the fourth round (#99 overall) of the 1993 National Hockey League (NHL) Entry Draft. He played four seasons at Clarkson University, where he earned a degree in business administration. He played five pro seasons, split between the AHL and the ECHL. He was a teammate in Fredericton of Gerry Fleming, and played under him in both Fredericton and Tallahassee of the ECHL.

Assistant Coach Dave Manson

Dave Manson was announced as an assistant coach with the Condors on June 4, 2018. Under his tutelage, D Caleb Jones made his NHL debut in 2018-19 and the Condors finished fourth in goals against per game in the AHL.

Manson worked with the Prince Albert Raiders of the Western Hockey League (WHL) from 2011-18 as both an assistant and associate coach. It was his second stint with the Raiders after being an assistant coach with the team from 2002-09. During his most recent time with the Raiders he helped develop first-round NHL selections C Leon Draisaitl (#3, EDM, 2014), D Josh Morrissey (#13, WPG, 2013), and C Mark McNeill (#18, CHI, 2011).

As a player, the Prince Albert, Saskatchewan native played 1,103 NHL games for Chicago, Edmonton, Winnipeg, Phoenix, Montreal, Dallas, and Toronto. The d-man notched 390 points (102g-288a) and 2,792 penalty minutes over his 16-year NHL career. His penalty minutes total is 13th most all-time in NHL history. He was drafted in the 1st round, 11th overall of the 1985 NHL Draft by the Chicago Blackhawks. His son Josh is a d-man with the Anaheim Ducks.

Goaltending Coach Sylvain Rodrigue

Sylvain Rodrigue enters his sixth season in the Oilers and second full-time in Bakersfield. His work in 2018-19 included rookie goaltender Shane Starrett being named AHL Goaltender of Month (Feb.) and to the All-Rookie and Second All-Star Teams.

Rodrigue served as a Goaltending Consultant for the DEL's Berlin Eisbären, a member of Germany's top elite league and Fribourg Gotteron of the Swiss Elite League prior to joining the Oilers. He won the DEL championship with Berlin in 2010-11, 2011-12 and 2012-13. He was also a member of Berlin's European trophy championship team in 2010-11.

The Montreal, Quebec native has also worked with HC Lugano (LNA – Swiss Elite League), AIK (Swedish Elite League) and Dusseldorf (DEL – German Elite League) since 2009-10.

Before heading to Europe, Rodrigue worked with the Chicoutimi Saguenéens of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League from 2003-2009 and was also a goaltending instructor at Hockey Canada's Program of Excellence Goaltending Camp in 2009.

Marty Raymond joined the team in 2001-02 as an associate coach, and assumed head coaching duties in 2003-04. He went on to coach over 500 games and win 265 games. He never missed the post-season in his seven full seasons at the helm.

Troy Mann had one successful season in Condorstown, taking the team to the Western Conference Finals in 2013-14. He earned a head coaching position in the AHL with Hershey the following season. Mann also played for the Condors briefly in 2000-01.
